To The Honorable Judges of Quarter Sessions Court of Clearfield County Pa.

The petition of Archibald Shaw of Bradford Township said County, respectfully represents that a road from or near Mark Wilson's place to or near petitioner's place in said Township hath within a year been laid out and partly opened, and petitioner hath suffered very great damage by the road aforesaid passing through his farm, which damages are not compensated by the report of viewers in said case.

Your petitioner therefore prays the Court to appoint suitable persons to view the premises and report to him such damages as he has in that respect sustained and he will ever pray &c.
