Clearfield County, ss:

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the county of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the 17 day of May, A. D. 1887, before Judges of said Court, upon a petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Boggs, in said county, setting forth that they labor under great inconvenience for want of a private road to lead from a point at or Hoe Bees back Smith Shop on Public Road leading from the Twp from Rigs Bridge to the old Erie Turnpike to intersect the Twp road leading from Spring Valley to Woodland to a point at or near a point on said road known as Long run Bridge and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law, And make report to the Court: whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint E C Read D H Moore & Mitchell Shoppe who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the grounds proposed for said road, and if they view the same and any two of the actual viewers agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road and the shortest distance, and in such manner as to do least injury to private property, and state particularly whether they judge the same necessary for a public or private road, together with a plot or draft of the same, with the courses and distances and reference to the improvements through which it passes, and shall also procure releases of damages from persons through whose lands said road may pass, or failing to procure such releases, shall assess the same, if any sustained, and shall make report thereof to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said county, in which report they shall state that they have been sworn and affirmed according to law. Notice is directed to be given to the owners or occupants of seated lands through which the within road is intended to pass, of the time of the view, according to the 147th Rule of Court.

BY THE COURT.

A. M. Blooming Clerk.
