JUNE 26, 1979, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 26 day of June, 1979, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Mona Lisa Stewart continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court further finds that the subject is not so severely mentally disabled that she requires in-patient treatment at the Adolescent Unit of Warren State Hospital.

The subject does qualify for a less restrictive setting and, therefore, the Court directs and Orders that Children and Youth Services of Clearfield County take immediate steps to place the subject in the Lutheran Children's Home in Zelienople, Pennsylvania, or a similar setting.

In the meantime, Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject in its Adolescent Unit for her own welfare and protection prior to her being placed in a group home.

These proceedings are pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

resided with the parties from the time of the marriage until Joyce left the family residence in 1974, while Harry continues to live there with his father and step-mother. Both of these children testified on behalf of their father; while a Walter P. Thorp, D. D., and Lucy Wilder testified for the defendant.

Plaintiff testified that the problems in this marriage began approximately five years ago. He cited defendant's refusal to accompany him anywhere, as a source of irritation. This included attending church, family get-togethers, rides in the car and Joyce's wedding. Defendant acknowledged this to be so. There has been name-calling directed at him by defendant; using such words as "liar," "gumhead," and dumbhead". This was done in the presence of the plaintiff's children, and humiliated and embarrassed him. Defendant agreed that she had done so; but she excused it on the ground that she has never taken the Lord's name in vain, and that when someone is not thinking as well as he has "gumheads" on him. Plaintiff also described two gift-giving incidents which were especially painful to him. He had given defendant a microwave oven, which she dragged down the steps and out of the house on a rug, and deposited in the backyard. Joyce and Harry had given defendant a toaster-oven for Christmas, and this was found completely smashed; without having been used. Defendant admitted both incidents. In the former, she stated that she wanted what she desired in the house, not what plaintiff wanted. In the latter, she was displeased because the gift was not presented to her properly, and that her old toaster worked fine.

The only talk between the parties was defendant's criticism of plaintiff, his children and grandchildren, and "hollering" by defendant. The grandchildren only used the outdoor toilet facilities because defendant would not permit them to use the ones in the house. The frequency of his children's visit was greatly reduced; and they visited with him in the barn rather than in the house. Plaintiff attributed this to defendant's constant criticism of all his family and her slipping out of the house when they would come to visit. Defendant verified this, but excused it by stating that she is outspoken and believes that she should be in charge of the house and of what goes on there. She complained that Harry and the grandchildren tracked straw and the like into the house and did not wipe their feet properly. Hence, the grandchildren could not use the indoor bathroom.

During Joyce's and Harry's formative years with the parties, defendant was not as attentive or affectionate with them as she should have been. She did their laundry for a time, prepared the evening meal, and kept the home clean. Yet, she declared that she did not think she should have bent over backwards to take care of them.

The parties had a joint bank account in which there were approximately $2,500.00. Defendant withdrew about $1,500.00 without the knowledge nor consent of plaintiff. Thereafter, plaintiff closed the account. Another area of fiscal contention was defendant's refusal to permit a gas clothes dryer to be installed. Although the parties had an electric one in good working condition, plaintiff wanted to use one powered by gas, because of a gas lease on his property which gave him free fuel. Defendant refused to allow the substitution; and this was verified by defendant.

Harry Mahlon's testimony corroborated that of his father, emphasizing the constant criticism and name-calling by defendant. Joyce also confirmed this, as well as stating that defendant told her she hated men, and did not want plaintiff to touch her ever again. She testified that she moved out of the homestead because she felt uncomfortable there and also that she does not visit often for the same reason. None of these witnesses could explain defendant's shrewish behavior.

Walter Thorp, a doctor of osteopathy, testified on behalf of defendant. He related Mrs. Mahlon's various physical ailments, including a bad back, varicose veins, phlebitis, sinus condition and allergy. He also explained that she had pain in her legs which would limit her ability to travel and to engage in sexual relations. He was not cross-examined by plaintiff's attorney. Mrs. Mahlon confirmed that she was in pain and that it made her irritable. Her cousin, Luch Wilder, related an incident when defendant was quite ill, and called her to take defendant to the doctor, even though plaintiff was there and knew of her illness. However, nowhere is it alleged that defendant asked plaintiff to take her or that he refused. It appears that defendant preferred that her cousin take her rather than her husband.

The Master found that the conduct of defendant toward plaintiff did not amount to indignities. We do not agree. Of course, no general rule can be formulated as to what constitutes indignities. Each case stands on its own circumstances: Boniewicz v. Boniewicz, _____ Pa. Super. _____, 403 A. 2d 999 (1979). On exceptions the court must make an independent evaluation of the record to determine whether a cause of action for divorce exists. The only exception to this de novo review is if credibility is the issue. Boniewicz v. Boniewicz, supra, at page 1000. Credibilityis not the issue before us in the instant matter bacause defendant has admitted all of plaintiff's allegations. We conclude that at best, she has attempted to justify or explain away her unmerited reproach, intentional inciviality, manifest disdain and malignant ridicule by blaming it on poor health. We are at a loss to understand how a woman with such failty and beset by pain could muster the strength to remove a heavy, bulky microwave only from her home to her yard, or could destroy a new, metal toaster oven by reducing it to mere fragments of metal. Her actions in these and other instances belie her spoken words. Her testimony explains her own behavior better than any witness. She stated that she did not want to get married after having been divorced, and that she does not know why she married again. She admitted that plaintiff has been a good husband, but "when your (sic) divorced your love is gone then." She acknowledges that she humiliated and embarrassed plaintiff; that she denied him sexual relations over the last several years; and generally confirmed all of the testimony of plaintiff and his witnesses.

Although we have given the Master's findings the fullest consideration, we cannot agree with her conclusions. In Sells v. Sells, 228 Pa. Super, 331, 323 A.2d 20 (1974), the behavior of the wife-defendant was similar to this defendant's: the wife refused to go places with her husband; consistently used abusive language; sold or destroyed several items of personal property which her husband had purchased for the common household; told her husband she did not love him from the beginning and did not know why she married him; refused to have sexual relations with him; and threatened his life. The court found that this conduct of the wife was so predominently destructive of the marital relationships that any indiscretions on the part of the husband were minimal by comparison. So in the instant case; the husband's behavior is a reaction to his wife's mode of conduct, which he finds burdensome and intolerable. Although any one of these instances isolated and separated from all of the others would not be sufficient to justidy a finding of indignities; several of them taken together can lead to no other conclusions: Barton v. Barton, 248 Pa. Super, 278, 375 A.2d 96 (1977). Plaintiff has carried his burden of proof of indignities to our satisfaction. We find plaintiff to be the innocent and injured spouse, recognizing that to meet this requirement he need not be wholly free from fault; Eifert v. Eifert, 219 Pa. Super, 373, 281 A.2d 657 (1971). The Master's finding to the contrary is error.

All of the testimony taken together, including that of the defendant herself, confirms and corroborates the burdensome atmosphere that has pervaded the Mahlon home. The tenor of the situation primarily emanates from defendant by her own revealing words. Therefore, she cannot complain now that the divorce shall be granted. /s/John A. Cherry, Adams County Courthouse, Gettysburg, PA.

DECREE:

And Now, the 10th day of October, 1980, the report of the Master is acknowledged. We disapprove the Findings and the recommendations of the master.

NOVEMBER 21, 1979, ANSWER TO AMENDMENT TO MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS, filed by Joseph Colavecchi.

JANUARY 23, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This Action to Quiet Title involves two hundred forty (240) acre tract of land in Cooper Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. The Plaintiff, Jessie Moore, seeks to establish title to a one-half (½) interest in the surface and the gas and oil underlying said tract. The issue involved concerns the construction of a deed from Manuel Emmet Beam to Fred Beam and Mrs. Jessie Moore Boath dated November 30, 1925, and recorded in Clearfield County Deed Book 283 at page 503.
The first question to be resolved is the proper interpretation to be placed on the description of the grantees in the deed which is stated as follows:

> "Fred Beam and Mrs. Jessie Moor 'Boath' of Bradford Township, Clearfield County and State of Pennsylvania, parties of the record part hereinafter called the Grantees."

The issue is the interpretation of the word "Boath" as used in the above sentence, the word could be a proper name or a misspelling of the word "both". This Court is satisfied that the latter interpretation is correct. Initially, it must be noted that the proper name of Mrs. Jessie Moore immediately precedes the word. Since the Grantor's daughter was named Mrs. Jessie Moore, it would seem obvious that the word "Boath" is erroneously used and should, in fact, have been the word "both". Moreover, in seeking to determine the intent of the parties, it would seem clear that the Grantor intended to devise the property to his children, and therefore, requires the finding set forth above.

The second issue that must be determined turns upon the fact that one of the Grantees named therein, specifically Fred Beam, died in 1924, and the Deed in question is dated November 30, 1925. It has been long recognized that:

> "...a grant to a deceased person or to the estate of a deceased person is void at common law for want of a grantee in being and capable of taking the estate conveyed." 23 AM.Jur. 2d §44.

However, in this case, the second Grantee was alive at transfer and able to take subject to the conditions of the Deed. In view of this, this Court is of the opinion that the surviving Grantee is eligible to take under the Deed.
While is appeara that the Appellate Courts of Pennsylvania have as yet to address the issue, other jurisdictions have held as follows:

> "...where there are other grantees named in a deed were in ease at the time of its execution, the failure of the grant, because of the fact that one of the grantees named therein was deceased at the time of its execution, does not invalidate the grant as to those living." 148 A.L.R. 254, 255.

See also Hopkins v. Slusher, 98 S.W. 2d 932, and Black v. Beagle, 140 P. 2d 594.
THEREFORE, this Court enters the following Order:

ORDER:

AUGUST 7, 1980, PETITION TO FILE JUDGMENT OF U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT AVOIDING ABOVE LIEN, filed by Joseph Colavecchi.

Two copies Certified to Attorney.

WHEREFORE, Edwin J. Wright and Phyllis A. Wright, a/k/a Phyllis A. Caruso, his wife, through their attorney Joseph Colavecchi, Esquire, requests that the Court issue a Rule directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary, to show cause why the judgment avoiding the lien of Equi-Bank, N.A., in favor of Edwin J. Wright and Phyllis A. Wright, his wife, should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to No. 79-1865-CD, a copy of said judgment avoiding lien being attached to this Petition. /s/Joseph Colavecchi, Attorney for Defendants.

RULE:

AND NOW, this 7 day of August, 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Rule is issued directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary for Clearfield County, Pennsylvania to show cause why the judgment avoiding lien of Edwin J. Wright and Phyllis A. Wright, a/k/a Phyllis A. Caruso, as issued by Honorable Gerald K. Gibson, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, having been issued on August 4, 1980, should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to No. 79-1865-CD.

Rule returnable the 19 day of August, 1980, at 9:30 A.M. at the Clearfield County Courthouse. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

AUGUST 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER NISI, filed.

The attorneys having come before the Court with respect to the above-stated rule heretofore issued upon the Prothonotary to show cause why the Judgments avoiding liens in the above-stated cases as issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge in each instance should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County; and the Court having apprised itself of the factual circumstances involved, the Court finds that it has been the policy and the rule in the Prothonotary's Office that such items are filed to the Judgment index in which and to which the same have been made applicable and filed. It is the further finding of this Court that the original item directed to be filed was offered as a copy of the Order of the Bankruptcy Judge which contained a number of names of various debtors, but was to be limited to the Judgement debtors Barry Shirey, et al, and was not accompanied by any further explanation or direction. In order to clarify the situation, the Court finds that such would not be acceptable because it would place upon the office of the Prothonotary the burden of searching the record as to those debtors and then to choose to file either in miscellaneous or other dockets without direction of Counsel. Therefore, for the protection of the Prothonotary, either orally or in writing, the Counsel should direct the matter to be filed to the caption in which the said Judgment has been entered, the same to be indicated by names and docket numbers originally assigned to such matters. Therefore, the Court enters the following

ORDER NISI

Rule is discharged by virtue of the fact that the Prothonotary is in position to and must enter items to the judgment record applicable to each of the cases. And must be so advised when directed to file any item which would include the Orders above referred to as would may be issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge. The within Order will apply to all of the above-stated cases and any cases affected by the same in the future. This Order shall be deemed NISI and will become absolute

NOW, this 21st day of August, 1979, following argument thereon, it is the ORDER of this Court that preliminary objections filed on behalf of the Respondent be and are hereby denied. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. AUGUST 23, 1979, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter comes before the Court upon a Petition for Custody filed on behalf of the mother of Charles Daniel Moening, presently aged seven (7) years. The record shows that since the child's birth, he has lived with his mother, some times in the same household as his father, but more recently with his mother alone. Approximately the last three years of the boy'd life have been spent here in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and he has completed Kindergarten, first and second grades here. When the parties above-named last separated a written agreement was entered into and made a part of this record wherein custody was to be with Petitioner, and Respondent, along with other visitation rights, was to have the child for a two-week period each summer at his residence in Florida. Following said period this summer the father-respondent refused to return the boy as per said agreement, hence this Petition. In view of the above factual situation and the roots that the child must have inevitably formed in this area, this Court is satisfied that the best interests of Charles Daniel Moening will be served by granting the Petitioner's request, and therefore, enters the following Order: O R D E R NOW, this 22nd day of August, 1979, following hearing into the above-captioned Petition for Custody, and the Court being satisfied that the best interests of the child, Charles Daniel Moening will best be served thereby, it is the ORDER of this Court that custody be and is hereby placed with the Petitioner, Wanda Lee Moening. NOW, this 3rd day of September, 1980, following Pre-Trial Conference in the above-captioned matter, it is the ORDER of this Court that Plaintiffs' hospital records, photographs of the scene and the vehicles shall be admitted by stipulation, as well as the qualifications of Drs. Samuel B. Barley, B. C. Cochran, John M. Parenti, Arthur Signorella and Quinn L. Lundberg and the qualifications of Tony Bertini as a physical therapist and the qualifications of Defendant's medical witness, wither Dr. Sevich or Dr. Roberts shall be admitted. The blood alcohol reading of the Defendant shall be agreed by stipulation. IT is the further ORDER of this Court that jury selection shall be had Tuesday, September 9, 1980, at 1:45 p.m., with trial by jury commencing Thursday, October 30, 1980, at 9:00 a.m. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. OCTOBER 22, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. On January 6, 1979, parties above-named were involved in an automobile accident near the City of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. At the hearing on the pending Motion, testimony revealed that the Defencant had attended a party in Brockway, Pennsylvania, and admittedly had consumer six (6) twelve ounce bottles of beer over a two-hour period prior to the accident. Defendant left the party and thirty (30) minutes later said accident occurred. The investigating officer found the Defendant unconscious at the scene and testified that he smelled a strong odor of alcohol on the Defendant's breath and a blood alcohol test was given three (3) hours later after Defendant regained consciousness, the results of which were .13 percent. Plaintiffs now move to have admitted into evidence the results of said tests, the evidence as drinking by the Defendant, and the expert testimony of Dr. Charles Winek to prove the influence of alcohol on the Defendant at the time of the accident. Defendant relies primarily on Schwarzbach v. Dunn, 252 Pa. Super 454 (1977), which addressed the issue similar to the one presented here by the way of dictum. In view of the opinion which stated that although the court did not have to decide the issue in that case, the court would: "...regard with skepticism any evidence with attempts to relate back to a blood alcohol level at a time prior to the administering of such test because such test is entirely too speculative." In Schwarzbach, the court was referring to testimony by an expert that blood alcohol content decreases after drinking at the rate of .02 percent per hour, and since three (3) hours had elapsed since the accident, the test showing .12 at that time meant that the driver was at .18 at the time of the accident. Both parties in the present case cite Cusatis v. Reichert, 406 A.2d 787 (1979). That case related to a blood alcohol test taken one (1) hour after an accident with a .14 percent result. The court admitted this because there were other facts presented to sufficiently support an interference of intoxication. The other facts in Cusatis are generally the same as it is presented in the instant case; namely, that the Defendant had consumer a considerable amount of alcohol prior to the accident and that the investigating officer had detected a strong odor of alcohol about the defendant at the scene. Cusatis refers to Schwarzbach in a footnote, stating that "Schwarzbach does not compel a different result". It was pointed out that at the time of the Schwarzbach opinion, a majority of the court did not embrace the rationale of that dictum. CONTINUED TO PAGE 587
