MARCH 22, 1966, OPINION AND ORDER, filed.

In this action of trespass, resulting from a collision near and intersection, the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff-estate in the sum of $859.00 for wrongful death and $37,500.00 survival benefits; and defendants filed timely motions for judgment n.o.v. and for new trial.

Defendant asserts, as basis for judgment n.o.v. that plaintiff failed to establish liability because "all that the plaintiff's case consisted of was a mere showing that there was sliding and an accident". Yet, even without inferences reasonably to be taken from it (and they were numerous and for the jury), the testimony went far beyond that. Of course, the plaintiff being armed with the verdict, it must be considered in a light favorable to him.

Plaintiff surrounded the evidence on skidding with full description of the roadway as to layout, intersection, extent of view, width and other pertinent details of the physical layout; he proved the existence of the bad, snowy weather and how long it had existed, as well as the generally dangerous travelling conditions in the area, of which defendant-driver necessarily knew. Plaintiff further established the size and make-up of defendant's tractor-trailer, and, more importantly, its position at the stop sign as decedent's automobile approached on its own side of the through-highway and from defendant's left. In addition he showed the reasonable and lawful speed of decedent's automobile. All of this, and other circumstances surrounding the incident, point unerringly to the negligence of defendants-- a fact which was left to the jury to find. Cf. Matzasoszki V. Jacobson, et al, 122 Pa. Superior Ct. 180, where the Court declared: "Irrespective of any question of (defendant's) speed, we think the presumption of negligence arises where it appears that the driver of an automobile permits his car to defledt from its course and to dash or skid across a highway....".

Conelúding that the skidding immediately preceded the collision, we also believe that the law in that regard does not sustain defendant's contention. In fact, it destroys such contention. In Laessig V. Cerro, 149 Pa. Superior Ct. 155, the Court held that where (as here) the slippery condition was general: "the skidding in this case might reasonably have been anticipated and it was for the jury to determine, under proper instructions from the court, whether, under the circumstances, the defendant was guilty of negligence".

In Campbell v Fiorot, 411 P. 157, the Court declared: "They (defendants) seem to be of the impression that once the word 'skidding' appears in the plaintiff's presentation of his case becomes an uncontrolled sled which togoggans out of the courtroom unless he can show how, why, when and where theskidding of the opposite party occurred. The word 'skidding' has no such automatic self-destroying connotation in the juris-prudence of this Commonwealth. If it has, it is repudicated here here and now." (Emphasis supplied) The Court rejected the case of Richardson v. Patterson, 368 Pa. 495 (upon which defendant's here rely), and declared: "This kind of a ruling amounts practically to an invitation to strategic testimony, instead of forthright testimony..... The plaintiff's statement (that the car skidded) was no explanation of the cause for the defendant's car being on the wrong side of the highway. No matter how the defendant found herfelf in the wrong lane, she was where she had no right to be, and it was her obligation to explain what she was doing there, and how she go there..... When a motorist is on his right side of the highway, obeying all the rules of the highway, being careful, cautious and considerate of the rights of others, and suddenly he sees coming toward him, like a gargantuan genie , a destroying force, it is not for him to explain how and why the invader got into his way." See also, Blockinger v Schweitzer, 419 Pa. 342.

Defendants also complain that the verdict was excessive; but the record fully sustains the propriety and reasonableness of the verdict. In fact, it is the Court's opinion that the testimony would have justified an even greater sum. The Court, after hearing the testimony and analyzing the record, cannot but agree with the jury. In any event, its sense of justice received no "tingling" from the amount of the verdict; let alone "shock" to it, as would be required before it could declare the sum to be excessive: Weed v Kerr, 416 Pa. 233. This is particularly true in this case, where the 17 year old decedent was shown to hve been gainfully employed as a legal secretary, with a starting salary of $45.00 per week; that she had been an out-standing student; and was of excellent health, character and personality; that she had planned to seek employment, at a much higher salary, in positions that were available; that the life expectancy tables (given to the jury under proper instructions as to their use) showed her life expectancy to be 58.4 years; that she was a devoted and dutiful daugher with very close ties within family; and other factors from which the jury could well decide that she would have a successful life in so far as earnings in the futrue were concerned. There is no doubt in the Court's mind that if it were to have been charged with evaluating, it would have awarded as much as, if not more than, the jury did in this case. Cf. Spangler v Helm's New York-Pittsburgh Motor Express, 396 Pa. 482.

In view of the foregoing, the Court hereby enters the following

JULY 17, 1969, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, DISCUSSION AND ORDER, filed.

Plaintiff instituted this action to quiet title in which it asks the Court to enter a decree terminating all rights which the defendants may have had under provivionsof a deed of Thomas Proctor to Elk Tanning Company and that the premises be forever released and discharged of any lien or encumbrance created in that deed. The defendants, heirs of Thomas Proctor, filed answer as did Devonian Oil and Gas Company which also filed counter-claim. Thereafter, trial was had without jury; and based upon that testimony and the exhibits admitted we make the following FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The premises involved consist of unseated lands as described in the pleadings and were so assessed from 1894 forward.
2. In 1894 these were included in premises conveyed to Elk Tanning Company by Thomas E. Proctor by deed duly recorded on April 2, 1895 in Deed Book 88 page 8.
3. The deed referred to in the second finding provided inter alia that : "Excepting and reserving neverthe-

And it is further Agreed that the plaintiff above named will not look to the above mentioned and described premises, or any part thereof, for payment of any part of the principal and interest of said above entitled judgment, now or hereafter to become due, or in any way disturb, molest, put to charge or damage, the present or any futureowner or owners, occupier or occupiers of the said above mentioned and described premises or any part or portion thereof, for or by reason of the said judgment or any matter, cause or thing, thence accruing or to arise; provided that nothing herein cintained shall affect the said judgment or its legal validity so far as respects all other lands and tenements of the said Defendants which are not herein expressly released therfrom.

4. At a Treasurer's sale held June 8, 1896 the described premises were sold in fee to one G. W. Childs for taxes which remained unpaid for the years 1894 and 1895, this deed having been recorded in Deed Book 101 page 255.

5. At no time was there any separate assessment of the items contained in the exception or reservation quoted in finding offact number three; and in fact no such separate assessment was ever asked for.

6. G. W. Childs and his wife conveyed to Elk Tanning Company on June 28, 1898, these premises without warranty and without any exceptions or reservations. This deed is recorded in Deed Book number 101 page 270.

7. Elk Tanning Company then conveyed the premises by a General Warranty Deed on May 25, 1903 to the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company; this deed being recorded in Deed Book number 134 page 268.

8. Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company conveyed to the Trustees under the Will of Thomas E. Proctor, on April 1, 1913, all the "natural gas, coal, coal oil, petroleum, marble and all minerals of every kind and character, in and under the Kidder Lot" (aportion of land also involved in conveyances). The deed for this portion is filed in Deed Book number 199 page 59.

9. By Treasurer's sale held on June 9, 1924 the premises were then sold for unpaid 1923 taxes, and in fee, to Archibald F. Jones.

10. The sale in the ninth finding was acknowledged in open Court on February 11, 1925; this was shown in the Continuance Docket of the Office of the Prothonotary and also in the Treasurer's record of sale of unseated lands..

11. Archilbald F. Jones, with his wife, conveyed the premises to Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company on June 10, 1926, there being no warrants, on exceptions, and no reservations. This deed is recorded in Deed Book number 278 page 410.

12. The Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company conveyed to the Commonwealth on June 28, 1930 these same premises, this without exceptions or reservations; and this deed is recorded in Deed Book number 298 page 126.

13. Thereafter the Commonwealth has made payments in lieu of taxes as provided by Statute where ownership of the lands is in the Commonwealth; and defendants have never paid any taxes since the year 1893.

14. Nowhere in the records of Clearfield County is there any record of any tie or association between the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company, the defendants or Archibald F. Jones or G. W. Childs affecting the purchase or sale of the premises involved; nor is thereanything to indicate that either G. W. Childs or Archibald F. Jones, as claimed by defendants, ever acted except in their individual capacities or that in acting that they committed any breach of any fiduciary duty to the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company.

15. The claim of defendant, Devonian Gas and Oil Company, is not quasi or contractual; did not arise out of the same transaction or occurrance as the cause of action alleged by plaintiff; and is not properly counter-claimed because it is limited to money damages.

DISCUSSION

The premises in question have been owned and occupied by plaintiff since 1938. Some 24 years after acquision and after the Commonwealth had advertised for and was receiving bids for production of natural gas (in 1952), the defendants for the first time claimed an interest in or ownership of these lands. As stated in the findings of fact, the Commonwealth purchased these lands and received from its seller, Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company, a General Warranty Deed. Except as to one portion of the premises, designated "Kidder Lot", the deed purported to convey everything in fee. As to the Kidder Lot, it reserved all oil, gas and other minerals. The chain of the plaintiff's title was established as declared in the findings of fact. At all times from the hear 1924 to 1938 the premises, except for the Kidder Lot, were assessed in fee. They were not on the tax rolls after the Commonwealth purchased them in 1938, but the Commonwealth has made required payments in liey of taxes. The defendants did appear to claim ownership to have remained in Thomas E. Proctor by reason of the exception and reservation referred to in a deed made by said Thomas E. Proctor, deceased, on October 1, 1894. By this deed he conveyed many tracts of land in both Clearfield and Elk Counties (including these premises) to Elk Tanning Company, a company in which he was very substantially interested. Thomas Proctor died some two months after execution of that deed, which was not recorded until April 2, 1895. AT no time did Proctor or these heirs ever request an assessment of the oil, gas and mineral rights under these lands in their names. It is also to be noted that the Treasurer's tax sale to G. W. Childs (one of the plaintiff's predecessors in title) included taxes for the very year of 1894, which were then due and unpaid, and were also due and unpaid when the Proctor deed of 1894 was executed and when it was recorded. At no time did anyone attack the propriety or effect of any tax sale involving these premises until 1952, when as we heretofore pointed out, the Commonwealth opened bids for sale or lease of the gas. Incidentally, on April 1, 1913, Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company (this plaintiff's immediate grantor, did release and quit-claim to Proctors's Trustees (who accepted the same) the oil, gas and minerals under the Kidder Lot. This it would appear that by this very act they were acknowledging title to the instant premises to be in the Lumber Company. Contrary to the claim of the defendants the records of the Prothonotary's Office, as well as the Treasurer's Office, were official documents of Clearfield County, and did establish the propriety of the tax sales from which title stemmed and finally became vested in the plaintiff. These were the only documents used by the County for such purposes. Cf. BABCOCK LUMBER COMPANY VS. FAUST, 156 Pa. Super Ct. 19. In any event the Act of 1941, P. L. 38, Sec. 1, 21 P. S. Sec. 283, eliminated the requirement of proving procedural regularity of tax sales for establishment of good title. The presemption of validity of tax title has not been waived either by plaintiff having supplied other proof as to title, so long as the contrary is not established by those facts: TORRENCE VS. ROSS, 159 Pa. Super . Ct. 428, and HUGHES VS. CHAPLIN, 389 Pa. 93, 132 A2d 200. The defendants attempted to show proof of ownership in them by what they claimed to be ancient documents; which were offered really to show that plaintiff's predecessors in title had breached a fiduciary duty in making the conveyances of title to these lands, and therefore, that the title of the Commonwealth is null and void. However, these records were the private records of Proctor and of the companies in which he was interested, were not available to a title searcher; and thus could not bind the Commonwealth under these circumstances. See PENNSYLVANIA BOILER VS. CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, 344 Pa. 34. Further more, only the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company or the Elk Tanning Company (who allegedly were wronged by the alleged agents) could ever complain in this regard. In addition, as has been hereto fore declared, these defendants or their predecessors neither sought to have the premises separately assesses nor did they pay any taxes upon the same. The Act of 1806, P. L. 644, 72 P. S. Sec. 5487 (repealed, but reenacted in the Act of 1933, P. L. 853, Article 4, 72 P. S. Sec. 5020 - 409) requires that the owner of any unseated lands notify the County Commissioners of any such interest claimed by him. See GORDON VS. HARLEY, 165 Pa. Super. Ct. 433. These tax saled "in fee", therefore, passed both the surface and subsurface to the purchaser. This is buttressed also by the fact ahat the 1896 tax sale included taxes for the year 1894, a period of time before there was or could have been any severance.

Defendants also assert that plaintiff is estopped from claiming the fee on the basis that the deed from Elk Tanning Company to Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company there was set forth an exception and reservation which would seem to have excluded all of the gas and other minerals, but having considered the deed itself and the circumstances, we are satisfied that it did not create an estate in those grantors. That right was already gone at the time of the execution of the deeds and the declared reservation or exception did not affect the then owner of these premises in question. We are satisfied that plaintiff has fully established a chain of title to the exclusion of any other claimants including these defendants; and we do not, therefore, treat of the claim of plaintiff that in any event the plaintiff has title by adverse possession of twenty-one years and upwards (1938 to 1952 and upwards). Therefore, we make the following

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The tax sales to G. W. Childs in 1896 and to Archibald F. Jones in 1924 were conducted in a proper and valid manner, in full compliance with all the requirements of law applicable to such sales.

2. The excerpts from the various assessment records of Clearfield County for the area in question are valid and proper proof of the facts contained therein.

3. Defendants produced no competent or relevant evidence to invalidate or defeat the propriety of the tax sales of 1896 and 1924, or to show that the assessment records offered in evidence by plaintiff were unofficial or insufficient.

4. The tax sale of 1896 vested in G. W. Childs (following the expiration of the two-year redemption period) a "fee" title to the area in question, including the surface and the oil, gas and mineral rights; except that only the surface of the Kidder Lot was vested.

5. G. W. Childs conveyed a valid "fee" title to the area in question, including the surface and the oil, gas and mineral rights, to Elk Tanning Company in 1898; except that only the surface of the Kidder Lot was conveyed.

6. The tax sale of 1924 vested in Archibald F. Jones (following the expiration of the two-year redemption period) a "fee" title to the area in question, including the surface and the oil, gas and mineral rights; except that only the surface of the Kidder Lot was vested.

7. Archibald F. Jones conveyed a valid "fee" title to the area in question, including the surface and the oil, gas and mineral rights, to Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company in 1926; except that only the surface of the Kidder Lot was conveyed.

8. Any former rights of defendants, or their ancestors, which may have existed prior to, or by virtue of, the deed of October 1, 1894 from Thomas E. Proctor, Sr. to Elk Tanning Company, were lost, divested and expunged by either or both tax sales.

9. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania acquired a "fee" title to the area in question on July 28, 1938, and continues to own the "fee" at the present time, including the surface and the oil, gas and mineral rights; except that it acquired only the surface rights in the Kidder Lot.

10. The Commonwealth is not estopped or in any way barred from proving its title in and to the surface and the oil, gas and minerals beneath the area in question; except that it can claim only the surface in the Kidder Lot.

ORDER

Now, July 17, 1969, the averments of the complaint are sustained, judgment entered in favor of plaintiff, and it is decreed that no rights are possessed by Thomas E. Proctor or his devisees or heirs in the oil, gas and other minerals contained in and under the premises involved. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge

Smith, Smith & Work Laurance B. Seaman	William Dunlap 144 Alex Dunlap, Rose Dunlap, their heirs and assigns, Joseph Dunlap and Jane		JANUARY 20, 1964, COMPLAINT IN QUIET TITLE, filed. Service by Publication All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in Burnside Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, being bounded and described as follows: BEING bounded on the North by the land of J. A. Johnson, on the South by the lands of Pierce and the Rich Hill Coal Company, on the West by the lands of Noll Brothers, and on the East by Westover Borough. Containing approximately 187 acres, and bearing Clearfield County Assessment Map #108-D17-3. EXCEPTING AND RESERVING therefrom, however, a piece of land heretofore conveyed from the premises consisting of a house, barn and 14 acres to one James Beltoski, the deed for which is duly recorded in the Recorder's Office of Clearfield County, and leaving in the above parcel of land some 173 acres. 4. It is averred that the Plaintiff did purchase the said premises from the heirs of Alex Dunlap as well as obtaining the same from the Treasurer of Clearfield County by the foregoing deeds in the year 1948, and that the Plaintiff has continued and does continue to maintain possession of the premises, and to pay the taxes thereon, which possession is open and hostile to any other persons or persons. 5. The said premises were, however, conveyed to the Plaintiff's predecessors in title by various tax sales, which sales purported to convey more land than that which actually existed in the predecessors in title, and by reason of various discrepancies in the said tax sales, there appears to be some question of record involving the proper chain of title to said premises. 6. There is further a question of record as to the appropriate portions of the said property as were owned by the defendant, Rose Dunlap and by the Defendant, Alex Dunlap, their heirs and assigns, and the tax sales conveying their respective interest in the within described premises. 7. It is averred that the Plaintiff has in good faith given full value for the above described premises, has remained in possession of the same since 1948, has paid all the taxes on the premises, and has maintained and kept the same until the date of this Complaint and is desirous of having his title finally adjudicated therein for the purposes of an anticipated sale of the premises. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff brings this action and prays the Court to decree title to the property as vested in the Plaintiff and that the description as set forth in this complaint is a correct description of the aforementioned premises. CONTINUED FROM PAGE 294, 369 FEBRUARY TERM 1964 - JOHN POOLE al vs GLOBE FIREARMS al

JUNE 30, 1969, OPINION AND ORDER, filed.

Globe Firearms, unregistered in, but doing business in, Pennsylvania, manufactures and sells ammunition, some of which is involved here; and Oscar Robbins Company, exclusive sales agent for Globe Firearms, sold it to a retailer, Robert Grimminger, t/a Bob's Army and Navy Store. The minor plaintiff purchased a box of this ammunition. While hunting, plaintiff fired his weapon; and the shell exploded with such force that the gun-chamber was bulged, the bolt was blown from its housing, and parts of the shell-cartridge were blown into the right eye and cheek of minor-plaintiff.

Oscar Robbins Company filed preliminary objections, requesting that (1) the plaintiffs' pleadings be stricken or be made more specific because (a) if the action is in assumpsit, no service was had in Clearfield County; (b) if the action is in trespass, service was not had within the time allowed by the Statute of Limitations; (c) no privity of contract between plaintiff and Oscar Robbins Company is alleged; (d) defendants are not sufficiently or clearly distinguished throughout, nor are the alleged warranties sufficiently identified.

Robert Grimminger, t/a Bob's Army and Navy Store, filed preliminary objections raising questions of (a) improper joinder of causes of action and (b) demurrer on the grounds of the "Original Package Doctrine".

The fact that plaintiff has not declared, at this point, whether he rests in assumpsit or in trespass is not fatal. The only requirement upon him is that before trial he must elect between assumpsit and trespass. Bialek vs. Pittsburgh Brewing Company, 430 Pa. 176, 188. Nor is it necessary that privity of contract exist between plaintiff and Oscar Robbins Company. In Webb vs. Zern, 422 Pa. 424, 220 A. 2d 854, the Court held: "The new Restatementof Torts reflects this modern attitude. Section 402 A thereof states: '(1) One who sells any product in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous to the user or consumer or to his property is subject to liability for physical harm thereby caused to the ultimate user or consumer, or to his property, if (a) the seller is engaged in the business of selling such a product, and (b) it is expected to and does reach the user or consumer without substantial change in the condition in which it is sold. (2) The rule stated in Subsection (1) applies although (a) the seller has exercised all possible care in the preparation and sale of his product, and (b) the user or consumer has not bought the product from or entered into any contractual relation with the seller. ' Restatement (Second) Torts Section 402 A (1965). We hereby adopt the foregoing language as the law of Pennsylvania. (3) The plaintiff in this litigation, therefore, must be given an opportunity to plead and prove his case. Since the plaintiff has broadly pleaded those facts necessaryto a cause of action for defective products liability, and since we are today adopting a new basis of liability, plaintiff will be permitted to amend his complaint to explicitly state a cause of action in trespass for defective products liability."

In Miller vs. Preitz, 422 Pa. 383, 221 A. 2d 320, the Court emphasized that all it has said "with regard to the requirement of 'privity of contract' and the requirementof a family relationship applies only to actions in assumpsit for breach of implied warranty under the Uniform Commercial Code. The 'privity' requirement has long been abandoned in Pennsylvania in actions in trespass for negligently caused injuries . . . . Furthermore we realize the social policy considerations behind imposing strict liability in tort upon all those who make or market any kind of defective product, nowwithstanding an absence of negligence on their part. A similar result would follow from abandoning the requirement of 'privity of contract' in warranty actions.

In Kassab, et ux vs. Central Soya, 432 Pa. 217, the Court held that the purchaser of a product may maintain an action in assumpsit against a remote manufacturer for injuries caused by a breach of an implied warranty. It also declared that the Uniform Commercial Code does not require privity in an action in assumpsit by a purchaser against a remote manufacturer for a breach of an implied warranty. To this extent, it overruled Miller vs. Preitz, supra.

We thus believe that the objections based on "privity of contract" requirements and on the "original package doctrine" are not well-taken.

The plaintiffs, however, must be more specific in their pleadings as to which defendants have been responsible for certain acts, etc.; and, therefore, the objections for more specific allegations in regard thereto are sustained.

We, therefore, enter the following O R D E R

NOW, June 30, 1969, all preliminary objections of all defendants, except those for more specific complaint are overruled and denied; and plaintiffs are hereby ordered to delineate specifically the allegations to each of the defendants; and, if they elect to proceed thereon, to set out the warranties alleged to have been made and who made them. This order shall be complied with in ten (10) days, and thereafter defendants shall have twenty (20) days after service within which to file responsive pleadings. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge

JULY 15, 1969, ORDER, filed by John A. Cherry

NOW, July 9, 1969, time for filing of more specific complaint is hereby extended to July 20, 1969. In all other respects the order heretofore entered under date of June 30, 1969 shall remain as heretofore. BY THE OOURT, John A. Cherry

2. That on March 27, 1964 your petitioners presented to your Honorable Court, in proceedings brought to the above number and term, a petition seeking the approval of the Court for the expenditure of approximately $666,000.00 for the construction of an addition to the County Home of Clearfield County, commonly known as Clear Haven.

3. That by Order dated March 27, 1964, a rule to show cause was issued upon the taxpayers and citizens of Clearfield County, returnable April 20, 1964.

4. That by further Order of Your Honorable Court entered to the above number and term on March 31, 1964, the siad rule to show cause was made returnable on April 13, 1964, and it was directed that notice of the said rule be given by advertisement once a week for two weeks.

7. That the Commmssioners now propose to issue and sell general obligation bonds in the amoung of $500,000.00 and it is desirable that in connection with the issuance of the said bonds the Order of this Court entered on April 13, 1964, be amended to authorize the expenditure of approximately $750,000.00 for the construction and equipment of the Clear Haven addition to the Clearfield County Home.
