CIVIL ACTION MARCH 1979 DOCKET 222

Clarence R. Kramer	FLOYD D. SARVEY and MARY L. SARVEY, husband and wife 79-643-CD GARY LEE EVANS	MARCH 16, 1979, PETITION AND ORDER, filed by Clarence R. Kramer. One copy certified to Attorney. WHEREFORE, Petitioners respectfully request the Court to provide petitioners with relief by appropriate order requiring the said Gary Lee Evans to treat his mother and step-father in a proper and respectful way, such order to be entered the act of October 7, 1976, 35 PS 10181, et seq. /s/Clarence R. Kramer. ORDER OF COURT SETTING TIME FOR HEARING: NOW, March 16, 1979, the foregoing petition having been presented alleging abuse by the defendant against the mother and step-father, who are the petitioners herein, and threats of physical abuse whereby petitioners are in fear of imminent serious bodily injury. Whereby they allege that they have been compelled to withdraw from their home and establish a residence elsewhere, the defendant having entered into mental rages where he has thrown breakable things and parts of furniture at petitioners and has damaged the furniture and premises; petitioner presently alleging that he has made promises to seek psychiatric help, but he always reverts back to violence and abuse. The Court does hereby require defendant to appear before him and the hearing to be held on the 21 day of March, 1979, at the time of 11:00 o'clock, A.M., at which time he must appear in person and may also be represented by counsel, if he so desires. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. MARCH 27, 1979, SHERIFF'S RETURN, filed. NOW, March 22, 1979 after diligent search in my baliwick I return the within Petition & Order "NOT FOUND" as to Gary Lee Evans, defendant. So answers, Chester A. Hawkins, Sheriff By /s/ Marilyn Wood. MARCH 29, 1979, ORDER, filed. NOW, this 28th day of March, 1979, this being the day and date set for Hearing in the above-captioned action and the Defendant having failed to appear either in person or by Counsel, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Prayer of said Petition be and is hereby granted. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. APRIL 10, 1979, ORDER OF COURT, filed. NOW, March 28, 1979, this being the date and time set for the hearing in this case and the defendant not having appeared and having told the Attorney for petitioners that he did not intend to appear, and it being averred that a copy of the petition, together with all the allocations therein was served upon him, first on the 21st day of March, 1979, by the Sheriff of Clearfield County at an hour too late for him to appear for the hearing set for that date; and having been served further upon him by certified mail return receipt requested, on March 24, 1979, containing a copy of the petition again and a copy of the Judge's second Order setting a return date for the hearing, to wit: March 28, 1979, at 9:00 o'clock A.M., which Order gave notice that the defendant was required to appear before the Court at the stipulated time and place. Therefore, the Court finds, upon hearing of this case, that the averments set forth in the case are sustained and that the defendant has been guilty of willful abuse of his parents, Mary L. Sarvey, his mother, and Floyd D. Sarvey, his step-father, such offenses having consisted of: Not allowing any company or visitors to visit his mother and husband at their residence at No. 525 Martin Street, Clearfield, Pennsylvania, and if they did, would subject such visitors to insults and treatment causing the visitors to refuse to return; That he has repeatedly subjected his mother and step-father to threats of physical violence and actually visited upon them physical abuse, endangering their health and safety, by, among other things, twisting his mother's arm until the arm became black and blue from the shoulder to the wrist; That his conduct has placed them in great fear of him and so subjected them to such abuse that Floyd C. Sarvey, the step-father, felt compelled to, and did, withdraw from the home on Martin Street, the home he has occupied with his wife since their marriage in April, 1970; such abuse having continued against the said Mary L. Sarvey, whereby she, likewise, felt it necessary to withdraw from the home in order to secure safety and security; That he has frequently, as nearly as every day, in past weeks and months been nasty and troublesome and particularly about the full of the moon each month, would fly into tantrums, even throwing objects in the house and at his mother and step-father, disregarding both the danger to them and the hurt to anyone within the range of the hurled items; That he lets himself become so irritated by dogs barking outside the house, who are not owned by the parents, but belong to the neighbors, to such an extent that he will telephone neighbors, to such an extent that he will telephone neighbors in a harsh and disagreeable manner relative to the barking of their dogs; That at times, he enters into periods of deep depression; Because of his continued abuse, troublesome conduct and disagreeable manner and disregard of his duties as a son of the parents, he has made it impossible for them to continue to live CONTINUED TO PAGE 98

there was no such exclusion in the present Act with which we are concerned, and therefore, it can logically be inferred that the Legislature intended no such exclusion in the present Statute. Therefore, since Francis V. Spene dies after 6111.1 became effective, and in view of the fact that prior to his death, he retained the power to change the beneficiaries on the policies in question, this Court is of the opinion that the Statute acts to revoke the rights of Wanda S. Spene in and to the proceeds of the policies in question.

Wherefore, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

NOW, this 23rd day of September, 1980, it is the ORDER of this Court that Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings filed on behalf of the Plaintiff be and is hereby granted and Judgment be and is hereby entered in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendants. NOW, April 6, 1979 at 8:34 A.M. o'clock EST served the within Complaint on deft. at Clearfield, Pa. So answers, Chester A. Hawkins, Shff By /s/ Marilyn Wood

JUNE 30, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
Plaintiff above-named commenced this Action in Trespass against Defendant George Bloom, who thereafter joined the Additional Defendant, Clearfield County Tax Claim Bureau. The facts alleged in the Complaint indicate that the Original Defendant, George Bloom, purchased at tax sale certain premises located in Sandy Township previously assessed to Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs filed Exceptions to the tax sale and after hearing, this Court sustained their exceptions and set aside the tax sale. This Action is to recover damages for alleged acts performed by the Defendant, George Bloom, on the property immediately after the tax sale and prior to the Exceptions thereto being sustained.

Defendant Bloom brought the Clearfield County Tax Claim Bureau on the record as an Additional Defendant, and in his Complaint alleged that said Bureau breached its duty in regards to sustaining the validity of the tax sale, and as a result thereof, should be answerable in damages. This matter is now before the Court on Preliminary Objections filed by the Additional Defendant in the basis of governmental immunity under the Political Subdivision Tort Claims Act, Act of 1978, November 26, P.L. 1399, No. 330, §101, 53 P.S. §5311.101, et sec. This Court agrees and does herein dismiss Defendant's claim against the Additional Defendant.

It is clear that the Clearfield County Tax Claim Bureau is a political subdivision subject to the operation of the above Statute. The Bureau was established by the County of Clearfield under the provisions of the Tax Claim Bureau Act of 1947 for the purpose of collecting real estate taxes on behalf of Clearfield County. Section 201 of the Act provides that no political subdivision shall be liable for any damages on account of injury to a person or property caused by any act of omission of the political subdivision or an employee thereof or any other person unless certain exceptions exist, none of which are present in the instant case.

In view of the above, this Court is satisfied that there is no basis for claim against the Additional Defendant in this case, and therefore, enters the following Order:

ORDER:

NOW, this 30th day of June, 1980, following argument into the above-captioned Preliminary Objections, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Objections be and are hereby sustained and the Complaint against the Additional Defendant is dismissed. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JULY 21, 1980,PETITION FOR CONTINUANCE AND DEPOSITION, filed by Leo Michael Kiscaden

ORDER:

AND NOW, JULY 21, 1980, upon application of GEORGE BLOOM, Defendant, and his attorney LEO M. KISCADEN, ESQ., it is hereby ordered that the hearing in the above-captioned matter be continued and the attorneys for the parties are directed to take the deposition of Sylvester Croft, defense witness, and complete the record. JULY 22, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Abraham Nevling died July 2, 1904, seized of a certain tract of land containing one hundred fifty-nine (159) acres and one hundred twenty-one (121) perches of coal and approximately one hundred five (105) acres surface overlying said coal. The remaining surface of fifty-four (54) acres and forty (40) perches he had sold to his daughter, Jane Merifield, on September 12, 1894, and said deed excepted and reserved all of said coal under the premises. In his Will, Mr. Nevling provided:

> "Article Fourth: I direct that in case I do not dispose of the coal under the old homestead farm or what is known as the Lionel Weld Place during my lifetime. Then and in such case I direct that the coal be sold or leased by my Executor to the best advantage and the proceeds divided equally among the above mentioned heirs mentioned."

and L. Z. Nevling, named Executor in the Will, served in that capacity until his death in October of 1928, at which time Letters of Administration d.b.n.c.t.a. were granted to Clayton Nevling. Clayton Nevling conveyed to Edgar Nevling the tract of one hundred fifty-nine (159) acres and one hundred twenty-one (121) perches, excepting and reserving fifty-four (54) acres and forty (40) perches previously conveyed to Jane Merifield. Following the death of Edgar Nevling, ownership of the tract descended under his Will to the Defendants above-named. Plaintiffs filed the above Action to Quiet Title to the premises on April 9, 1979, alleging that the coal underlying the tract was not subject to the conveyance to Edgar Nevling dated March 17, 1943, claiming that, first, Clayton Nevling, as Administrator d.b.n.c.t.a., had no authority to convey the coal to Edgar Nevling; second, that the deed itself can convey nothing more than the surface because of the language used in the recital of title; and finally, that the Plaintiffs obtained title by adverse possession. This matter is now before the Court on Defendant's Motion for Judgment on the pleadings which this Court does herein grant.

The first issue to be addressed is the question of whether Clayton Nevling, Administrator d.b.n.c.t.a of the Estate of Abraham Nevling, had the authority to convey the premises involved. As can be seen from the Will as contained in Article 4th cited above, the Executor was given the authority to sell or lease the coal in the event that the Testator did not dispose of it during his lifetime. Under Section 3(d) of the Fiduciaries Act of 1917, which governed these proceedings as of the date of the deed to Edgar Nevling, the authority of the Executor descended to the Administrator d.b.n.c.t.a., said Section reading as follows:

> "(d) All and singular the powers, duties and liabilities of executors are hereby extended to administrators with a Will annexed."

The proposition that whatever power is given by will to executors to sell real estate with a view to distributing the proceeds among legatees may also be exercised by an administrator c.t.a., see Kemerer, Administratrix v. Johnstone, 318 Pa. 526 (1935). Therefore, the first issue must be resolved in favor of the Defendants and Clayton Nevling declared to have full authority to dispose of the premises herein.

The next issue raised by the Plaintiffs is that the deed from Clayton Nevling to Edgar Nevling conveyed on the surface of the tract because there is in the recital of title a reference to the power of the original Executor to sell the surface. However, the deed in question grants and conveys as follows:

> "...the Grantor does hereby grant and convey to the said Grantee, all that certain tract of land situate on Pine Run in Beccaria Township, aforesaid, and...'. A complete description of the tract of 159 acres and 121 perches follows and there is also set forth an exception and reservation of 54 acres and 40 perches of surface conveyed by Abraham Nevling on September 12, 1894 by deed recorded in Deed Book 120 at Page 137, to Jane Merifield."

and only in the recital of the title following description of the premises are the following words used:

> "...the said Abraham Nevling...devised the coal hereunder to his Executor for the purpose of lease or sale for the benefit of all the heirs and empowered his Executor, L. Z. Nevling, to sell the surface..."

It is clear that in Pennsylvania the grant in a deed cannot be diminished by a mere recital in the description. See Tate, et al v. Clement, et al, 176 Pa. 550. The language in the recital of the deed is merely a statement of the status of the premises in the opinion of the author of the deed, and as such, cannot operate to affect the conveyance, as clearly stated above.

Finally, this Court must address Plaintiffs' claim to ownership through adverse possession. This assertion must fall in view of the fact that the named Defendants are the grandchildren of L. Z. Nevling, one of the sons of Abraham Nevling, named in his Will as a devisee. Therefore, for purposes of this proceeding, the parties hereto are co-tenants, and Plaintiffs, as a result, can only establish title by adverse possession by pleadings and proving an ouster. See Conneaut Lake Park, Inc. v. Klingensmith, 362 Pa. 592. This the Plaintiffs have not done, and therefore, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

NOW, this 22nd day of July, 1980, this matter coming before the Court upon Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings on behalf of Defendants above-named, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Motion be and is hereby granted and the Clerk of Courts of Clearfield County instructed to enter judgment on the pleadings in favor of the Defendants above-named. AUGUST 23, 1979, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court on Preliminary Objections filed on behalf of the Defendant raising two specific objections to the above-captioned Action to Quiet Title. Defendant first asks the Court to dismiss the Complaint because the named Plaintiffs lack the capacity to sue. Defendant argues that an Action to Quiet Title cannot be commenced by the personal representative of an estate, but must, in fact, be the action of the Devisees of the real estate involved. This Court does not agree with that position and does dismiss Defendant's Preliminary Objections on that point.

The Probate, Estates and Fiduciaries Code, § 3311, states that with respect to real estate, an administrator of an estate "during the administration of the estate shall have the right to maintain any action with respect to it". The comment thereto states that the Section differs from past Pennsylvania practice and is based on the premise that a personal representative should have the duty or right to control real estate until it has been sold or distributed. The theory being that the legal and equitable title to real estates passes to the heirs as hereto, but that real estate should be administered as personal property with a few exceptions not involved in the instant case. This persuades the Court that an administrator may maintain an Action to Quiet Title.

Since the enactment of the Fiduciaries Act of 1949, a personal representative has greatly enlarged power in the administration of real property and the authority he may assert over it. In Glass, Executor v. Clark, 45 D&C 182 (1968), the Court held that an executor of an estate could institute an Action in Equity to declare null and void an earlier conveyance of real estate. Also in McCulley v. McCrary, 112 A. 755, 269 Pa. 581 (1921), an administrator was permitted to institute proceedings to remove a could upon title to real estate due to an alleged forged deed, and in the prior chain of title. In view of this, this Court now denies Defendant's first Preliminary Objection.

Defendant next objects on the basis that the Action is brought merely to interpret a deed, and therefore, is not a proper basis for a Quiet Title Action. This Court must again disagree. Based on the record as it now appears, this is in fact an Action to cancel a portion of an existing deed, and therefore, the relief requested is proper in the instant proceedings.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER:

NOW, this 23rd day of August, 1979, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant's Preliminary Objections be and are hereby dismissed and Defendants directed to file Responsive Pleadings within twenty (20) days from date hereof. By the Court, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

APRIL 24, 1979, ANSWER TO PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF SALE OF SCHOOL PROPERTY, filed by Belin, Belin & Naddeo. Two copies Certified to Attorney.

I hereby certify that a true and correct copy of the enclosed Answer to Petition for Approval of Sale of School Property was served on the attorney for the School Board, Michael P. Yeager, Esq. and attorney for John E. Cebular, R. Denning Gearhart, Esq. by mail this 24th day of April, 1979. /s/ Carl A. Belin, Jr.

APRIL 27, 1979, ANSWER AND NEW MATTER, filed by R. Denning Gearhart, Esq. Two copies Certified to Attorney.

MAY 2, 1979, REPLY TO NEW MATTER, filed by Michael P. Yeager.

JUNE 7, 1979, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

The School Directors of the Clearfield Area School District have petitioned this Court to approve their acceptance of the bid of Respondent John E. Cebular in a sale of real estate conducted by solicitation of sealed bids pursuant to the Public School Code, Act of March 10, 1949, P.L. 30, as amended, 24 P.S. §7-707(2). In the alternative, Petitioner requests the Court to order a special meeting of the Directors to consider a timely submitted higher bid of Respondents Theodore and Lois Rowles, which bid had been inadvertently misplaced and therefore not considered at the meeting when the Cebular bid was accepted as the only bid. As a third alternative, Petitioner requests an order directing a readvertisement for new bids.

Respondent Towles asks the Court to refuse to approve Petitioners' sale of the property to Mr. Cebular, and to direct a special meeting of the Directors where both bids may be reconsidered. In the alternative, Respondents ask that they and Mr. Cebular be allowed to rebid for the property. Respondent Cebular asserts that a valid contract was formed with the Petitioners when they accepted his bid, and asks the Court to recognize that contract.

The threshold issue is whether this Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter, and is therefore empowered to grant any of the alternative prayers for relief. Counsel for both Respondents have briefed this issue, but Petitioner has not.

Whether there is jurisdiction to approve or disapprove a sale under the Public School Code is determined by the mode of sale chosen by the Directors, namely, solicitation of sealed bids. While sales under Section 707(3) by private sale requires approval by the Court of Common Pleas, such a requirement is not specified for sales by public auction under Section 707(1) or by sealed bids under Section 708(2). Applying the principle that the affirmative mention of cases in which jurisdiction may be exercised implies a negative on the exercise of such power in other cases, we find no basis to assume jurisdiction, under the Public School Code. See Fazio v. Pittsburgh Railways Company, 321 Pa. 7, 11-12 (1936). Having thus decided the jurisdictional issue, we find it unnecessary to address Respondent Rowles' contention that the Notice of Sale fails to adequately fix terms and conditions.

It is suggested, however, that the School Directors would have the right under the Uniform Declaratory Judgments Act, 12 P.S. §§831 et seq., to request a declaration of the legal relations among the parties to this action, and to request appropriate relief based upon the stipulation of facts among counsel. We agree that the present controversy

It seems quite clear that Petitioner has the burden of proving, not only her need, but also the Respondent's ability to pay. In Knaus v. Knaus, 127 A.2d 669, 387 Pa. 370 (1956), the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania stated:

"Where a party asking alimony has produced specific evidence of the income of the respondent the burden is on the opposing party to produce specific evidence of items urged in reduction."

and local courts have folowed this as in Hummer v. Hummer, 71 D&C 2nd 378, 64 Lanc. Rev. 423 (1975), wherein the Court held:

"A wife seeking counsel fees and alimony pendente lite in a divorce proceedings has the burden of proving her need and that the husband can afford to pay."

See also Lynn v. Lynn, 76 Pa. Super. 428 (1921).

In the instant case, Petitioner rested after establishing her need, she having made no attempt to prove Respondent's ability to pay. Upon Respondent's entering a demurrer, Petitioner claimed that by failing to file a formal Answer to the Petition for Counsel Fees, Alimony Pendente Lite and Expenses, the Respondent admitted the contents thereof. However, in order for an admission to be properly before the Court, it must be offered into evidence at time of trial. See Goodrich AmRam Procedural Rules Service § 1029(b):2 and Anderson's Civil Practice Comment 1029. Such an offer was not made in the case at bar, and therefore, the admissions are not properly before the Court.

Moreover, since the Court reserved ruling on Respondent's demurrer, he proceeded on the merits and testified that his income was approximately Three Hundred Thirty-five ($335.00) Dollars a week as a truck driver, out of which he spent approximately One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars per week in meals, lodging and tolls. Moreover, he is the sole support for two children and his income would then appear to be, if not less than, certainly not greater than the Petitioner. Since Petitioner has railed to meet her burden of proof, the Court must deny her Petition, and in view of that, does not reach the second issue posed by the Respondent.

THEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER

NOW, this 16th day of July, 1980, following hearing into the above-captioned Petition for Counsel Fees, Alimony Pendente Lite and Expenses, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Petition be and is hereby dismissed. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

OCTOBER 22, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court upon a Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs filed to No. 79-1001-CD and a Petition for Support filed to No. 80-173-SC. In each case, Petitioner above-named seeks support for herself only, and in the CD action seeks also to recover counsel fees and costs in a pending divorce action. At the hearing, and based on wage statements supplied, it appears that Petitioner above-named nets Two Hundred Fifteen and 53/100 ($125.53) Dollars per week through her employment, said figure being arrived at as follows: Average net take home pay One Hundred Seventy-seven and 57/100 ($177.57) Dollars per week, less a day deduction of Twenty-seven and 04/100 ($27.04) Dollars per week, plus a Sixty-five ($65.00) Dollars weekly payment to her credit union.

Respondent earns an average net income per week of Three Hundred Eighty-four and 79/100 ($384.79) Dollars through his employment as a truck driver, out of which he must pay his over-the-road expenses and support a child born to the parties and one other child not born to the parties.

In view of the above, this Court is satisfied that there has not been sufficient proof of need on behalf of the Petitioner to sustain an Order for Support, Counsel Fees or Costs, especially in view of the other legal obligations of the Respondent.

THEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R:

NOW, this 21st day of October, 1980, it is the ORDER of this Court that Petition for Alimony Pendente Lite, Counsel Fees and Costs filed to No. 79-1001-CD and the Petition for Support filed to No. 80-173-SC be and are hereby dismissed. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JANUARY 12, 1981, PETITION TO OPEN JUDGMENT, filed by Baird, Miller & Test by: George S. Test, Attorneys at Law.

JANUARY 12, 1981, ORDER, filed.

AND, NOW THIS 16th day of January, 1981, upon consideration of the Petition of the Defendants, George W. Sankey and B & B Motor Carriers, Inc., in the above captioned action it is hereby ORDERED that a Rule be issued upon the Plaintiff to show cause why judgment entered by confession to the above term and no. should not be opened. Rule returnable on the 11th day of February, 1981, at 9:00 a.m. at the Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

FEBRUARY 2, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

The above-captioned Action In Trespass was commenced by the filing of a Writ of Summons in April of 1979 and Defendant above-named, George W. Sankey, was served by the Sheriff of Clearfield County. In June of that year, Plaintiff served Defendant Sankey with the Complaint by mail to an incorrect address but which was forwarded to Defendant's correct address and returned to counsel for Plaintiff marked "refused". A Default Judgment against Defendant Sankey was taken September 27, 1979. On March 24, 1980, Defendant Sankey was deposed and therein acknowledged that he was aware of the Judgments having been entered and was advised to retain counsel. The case was called for trial by this C ourt in September of 1980 and the Defendant appeared with counsel at the Pre-Trial Conference. This matter is now before the Court upon a Petition to Open the Default Judgment filed in September of 1980.

At the hearing on the Petition to Open, Defendant Sankey admitted that he discussed the Default Judgment with his counsel on March 24, 1980. In order to be successful in his Petition to Open a Default Judgment, a Defendant must satisfy three requirements; first, that he acted promptly on Notice of Judgment; second, that he offer a sufficient excuse for permitting the Default Judgment to be entered; and third, he must aver a meritorious defense. This Court must deny the Petition because it is the opinion of this Court that the Defendant did not act promptly upon notice of the Judgment.

This Court finds as a fact that Defendant was made aware of the entrance of the judgment at least as early as March 24, 1980. Had he Petitioned to Open within a reasonable time thereafter, this Could would very likely have granted his Petition. However, no Petition to Open was filed until six (6) months later. During this period, Plaintiff entered into a joint tortfeasor's release with the co-Defendants named above and alleges that said release was entered into in reliance upon the Judgment against Sankey and B & B Motor Carriers. To open the Judgment at this stage would severly prejudice the Defendant in view of the joint tortfeasor's release.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER:

NOW, this 2nd day of February, 1981, following hearing into the above-captioned Petition to Open Default Judgment, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Petition be and is hereby denied. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

APRIL 24, 1981, STIPULATION, filed by Baird, Miller & Test.

MAY 2, 1979, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

Giustino Gialloretto has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by A. N. Patel, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. s/A. N. Patel

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1978, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1978 through October 14, 1979. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

MAY 25, 1979, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed.

NOW, this 25 day of May, 1979, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Guistino Gialloretto continues to be severely mentally disabled.

As no less restrictive facility seems suitable for the supervision required in regard to the subject, the Court directs that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of up to one hundred eighty (180) days from April 25, 1979.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, Pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

In the present case, this Court finds that the necessary connection between the assessed name and the property in question does exist. John Jones and his Estate were the owners of the southern half of the tract between 1891 and 1931, and the use of this designation satisfactorily defined the property sold as the four (4) lots in question. Moreover, in Beacom v. Robinson et ux, 157 Pa. Super 515 (1945), the Superior Court held that a purchaser has the right to rely on his Tax Claim Bureau deed, and in Miller v. Leopold, 353 A.2d 65 (1976), the Court stated that a Treasurer's Deed can be defeated only by fraud or want of authority to sell or even gross defects or irregularities are cured by the absolute confirmation of the sale.

MAY 8, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This Action to Quiet Title involves four (4) lots, specifically, Nos. 429, 431, 433 and 435, located in Whiteside Village, Woodward Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and arising out of a double assessment of the lots occurring in the early 1950's. Plaintiff Albert Genesi acquired title to the lots from Clearfield County by Treasurer's Deed in 1947. However, in 1950, they were again sold to the County as a result of Plaintiff's failure to pay taxes for the year 1948. Clearfield County held the property until 1954, when the lots were conveyed to Defendant Orland Flango, again by Treasurer's Deed. In the meantime, in 1952, the Assessment Office of Clearfield County added an assessment for the lots in the name of John Jones Estate, a previous owner in the chain of title. The four (4) lots were simultaneously assessed in the name of Albert Genesi and Defendant Flango purchased the tract under the Jones assessment. Said Defendant has held the property since his purchase in 1954 and has improved it and paid taxes on it since that time. However, since the property continued to be assessed under the name of Albert Genesi, Plaintiff was unable to redeem his assessment in 1973 and now claims ownership of the four (4) lots.

Defendant Flango, in an effort to maintain ownership of the lots, raises two issues in his defense. First, that the 1954 Treasurer's Deed to him, Defendant Flango, is valid, and second, that regardless thereof, he, Defendant Flango, has met all conditions necessary to take title by adverse possession. This Court agrees with Defendant that his 1954 Treasurer's Deed passes title to the four (4) lots to him, and therefore, will not discuss the issue of adverse possession.

The four (4) lots at issue here are vacant and have been vacant for purposes of this case since their creation. They are, therefore, unseated in character, and while they may have been assessed as seated land as seated land, this Court is of the opinion that the following law applies as set forth in Bannard v. New York State Natural Gas Corp., 448 Pa. 239, 240 (1972).

> "Where unseated land subject to taxation is sold, the title of the real owner passes to the purchaser, in whatever name it be assessed and sold, even if the person in whose name it was sold has no title thereto, provided that the person assessed, even though the true owner, was in some way connected with, or had his name associated with the land."

See also Albert V. Lehigh Coal & Navigation Co., 246 A.2d 840 (1968) and Albright v. Byers-Allen Lumber Co., 204 Pa. 71 53 A. 648 (1902). In other words, as long as the name in which the unseated land has been assessed has some realistic connection with that property and allows it to be identified, title will pass at a Treasurer's sale even though the land is assessed in the name of a total stranger.

The Bannard court went on to state:

> "It is immaterial that the name of the owner as given in the assessment is inaccurate, since no personal liability is involved. The land, not the owner, is looked to for payment of the delinquent taxes."

of Clearfield County deputized the Sheriff of Butler County to serve the Writ on July 31, 1979, and Penn-Dixie was served on August 3, 1979. In the interim, a Petition to Extend the period of service of process was filed on July 30, 1979, with an Order granting the Extension being handed down on August 9, 1979.

Defendant Penn-Dixie objects to its joinder as an additional Defendant on two grounds: (1) the Writ of Summons was not served within thirty (30) days after commencement of the Action to join as required by Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 2254(b) in that the time began to run on June 26th, the date the Praecipe was filed, and (2), the Petition to Extend failed to state cause as required by Pa. R.C.P. 2254(b). In this instance, the resolution of issue (1) will preclude any further dealings tieh Penn-Dixie's objections, so issue (2) will not be touched upon in this Opinion.

Rule 2254(b) of Pa. R.C.P. does state that "the writ... shall be served by the Sheriff... within thirty (30) days after commencement of the action to join..." It would, therefore, at first glance, appear that an argument could be made by the 30-day time limit begins to run upon filing of a praecipe for a Writ of Summons, as opposed to any other date. However, Goodrich Amram 2D §2254(b):4.1 states quite clearly that, in instances such as this, the crucial date is the date of issuance of the writ by the Prothonotary. Apparently, the original language of the statute reads "within 30 days after issuance of the writ". The language was amended in 1958 and again in 1974 to the more general phrase "commencement of the action". However, Goodrich Amram §2254(b):4.1 states:

> "The 1958 amendment was not intended to alter the substance of the Rule. It was necessary because general language was needed to cover both commencement by writ and commencement by complaint. The 1974 amendment makes no substantial change in this respect. The phrase 'commencement of the action' to join should therefore be interpreted, in the case of commencement by writ, to fix the date as that on which the writ issues."

The primary case dealing with this issue is Harrisburg National Bank v. Ohio Insurance Co., 28 D & C 2d, 620 (1962) wherein a prothonotary delayed forty-one (41) days in issuing a writ after a praecipe had been filed. The Court quoted from Goodrich Amram extensively and held that despite the delay, the time began running after date of issuance. The ruling still stands despite the 1974 amendment.

Therefore, as service was effectively made on August 3, 1979, which was within thirty (30) days of July 18, 1979, the Court enters the following Order:
