	Laurance B. Seaman	U. LOUISE GARDNER 79-2571-CD ZONING HEARING BOARD OF CLEARFIELD BOROUGH Pro by Atty 15.00	SEPTEMBER 21, 1979, ZONING APPEAL NOTICE filed by Laurance B. Seaman of Gates & Seaman WHEREFORE, appellant respectfully requests your Honorable Court to hold a hearing on this Appeal for the presentation of additional evidence and following said hearing to reverse the Decision of the Zoning Hearing Board and order the Borough of Clearfield to grant appellant a building permit for the intended purposes. s/Laurance B. Seaman SEPTEMBER 21, 1979, CERTIORARI, mailed to Secretary of Zoning Board of Clearfield Borough, return receipt attached. SEPTEMBER 26, 1979, ZONING APPEAL PAPERS & RECORDS filed by Paul Silberblatt (filed in Transcript Drawer under "C" for Clearfield Borough) SEPTEMBER 26, 1979, RETURN RECEIPT, filed. APRIL 17, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. Petitioner above-named is the owner of a certain tract of land located in Clearfield Borough in an area zoned for industrial purposes. Located on the property in question was a 2-story residential building which had been located on the premises prior to the enactment of the Zoning Ordinance and for which a certificate as a non-conforming use had been issued. Petitioner now desires to demolish the building and replace it with a mobile home on a permanent foundation. An application to accomplish this and a request for special exception was denied by the Zoning Hearing Board of Clearfield Borough and this Appeal followed. This Court now reverses the decision of the Zoning Hearing Board and grants the prayer of the Petitioner. The initial non-conforming use in this case was that of a residence located in an area zoned industrial. Petitioner does not seek to charge this non-conforming use but merely to continue it as a residential structure. The Zoning Hearing Board does not allege that she is adding to or changing the use or that the old use had been abandoned, and since the non-conforming use itself is of a less restrictive nature and similar in use to other property in the general area, her plans for the use of her property should not be thwarted. THEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order: O R D E R NOW, this 17th day of April, 1980, following hearing into the above-captioned Appeal from the refusal of the Zoning Hearing Board of Clearfield Borough to grant a special exception, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Appeal be and is hereby sustained and this Court directs that a building permit be issued allowing the demolition of the present structure and the addition of a mobile home on a permanent foundation at the present location. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

MARCH 8, 1982 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed

This matter comes before the Court upon a Petition to Set Aside Execution. From the record, it appears that on or about August 10, 1979, judgment was entered in favor of the Plaintiff above-named against Petitioner Defendant above-named in the principal amount of Eight Hundred Forty ($840.00) Dollars which, together with interest, costs, etc., resulted in a total debt payable in the amount of Nine Hundred Fifty-five and 85/100 ($955.85) Dollars, On or about the 15th of November 1979, a Writ of Execution was issued to the Sheriff of Clearfield County upon praecipe by Plaintiff above-named, and acting thereon, said Sheriff levied upon the following property of the Defendant:

One Scamper Pop-up Trailer
One Honda Motorcycle, 350 cc.
One Living Room Suite
One Westinghouse Washing Machine.

On or about March 13, 1981, the Sheriff held a sale and sold to a bidder the Scamper Pop-up trailer and the motor cycle for the sum of Ten ($10.00) Dollars plus costs. One bidder appeared. At some point prior to said sale, Plaintiff released the living room suite from the levy. On March 13, 1981, Plaintiff filed a second praecipe for Writ of Execution, as a result of which the Sheriff of Clearfield County levied upon one 1077 Mack tri-axle truck. It is this second Execution proceeding to which Defendant above-named objects and seeks relief under Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 3121(d).

It is the position of the Defendant Petitioner that this Court, under Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 3121(d) may set aside the levy upon any legal or equitable ground therefor and claims that such should be done in the instant case for the reason that the motor cycle and the camper were sold for Ten ($10.00) Dollars over the Sheriff's costs. The costs alluded to were Ninety-one and 84/100 ($91.84) Dollars and therefore, the sale was made for One Hundred and 84/100 ($101.84) Dollars. This Court agrees with the citation in Petitioner's brief of Proctor and Swartz, Inc. v. Washington Market, Inc., 51 De. Co. Rep. 324 (1963), wherein that court construed equitable grounds to be equivalent to fairness and financial feasibility, and further, Petitioner's statement that where there is such a gross inadequacy of price as to shock the understanding and conscience of the court, the execution must be set aside.

However, in this case, thereis nothing presently before this Court upon which a value can be ascribed to either the camper or the motor cycyle. There is nothing to indicate the age of either of the items or the condition they were in at the time of sale. It is conceivable that the bid proce of One Hundred One and 84/100 ($101.84) Dollars exceeded the value of both items and this Court therefore is not about to state that the sale shocks its understanding and conscience.

It is quite possible that the sale price was grossly inadequate but without further information with respect to the value of the items sold, such determination cannot here be made. This Court is also satisfied that by releasing the living room suite and the washing machine from operation of the levy, Plaintiff above-named did not preclude itself from further proceedings. That portion of standard Pennsylvania practive referred to in Plaintiff's brief appears to this Court to determine the issue.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER filed

NOW, this 8th day of March, 1982, upon consideration of Defendant above-named's Petition to Set Aside Execution, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Petition be and is hereby dismisse. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

AUGUST 13, 1980, ORDER, filed.

NOW, this 13th day of August, 1980, it being found as fact by this Court that Joseph T. Welch, Certified Mechanic for Auto Mart of Clearfield, Inc., did in fact conduct an inspection with regard to sticker No. P48-1261224 and it further being found as a fact that said sticker was not affixed to the windshield at the conclusion of said inspection, the Court concludes that there was a Faulty Inspection.

Accordingly, it is the ORDER of this Court that the act of the Director, Bureau of Traffic Safety, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, in suspending Joseph T. Welch's Certification as an official Inspection Mechanic and the Auto Mart of Clearfield, Inc.'s Certificate of Appointment as an Official Inspection Station for six (6) months is hereby modified accordingly to the Department of Transportation's rules and regulations as printed in the 7 Pa. Bulletin 3499 and it is ORDERED that in place thereof, a three (3) months suspension be imposed with regard to the Auto Mart of Clearfield, Inc.'s Certificate of Appointment as an Official Inspection Station and Joseph T. Welch's Certification as an Official Inspection Mechanic. Credit shall be given Defendants for such time as official inspection rights have been heretofore actually suspended. BY THE COURT, /s/John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially Presiding.

WRIT OF EXECUTION ISSUED TO 80-16-EX

JULY 31, 1980, PETITION TO FILE JUDGMENT OF U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT AVOIDING ABOVE LIEN, filed by Joseph Colavecchi
Three copies certified to Attorney
RULE
AND NOW, this 31st day of July, 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Rule is issued directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary for Clearfield County, Pennsylvania to show cause why the judgment avoding lien of Orvis R. Collinash and Shirley G. Collinash as issued by Honorable Gerald K. Gibson, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, having been issued on July 22, 1980 should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to 79-2781-CD.
Rule returnable the 14th day of August, 1980 at 3:00 p.m. at the Clearfield County Courthouse. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry

AUGUST 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER NISI, filed.
The attorneys having come before the Court with respect to the above-stated rule heretofore issued upon the Prothonotary to show cause why the Judgments avoiding liens in the above-stated cases as issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge in each instance should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County; and the Court having approsed itself of the factual circumstances involved, the Court finds that it has been the policy and the rule in the Prothonotary's Office that such items are filed to the Judgment index in which and to which the same have been made applicable and filed. It is the further finding of this Court that the original item directed to be filed was offered as a copy of the Order of the Bankruptcy Judge which contained a number of names of various debtors, but was to be limited to the Judgment debtors Barry Shirey, et al, and was not accompanied by any further explanation or direction. In order to clarify the situation, the Court finds that such would not be acceptable because it would place upon the office of the Prothonotary the burden of searching the record as to those debtors and then to choose to file either in miscellaneous or other dockets without direction of Counsel. Therefore, for the protection of the Prothonotary, either orally or in writing, the Counsel should direct the matter to be filed to the caption in which the said Judgment has been entered, the same to be indicated by names and docket numbers originally assigned to such matters. Therefore, the Court enters the following
ORDER NISI
Rule is discharged by virtue of the fact that the Prothonotary is in position to and must enter items to the judgment record applicable to each of the cases. And must be so advised when directed to file any item which would include the Orders above referred to as would may be issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge. The within Order will apply to all of the above-stated cases, and any cases affected by the same in the future. This Order shall be deemed NISI and will become absolute only in no exceptions are filed thereto within Ten (10) Days from date. BY THE COURT, /s/John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially Presiding.

The Court finds that Beverly Lenze is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

Accordingly, the Court directs that Beverly Lenze be committed involuntarily to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, for in-patient care and treatment as a severely mentally disabled person for a period of up to ninety (90) days.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 304(b) of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOVEMBER 16, 1979, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 16 day of November, 1979, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that John Good continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court is convinced that reasonable efforts have been made to place the subject in a less restrictive setting; however, no suitable less restrictive measure is available for John Good, due to the subject's lack of cooperation demonstrated at Warren State Hospital, which demonstrates that he would not be able to participate in the group home setting available.

As no less restrictive facility is available which is suitable for the subject, the Court directs that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days from October 25, 1979.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JULY 29, 1980, PETITION TO FILE JUDGMENT OF U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT AVOIDING ABOVE LIEN, filed by Joseph Colavecchi
Three copies certified to Attorney
WHEREFORE, Anthony R. Cantolina, through his attorney Joseph Colavecchi, requests that the Court issue a Rule directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary, to show cause why the judgment avoiding the lien of D.C. Guelich Explosive Company in favor of Anthony R. Cantolina should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to No. 79-3154-CD, a copy of said judgment avoiding lien being attached to this Petition. s/Joseph Colavecchi

RULE
AND NOW, this 29 day of July, 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Rule is issued directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary for Clearfield County, Pennsylvania to show cause why the judgment avoiding lien of Anthony R. Cantolina as issued by Honorable Gerald K. Gibson, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, having been issued on July 22, 1980 should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to No. 79-3154-CD.
Rule returnable the 8 day of August, 1980 at 9:00 a.m. at the Clearfield County Courthouse.
BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

AUGUST 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER NISI, filed.
The attorneys having come before the Court with respect to the above-stated rule heretofore issued upon the Prothonotary to show cause why the Judgment avoiding liens in the above-stated cases as issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge in each instance should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County; and the Court having apprised itself of the factual circumstances involved, the Court finds that it has been the policy and the rule in the Prothonotary's Office that such items are filed to the Judgment index in which and to which the same have been made applicable and filed. It is the further finding of this Court that the original item directed to be filed was offered as a copy of the Order of the Bankruptcy Judge which contained a number of names of various debtors, but was to be limited to the Judgment debtors Barry Shirey, et al, and was not accompanied by any further explanation or direction. In order to clarify the situation, the Court finds that such would not be acceptable because it would place upon the office of the Prothonotary the burden of searching the record as to those debtors and then to choose to file either in miscellaneous or other dockets without direction of Counsel. Therefore, for the protection of the Prothonotary either orally or in writing, the Counsel should direct the matter to be filed to the caption in which the said Judgment has been entered, the same to be indicated by names and docket numbers originally assigned to such matters. Therefore, the Court enters the following
ORDER NISI
Rule is discharged by virtue of the fact that the Prothonotary is in position to and must enter items to the judgment record applicable to each of the cases. And must be so advised when directed to file any item which would include the Orders above referred to as would may be issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge. The within Order will apply to all of the above-stated cases and any cases affected by the same in the future. This Order shall be deemed NISI and will become absolute only in no exceptions be filed thereto within Ten (10) Days from date. BY THE COURT, /s/John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially residing.

Ilene, Francine and Irwin Hurwitz subsequently leased the tract, together with the right-of-way to Franchise Realty Interstate Corporation, which then assigned its interest to the McDonald's Corporation. Bronia Corporation also conveyed a tract of land to Ilene, Francine and Irwin Hurwitz containing .588 acres in consideration for which the Hurwitz Brothers conveyed to Bronia Corporation a right-of-way from Route 322 to Bronia's adjacent property. Bronia Corporation subsequently conveyed an additional 6.14 acre tract to the Hurwitz Brothers and reserved unto itself in the deed an additional right-of-way extending from the Hurwitz property to a roadway owned by Bronia Corporation and located to the east of the 6.14 acre tract.

Thereafter, the Hurwitz relatives leased their property to a holding company for the McDonald's hamburger chain. This lease was then assigned to McDonald's itself, along with use of the rights-of-way which had been conveyed with the property to the three Hurwitz relatives in 1979. Plaintiff above-named now seeks to have this Court declare the subsequent rights-of-way invalid and to declare the rights-of-way under the agreement of November 1975, as well as injunctive relief. Defendants have filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of demurrers. This Court finds in favor of the Defendants and grants demurrer.

The issues presented are: first, whether and to what extent a third party to an easement agreement may be granted the rights to use an easement; and second, whether and to what extent the rights to use an easement may be extended to after-acquired property.

With regards to the first issue, it must be noted that the easement agreement of November 1975 contained the following provisions: Section 1 extends the benefits of the agreement to the successors-in-title, agents, contractors, employees, lessees, business invitees and business licensees of the parties; Section 4 extends the benefits of the agreement to the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of the parties; and Section 3 contains the following language:

> "In the event other lands of the parties of the first part (Hurwitz Brothers) located to the east and south of the shopping center of the party of the second part (Trustees of C. I. Mortgage Group) are developed..."

by which it appears that the parties anticipated further development of the Hurwitz property where the subject property is located.

In Puleo v. Pearoff, 376 Pa. 489 (1954), the Court stated:

> "The owners of land subject to a right of way may...grant to another or others a similar right of way...provided...the prior grant was not intended to be exclusive." Id at 491.

In view of the portions of the original agreement mentioned above, the holding of the Superior Court in Nallin-Jennings Park Company v. Sterling is significant, wherein the Court stated:

> "When an easement is created appurtenant to land, and the deed is to the grantee, 'his heirs and assigns', the right to the use of the easement extends to all who, with the permission of the grantee or his successors, may lawfully desire to use it: Seidler et al v. Waln et ux, 266 Pa. 361, 109 A. 643. But where the use is specific or limited it is restricted to the use specified in the grant: Shawnee Lake Association v. Uhler et ux, 131 Pa. Super. 146, 198 A. 910. 364 Pa. 611, 614-15, 73 A.2d 390 (1950). (Emphasis in the original)

Therefore, since the original easement agreement did not restrict the use specified, this Court is of the opinion that subsequent grants of rights of easement was not prohibited.

With regards to the second issue presented, this Court is of the opinion that, even if the question of the extension of the easement to after-acquired property is relevant, it is nevertheless proper. As stated in the case of Edwards v. Julian, 192 Pa. Super, 121, 159 A.2d 547 (1960) at 549:

> "An owner of land who grants a right of way over it conveys nothing but the right of passage and reserves all incidents of ownership not granted; he may make use of his land that does not interfere substantially with the created easement. Mercantile Library Company of Philadelphia. v. Fidelity Trust Company, 235 Pa. 5, 15, 83 A. 592; Dyba v. Borowitz, 136 Pa. Super. 532, 535, 7 A.2d 500. See also Kister v. Reester, 98 Pa. 1."

The question, therefore, seems to be whether the grant of successive easements excessively burdens the original right-of-way. A specific grant of a right-of-way will be limited when that right-of-way is overburdened by the usage of one party (see Piper v. Mowris, 361 A.2d 635 (1976) and Taylor v. Heffner, 359 Pa. 157 (1948). As the court stated in Brown and Company v. Raub, 357 Pa. 271, 284 (1947):

> "The law is settled that those who have the same rights over an easement must exercist those rights fairly and reasonably so as not to interfere with the fair and reasonable exercise of the same rights by others who possess them."

Therefore, Hurwitz and its grantee, McDonald's Corporation, are permitted under the law to make whatever use of the property they see fit, as long as it does not interfere substantially with the created easement, and as can be seen from those portions of the original easement agreement cited above, such use was in fact contemplated by the parties initially. In any event, Plaintiff has not averred in its Petition sufficient facts to indicate the nature or the extent or the burden caused to it by the Defendants' use of the rights-of-way.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

NOW, this 5th day of August, 1980, it is the ORDER of this Court that Preliminary Objections in the nature of demurrers filed on behalf of the Defendants above-named be and are hereby sustained. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.
