To the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Clearfield State of Pennsylvania, The Petition of the subscribers of Biggs and Deater Townships aforesaid respectfully represent; that a road was formerly laid out by order of the Court from points on public road near Jacob W. Blawie, in Deater Township in said County to public road near Merrill's Mill in Biggs Township in said County (the same known as Morgan Barn Road) which road your petitioners conceive has become useless, inconvenient and burdensome. Your petitioners therefore pray the Court that the same road may be vacated.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY, & SS: >>

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the county of Clearfield, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the 16th day of Feby., A. D. 1885, before Judges of said Court, upon a petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Decatur ^{vs} Boggs, in said county, setting forth that a road was formerly laid out by Order of Court from a private public road near Jacob McLarren, in Decatur Tp. to public road near Merritt's Mill in Boggs Tp. (the same known as Morgan Run Road) which road your petitioners conceive has become useless inconvenient & burdensome. Your petitioners pray the Court that the said road may be vacated.

and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law, whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint

Ed. Read Desse Boggs vs Jacob Mock who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the grounds proposed for said road, and if they view the same and any two of the actual viewers agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road and the shortest distance, and in such manner as to do least injury to private property, and state particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a public or private road, together with a plot or draft of the same, with the courses and distances and reference to the improvements through which it passes, and shall also procure releases of damages from persons through whose lands said road may pass; or failing to procure such releases, shall assess the same, if any sustained, and shall make report thereof to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for the said county, in which report they shall state that they have been sworn and affirmed according to law. Notice is directed to be given to the owners or occupants of seated lands through which the within road is intended to pass, of the time of the view, according to the 147th Rule of Court.

BY THE COURT.

NOTE B.—In case of a Private Road, the Reviewer must be exempted from liability for some damage.
Also, if the Reviewer is not to be held responsible for the number of days emitted and set the amount out at the cost of their return.
Reviewers cannot interfere with damages assessed by the original viewers, except so far as the location may be changed by the reviewees.
N. B.—If the viewers believe the parties are not entitled to damages, taking into consideration the novelties as well as the disadvantages of the road, they will report to that effect.
