IN RE:
MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR
JOHN SCOLLINS, ESQUIRE

SEPTEMBER 22, 1966, MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR JOHN SCOLLINS, ESQUIRE, filed.

Held in Open Court, before Hon. John A. Cherry, President Judge, and Members of the Clearfield County Bar Association. August 4, 1966.

BY THE COURT:

The Court recognizes Mr. Nevling.

BY MR. NEVLING:

May it please the Court, the member of the Clearfield County Bar Association, County Officials, friends and family of John Scollins, are met here today to pay tribute to his memory. I would like to say personally, that I knew our late friend and brother lawyer for a good many years, because when I was a boy I was in Houtzdale frequently with my father, and I first made acquaintance with the Scollins family and with John at that time.
I think I would characterize John as a man who took a great pride and satisfaction in the fact that he was a lawyer; and I think that he would be pleased to be honored by the body of which he had been, for so many years, a loyal and staunch member. The members of the Committee on Resolutions today are Walter Swoope, the chairman, who is abroad, Your Honor, and Dan Arnold, Eugene Cimino and Clarence Kramer, who I present to the Court for the purpose of presenting the Resolutions of the Committee.

BY THE COURT:

Very well. The Court will recognize Clarence Kramer.

BY MR. KRAMER:

Chairman Nevling and members of the Scollins family and other persons in interest, as the chairman has stated, Mr. Swoope, I believe, is due to return from abroad today, but not in time apparently, to be here for this meeting, and I have been requested to read the Resolutions which have been prepared by the Committee, and am happy to give my services in that respect; so that we will say that the Committee appointed by president Nevling to prepare these these Resolutions on the death of John Scollins, requests leave to report
as follows:

John Scollins, a member of this Bar, was born at Houtzdale on May 12, 1885, the son of Michael Scollins and Alicia (Ronan) Scollins. He lived in Houtzdale all his life, attending the parochial and public schools in Houtzdale, graduating from the Houtzdale High School in 1903. After graduation he taught school in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, but due to his physical incapacity and the necessity of walking from Houtzdale to Beaverton, he was obliged to give up school teaching and obtained a position as a clerk in the law offices of Patterson and Gleason in Houtzdale Borough, where he began the study of law under the tutoring of William H. Patterson and James A.
Gleason, two distinguished members of the Clearfield County Bar. In 1906 he was elected Justice of the Peace for Houtzdale Borough, which office he maintained continuously until his admission to the Clearfield County Bar in November 1923. He was one of the last of the old-time lawyers, reading law in the offices of Patterson and Gleason, and passing his bar examination without formal law school training, although he did obtain a scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania upon his graduation from high school, but circumstances beyond his control prevented his accepting same. He was engaged in the coal business and insurance for a number of years, but the law was to him everything he aspired to in life, and so eventually gave up his other interests to devote his entire time to the profession he loved so well.

"John Scollins was a steady and conscientious worker, thoughtful in the performance of duties towards his clients, of whom he had many among the ordinary working people, because of his trustworthiness. One area of the law to which his activities were devoted was that of property damages, having been a member of the Board of Viewers since the year 1933. In such capacity the responsibilities customary to the law member of the three man board, consisting of an engineer and a representative of the public, acting under Court appointment, devolved upon him; and in such capacity proceedings required the findings of facts and law, whether roads should be opened or vacated, and resulting damages assessed. Since it naturally falls upon the legal member to prepare the writtn report and do the paper work in such cases, these duties fell upon John and were performed in detail with the utmost care. At the time of his death he was Solicitor for Brisbin Borough, Bigler, Gulich and Woodward Townships.

"During World War I and World War II he was a member of the Selective Service Board of Clearfield County, to which appointment he devoted his time and services willingly. No meeting was too far away, or weather too bad, for him to attend.

"He was an active Democratic party worker throughout all of his adult life, and in 1960
he was elected delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Los Angeles from the 20th Congressional District.

"John Scollins was a genial and amiable personality; popular with all who knew him, and had no known enemies anywhere. If he had had a middle name, it should have been "kindness". He never married and was devoted to the members of his family which at the time of his death consisted of his brother Paul, a practicing attorney in the City of Pittsburgh from 1923 until John's death, since which time he returned to Houtzdale and is carrying on the practice of law in his late brother's office, and three sisters: Mrs. Nora Pie and Mrs. Michael Carey of Johnstown, and Kathryn at home. John Scollins was a member of the St. Lawrence Roman Catholic Church in Houtzdale, and its Holy Name Society; the Knights of Columbus, and the Loyal Order of Moose. Professionally he was a member of the Pennsylvania State Bar Association and the Clearfield County Bar Association.

"He died on December 9, 1963 suddenly, of a heart attack which came as he was preparing to make his regular Monday trip from his Houtzdale home to the Court House at Clearfield, which he did for so many years as to cause one official in the Court House to remark that "The Court House on Monday now is not quite the same without the pleasing personality of Mr. Scollins".

The Bar Association desires to express the high regard in which it held John Scollins and to record the deep sinse of loss which they feel upon his passing, acknowledging that John Scollins served the profession and Our Bar well before the public. This Association desires to record these thoughts and to express them for the benefit of his family and the public. "Respectfully submitted," Signed: Eugene L. Cimino, Walter M Swoope, Clarence R Kramer and Dan P Arnold, Committee.

In moving the adoption of these Resolutions, it is customary for the person who reads them to make that motion. I am happy to do so; but I must apologize for having to follow very closely the notes on my own remarks, which were prepared very late last night and this morning, but in presenting them and moving that they be adopted, I subscribe to the spirit and purpose of them, as fully as I did in signing the document upon which they are typed. Actually, I feel they are more restrained and modest in expressing John as a man, than in his life and his standing in his home community would justly warrant. This is largely because they were prepared in close cooperation with, if not under the actual supervision of one who in his lifetime, was quite close in his association with John. Therefore, I mention willingness to express the thoughts and feelings that come to me in contemplating the life and career of a personal friend. I can not now remember when I first met him, but it was quite obvious we were friends from the date of his admission to the Bar as a lawyer to the date of his death. The Resolutions speak of his customary daily Monday morning trips to the Court House, where usually he devoted the entire day to legal duties at the Countyseat. It is a curious incident in his career, although not particularly pertinent to this memorial, that on one of these trips, while walking at noon in the Court House hall, he heard Beish Shaw of our Bar, scream out to him in pain, and then die almost instantly of a sudden heart seizure; just as John died of a similar seizure just outside his residence, only months short of four years later. Truly, no man knows the day nor the hour. John Scollins was a humble man, as humble as he was friendly, kindly and conscientious. He started life in a humble manner, and with some handicaps. His formal schooling consisted of high school education. Compelled by circumstances beyond his control to relinquish a scholarship at the University of Pennsylvania, he turned to school teaching, and was compelled by physical ailments to give that up near the end of the first term. He suffered the loss of a leg, which he seemed not to regard as a hardship, and, thereafter, throughout life he walked with crutches, which he handled with skill and dexterity. Three years after graduation from law school he was elected justice of the peace of Houtzdale Borough, at the age of twenty-one, which office he held for eighteen years; relinquishing it only after his admission to the Bar in 1923. Not being a member of the Bars of our Appellate Courts, he practiced only in Clearfield County, and seldom tried a law suit, contenting himself with being a counsellor rather than an advocate. He found a deep satisfaction in the study of the law and advising of clients. In this respect he followed in the footsteps of one his two able preceptors, for we find that the obituary of William H. Patterson says, and I quote "He devoted his energies chiefly as a counsellor rather than a trial lawyer." In another respect John followed the footsteps of his preceptor, for it was said also of Mr. Patterson, "He was very kind and charitable". John's kindness was widely known, and added much to his popularity. The Resolutions prepared, as I have said, with the concurrence of one who knew him in his practice better than we knew him, say that he had many ordinary working people among his clientele, as well as townships and municipal groups. He continued to apply himself in his chosen work, and his retainers increased in volume and significance. Following the death of John B McGrath, Esquire, on July 31, 1931, he became Houtzdale's Borough Solicitor, and also attorney for the local Bank. His services continued in behalf of those clients until he began to lighten his work load two or three years ago.

In politics, a consistent Democrat, he worked hard, and he aspired to office I think on only three occasions. In 1919, he was the Party's standard bearer in the race for Prothonotary, but the County being overwhelmingly Republican, George W Ralston was elected. A couple decades later he sought the office of State Assemblyman, but Mr. Walker of Brisbin was the winner. In 1960 he was elected Delegate to the Democratic National Convention and had a part in the great convocation in Los Angeles which nominated John F Kennedy for President of the United States.

John was a lover of athletics, especially baseball and football. It was his custom to attend the season's opening game of the Pittsburgh Pirates; and for years he missed almost no World Series games if played as near as Pittsburgh or New York. In football he always attended some of the large games at Penn State, especially if Pittsburgh or Notre Dame were playing.

In closing, we can be reminded that in the more than two years, that have elapsed since his passing, he has been missed, as the County official stated at the time of his death, in his usual Monday morning trips to the County Seat; but he has been missed, and will be missed much more in his home community and among the large number of clients in the Valley, as Houtzdale and the adjoining communities are popularly known. He leaves a record of sterling qualities and congenial personality; a man whom I never knew to exhibit a single moment of anger. Naturally, I am most happy to move the adoption of the Resolutions, and that they be handled in the manner customary in the practice of our Association, by being spread upon the records of the Court, and a copy furnished to the brother and to each of his sisters; and so I do move.

BY THE COURT:

I recognize the other members of the Committee. Mr. Cimino.
BY EUGENE L. CIMINO, ESQ.:

If the Court please, members of the Bar, Chairman Nevling and members of the Scollins family; On behalf of the Bar Association, may I personally convey our belated condolences to the Scollins family; and by way of personal remarks, since my eloquence has been preceded by President Nevling and Attorney Kramer, may I say that in the loss of John Scollins I personally suffered a great loss, because of my early life with him; and I am sure that all the members of the Bar, in often questioning the formality of their legal education at times, didn't realize that he rose from the ranks, so to speak, and held the respect of the members of this Bar. I often recall him speaking of the older members of the Bar who came from the Houtzdale area, and who later were recognized in this Bar, in the community, and in all other respects; especially Frank Smith, Ed. Chaplin, and Carl Belin, in their earlier years; and, of course, now our only survivor of the trio is Carl Belin, Sr.

Therefore, in behalf of the entire Bar and this Court and all members of the Court House, may I convey our respective condolences?

BY THE COURT:

Thank you Mr. Cimino. Judge Bell.

I didn't hear some of the resolution, and maybe I am mistaken on it. You know the Court could admit a person to the Bar, and it is my recollection that John was the last person admitted by the Court. He may have passed the Bar examination first. When I came out of law school in 1921, Harry Boulton still maintained an office over in Houtzdale, and I was over one day a week, and that's where I got to know Frank Smith and Eddie Chaplin during that period of time, and I got to know John Scollins who was the justice of the peace in Houtzdale at that time. One of the last things father did before he went off the Bench was make the Decree admitting John Scollins to the Bar of Clearfield County. I think my recollection is right - if I can find it down in the Prothonotary's office.

BY MR. KRAMER:

That means the local Bar.

not be shaken, or swayed, or bent away from that purpose. One of those decisions that he always made, as I found, was his intense loyalty to his country, to his Party, to his Church, and to his friends. I think probably John Scollins, to me, typifies the personification of courage and loyalty. Thank you.

BY THE COURT:
Thank you, Judge Pentz.

Members of the Bar and friends of John's family, the Court would adopt, perhaps not be able to express it quite as eloquently as has been expressed here by the other members of the Bar, the same facts or thoughts about John that they have expressed here. I would say though, that perhaps everything could be said about him in these words - that he not only took the oath of a lawyer but he followed it to its extremes. When he took the oath that said that he would practice law with all due fidelity to the Court, as well as to the client, he carried that out throughout his life. He certainly had a personality and a character that I believe were fully above reproach. There is no doubt in my mind that there was nothing hidden behind any act or any thought that he did or expressed, that wasn't fully understood and wasn't intended as he declared it or did it; and I think that speaks volumes for the type of man whom we are eulogizing here today. There is no doubt that, as has already been said, he is going to be missed; but he is going to be long remembered for these fine attributes, not of just a lawyer, but of a man, which make for a society that we seek to sustain despite all of the international and national conflicts that we might have. I didn't know him as closely as the older member of the Bar, but I can also recall meeting him here in the Court House on the Mondays that he came over after I had been admitted to the Bar, and we would talk about various things; and he had a kindness and interest in the welfare of others that I think all of us would like to claim, because he not only thought these things but he practiced them; and as Judge Pentz has stated, I don't know of anyone who was more devout in his faith or more devout in his belief in the political principles which he sought to sustain, than John Scollins. He certainly answered for everything that any man should have to, or want to answer for in the way of making himself a part of the better part of society as it existed in his day and as it is here today. His integrity and his honesty I don't believe could ever be, nor were they ever questioned by anyone. So it is with a great deal of honor, and with pleasure, that I express these thoughts on the part of the Court, even though at the same time recognizing that there is no pleasure in the loss of an individual about whom we might say such things as have been said here today. So, joining with the members of the Bar, and on behalf of the Court, as well as the Court House employees and officers, of whom we have representation from every office, the Commissioners office, the Treasurer's office - I won't try to designate all of them, they are represented here today. On behalf of all, we extend as we did personally at the time of his passing, our sympathy and condolences, but our expression in the belief that he left his mark not just on the Bar, but on the common man; which I think is one of the finest of all heritages anybody can leave behind him. With that, I will present to the Bar the motion for adoption of the Resolution, which motion was made by Clarence R. Kramer, Esquire, and seconded by Dan Arnold, Esquire, as a member of the Committee. All those in favor will indicate by saying Aye.

BY ALL MEMBERS OF THE BAR:
Aye.

BY THE COURT:
Opposed.

SEPTEMBER 27, 1966, PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS

CORPUS, filed. One copy certified to Sheriff.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner brings this proceeding, asking that the Court direct that said child remain enrolled in the Leonard Grade School and with her father until a hearing may be had after which the Court shall make such order as to the best interest of said child. And he will ever pray. BELL, SILBERBLATT & SWOOPE, s/ F. Cortez Bell, Attorneys for Richard James Martell.

ORDER:

NOW, this 27th day of September, 1966, the within Petition having been read and considered, and it appearing that the mother, Mary Ellen Martell, is in a home with someone to whom she is not married and because of other conditions alleged, it would be to the best interest of the child that she remain with the father, Richard James Martell, until a final hearing; and the school authorities having requested that she not be moved from one school to another every day or so, it is ORDERED AND DECREED that Karen Martell remain enrolled in the Leonard Grade School and that neither parent do anything to interfere with such enrollment and that she remain with her father at his apartment at South 4th Street in Clearfield Borough until hearing is had. It is further ordered that a hearing on this matter be scheduled for October 18, 1966 at 2 PM, and at such time, the rights of the parties shall be resolved. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, P.J.

OCTOBER 1, 1966, SHERIFF'S RETURN, filed.

Now, September 29, 1966 at 9:15 o'clock A M (EDT) served the within Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, on Mary Ellen Martell at Market Street, Borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pa., by handing to Mary Ellen Martell personally, a true and attested copy of the original Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, and made known to her the contents thereof. So Answers, William Charney, Sheriff.

October 18, 1966, Respondent's Answer to Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, filed.

OCTOBER 19, 1966, ORDER, filed.

NOW, October 19, 1966, after full hearing had in the above matter, both parties having been represented by their self appointed counsel, the Court finds that the only proof submitted on behalf of the petitioner as to the unfitness of the mother to have custody of the seven year old child, namely Karen Martell, was the indiscretion of the mother in her association with one Willard Jury; having further found that there was no basis presented to the Court by virtue of which, under the laws and decisions of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the custody of such an infant of tender years might be given to the petitioner; and although the case is a borderline case where the Court gave some consideration to removing custody from both parents, the welfare and interests of the said child, an opportunity should be given to the mother, Mary Ellen Martell, to properly rear said child; it is, therefore, ORDERED that the prayer of the petition be and it is hereby denied; and custody of said child is awarded to the said mother, Mary Ellen Martell, upon the condition that she remove herself from her present abode, and until circumstances shall be proved to warrant otherwise, she shall refrain from any association with said Willard Jury, in order that there will be no further attack made in this regard, whether or not there has been any wrongdoing on her part, or on the part of the said Willard Jury.

It is the FURTHER ORDER OF THE COURT that the said father of said child, the petitioner herein, shall have rights of visitation with said child as follows: He shall have the right of visitation at the home of said child on Saturday of every week between the hours of 2 and 5 P.M.; and he shall also have the right to have said child visit with him, apart from the home of said child, on each Sunday from 11 A.M. to 5 P.M.

By the Court, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

On December 9, 1966, your Honorable Court made an Order directing counsel for Plaintiff to serve Defendant by certified mail with return card directing the Deher failure to do so within ten (10) days would cause been served on the minor Defendant by certified mail and she having replied stating that she wished to have her mother, Mrs. Thomas Mallon, appointed as her Guardian, it is directed by the Court that Mrs. Thomas Mallon be appointed Guardian for her daughter, minor Defendant, and the Master give notice to the Guardian of any hearing in this Divorce Action. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

JANUARY 9, 1967, Petition and Order, filed.

I, therefore, request that said proceedings for divorce be stayed and a Rule be issued on Allena Russell to nominate a proposed Guardian or in the absence or failure of her to so designate that the Court appoint a Guardian for her in this action in order that the divorce proceedings may be proceeded with. And I will ever pray, /s/ Robert Russell

The Plaintiffs are residents of the County of Clearfield, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and reside in the Borough of Houtzdale. (2). The plaintiffs have, for many years to wit, since 1949, been the lawful owners and in possession of certain premises situate in the Borough of Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania which are more particularly bounded and described as follows: FRONTING on Sue Street fifty (50) feet and running North eleven degrees and thirty minutes East, one hundred and fifty (150) feet to Moose Alley, known and designated as Lot No. 232 in the general plan of the said Borough of Houtzdale; and having thereon erected a one story, frame dwelling house and other out buildings. BEING the same premises as conveyed to Richard J. Marien and Dora Marien, his wife, by 2 deed; the first of which is dated July 30, 1949 and recorded in Deed Book 400, page 102, and the second of which is dated the first day of August, 1949 and recorded in Deed Book 400, page 163. EXCEPTING AND RESERVING, NEVERTHELESS, all the stone, coal or other minerals, lying and being underneath the said described premises with the full right of ingress, egress and regress, to dig, mine and carry away the same, free from all claims of damages whatsoever on the part of the Grantees, their heirs or assigns. (3). The said Plaintiffs purchased the property from one George B. Bezilla and Hannah Bezilla, his wife, who had acquired the same by virtue of a tax sale on October 17, 1944 wherein the property was sold as the property of Mrs. George J. Mulkey. (4). The Plaintiffs also purchased the property by deed from Rebecca E. Horton and Joseph Horton, her husband, who in turn had acquired the property from Lucy and James Evans. (5). That the predecessors in title of the property conveyed by the above named Evans to the Hortons to wit: Mrs. Rahmy Serks had acquired title to the same property from Michael & Annie Jopper by deed dated January 22, 1909, which deed is unrecorded. (6). The same premises as acquired from the Bezillas as aforesaid were sold in the name of Mrs. George J. Mulkey. A thorough review of the records of Clearfield County failed to indicate any chain of title vesting in the said Mrs. George J. Mulkey the same, however, being named as a defendant herein for the purpose of quieting title to the premises by virtue of any interest she may have acquired therein prior to the date of the same being sold for non-payment of taxes in her name. (7). The Defendants having now all died and the Heirs, if any of them and if living, are presently unknown and the said unrecorded deed and the sale for taxes in the name as aforesaid creates a cloud upon the title of the plaintiffs in the said premises and, therefore, makes it impossible for the plaintiffs to dispose of the same or to acquire marketable title thereto. (8). A search of the records in Clearfield County discloses the names of no other persons interested or likely to be interested in the said premises and that the ownership except for the cloud upon the title as aforesaid appears to be vested in the names of the Plaintiffs herein. WHEREFORE, in accordance with the rules of Civil Procedure, more particularly Rule 1061 et seq., the Plaintiffs pray your Honorable court to enter an Order and Decree directing the said named Defendants, their heirs or assigns to commence an action of ejectment against the Plaintiffs within 30 days from the entry of the said Order or henceforth be forever barred therefrom. s/ Richard J. BY THE COURT, John A Cherry, P.J. NOVEMBER 7, 1966, PETITION, MOTION & ORDER, filed. (1). Your Petitioner, the Attorney for the said Plaintiffs, did on the 10th day of Oct., 1966, file a Complaint in an action to quiet title, which Complaint was captioned as the within Petition and upon duly signed Affidavit the Court did order that notice of the commencement of said action would be filed on the Defendants by publication since their whereabouts were unknown. 		MARCH 10, 1971, MEMORANDUM, filed. Plaintiff filed action by Writ of Foreign Attachment together with Complaint in Assumpsit seeking to recover $1,800.00 allegedly unpaid on a written contract. Plaintiff as sub-contractor had agreed to furnish said labor and materials and services for defendant. Defendant filed Answer to New Matter and Counterclaim to which Plaintiff filed Preliminary Objections raising the following questions: (a) When a New Jersey business corporation enters Pennsylvania without a certificate of Authority and therein performs and completes a building contract for the purpose of realizing pecuniary benefit, is it maintaining an action prohibited by Section 1014 A. of the Business Corporation Law of May 5, 1933 P.L. 364, as amended, (15 P.S. 2852-1014), when it filed a set-off and counterclaim in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, in an action in assumpsit instituted therein against it by a Pennsylvania resident; and if so, should the counterclaim be dismissed and stricken off? (b) Is the Plaintiff entitled to judgment on the pleadings? We are satisfied that the position taken by the defendant is a proper one and that the Preliminary Pbjctions filed thereto must be overruled. The defendant, a New Jersey corporation, was engaged in work for the United States Government at the Federal Dam Project in Curwensville, this County. The basis of the instant matter is suit by the sub-contractor for the services on that flood control project. It would appear that under F. E. Nugent Funeral Home vs. Beamish 315 Pa. 345 the philosophy of the law as well as the basic rights in the instant matter would permit the defendant to proceed in the matter it has. This case was cited: 20 C. J.S., Section 1811, COrporation, which stated at page 34: " A state cannot exercise its power to exclude or regulate foreign corporations seeking to do business in the state so as to affect matters of a federal nature...So every corporation of any state in the employ of the necessary corporate powers and to transact

Gleason, Cherry & Guido	J. R. CALDWELL, a/k/a JOHN R. CALDWELL and C. E. CRAWFORD, a/k/a CHARLES CRAWFORD; W. F. KENNEDY and DAISY KENNEDY	DECEMBER 12, 1966, COMPLAINT TO QUIET TITLE, filed. To be advertised in the DuBois Courier-Express
	255	The plaintiffs in the above entitled matter bring this Action to Quiet Title for the purpose of barring Defendant, HYMAN SHAFFER and his heirs, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns, and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest from asserting any right, title, interest or lien in and to the premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" situate in the Borough of Falls Creek, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and aver the following cause of action. 1. The plaintiff, J. R. CALDWELL, a/k/a JOHN R. CALDWELL, is an individual who resides at 332 Tylor Avenue, Falls Creek, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania. 2. The plaintiff, C. E. CRAWFORD, a/k/a CHARLES CRAWFORD, is an individual who resides at 408 Main Street Falls Creek, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania. 3. The plaintiffs, W. F. KENNEDY and DAISY KENNEDY, husband and wife, are individuals who reside at Main Street, Falls Creek, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania. 4. After diligent search, the plaintiffs were unable to discover the whereabouts of HYMAN SHAFFER, and his heirs, devisees, administrators, executors or assigns and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest, nor were they able to find any record of an Estate of HYMAN SHAFFER on file in the Register of Wills Office of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. 5. The premises described in Exhibit "A" which the premises described in Exhibit "B" were formerly a part were conveyed to Mary Shaffer by deed of Albert C. Hopkins and Matilda G. Hopkins dated October 17, 1899 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania in Deed Book No. 107, page 146 on October 28, 1899. 6. The said Mary Shaffer died on July 24, 1922 and by her last Will and Testament duly probated in the Orphans' Court of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania did devise said premises unto defendant, HYMAN SHAFFER. 7. Said premises were sold by the Treasurer of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania as the property of HYMAN SHAFFER for unpaid taxes for the year 1937, to the County Commissioners of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania by Treasurer's Deed dated July 8, 1940 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania in Deed Book No. 352, page 332 on October 26, 1943. 8. The County Commissioners of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania sold said premises to E. A. Allshouse by deed dated August 23, 1943 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania in Deed Book No. 352, page 333 on October 26, 1943. Said E. A. Allshouse conveyed said premises described in Exhibit "A" to J. R. CALDWELL, a/k/a JOHN R. CALDWELL, and C. E. CRAWFORD, a/k/a CHARLES CRAWFORD by deed dated March 4, 1954 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania in Deed Book No. 437, page 483 on September 9, 1954. 9. Plaintiffs, J. R. CALDWELL, a/k/a JOHN R. CALDWELL and SARA M. CALDWELL, his wife, and C. E. CRAWFORD a/k/a CHARLES E. CRAWFORD AND RUTH C. CRAWFORD, his wife conveyed a portion of said premises described in Exhibit "A" to plaintiffs W. F. KENNEDY and DAISY KENNEDY by deed dated July 5, 1956 and recorded at Clearfield, Pennsylvania in Deed Book No. 451, page 492 on July 12, 1956. The said premises are described in Exhibit "B". 10. The plaintiffs, J. R. CALDWELL, a/k/a JOHN R. CALDWELL and C. E. CRAWFORD, a/k/a CHARLES CRAWFORD; W. F. KENNEDY and DAISY KENNEDY, husband and wife; and their predecessors in title, have been in actual, open, notorious, visible, hostile and continuous possession of the premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" for a period of 21 years and upwards. 11. One of the purposes of the action is to quiet title as to any interest that HYMAN SHAFFER and his heirs, devisees, administrators and assigns and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest may have in the premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" because of any defect that may exist in the said tax sale of said premises by the Treasurer of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania because of the premises being improperly assessed, not properly described, no proper notice of said Tax Sale to the record owner, or that the said premises were sold as the property of one other than the record owner or for any other reason that may raise some question as to the validity of the title. Another purpose of this action is to make the title to the said premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" marketable, so that the same can be certified. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request the Court to determine (a) that their rights are superior to the rights of Defendant, HYMAN SHAFFER, and his heirs, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns, and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest; (b) that the respective Plaintiffs have fee simple title to their respective premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" as against the Defendant, HYMAN SHAFFER, and his heirs, devisees, administrators, executors and assigns, and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest; (c) to enjoin the defendant, HYMAN SHAFFER, and his heirs, devisees, administrator, executors, and assigns, and all other person, persons, firms, partnerships or corporate entities in interest from setting up any title to the premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B"; (d) from impeaching, denying or in any way attacking the title of plaintiffs to the premises described in Exhibits "A" and "B" and grant and decree whatever relief may seem equitable and proper. AND THEY WILL EVER PRAY. GLEASON, CHERRY & GUIDO, s/ Anthony S. Guidon, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

This matter having been heard by the Court it is found as a fact that the circumstances to which the defendant testified could not have occurred as declared by him, the radar check being such as to eliminate the possibility that any other vehicle speed could have been reported on the radar beam; further, that the position of the defendant's vehicle and the tractor-trailer which he testified to passing was such that the testimony regarding the increased speed of the tractor-trailer at the time that the defendant alleges to have passed it cannot be accepted as a fact. Without benefit of an opinion (which wixx will be filed only in event of appeal) but based on factual and legal determinations of the Court under all the circumstances presented to it, the Court entered the following ORDER: NOW, February 23, 1967, appeal is dismissed and the decree of suspension of license issued by the Bureau of Public Safety of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is approved. Costs shall be paid by appellant. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

Bell Silberblatt & Swoope Driscoli, Gregory & Coppolo	ERLE I. SHOBERT II	JANUARY 4, 1967, COMPLAINT IN ACTION TO QUIET TITLE, filed. One copy certified to the Sheriff.
	395 JAMES SHANEY ERNEST G. McDONALD, FRANK R. McDONALD F. L. COUDRIET EDWARD COUDRIET NORBET COUDRIET NELLIE COUDRIET and CLEO PATRICK, and their heirs, assigns and successors in interest Pro. By atty 7.50 Atty By Atty 3.00 Shff Charney 6.75	NOW, comes the Plaintiff by his attorneys, Driscoll, Gregory & Coppolo and Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope, and states his cause of action as follows: (1). The Plaintiff is an individual residing in the Borough of St. Marys, Elk County, Pennsylvania. (2). The identity and whereabouts of the Defendants are unknown to the Plaintiff with the exception of Cleo Patrick, who is an individual residing in the Borough of Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. (3). By deed recorded in Deed Book 83, page 99, James Shaney acquired title to Warrant No. 5364 in Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, present- ly described as follows: BEGINNING at a white oak marking the southeastern corner of Warrant 5364, being also the northeastern corner of Warrant 1931; thence westerly along the northern line of Warrant 1931, three hundred and fifty-eight (358 rods, more or less, to a chestnut, marking the southwestern corner of Warrant 5364, be- ing also the northwestern corner of Warrant 1931; thence northerly along the eastern line of Warrants No. 1928 and 5362, four hundred and ninety-seven (497) rods, more or less, to a post set in the southern line of Warrant 5364; thence easterly along the southern line of Warrant 5363, five hundred forty-two and one-tenth (542.1) rods, more or less, to a white oak marking the northeastern corner of Warrant 5364, and being the southeastern corner of Warrant 5363, said white oak being in the western line of Warrant 5365; thence southerly along the western line of Warrant 5365, two hundred forty- four and three tenths (244.3) rods, more or less, to a post set in the north line of Warrant 1937; thence westerly along the north line of Warrant 1937, one hundred eighty and three-tenths (180.3) rods to a chestnut, being the northwestern corner of Warrant 1937; thence southerly along the western line of Warrant 1937, two hundred sixty-two and five-tenths (262.5) rods, more or less, to the place of beginning. Containing fourteen hundred (1400) acres of land, more or less, and being Warrant No. 5364. (4). By deed recorded in Deed Book 74, page 73, James Shaney conveyed an undivided two-thirds (2/3 interest in Warrant 5364 to F. L. Coudriet and F. J. Leigey, so that title was vested in James Shaney, F. L. Coudriet and F. J. Leigey, as tenants in common. (5). By deed dated November 30, 1966, the Plaintiff has acquired record title to the premises, the said deed beomg recorded in Deed Book page (6). Although the Plaintiff has acquired record title to the entire right, title and interest in the tract, his chain of title includes various deed based on tax sales, which in turn were based on assessments which did not clearly identify the interests purported to be assessed, the said deeds in question being as follows: A. Commissioners deed dated August 31, 1925 and recorded in Deed Book 289, page 343, based on an assess- ment to Shaney, Coudriet and Leigey, but which apparently conveyed the interest of Ernest G. McDonald. B. Commissioners deed dated July 9, 1945 and re- corded in Deed Book 419, page 29, based on an assessment to Coudriet, Shawney and Leigey, apparently conveying the interest of Frank R. McDonald. C. Treasurers deed dated December 8, 1930 and recorded in Deed Book 319, page 479, and Commissioners deed dated December 30, 1936 and recorded in Deed Book 319, page 479, based on an assessment to Walter Welch, apparently conveying the interest of Walter Welch. D. Treasurers deed dated October 26, 1928 and recorded in Deed Book 308, page 507, and Commissioners deed dated September 1, 1931 and recorded in Deed Book 308, page 509, based on an assessment to Coudriet, Shawney and Leigey, the interest being conveyed not being clearly identified. (7). Defendant Cleo Patrick is the sole heir of Walter Welch, one of the owners in the chain of title. (8). While Plaintiff believes that he has acquired all of the interest in the said tract, the matters herein set out have created a cloud on his title. WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff brings this action to bar the Defendants, their heirs or assigns, from ever asserting any right, title or interest in the land inconsistent with the claim of the Plaintiff; from impeachin, denying or in any way attacking Plaintiff's title to said property from issuing or maintaining any action attacking the same; and from encumbering or mortgaging the same or any part thereof. APRIL 27, 1967, MASTER'S REPORT, filed.

AND NOW, the 1st day of May 1967, the report of the Master is acknowledged. We approve his findings and recommendations.

We, therefore, DECREE that Blair Turner, Jr. be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between himself and Betty Jane Turner. Joseph J. Lee	CLARENCE SELLERS	JANUARY 9, 1967, COMPLAINT IN REPLEVIN, filed. One copy certified to Sheriff, together with Writ of Replevin, without Bond.
1/9/67 $110.27 in Escrow Clfd Trust	423	1, Plaintiff is an individual and resides at Karthaus, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and is engaged among others, in the business of transporting pulpwood from points in Clearfield and Centre Counties to points in Pennsylvania. (2) Defendant, Ron Stoltz Ford, Inc., is a corporation, with principal place of business in Chester Hill, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and is engaged in the business of selling new and used motor vehicles and in the repair and maintenance of motor vehicles. (3) Plaintiff purchased from the defendant one 1965 Ford W. License truck with bed for the specific purpose of advancing his business of hauling pulpwood. (4) In September, 1966 said vehicle proved defective in that the brake drums cracked - requiring repairs thereto totalling $220.54. (5) It was agreed between the plaintiff and Ron Stoltz, an officer of defendant company, acting on behalf of said defendant, that the defendant would assume one-half of the cost of repairing said vehicle and that the plaintiff would assume the other one-half, to wit: - the sum of $110.27, inasmuch as it was felt that the repairs were made necessary as the result of, at least in part, faulty brake drums in said truck. (6) As a result of said agreement, said truck was delivered by the plaintiff to the defendant in September, 1966 in order that the defendant might make the necessary repairs thereto. (7) On or about October 19, 1966 the plaintiff, having been advised that the repairs had been completed, did cause to be tendered to the defendant the sum of $110.27 - the agreed cost of repairs to the plaintiff, and did seek to secure possession of said truck from the defendant, but possession was denied. (8) Plaintiff avers that the right of possession upon tender of the agreed repair cost of $110.27 on October 19, 1966 has at all times since said date been in him, and that the plaintiff has been refused and denied possession since that date. (9) The plaintiff avers that as a result of the wrongful detention he has been and continues to be of Washington, D. C., from which he graduated in the year 1918.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Union Banking and Trust Company, of DuBois, Pennsylvania, has caused these presents to be executed by its proper officers and its corporate seal attached, duly attested by its Secretary this 29th day of June, 1967. THE UNION BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY of DuBois, Pennsylvania. s/ D.B. Kiel, President.

Immediately upon graduation from Catholic University, he enlisted in the United States Navy and served for the ensuing two years until his honorable discharge. Following his discharge from the Navy, he entered into a law clerkship in the office of the late James A. Gleason, Esq., and was admitted to the Clearfield County Bar Association on January 5, 1924.
Following the death of Mr. Gleason, Mr. Brockbank entered into an association with the late Singleton Bell, which continued until the death of Judge Singleton Bell, Judge of Clearfield County. After that, Mr. Brockbank continued practicing law in DuBois until his death on December 23, 1966.
He is survived by his wife, Mary Sentner Brockbank, his son, Leo, Jr., at home, and a brother, Dr. William Brockbank, of Scarsdale, New York. A sister, Mrs. Pauline Brockbank Simmons, preceeded him in death a few years ago.

Aside from his busy practice of law, Leo R. Brockbank, gave his time and efforts for the promotion of the general welfare of the community in which he lived. He was a lifetime member of St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church and had the distinction of being an usher in that church for 60 years. In addition to his church, he was active in community affairs, a member of the Knights of Columbus and Secretary and Treasurer of the B.P.O. Elks in DuBois for over 25 years. He was a member of the Board of the DuBois Public Library and served as Secretary of that Board from 1957 to the date of his death. He became a member of the Board of Directors of the DuBois Hospital Association in 1929, served as its Secretary-Treasurer for a time and was its incumbent Assistant Secretary at the time of his death. He was also a member of the American Legion

Leo R. Brockbank was a conscientious lawyer, completely faithful to the interests of his clients and meticulous in all of his business transactions, both with fellow members of the Bar with whom he came in contact as well as those persons who entrusted their matters to him. His own personal interests were always set aside for the benefit of those persons entrusting him with the handling of their affairs, and many times, in order to avoid a conflict of interest or even the appearance of a conflict of interests, advised people seeking his services to engage other counsel.

Engaged at all times in one or the other of the matters which took up his interests, he was never too much involved to give his presence to any and all activities for the betterment of the organizations to which he belonged.

The community of DuBois, the Bar Association of Clearfield County and the individual members of the Clearfield County Bar Association, feel the loss of a good citizen and a good friend, which will be difficult to replace.

The committee feels that by these resolutions they express the deep regret of the Clearfield County Bar Association of the passing of one of its distinguished members, and join with his family in mourning the loss of a friend and fellow lawyer.

Respectfully submitted, Robert V. Maine, F. Cortez Bell and John J. Pentz, memorial committee.

I move the adoption of these Resolutions by the Bar Association.

BY F. CORTEZ BELL, SR.

I will second the motion.

BY THE COURT:

BY F. CORTEZ BELL, SR.:

I just happened to be looking here - I don't think outside of Judge Pentz and Ed Kelley - Leo was in an age of what I call the gas light age. I was talking to a woman her in town yesterday and I asked her if she remembered when they used gas lights on the corners and would go around and light them. I can remember them doing that in DuBois when I was in high school, and people left the gas burn all day long over in DuBois. Leo's family came over from DuBois for a long time and Jim Gleason would come down here from Houtzdale, and W. H. Patterson, and in the offices at DuBois is where the old records of Patterson and Gleason were. He had an office in the Keystone Building here in Clearfield and then Mr. Gleason, before the First World War, moved to DuBois. Having been from Houtzdale, he had to come to Clearfield to get his wife. He got his wife in Clearfield and then moved to DuBois. When Leo came back from the First World War, having been a long-time resident, his father having been a doctor and resident before him, it was an ideal set-up for Jim Gleason and Leo, because Leo knew the district, if you understand what I am getting at. Another ideal of the set-up was Jim Gleason was an advocate - a great big man about six feet three, bigger than his son, the jim you know - and he could address the jury; whereas Leo was a counsellor, that is, what I call an office lawyer. I think Leo was admitted to the Bar in 1923. I intended to look it up but forgot it. In December 1924 Mr. Gleason had a chair collapse in the office and he was killed. Following that my father took over Jim Gleason's place, and he died in 1930 and then I was in partnership with Leo from 1930 to 1943. So we had again, the people that talk so much with their mouth, like me. I am not criticizing Jim Gleason but that is the advocate, and the fellow that stops and thinks things out is the counsellor. I never had a word with Leo on anything during those thirteen years; nor, as far as I know, did my father before me. Leo was scrupulously honest; very active in the Elks when I was over there. I feel we have had a very distinct loss. He went out very suddenly, as you know. He went to bed at night and was gone in the morning. I just want to say I have never had anyone I respected more; and we never had an argument about the slightest thing during all that period of time, which I think is very complimentary to say. I want to add my recommendations to the resolutions of the committee.

BY THE COURT:

Thank you. Judge Pentz.

BY JOHN J. PENTZ.

May it please the Court, Mrs. Brockbank and members of the Bar Association. I know to me the passing of Leo Brockbank was a distinct shock. I had known Leo, I think practically all his life, and my life. I first became acquainted with him when he was going to DuBois High School preparing then to go to law school at the Catholic University; and I had just passed my examinations and I discussed the possibilities of the examination and what one should know, with Leo. After the war we settled down and Leo completed his clerkship and was admitted to the Bar. Personally, I feel his loss more as a man and a friend than in any other capacity.

Leo, as the resolutions said, was a man of meticulous honesty. He would lean over backwards to avoid any appearance of being partisan in any matters he was involved in with his own client, or being prejudiced or doing things he should not do, in accordance with the highest degree of ethics of the legal profession. He also had a phase of character that few people recognized and that was a very humorous way of looking at people and life, and what happened and made them tick. He got a great deal of amusement, and he never that I know of, ever got angry at anybody doing anything, whether they did it to him or other people. There was always something amusing in things that occurred, that he could see and he could tell about. He was a man one could confide in, discuss things with, and he had a full understanding of the problems people might have, both as a professional man and lawyer, and as citizens and ordinary individuals in trouble.
As Judge Bell said, Leo and I, maybe including Judge Bell and a couple of the rest of us, came up through the gas light era, the gas light age - that may be, but we had an awful good time while we were at it. Thank you.

BY THE COURT:

The Court will recognize any member of the Bar who desires to declare anything for the record.

BY WALTER M. SWOOPE, ESQ.:

Judge Cherry, Mrs. Brockbank. They say gas light era, many of us might be in between the transition. I did not know Leo, of course, as well; but hearing the comments of Judge Bell and Judge Pentz, it strikes me that in this fast moving age, we younger members can really take note of Leo's attitude toward the law and the law association with people; and I hope that we can benefit from our contacts with him and remember that we are entrusted with those things and that we always keep that in mind, so that the public may know that we represent something which I think is very basic in our life. As I know Leo, I got a tremendous lift, as Judge Pentz says, in his sense of humor. I never knew a man who could look at something with that approach, realizing how serious the law can be with the younger fellows. My association with the older members will always be cherished; and I hope we can keep in mind Leo's philosophy.

BY CLARENCE R. KRAMER:

May it please the Court.

BY THE COURT:

Mr. Kramer

BY MR. KRAMER:

In a sense, the passing of Leo represents the end of an era. He was a member of this Court and practiced here in this vicinity and adjoining Counties, but not a member of the Bar of the Appellate Court. I don't remember when I first met him. I was already applying myself to the profession when he was admitted, and I never remember of him being in any cases where he was either with me or on the opposite side; but forty-two years is a long span of time and I may well have forgotten some of the things that transpired between him and me. What I do remember of him was in connection with his large office practice and title work; and when he came to Clearfield, in referring to the limited space downstairs in which there is to investigate titles, he had often facetiously said to me "You Clearfield lawyers wait until us DuBois lawyers come and then rush in and take up all the space." and I always had some kind of humorous answer in reply to him; but that shows his joviality and the genial disposition of the man. That was one of the outstanding features of his character and his habits of life that I remember. Then too, he was willing to discuss intricate problems in this question of investigating titles, and there are problems, very interesting problems that the lawyer confronts, as we all know. There are problems which we wonder how the other lawyers solved; and many times he had an explanation for a question as to procedure; and I found that very interesting. I shall remember him because of his jovial personality, because of his friendship. I valued him as a friend, and my memory of him in that capacity will continue.

BY THE COURT:
Thank you, Mr. Kramer
BY PAUL SILBERBLATT, ESQ.:
Your Honor.
BY THE COURT:
Mr. Silberblatt
BY MR. SILBERBLATT:

Less than two weeks before Leo's passing, he was an arbitrator on a case I was trying. I always liked to have Leo as an arbitrator, especially in automobile cases, because even though he did not seem to practice in the court, he was always keen in being an arbitrator, and I think he knew the law on negligence on automobiles as well as any of us. About two or three days before his death he stopped me in the court house, downstairs, and he said "I certainly miss your father around here." I think my father and Leo were good friends for many reasons; one being that they started to practice about the same time. I would like to think my father and Leo are now actively engaged in practicing before a higher Bar than this one. During the time that I was Secretary-Treasurer of the Bar Association, Leo was one of the firm believers in the need of a strong Bar Association; and of the many times he was appointed by the Court to act as an auditor in an estate, I don't think that the Order of the Court and the signature of the judge was dry, stating Leo's fee, that he did not have a check in the mail to me as secretary-treasurer of the Bar Association, for the commission that he owed to the Bar Association; and on his next trip over to Clearfield he would make sure I had acknowledged the receipt of it to him, because he was a strong believer in Bar Association. I think attorneys like him are hard to find today.

BY THE COURT:
Thank you Mr. Silberblatt.
The Court, because of the formalities of the presentation of the Resolution, waited until now to make an introduction. Mrs. Helen Gaffney is seated beside Mrs. Brockbank - a sister of Mrs. Brockbank, who has been very dedicated also to her family. As one would second a motion such as was seconded here on the presentation of the Resolution, Mrs. Brockbank and Mrs. Gaffney, and members of the Bar, I would second all of the remarks that have been made here this morning; because you second only those matters in which you sincerely believe, and I believe every one of the remarks that were made here about Mr. Brockbank, or Leo as I would like to call him at this time. I feel that reference made to the gas light era brought forth only one thought in my mind that he may have been in the gas light era, but never grew old. He was young at heart at all times, and I think too that is what everyone noticed in the humor which he had at all times, in every situation. The Bar has talked about his humor, and did not wait until now to make those remarks about Leo; so I think his attribute in that respect was to be highly regarded, and certainly is being remembered. I would like to make just these few remarks, that I think he had an extreme honesty of and dedication to any purpose that occupied his mind or his energies at any given time. That attribute certainly is one that everybody would like to own, and so many do not have. They can not purchase it. They must earn it, and he has earned that. He had a terrific loyalty to family, which is the outstanding thing in any individual as far as I am concerned. He carried that loyalty, however, to his church, to the Bar, as has been indicated here this morning, and certainly to his country. He served his country well. He showed a great interest in the welfare of the country. He was very active, and I don't think it was mentioned here, in Barracks 3001 in DuBois. In fact he was one of the charter members of the Veterans' Barracks in DuBois. He showed a great interest in American Legion affairs; not so much the social part of it as the business part of it; and he was interested in these matters to the fullest. These are things I think ought to be remember and ought to be used as the example for others to follow; because, as I said, such loyalty is not purchased, it has to be earned, and he earned every bit of it. Therefore, he earned all the remarks in the glowing terms they were used here this morning, and more besides. I am sure if you were to sit informally with member of the Bar, they would refer to many, many incidents which would give you great happiness, even at a time when there is sadness in the parting of an individual such as Leo. So that with everything that has been said, I am sure that these things were said while he was living; and to me that is the important thing. With that, the Court will recess.

	In re: MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR LEO R. BROCKBANK, ESQ. 563 Pro. 10.00 a law clerkship in the office of the late James A. Gleason, Esq., and was admitted to the Clearfield County Bar Association on January 5, 1924. Following the death of Mr. Gleason, Mr. Brockbank entered into an association with the late James A. Gleason, Esq. and was admitted to the Clearfield County Bar Association on January 5, 1924. Following the death of Mr. Gleason, Mr. Brockbank entered into an association with the late Singleton Bell, which continued until the death of Judge Singleton Bell, Judge of Clearfield County. After that, Mr. Brockbank continued practicing law in DuBois until his death of December 23, 1966. He survived by his wife, Mary Sentner Brockbank, his son, Leo, Jr., at home, and a brother, Dr. William Brockbank of Scarsdale, New York. A sister, Mrs. Pauline Brockbank Simmons preceded him in death a few years ago. Aside from his busy practice of law, Leo R. Brockbank gave his time and efforts for the promotion of the general welfare of the community in which he lived. He was a lifetime member of St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church and had the distinction of being an usher in that church for 60 years. In addition to his church, he was active in community affairs, a member of the Knights of Columbus and Secretary and Treasurer of B.P.O. Elks in DuBois for over 25 years. He was a member of the Board of the DuBois Public Library and served as Secretary of the Board from 1957 to the date of his death. He became a member of the Board of Directors of the DuBois Hospital Association in 1929, served as its Secretary-Treasurer for a time, and was its incumbent Assistant Secretary at the time of his death. He was also a member of the American Legion. Leo R. Brockban was a conscientious lawyer, completely faithful to the interests of his clients and meticulous in all of his business transactions, both with fellow members of the Bar with whom he came in contact as well as those persons who entrusted their matters to him. His own personal interests were always set aside for the benefit of those persons entrusting him with the handling of their affairs, and many times, in order to avoid a conflict of interests or even the appearance of a conflict of interests, advised people seeking his services to engage other counsel. Engaged at all times in one or the other of the matters which took up his interests, he never was too much involved to give his presence to any and all activities for the betterment of the organizations to which he belonged. The community of DuBois, the Bar Association of Clearfield County and the individual members of the Clearfield County Bar Association, feel the loss of a good citizen and a good friend which will be difficult to replace. The committee feels that by these resolutions they express the deep regret of the Clearfield County Bar Association of the passing of one of its distinguished members, and join with his family in mourning the loss of a friend and fellow lawyer. Respectfully submitted, Robert V. Maine, Chairman, F. Cortez Bell and John J. Pentz. MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR LEO R. BROCKBANK, ESQ. Held in Open Court Before Honorable John A. Cherry, President Judge, and Members of the Clearfield County Bar Association, January 23, 1967 BY THE COURT: The Court recognizes Mr. Maine. BY ROBERT V. age two (2) years is restrained by Gerald Fry of the Village of Woodland, Bradford Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

WHEREAS, the legal custody of said Gerald Lee Fry,
Jr. is and should be in and with his natural mother,
your petitioner herein.

THAT, your petitioners, the natural mother of Gerald Lee Fry, Jr. is residing at 311 Steward Avenue, Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania at the home of her parents and is gainfully employed by Shortway

ORDER:

NOW THIS 1st day of February 1967 upon consideration of the foregoing Petition it is directed that a Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Subjiciendum be issued therewith directing Gerald Fry to produce Gerald Lee Fry, Jr., at a hearing to be held on the 21st day of February, 1967
at 2 P.M. at the Court House, Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. Notice of said hearing shall be given therewith to Gerald Fry and Gloria Fry by Registered Mail. BY THE COURT, JOHN A. CHERRY

March 9, 1967, Transcript of Testimony taken before Hon. John
A. Cherry, President Judge, February 21, 1967, lodged by me this date. A. Chie Hill, Prothonotary

APRIL 18, 1967, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

The instant matter arose through a non-support proceeding and a subsequent habeas corpus for custody of the twnty-three month-old son of the parties. By agreement both proceedings are to be determined upon the testimony taken at the trial.

The Court has reviewed the testimony and, although finding that some of this eighteen-year old mother-s actions are subject to criticism, the Court is of the definite opinion that the best interests and permanent welfare of the said child will be best served if custody is in the mother. Without reviewing all of the testimony (full opinion with findings of fact and law to be filed in the event of appeal), the physical surroundings of the mother's home are more conducive to full and proper care of the child than is that of the father;
the child's tender age demands the association with and the care of the mother; and it is the Court's opinion that with the mother having custody, and the father being given visitation rights, a bad situation will be remedied as fully as a Court can under the circumstances.
Therefore, upon consideration of the facts and applicable law, the Court enters the following.

ORDER

NOW, April 18, 1967, custody of Gerald Lee Fry, Jr., the child of the parties, is hereby granted to his mother, Gloria Fry; and there is hereby granted to the father, Gerald Lee Fry, Sr., the right to visit with said child on Saturdays and Sundays of each week from 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. either at the mother's home or by taking said child to his own home during those times. Further visitation rights will be considered and granted, if all circumstances make it proper to do so, at such time as the age of the child will permit. It is the further order of the Court that no order for support will be entered at this time because the father is without income or source of income, and support shall be decreed at such time as proof of his ability to provide the same is submitted to the Court. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

APRIL 19, 1967, ORDER, filed.

NOW, April 17, 1967, upon request of Joseph P. Work, Esquire, attorney for Gerald Lee Fry above named; and the Court being satisfied that the same is true; it is hereby directed that an addendum be made to line 21, page 16 of the Transcript of notes of testimony in the above matters so that the same will reflect the exact words of the witness, which were:
"I hate them, I hate them." BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

NOVEMBER 13, 1970 PETITION filed

TO THE HONORABLE JOHN A. CHERRY, PRESIDENT JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

The Petition of Gloria Jean Fry respectfully represents:

(1). That to No. 63 November Sessions, 1966, your Honorable Court entered an Order dated December 9, 1968 affirming an agreement of support whereby Gerald Lee Fry agrees to pay $50.00 per month.

(2). That to No. 584 November Term 1966 in a habeas corpus proceeding your Honorable Court entered an Order dated April 18, 1967 awarding custody of Gerald Lee Fry, Jr., born March 19, 1965, to Gloria Jean Fry, your Petitioner, with a provision for visitation rights in the father Gerald Lee Fry either at the home of your Petitioner or at his home on Saturdays and Sundays for a period of 1:00 o'clock P.M. to 5:00 P.M.

ORDER OF COURT:

NOW, this 23rd day of March, 1967, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a rule is issued on the Plaintiff herein to show cause why he should not pay the Defendant counsel fees and expenses. Rule returnable April 3, 1967 at 10:00 A.M.

MARCH 23, 1967, PRAECIPE FOR APPEARANCE, filed by Bell, Silberblatt & Swoope by Paul Silberblatt Attorneys for Defendant

APRIL 10, 1967, TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONEY, taken before Honorable John A. Cherry on March 27, 1967 Lodged this date by Archie Hill, Prothonotary

APRIL 18, 1967, ORDER, filed.

ORDER: NOW, April 18, 1967, upon consideration of petition of Paul Silberblatt, Esq., attorney for defendant, the Court hereby orders that the said plaintiff pay though the Prothonotary's Office of Clearfield County as counsel fees in the above matter the sum of $100.00 further fees in the said divorce proceeding to be ordered upon proceedings concluded in the matter. By the Court, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

APRIL 18, 1967, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Plaintiff instituted a divorce proceeding against wife-defendant after which the latter left their common abode and took with her to another County their five children, aged two, five, six, seven and eight. Plaintiff thereupon petitioned the Court to determine custody of the children, as a part of the divorce proceeding and as provided under the Divorce Code. Although the merits of the divorce action have not been determined, the Court entertained the petition in the interests of the children, they being extremely young, and the circumstances of their removal being such as to indicate that immediate hearing of the custody matter should be had. The first hearing date arrived, and although defendant acknowledged receiving timely notice of the same she failed to appear. Another date for hearing was set, and a contempt proceeding instituted for failure to comply with order of Court; and defendant did appear. Another date for hearing was set at this time. She gave as her excuse for not appearing at the first scheduled hearing that two attorneys (not within the County and not her counsel in this proceeding) had advised her not to appear at the hearing. The Court concluded to overlook her failure to appear and proceeded upon the merits of the custody portion of the case.

A review of the testimony, with full disclosure of the findings of the Court will not be made in this memorandum; opinion containing the same to be filed only in event of appeal. Suffice it at this time to declare that the Court could place practically no credence in the testimony of the defendant; with the exact opposit being true as to that of the plaintiff. The Court finds serious violations of defendant's martial obligations and the moral code; tha the physical conditions of the home provided by the father are far more conducive to the children's well being and that his moral and financial cannot but provide the best welfare for these children.

In view of the credible evidence, and the law applicable thereto, the Court finds that the best interest and permanent welfare of the children will be best served with custody granted to the father; and, pending final determination of the divorced action the Court enters the following

ORDER:

NOW, April 18, 1967, custody of the minor childrend of the parties, namely, Karen Lynne; Mary Sue; Elizabeth Anne; Laurie Patricia; and Linda Marie, is granted to the Plaintiff, Michael J. Delaney; with visitation rights as shall be agreed upon by the parties thereto and counsel to be exercised by the defendant; and it is further ordered that said defendant deliver fourthwith unto the plaintiff the said children of the parties. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

May 1, 1967, PRAECIPE FOR APPOINTMENT OF MASTER, filed.

AND NOW, May 1, 1967, MICHAEL DELANEY, Plaintiff in this action, moves for the appointment of a Master in this action, the certified copy of the original Complaint in Divorce having been served by a Constable of the City of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, by personal service and that more than twenty (20) days having elapsed from the date of said service; no answer has been filed or appearance entered by the Defendant. ORDER FOR APPOINTMENT

AND NOW, this 1st day of May, 1967, upon Praecipe filed by Gleason, Cherry, & Guido, Attorneys for Plaintiff, the Court does hereby appoint David E. The within Order is so made because although the Court is satisfied from the informal presentation made by counsel, that there was a mutual mistake with regard to conclusion of matters between their respective clients, the Court can not resolve the matter without benefit of such testimony. Therefore, it is the FURTHER ORDER OF COURT that hearing shall be had, only upon petition filed by either or both of counsel. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

NOVEMBER 4, 1967, MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL, filed by Gleason, Cherry & Guido

AND NOW, to wit: this 2nd day of November, 1967, Plaintiffs move the Court for a new trial as to damages only or in the alternative for a new trial generally in the above entitled case, and in support of the Motion files the following reasons:

1. The jury having found a verdict for Plaintiffs and awarded to them liquidated damages, and having made no award for pain, suffering, and inconvenience due to injuries suffered by them, the verdict of the jury was grossly inadequate.

2. The verdict was against the evidence.

3. The verdict was against the weight of the evidence.

4. The verdict was against the law.

OCTOBER 17, 1968, OPINION AND ORDER, filed.

In this case, after jury trial, plaintiffs recovered a verdict which was in the sum of $800.00. The verdict, therefore, was approximately $500.00 more than liquidated damages. However, the testimony in the case not only established that liability clearly rested upon the defendant, but also that the injuries were such that this verdict did not take into consideration fair return in money therefor. We do not believe that "reasonable men could not be expected to arrive at a different conclusion"; and since "the question of liability has been clearly determined" a new trial as to damages only must be granted; EASON VS. ISMITH, 188 Pa Superior 376, 146 Atlantic 2d, 634; FRIEDMAN VS. MATOVICH, 191 Pa. Superior 275, 156 Atlantic 2d, 608. See also ROSEN VS. SLOUGH, 212 Pa. Superior 398, 242 Atlantic 2d, 898; and AMATI VS. WILLIAMS, 211 Pa. Superior 398, 236 Atlantic 2d, 551. A more exhaustive opinion, including facts and law, will be filed only in event of appeal.

Therefore the Court enters the following

(3). This Order for custody under the present circumstances is working a considerable hardship upon your Petitioner as she is a working mother - employed at Shortway Products, and is unable to leave Clearfield on weekends for any reason whatsoever in order that she be present to turn over the child to Gerald Lee Fry.

(4). Your Petitioner believes that under the present custody arrangements the welfare of Gerald Lee Fry, Jr. is not being properly considered, and that the effect of the present custody proceedings and the treatment received by the child when with his father results in the child being rude to your Petitioner, nervous and overwrought.

(5). Your Petitioner likewise believes that the sum of $50.00 per month is an insufficient amount to care for the needs of said minor child, and desires that your Honorable Court increase said amount.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner prays that the custody and support Orders filed in these proceedings be reviewed and revised in accordance with the circumstances as investigation and hearing will disclose.

And she will ever pray. Gloria Jean Fry.

JANUARY 12, 1971, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed

In this trespass action the Court directed verdict for defendant on the basis that the evidence was wholly insufficient to establish negligence in the defendant. An Examination of the record reestablishes in the mind of the Court that there was not evidence upon which a jury could properly base a finding of liability, and, therefore, the Court enters the following.

ORDER

NOW, January 12, 1971, motion for new trial is denied, and it is directed that judgment be entered upon the verdict. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, President Judge.

Judgment is entered in favor of the Defendants and against the Plaintiff, in accord- and with Order of Court dated January 12, 1971.

A N D

D I S C O N T I N U E D

By virtue of section 1106 of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C.A. 1306, the Social Security Administration is expressly prohibited from disclosing the information it has acquired regarding David J. Frantz. This section provides that all social security records and information relating to claims may not be disclosed except as such disclosure is expressly authorized by regulations promulgated by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare. The Regulations of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, set out in Title 20, Code of Federal Regulations, section 401.1 et seq do not expressly authorize disclosure of the information sought. It is respectfully submitted that defendant, in allegation No. 3 of his petition, has incorrectly stated the provisions of section must be read in conjunction with section 1106(a) of the Act, 42 U.S.C.A. 1306 (a); which states that:

"No disclosure of any return or portion of a return (including information returns and other written statements) filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under Title VIII of the Social Security Act or under subchapter E of chapter 1 or subchapter A of chapter 9 of Title 26, or under regulations made under authority thereof, which have been transmitted to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare or to the Secretary of Labor, as the case may be, by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or of any file, record, report or other paper, or any information, obtained at any time by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare or the Department of Labor in the course of discharging their respective duties under this chapter, and no disclosure of any such file, record, report, or other paper, or information, obtained at any time by any person from the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare or the Secretary of Labor, as the case may be, or from any officer or employee of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare or the Department of Labor shall be made except as the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare or the Secretary of Labor, as the case may be, may by regulations prescribe. Any person who shall violate any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both."

42 U. S. C. A. 1306(b) states in part:

"Requests for information, disclosure of which is authorized by regulations  may,  be complied with if the agency, person, or organization making the request agrees to pay for the information or services requested in such amount, if any  as may be determined by the Secretary ." (Emphasis supplied.)

In allegation No. 7 of his petition defendant correctly quotes Section 401.3(a)(3)(iii) of the Secretary's Regulations, 20 CFR 401.3(a)(3)(iii) but this section deals with the disclosure of medical information acquired in the administration of the health insurance for the aged program authorized under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395 et seq. See also 401.3(3) of the Secretary's Regulations. Plaintiff is a claimant under Title II of the Social Security Act (old-age, survivors and disability insurance benefits program) and as such medical information relating to his claim may only be disclosed under that portion of Regulation No. 1 governing the disclosure of medical information obtained in the administration of the old-age, survivors and disability insurance program authorized in Title II of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C.A. 401 et seq. The pertinent section of the Regulation is 20 CFR 401.3(a) and the germane parts are as follows:

"Disclosure of any such file, record, report, or other paper, or information, is hereby authorized in the following cases and for the following purposes:

"(2) As to medical information directly concerning any claimant or prospective claimant for benefits or payments under Title II of the Social Security Act:

"(i) To such claimant or prospective claimant or his duly authorized representative, but only if disclosure of such medical information is reasonably necessary for a Title II purpose; or

"(ii) To such claimant's or prospective claimant's physician or to a medical institution at or of which such claimant or prospective claimant is a patient, but only if (a) such claimant or prospective claimant or his duly authorized representative consents to the disclosure of such information, (b) the source of such information, or if such source is not available, a physician in the employ of the Department, consents to such disclosure, and (c) such disclosure is solely for the purpose of the care or treatment of such claimant or prospective claimant; * * *."

We respectfully submit that the information requested was acquired by the Social Security Administration in the course of administering the disability insurance program and more specifically in adjudicating petitioner's claim for disability insurance benefits under said program. Accordingly, the medical information requested may be disclosed only if it is reasonable necessary for a Title II purpose or for the reasons set forth in 20 CFR 401.3(a)(2)(ii) regarding disclosure to physicians or medical institutions. Since, the request for medical information in subject case is in no wise "reasonably necessary for a Title II purpose" disclosure would not be within the authorized purposes set out in the above-cited Regulation and must be refused.

As to non-medical information section 401.3(a) of the Regulations provides that such information concerning any claimant for benefits under Title II or Title XVIII may be disclosed to the claimant or his duly authorized representative. Disclosure of non-medical information may also be made to others or the public but only if such claimant or his representative "authorizes disclosure of such information and such disclosure is consistent with the proper and efficient administration of the Act." Unless these two conditions are satisfied disclosure of non-medical information cannot be made within the provisions of 401.3(a)1(ii).

The prohibition against unauthorized disclosure of information assembled for social security eligibility determination purposes is so strong that "any person" who makes an unauthorized disclosure of such information is subject to criminal prosecution and may be fined up to one thousand ($1,000) dollars or imprisoned up to one year. (See 42 U.S.C.A. 1306). In a recent case involving an attempt to prosecute for contempt of court an employee of the Social Security Administration who refused to disclose information in a social security record, it was held that the employee acted properly in declining to make the disclosure and was not subject to punishment for contempt of court. In re Mengel, 261 F. Supp 687 (U.S.D.C.W.D. Pa. 1962). Similarly, in the case of Hubbard v. Southern Railway Company, 179 F. Supp. 244 (U.S.D.C.M.D. Ga. 1959), where the records of the Railroad Retirement Board were sought to be subpoenaed in a private lawsuit, the confidentiality of the records was upheld under the statute and regulations comparable to those involved here. Section 1106 of the Act and Regulation No. 1 were also recently upheld and enforced in Texas Employee's Insurance Ass'n v. Marshall, 436 S. W. 2d 617 (Tex. Civ. App. 1969) in which the testimony of a doctor who had examined a claimant for purposes of his application for social security purposes was held to be privileged and his refusal to testify in a workmen's compensation proceeding as to the results of the examination was found by the court to be proper.

And the regulation promulgated pursuant to section 1106 likewise is written in terms of a prohibition against disclosure of "information" per se rather than in terms of a prohibition against its disclosure by certain individuals. Specifically, Regulation No. 1, section 401.1 (with prescribed exceptions) prohibits disclosure of any information " * * * obtained at any time by the Department or by any officer or employee of the Department, or from the Department or any officer or employee thereof by any other person or by any other agency or officer or employee thereof * * * ."

Wherefore, it is respectfully submitted that since the medical information in plaintiff's social security records was obtained by the Social Security Administration in determining plaintiff's eligibility for disability insurance benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act and not Title XVIII, it may only be disclosed if it is "reasonable necessary for a Title II purpose." Clearly, disclosure of medical information in this instance would not come within this express authorization. Similarly, unless the conditions of 401.3(a)(1) as to the disclosure of non-medical information are satisfied, release of such information is also prohibited under the statute and regulations. For these reasons, it is respectfully submitted that the Court's Order of March 20, 1969, directing the Social Security Administration to produce the social security records of David J. Frantz should be vacated. s. John H. Binger, Jr., Assistant United States Attorney, Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
