		IN RE: MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR EUGENE G. KITKO, ESQUIRE	APRIL 13, 1966, MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR EUGENE G. KITKO, ESQUIRE, filed. In Open Court, before HON. John A. Cherry, President Judge, and Members of the Clearfield County Bar Association April 11, 1966. BY JAMES K. NEVLING, ESQ.: If the Court please, this is the date and the hour fixed for the meeting of the Clearfield County Bar Association to take appropriate action to the memory of the late Eugene Kitko, who served a brilliant but all too brief career as a member of the Bar. I respectfully request that the Court recognize the chairman of the Re- solutions Committee, John K. Reilly, Jr. BY THE COURT: The Court grants the request.

	Pro.	10.00	BY JOHN K. REILLY, JR., ESQ: May it please the Court, the Resolutions of the Clearfield County Bar Association will be presented by Mr. Joseph Ammerman. BY THE COURT: The Court recognizes Mr. Joseph Ammerman of the Clearfield County Bar. BY JOSEPH S. AMMERMAN, ESQ.: May it please the Court, fellow members of the Bar, members of the Kitko family, and friends: This is the second time that I have had the sad duty of being a member of a Committee to write these Resolutions; and I might say that it is certainly a compliment to Eugene Kitko that it is not a difficult matter to present a record of his many accomplishments as a member of the Bar. I suppose sometimes a member of a Committee has to work pretty hard to keep things in order and to be laudable, but that certainly is not the case in this situation; so at this time I would like to present the Report of the Clearfield County Bar Association Committee on Memorial to Eugene G. Kitko. "Eugene Glenn Kitko was born at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on February 6, 1924, the son of Charles Kitko and Ruth Rowles Kitko. He attended the Clearfield schools and graduated from the Clearfield High School in June of 1942. He was one of a small number of outstanding students who had been admitted to Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, in the middle of his senior year of high school. He left college to enter the service on February 24, 1943, and served with the United States Army Air Force. He was honorably discharged February 18, 1946, and returned to Dickinson College. He went on to the Dickinson School of Law from which he was graduated in the Class of 1949 with the Degree of Bachelor of Laws. While in law school, Mr. Kitko married Mary Louise Flickinger on June 9, 1948. They had three lovely children: Eugene Glenn, aged 14, Nancy Elizabeth, aged 10 and Katherine Louise aged 6. Eugene G. Kitko was admitted to practice in the several Courts of Clearfield County on January 3, 1950. He was also admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania and the Superior Court of Pennsylvania. He was a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association as well as the Clearfield County Bar Association. In January of 1954 he was appointed Assistant District Attorney of Clearfield County, a position he filled with distinction until his appointment as as District Attorney on March 15, 1961. He served in that position until January of 1964. During that period he also served for a time as an instructor at the DuBois Undergraduate Center of Pennsylvania State University and as instructor in the Minor Judiciary School for Clearfield County conducted by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, Mr. Kitko was known not only for his very considerable natural talent but also as a student of the law, for the tenacity and fidelity which marked his service to his clients in general and to Clearfield County in particular, and especially for his kindly, considerate and sympathetic manner. In the midst of his busy practice, Mr. Kitko was nevertheless an outstanding leader in the Clearfield community. He was a member of the West Side Methodist Church, was a member of many civic, patriotic and fraternal organizations and at the time of his death was First Vice-President of the Clearfield Kiwanis Club, slated to become its next President. He was a loyal and sincere Democrat and carried the banner of his party not only as a can- didate but also in its unheralded hard labors. He served as Clearfield Borough-Lawrence Township Chairman for many years. Eugene G. Kitko died June 1, 1964, after a long struggle against heart disease. This last battle was his finest, Despite the knowledge of the grave risks it entailed, he had undergone major heart surgery. After a courageous five months' fight, he lost that battle for his life and for his family, but he left us with not only a feeling of sorrow but also with an undying admiration and respect for him. Your Committee, therefore, submits the following proposed Resolutions: 1. That the Clearfield County Bar Association, the community of Clearfield and the County of Clearfield have lost a valuable citizen whose public and professional life reflected great credit on his family, his community, his profession and himself. 2. That the members of the Clearfield County Bar Association express their deepest sympa- thy to the family of their departed associate, Eugene G. Kitko. 3. That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Courts of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, as a memorial to Eugene G. Kitko and that a certified copy be presented to the family of our deceased brother as a token of the respect and affection in which he was held by his fellow members of the Bar." This ends the report of the Committee. I would like to add a few personal words. It was my great pleasure and privilege to be associated with Gene Kitko for nearly eight years when I was District Attorney and when he was Assistant District Attorney. We had campaigned against each other for the nomination for District Attorney, and he convinced me in that campaign of his great ability, of his sincerity, and his loyalty; and I, therefore, took the unusual step of inviting him to be my first Assistant. For seven years, two months and fifteen days, we worked together in that office and I do not believe that we ever had an angry exchange; and to him I give the credit for this. He was sincere. He was, above all, honest and conscientious. He liked the work of the District Attorney office. He ran for the office of District Attorney in 1961. The fact that he was not elected, I do not consider to be any reflection whatsoever upon him. I think that he went down in the general sweep. He ran a good race, as always. He ran an honest race, as always, and he left with his associates, and with me in particular, a feeling of having lost a very good friend, a very human person. My heart goes out to his family, for I know how much he meant to them because our association was not only a professional one but a social one. However, it is not idle words to say that I sincerely believe that young Gene and his sisters have a great memory; have a great tradition to look up to; and although they did not have their father as long as they would have liked, when they did have him they certainly had a fine father. Thank you.

BY MR. REILLY:

The honesty, ability and integrity of Eugene Kitko are well known among his fellow attorney's. He was indeed a credit to his profession. He was never too busy to lend a helping hand to a fellow member; and indeed, as a young attorney practicing with him, I will always appreciate the help he gave to me.

I would like at this time to move the adoption of the Resolutions of the Committee.

BY MR. MIKESSELL:

Members of the Kitko family and fellow members of the Bar, as a member of this Committee, like Joe said, it was an easy task to compile the record, which was very favorable and very laudable to our friend and brother, Gene Kitko. As a friend, it is a sad duty; and I would like to say that for my own personal feelings in this matter, it is the first time that I ever was personally involved as close with one of the members of the Bar. I met Gene in Dickinson College at the time he was starting his first year in Law School and I was starting college. Hughie Lawhead and myself are a couple of farmer boys from up here in Clearfield County. I didn't know anyone at the College and I didn't know anyone at the Law School; and through some Fraternity connections I met Gene, found out he was from Clearfield, and many times we took a flying trip home with his mother. Throughout college and law school I maintained a close relationship with Gene. Like John said, every time you had problems or needed a little bit of advice, he always made himself available to take time out of a busy schedule, to try to help you out. When I was in my first year of Law School in 1951, in the summers I had been working at whatever I could to earn a little bit of money to go back to school; and Gene called me and asked me if I would like to do some legal work. He was then practicing law here in Clearfield. I came down to his office and talked to him, and it involved title work for a gas line going through Clearfield County. Of course, at that stage of law school I had no experience or no knowledge of how to search titles and what the work involved; but after talking with Gene, he told me that he felt that I could do the work and he would be glad to show me and help me out; so I worked that summer with Gene. I probably learned 99% of what I know about title searching from him, and it was a very close personal relationship, and always a friendly atmosphere. Following his selection as the Assistant District Attorney I had many contacts with him in his official capacity, and I had many contacts with him as a friend - mostly as a friend; and I personally lost a good friend; and I know that the Bar lost a good member; and the only consolation that any of us have is that while he was here he did a fine job and fought a good fight.

I would like to second the motion.

BY THE COURT:

Before putting the motion before the Bar, the Court would ask if there are any remarks by members of the Bar.

BY DAVID S. AMMERMAN:

I know I was intimately connected with Gene right from the beginning of my practice in Clearfield County. Gene was Assistant District Attorney, and I did my clerkship in the District Attorney's office. He gave me, as a friend and member, many opportunities to ask questions and discuss things with him. I think more than any other member of the Bar, he would take the time to sit down and talk to me about practical problems that face a man when he first starts in the practice of law. He and I became very good friends - personally, and with the family. When he became District Attorney he appointed me as his Assistant, and I worked with him for two years. We had a wonderful relationship, both through the District Attorney's office and socially. I knew his family very well. Gene Kitko was one of the finest trial lawyers we had. I never saw a man more interested in trial work than Gene was. He showed me many valuable things which I will never forget. His humanity is what sticks out in my mind; his ability to take into consideration the personal element. There was never anything vindictive in his demeanor or attitude with people who came before him. He was interested in justice. In his record as Assistant District Attorney, he was not worried about how many convictions he had or their outcome, as far as win or lose; it was whether justice was done. There was never any doubt about that. He stuck up to the letter of the law, tempered with mercy and justice.

I know that he was ill; but even those around him and closest to him did not realize the extent of his illness. He never complained. In fact, it was a shock to those closest to him, the extent he had suffered this heart condition. We couldn't believe that he was in this condition because even, as we understood later, he was given but a few months to live unless he got this operation, still he worked as hard as he could. Particularly I remember phases of his work and I know that if I had known of his illness, I feel that I could have worked a little harder as his Assistant, than I did. I know that he did participate in his decision and talked it over with his friends, myself and with Mr. Scopione, the County Detective, and some of his other friends, and had numerous discussions about it; and we sort of were in there with him and when he decided to have this operation, it was a great personal tragedy to all of us that he died. I know how much he thought of his family; and I can see so many things in his son which were in Gene, that truly his son has a fine example to look up to.

Mr. Kramer

BY MR. KRAMER:

Members of the family, and the Bar, it is most fitting and proper that in the approach of another session of Quarter Sessions, where criminal cases are tried, and which begins next week, that we pause to recognize the career of this departed member of our Bar. For the fourteen years in which he practiced law, ten were identified and affiliated with the District Attorney's office. It was there in the trial of cases and the work which he performed for the clientele of the County, whether in his private capacity, or in his public capacity, that he attained the reputation as the type of lawyer which has been described several times already here today and in the Memorial, through those contacts which he had. During those ten years of his fourteen, I believe - I am speaking from recollection - that he was probably identified with or participated in the trial of almost every important case, in behalf of the Commonwealth. In many of them he was ;given the laboring oar of virtually chief counsel. For the last two years he was in that office he was, of course, the District Attorney himself; so that through these contacts, and through his political life he made wide acquaintanceships throughout the County, and many friends. He had many contacts through people of his own generation, and was building rapidly, a practice of a private nature for the time when he would go back into private practice away from public office. He was very effective in his presentation and handling of a client's case. He would reach for the telephone - and I have had this by experience - and raise a question and take a question up with the person involved, and whether it was somebody in the County or Department at Harrisburg, oftentimes with a swiftness that surprised me, he could effect an adjustment which other lawyers, including myself, might have taken somewhat more time to accomplish. This was one of the characteristics of his nature. He was quick; he was alert; he was prompt. Some might say that in some matters of detail he was not as thorough as others, but he was effective for his clients and obtained the desired and proper result, and obtained it without delay.

He had a very fine personality with which to meet the public. He was at home in the crowd; he liked the crowd; he liked people. He had a ringing laugh that carried, that had the infection of humor and jest. His voice and his laugh could be heard above the crowd and would induce others to participate in the jest at the time. He was ready in wit. He was keen in conversation and alert in all that he did. Then we turn to that other side of his career which has also been mentioned, and that was his family life. Whenever there came a holiday or part holiday he was ready to be off to the woods or the streams with that growing lad of his, now fourteen years of age. He was a chum and companion of his. He was a man who in spite of his professional activities, had time for his children, and they like him, and I understand within the family circle they miss him with exceeding sorrow; but as the years go by that sorrow will be supplemented and healed, as wounds are healed, and in its place there will come an esteem for him because he was a father they knew, a father who gave them of his time.

BY JUDGE JOHN J. PENTZ:

May it please the Court.

BY THE COURT:

Judge Pentz.

BY JUDGE PENTZ:

Members of the Clearfield County Bar and the Kitko family, I can not add anything more to what has been said by my predecessors who have spoken here; but during my career on the Bench, Gene Kitko was filling the office of either District Attorney or Assistant District Attorney, and I had opportunity to observe him in many important cases in this County, and in his handling of those prosecutions which he was employed to carry out. As has been said, he was not a persecutor but he was a prosecutor. His constant search was for the truth and to ascertain whether or not the person charged was really guilty, or the victim of circumstances or spite or envy; and in many, many cases he settled or disposed of the matter without bringing it into Court because he was not satisfied with the justice that was being asked against the person accused. He was a hard worker. He was a thorough investigator, and he prepared his cases thoroughly, so that when he went into Court he seemed apparently, to try them with the greatest of ease. He was a very good trial lawyer, and in my opinion was going to be one of the outstanding trial lawyers of this County; and trial lawyers are few and far between as we all know. His personality has been discussed and I can only emphasize that phase of his character, that phase of him as a man, that he was unquestionably human as well as humane, and he understood and was sympathetic with the problems of every person who has a family to bring up in this day and age. The Clearfield County Bar, I think, has lost an outstanding or presently at least, one who would become an outstanding lawyer. It has been said that a lawyer's fame is written in water, and that is only too true. As time goes on as I observe, what a man did, his work, his character, and what remains of a lawyer is what remains in the minds and thoughts of his contemporaries and those things he has added to the intangibles, that made up the prestige and the value of a Bar Association to the prestige and the feeling for the enforcement and establishment of the law in our legal institution; and it is men of the type of Gene Kitko who maintained those standards, and who have added to that way of life, that philosophy of life, that keeps our institution, keeps our democracy and our country together. Long after his contemporaries have gone and his memory may have faded, that little bit he has added to the intangibles of American civilization will be always there. Thank you.

BY THE COURT:

If there are no other remarks by members of the Bar, the Court would like to direct just a few personal remarks of its own to the members of the Kitko family or relatives who are here, and to the members of the Bar. I might say at the outset that all of the remarks made here this morning are remarks that this Court would have liked to have said; if not as well, at least in content, as being its own feeling with regard to the beloved member of the Bar whose memory we honor here this morning, Eugene G. Kitko. I have often said, and I think there is no question about the truth of this, that we have passed well over forty million laws in these United States since they have become a united group of states, and yet we have never improved at all; we have not added to, we have not been able to supplement, augment, or improve, as I said, the Ten Commandments which have been handed down to us; and in thinking of Eugene, or Gene as I always called him, I thought of the Ten Commandments because I thought he was an exemplary individual in so far as carrying out the dictates of all ten of these Commandments, and most particularly the fifth, because he honored father and mother. I think that he even extended that one; because he not only honored his parents, he honored his wife, a lovely person devoted to Gene, he honored his children; and he extended beyond family, to honor office which he held, honor his County and the nation. There is no question about the imprint that an individual such as Gene leaves upon his community and upon his nation. I feel too that although we all recognized the great ability he had as a law student and lawyer, I want to say here that I got to meet him at Dickinson Law School while he was a student there, on one of my visits to my brother Ed, who was then in school with him. I was taken to him immediately, and I think that was because I felt that Gene then, and until the day he left us, was himself, at all times. In addition to the excellent legal ability he had, however, and I think even overshadowing that, he had extreme honesty, an attribute I think every lawyer must have in order to be great. They can be as able as Solomon himself, and yet if they do not have extreme honesty of purpose, then they have nothing. But that Gene had, an honesty of purpose, a devotion to duty, a fidelity to office, to his fellowmen that is unsurpassed; but here is the thing I think is most important - these words are said here this morning. The marvelous thing is though, that these same statements were made by many of us while Gene was still living; not only made about him, they were made to him. There were those who were not of the same political affiliation, not of the same religious persuasion, not of the same social group, who made practically these same remarks that are being made here this morning. I think that is the marvelous thing about memorializing an individual such as Gene Kitko, the fact that it was said not only now, but said while he was with us in body, and I would add, in soul. So I join with all in expressing sorrow at his passing, but joy in the memory that he has left an imprint not only upon his family, not only upon his

SEPTEMBER 3, 1969, CERTIFIED TRANSCRIPT OF RECORD From Workmen's Compensation Board, filed.

NOVEMBER 10, 1969, ORDER, filed.

NOW, November 10, 1969, argument in the above matter is fixed for Monday, November 17, 1969 at 3:00 o'clock P.M. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

OCTOBER 5, 1970, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This appeal is filed by Statemen Insurance Company from the findings and Order of the Workmen's Compensation Board which reaffirmed its earlier findings and held that Statemen Insurance Company was wholly responsible under all the circumstances of the case. We find it impossible to find as the Board did although that originally was our finding. In view of the directives, findings and order of the Superior Court upon the earlier appeal, we directed the audits to be submitted. In further compliance with the Superior Court's Decision we find it impossible to hold Statesman Insurance Company despite the audits or because of the audits. The reason is that those audits would make the Bituminous Casualty Corp. solely responsible since they established that the claimant was the employee of the Coal Company and not of the farm. Because we can use the audits only for that purpose we must find that the Superior Court has in effect determined by its directions, its order and by the case of Bundrant vs Rikal 197, Pa. Superior Ct. 65, that under the circumstances of this case, only the carrier for the Coal Company can be held liable. Therefore, we enter the following

ORDER:

NOW, October 5, 1970 Appeal is sustained. Bituminous Casualty Corp, is solely liable to the claimant, Joseph A. Hansel and Statemen Insurance Company cannot be held to be liable in any respect to the claimant. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

ORDER: NOW, to wit, this 11th day of June, 1970, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, and on motion of Joseph J. Lee, Esq., attorney for Shirley M. Dotts, a bench warrant is hereby issued together with a rule against William Gerald Dotts to show cause why sanction should not be imposed upon him in the nature of contempt proceedings for failure to abide by the Order of this Court of May 23, 1966 - said rule returnable the 23rd day of June 1970. By the Court, John A. Cherry, P.J. JUNE 29, 1970, ORDER, filed. NOW, June 29, 1970 the Court finds that there is no valid legal excuse for defendant having failed to support his children as required by previous Orders and therefore, finds that the defendant has failed to comply with the Order of Court and technically is in contempt of Court for failure to do so. However, under all circumstances the Court will grant the defendant fifteen (15) days within which to make payment upon arrearages in the sum of $100.00 together with payment of current amount of support to wit: $70.00 making a total of $170.00 which must be paid within fifteen (15) days from date, failing which said defendant shall have issued upon his body a bench warrant for his arrest and for his incarceration in the Clearfield County jail. Costs to be paid by defendant. By the Court, John A. Cherry, President Judge. JULY 10, 1970, SHERIFF'S RETURN, filed. STATEMENT OF LAW AND RECOMMENDED FINDINGS OF FACTS ON THE PART OF CONDEMNNEES, filed.

1. In arriving at the valuation of the remaining part of the property of Condemnees after there had been a partial taking by the Commonwealth, it is proper for the Condemnees' expert witness (Zitzelberger) to testify to the intended use of the parcel condemned for a 4-lane highway in his valuation of the Condemnees' remaining property, after considering the fact that the parcel taken has been elevated for highway purposes and which will naturally affect the valuation of the improvements still vested in the Condemnees and to consider such use when fixing market value after taking. Section 606 of the Eminent Domain Code, approved June 24, 1964.
2. The Condemnees by virtue of their property abutting on Moose Creek had riparian rights in the said Moose Creek.
3. Riparian rights are property rights for which compensation is guaranteed when taken. 13 Pennsylvania Law Encyclopedia 257.
4. The best use of the premises was for residential purposes.
5. The Real Estae Appraiser on behalf of the Condemnor had never bought or sold property in the area of the Condemnees' property for any private firm or individual.
6. That the expert witness appearing on behalf of the Condemnor is classified as a captive real estate appraiser and considered only such information as to the take as given him by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways and which description of the take failed to include a parcel 15' x 103.9' which abutted on Moose Creek at the time of his appraisal of the Condemnees' property.
7. The question of damages is a positive and not comparative one and hence the Condemnees are entitled to receive what would repair their estate, not what is usually paid for similar privileges. 63 Dickinson Law Review, page 6.

JULY 21, 1966, Memorial Resolutions, Clearfield County Bar Association,

We, the undersigned, the committee appointed by James K. Nevling, President of the Clearfield County Bar Association, to prepare and present a memorial and resolutions of regret and respect in honoring the late Morris Louis Silberblatt, a member of the Bar of Clearfield County, herewith present such resolutions.

Morris Louis Silberblatt was born on the 6th day of May, 1898, to Meyer Silberblatt and Pauline Silberblatt at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and then moved to Ford City where the family resided for two years and then moved to Kittanning where Morris L. Silberblatt resided and attended the public schools of Kittanning, graduating from the Kittanning High School in 1917.

Following his graduation from Kittanning High School, he attended the University of Michigan where he was a member of the Student Army Training Corps during World War I, transferring to the University of Pittsburgh where he graduated in 1921. He attended the University of Pittsburgh Law School, gaining his Bachelor of Law Degree from this university in 1923.

He was admitted to the Bar of Allegheny County and Armstrong County, as well as to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He practiced in Pittsburgh, maintaining his own office, until August of 1924.

He then moved to Clearfield as an associate of the late James P. O'Laughlin, where he remained until the organization of the firm of Bell, O'Laughlin and Silberblatt, consisting of Singleton Bell, former Judge of Clearfield County, and Mr. O'Laughlin.

Following the death of James P. O'Laughlin and later Singleton Bell, the firm continued as Bell and Silberblatt, consisting of the subject of this memorial and F. Cortez Bell, Sr., who later became President Judge of Clearfield County. After the accession of F. Cortez Bell, Sr. to the bench in 1944, Morris formed an association with John J. Pentz, which continued until the succession of John J. Pentz as President Judge of the Courts of Clearfield County in 1954.

Thereafter, Morris L. Silberblatt was a member of the firm of Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, consisting of F. Cortez Bell, Morris L. Silberblatt, Walter M. Swoope, F. Cortez Bell, Jr., Paul Silberblatt, his son, and Richard Bell, in which firm he continued until his death on the 10th day of June, 1966.

Morris was married to Julia Markowitz of Braddock, Pennsylvania, to which marriage a son, Paul Silberblatt, was born in 1923. His first wife died in 1927 and he then married Julia Miller of Binghamton, New York, in the year 1928, who, with his son, Paul, survives him. At the time of his death he was a member of Temple Beth Shalom of Clearfield; the Clearfield Lodge of F. & A.M., the Williamsport Consistory; the Jaffa Shrine of Altoona; B'nai Brith; the American Legion; the Elks Lodge of Clearfield; a member and past president of Curwensville Rotary, and was a veteran of World War I.

During his career in Clearfield County, Morris L. Silberblatt achieved a place of honor and distinction in the legal annals of the Clearfield County Bar and was noted for his kindness, tolerance and humor. He performed his obligations to his clients and members of his firm and family with the utmost sincerity. Although he seldom engaged in trials of cases before a jury, he was qualified to handle such litigation but he preferred handling matters in which conflict was not so important, and never neglected giving to every person engaging his services full, conscientious and sincere attention.

Morris L. Silberblatt, in addition to his devotion to the affairs of his clients, gave his time and attention to many civic matters, looking to the betterment of the community in which he lived and worked. He was, for a period of time, on the Clearfield County Advisory Board for the Department of Public Assistance, and was engaged in many other community activities. His passing will be felt as a loss not only to his family but to his many friends as well as to the community of Clearfield.

In addition to his wife and son, he is survived by three brothers - Sam and Abe of Kittanning, Pennsylvania and John of Philadelphia - and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Pincus and Mrs. Kivie Wolfe, both of Philadelphia.

The committee presents this memorial and expresses for itself and for the Bar of Clearfield County the regret of each individual in the loss of a loved and honored member and one who was active in the movement for better civic conditions in the community in which he lived and carried out his work.

We, therefore, respectfully move that this memorial be adopted by the Bar Association of Clearfield County, that it be spread by the Bar Association of Clearfield County, that it be spread upon the records of the County of Clearfield, and a certified copy thereof be furnished to the wife and members of the family of Morris Louis Silberblatt. Respectfully submitted. s/ John J. Pentz, Chairman, Clarence R. Kramer, and Richard A. Bell attorney who tried to say Yes, rather than poke holes in everything that was presented to him. I think all of us attorneys are inclined to try to be a little bit supercritical of the work of other law offices or of other attorneys. If you would present a paper to Morris, he would look it over, make a few suggestions; and he would try to say "Well, we will work this out without changing it. I think this will be fair. It won't be necessary to re-draft the whole thing. I will go along with it; and he was a man that you could trust. As far as anyone, he could have been a millionaire. He certainly could have in our County, as far as clients are concerned. The heritage that he left to his family, his wife, his son, and his grandsons, is something that very few men are able to leave. He was, and is remembered as, a good man and a man with a lot of friends. Thank you.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you Mr. Mikesell. Mr. Belin:

BY CARL A. BELIN, SR., ESQ.:

Your Honor, members of Morris' family, and members of the Bar: We have been talking about Morris; but the nice thing about Morris, I always thought, was his kindness. You never could meet Morris on the street that he wouldn't pass the time of day or talk about something. So often when you have been practicing together for forty years, you do like to visit with each other on the streets; and I always remembered Morris for that one point; And I think Mrs. Silberblatt - she would come down and take Morris home- and on her way down and going home, if he saw you walking he would stop and pick you up. Now those little kindnesses you don't see too much today. They pass you on the street, you don't mean nothing; but Morris had that kindness. Now, as far as practicing law, I have been practicing law with Morris I think almost forty years; and one of the things Morris had was an attribute I thought was wonderful - he never let a person down involved in the case. In other words, he didn't get angry at the other attorney because he happened to have a case on the other side; and when I first came to the Bar, you know that wasn't the practice. Whenever you had a law suit before a jury, they would knock one generation after another generation of attorneys; and Morris, mind, was brought up in that atmosphere where it was popular - excuse my expression - to just knock the attorney and his family, his uncles and everyone; but that never wiped off on Morris; and Morris always, I thought - and there is just one thing I want to say, because there is no use adding - and we all know he was a wonderful man. I mean everybody knows that; but the one thing that I have learned, and I hope all the young fellows will remember this - his word was his law. You could call Morris up and say "I would like to have a twenty day extension". You didn't have to get a letter from him. You didn't have to say "Morris send me a letter verifying that." But let me tell you, you couldn't do that with every member of the Bar, and let's not kid ourselves about it. You may have a few days before the Statute of Limitations would run out, and I would say "Morris I haven't had time to get my pleadings done." Well, Morris agreed; he wouldn't even raise the question; and I am telling you, his word was his bond; and I think there isn't a higher honor you could pay him, because he was a man of honor.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you, Mr. Belin. Mr. Gates;

BY JOHN B. GATES, ESQ.:

If it please the Court, members of the Bar, and family: It is by formality that we are here today, but in conclusion, I would like to reminisce a bit. I think probably I was the first student registered in Morris's office, maybe with exception of Judge Cherry. There have been a great number of students have followed. It has been stated here on numerous occasions, the attributes and the fine qualities that Morris had. I think it is fitting, and probably belated on my part and other members who have served under Morris, to extend our appreciation of the qualities and the good things which go beyond the practicalities of practicing law; and in conclusion I would like to extend at this time, the appreciation, somewhat belatedly, of those who served under Morris as students, of the fine qualities and the teaching which he tried to instill in us.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you Mr. Gates. Mr. Morgan:

BY THOMAS H. MORGAN, ESQ.:

Your Honor, members of the Bar, and family: I didn't know Mr. Silberblatt as well as some of the others did; but the first time I ever met him was back when I was waiting to hear the results of my Bar examination. Now, he knew, I don't know; but he knew before I did. I was registered in Center County; and I thought it was a great courtesy that he called me and congratulated me and offered any help he might be able to give. I think all of us know the young, inexperienced lawyer can be taken advantage of, and I think perhaps we have been taken advantage of at times. Mr. Silberblatt, never took any advantages of me. He pointed out things to me in matters that have helped me. In matters we did have dealings on, he was extremely courteous and I appreciated it very much.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you, Mr. Morgan.

Before putting the motion before the Bar, the Court would wish to make just a few personal remarks of his own. As Mr. Gates has pointed out, I was a clerk in the office of Bell & Silberblatt, particularly assigned to Judge Bell, who acted as my preceptor; but Judge Bell was rather busy at the time and expressed to me his feeling that he might be occupied a great deal of the time but that I should see fit to talk with Morris. I didn't have to go to him for Morris came to me and talked with me every day; and I would like to say that most of his talking wasn't a matter of teaching me law; but he expressed the fact that I was to get that teaching at school, and he talked to me on ethics a great many times. I would like to state here and now that it left its imprint upon me; and just as he has left the heritage of honesty and integrity, and all the other fine attributes that have been talked about here this morning, not only upon his family and to his family, and not only upon members of the Bar and to the members of the Bar, but to the whole community, in contact with the individuals. I think one of the nicest things that was said here this morning too, was the fact that these remarks are not made just this morning in eulogizing Morris's memory, but they were said during his lifetime; and I think that is the very, very important thing about all this - the fact that these expressions of praise and recognition of the greatness of and individual, did not wait until he was no longer here in person but were expressed during his lifetime. And then I think the very fine thing about it too, is the fact that Morris was made to know that these feelings were had by everyone with whom he came in contact during his practice and in his association with individuals within the community. I think that is the real thing about all of this. So that in saying that we express our sorrow in his passing, we do mean every bit of that; but I think that we ought to declare a joy and a recognition that he did have his effect upon not only many members of the Bar, but other individuals, in causing them to want to live a better and more full life than they might otherwise desire to do. I could go into many individual cases in which Morris was contacted and was handling, to show that in actual practice he lived every one of the praises which have been expressed here this morning, but I don't think there is any need to do that. The family must know that he showed his pride of family, his pride of profession, and he showed his pride of Americanism throughout all his life. I would say this in conclusion to members of the family, and I speak for myself as well as the other members of the bar who have not expressed themselves vocally here this morning, that we adopt, and we extend to the fullest, every one of the remarks and praises in recognition and in honor of Morris Silberblatt, one of the finest members of the Bar that Clearfield County has ever known.

May I now present to the Bar the motion to adopt the Resolution presented by the Committee, at this time. All those in favor indicate by saying Aye.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE BAR PRESENT:

Aye.

BY THE COURT:

Opposed? (None)

Let the record note that there has been unanimous adoption of the Resolution presented by the Committee eulogizing the memory of Morris L. Silberblatt, Esquire.

This now concludes the eulogy ceremonies, and the Court will now be in recess.

Court adjourned.

Judge Bell.

BY F. CORTEZ BELL, SR.

I probably knew Morris longer than anyone in the room. I have a picture of him on the wall, out at Ann Arbor either in 1918 or 1919, I don't remember which it was. I have been in this home over in Kittanning. I knew his first wife, as well as his second wife. I think Ed Kellwy probably has known him second longer than me, as he came here, I think, while Ed was with Mr. O'Laughlin. That Saturday afternoon the "C Club" - that's what we called the Students' Army Training Corps, Morris was marching and I can't help commenting on the fact that I kept kidding him all the time that he was as thin as a toothpick, and he was. We organized a Building & Loan and Mr. O'Laughlin was the first president. I can't remember who the solicitor was, but Morris was a good many years after that. Maybe I was first, and then while O'Laughlin was president, he was president, he was. I don't remember that. But in my conversations with Dr. Frantz, who was married to Judge Graff and Senator Graff's sister who was here with Lever Stewart, and was my next door neighbor for a good many years and has been very well acquainted with Morris, she has never failed to express her admiration for the family. The comment you hear is very complimentary, not in terms of money or particular legal ability - and I am not saying he didn't have it - but the colored folks and the fellows on the corner, say he is honest. I think that is a pretty good heritage to leave. Morris had legal ability and I know it. We started to practice law when father and Jim O'Laughlin went together. That's when I got over in Kittanning with him, and that's where I talked with Mrs. Frantz who is my next door neighbor now, and she frequently tells me how highly regarded the Silberblatt family is. We all know he had that serious bowel operation years ago, and my pointing out how thin he as before was partly kidding him because we knew his weight was not due to his own activities but due to his physical condition. I have always told Mrs. Frantz that so long as I had Morris in the firm I didn't need to bother with anyone cheating me, and I mean that honestly, and she said when you once get a person that is honest you can rely on them and just stay with them, and I think that is true. I have known Morris since 1918, though not as well as I did after he came here to practice law. Intimately we have been together since about 1927 or 1928. I don't remember the exact year. Mr. O'Laughlin died I think in 1930, and father died the same year, and then we were together, just the two of us, until I ran for Judge and then in 1944 took a ten year gap, until Judge Pentz came in, and then I went back and renewed the acquaintance we had started before. So it is rather along period of years, in which you get on again, get off the horse and get on again and still ride in good circumstances and friendship. I don't think we ever had a cross word. We got mad at each other, don't misunderstand me, and I have heard him do some swearing now and then; but I think Morris had just as much admiration for me as I had for him; and I mean that in all the kindness in the world; because to me money don't mean everything. You talk on legal ability, and Morris had legal ability, and I am not saying he didn't. I think he had just as much as I have. I don't think I have too much, to be very honest with you. That's why I am putting it that way. I think the greatest heritage that any man could ever leave is the good thought of the people. I was in the barber shop this morning and some Italian came up to me and I said "We are having memorial services for Mr. Silberblatt" and he said the same thing I have been hearing all the time "Well he was honest".

BY THE COURT:

Thank you Judge Bell. Are there any other members of the Bar who wish to present themselves at this time? Mr. Ramey.

BY W. ALBERT RAMEY, ESQ.

Judge Cherry, Members of Morris' family, members of the Bar and friends, I feel as though I would not have taken upon me the duty that I feel responsible for this morning in saying just a passing word in favor of my friend and a neighbor of ours. Morris and I came to Clearfield about the same time. He came in August and I came in September 1924. We were new together, and we palled around together. The greatest tribute I can say of Morris, I think is "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." I believe in the forty years experience I have had with Morris as a friend and neighbor, that he kept that injunction sincerely. He never attempted to gain profit at the expense of any other person and he fought valiently to keep from making an enemy, or to keep from hurting any person, or offending any person. I believe it can be said of Morris that he never made an enemy in the world. He left this world with a memory that has been said here by Judge Pentz and the other speakers, that all of us can envy.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you Mr. Ramey. Mr. Kelley.

BY EDWARD T. KELLEY, ESQ.:

Judge Cherry, Members of Morris' family, members of the Bar, it seems that since Morris has left us something is missing in the Court House. There was always the sight of Morris in the corridors, in the Register and Records's office, or in the Prothonotary's office. You could always go to him and talk with him and be sure of a friendly and attentive audience; and he would go out of his way to be a brother lawyer; highly ethical and a devoted friend. I considered Morris one of my good friends here in town, and I felt that when he gave me his confidence it would be something that would be very well worth while. I know he was a devoted to his family, to to his law firm, and it was always possible in dealing with Morris to know that what he said had no chicanery in it; had no effort to balance things in favor of himself, and he was always willing to go half way if the settlement proposed was not harmful to his client. He was an outstanding man, a good friend and a fine ethical lawyer.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you, Mr. Kelley. Mr. Johnston.

BY CLIFFORD A. JOHNSTON, ESQ.:

Your Honor, I am the only Philipsburg lawyer here, I believe; we apparently got word of this late and I almost didn't make it, but I want to add the Centre County sentiments. There is not much I can say that hasn't been said, but I want to express our sympathy. Morris had many friends in Philipsburg. I think I was on the the last that served my preceptorship under Mr. Silberblatt. All members of the Centre County Bar had the same fine relationship, and he will long be remembered for the things he did for us. Thank you.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you, Mr. Johnston. Mr. Mikesell:

BY DONALD R. MIKESELL, ESQ.:

If it please the Court, Mr. President, Members of the Family, I can't add much to what has already been said. I wish I could say one thing on behalf of my own personal friendship with Morris. Morris was probably the first attorney in Clearfield that I met officially as an attorney. When I came down to get my papers ready for law school, Morris was the Secretary of the Bar Association, and I believe Chariman of the local Admissions Committee, and being from out of town and not knowing other attorneys, I came in from school I think it was a Saturday morning, and knowing now what a Saturday morning is in an attorney's life, I can appreciate how he would go out of his way to help someone. He took me into his office - at that time it was up where Dr. Bell has his office now on Second Street - showed me the library and told me what we could expect in law school and some words of encouragement and advice as to procedures to follow to speed up your registration in getting started as an attorney.

The remarks that were made are all very appropriate. I join in them, and would like to add one other thing. We all as attorneys practice the profession in a little different manner; some of us are great advocates of court. some of us are more or less corporate practitioners. Morris, I believe, was probably more successful than most attorneys in our County or in our State. Successful being measured in accomplishing the ends of his clients. Some attorneys are prone to litigate, get into Court, make a big fee; they might sound like they had made a great speech, the jury comes in and fineds against the client where they recover half as much as what the settlement had been offered in the first place. That attorney hasn't accomplished much for his client. On the other hand Morris, when you would meet with him and talk to him, he was very able and after listening and getting down to the gist of the matter, would say "What is fair? What is reasonable on the situation? Let's try to work it out". He was an attorney that did a lot to elevate the lawyer and to help other young attorneys. He was the type of an

(f) We have also considered rents of this property before and after taking, and also rents of other properties near the property in question.

(g) We have also considered costs of adjustments and alterations made necessary and reasonably required to the remaining property.

JANUARY 11, 1967, statement under rule 36, filed.

Notice to William U. Smith, Esq. Attorney for Bituminous Casualty Company and David L. Baird, Esq., Attorney for Joseph A. Hansel, Claimant.

Take notice that the following is a brief statement of the questions raised on the appeal in this action:

1. Did the Claimant's work on the employer's farm in repairing a piece of farm machinery on April 14, 1965 terminate the existing status of the Claimant as a regular employee in the coal business of the S. R. Hansel Coal Company?

2. There being no voluntary election by the employer, prior to the injury, to have his agricultural employee come under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, may the Workmen's Compensation Board and the Court preclude the agricultural exemption as a defense?

The Appellant does not intend to exclude any of the evidence from being printed. Unless objections are made within ten days after service of this notice, consent to the foregoing will be presumed. John B. Gates, Esq., Attorney for Statesman Insurance Co, Appellant

And now this 11th day of January, 1967, Service of the within accepted and copy received. Baird, McCamley & Miller by David L. Baird, Attorney for S. R. Hensel.

HANSEL is PLAINTIFF and S. R. HANSEL and S. R. HANSEL t/a S. R. HANSEL COAL COMPANY are DEFENDANT and STATESMAN INSURANCE COMPANY Defendant Carrier and BITUMINOUS CASUALTY COMPANY Defendant Insurance Carrier.

And it was so proceeded in our said Superior Court, that the following judgment was made, to wit: THAT PORTION OF THE AWARD DIRECTING THAT THE SAME BE PAID BY STATESMAN INSURANCE COMPANY IS SET ASIDE, AND THE RECORD IS REMANDED TO THE COURT BELOW WITH DIRECTION TO RETURN IT TO THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BOARD FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS TO DETERMINE THE COVERAGE OF EACH CARRIER IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS OPINION. JACOBS, J.

And the record and proceedings thereupon, and all things concerning the same, were (agreeably to the directions of the Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided) ordered by the said Superior Court to be remitted to the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Clearfield aforesaid, as well for execution or otherwise as to justice shall appertain: Whereupon we here remit you the record of the judgment aforesaid and the proceedings thereupon, in order for execution or otherwise, as aforesaid.

JULY 7, 1966, COMPLAINT IN ACTION TO QUIET TITLE, filed.

The Plaintiff, WILLIAM SUNELAITIS, a/k/a WILLIAM SUNAILITUS, brings this Action to Quiet Title for the purpose of barring the above named Defendants, their heirs, devisees, administrators, executors, and assigns, and all other persons, firms, partnerships, or corporate entities or interests, from asserting any right, title, interest or lien in and to the premises described in Exhibit "A" hereto attached and made a part hereof, situate in the City of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and avers the following cause of Action:

1. The Plaintiff, WILLIAM SUNELAITIS, a/k/a WILLIAM SUNAILITUS is an individual who resides at R. D. #3 North Kane Road, Kane, McKean County, Pennsylvania.

2. After diligent search the Plaintiff is unable to discover the whereabouts or identity of the heirs, devisees, administrators, executors or assigns of JACOB J. HEFFNER, deceased. There is an Estate on record in the Orphans' Court of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for JACOB HEFFNER, who died interstate on April 19, 1904 which indicates that said decedent was survived by a wife, Mary Heffner and an unnamed minor child, but lists no other heirs.

3. The premises described in Exhibit "A" were formerly a part of premises which were conveyed to Jacob J. Heffner by deed dated October 6, 1890 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book No. 106, page 57 on May 25, 1899.

4. That by deed dated May 13, 1911, and recorded in Deed Book No. 184, page 451, Mary Heffner, as widow of Jacob Heffner, deceased, conveyed whatever interest she had in said premises described in the above mentioned deed, of which the premises described in Exhibit "A" are a part, to Jesse Heffner. Under the law in effect at that time said Mary Heffner as the surviving widow of Jacob Heffner, would have a life estate in said premises. The said Mary Heffner now being deceased, the life estate interest of Jesse Heffner in and to said premises is now extinguished.

5. That by deed of the Treasurer of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, dated August 31, 1916 and recorded in Deed Book No. 237, page 60, on August 23, 1919, said premises described in the above mentioned deed, of which the premises described in Exhibit "A" are a part, were conveyed to the County Commissioners of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, for non payment of taxes as property of the Jacob Heffner Estate.

6. That by deed of the County Commissioners of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, dated August 7, 1919, and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book No. 237, page 61, on August 23, 1919, said premises described in the above mentioned deed, of which the premises described in Exhibit "A" are a part, were conveyed to C. A. Drake.

7. The said C. A. Drake, by deed dated July 24, 1935, and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book No. 310, page 519 on February 26, 1939, said premises described in the above mentioned deeds, of which the premises described in Exhibit "A" are a part, were conveyed to William Sunailitus and Marcella Sunailitus, husband and wife. The said William Sunailitus having died, the same remained unto Marcella Sunailitus.

8. The said Marcella Sunailitus, by deed dated November 1, 1950, and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book No. 409, page 542, conveyed said premises described in Exhibit "A" to William Sunelaitis Plaintiff herein.

9. That by deed dated November 17, 1965, and intended to be recorded, the heirs at law of Marcella Sunailitus, deceased, executed a quitclaim deed to correct certain errors in description of the premises described in Exhibit "A" contained in said deed of Marcella Sunailitus to William Sunelaitis dated November 1, 1950 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania, in Deed Book No. 409, page 542. By virtue of said deed, the Plaintiff is presently in possession of said premises described in Exhibit "A" and has a fee simple title to the same.

10. The Plaintiff, William Sunelaitis, a/k/a William Sunailitus, and his predecessors in title have been in actual, open, notorious, visible, hostile, and continuous possession of said premises described in Exhibit "A" for a period of Twenty-one (21) years and upwards.

11. That one of the purposes of this action is to quiet title as to any interest that the heirs, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns of Jacob J. Heffner, and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities and interest may have in the said premises described in Exhibit "A" because of any defect that may exist in said tax sale of said premises because of the premises being improperly assessed, not properly described, no proper notice of said tax sale to the record owner, or that the said premises were sold as the property of one other than the record owner, or any other reason that may raise some question as to the validity of said title. Another purpose of this action is to make the title to the premises described in Exhibit "A" marketable so that the same can be certified.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the Court to:

(A) determine the rights of WILLIAM SUNELAITIS, a/k/a WILLIAM SUNAILITUS, are superior to the rights of the Defendants and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships, or corporate entities and interest;

(B) determine that WILLIAM SUNELAITIS, a/k/a WILLIAM SUNAILITUS, Has title in fee simple to the premises described in Exhibit "A" as against the Defendants and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities and interest;

(C) enjoin the Defendants and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities and interest from setting up any title to said premises described in Exhibit "A" from impeaching, denying or in any way attacking the title of WILLIAM SUNELAITIS, a/k/a WILLIAM SUNAILITUS; and

(D) grant and decree whatever further relief as may appear equitable and proper. GLEASON, CHERRY, & GUIDO. By Anthony S. Guido, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope		Harold J. Boulton & William A.E. Leitzinger	JULY 14, 1966, PETITION, filed. (See November Term 1965, No. 264)
		524	The Petition of Harold J. Boulton and William A. E. Leitzinger respectfully represents: (1). That your Petitioners are the owners of several pieces of land located at the intersection of what is known in Clearfield Borough as Rockton Road and the Penfield Highway. (2). That without any prior notice to your Petitioners, the State Highway Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entered upon the property of your Petitioners and moved Woods Run several hundred feet towards Clearfield, and erected a new bridge over the highway and began constructing and are still constructing a road up, what was formerly, the Rockton Road. (3). That there was filed in the office of Dick Reed, Register and Recorder of the County of Clearfield, a map of this alleged improvement, but the names of your Petitioners as the owners of said land were not placed on said map, nor were your petitioners notified. The name of another person, who at no time ever owned said land, was set forth on said map. (4). That the approach to the Shortway consisting of part of the old Penfield Road and part of the old ROCKTON Road is known as Route No. 17083. (5). That originally the parents of your Petitioners obtained the property lying South of the Rockton Road and West of the Penfield Road from the receiver of the Clearfield National Bank. (6). That John Leitzinger, deceased was the owner of some of the land North to the Rockton Road, and Edward Leitzinger and Harry Boulton were the owners of the lands to the South of the Rockton Road. (7). That due to the changes in the Rockton Road, the daughter of John Leitzinger, Evelyn Sykes, was left with a piece of the South portion of land, so that your Petitioners purchased from her tract of 60 acres. (8). That as the matter stood at the time of the entry by the Highway Department on to the property of your Petitioners, they were the owners of the land immediately joining the old Rockton Road and lying directly South from the junction of the Penfield Road near the top of the hill going towards Rockton. (9). That the signature of the Governor was had before September 1, 1964, and no declaration of taking had ever been filed by the Department of Highways. (10). That your Petitioners sought to obtain a statement from the Department of Highways and a map of said changes in an effort to determine what sums or sum the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania intended to pay for the taking of this Property. (11). That your Petitioners now have a map and a statement in writing by the Department of Highways, so the purpose of the original Petition has been served, and we respectfully request the appointment of Viewers to determine the changes suffered by your Petitioners, and set out the following information: (a). The name of the Condemnor is the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Highways. (b). The names and addresses of the owners of said property are Harold J. Boulton and William A. E. Leitzinger, both residents of Clearfield Borough. (12). That your Petitioners obtained title to said property by a Deed from the Clearfield Finance Corporation, said Deed being dated the 30th day of August, 1938 and being recorded in Clearfield County in Deed Book 324, Page 21 on the 7th day of November, 1938. (13). That said Deed was from a corporation owned by your Petitioners or their families and vested in them individually, giving each a 1/2 interest in a number of properties. Parcel 3 of said Deed list the properties in Laerence Township at or near the Rockton and Penfield Roads as follows: First Description - 264.46 acres Second Description - 90 acres Third Description - 11.55 acres Fourth Description - 1 acre Fifth Description - A lot at the corner of the old Rockton and Penfield Pikes Sixth Description - 14.2 acres (14). That later, Evelyn Sykes, widow of Blair Sykes and daughter of John Leitzinger, on January 17, 1957, deeded to Harold J. Boulton an undivided 1/2 interest in a tract of 60 acres and to William A. E. Leitzinger the other 1/2 undivided interest in said 60 acres located at the intersection of the Rockton Road and Penfield Road, said Deed being recorded in Deed Book 456, Page 564, and the Deed to Harold J. Boulton being recorded in Deed Book 456, Page 565. (15). That in the construction of said highway, a gradual curve to the left and a widening of the intersection has been made the course of Woods Run being taken, and your Petitioners are unable to learn how much land is being taken for the construction of this road, but the right-of-way on the map furnished shows a right-a-way of a width of 260 to 300 feet which will divert almost into the entire property of your Petitioners, and down near the Rockton Road a width of the taking will exceed 300 feet. (16). That your Petitioners are uncertain whether the ownership of the property is as stated on the map furnished them, and whether any land will be left severed from the remainder of the property, nor are they informed as to what access will be furnished to them off the highway as it goes up the hill and across the woods Run area as relocated. WHEREFORE, your Petitioner respectfully request that the Court appoint three viewers to view the premises for a hearing, after which the viewers will make their finding of damages sustained by your Petitioners as they may be lawfully entitled to And they will every pray, s/ Harold J. Boulton and William A. E. Leitzinger. ORDER: Now, July 14, 1966, the within Petition having been presented, the Court appoints, Joseph Dague, Esquire, Ernest P. Baum and Ward Reese, citizens of Clearfield County, as Viewers to view the premises and hold a hearing and recommend the amount of damages to be awarded to the Petitioners as required, by law, By The Court, John A. In Re: Relocation of land in Graham Township, the property of LEROY THOMPSON and ISABEL Ralph Thompson THOMPSON/and DORIS THOMPSON		One copy certified to Attorney for Commonwealth. One copy certified to L. R. Brockbank. (See 287, May Term 1966) The Petition of Leroy Thompson and Isabel Thompson, for themselves and as agents for Ralph Thompson and Doris Thompson, respectfully represents:
Legislative Route 1009, Section 34, Claim #1702239		(1). That under date of June 16, 1966, there was a notice addressed to Leroy and Isabel Thompson of the filing of a Declaration of Taking by the Department of Highways, setting forth the amount of damages to the property attempted to be described thereon for $845 with a statement in fact that if the money was not accepted within two months, it would be paid into Court and a release sought.
545		(2). That notice is given that said sum is not accepted and is, therefore, refused.
Edward T. Kelley		(3). That a similiar paper was addressed to Ralph Thompson containing the same information as to the township, legislative route and claim number and bearing the same date; namely, June 16, 1966.
Commonwealth of Pa. Department of Highways		(4). That on the second sheet is a Declaration of Taking of a right of way of Legislative Route 1009, Section 34 in Graham AND Cooper Townships and avers the approval of the Governor on November 18, 1965, a copy of the plan being recorded in the Recorder's Office on January 7, 1966.
Pro	14.00	(5). That on examination of the plan of record, it shows that it was approved January 7, 1966, so it is subsequent to September 1, 1964, and subject to all provisions of the Eminent Domain Act.
Pro	3.00	(6). That there appears on the desk of Leroy Thompson and envelope addressed to his brother, Ralph Thompson, containing identical data as to the Declaration of Taking, which was presumably filed June 11, 1966. The envelopes were certified mail, so they were mailed at the Clearfield Post Office on June 17, 1966, addressed to Leroy and Isabel Thompson at Kylertown and addressed to Ralph Thompson also at Kylertown, which is stricken off, and the word "Philipsburg" written on it. That is also stricken and Tyrone Pike R. D. is over it. If the papers have ever been served on Ralph Thompson, Leroy and Isabel Thompson have no knowledge whatsoever. Their counsel has written to Ralph Thompson that he is filing a Petition for Viewers on behalf of both, and sets forth the following information:
Leo. R. Brockbank, Viewer	$61.25	(a). The notice of condemnation is just addressed to Ralph Thompson, but the map attached in both notices show that this property was purchased September 17, 1961 by Deed recorded in Clearfield County in Deed Book 489, Page 138; a one-half interest therein being in the name of Leroy and Isabel Thompson and the other one-half interest being in the name of Ralph and Doris Thompson. The map attached in both cases how such information; the notice was only mailed to Ralph Thompson and not his wife.
Plff W/B	28.92	(b). Leroy Thompson no longer lives in Kylertown, and Ralph Thompson has not lived in Kylertown for some time. The map shows the Deed Book but not the page, said Deed being quoted as 489, and that is the only deed into Leroy and Ralph Thompson and wives, jointly.
Pro.	2.00	(c). The deed shows a title of 79.24 acres, as does the map, but the map states 81.4 acres acturally, and the claim of taking of 13.41, leaving a residue of 65.18 acres on the left and 2.81 acres on the right.
Pro.	3.50	(d). The amount offered for compensation in payment of said property is refused.

MAY 22, 1967, MOTION, filed by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope

NOW, comes Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, attorneys for Leroy Thompson and Isabell Thompson, husband and wife and Ralph Thompson and Doris Thompson, husband and wife, and moves your Honorable Court as follows:

(1) A Petition for Viewers was presented to the above number and term under the Eminent Domain Act, view was had by the Board of Viewers consisting of L. R. Brockbank, Ernest Baum and R. E. Bechtel, and hearing was held on October 25, 1966. At the hearing, counsel for the Commonwealth produced a paper written on May 17, 1961, by Leroy Thompson to the Renoes, Grantors in the Deed from them to the Thompsons, which Deed is recorded in Clearfield County in Deed Book 489, Page 138, and dated the same day, covering matters set out in the Deed of the same date, and in a postscript to said letter, Leroy Thompson told Mr. & Mrs. Renoe that should the Shortway go through, he would give them one-half (1/2) of what he received from the same. This letter was signed by Leroy Thompson who was one-half (1/2) owner under a Deed conveying all interest of the property Renoes to Leroy and Ralph Thompson and their wives.

(2) Counsel for the Commonwealth was of the opinion that Mr. & Mrs. Renoe should be made parties to this proceeding while Appellants' counsel contended that the Deed speaks for itself and the letter was a matter between the Thompsons and Renoes which was not of record, as to which question, the Viewers were to take the matter under

	546	The Petition of LeroyThompson and Isabel Thompson, husband and wife, respectfully represents: (1) That there was filed to 287 May Term, 1966, con- demnation of a list of properties, including one to your Petitioners of Legislative Route 1009, Section 34, Claim No. 1702252 (2) That the notice was dated June 16, 1966, putting the value of the property at $160, which is unfair and in- adequate and is , therefore, declined. (3) That said notice also contains a statement that the Declaration of Taking was filed June 11, 1966, and there is a notice to vacate attached and undated requesting that thepremises be vacated within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice. Said notice is posted from the Clearfield Post Office June 17, 1966, and was probably delivered several days later. (4) That the Department of Highways is required to pay the money into Court without prejudice to the right to Viewers; answer thereto is averred that Oscar and Esther Johnson made a Deed to Leroy and Isabel Thompson for a tract of land located in Cooper Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, consisting of 7.54 acres. Said land is sur- fact only, and the map filed with the Highway Department shows that there was only 7.36 actual acres of which 3.18 were taken for the right of way, leaving a residue of 4.18 acres on the right side of the highway. (5) That said offer is grossly inadequate as the seven (7) acre tract is part of a tract of surface rights, which were necessary to remove the coal, and your Petitioners have refused, several times, what was paid for said pro- perty in payment thereof. (6) That in the maps filed to No. 12 in the Highway Office, Parcel 17 is identified as this tract and on Sheet 52, it is identified as another property in Deed Book 470, page 405, which is a 21 acre tract, and on Sheet 53, Parcel 17 is identified as being in Deed Book 463, page 52. On said map is adjoining property also identified as belonging to Leroy and Isabel Thompson for which it is said that no Deed is recorded. Request is made to add to the report of the viewers said tract after it has been identified. WHEREFORE, your Petitioners pray that Viewers be appointed to determine the value of the property before and after the construction of the highway and for the pur- pose of viewing the premises, taking testimony and making a report as to their estimate of a fair valuation of the same. And they will ever pray. s/ Leroy Thompson s/ Isabel Thompson by their Atty, F. Cortez Bell ORDER: NOW, this 18th day of July, 1966, the within Peti- tion having been presented, the Court appoints L. Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope			IN RE: Relocation of land in Cooper Township property of Roy L. and * Ruth P. Smith: Legislative Route 1009, Section 34, Claim No. 1702241	JULY 20, 1966, PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT OF VIEWERS, filed. One copy certified to Attorney for Commonwealth One copy certified to L. R. Brockbank, Viewer. (see 287 May Term, 1966 for Declaration of Taking)
Assigned to * First Nat'l Bank of Philipsburg, Pa.				The Petition of Roy L. and Ruth P. Smith respectfully represents: (1) That the construction of the Shortway has taken the house, barn, and all other farm buildings of your Petitioners and has required them to move them from the property, for which is expected to be paid prior to the Appointment of Viewers, and if it is not, it will be eliminated. (2) That on June 16, 1966, your Petitioners were given a notice to vacate within thirty (30) days, and there was also a notice attached fixing a price of $18,000 in compensation to be rejected or accepted within two (2) months. The same is hereby rejected, and the Department of Highways is directed to pay the money into Court and await the report of the Viewers. (3) That the map attached to the notice was mailed from the Clearfield Post Office on June 17, 1966, sent to Kylertown and then transferred to Morrisdale; it was received about June 20, 1966. (4) That the map contained information averring that your Petitioners owned 119.36 acres and that 52.93 acres were taken for the right of way, leaving 50.30 acres of residue to the left and 3.93 acres of residue to the right. (5). That said property was acquired in several Deeds; namely, from James P. and Virginia Kirk, November 7, 1940, and recorded in Deed Book 366, page 364; several tracts in Cooper and Graham Townships from Margaret T. McLaughlin, September 15, 1952, and recorded in Deed Book 423, Page 599; and from Frank Triponey and wife, March 1, 1947, and recorded in Deed Book 510, Page 47 for a tract of land in Cooper Township. The total of said land into the Smiths were 119.36 acres. (6) That the amount of land taken for the highway construction purposes has completely destroyed the farm as a Dairy Farm, as it has been operated, and your Petitioner requests recovery for the house, barn and other buildings, as well as the 50 acres that they are taking and consequential and severance damages to the farm on the construction of said highway. WHEREFORE, your Petitioners pray that Viewers be appointed to determine the value of the property, take testimony and make a report as to their estimate of a fair valuation of the same. And they will ever pray. s/ Roy L. Smith s/ Ruth P. Smith
576				ORDER: NOW, this 20th day of July, 1966, the within Petition having been presented, the Court appoints, L. R. Brockbank, Esq., Ernest Baum, and R. E. 	In re: MORRIS L. SILBERBLATT, Esq. MEMORIAL, RESOLUTIONS.		JULY 21, 1966, MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MORRIS L. SILBERBLATT, filed. Held in Open Court, before HON. JOHN A. CHERRY, President Judge and Members of the Clearfield County Bar Association, July 7, 1966. BY THE COURT: The Court recognizes Mr. Nevling. BY JAMES K. NEVLING, ESQ.: If Your Honor please, the members of the Clearfield County Bar Association are met here today to pay tribute to the memory of our friend and fellow lawyer, Morris Silberblatt. I think each of us sees his fellow lawyers in a little different way. To me, Morris was always the embodiment of the courtesy and consideration that ought to prevail among members of the Bar and between the Bar and the Court. I wish to present to the Court the Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, Judge John Pentz.. BY THE COURT: Judge Pentz. BY JUDGE JOHN J. PENTZ: May it please the Court, and Mr. Nevling, President of the Bar Association, before presenting these Resolutions as Chairman of the Committee to prepare Resolutions in honor and respect to our departed brother, I want to make a few personal remarks. Morris was very close to me through a large part of our careers in this County and the Clearfield County Bar. I first met him shortly after he came to Clearfield in 1924. I recall distinctly the situation existing then in this County, and the difficulties presented to a man of Mr. Silberblatt's racial background. The Ku Klux Klan at that time was rampant throughout this part of Pennsylvania, and particularly so in Clearfield County. Nevertheless, Morris weathered that storm with ease, without any bitterness and without in any way feeling that he was being discriminated against. That was due to his marvelous character, of tolerance, of good will toward men - is the best way I can put it. Everyone that met Morris had the feeling that he was a friend first, and a friend all the time; and there was no bitterness, no animosity, nor any enmity in his make-up. He carried out his legal business while we were partners, over a ten year period; he was always attempting to get settled and to avoid conflicts, and to avoid difficulties and fights and turmoil; not that he was afraid of a fight, but that he felt the waste involved in prolonged difficulties should be avoided if at all possible. He was what I would say, eminently adult in his mind and in his approach. That, I think, is what gave him this marvelous spirit of tolerance, understanding and kindness toward his fellow-men, regardless of who, or what they were, or what they had done to him; and he was that, without being a weakling. He was strong in his mental and physical and spiritual superiority; and, there-
577		Pro. 10.00	fore, it is my honor to present to the Bar Association, these Resolutions that have been prepared by the Committee appointed by Mr. Nevling, President of the Bar Association. "We, the undersigned, the committee appointed by James K. Nevling, President of the Clearfield County Bar association, to prepare and present a memorial and resolutions of regret and respect in honoring the late Morris Louis Silberblatt, a member of the Bar of Clearfield County, herewith present such resolutions. "Morris Louis Silberblatt was born on the 6th day of May 1898, to Meyer Silberblatt and Pauline Silberblatt at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and then moved to Ford City where the family resided for two years and then moved to Kittanning where Morris L. Silberblatt resided and attended the public schools of Kittanning, graduating from the Kittanning High School in 1917. "Following his graduation from Kittanning High School, he attended the University of Michigan where he was a member of the Student Army Training Corps during World War I, transferring to the University of Pittsburgh where he graduated in 1921. He attended the University of Pittsburgh Law School, gaining his Bachelor of Law degree from this University in 1923. "He was admitted to the Bar of Allegheny County and Armstrong County, as well as to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He practiced in Pittsburgh, maintaining his own office, until August of 1924. "He then moved to Clearfield as an associate of the late James P. O'Laughlin, where he remained until the organization of the firm of Bell, O'Laughlin and Silberblatt, consisting of Singleton Bell, former Judge of Clearfield County, and Mr. O'Laughlin. "Following the death of James P. O'Laughlin and later of Singleton Bell, the firm continued as Bell and Silberblatt, consisting of the subject of this memorial and F. Cortez Bell, Sr., who later became President Judge of Clearfield County. After the accession of F. Cortez Bell, Sr. to the Bench in 1944, Morris formed an association with John J. Pentz, which continued until the succession of John J. Pentz as President Judge of the Courts of Clearfield County in 1954. "Thereafter, Morris L. Silberblatt was a member of the firm of Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, consisting of F. Cortez Bell, Sr., Morris L. Silberblatt, Walter M. Swoope, F. Cortez Bell, Jr., Paul Silberblatt, his son, and Richard A. Bell, in which firm he continued until his death on the 10th day of June 1966. "Morris was married to Julis Markowitz of Braddock, Pennsylvania, to which marriage a son, Paul Silberblatt, was born in 1923. His first wife died in 1927 and he then married Julia Miller of Binghamton, New York in the year 1928, who, with his son, Paul, survives him. At the time of his death he was a member of Temple Beth Shalom of Clearfield; the Clearfield Lodge of F. & A.M.; the Williamsport Consistory; the Jaffa Shrine of Altoona; B'nai Brith; the American Legion; the Elks Lodge of Clearfield; a member and past President of Curwensville Rotary, and was a veteran of World War I. "During his career in Clearfield County, Morris L. Silberblatt achieved a place of honor and distinction in the legal annals of the Clearfield County Bar and was noted for his kindness, tolerance and humor. He performed his obligations to his clients and members of his firm and family with the utmost sincerity. Although he seldom engaged in trials of cases before a jury, he was qualified to handle such litigation but he preferred handling matters in which conflict was not so important, and never neglected giving to every person engaging his services full, conscientious and sincere attention. "Morris L. Silberblatt, in addition to his devotion to the affairs of his clients, gave his time and attention to many civic matters, looking to the betterment of the community in which he lived and worked. He was, for a period of time, on the Clearfield County Advisory Board for the Department of Public Assistance, and was engaged in many other community activities. His passing will be felt as a loss not only to his family but to his many friends as well as to the community of Clearfield. "In addition to his wife and son, he is survived by three brothers - Sam and Abe of Kittanning, Pennsylvania, and John of Philadelphia - and two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Pincus and Mrs. Kivie Wolfe, both of Philadelphia. "The Committee presents this memorial and expresses for itself and for the Bar of Clearfield County the regret of each individual in the loss of a loved and honored member and one who was active in the movement for better civic conditions in the community in which he lived and carried out his work. "We therefore, respectfully move that this memorial be adopted by the Bar Association of Clearfield County, that it be spread upon the records of the County of Clearfield, and a certified copy thereof be furnished to the wife and members of the family of Morris Louis Silberblatt."

I so move its adoption.

BY THE COURT:

Before placing the motion before the members of the Bar, the Court would ask if there are other members of the Bar who wish to make any remarks at this time.

BY JUDGE BELL:

I want to second the motion for adoption.

BY MR. KRAMER:

If it please the Court, members of the family, and the Clearfield County Bar Association, in seconding the adoption too, I would extend a personal tribute to Morris in memory of his life among us and his career as a lawyer and eminent citizen, and as a loyal friend. He earned and retained the recognition due him because of the life he lived and the services he performed. I met him and first became acquainted with him when he came to Clearfield in 1924. In fact, a decision I made may have ultimately resulted in his coming to Clearfield. James P. O'Laughlin, who had succeeded to the corporation practice of Thomas H. Murray on his death in the year 1916; and the partnership which existed between James P. O'Laughlin and Hazzard Murray, the son of Thomas H. Murray, if it ever existed, was quickly dissolved and Mr. O'Laughlin had too large a practice. I had been in the Bar some five years or so, and he came to me and asked me if I would come into the firm. He said we would move to the offices which he occupied on the second floor of the then Public Service building on South Third Street, and he would furnish a room for me and my father, who was in his declining years and was doing some practice of law, although comparatively little; and that I could be associated with him and do whatever work he might assign to me - I presume at that time largely in the field of title examinations. Mr. O'Laughlin at that time was attorney for three railroad companies and had much litigation, and he had a very active practice. My father, in his aged career, would not be asked by me to move from his location across Market Street here, where his office had been since first he practiced, and where my offices still are, and I never made the request of him to go into that firm. And so Morris came to Clearfield, as has been said, in August 1924. The records are that on September 18, 1924 he took the oath which all of us lawyers take in entering this profession, before Hon. A. R. Chase, and was admitted and became a member of our Bar, where he has practiced since. The Examining Committee at that time was John C. Arnold, Edward T. Kelley, F. Cortez Bell and myself. The prepared Memorial reviews the firms in which he was a partner through the years, and I prefer to dwell upon his characteristics as a man, his personality, and what he meant to us, and what he signified in his lifetime as he worked among us. Morris, at the age of twenty-six when he came here, was youthful, congenial, companionable, easy to get acquainted with, and quick to make friends. Morris had the unique adaptability to adjust to new situations and new people, which contributed to three important things in his life. Two of these were his wide acquaintanceship throughout the entire length and breadth of our County. He never hesitated to meet people or go where they were. In fact, he liked to meet people and he would go on social or other occasions to meet them. This widened his acquaintanceship and increased his clientele because of their acquaintanceship with him. He was possessed of the faculty of being a good listener. When he talked to people they readily received him, and he readily listened to what they had to say. If there is any way to make friends, it is to be a good listener. He possessed this capacity, and the result of this was it gained for him a very extensive history of the County and its people; that part of history which never gets into books and which, during the generation it is created, is known as gossip, but later known as history. He demonstrated a tremendous amount of knowledge in that respect; far more than some of us who were born in the County, and were not as accessible to the community as he was. I learned some events about the County that I might not otherwise have known, except that he learned them because he was receptive in letting people talk to him. As the Memorial states, it wasn't his idea to litigate or to fight, or to be contentious. He was the type of man that liked to settle matters, to arrive at a conclusion to disputes, outside the Court and outside litigation. In this respect he followed the statement made by Montesquieu, a French jurist, that we should never gain by law what we can achieve by morality; and he sat about, consciously or unconsciously, to follow out the language of that statement, and he achieved a remarkable success in it. In divorce cases he frequently made it a practice to call the clergyman of the person who consulted him, to see if there could be some marriage counseling; but because divorce cases by the time they come to the lawyer's office, the tears have been shed, the heartache rendered, only a few times can any lawyer accomplish anything toward re-establishing a broken home; but he tried, and occasionally achieved success. He was energetic in trying to settle matters of other types. Some dispute came up, and he would go to the office of the other attorney to see if there was not a way of settling; and very often there was. He could see a point very readily. He came here with an intense determination that he was going to be fair and honest, unprejudiced and unbiased to all people. He carried that out to a marked degree and obtained great success in building a friendship based just upon that lack of bias, that broadness that effects all human nature; just as Judge Pentz emphasized in his opening remarks; and in all of his career he was never guilty of any breach of trust. He had built within him an impeccable honesty and intense integrity of character that lasted with him through life. He did much to counteract and beat down prejudice, where it might otherwise exist, and did sometimes. He was willing to be of service to people where there was no monetary reward in sight and none could be had; but his services were willingly rendered and capably performed; and thus it was through his contacts with people. His sound integrity and his great willingness to help brought to him the confidence of thousands of people of Clearfield County. I believe it can safely be said that he had more clients than any other lawyer at the Bar since the days of Singleton Bell whose vast array of clients has become legendary in the history of the County. One time one of the rural postmasters told me that there were more letters came to that postoffice from persons in that area who had retained Morris Silberblatt, than came from any other lawyer. He had a great attitude toward fraternities and he joined many organizations. He was able to become a member where others had not previously become a member. In all of his career he never broke any fidelity or trust to any person. He never failed to maintain that attitude of honesty and integrity through his life; and, therefore, to this man who lived such a life as this, and has left upon the Bar of our County, and upon the community, such an imprint, I am happy, Your Honor, and Mr. Chairman, to second the motion to adopt these Resolutions, and that they be spread upon the records of our Court, to be permanently there available for any person in future generations to read; and that they shall forever be a tribute to us of his generation, of his place in our lives and our memory.

BY THE COURT:

Then yours, Mr. Kramer, for your very kind and very appropriate remarks. The Court recognizes Richard Bell, another member of the Committee, for the purpose of his remarks at this time.

BY RICHARD A. BELL, ESQ.:

Judge Cherry, Mr. Nevling, members of the family, and members of the Bar, in joining with Mr. Kramer's seconding of this Resolution presented by Judge Pentz, I should like to add a few remarks of my own. I suppose I knew Mr. Silberblatt almost as long as I was able to remember. I knew him first as Paul's father, as my father's partner, as my preceptor during my clerkship, and later as a partner in our law firm. The instruction and guidance I received will always be with me; but it is not my own personal experiences about which I would like to remark. I know there are many who wish to speak after me, and I want to simply call to your memory this one feature of Mr. Silberblatt, and that is the way he would extend himself for a client. There was nothing too great for him to do for a client. The client's interest was always first. In this day and age when I think that the legal profession, like all professions, is becoming a business, I think it can be truly said that he practiced law with a heart; and I think perhaps that is the one thing for which he shall be best remembered by his clients, fellow lawyers, and we the members of his firm.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you, Mr. Bell.

If it please the Court.

AND NOW, this 14th day of July, 1970, service of the within Interrogatories is hereby accepted and receipt of a copy thereof is hereby acknowledged. Baird, McCamby and Miller By John J. McCamley, Attys-for Plaintiffs MARCH 17, 1971, MOTION FOR NON PROS AND ORDER, filed by Joseph J. Lee COMES NOW the Defendant, James E. Strates Shows, Inc. and by its attorney, Joseph J. Lee, moves your Honorable Court for a judgment of non pros, against the Plaintiffs, Edward Kawa, a minor, by Erma Kawa, his guardian and Erma Kawa, for the following reasons: (1). On May 8, 1970 written Interrogatories were filed under R.C.P. 4005. (2). Said written Interrogatories contained a direction to file answer thereto under oath within twenty (20) days from the date of service thereof. (3). More than twenty (20) days have passed since the filing and service of said Interrogatories and no objections thereto have ever been filed. (4). Counsel for the Defendant has made numerous attempts to secure Plaintiffs' answer to these Interrogatories and the failure to file answers has been wilful. (5). Under R.C.P. 4019 your Honorable Court, on motion may make an appropriate order against the party who wilfully fails to file answers to written interrogatories served under Rule 4005. Under Rule 4019 (c) (3) your Honorable Court may order a judgment of non pros or default against a disobedient party, which in this case would be the Plaintiffs. (6). This matter was instituted originally by a Summons in Trespass dated July 28, 1966 and an Appearance was entered on August 4, 1966 on behalf of the Defendant, and numerous and exhaustive attempts were made by the Defendant's attorney to have a complaint filed, which finally culminated by the attorney for the Defendant filing a motion for a rule was ignored until on or about May 5, 1968 a complaint was filed. (7). The dilatory tactics of the Plaintiffs and the refusal to file a complaint of extended periods of time, and the refusal to file answers to Interrogatories has worked an undue hardship on the Defendant, has operated effectively to permit a plea of laches which in itself would be grounds for your Honorable Court to grant a judgment of non pros, on the pleadings. WHEREFORE, it is respectfully moved that your Honorable Court, after such notice as is deemed necessary, grant a judgment of non pros. in favor of the Defendant and against the Plaintiffs in this action. s/ Joseph J. Lee, Attorney for Defendant. ORDER Now, to-wit, this 17th day of March, 1971, in consideration of the foregoing Motion, a Rule is hereby granted upon the Plaintiffs, Edward Kawa, a minor, by Erma Kawa, his guardian, and Erma Kawa, to show cause why judgment of non pros should not be entered in favor of the Defendant and against the Plaintiffs for wilful failure to file answers to Interrogatories under the appropriate Rules of Civil Procedure. Said Rule to be returnable the 5th day of April 1971 at 9:00 A.M. By the Court John A. Cherry, P.J. MARCH 17, 1971, RULE ON EDWARD KAWA AND ERMA KAWA ISSUED TO THE SHERIFF. CONTINUED FROM PAGE 336, NO. 524 May Term, 1966 - Harold J. Boulton & Wm Leitzinger vs Comwth of Pa.

On September 14, 1966, the condemnor submitted a Request for Findings of Fact and/or Conclusions of Law. This instrument is hereunto attached.

It is fundamental that such requests must be in such form that they can be answered by an affirmative or negative signification or with an amount. Proper requests are specific and should not be capable of misinterpretation. Condemnor's first request is as follows:

1. That the Viewers make a special finding concerning the value of the land taken at the corner of the Penfield Road and the Rockton Road (L.B. 17083).

To answer this first request would require the viewers to describe the land taken at the corner of the two roads. It would be necessary for the viewers to arbitrarily describe where this land ends and the balance of the subject land commences. The Commonwealth took one continuous strip of land. There was no evidence that it should be divided at any specific place for our consideration. Under the Code it is not the duty of the viewers to divide the land and place separate values on various parts of the take.

Condemnor's second request sets forth:

2. That the Viewers make a special finding as to the value of the land taken along the Rockton Road (L.R. 17083).

The objections to the first request are likewise applicable to the second request. Condemnor's third and fourth requests are as follows:

3. That the Viewers make a special finding as to the value of such other items they considered, if any, to constitute a loss to the claimants.
4. That the Viewers make a special finding of such other matters as the consider to constitute a benefit to the claimants.

The third and fourth requests can not be answered with a yes or no answer or with an amount and these requests are likewise objectionable.

The above Requests of the condemnor are refused.

10. A schedule of costs of themembers of the Board of View, to be paid by Clearfield County, is hereunto attached.

11. Pursuant to Section 513 of the Code, a ten day notice of intent to file the within report, the date of the intended filing and that the report whall become final unless an appeal is filed within thirty days, is served by Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, upon W.
