GUARANTY AND SURETYSHIP AGREEMENT

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, and intending to be legally bound, the undersigned ("Surety") absolutely and unconditionally guarantees to COUNTY NATIONAL BANK, Clearfield, Pennsylvania ("Bank") and becomes surety for the full and timely payment, both principal and interest, of the following indebtedness of Bernard R. Dunsmore T/D/B/A B & B Carpet Upholstery and Wall Cleaners and Mary J. Dunsmore ("Debtor") to Bank:

Two Thousand Four Hundred Seventeen Dollars Sixty-Five Cents ($2417.65) plus life insurance $37.47 and interest of $426.98 on note dated February 9, 1979 together with any extensions or renewals thereof in whole or in part, when and as said indebtedness becomes due and payable in accordance with the terms thereof, whether at maturity or by declaration, acceleration or otherwise.

Surety waives presentment for payment, notice of nonpayment, demand and protest and declares that Surety's obligations hereunder are absolute and unconditional and shall not be released or discharged by any release or discharge of or accord and satisfaction with Debtor or any other person, by any renewal or extension of time of payment of said indebtedness, by any compromise with or indulgence granted to Debtor or any other person, by any variation of the terms of said indebtedness, by any substitution or release of or failure to preserve or protect any collateral therefor, or by any other matter or thing whatsoever whereby Surety as unconditional and absolute guarantor and surety of said indebtedness would or might be released or discharged.

In the event Debtor defaults in the full and timely payment of the principal of or interest on said indebtedness, Surety will promptly make payment thereof directly to Bank. Surety's obligations hereunder shall be directly enforceable by Bank without any action of any nature against Debtor or any other person. Said obligations are continuing obligations, are absolute and unconditional irrespective of the genuineness, validity or enforceability of any promissory note or other instrument evidencing said indebtedness or of any other circumstance which might otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge of a guarantor or surety, and shall remain in full force and effect as long as any of said indebtedness remains outstanding and unpaid.

Each of the Undersigned do hereby irrevocably authorize and empower the Prothonotary or Clerk or any attorney of any court of record within the United States, or elsewhere, to appear for them, or any of them and to confess judgment against them, or any of them, at any time in favor of the holder hereof, as of any term, without declaration filed, for a sum equal to the face amount of this Note, with costs of suit, and with 15% added as attorney's collection fees; and with respect to any judgment entered hereon, each of the Undersigned waives, in regard to any real or personal property levied upon, any right of appraisement, exemption or stay of execution under any law in force or hereafter enacted, the right inquisition (and agrees that any real estate shall be voluntarily condemned and may be sold under a Writ of Execution), the right of appeal, and does release all errors. Such power shall not be exhausted by one exercise, whether or not any such exercise shall be held by any court to be valid, voidable or void but judgment may be confessed from time to time as often as any sum or sums may be due hereunder. Waiver of any default shall not constitute waiver of any subsequent default.

All the foregoing promises and obligations are the joint and several promises and obligations of Surety when more than one, shall bind Surety, heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Bank, its successors and assigns, whether so expressed or not. This Agreement has been entered into under and pursuant to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and for all purposes shall be construed in accordance with said laws.

Surety waives notice of acceptance of this Agreement by Bank.

that the Public Utility Commission's determination that services were adequate was conclusive. (Syllabus, 420, A.2d 371-72)

"To accomodate the role of the court with that of the agency, the doctrine of primary jurisdiction (or primary exclusive jurisdiction) has been developed. Essentially, the doctrine creates a workable relationship between the courts and administrative agencies wherein, in appropriate circumstances, the courts can have the benefitof the agencies views on issues within the agency's competence. Feingold v. Bell of Pennsylvania, supra at 16, 383 A.2d at 798-99 (Pomeroy, J., dissenting) and Mezines, Stein and Gruff, Administrative Law, S 47.01 (1978) (hereinafter "Mezines"). This Court has approved the doctrine in Weston v. Reading Co., 445 Pa. 182, 282 A.2d 714 (1977) (equity court must defer to Interstate Commerce Commission). In Weston, we stated:

"The Principles of the doctrine of primary jurisdiction are well settled. The United States Supreme Court '...recognized early in the development of administrative agencies that coordination between traditional judicial machinery and these agencies was necessary if consistent and coherent policy were to emerge.... The doctrine of primary jurisdiction has become one of the key judicial switches through which this current has passed.' Port of Boston Marine Terminas Ass'n v. Rederiaktiebolaget Trans-Atlantic, 400 U.S. 62, 68, 91 S.Ct. 203, 208 (27 L.Ed. 2d 203) (1970) (footnote and citations omitted). The doctrine '...requires judicial abstention in cases where protection of the integrity of a regulatory scheme dictates preliminary resort to the agency which administers the scheme.' United States v. Western Pacific Railroad Co., 352 U.S. 59, 68, 77 S.Ct. 161, 165 (1 L. Ed.2d 126) (1956). (further citations omitted)

"6. Thus, in the instant case, Studio's right to seek appellate review of the PUC determination was not affected by the bifurcated procedure adopted. See, section 508(e) of the Appellate Court Jurisdiction Act of 1970, 17 P.S. § 211.-508(e) (appeals to Commonwealth Court from PUC adjudication) (replaced by the Judicial Code of 1978, 42 Pa. C.S. §=5105). 'Thus review of the PUC action should proceed through the normally existing route of review (see Ricci v. Chicago Mercantile Exchange, 409 U.S. 289, 445 Pa. at 198-199, 282A.2d at 723. (opinion of the Court by Roberts, J.)

"(2=4) The doctrine serves several purposes, chief of which are the benefits to be derived by making use of the agency's special experience and expertise in complex areas with which judges and juries have little familiarity. Mezines, supra at §47.-02 (2), citing Great Norther R. Co. v. Merchants Elevator Co. 259 U.S. 285, 42 S.Ct. 477, 66 L.Ed. 943 (1922); Jaffe Primary Jurisdiction, 77 Har.L.Rev. 1037, 1040 (1964)(hereinafter "Jaffe") Another important consideration is the statutory purpose in the creation of the agency-- the powers granted by the legislature and the powers withheld. Jaffe, supra at 1039."

The court held at page 377:

"(8,9) Therefore, where the subject matter is within an agency's jurisdiction and where it is a complex matter requiring special competence, with which the judge or jury would not or could not be familiar, the proper procedure is for the court to refer the matter to the appropriate agency. Also weighing the consideration should be the need for uniformity and consistency in agency policy and the legislative intent."

DECEMBER 11, 1980, CASE SETTLED--JURORS NOTIFIED BY MAIL.

DECEMBER 15, 1980, AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT, filed by Belin, Belin & Naddeo

DECEMBER 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
The above Action in Assumpsit results from a coal lease entered into between the parties, among the provisions of which was the following paragraph:

"EIGHTH: The Lessee agrees that upon completion of mining operations it will restore the leased premises in the manner required by the Pennsylvania Bituminous Coal Open Pit Mining Conservation Act then in force."

Upon completion of the surface mining operation, Defendant completed backfilling and reforesting, and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Resources issued a discharge certificate. Plaintiffs now seek to recover damages, stating that backfill and reforesting were not properly done. This matter is now before the Court on Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment that the Department of Environmental Resources has exclusive jurisdiction and the above Action does not properly lie in this Court. This Court agrees with the Defendant's Petition and does herein grant Summary Judgment.
The lease involved merely requires Defendant to comply with the Surface Mining Conservation and Reclamation Act of 1971, Nov. 30, P.L. 554, No. 14751 et seq, 52 P.S. §1396.2, which states:

"(a) Except as otherwise provided hereunder, all surface mining operations coming within the provisions of this act shall be under the exclusive jurisdiction of the department and shall be conducted in compliance with such reasonable rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary by the secretary for the health and safety of those persons engaged in the work and for the protection of the general public. separate rules and regulations shall be promulgated for each mineral." 52 P.S. §1396.4b (a) (Emphasis added)

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania affirmed a Motion for Summary Judgment under similar circumstances. In Elkin v. Bell Telephone Co. of Pa., 420 A.2d 371, the Court stated:

"Action was brought against telephone company seeking compensatory and punitive damages, including refund of telephone charges previously paid. The Court of Common Pleas, Civil Action Law, of Montgomery County, at No. 70-04699 of 1971, Robert W. Homeyman, J., refused company's motion for summary judgment and it appealed. The Superior Court No. 1435, October Term. 1976, 247 Pa. Super, 505, 372 A.2d 1203, Jacobs, J., reversed and entered judgment for the telephone company on grounds that

MAY 27, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Plaintiff in the above-captioned matter instituted suit seeking to recover under an insurance policy of Ivan Roy Merrow, deceased, claiming to be the surviving spouse of Mr. Merrow. The sole issue presented to the jury was whether a valid common-law marriage existed between the Plaintiff and Ivan Roy Merrow. The jury by a verdict determined that a valid marriage existed between the two and awarded the Plaintiff Twenty-one Thousand, Five Hundred ($21.500.00) Dollars, together with interest. The matter is now before this Court on Defendant's Motion for New Trial and for Judgment n.o.v., alleging that the verdict was against the law and against the weight of the evidence.

While the record has not as yet been transcribed, this Court's notes and recollection reflect that the Plaintiff testified that while on a weekend trip with the deceased, they discussed the subject of marriage and agreed to be married although the Plaintiff did not recall the specific language of the parties used at that time. She further testified that they interrupted their trip to purchase wedding rings, exchanged them and, following the trip, advised both family and friends that they were in fact married. With a brief exception, they lived together thereafter until the time of Mr. Merrow's death. Other witnesses on behalf of the Plaintiff testified to statements made by the decedent and the Plaintiff acknowledging that they were in fact married. The Plaintiff and the deceased enjoyed a reputation in the community of being husband and wife and Defendant's case relied upon statements made by the Plaintiff which Defendant argues indicated an intent to be married at some time in the future. This Court does herein deny Defendant's Motions.

Plaintiff relies on both proof of a valid marriage contract and reputation in the community to establish a marital relationship with Mr. Merrow. As stated in Rager v. Johnstown Traction Company, 184 Pa. Super. 474, 134 A.2d 918 (1957):

> "...Evidence of cohabitation and reputation may be received and considered in corroboration of testimony that a marriage contract was in fact entered into."

Obviously, in the present case, the jury found that the parties intended to be married and did in fact enter into a binding contract as stated in Comm. ex rel McDermott v. McDermott, 345 A.2d 914 (1975):

> "It is unquestioned that our Courts will give effect to the intention of the parties and find a valid marriage where no direct testimony is offered as to the precise words of the marriage contract."

And the Court further stated:

> "Society rests upon marriage, the law favors it, and in a country where it is often unattended by ceremony, or even officiating witnesses, it is not the duty of the courts to seek for an interpretation of the words used by the parties which would be inconsistent with an honorable intention as well as with their subsequent conduct and declarations, when an interpretation consistent with the formation of an honorable relation is possible, and in the light of all the circumstances, more probably expresses their intention. The mandate to search for the intent of the parties is just as true in cases in which testimony is given as to the words used by the parties as when such testimony is absent."

In the case at bar where the parties obviously intended to enter into a valid marriage contract, it would be absured to disregard the manifest intent of the parties as evidenced by their conduct. In Caddy v. Johnstown Firemen's Relief Association, 129 Pa. Super. 493, 196 A. 590 (938), the Court stated:

> "Unlettered persons frequently become confused in the use of tenses, and it is difficult to get them to testify to the exact language used in a conversation in words of the first and second person, and using the present tense, rather than their understanding of its import, in words of the third person and using the past tense; but when it is considered that the parties had started on their way to get married that day, and had been interrupted by an accident, we think the testimony of the Plaintiff, instead of establishing that no marriage contract was made between them, is entirely consistent with a finding that the parties agreed and consented then and there to become husband and wife and live together in the relation without a marriage, and that following the agreement they cohabited together as husband and wife and were generally recognized and reputed to be such, until his death."

And in Wagner Estate, 398 Pa. 531, 159 A.2d 495 (1960), the following language appears:

> "To deny the status of marriage...because words in the present tense cannot be proved, would be a clear injustice. It may even be said the certain acts may speak louder than words."

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

NOW, this 27th day of May, 1981, following argument into the above-captioned Motions for New Trial and Judgment n.o.v., it is the ORDER of this Court that said Motions be and are hereby dismissed. Opinion to be filed in the event of Appeal. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

FEBRUARY 27, 1981, BRIEF OF CALDWELL AND HARRIS, filed by Gregory M. Kruk. 1 copy certified attorney, 1copy certified to Judge.

MAY 14, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court upon Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer filed by Defendants David Caldwell and Robert O. Harris. This action arises out of the sale by Plaintiff of certain computer terminals, products and equipment to one of the Defendants, Preferred Data Processing, Inc. Complaint was filed in Assumpsit by Plaintiff and twice amended. Preliminary Objections were filed on behalf of both Defendants raising a demurrer, lack of capacity to sue and a Motion for More Specific Pleading. Argument before this Court was held August 22, 1980 on these issued and the Court directed the parties to file briefs on the single issue of the Preliminary Objections raising a demurrer.

The issue here to be decided then is whether the Complaint shows with certainty that the law will not permit a recovery by Date-Tron thereby entitling the Defendants to summary judgment based on their demurrers. The standard to be applied in deciding whether a demurrer should be granted is clear in this Commonwealth. The case of Gekas V. Shapp, 469 Pa. 1, 364 A.2d 691, 693 (1976), gives an excellent summary of the present state of the law in Pennsylvania.

> "The standards for sustaining preliminary objections in the nature of a demurrer are quite strict. A demurrer admits every well-placed material fact set forth in the pleadings to which it is addressed as well as all inferences reasonably deducible therefrom but not conclusions of law. (Cites omitted). In order to sustain the demurrer, it is essential that the Plaintiff's complaint indicates on its face that his claim cannot be sustained, and the law will not permit recovery. (Cites omitted). If there is any doubt, this should be resolved in favor of overruling the demurrer. (Cites omitted)."

Also, according to Goodrich-Amran 2d § 1017 (b): 12, P. 85:

> "Where a doubt exists as to whether or not summary judgment should be entered, this should be resolved in favor of refusing to enter it."

In the present case, Plaintiff's Complaint names Defendants Caldwell and Harris in paragraphs 23-29 and 30-35. These paragraphs simply allege that Caldwell was six (6%) percent shareholder and president of the corporation and that Harris was also a six (6%) percent shareholder. It also alleges that Caldwell and Harris treated the corporation as a privately owned and operated business under the majority control of another Defendant, Roger Hagland, who was the eighty-eight (88%) percent shareholder and thus the corporate veil should be pierced to find them individually liable.

In regard to "piercing the corporate veil", the courts of Pennsylvania have held that the corporate entity will not be lightly disregarded and will not be pierced unless it is being used to "defeat public convenience, justify wrong, protect fraud or defend crime." Sams v. Redevelopment Authority, 431 Pa. 240, 244 A.2d 779 (1968). The Plaintiff's Complaint does not allege that the Defendants Harris and Caldwell were using the corporate entity to mask such fraud or wrongdoings. The Complaint merely alleges that Date-Tron sold certain machines to Defendant-Corporation Preferred Data Processing, Inc., and were not paid for these materials as called for by the Purchasing Agreement.

Also, the Plaintiff shows no duty owned by the Defendants Caldwell and Harris to the Plaintiff. They argue that 15 P.S. § 1408 creates such a duty but Defendants correctly refute that claim in their brief pointing out that this section refers to a duty owned by directors and officers to the corporation for which they work. This would create no duty to third parties such as Date-Tron.

Based upon the facts averred and reasonable inferences therefrom, the Plaintiff has failed to establish a cause of action against Defendants Caldwell and Harris, and therefore, the Court enters the following Order:

Order:

NOW, this 14th day of May, 1981, it is the ORDER of this Court that Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer filed by David Caldwell and Robert O. Harris, Defendants above-named, be and are hereby sustained. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

RULE:

AND NOW, this 7 day of August, 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition, a Rule is issued directed to Raymond Witherow, Prothonotary for Clearfield County, Pennsylvania to show cause why the judgment avoiding lien of Edwin J. Wright and Phyllis A. Wright, a/k/a Phyllis A. Caruso, as issued by Honorable Gerald K. Gibson, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, having been issued on August 4, 1980, should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and indexed to No. 80-103-CD.

Rule returnable the 19 day of August, 1980 at 9:30 A.M. at the Clearfield County Courthouse. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

AUGUST 12, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND DECREE NISI, filed.

The attorneys having come before the Court with respect to the above-stated rule heretofore issued upon the Prothonotary to show cause why the Judgment avoiding liens in the above-stated cases as issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge in each instance should not be filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County; and the Court having apprised itself of the factual circumstances involved, the Court finds that it has been the policy and the rule in the Prothonotary's Office that such items are filed to the Judgment index in which and to which the same have been made applicable and filed. It is the further finding of this Court that the original item directed to be filed was offered as a copy of the Order of the Bankruptcy Judge which contained a number of names of various debtors, but was to be limited to the Judgment debtors Barry Shirey, et al, and was not accompanied by any further explanation or direction. In order to clarify the situation, the Court finds that such would not be acceptable because it would place upon the office of the Prothonotary the burden of searching the record as to those debtors and then to choose to file either in miscellaneous or other dockets without direction of Counsel. Therefore, for the protection of the Prothonotary, either orally or in writing, the Counsel should direct the matter to be filed to the caption in which the said Judgment has been entered, the same to be indicated by names and doeket numbers originally assigned to such matters. Therefore, the Court enters the following

ORDER NISI:

Rule is discharged by virtue of the fact that the Prothonotary is in position to and must enter items to the judgment record applicable to each of the cases. And must be so advised when directed to file any item which would include the Orders abobe referred to as would may be issued by the United States Bankruptcy Judge. The within Order will apply to all of the above-stated cases and any cases affected by the same in the future. This Order shall be deemed NISI and will become absolute only in no exceptions be filed thereto within Ten (10) Days from date. BY THE COURT, /s/John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially Presiding.

MAY 21, 1980, CONSENT TO FILING SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT, filed by George L. Daghir.

MAY 27, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This matter comes before the Court on Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer filed on behalf of individual Defendant Rodger Haglund. From the pleadings as they exist to date, it appears that Plaintiff Date-Tron, Inc., sold certain computer and data processing equipment to Defendant, Preferred Data Processing, Inc., but as yet said Plaintiff has not received payment therefor. As a result, suit was instituted on January 10, 1980, by the filing of a Complaint in Assumpsit and an Amended Complaint was filed on February 8, 1980. The allegations in said Complaint as they apply to the Defendant Haglund are as follows:
First, that Defendant Haglund, is the owner of eighty-eight (88%) percent of the stock of Preferred Date Processing, Inc.; second, that Defendant Haglund has exercised direct control over and management of said Preferred Date Processing, Inc.; third, that the Defendant Haglund personally directed the termination of an employee, who was both an offider and director, and further, that Defendant Haglund issued directions relating to the filing of corporate tax returns; and fourth, that Defendant Haglund treated the assets and business of Preferred Data Processing, Inc., as his privately-owned business. Defendant Haglund has filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer, arguing that on the fact of the record, no responsibility can be attached to him personally. This Court agrees and does herein grant Defendant Haglund's demurrer.
Plaintiff, of course, is attempting to "pierce the veil" of Preferred Data Processing Inc., and holding Defendant Haglund personally liable for the corporation's debts. It would seem clear that the law in Pennsylvania is as stated in Barium Steel Corp. v. Wiley, 379 Pa. 38, 47 (1954):

"...a corporation is a distinct and separate entity, irrespective of the persons who own all of its stock. The fact that one person owns all of the stock does not make him and the corporation one and the same."

NOW, this 21 day of January, 1980, upon consideration of the 304(c) petition filed with regard to Mary Aleaddin pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, the Court being satisfied after reviewing said petition and the 303 proceedings dated December 13, 1979, that there is probable cause to believe Mary Alaeddin constitutes a clear and present danger to herself, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Clearfield County Sheriff immediately take Mary Alaeddin into custody and transport her to the DuBois Hospital Psychiatric Ward to be examined by Dr. James K. Fugate.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court, that after the subject has been examined by Dr. James K. Fugate, the Mental Health Review Officer, J. Richard Mattern ~~II, immediately conduct a hearing pursuant to Section~~ 304 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, to determine if the subject, Mary Alaeddin, is severely mentally disabled and in need of long-term treatment at a state mental institution, and report his findings and recommendations to the Court. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JANUARY 23, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern, II.

One copy Certified to Sheriff.

NOW, this 23 day of January, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

Martino had entered into a finance agreement with Defendant Flickinger, but there was nothing in the pleadings to support the claim that Flickinger assumed the duty to maintain the parking lot. It is clear that in passing on a Motion for Judgment on the pleadings, the Court may only consider the pleadings themselves. See Leidy v. Desert Enterprises, Inc., 252 Pa. Super 162 (1977).

The Motions themselves and Answer thereto are not pleadings and are not to be considered when ruling on said Motions. When such a motion is filed, the issue must be determined on the state of the pleadings at that point. Defendants Eisenbaum and Hoffman have admitted in their Answer that they had the duty and responsibility of keeping the parking lot free of ice, snow, and debris. This admission, together with an examination of all the pleadings, clearly demonstrates that Defendants Flickinger and Martino had no duty to maintain said parking lot and therefore, cannot be answerable in damages to the Plaintiffs.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

Order:

NOW, this 19th day of June, 1981, it is the ORDER of this Court that Motion for judgment on the Pleadings filed on behalf on Defendants Flickinger Company and Robert Martino, t/a Super-Duper Market, be and are hereby granted and said Defendants dismissed from the above Action with prejudice. FEBRUARY 12, 1981, ANSWER OF S.M. FLICKINGER CO., INC., A CORPORATION, TO MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS FILED BY ROBERT MARTINO, t/a SUPER-DUPER MARKET, filed by Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebeneck & Eck, by Robert Pfaff, Attorneys at Law.

FEBRUARY 19, 1981, ANSWER TO MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS, filed by David H. Patterson.

JUNE 11, 1981, MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS, filed by Robert J. Pfaff of Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck

JUNE 22, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This matter is before the Court on Motions for Judgment on the pleadings filed on behalf of Defendants S. M. Flickinger Co., Inc., and Robert Martino, t/a Super-Duper Market. Plaintiffs' Complaint alleges personal injuries resulting from Plaintiff's slipping and falling in a parking lot which he claims Defendants failed to properly maintain. Defendant Flickinger, in answering Plaintiffs' Complaint, denied ownership of the parking lot or a duty to maintain it andkeep it free of ice, snow and debris. Flickinger further plead a lease agreement dated May 24, 1974, under which Defendants Irving Eisenbaum and Harold C. Hoffman had the duty to maintain said parking lot. Defendants Eisenbaum and Hoffman, as lessors under said lease agreement, clearly assumed this duty under paragraphs 11 and 35 thereof.

> "35. Lessor agrees during the term of this lease to keep the parking areas reasonably free of snow, ice and debris..." (Exhibit 'A' - Flickinger's Answer and New Matter)

Moreover, Defendants Eisenbaum and Hoffman admit in their Answer to Plaintiffs' Complaint that they had a duty to maintain the parking lot as set forth in the lease agreement but that Ames Department Store, a non-party, had assumed that duty.
Defendant Martino has also denied all control, ownership or duty to maintain the parking lot in his Answer to Plaintiffs' Complaint. Defendant Martino's Answer also alleges that said duty resides with Defendants Eisenbaum and Hoffman.

FEBRUARY 25, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 26 day of February, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Tirjah Daugherty, although severely mentally disabled, may qualify for placement in a less restrictive entironment, such as the DuBois Clear Haven Nursing Home.

The Court, therefore, directs that the subject be placed in the DuBois Clear Haven Nursing Home for a minimum period of two (2) weeks on a leave of absence from Warren State Hospital, to determine if she can adjust to this setting and if this placement is suitable.

Until such placement Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject for her own protection and welfare. In the event that placement is not suitable for the subject and she cannot be managed or cannot make the adjustment, then Warren State Hospital is authorized to return the subject to Warren State Hospital for in-patient care and treatment at the Geriatric Unit without further Order of Court.

This matter shall be reviewed within one hundred eighty (180) days from February 15, 1980, by the Mental Health Review Officer.

NOW, this 26 day of February, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

Placement of George Dickson in the DuBois nursing home was attempted. The subject rejected placement and was not accepted by the nursing home.

Therefore, although the Court continues to be of the opinion that George Dickson is not necessarily so severely mentally disabled requiring hospitalization at Warren State Hospital, there remains no alternative at this time.

Accordingly, the Court directs that George Dickson be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

If after this period of time the subject would voluntarily submit to placement in a nursing home and he would be accepted by a nursing home, then transfer could be made without further Order of this Court.

The Petitioner was present in Court and represented by her attorney, William L. Monahan. The Respondent did not appear. Evidence was adduced, and the Court, being fully advised in the premises, finds that this Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action. The Court further finds that the parties were married at Bigler, Pennsylvania on January 20,1965, and that there appears to be no reasonable possibility of reconciliation by the parties, and, therefore, the marriage is irretrievably broken and should be dissolved. The Court finds that the Petitioner should be awarded the custody of the minor children of the parties as hereinafter named, subject to reasonable rights of visitation by the Respondent; that the issues of child support, alimony, the cost of this action, and certain outstanding debts of the parties is continued; that an equitable division of the property should be made as hereinafter ordered; and that neither party is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States or its allies. IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED by the Court as follows: A. The marriage of the parties is dissolved but the dissolution of the marriage emboided in this Decree shall not become final or operative until six (6) months from the date of this Decree, except for purposes of appeal, and neither party is free to remarry for the six (6) months.
