JULY 18, 1963, COMPLAINT IN QUIET TITLED, filed.

WHEREFORE, in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, more particularly Rule 1061, et seq., the Plaintiff prays your Honorable Court to enter an Order and Decree to the Recorder of Deeds of Clearfield County directing that the mortgage be satisfied of record.

BEGINNING at a stone in the Public Road; thence by said road East 71 degrees West 52 perches to a stone; thence South 19 degrees East 20 perches to a stone ; thence South 50 degrees West 62 perches to a stone; thence by lands of Stephen South 60 degrees East 81 perches to a stone and hemlock; thence North 64 ½ degrees East 118 perches to a stone at the line of S. Scott thence by said line of lands of Scott North 50 degrees West 92.5 perches acres and 7 perches.

BEING the same premises as conveyed to Suzanna Ream by the Will of Thomas C. Ream, deceased probated on March 23, 1943, and bearing Estate No. 19886 in the records of Clearfield County.

1. The Plaintiff is the Administrator of the Estate of Suzanna Ream, deceased, having been appointed to this position by Letters of Administration granted by the Register of Wills on the 17 th day of June, 1963, and the said Plaintiff being a resident of Blandburg, Pennsylvania.
2. The Plaintiff's decedent for may years prior to her death had been the lawful owner and in possession of certain premises situate in Guelich Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, more particularly bounded and described as follows:

3. The said T. C. Ream had prior to his death purchased the said property from one, Alex Ream, and at the time of the said purchase gave a mortgage on the said property to F. W. Ream as Trustee fro Sarah A. Ream, the widow of Alex Ream, his heirs and assigns, the said mortgage being dated December 17, 1912, in the amount of $516.66, and recorded in Clearfield County in Mortgage Book 43, Page 578.
4. On the 29th. dat of June, 1917, by check numbered 44 drawn on the First National Bank of Houtzdale, Pennsylvania, the said T.C. Ream did make a final payment on the said mortgage, and that the amount as secured by the said mortgage was, therefore, paid in full, and for which the T. C. Ream obtained a receipt from the said F. W. Ream, which said receipt acknowledges the final payment of the claim on the property, the receipt being dated June 29, 1917, the said draft in payment of the amounts secured by said mortgage, a true and correct copy of the receipts are hereto attached and marked Exhibit "A" and "B"/

5. The said Defendants as herein named, did promise to satisfy the said mortgage of record at the time of payment.
6. The Defendants have now all died, and the heirs, if any, are presently unknown, and the said mortgage still remains unsatisfied to record, although the same has long since been paid.
7. The failure of the Defendants to satisfy the said mortgage prior to their death creates a cloud upon the title of the Plaintiff's decedent in the said premises, and therefore, makes it impossible for the Plaintiff to dispose of the same in the administration of his duties as Administrator.
8. A search of the records in the Clearfield County discloses that there has been no assignment of the said mortgage, and that the same still remains unsatisfied of record in the names of the original mortgagees. The Preliminary Objections for Argument on the Argument List.

March 25, 1964, Answer to Preliminary Objections filed by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope

March 25, 1964, ORDER, filed.

NOW, MARCH 25, 1964, the above matter having been heard in regular Argument Court upon preliminary objections filed on behalf of the defendant, Willard Albright, it is hereby ordered that the motion for more specific pleadings be and is hereby sustained, and that the plaintiff set forth as an exhibit a more detailed statement of the amount and kind of merchandise alleged in paragraph 3 of the original Complaint as having been sold to the defendant, Samuel Albright, as well as the amounts charged for these items.

It is the finding of the Court, specifically, that the provision of the contract which would otherwise exempt the plaintiff from setting forth a more specific statement of the account is not as declared in the plaintiff's answer to the preliminary objections but provides, to the contrary, that "We also agree that any statement made by the buyer to the Seller in writing, as to the amount of indebtedness due at any time shall be finding upon us".

SEPTEMBER 21, 1963, PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS, filed.

One copy certified to District Attorney

November 19, 1963, Opinion, filed.

The above petitioner has asked for habeas corpus, on the ground that he did not have a lawyer at the time he entered a plea of guilty to an indictment for burglary, on February 7, 1962, at which time he was sentenced to not less than five nor more than ten years; having been sentenced also for an offense occurring at another time.

On each plea of guilty, defendant appeared and signed the plea on the indictment, in which he stated that he had been advised of his right to counsel and waived such right.

This right to counsel was reiterated verbally, in open Court, at the time his plea was taken. Furthermore, this man testified against his accomplice, William Edward McMahon, arrested along with him for the same burglary. McMahon demanded counsel, and counsel was appointed, and a trial by jury held, resulting in a verdict of guilty for McMahon. The petitioner was accorded the same privilege.

Therefore, the petiion for habeas corpus is refused, as the petitioner's constitutional rights have not been disturbed.

Exception noted.

Arbitrators, claiming that no award could be made to the plaintiffs, since they had not pleaded or proved a proper legal measure of damages; and this we deem to be a correct position. In Pennsylvania the only measure of damages for destruction of timber is the difference in the value of the land before and after the loss. In RIBBLET V. V. CAMBRIA STEEL CO., 251 Pennsylvania 253, the Court declared, at page 259:

> "we have on numerous occasions decided that, when standing timber is destroyed, the damages therefor are to be measured by determining the difference in the value of the land, upon which the trees grew, before and after the injury complained of (Mahaffey v. New York Central & Hudson River R. R. Co., 229 Pa. 285-287; Savings & Trust Co. of Indiana v. Penna. R. R. Co., 229 Pa. 484-489; Bullock v. Balto. & Ohio R. R. Co., 235 Pa. 417). There may be exceptional instances, when the evidence shows the trees in question to have had a selling value separate and apart from the land (for example, trees growing on a nursery farm), where a different rule would apply; but under the facts at bar, there can be no doubt that the proper way to determine the pecuniary damage suffered by the destruction of the plaintiff's trees was through the application of the ordinary rule just referred to. The only testimony produced, however, relative to the damage thus suffered was the expression of opinion by two witnesses as to the actual money value of the trees without regard to their special connection with the plaintiff's farm, although one of them asserted that the real worth of the trees consisted in their "value for shedding storms and helping drouths." Neither of these witnesses showed any special qualification to express an opinion on the market value of trees; but aside from that, their testimony was based on a wrong theory of the measure of damage, and, therefore, was incompetent and should not have been received. When this testimony is omitted, there is no evidence in the case to show the monetary damages suffered by the plaintiff through the loss of the trees in question."

Based on the foregoing, we are satisfied that the Arbitrators used an improper basis for determining damage. However, the defendant made a motion to strike all of the testimony pertaining to damages, on the grounds that it was incompetent; which motion was refused by the Arbitrators. Defendant further moved for a compulsory non-suit; and this was also denied. Defendant did offer to permit plaintiffs to take a voluntary non-suit, which they declined to do; and further, plaintiffs did not move to amend the complaint as to the measure of damages. The Arbitrators then proceeded to make an award of $700.00 to the plaintiffs. Defendant thereupon paid into Court the sum of $300.00 in payment of the Arbitrators' fees, and appealed the case on a point of law, asking for judgment N. O. V. upon the record.

We agree with the defendant in the following:

"After putting the defendant to the expense of arbitration and the additional expense of taking an appeal to ask for a judgment N. O. V., including the payment to the County of $300.00 Arbitrators' fees, the plaintiffs now wish to abandon the entire proceeding and start all over. In effect, they are now asking for a voluntary non-suit. This they can not do. If the plaintiffs were permitted to amend their complaint at this stage of the proceedings, the defendant would be not only prejudiced, but would be completely unableto defend the action. The ground on which the trees were growing is now occupied by a four-lane divided highway. The defendant could not possibly obtain proof of the value of the land before the destruction of fourteen trees, and the value afterwards, as they could not obtain an appraiser who had viewed the premises before the highway was built. On the other hand, the plaintiffs being the owner of the premises would be competent witnesses as to the value of the land before the injury and its value after. Consequently, if the plaintiffs were now permitted to amend and proceed to a jury trial the defendant would have to sit mute as to the extent of damages."

As was further stated in RIBBLET v. CAMBRIA STEEL CO., supra, at page 261:

"As it was, the evidence relied upon formed an entirely insufficient basis on which to found any intelligent determination. * On the whole, there was such a lack of competent, requisite proofs that binding instructions should have been given for the defendant."

Based upon the foregoing, we conclude that judgment N. O. V. was properly entered for the defendant.

Dated: April 11, 1969
