MARCH 7, 1966, OPINION OF JOHN A. CHERRY, President Judge, filed.

On the trial of the above cause, and upon conclusion of plaintiff's testimony as to negligence, the Court entered acompulsory nonsuit upon motion of the defendant. Thereafter, upon argument had, the Court denied plaintiff's motion to remove nonsuit and grant new trial. Plaintiff has now appealed from this Order of the Court entered December 29, 1965.

Recognizing that nonwuit can be entered only in clear cases, and that a plaintiff must be given the benefit of all evidence in his favor, and all reasonable inferences therefrom (STINAC VS. BARKEY, 405 Pa. 253, 174 A. 2d 868; CASTELLI VS. PITTSBURGH RAILWAYS CO., 402 Pa. 135, 165 A. 2d 632) ; and also that no nonsuit should be entered except in clear cases (CASTELLI VS. PITTSBURGH RAILWAYS CO.; 402 Pa. 135, 165 A. 2d 632); a full examination of the record in this case sus ains the Court's determination, first, to enter the nonsuit, and second, to deny motion for its removal and grant the new trial.

The plaintiff having had the burden of proof, failed to establish by a clear preponderance of the evidence, negligence in the defendant and that negligence of the defendant was the proximate cause of his injuries. The Court is of the opinion that to have submitted the case to the jury would have required findings as to negligence and non-contributory negligence solely on speculation or guess. A full analyses and examination of the testimony, in the light of the foregoing rules, establishes the following facts:

The plaintiff, forty-four years of age, and rented several rooms from the defendant since 1955; and in October of 1959, had entered into a new lease which included the rooms under earlier rental and also an additional room adjoining. Under the prior and later lease, it was the defendant's obligation to supply all heat, light and water for the plaintiff's premises. The building being occupied by others, there was a central heating plant wholly controlled by the defendant, and situate in the basement of the building. The heating system was a one line steam system with steam-radiators in the rooms. Several weeks after the plaintiff had occupied the additional space so rented to hem. he entered the room at the request of his secretary who complained about the lack of heat. Upon touching the rediator and the vent which controlled the release of air, he found it to be cold to the touch; and that the air vent was in a horizontal rather than a vertical and proper position. In order to release the air and allow the steam to permeate throught the radiator, he attempted to turn the air vent; first with one hand, and finding that he could not so turn it, then with both hands. The air vent or valve came off, steam was released, and the plaintiff suffered third degree burns to his hands as a result. Plaintiff's testimony established that at any time that they had ever had to complain about heat or any other utility matters, the landlord-defendant had always taken care of the matters. In fact, his testimony was to the effect that that was the arrangement at all times. In this instance, however, he testified that he did not call the landlord because he thought it to be a simple matter to take care of; even though he knew that live steam was very dangerous; and even though he also stated that he had replaced air vents of the same nature in many other radiators (not connected with this building). Plaintiff declared further that he did not turn off the valve controlling the entry of steam into the particular radiator in question, before proceeding to attempt to turn the air vent. Although the threads of the air vent appeared to have been stripped, it was not known how long this condition existed. In substance, the foregoing is the full effect of the plaintiff's testimony or negligence and contributory negligence.

First, although there is a suspicion that the radiator was not in good condition; there was no testimony to even indicate that the landlord knew or should have known of this condition; and thus, it was determined that there was no definite proof of negligence on the part of the landlord. Furthermore, the plaintiff's own acts were the proximate cause of the injuries which he sustained. Knowing the full effects of steam; and recognizing that he was unable to turn the air vent with one hand, he proceeded to apply extra pressure with both hands to turn the vent. There can be no doubt of the contributory negligence under these circumstances; and that that negligence of the plaintiff was the proximste cause of the injuries suffered by this plaintiff. Even though the sympathy of a Court and jury is for an individual who suffers such burns as were received by this plaintiff, they can not be a substitute for the proof necessary to establish his cause of action. This case was clearly a case in which the mere happening of the accident was not sufficient to sustain liability; since it does not establish negligence, raise a presumption of negligence, nor even make out a prima facie case of negligence, Further, as already indicated, the plaintiff did not do what an ordinary prudent man would have done under the same or similar circumstances seek the aid of the landlord, or at least of one fully acquainted with and competent to correct the condition then existing in the radiator. Dated: March 7, 1966. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

December 7, 1961, On praecipe filed, Gleason, Cherry & Cherry, Attorneys, enter their appearance for the Defendant. JULY 7, 1962, OPINION, filed: This is an appeal from the action of the Workmen's Compensation Board, reversing the Referee, who found, in effect, claimant had suffered an injury as result of an accident sustained by the claimant, while in the course of his employment, aggravating his pre-existing osteo arthritis, bringing about a total disability from May 10th to August 10, 1960; and that the injuries resulting from this accident were of such violence to the physical structure of the body as contemplated by Section 301, Article III, of the Workmen's Compensation Act; and, therefore, the claimant was entitled to compensation for his total disability, for thirteen and one-seventh weeks; but disallowed hospital and doctor bills paid by the Blue Cross and Blue Shield. On Appeal from the Finding of Fact and Conclusion of Law that claimant was entitled to compensation, the Board set aside the findings of fact and conclusions of law, in that the claimant was injured accidentally, in the regular course of his employment, and directed that the claim be disallowed. The claimant testified that on the day he received his injuries, he was lifting, or pulling, a window frame, while standing on a ladder, and his foot slipped, causing the wrenching or twisting of his back, resulting in severe pain and requiring him to go to a hopsital the next day and undergo traction and other hospital treatment, being totally disabled from May 10th to August 10, 1960. There was evidence that claimant at first stated he was not feeling well and was going home; a claim made to an accident and health insurance carrier, in which nothing was set forth about any injury received while at work; and not until claimant visited the doctor, did he give to the doctor a history of having slipped and twisted his back while lifting a heavy window frame. The Board based its reversal of the Referee in that they did not find the evidence submitted by the plaintiff, even including his statement of how his foot slipped on the ladder when he was trying to lift a heavy window frame, and thereby wrenched his back, sufficient to establish that he suffered an accidental injury in the course of his employment. The general policy of the Workmen's Compensation Law has been at all times to give to the claimant the benefit of any doubt, in evaluating the evidence and the inferences to be taken therefrom. This the Board refused to do when it overruled and set aside the Referee's finding. In evaluating the evidence submitted, not only of the claimant but that of his doctor, an expert, the decision of the Compensation Board, being against the party having the burden of proof, the question for review is whether the Compensation Board's findings of fact are consistent with each other, and the conclusions of law, and do not disclose a capricious disregard of the competent evidence. Up to the point of review by the Compensation Board, the evidence giving to the claimant the benefit of all doubts, considering his inability to read and write the English language, or to speak it very clearly, supports the finding of the Referee that he received accidental and compesable injury; and setting that aside, by the Board, is a disregard of the evidence and weight it is to receive, not only from the Referee but from the Board, when produced by a claimant under the circumstances and conditions of the claimant in the instant case. This is a case closely analogous to the facts in GASPAROVICH VS. FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF CLEVELAND, 194 Superior Court 135. In this case, however, the Compensation Board affirmed the findings of the Referee; and the Superior Court again reiterates, in affirming the findings of the Compensation Board, that "The Court must, on appeal, view the evidence in the light most favorable to the prevailing party, giving him the benefit of every inference which can be logically and reasonably drawn." In the instant case, the prevailing party is considered to be the claimant, with his favorable award by the Referee. The award by the Referee of the hospital and doctor bills, to be paid the claimant direct, which were paid by Blue Cross and Blue Shield, allowed by the Referee and refused by the Board, is not collectible by the claimant. In any action for damage sustained, outside the Workmen's Compensation Law, the injured party recovers all the medical, surgical and hospital expenses to which he has been put, without being required to give credit for those expenses covered by insurance. In the instant case, the claimant has his hospital and doctor expenses payable by the employer, and he is entitled to have them paid up to a limited amount. (In the instant case that limit was not exceeded.) The fact that some agency other than the employer paid the expenses, we do not think entitles the claimant to recover that amount. Under the Workmen's Compensation Law, so long as the hospital, medical and surgical expenses, to the required amount, are paid, the claimant has no right to recover therefore; nor does the Workmen's Compensation Act in any way provide that claimants shall be reimbursed for such expenses that are paid by Blue Cross or Blue Shield; nor does the fact that payment of the costs of Blue Cross and Blue Shield were one of the fringe benefits, subrogation for which reimbursement is provided by Section 317 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, and the fact that the Blue Cross or Blue Shield did not ask for subrogation, does not entitle the claimant to demand it. The Board's reversal of the Referee's conclusion of law that claimant suffered compensable injury on May 10, 1960, which continued as a total disability until August 9, 1960, a period of thirteen and one-seventh weeks, totaling $558.57, is set aside, and the award of the Referee in that amount and for that time, will be affirmed. The reversal of the award (CONTINUED ON PAGE 140)

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

Mr. Kramer, I want to join with Carl Belin in what he says about "Pete" Chase's friendship, his kindliness, and I want to say further, as I learned to know "Pete" after I got on the Bench, of his character as a lawyer. He was a very effective and very adroit and very able criminal lawyer. Although if "Pete" was convinced of his client's guilt, he insisted on the client entering a plea. He was thoroughly honest both with his client, with himself and with the Court. If he felt his client was innocent he would fight to the bitter end, and fron then on never would he give us the idea that his client was innocent even though the jury may have found him guilty.

I found not only was "Pete" a true friend, but he could be relied upon as a lawyer in his relations with the Court, and when he defended a case I knew he felt in his heart the man was innocent, and he took a good many cases that appeared to be hopeless, and did demonstrate to the jury the innocence of that person. Most lawyers come on the scene, they do their work, they finish the end of their cours, and outside, beyond the heart of their family and a few of the men associated with him memory seems to be lost, particularly of lawyers. The only record is that appearing in the Prothonotary's Office of these Memorial meetings, and the man "Pete" Chase, who lived more in the hearts of his contemporaries, as well as his family, the record will never be complete, even though we do say here those things we feel and think about him. For that reason there will be some measure of recognition of his character and achievement in this meeting and these remarks will be put on record.

I can join with Mr. Belin in expressing now the regret, not only of the loss of a good friend, and an enjoyable person, but also of a member of the Bar who did those things that make this Clearfield County Bar an outstanding Bar, and a man whom the Court could rely upon and who lived up, in every sense of the word, to his obligation of the professional honor not only in the home but in the Court and with the Courts, and may I express my regret and sorrow of the passing of a good friend and a good lawyer.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you, Judge Pentz. Are there any further words?

BY MR. SILBERBLATT:

I had occasion to know "Pete" pretty well from the time he started to practice law. I have had business with him, and I want to say frankly he was always a man of his word. If "Pete" told you something you didn't need to write it down. He kept his word. He also had a high sense of justice and a kind heart. I know many things he did for people as favors; he helped them, he never said a word about it. This Bar has lost a very outstanding member, a fine gentlemen, a man true to his profession and a man of great integrity, and I know we will all miss "Pete" Chase.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Any further remarks? Mr. Reilly.

BY MR. REILLY:

I had occasion to work with "Pete" for five months, but I would like to say I think they are the most valuable of my career so far and I can't imagine a finer man to work for.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you. Anything further? Mr. Scollins.

BY MR. SCOLLINS:

I heard Judge Bell refer to William Asbury Chase, admitted here in 1884. William Asbury Chase, his great uncle, began to practice law in Houtzdale. The family residence was on Good Street, a commodious little house with an iron fence around it. His office was on Good Street, the second floor of the building now occupied by Ronan Dimagio's Shoe Shop. He was there and practiced law with George G. Zeigler who was also a member of this Bar and practiced in Houtzdale, followed by Irwin Shaw, and Mr. Chase moved to Clearfield. Irwin Shaw was predecessor of Honorable Harry Boulton.

As you go through the records of Clearfield County Houtzdale is a part of Woodward Township. The Chase homestead is a large brick house erected in Clearfield County along Clearfield Creek. Following the departure of Mr. Shaw his office was taken over by Mr. Boulton who lived there in Houtzdale until about 1918 when he moved to Clearfield. As I was going to say, Houtzdale was originally founded by Mr. Daniel Houtz of Huntingdon County. As you go over the records you will find the original deeds were prepared by the Honorable W. Asbury Chase. The record is there in black and white, as also the record of Brother Bill Chase. Our errors, defects and victories are described in the Courts of Clearfield County. We are different from the medical professions, their errors are buried, but ours, as well as our successes are a matter of record here for future generations. I have known the Chase family from the time they sold the homestead in Houtzdale in 1903 when I became acquainted with his grandfather. From 1903 to 1961 we have always maintained a close friendship, and as has been said here that was true heartfelt, and it gives me pleasure and honor to second the adoption of the resolutions.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Thank you, Mr. Scollins. Any further remarks from any member of the Bar?

BY MR. KRAMER:

Your Honor, Members of the Family, I wish to add to the remarks that have been made and to the Resolutions prepared.

I am impressed with the different approaches of the attorneys and the light in which they have seen the decedent and his splendid qualities of character, his personality. The fine thing about a memorial of this kind is that it gives us an opportunity, not only as Judge Pentz has stated, to pay our final respects, but it gives each one a chance to express their sentiment toward the personality of the man who has departed, and I have a somewhat different approach to those.

He was born in Clearfield, as the memorial states, and from a very early age lived on Nichols Street, within two blocks of where I reside. He continued to reside there until he had grown up. We were different ages and I knew of him, and he likely knew of me, but we had no contacts.

For thirty-one years he practiced law in this Court Room. He stepped into an established practice at the start, and took root in his profession promptly, having an extensive clientele from that time on. As it happens in these smaller communities it is our clients that determine what type of practice we shall have and what kind of lawyer we shall be. Clients tend to classify or catalogue us into some category or other; in his case they determined he should be a trial lawyer. And such he promptly became, and throughout his career continued to be. He was competent and skillful and won a substantial proportion of his cases. He became especially known for criminal work, as a defender, but engated in damage litigation and in other types of cases as well. In that difficult phase of trial work, cross-examination, I regarded him as quite skillful. It seemed to me he well knew when not to cross-examine and thereby avoid that maximum risk of getting an answer that can be severely damaging to the case on trial.

In addition to being a graduate of a liberal arts college and of a recognized law school, he had another special qualification - a practical knowledge of men. This knowledge, gained from day to day contacts was of great advantage to him and of benefit to his clients. It helped him in the picking of juries, examining witnesses and winning cases. It also helped him in advising and counselling clients. He required less time in performing his office work than others. Some lawyers have to, or think they have to, spend long hours at their work to accomplish their responsibilities. But he by observing shorter hours found considerable time for outside contacts.

He led a busy life but yet was not as active in general community affairs as others, nor was he especially active in our association; yet he was friendly, gracious and courteous to us all. He was interested in politics - participated therein. He was active in the lodges and fraternal organizations to which he belonged. Beyond this, it seemed to me his purpose was to give that portion of his time devoted to daily effort to his profession and leave to others much of the vast area of community affairs that so often consumes the time of the busy lawyer. He was devoted to his family and proud of them, as well he might be. His daughter, Emily, was a newspaper writer and columnist of more than ordinary ability before she assumed the greatest of all roles for women - home making. His son graduated from West Point Military Academy and has now taken his place as an officer in the Armed Forces. In this, the son has followed in the footsteps of his distinguished maternal grandfather, who not only graduated from West Point but served in France with distinction in World War I and later as Adjutant General of Pennsylvania under the Administration of Governor George H. Earle.

The marriage of William C. Chase and Julia Kerr in 1934 united members of two distinguished local families of opposite political beliefs. James Kerr, Mrs. Chase's paternal grandfather had served a term in Congress as a Democratic representative from this district. He was later Secretary of the House of Representatives in Washington, and still later Prothonotary of this County. Mrs. Chase's great-grandfather, William Bigler, was successively Governor of the Commonwealth and United States Senator, elected to both offices as a Democrat.

The Chases have always been ardent Republicans and their achievements are known and I need not her recount them. As the memorial resolutions point out, seven members of the family have been lawyers in this County. Two of them being brothers, William Asbury Chase and Benjamin F. Chase entered the profession during the last two decades of last century, three others in the first and second decades of this century. Two of them also were brothers, nephews of their predecessors. And more recentlyly William C. and Charles E. Chase. These latter two were cousins, and were partners until the tragic and untimely death of Charles after less than three years of practice. It is of more than passing interest to note that that highway death of Charles Chase was not only not his fault, but neither was it the fault of either of his companions who were traveling in the same vehicle on a legal errand with him.

William died at the very meridian of his career, the peak of his success, and at the time he had obtained victory at the polls only to meet defeat in his contest with the invincible foe, death. Man never in the ultimate, wins a contest with the foe we call death. In 1956 he came within a few votes of winning a sear in the Legislature; as the memorial resolution notes, so close that the contest went to an Appellate Court for decision. This year he had definitely won in the Republican victory that swept the County, only to lose at the hands of the grim reaper.

There are no fully compensating factors for such a frustration as he thus encountered. The nearest approaches toward compensating for such a frustration of which I can think are two. The one that he is free from the pains, the agonies and discomforts of this life. When I shook hands with him after his November victory, his arm seemed to lack its previous strength and vigor and his voice, I thought, disclosed the suffering of a sick man. I saw him again after he came from the hospital and still he exhibited the evidences of fatigue and sickness. The other circumstance is that dying at such an age most of one's contemporaries still live, and associates and friends remain to express their esteem and appreciation. His funeral on December 13th was one of the most largely attended at the Leavy Funeral Home in recent years. Thirty-four members of this association, some accompanied by their wives were present. And friends and clients crowded the funeral parlor till only standing room was left. A large number of his clients found it convenient to come either to the viewing or to the funeral services as a final token of their esteem for him and as their expression of their appreciation of him as a friend and as a lawyer.

Are there any further remarks before we put the motion to vote? (Pause) If there are no further remarks, all those in favor of the motion say Aye, and the motion will be spread upon the record and certified copies sent to the family.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE BAR

AYE

BY MR. KRAMER:

I think of nothing further, Your Honor.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

The Court will order, not only the resolutions presented, but also the remarks made by various memebers of the Bar be transcribed and made a part of the records of the County of Clearfield, and certified copies thereof, with a complete record, to be furnished the family of our late Brother, William C. Chase. If there is nothing further the Bar Association meeting is adjourned.

MEMORIAL TO WILLIAM CLARK CHASE, II

Friday, December 29, 1961

The public, in general and the Bar Association, in particular were shocked to learn of the sudden death of William C. Chase the evening of December 7, 1961, while he and his wifewere visiting their son and daughter-in-law in Hawaii.

William Clark Chase, better known as "Pete" to his many friends, was an eminent member of the Bar of Clearfield County. He was born in Clearfield on February 24, 1905, the son of J. Wallace Chase and Lelia Brown Chase, being named for his uncle, William Clark Chase, who was lost while hunting in the mountains near Clearfield.

"Pete" graduated from the Cleafield High School on June 7, 1922. He graduated from the Pennsylvania State College, now Pennsylvania State University, on June 15, 1926, and then went to Carlisle, Pennsylvania, where he earned his Law Degree at Dickinson Law School in the spring of 1929. "Pete" was admitted to the Bar of Clearfield County on February 17, 1930.

At the time "Pete" began the active practice of law shortly after graduation, there were to other members of the Chase family active before the Bar in Clearfield County: - A Roy Chase, his uncle, was then occupying the Bench of the Courts of Clearfield County, and J. Mitchell Case, another uncle, who was the Congressman from this District and had also been State Commander of the American Legion. The Chase family is well known in Clearfield County. The original John M. Chase came here and settled near Boardman and became a successful lumberman and landowner prior to the Civil War, and his progeny have since that time been active in business and politics in Clearfield County. "Pete's" great uncle, William Asbury Chase, was admitted to the Bar of Clearfield County on May 25, 1880, and six other Chases followed as lawyers. Benjamin F. Chase, another great uncle, was admitted in 1891, and subsequently entered the U. S. Consular Service, and prior to the First World War became American Consul General at Fiume, Austria-Hungary. "Pete" entered the Bar with a long family tradition behind him and his death leaves this Bar without an active member of the Chase family for the first time since 1880.

"Pete" was appointed Assistant under District Attorney, Carl A. Belin, and served from 1938 to 1942. He was a candidate for the State Assembly on two occasions and lost one general election by the margin of eight votes, and had, just prior to his death, been elected to the office of District Attorney at the last general election held November 7, 1961. He would have been inducted into this office in January of 1962 had he survived.

Mr. Chase was outspoken and enthusiastically supported all activities in which he took part. He was an intensely loyal member of the Penn State Alumni Association and also was a member of the Brotherhood and Protective Order of Elks, Lodge No. 540, and also the Clearfield Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. He was likewise a member of the Third Ward Fire Company and a social member of the John Lewis Shade Post of the American Legion.

"Pete" is survived by his sister, Mrs. Cedric (Helen) Hitchcock, of Pleasant Ridge, Michigan, as well as his widow, and two children and one grandchild. He married Julia Kerr of Clearfield on November 3, 1934. His daughter Emily Chase, now Mrs. John Weaver, who resides in Wisconsin, was born on November 4, 1935, and his son, William C. Chase III, was born on February 15, 1937. William C. Chase, III, is at the present time a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, having graduated from West Point Academy. He is married to Judith Gilliand and they are the parents of William C. Chase, IV.

We, the members of the Clearfield County Bar Association and this community, join with his wife and family in a feeling of loss of an outstanding member of the Bar of Clearfield County and the State of Pennsylvania, and the loss of a true and valued friend.

It is, therefore, with sincere feelings of regret that we present this Memorial to the Clearfield County Bar Association in memory of WILLIAM CLARK CHASE, II, and request that the same be spread upon the dockets of the Courts of Clearfield County and that a certified copy thereof be delivered to his wife and the members of his family. Respectfully submitted, F. Cortez Bell, Chairman, Joseph J. Lee and Carl A. Belin

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR

WILLIAM CLARK CHASE II, ESQ.

248

Pro. 2.50

March 14, 1962, MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR WILLIAM CLARK CHASE II, ESQ. filed:

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

At this time the Bar Association will hold its Memorial meeting in honor and memory of the late Brother, William Clark Chase, II. The session will be turned over to the Clearfield County Bar Association, Mr. Clarence Kramer, President of the Bar Association. Mr. Kramer will you proceed?

BY CLARENCE KRAMER:

Your Honor, members of the Bar and members of the family, this being the occasion as Judge Pentz has told you, we will at this time hear the Memorial Resolutions presented. The Committee on the Memorial Resolutions are: Hon. F. Cortez Bell, Chairman, Carl A. Belin and Joseph J. Lee.

BY MR. BELL:

Mr. Kramer, Judge Pentz and members of the family:

Mr. Lee and Mr. Belin and I prepared some Resolutions. Before I comment on those, I want to say, as in all these things, you remember something you didn't put in.

I had the privilege of rooming with John Chase at the University of Michigan. There was the question of the year, so I didn't put in the year for one thing, and I remember Ben Chase as a boy home from Austria-Hungary, coming over to our house, so with reference to the Chase family, they have been one of the older families in Clearfield County for a good many years, back to the time of the Civil War at the time Governor Bigler and John Chase engaged in the lumber business together up in Clearfield Creed. We left all this out, but before we get to the Resolutions I couldn't help commenting on it.

This Resolution is prepared by the Committee, as follows:

The public in general, and the Bar Association, in particular, were shocked to learn of the sudden death of William C. Chase the evening of December 7, 1961, while he and his wife were visiting their son and daughter-in-law in Hawaii.

William Clark Chase, better known as "Pete" to his many friends, was an eminent member of the Bar of Clearfield County. He was born in Clearfield on February 24, 1905, the son of J. Wallace Chase and Leila Brown Chase, being named for his uncle, William Clark Chase, who was lost while hunting in the mountains near Clearfield.

"Pete" graduated from the Clearfield High School on June 7, 1922. He graduated from Pennsylvania State College, now Pennsylvania State University, on June 15, 1926, and then went to Carlisle, Pennsylvania, where he earned his law degree at Dickinson Law School in the spring of 1929. "Pete" was admitted to the Bar of Clearfield County on February 17, 1930.

At the time "Pete" began the active practice of law shortly after graduation, there were two other members of the Chase family active before the Bar in Clearfield County: - A. Roy Chase, his uncle, was then occupying the Bench of the Courts of Clearfield County, and J. Mitchell Chase, another uncle, who was the Congressman from this District and had also been State Commander of the American Legion. The Chase family is well known in Clearfield County. The original John M. Chase came here and settled near Boardman and became a successful lumberman and landowner prior to the Civil War, and his progeny have since that time been active in business and politics in Clearfield County. "Pete's" great uncle, William Asbury Chase, was admitted to the Bar of Clearfield County on May 25, 1880, and six other Chases followed as lawyers. Benjamin F. Chase, another great uncle, was admitted in 1891, and subsequently entered the U. S. Consular Service, and prior to the First World War became American Consul General at Fiume, Austria-Hungary. "Pete" entered the Bar with a long family tradition behind him and his death leaves this Bar without an active member of the Chase family for the first time since 1880.

"Pete" was appointed Assistant under District Attorney, Carl A. Belin, and served from 1938 to 1942. He was a candidate for the State Assembly on two occasions and lost one general Election by the margin of eight votes, and had, just prior to his death, been elected to the office of District Attorney at the last general election held November 7, 1961. He would have been inducted into this office in January of 1962 had he survived.

Mr. Chase was outspoken and enthusiastically supported all activities in which he took part. He was an intensely loyal member of the Penn State Alumni Association and also was a member of the Brotherhood and Protective Order of Elks, Lodge No. 540, and also the Clearfield Aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles. He was likewise a member of the Third Ward Fire Company and a social member of the John Lewis Shade Post of the American Legion.

"Pete" is survived by his sister, Mrs. Cedric (Helen) Hitchcock, of Pleasant Ridge, Michigan, as well as his widow, and two children and one grandchild. He married Julia Kerr of Clearfield on November 3, 1934. His daughter, Emily Chase, now Mrs. John Weaver, who resides in Wisconsin, was born on November 4, 1935, and his son, William C. Chase, III, was born on February 15, 1937. William C. Chase, III, is at the present time a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, having graduated from West Point Academy. He is married to Judith Gilliland and they are the parents of William C. Chase, IV.

We, the members of the Clearfield County Bar Association and this community, join with his wife and family in a feeling of loss of an outstanding member of the Bar of Clearfield County and the State of Pennsylvania, and the loss of a true and valued friend.

It is, therefore, with sincere feelings of regret that we present this Memorial to the Clearfield County Bar Association in memory of WILLIAM CLARK CHASE, II, and request that the same be spread upon the dockets of the Courts of Clearfield County and that a certified copy thereof be delivered to his wife and the members of his family. Respectfully submitted, F. Cortez Bell, Chairman; Joseph J. Lee; Carl A. Belin

BY MR. KRAMER:

Do we have a motion on that?

BY MR. BELL:

We move the resolution be adopted as prepared by the Committee.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Any further remarks?

BY MR. BELIN:

I second that. I worked with "Pete" in the District Attorney's office, and I always admired his love of justice. At one time at the District Attorneys Convention some of the District Attorneys were bragging about the number of convicted defendants, and I remember "Pete" saying, "I never wanted to have a record of convictions, I wanted to have a record of doing justice", and I think that was "Pete's" way throughout.

I first met "Pete" at Dickinson Law School. He had a host of friends. Since that time I have travelled with him throughout the State attending District Attorney Conventions, and spent time with him at hunting camps. No matter where "Pete" went he had a host of friends. He had a keen sense of humor. He was also a devoted lawyer. He loved criminal law, and he became the leading criminal lawyer in Clearfield County, and he had many cases out of the County. The thing I admired about "Pete" was that he didn't turn friendship on and off for business purposes. He didn't turn friendship on and off. He was a loyal, kind, and, I think, a very thoughtful friend. If anybody had any misfortune in their family "Pete" was there first to render service, and also when they had enjoyment he shared that with them. I think we all, Members of this Bar, as lawyers have lost a good lawyer and a true friend, and I say to the younger lawyers, if you practice friendship like "Pete" did you are going to make a good lawyer.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Anything further from any other members of the Bar? Judge Pentz?
