Morgan. Kindly withdraw my appearance for the minor Heidi Hutton, Plaintiff in the above captioned case. /s/Thomas F. Morgan. ENTRY OF APPEARANCE: Kindly enter my appearance on behalf of the minor Heidi Hutton, Plaintiff in the above captioned case. /s/Earle D. Lees, Jr. MARCH 20, 1980, PETITION FOR LEAVE TO COMPROMISE MINOR'S ACTION AND ORDER, filed by Earle D. Lees, Jr. The Petition of Frank Hutton and Mary Ellen Hutton respectfully represents: 1. That they are the parents of Heidi Hutton, a minor, age ten, who was injured on October 28, 1978, when she was struck by an automobile owned by defendant, Kenneth Lee Clark, in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. 2. That the injuries sustained by said minor was a cerebral concussion and multiple lacerations about the face from which she has made a complete recovery other than for minor facial scarring which may or may not require plastic surgery in the future but in any event will be covered by her no-fault benefits. 3. That the medical expenses incurred were paid by their insurance carrier. 4. That counsel was retained upon a contingent fee basis by your petitioners, said agreement pro- viding for payment of 1/3 of all sums recovered. 5. That Counsel and your petitioners recommend the approval of the settlement of the gross amount of $2,000.00, negotiated with the defendant because of the limited amount of insurance cover- age, to wit, $30,000.00 to be divided among four victims. 6. That the other three victims who will share in the $30,000.00 of insurance available to the defendant suffered more extensive injuries, to wit, one victim died, another victim incurred fractured vertebrae with residual permanent disability, and Kelly Hutton incurred medical bills in excess of $30,000.00 as well as suffer- ing serious permanent injury. 7. That Heather Hutton, one of the plaintiffs named herein, will not share in the $30,000.00 of in- surance monies available in that her injuries were not of a sufficient magnitude to remove her from the prohibitions of the No-Fault Act. 8. That your petitioners approve the proposed settle- ment because they consider it fair and reasonable, and that it adequately compensates for the injuries sustained and expenses incurred, and they do further approve the proposed distribution contained in the form of order attached hereto. WHEREFORE, Petitioners pray that an Order be entered approving the compromise, allowing counsel fee in ordering distribution. /s/Frank Hutton, Mary Ellen Hutton. ORDER: AND NOW, to wit, this 20 day of March, 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and after hearing, it is Ordered that the settlement of this action for the gross sum of $2,000.00 be and it is hereby approved, counsel fees and expenses are allowed and distribution directed as follows: To be placed in an insured savings account at the Clearfield Bank and Trust, Clearfield, Pennsylvania in the name of Heidi Hutton, minor, to be marked "Not to be withdrawn until said minor reaches her majority or without the Order of a Court of Competent jurisdiction". The remaining sum of $600.00 to be paid to Earle D. Lees, Jr., Esquire as counsel fees for representation of said minor child. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. AUGUST 25, 1980, ORDER, filed.
Two copies certified to Timothy E. Durant.
NOW, this 22nd day of August, 1980, upon consideration of the Petition for Fees filed by the Master, and following argument on August 19, 1980, it appearing that there is no dispute as to the reasonableness of fees and costs requested by the Master, and the only issue is which party will pay same, NOW, THEREFORE, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Prothonotary pay any funds in his possession over and above the amounts necessary to satisfy record costs to Timothy E. Durant, Esquire, as and for partial payment of his Master's fees and costs. The Court will decide forthwith which party or parties shall be required to pay the balance of the fees. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOVEMBER 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
On July 21, 1980, the Master appointed in the above-captioned Action in Divorce filed his report recommending that the Court refuse Plaintiff's prayer for a Decree. Exceptions to the Report were filed thereafter which are now before the Court for determination. Of the seventy-four (74) Exceptions filed, the majority deal with the factual findings of the Master. In many instances, the record, which is comprised of five hundred thirty-five (535) pages, could support a finding of fact in favor of the Plaintiff or in favor of the Defendant. In these situations, this Court will not disturb the Master's conclusions as to factual determinations for the reason that he had actually observed the witnesses as they testified and thus is better able to determine their credibility. Where there is conflicting testimony, great weight must be given to the Master's findings since he is better able to resolve such conflicts.

Plaintiff has raised several issues of law, among which is that concerning the burden of proof required by law in this case. While the burden is on the Plaintiff to prove her case by clear and satisfactory evidence, the law further states that there must be a preponderance of evidence in her favor. See Taddigs v. Taddigs, 186 A.2d 255, 200 Pa. Super. 29 (1962) and Mintz v. Mintz, 258 Pa. Super. 187 (1978). Defendant's Exceptions to the Master's interchanging of the phrases "clear and satisfactory" and "clear and convincing" is not an issue as this Court is satisfied that the phrases are almost identical in meaning and do not constitute an error of law of sufficient magnitude to require overturning the Master's conclusions.

Plaintiff next argues that the Master erred in failing to find sufficient evidence to support a recommendation for divorce on the grounds of her cruel and barbarous treatment or indignities to the person. On the question of cruel and barbarous treatment, the Superior Court of Pennsylvania held in Rankin v. Rankin, 181 Pa. Super 414 (1956) that:
"The term cruel and barbarous treatment comprises actual personal violence or a reasonable apprehension thereof, or such a course of treatment as endangers life or health and renders cohabitation unsafe. A single instance of cruelty may be so severe, and with such attending circumstances of atrocity, as to justify a divorce." From the record, it appears that the only incident that could fit into this category was that of November 22nd, in which Defendant allegedly made threats with a gun. The Master found that this act was not a violent one nor severe enough to warrant the recommendation of a divorce decree.

NOVEMBER 22, 1978, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT,
MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT, filed.
Tirjah Daugherty has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.
He has been examined by J. K. Sanghi, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.
As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. /s/J. K. Sanghi, M.D.
ORDER:
NOW, this 29th day of September, 1978, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143 effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern, II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1978 through October 14, 1979. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President
Judge.
ORDER:
NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate, be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to the said
Act. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President
Judge.
DECEMBER 19, 1978, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S
REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern, Master.

NOW, this 19 day of December, 1978, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.
The Court finds that Tirjah Daugherty is not severely mentally disabled.

The Court recognizes the letter from Dr. Harold J.
Reinhard, M.D., dated October 27, 1978 and concurs in the opinion that upon completion of the DuBois facility of Clear Haven Nursing Home, Tirjah Daugherty, the subject of this hearing, should be transferred to the DuBois facility, since DuBois is her hometown.
In the meantime, Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject for her own protection and welfare, until such time that the DuBois facility is opened.
The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOW, this 22nd day of January, 1979, following Hearing into the above-captioned Appeal from Suspension of Inspection Station Certification, although the Court is satisfied that the violations alleged occurred, the benefit of the doubt is given to the Appellant on the question of Fraud and said Appeal is sustained and the action of the secretary suspending said certification reversed, the Court specifically noting that determination of any subsequent offenses of similar nature will be closely scrutinized. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. FEBRUARY 7, 1979, NOTICE OF APPEAL, filed by Harold H. Cramer, Assistant Attorney General. Notice is hereby given that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, hereby appeals to the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania from the order entered in this matter on the 22nd day of January, 1979. /s/Harold H. THEIR NUMBER 251 CD 1979. FEBRUARY 16, 1979, TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONY taken before Honorable John K. Reilly, Jr. lodged this day and date in Prothonotary Office. /s/Raymond Witherow Prothonotary. MARCH 6, 1979, OPINION AND ORDER, filed. On August 27, 1978, the Secretary of the Department of Transportation suspended the Certificate of Appointment of the above-captioned Charles Assalone as a qualified inspection station for a period of one (1) year and this Appeal followed. The basis for the suspension was Section 490.1 of the regulations regarding Suspension of Official Inspection Stations and said Section provides that an inspection license may be suspended for a second offense of fraudulent record keeping. The Commonwealth alleged that the above Section was violated in that the Defendant backdated inspection records and issued stickers out of sequence. At the hearing, the Commonwealth called Trooper Robert P. Cessna, Pennsylvania State Police, who testified that he was presently employed as a garage supervisor and, in that capacity, visited the Defendant's inspection station on July 27, 1978. He further went on to testify to facts which did indicate that the Defendant, through a mechanic, did in fact backdate an inspection and issued an inspection sticker out of sequence, and had the Appeal been from the finding of the Trooper as to these occurrences, this Court would have dismissed the Appeal and sustained the findings of the Trooper. However, the basis for the suspension was an allegation of fraudulent record keeping, and while the Defendant, through his mechanic, may have acted improperly as stated above, his records clearly and accurately reflected his actions. As testified by Trooper Cessna on page 26 of the notes of testimony: "Q. So he didn't fraudulently keep the records; he put the records down right, didn't he? A. It's a matter of opinion. Q. I mean he did what - he put down on the records what he actually did. A. What he did, right. Q. All right. So there's nothing wrong with the record keeping. He may have put the wrong sticker in the wrong period of time, but the records as far as what he did he didn't try to cover it up? A. No, no. Q. Okay. So that wouldn't be fraudulent record keeping? A. I don't know. I'm not - I can't read the Department's mind. Q. No, but he put down exactly what he did? A. He did, right. Q. He did not cover up anything? A. No."

JULY 3, 1980, CASE SETTLED-JURORS NOTIFIED BY MAIL

OF A DIVORCE DECREE. Moreover, the incident was isolated in that no similar occurrences took place, either before or since the one specified. The Master's findings are well supported by the testimony, especially that of Dr. Pollard, and there is no other evidence of violence by the Defendant toward the Plaintiff.

In examining the allegations of indignities to the person in support of this Divorce Complaint, this Court is aware that a single act or an occasional isolated incident does not entitle a plaintiff to a divorce decree. There must be such a course of conduct for continued treatment as renders the plaintiff's condition intolerable and her life burdensome. See Boyer v. Boyer 183 Pa. Super. 260 (1956). The offense of indignities is established when a continued and persistent course of conduct demonstrates that the love and affection upon which the marital status rests has been permanently replaced by hatred and estrangement. See Fodor v. Fodor, 221 Pa. Super. 321 (1972). Plaintiff by her testimony has claimed several indignities and the Defendant has offered testimony to rebut these allegations. While the Master's Findings of Fact are only advisory where the evidence is in conflict and the Master is the one who heard and observed the witnesses, his findings should be given the fullest consideration. See Sells v. Sells, 228 Pa. Super. 331 (1974) and McAulty v. McAulty, 196 Pa. Super. 534 (1961). The Plaintiff also claims that the Master erred by failing to set forth a conclusion of law as to the credibility of witnesses. The courts have stated that a master is not required to state specifically why he credited one party's testimony over that of another. See Weaver v. Weaver, 403 A.2d 120 (1979).

Plaintiff next excepts to the Master's Finding that the Defendant's treatment of their children and her relatives does not constitute an indignity to the person. The courts have held that an indignity to the child may be an indignity to the parent and mistreatment of children can be grounds for divorce. See Steinke v. Steinke, 238 Pa. Super. 74 (1974). But such treatment of children or relatives must be sufficiently severe to have a substantial adverse effect on the complaining parent (see also Fisher v. Fisher, 154 Pa. Super. 497 (1944)).

Moreover, in Monaco v. Monaco, 160 Pa. Super. 117 (1946), the Superior Court held that an indignity must be to the person of the injured spouse and uncongeniality with relatives is no such indignity. As with the children, there is little or no testimony showing any mistreatment by the Defendant of his wife's relatives, and certainly not sufficient to make the condition of the Plaintiff unbearable.

Plaintiff next excepts to the Finding of the Master that she, the Plaintiff, was not an injured and innocent spouse. In Walters v. Walters, 6 D & C 3d 269 (1978), the court held that:

"...the requirement of the plaintiff in a divorce action to qualify as an innocent spouse means that the husband (wife) may be denied relief even though his (her) conduct falls short of grounds for divorce."

Thus the Master's findings that the Plaintiff was also guilty of the same type of actions she alleges against the Defendant may take her out of the category of innocent and injured spouse. Her threat to cut Defendant's hands off was not one of self defense, but rather to keep him from holding onto his son after the gun threat incident had ended. It is true that the law does not require the Plaintiff to be totally pure and blameless, but the Master is amply supported by the record in concluding that both spouses were at fault for their unhappiness. While it is clear that the parties are not able to get along with each other and that there are marital problems, this Court agrees with the Master that the Plaintiff has failed to prove sufficient grounds for the issuance of a Divorce Decree, and therefore, enters the following Order.

O K D E R

Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. A copy of the Complaint was certified to the Sheriff of Clearfield County for service on Defendants above-named, and on December 4th, this Court directed that the Complaint be served by publication in the Clearfield Progress on any Defendants of whom the Plaintiff may not have knowledge. Such publication was made on December 8, 1978, and on December 13, 1978, the Plaintiff filed an Affidavit of Service stating that none of the Defendants had filed an Answer.

On January 16, 1979, the Sheriff's Return was filed "Not Found" as to the above-named Defendants. The Sheriff further stating that he had on three occasions unsuccessfully attempted personal service at the alleged residence of the Defendants. At no time did Defendants above-named receive personal service but learned of the Judgment indirectly in March of 1979. In April of 1980, their Petition to Open or Vacate the Judgment was filed.

There are two issues with which this Court must deal. First, the sufficiency of service of notice on Defendants of the original Complaint, and second, the effect of the 13-month delay from the date of Defendants discovering the existence of the Judgment to the date of their filing their Petition to Open. Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1064(c) states:

"If a defendant is dead or his identity or whereabouts is unknown and an affidavit to that effect is filed, the plaintiff may serve the defendant by publication in such manner as the court by local rule or special order shall direct."

Defendants argue that because the Sheriff's Return of "Not Found" was not filed until after the publication, the required affidavit was not in existence at the time of the publication as required by the Rule, and second, Defendants argue that because the Clearfield Progress has little circulation in the City of DuBois, the DuBois Courier-Express would have been the proper publication in which to advertise. This Court must disagree.

First, with regards to the Sheriff's Affidavit, if the whereabouts of the Defendants are in fact unknown, the time of the filing of the affidavit to that effect, while important to the outcome, should not defeat the purpose of the Rule. The mere fact that the Affidavit was filed following publication, in view of the lack of prejudice to the Defendants, is not controlling. Moreover, while this Court agrees that service by publication would have been more effective in the DuBois Courier-Express, there is no specific Rule requiring such publication in one newspaper over another, and the Court can find no legal basis for granting Defendants' Petition on this point, but even if the service by publication were faulty, this Court cannot excuse Defendants' 13-month delay in filing their Petition to Open. While a primary issue in any Petition to Open is the excuse given by the Defendants in failing to timely file his Petition, here the only reason given was the alleged inability to obtain counsel, and his misunderstanding with counsel. While such circumstances may justify some delay, certainly a delay of 13 months is unconscionable.

THEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

was entered to No. 74-274-CD in Clearfield County in which this Court, by stipulation of counsel, entered judgment in favor of Bert Simon and Edward H. Simon by Order of Court dated August 26, 1976. In said previous Quiet Title Action, Samuel Milan had filed pleadings stating in paragraph 12:

"12. That Samuel Milan conveyed the premises in the Recorder's Office of Clearfield County as aforesaid to Edward H. Simon, which deed conveyed no title to the premises because Edward H. Simon failed to pay to Samuel Milan the consideration for the conveyance."

By deed recorded on December 8, 1978, in the Recorder of Deeds Office of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, Samuel Milan conveyed the same premises to Michael Klaich, Plaintiff above-named, and Plaintiff now seeks to Quiet Title to the subject premises in himself, claiming that the previous deed of the land to the Defendant Edward H. Simon fails for lack of consideration and that the previous Action to Quiet Title cited above has no bearing in the instant proceedings.

Defendant Bert Simon filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer claiming that the deed from Samuel Milan, Plaintiff's predecessor in title to Edward H. Simon set forth above is valid, and therefore, Plaintiff has no legal interest in the premises, and further, that Plaintiff has no standing to sue. This Court agrees. 26 C.J.S., §21, clearly states that:

"...as a general rule a deed which is otherwise valid will not be invalidated by reason of a total or partial failure of consideration and will nevertheless operate to convey title."

This policy has long been recognized by the State of Pennsylvania. See Sellers v. Sellers, 316 Pa. 304 (1934), and Maguire v. Wheeler, 300 Pa. 513, 519 (1930), the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania stated:

"It is true that a conveyance will not generally be invalidated by reason of a total or partial failure to comply with the agreement, as by neglect or refusal to pay the sum agreed upon....for in such case, the Plaintiff has a recovery based on the contract to recover."

This Court is also of the opinion that, while Samuel Milan would have the right to sue to recover his consideration from Edward H. Simon, the title itself has already passed to Mr. Simon, and if the deed from Samuel Milan to Plaintiff above-named conveyed anything at all, it would only be the right to recover the consideration contained in the deed from Milan to Simon, but not the right to invalidate the conveyance. Since there has been no allegation of fraud with regards to the conveyance from Milan to Simon, title must therefore have passed.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:
O R D E R

NOW, this 25th day of March, 1980, following argument into the Preliminary Objection above-named, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Objections in the nature of a demurrer be and are hereby granted and judgment is entered in favor of the Defendant Bert Simon and against the Plaintiff Michael Klaich. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

MILLER, KISTLER & CAMPBELL, INC., By s/ John Miller, Attorneys for Defendant, Edward H. Simon. FEBRUARY 21, 1979, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Miller, Kistler & Campbell, Inc. MARCH 25, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. On February 12, 1974, Samuel Milan conveyed to Edward H. Simon certain properties located within Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. An Action to Quiet Title involving the said premises was entered to No. 74-274-CD in the Clearfield County in which this Court, by Stipulation of counsel, entered judgment in favor of Bert Simon and Edward H. Simon by Order of Court dated August 26, 1976. In said previous Action to Quiet Title, Samuel Milan had filed pleadings stating in paragraph 12: "12. That Samuel Milan conveyed the premises in the Recorder's Office of Clearfield County as aforesaid to Edward H. Simon, which deed conveyed no title to the premises because Edward H. Simon failed to pay to Samuel Milan the consideration for the conveyance." By deed recorded on December 8, 1978, in the Recorder of Deeds Office of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, Samuel Milan conveyed the same premises to Michael Klaich, Plaintiff above-named, and Plaintiff now seeks to quiet title to the subject premises in himself, claiming that the previous deed of the land to the Defendant Edward H. Simon fails for lack of consideration and that the previous Action to Quiet Title cited above has no bearing in the instant proceedings. Defendant Edward H. Simon has filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer, claiming that the issue has been resolved in the previous Action to Quiet Title filed to No. 74-274-CD, and that the Plaintiff is collaterally estopped from asserting an Action. This Court agrees. Plaintiff replies that there was no final judgment on the merits in the previous Action in that his predecessor in interest, Samuel Milan, received no notice of final judgment and was therefore unable to appeal the ruling and that there was no identity of persons and parties between the two Actions. The fact that an attorney fails to file an appeal from an adverse judgment does not have an effect upon the finality of that judgment. In Gasbarini v. Medical Center of Beaver County, Inc., 385 A.2d 474, 476, 253 Pa. Super 547 (1978), the Superior Court of Pennsylvania stated that: "...the failure to appeal within the statutory period renders the doctrine of res judicata applicable and precludes the vacation of the order after the time of appeal has passed." In that case, the court refused to overrule a judgment even where the failure to file an appeal was due to gross negligence on the part of the attorney, placing paramount importance on the policy of finality of litigation. Moreover, Plaintiff in this Action is in privity with Samuel Milan, his predecessor in interest. In Central Pennsylvania Lumber Co. v. Cater, 35 A2d 282, 348 Pa. 429, 432 (1944), the State Supreme Court defined privity as: "Such privity denotes mutual or successive relationship to the right of property, title or estate." In this matter, this Court determines that the issues have been concluded by the previous Action to Quiet Title set forth above and the Order of this Court is res judicate and determinable of the issues herein. Moreover, since Plaintiff above-named stands in the shoes of Samuel Milan with regard to the subject property, he is collaterally estopped from proceeding to assert his claim. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order: O R D E R NOW, this 25th day of March, 1980, following argument into the Preliminary Objections above-named, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Objections in the nature of a demurrer be and are hereby granted and judgment is entered in favor of the Defendant Edward H. Simon and against the Plaintiff Michael Klaich. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

After a hearing on the merits of plaintiff's divorce action, the Court may place such costs on plaintiff as the Court finds plaintiff able to pay. The Court may order defendant to pay the costs involved, and require such costs to be paid to the Domestic Relations Officer in such a manner as shall not interfere with the disposition of plaintiff's action. ORDER AND NOW, this 11 day of January, 1979, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition and on motion of Catherine A. Davis, Esquire, the prayer of the Petition is partially granted in that the Plaintiff will be permitted to proceed as an indigent part and that the Master's fee shall be waived. However, Plaintiff shall be required to pay a filing fee to file the Complaint and all, if any, service costs. After a hearing on the merits of Plaintiff's divorce action, the Court may place such costs on Plaintiff as the court finds Plaintiff able to pay. The Court may order Defendant to pay costs involved, and required such costs to be paid to the Domestic Relations Officer in such a manner as shall not interfere with the disposition of Plaintiff's action. In order to be legally sufficient, service on Elizabeth Shaffer in this case would require that she be the lawful agent of Edward Rodgers for that purpose. It is a well known principle of law that he who asserts agency has the burden of proving its existence. In this case, the only proof advanced to substantiate the agency was the fact that the assessment records of Clearfield County carried the information that tax bills should be sent to Elizabeth Shaffer. Based on this alone, the Court cannot find as a matter of fact that Elizabeth Shaffer was also empowered to accept service of legal process on behalf of her brother, the Defendant. Moreover, both Elizabeth Shaffer and Edward Rodgers testified that the sole purpose of the arrangement was to insure the payment of taxes on the real estate since the Defendant was travelling extensively. Both denied the existence of an agency relationship, particularly with regards to matters affecting the property.

Enter my appearance for the defendants, Thomas Coal Company, Inc., a corporation, and Fahy W. McDonald, an individual, in the above captioned proceeding. /s/ Dan P. Arnold, Attorney for Defendants. MARCH 12, 1979, SHERIFF'S RETURN, filed. March 1, 1979, served within Complaint in Assumpsit & Trespass on Fahy W. McDonald, defendant. March 1, 1979, served within Complaint in Assumpsit & Trespass on Fahy W. McDonald, President of Thomas Coal Co., Inc. /s/Chester A. Hawkins, Sheriff by Marilyn Wood. MARCH 20, 1979, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Dan P. Arnold. On behalf of Fahy W. McDonald. MARCH 20, 1979, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Dan P. Arnold. On behalf of Thomas Coal Co., Inc. APRIL 2, 1979, AMENDED COMPLAINT, filed by John Sughrue. NOVEMBER 19, 1979, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter is before the Court in the form of a Demurrer to Count II of Plaintiff's Complaint. The Plaintiff in this Action, Guy A. Graham, was strip mining coal for Defendant, Thomas Coal Company, according to the terms of a lease agreement dated December 3, 1976. As part of that agreement, Defendant was required to hold certain funds for Plaintiff's benefit. However, when a dispute arose in 1977 and Plaintiff attempted to obtain his money, the funds were found to be missing. The result was a lawsuit by the Plaintiff against the Defendant corporation and its President and Executive Officer, Fahy W. McDonald. Defendant McDonald has now filed an Objection, alleging that no cause of action can be maintained against him personally for the disappearance of the funds in the land of Thomas Coal Corporation. The law is quite clear that "an officer of a corporation is liable for conversion of property belonging to a third person, notwithstanding the fact that he was working for the corporation." Fletcher on Corporations, Chapter 11, § 1140. However, those officers are personally liable only when, "they participate in the wrong, have knowledge amounting to consent or acquiescence, or are guilty of culpable negligence in allowing the commission of the wrong." C.J.S. Corporations, § 849. These then are the crucial factors to be considered in deciding whether Plaintiff has made out a cause of action against Defendant McDonald. Under the present circumstances, this Court must grant Defendant's Demurrer. Plaintiff's grounds for holding Defendant personally liable for the disappearance of Plaintiff's money appear to be solely that Fahy W. McDonald was in charge of Thomas Coal Corporation's business affairs. From that, two arguments are formed. First, Defendant knew he was to establish and maintain the special fund for the Plaintiff. Secondly, he intentionally failed to do so or, specifically, directed that the fund not be established. However, Plaintiff pleads no more facts nor provides any further information with which to bolster his argument. The fact that an individual is in charge of a corporation's business affairs alone is not grounds for holding him liable for the misappropriation or conversion by a corporation of another's funds. There must be something more than will show knowledge or participation on the part of the Defendant. Fletcher on Corporations, § 1141, p. 798. The case of Cohen v. Maus, 297 Pa. 454 (1969), cited in Plaintiff's brief, is illustrative of this principle. There, Plaintiffs brought an action in conversion against the directors of a bankrupt corporation for the resale of some goods previously purchased by Plaintiff. On Appeal, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court held that all but one of the directors could not be held personally liable as they had no knowledge of the resale, even though they could have easily checked the company books. The Court did hold, however, that the one director who was also the general manager might be held personally liable and, thus, a new trial was justified. At first glance, this would seem to be exactly what Plaintiff is arguing in this Complaint. However, the Supreme Court took into account the fact that, at trial, there was testimony that the director-general manager not only had knowledge of the sale but also ordered it. Here was that additional information needed to provide support for Plaintiff's argument that one of the Defendants was personally liable. It is this that is lacking in Plaintiff's Complaint. Therefore this Court feels compelled to grant Defendant's demurrer. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order: O R D E R NOW, this 19th day of November, 1979, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant Fahy W. McDonald's Motion in the nature of a demurrer be and is hereby sustained and said Fahy W. McDonald dismissed as a party Defendant in this Action. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. APRIL 23, 1979, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 24 day of April, 1979, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Joseph Green continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court continues to be of the opinion and finds that Joseph Green could qualify for a less restrictive setting, such as Clear Haven Nursing Home.

The subject has been on the waiting list and an interview is to be set up for the purpose of determining whether he is qualified to be placed in Clear Haven Nursing Home.

The Court is aware of the fact that the subject at this time is having severe physical problems and would, therefore, ORDER that he remain at Warren State Hospital until such time that he recovers from his physical problems. When the subject has made sufficient recovery he should then be transferred, if possible, to the DuBois Unit of Clear Haven Nursing Home.

Pending his placement in Clear Haven Nursing Home, Warren State Hospital is authorized to continue to retain Joseph Green for in-patient supportive care and treatment for his own protection and welfare.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.
