CLEARFIELD COUNTY, SS:3

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the county of Clearfield, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the fourth day of April, A. D. 1882, before Judges of said Court, upon a petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Burnside, in said county, setting forth that they suffer great

Inconvenience for want of a public road leading from the main road from Cherrytree to Curwensville at a point near the house of Jeremiah Brickley thence running in a north westerly direction until it intersects the line of Indiana County at a point to which a public road has been recently laid out and located in Indiana County and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law, and make Report to the Court whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint Wm. H. Nugent James Sommersville and Wm. Hewitt who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the grounds proposed for said road, and if they view the same and any two of the actual viewers agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road and the shortest distance, and in such manner as to do least injury to private property, and state particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a public or private road, together with a plot or draft of the same, with the courses and distances and reference to the improvements through which it passes, and shall also procure releases of damages from persons through whose lands said road may pass, or failing to procure such releases, shall assess the same, if any sustained, and shall make report thereof to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for the said county, in which report they shall state that they have been sworn and affirmed according to law. Notice is directed to be given to the owners or occupants of seated lands through which the within road is intended to pass, of the time of the view, according to the 147th Rule of Court.

BY THE COURT.

ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES.

The following persons, having refused to release the damages to which they respectively may be entitled by reason of the location and the opening of the said road in the annexed return described, we, the undersigned viewers, under oath in pursuance of our duty, under the Act of Assembly do assess their damages and make report thereof, as follows:

To _____ the sum of _____

To _____ the sum of _____

To _____ the sum of _____

Witness our hands this _____ day of _____ A. D. 188

NOTE.—In case of a private road, the release must be signed by the owner of the road, and the amount of the expense of the survey of the road must be paid by the owner of the road.
 Also.—Viewers will carefully note the number of days employed and set the amount out at the foot of their return.
 Reviewers cannot interfere with damages assessed by the jury, but they may see that the damages are not excessive, and that the expenses are not too high.
 N. B.—If the viewers believe the parties are not entitled to damages, taking into consideration the advantages as well as the disadvantages of the road, they will report to that effect.
