May 4, 1962 OPINION and ORDER filed.

O P I N I O N:

By virtue of the death of Norman B. Greene, husband of the Administratrix, plaintiff, in a flash fire occurring in the gas station of the defendant, Woodrow B. Graffius, in the Borough of Clearfield, on the 2nd day of July 1960, an action for wrongful death, and for what is known as survival action, was brought.

The Complaint further alleges that the gas station in which the flash fire occurred, was owned by the Independent Oil Company, and operated by Woodrow B. Graffius, the other defendant, as the agent, servant, and employe of the Oil Company.

The Independent Oil Company answered the Complaint, and filed New Matter, setting forth that the Independent Oil Company was the lessor of the premises in which the gas station is located, indicating that the Independent Oil Company had leased the gas station and its facilities to Graffius. In addition to this lease, in regular form, indicating a landlord and tenant relationship, a sales agreement was entered into between the Independent Oil Company and Graffius.

The defendant Oil Company alleges the sales agreement constitutes Woodrow B. Graffius an independent contractor.

Following the pleading containing New Matter, the two defendants then added Gordon K. Reeves, Administrator of the Estate of Woodrow B. Graffius, Jr., as additional defendant.

In connection with this fire, Gordon K. Reeves, Administrator of the Estate of Woodrow B. Graffius, Jr., who lost his life in the same fire with Norman B. Greene, brought an action against the Independent Oil Company and Woodrow B. Graffius, Sr., in which the same pleadings, New Matter and Answer thereto, were filed.

Following the close of the pleadings, the Independent Oil Company has made a motion for judgment on the pleadings, in so far as the Independent Oil Company is concerned as a party defendant to the action.

At the present stage of the pleadings and the record, a judgment on the pleadings in favor of the Independent Oil Company, will be premature. The sales contract may constitute Graffius an independent contractor. On the other hand, it may appear that he is an agent of the Oil Company defendant. Whether or not the agency exists, is also a matter to be determined from the evidence produced at the time of trial.

In addition thereto, there is an allegation that the Independent Oil Company leased defective equipment, which it is alleged was the basis of the flash fire. This situation needs further elucidation, by additional evidence on behalf of the parties.

It is a well established rule that so long as there remains any dispute of fact, judgment on the pleadings is not in order. Therefore, the present motion for judgment on the pleadings is refused. Exception noted.

O R D E R: NOW, May 4, 1962, motion for judgment on the pleadings refused, exception noted. BY THE COURT, John J. Pentz, President Judge.

DECEMBER 13, 1967, PETITION, filed by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope.

That your petitioner is the father of three boys, Keith, born September 6, 1949, Michael, born April 6, 1951 and Garry, born October 3, 1952.

That an action and divorce was filed by your petitioner in Clearfield County against his wife on grounds of indignities and adultry. His wife was represented by counsel but a decree of divorce was filed in Clearfield County, 97 February Term, 1955.

That then a proceeding for non support was filed in the court of quarter sessions, number 12, April sessions 1954 in which order for support for the children was made.

That the petitioner's first wife has now remarried and is known as Jean Miller. Said marriage had taken place in 1960.

That your petitioner remarried Joan E. Pratz.

That his former wife originally had custody of the children but in March, 1961 your petitioner was advised that his wife was unable to take care of the children. He came to Clearfield County and found his wife was in the state clinic at Ridgeway, and she had taken the children to Crawford County.

That the three boys remained in the Crawford County Court until 1961. Two failed in their school work. Being advised that the former wife and her husband were not living together and other facts which indicated that home was not best for the children, your petitioner filed a petition in the Court of common pleas in Clearfield County in 599 May term, 1961. The Clearfield County Court turned over to your petitioner the three children temporarily. One September 12, 1961, after full hearing, the children were turned over to your petitioner.

That since that time your petitioner has had custody of said children except for visits to the mother.

He came to Elk County, Pennsylvania to owrk for the Speer Carbon Company had has recently purchased an eight room house in the boro of Ridgeway. By afreement, he agreed with his wife that she could keep the children while he was moving and got a home in Elk County. He called his wife on December 7 and said that he wanted to come and get the children. She called back and said he couldn't have them at all

That the wife is living with her mother in Woodland R.D. Her husband is overseas and has never established a home. It is best if the children get an education and a permanent home. Therefore, your petitioner requests an order be made directing for rule to be issued on Jean Miller, mother of said boys, and held in contempt of court in said order. /s/ F. Cortez Bell, Bell, Silberblatt and Swoope.

ORDER:

NOW, December 13, 1967, rule to show cause why Jean Rose Miller should not be declared in contempt of the order of this court of September 12, 1961 and why said children should not be surrendered to her former husband as provided in said order. ORDER OF COURT: September 5, 1961, Hearing on the above Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, as to Kevin Lynn Truhlik, to be heard on the 23rd day of Sept. 1961 at 9:30 a.m. By the Court, John J. So answers, Charles G. Ammerman, Sheriff. SEPTEMBER 23, 1961, ORDER FILED: NOW, September 23, 1961, after hearing on the petition for custody of the child known as Kevin Lynn Truhlik considering the testimony taken, considering the previous investigations reports and findings concerning the mother, Gloria Truhlik, and considering the child has been in the custody, control, and direction of the Child Welfare Services of the County Institutional District, such custody and control will continue, and the child be under the supervision and direction of the Child Welfare Services, and continue until Order. The Support Order heretofore made, to be carried out. It appears to the Court further, that the petitioner having seen the child but twice, and having denied paternity, has brought this petition for custody, possibly to enable himself to obtain relief from the Court Order. No change will be made for the present at least. The child is not yet old enough to understand the moral situation. If this condition of immorality continues, further change will haveto be made later on, as the child gets older and has a little more understanding. The child will be under the sole supervision of the Child Welfare Services for the present. By the Court, John J. Pentz, P.J. October 31, 1961, ORDER OF COURT, filed: NOW, October 31, 1961, it is ordered and directed that Kevin Lynn Truhlik shall be delivered to the custody of his father, Joseph Truhlik, and his present wife for the purof being taken to their home in Warren, Pennsylvania, for a period of time which shall end Saturday, November 25, 1961; the Order of September 23, 1961, is, therefore, amended to permit the temporary custody of said child by his father and present wife, said child not to be removed from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to be returned to the custody of his mother on the Saturday following Thanksgiving namely, November 25, 1961; the child to continue under the supervision of the Clearfield County Welfare Service until final Order by the Court. 	Atty. 3.00	November 1, 1961, Motion to Quash, filed by Clarence R. Kramer, Attorney for the Commonwealth.
	Pro. 1.00
	Transcript of Testimony 12.60	ORDER: NOW, November 15, 1961, the above appeal having been filed October 5, 1961 from suspension of license issued July 12, 1961, came on for hearing. Commonwealth filed a motion to quash the appeal because more than thirty days had elapsed from date of suspension to date of appeal. Upon request of appellant, Paul Dugan, and to afford the parties time for further investigation, the case continued for a period of thirty days. Defendant permitted to amend his appeal in the meantime if he so desires. By the Court, John J. Pentz, President Judge.
		NOW, May 3, 1962, the Motion to Quash Appeal filed in the above matter refused. Exception noted.
		The defendant filed his appeal within the proper time; but through error of counsel who he had engaged for advice and guidance, took the appeal in the wrong Court.
		Defendant shall not be penalized because of the errors of Counsel. Hearing to be fixed at the earliest date agreeable, mutaally, between counsel. By the Court, John J. Pentz, President Judge.
		JULY 16, 1962, ORDER filed. O R D E R: NOW, July 16, 1962, the facts found are:
		1. That the accident in which Mr. Dugan was involved, occurring on the 24th day of November 1960, was caused by the operator of the tractor-trailer, and without negligence on the part of Mr. Dugan.
		2. Within thirty days from the time the suspension of his license was effected by the Secretary of Revenue, Mr. Dugan, through his counsel in Pittsburgh, filed an appeal in Allegheny County.
		3. Subsequently, it was discovered by counsel in Pittsburgh, that the appeal had been filed in the wrong Court, and should have been in Clearfield County instead of Alleghney County.
		4. The Alleghney County Court continued the case, pending the filing of the appeal in the County of Clearfield.
		For these reasons, this appeal has been allowed; and there having been shown no negligence, fault, or defect, on the part of Paul Dugan at the time of the accident, the suspension is reversed and set aside. Petitioner, Paul Dugan, to pay the costs. BY THE COURT, John J. Pentz, President Judge.

Baird and McCamley	Pro. By Atty 5.00 Atty. 3.00 Shff. by Atty. 12.70 Pro. 2.50 Pro. 2.50 Pro. 3.50 29.20	JULY 7, 1962, OPINION, filed: This is an appeal from ruling of the Workmen's Compensation Board of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, affirming the finding of the Referee that Emery Gurbal, Jr., the claimant, suffered a perforated gastric ulcer, from a blow in the stomach, while carrying on his duties as an employe of the defendant corporation; the Referee finding that the claimant suffered as result of an accidental injury, while in the course of his employment. The second Conclusion of Law of the Referee was that the injuries resulting from the accident, did violence to the physical structure of the body within the contemplation of Section 301, Article III of the Workmen's Compensation Act, while he was in the course of his employment and actually engaged in furthering the interests or affairs of his employer. Accordingly, compensation was awarded. From this Finding of Fact and legal conclusion, the defendant's insurance carrier took an appeal to the Compensation Board, and the Board affirmed the findings of the Referee. In the discussion of the affirmance of the Referee's finding, the Board, in its Opinion, discussed at some length the testimony of the Doctor who testified in behalf of the claimant, and finally concluded that the instant case was very closely analogous to GASPAROVICH VS. FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF CLEVELAND, 194 Superior Court 135. Upon examination of that case and the record in the instant case, it can not be said that the acts of the Compensation Board were without substantive, competent evidence to sustain that finding; nor was there any capricious disregard of the evidence; the inferences from those findings being reasonable and logical. In accordance with the ruling of ANETAKIS VS. SALVATION ARMY, 191 Pa. Superior 268, and DOWNING VS. LEECHBURG MINING COMPANY, 195 Pa. Superior 171, the appeal from the findings of the Workmen's Compensation Board is dismissed. Dated: July 6, 1962. BY THE COURT, John J. Pentz, President Judge.

OCTOBER 24, 1961, SUMMONS IN TRESPASS Issued to the Sheriff.

November 13, 1961, On praecipe filed, Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, Attorneys, enter their appearance for the Defendant.

December 21, 1961, Petition for Rule filed by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, Attorneys.

ORDER: AND NOW, this 21st day of December, 1961, upon consideration of the foregoing petition and affidavit, and on motion of Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, by Paul Silberblatt, Esquire, the Court grants a Rule on the Defendant Orloff F. Lake, to show cause why the appearance of Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, by Paul Silberblatt for the Defendant, should not be withdrawn. Notice of this Petition shall be sent to the Defendant by certified mail.

Rule returnable, the 15th day of Jan, 1962, at 10:00 A.M. All proceedings to stay meanwhile. By the Court, John J. Pentz, P.J.

December 21, 1961, One copy of Petition and Rule certified to Paul Silberblatt, Attorney.

January 20, 1962, Defendants Answer filed by Joseph J. Lee, Attorney.

And Now, January 15, 1962, Service accepted. Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, Attorneys, by Paul Silberblatt

January 30, 1962MOTHION OF COUNSEL TO WITHDRAW-Filed

The Above Action of trespass was instituted by praecipe filed October 23, 1961, directing issuance of summons in trespass. No return of service has been made, but it was stated verbally the summons had been served on defendant shortly before an appearance was entered by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope for defendant, on November 13, 1961.

In accordance with Rule of Court of Clearfield County No. 5, Section 4 thereof, Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope presented a petition on December 21, 1961 for rule to show cause why they should not be allowed to withdraw as counsel for defendant. Defendant, by other counsel, filed answer to the petition, and argument thereon was held Jan, 25, 1962

No complaint has been filed, and in the answer to the petition, the defendant attaches copy of letter from his insurance carrier advising that the insurance carrier will not accept liability for, or to defendant, and that he should prepare to defend himself without any aid from the insurance company.

The defendant insisted upon the taking of testimony so that the record shall reveal the reason the insurance carrier denies its liability to protect the defendant against damages and the expenses of defending the law suit.

The purpose of the Court Rule is to prevent counsel withdrawing from any action just before the matter comes to issue, and thus possibly cause the party he represents serious damage, delay or other injury.

In the instant case, the matter is not yet at issue, and will not be until complaint has been filed, and there is no rule of law which will compel counsel to remain on record and to continue to represent any person, counsel may not desire to represent. So long as the party is given sufficient time to engage other counsel, and to properly prepare his case, there is no reason why the attorney of record may not withdraw.

In KELLY VS. KASS, 154 Pa. Superior Ct. 267, the Superior Court passed upon precisely the same question involved here, and under very similar circumstances.

Accordingly the Rule is made absolute, and Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope may withdraw as attorneys for the defendant in the civil action.

Exception noted. BY THE COURT, John J. Pentz, P.J.

February 2, 1962, Sheriff's Return filed:
Now, October 30, 1961, I hereby deputize the Sheriff of Cumberland County to serve this summons.
