One copy Certified to Attorney.

MAY 18, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This matter comes before the Court on Preliminary Objections filed by Defendant Joseph Campolong, to the Amended Complaint of Plaintiff, Amalgamated Cotton Garment and Allied Industries Fund. Plaintiff seeks to recover Twenty-two Thousand, One Hundred Twenty and 14/100 ($22,120.14) Dollars in unpaid insurance and retirement funds from Joseph Campolong as an officer of Campo Slacks, Inc., a Pennsylvania Corporation, under the Pennsylvania Wage Payment and Collection Act. (43 P.S. §260).
The Plaintiff and Campo Slacks, Inc., entered into a Collective Bargaining Agreement which called for payment by Campo Slacks, Inc., into Retirement and Social Insurance Funds for the benefit of employees. The agreement also called for arbitration of disputes over unpaid monies into these funds and that the finding of the arbitrators be binding and conclusive. Campo Slacks, Inc., failed to pay these sums as required. The dispute was taken to arbitration by Plaintiff and resolved in favor of the Plaintiff in three awards. Judgments were entered in United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania on two of these arbitration awards. Plaintiff has issued Writs of Execution on these judgments, but has been unable to attach any assets of Campo Slacks, Inc.
The failure of the Plaintiff to obtain satisfaction from these arbitration awards has led them to the filing of the Complaint initiating this Action. Plaintiff now seeks to recover these unpaid amounts under §260.2(a) of the Wage Payment and Collection Act from Joseph Campolong, an individual, as an officer of Campo Slacks, Inc. The Act provides:
"'Employer' includes every person, firm, partnership, association, corporation, receiver or other officer of the court of this Commonwealth and any agent or officer of any of the above-mentioned classes employing any person in this Commonwealth."
Defendant's Preliminary Objections ask that Plaintiff's Action be dismissed on the principles of res judicata and/or collateral estoppel.
To support a claim of res judicata, the party asserting the defense must show the occurrence of four (4) conditions:
1. identify of the thing sued upon;
2. identity of the cause of action;
3. identify of the persons and parties to the action; and
4. identity of the quality or capacity of the parties suing or sued.
Callery v. Municipal Authority of Blythe Township, 432 Pa. 307, 243 A.2d 385 (1968); Thompson v. Karistan Rug Mills, 228 Pa. Super 260 (1974).
There is no conflict that the monies being sued for in both the arbitration awards and the present action are identical. Plaintiff claims, however, that res judicata is not applicable because Joseph Camplong was not the defendant in the arbitration cases, thus no identity of parties. Also, Plaintiff claims its cause of action is different because they now seek recovery under the Wage Payment and Collection Act, not the Collective Bargaining Agreement. We find both claims by Plaintiff faulty.
First, they are now suing Joseph Campolong in his capacity as an officer of Campo Slacks, Inc. It is not Joseph Campolong as a private individual who has hired these employees but in his capacity as an officer of Campo Slacks, Inc. It is true that the case of Carpentere Health and Welfare Fund v. Kenneth B. Ambrose, Inc., No. 79-1224, (Fed. Ct. For Eastern District of Pa.) held that under the Act officers could be held personally liable, but in that case there is no evidence of any agreement made between parties as we have in this case. The Plaintiff in the case at bar has already recovered two judgments in Federal Court for the exact same monies they seek to recover in this action. To allow this case to continue would in essence allow Plaintiff to recover two judgments for the same monies and Defendant could be forced to pay twice to Plaintiff.

DECEMBER 31, 1980, PRAECIPE, filed by Charles J. McKelvey.
Kindly place the above captioned matter on the Trial List. /s/McNerney, Page, Vanderlin & Hall by Brett O. .... (signature illegible) for Charles J. McKelvey, Attorneys for Plaintiff, B. E. Reichenbach.

MARCH 4, 1981 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This matter comes before the Court upon Plaintiff's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and Motion to Amend Complaint, and also upon Defendant's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings.

Prior to October 1976, the Defendant solicited bids for construction of certain sections of the Clearfield Interchange Industrial Park, Economic Development Administration Project No. 01-01-01392. Plaintiff submitted a bid for Sections A and B of the Industrial Park. On January 6, 1977, Plaintiff and Defendant executed a contract in the amount of One Million, One Hundred Ninety-six Thousand, Five Hundred Fourteen and 62/100 ($1,196,514.62) Dollars for the construction of these sections. The contract provided that Plaintiff was to complete the project within three hundred sixty-five (365) consecutive calendar days after the date specified by the owner in a written "Notice to Proceed". The contract further provided that both Plaintiff' and Defendant would complete the project in accordance with the terms and conditions in the specificiations and contract documents. On March 15, 1977, prior to issuing the Notice to Proceed, Defendant initiated condemnation proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County. These proceedings were initiated even though Defendant did not have the power of eminent domain. By letter dated March 29, 1977, Defendant notified Plaintiff to commence work on or before April 1, 1977, the affective date of"Notice to Proceed". Plaintiff initiated construction pursuant to the Notice to Proceed but was forced to discontinue construction on July 29, 1977, due to Defendant's failure to obtain all the necessary right-of-way. Prior to ceasing construction in July, Plaintiff performed all of the work that could be performed without the rights-ow-way. Plaintiff seeks damages for the delay caused by Defendant because the equipment was forced to sit idle at the site.

The major issue in this case revolves around two separate clauses of the contract. The first of these clauses is relied on by the Plaintiff. It is one of the General Conditions of the contract documents which were prepared by Defendant's engineering firm and Economic Development Administration (EDA) and provides as follows:

"Prior to the start of construction, the owner shall obtain all land rights-of-way necessary for the carrying out and complettion of work to be performed under this contract."

Plaintiff's major contention is that Defendant breached the contract by issuing Notice to Proceed before they had obtained all the proper rights-of-way necessary for completion of work by the Plaintiff. They also allege that Defendant was solely at fault for the delay because of this breach of the above clause.

Defendant, on the other hand, argues that Section 58 of the General Conditions preclude Plaintiff from bringing an action for damages based on delay. Section 58 reads:

"Should the owner be prevented or enjoined from proceeding with work, or from authorizing the prosecution either before or after its prosecution by reason of any litigation, contractor shall not be entitled to make or assert claim for damage, by reason of said delay but time for completion of the work will be extended to such reasonable time as the owner may determine will compensate for time loss for such delay with such determination to be set forth in writing."

Defendant argues that this Section is controlling and that further Litigation required to obtain the rights-of-way was the cause for delay. Defendant cites the cases of Johnson v. Fenestra,

First item presented by Counsel for the Defendants was that he was prepared to present a Motion to Consolidate an Orphan's Court Action with the instant action. However, the Court has determined there is no basis for Consolidation; in fact, that the issue was determined by the Honorable John K. Reilly, Jr., in disposition of Preliminary Objections. In any evant, the Orphans' Court would not have jurisdiction in the light of the issued presented in the quiet title proceeding. The following Stipulations were entered into: One, it was stipulated that the premises involved is as set forth in the deed from Emma Wilks to Melvin and Anna Davis, husband and wife, recorded in Deed Book number 607, at page 112; Two, the letter from John Sughrue, Esquire, to the Administrators and to Attorney Clifford Johnston, dated December 18, 1979, was sent by him and received by the addressees. However, no facts attempted to represented there by are being admitted by the Plaintiff and proof must be supplied; Five, it was further stipulated that check number 405 in the sum of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars, dated November 6, 1979, was endorsed by the Administrators of the above-named Estate; and that a receipt was given by them to the Defendants for the same; Six, it was additionally stipulated that the Administrators will be present at trial; and that no Subpoenas need by served upon them by the Defendants. The discussion revealed that there will be fully involved in the proceedings, in addition to any other legal matters, the following: One, the Dead Man's Rule; Two, the Statutes of Frauds; and Three, the Parol Evidence Rule. The Plaintiffs will be presenting as Exhibits, the Title Abstract, with photocopies of deeds, without certification being required. It is acknowledged and admitted that the administrators were duly appointed in the above-stated Estate. The Plaintiffs will be presenting as their witnesses the above-named, Gerald Davis, Together with Anne Morgan; and the Defendants will have as their witnesses, the following: Both Defendants; Mrs. Gerald Davis and husband; Mrs. Merrell Davis and husband; Vicki Davis, Richard Archer; James Cardinal; Nancy Snyder, Notary Public; and possibly other members of the Gerald Davis Family (as to the latter, the names thereof will be submitted to the Plaintiffs' Counsel by Defendants' Counsel at least twenty (20) days from Date). Trial time will consume between one and one half (½) days to two (2) days; and trial briefs will be filed no less than ten (10) days before the date fixed for trial. Trial date will be fixed by the Honorable John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge, when possible to be set by the Court; and trial shall be had before the Honorable John A. Cherry, Senior Judge. Pro by Atty 30.00 Atty 3.00 by Atty Shff Hawkins 16.19		MARCH 18, 1981, OPINION OF COURT & ORDER, filed. Under our consideration, is plaintiffs' motion for judgment on the pleadings in this assumpsit action seeking recovery under the terms of a coal lease. We find that there are issues of material fact and therefore we must deny plaintiffs' motion. Plaintiffs, who are owners of a farm in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County, signed a strip mining lease with defendant, a coal mining company, in May of 1975. By the Fall of 1979, the company had removed all the coal from the land and had paid to plaintiffs the tonnage rate agreed upon. The company mined, and paid royalties on, a total of 33,705.705 tons of coal. Paragraph 9a of the lease states: "The Lessee herein agrees to remove all legally mineable coal and further guarantees to pay to the Lessors minimum of forty thousand (40,000) tons of coal times the royalty as established in Paragraph 1 hereof." Plaintiffs argue that this requires defendant to pay them royalty payments on 40,000 tons of coal even if all the coal had been removed and the amounts totaled less than 40,000 tons. Defendant argues that the clause was intended to require them to pay the equivalent of royalty payments on 40,000 tons if they removed less than that amount and had not removed all of the coal present on the land. Defendant declares that both parties entered into the contract believing that there were more than 40,000 tons of coal on the land becuase an engineering report had so indicated. Plaintiffs contend that defendant is precluded from offering evidence of the report, and also the parties' reliance thereon, by the Parol Evidence Rule. Defendant argues that due to either mutual mistake or ambiguity, evidence of the report is admissible. In ruling on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, all the well-pleaded allegations of the opposing party are taken as true. Rice v. Rice 468 Pa. 1,4, 359 A.2d 782 (1976). For the purpose of deciding this motion, thereofre, we must assume that the parties did believe that there were more than 40,000 tons of coal on the land. It is therefore possible that the parties did not even consider the possibility that there would be less than 40,000 tons, and that paragraph 9a was inserted only to cover the situation where the mining operation was stopped without having exhausted the supply of coal and with the defendant having removed less than 40,000 tons. We are not convinced that the clause in question must be given the interpretation ascribed to it by plaintiffs. Unless a case is absolutely free from doubt, judgment on the pleadings should not be granted. Rice v. Rice, supra, 468 Pa. 1, 6 359 A2d. 782 (1976). While we do not now decide the issue of what evidence would be admissible under the Parol Evidence Rule, we do find that defendant has sufficiently raised the possibility that the parties did not intend that paragraph 9a be construed as plaintiff contends it should be. In view of the foregoing, we enter the following ORDER: AND NOW, March 16, 1981, it is ORDERED and DECREED that plaintiffs' Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings is denied. BY THE COURT, /s/ John A. Inc., 305 F.2d 179 (1962) and Jacob Lichter et al v. Mellon Stuart Company, 305 F.2d 216 (1962) for the proposition that a contract may validly provide that contractors shall be entitled to no relief except an extension of time for performance if circumstances beyond his control shall delay his performance even though such delay does in fact increase his cost.

Both parties cite Gasparini Excavating Co. v. Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, 409 Pa. 465, 187 A.2d 157(1963), the only case that seems to be close to point in this case. In Gasparini, a contractor sought delay damages from the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission. The Commission ordered the contractor to begin work on June 6, 1955, and to complete the project in compliance with the contract by September 1, 1956, when the Commission knew that a slushing contractor would be occupying the area to the exclusion of the contractor. The Court held that the Commissic could not rely on the contractual provision provided for no damages for delay caused by the slushing contractor and that the contractor was entitled to an award of damages caused by the delay. In the case at bar we have basically the same situation. The Defendant here gave Plaintiff Notice to Proceed knowing full well that he did not have the proper rights-ow-way required under the contract. As in Gaspirini, the Defendant here actively and directly interfered with the contractors' work when he gave them Notice to Proceed knowing that they would begir their work and would be unable to continue because the proper rights-ow-way were not obtained as specifically called for in the contract. Such an interference by the Defendant would render Section 58, the delay provision, inapplicable. The Defendant claims that there was no affirmative or positive interference on their part to cause the delay. The facts are contra.

Section 58 calls for no damages for delay caused by litigation that would prevent Defendant from proceeding with work. The question is, what was the intention of the parties in including this no delay damage clause. Plaintiff argues that Defendant was not prevented from proceeding by reason of litigation but solely because of its failure to obtain the required rights-of-way. Plaintiff also contends that Section 58 was intended to apply to the type of situation where a suit may be brought by an environmental group to enjoin further development of a certain area and that it was not intended to shield a party from liability for breach of contract. The litigation was a result of Defendant's failure to obtain the rights-of-way before giving Notice to Proceed. It was clearly forseable that the Plaintiff would be unable to proceed past a certain point without the proper rights-of-way and that delay would cause them considerable damage once their equipment and crew were on the site. The delay, therefore, was not caused by the litigation but by Defendant's breach of contract by failing to obtain rights-of-way before issuing Notice to Proceed. Based on the facts here undisputed, Defendant's Judgment on the Pleadings must be denied.

Plaintiff has also asked for Partial Summary Judgment on the issue of liability. Based upon the facts as pleaded, Plaintiff's Motion must be granted. The Defendant does not deny that Notice to Proceed was issued before proper rights-of-way were obtained. Their only argument is that Section 58 relieves them of liability for the delay to the Plaintiff. If this Court finds that Defendant was in breach of the contract clause requiring rights-of-way to be pro= cured before issuing Notice to Proceed that such breach was the cause for delay, not litigation then Plaintiff's Motion must be granted.

Finally, Plaintiff's Motion to Amend his Complaint, Defendant has indicated that should its Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings be denied, it would have no objection to such an Amendment, and therefore, this Court grants the same.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER

NOW, this 3rd day of March, 1981, following argument thereon, it is the ORDER of this Court that Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings filed on behalf of the above-named Defendant be and is hereby refused.

IT is the further ORDER of this Court that Motion for Partial Summary Judgment filed by Plaintiff above-named as to the issue of liability be and is hereby granted, and further, that Plaintiff be permitted to amend its Complaint in accordance with his request. MAY 18, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, continued from page 24
The parties to the Collective Bargaining Agreement were Plaintiff and Campo Slacks, Inc. Plaintiff chose to arbitrate any dispute over unpaid monies into retirement and insurance funds for employees. When the funds were not paid, they went to arbitration and won. They should now be precluded from continuing toward a second judgment on the same funds. Plaintiff's distinction between Campo Slacks, Inc., and Joseph Campolong is not sufficient to establish that they are suing two different entities.

(6) Upon seeking payment of rents ls, defendants claimed to have entered into a verbal contract with decedent for transfer of the premises.
(7) Plaintiffs advised defendants that the rental was being increased to two hundred ($200.00) dollars monthly.
(8) During the lifetime of the decedent and until his death, the insurance premiums on the home were paid by him.
(9) There was no writing ot effect a transfer of the premises; and significantly the testimony establishes that there was no meeting of the minds as to the exact purchase price; as to any interest to be paid on any unpaid balance; and essentially, no credible proof that there was any presnet intention of conveyance by the decedent to defendants.
(10) The alleged down payment by defendants to the decedent, claimed to be represented by conveyance of a trailer from CANTER to the decedent, was not made for that purpose.
(11) The check in the sum of fifteen hundred (%1500.00) dollars, (testified to as having been gi en to the defendant-CANTER by the decedent by check dated October 24, 1979) was not shown ot have been for anything; and we find that it was made in payment ofr the conveyance of the trailer from CANTER to him.
(12) Although there was no dispute that repairs and remodelling had been made by the defendants, we connot find that they resulted from any sale of the premises.
(13) Considering the demeanor of witnesses as well as all other matters for consideration by the finder of fact, which we are, we find that the credibility issue was overwhelmingly in opposition to the existence of any contract.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

(1) There was no binding contract for the sale of the premises to the defendants either in writing or orally or by any conduct which would sustain the existence of the same.
(2) The contract alleged to have existed is in itself indefinite in its terms, particularly as to the purchase price, payments to be made, interest upon alleged balances or any contractural terms which would definirively determined the existence of a binding contract; and because of the indefiniteness of any of the basic terms, results in a legal determination that there was no binding contract.
(3) Plaintiffs have established the ownership of the premises as being in their decedent-father, and they are thus in control of the premises for the purposes fo the administration of the decedents estate.
(4) The defendants owe to the estate the rental amount of one hundred fifth ($150.00 Dollars monthly from the date of the decedent's death to the present time.

DISCUSSION

The testimony was extremely lacking as to any definitive terms and/or agreement for sale of these premises. Where all of the essential terms and conditions of the contract are not declared, the existence of the contract cannot be sustained. Furthermore, even if there be and intent for conveyance expressed for the future, it is totally lacking in the requirements for specific performance. See Prager v. McAdam, 399, PA. 405: and Williams v. Stewart, 194, Pa Super. 601. Under all of the proof, we must find that the monthly payments of one hundred fifty ($150.00) dollars were as rental and not as payment upon sale.
In addition, the testimony establishes for us that the sum of fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars given to the defendants in the form of the check of October 24, 1979, wss in payment of the trailer. Compare Stockdale v. Seller, 102 Pa. Super. 447: Servomation Mathias Pa. Inc. v. Lincashire Hall Inc., 442 Pa. 602 and Fahringer v. Strines Estate, 402 Pa. 48. It is true that CANTER's brother-in-law testified that he had moved a house trailer to the decedents premises which CANTER had sold to the decedent shortly prior to this death. He also testified that decedent told him he had sold the premises; and that there was to be credited to the purchase price of these premises the consideation for conveyance of the trailer. However, we are unable to find a binding contract through that testimony or that of MERRELL DAVIS, (called by the defendants) and the granddaughter of the c0-administrator who is married to CANTER's son.
It is unfortunate that defendants' witness, EMMANUEL CARDINAL, was contracted by the defendants to remodel the kitched; but we cannot find that this was done in reliance of any sales contract.
In view of the foregoing, we sustain the Complaint in Ejectment and in Assumpsit and we enter the following

DECREE AND ORDER

NOW, October 1, 1981, prayer of the Complaint in Ejectment and Assumpsit is sustained, and it is Ordered, that the defendants pay rentla of one one hundred fifty (%150.00 dollars monthly from the decedent's death to date; and it is the further Order of the Court, that the said defendants shall relinquish and deliver to the said plaintiffs possission of the premises.
Costs shall be equally divided between the parties. BY THE COURT, /s/ John A. Cherr, Serior Judge.

ORDER OF COURT filed

Plaintiffs, as administrators of their father's estate, brought this action in ejectment to recover possession of a residence titled in their father, but occupied by defendants. The sole defense presented by defendants is that they hold under an oral agreement of sale, In attempted aid thereof they introduced several checks payable to decedent in his lifetime in the sum of $150.00 each, together with proof that the female defendant had transferred a house trailer to decedent. Some other testimony was offered to show oral declarations of decedent indicating an intention to transfer the home to defendants at some future time.

Based on the credible evidence we make the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

(1) The testimony, buttressed by defendants' stipulation, established that at all times the decedent was the sole and titled owner of the residence.

(2) Decedent died intestate on October 23, 1979; and plaintiffs -- his sons and heirs -- were duly appointed and qualified as administrators of his estate.

(3) Defendants took residence in the premises and held the possession thereof only under an oral lease between them and decedent.

(4) Defendants failed to prove facts establishing a contract for sale under the requirements of the Statute of Frauds.

(5) Plaintiffs, as heirs and administrators of their father's estate, are enttiled to possession of his premises from the date of the last monthly rental payment.

(6) Defendants hold possession of the premises unlawfully and without legal right.

(7) To date of suit on April 22, 1980, defendants owe monthly rentals to the estate in the sum of $941.38, plus interest thereon at the rate of six percent per annum.

(8) From April 22, 1980 to date, defendants owe monthly rentals of $150.00 monthly, in the total sum of $3,375.00, together with inerest thereon at the rate of six percent per annum.

DISCUSSION

In reality, defendants are asserting the right to specific performance of an oral contract for sale of land. The Statute of Frauds provides that any such contract "not pur in writing, and signed by the parties so makeing or creaging the same ... shall have the force and effect of leases or estates at will only, and shall not either in law or equity be deemed or taken to have any other or greater force or effect, any consideration for making any such parole ..... estates,...notwithstanding." Here, we have only t wo isolated writings: (1) Several monthly checks, in like amount of $150.00 each, paid to decedent; and (2) transfer of a mobile home from female defenant to decedent, which was moved to his mobile homes area. The only other proof submitted at trial was (1) statemnet by decedent indicating that some day the home would be theirs (the defendants); and (2) that one of the witnesses understood that the home was sold to defenda nts for $10,000.00, to be paid at the rate of $150.00 monthly for a ten-year period. No fixed terms or methods; no interest; nor were any other normal conditions or terms sought to be proved. Defendants did submit testimony that they had had performed some alterations on the home by the witness, which were approved by decedent. However, it was also shown that he had not had any participation in it in any respect.

We thus find that on credible evidence, defendants fall very short of proving anything but an oral lease at the will of the parties. Essential terms and conditions of a contract to sell the residence were neither stated nor proved; the payment of $150.00 monthly was quite clearly as rental; and the transfer of the mobile home was a sale upon consideration paid to the female defendant by the decedent. Even if there had been some form of agreement for sale, it was too lacking in necessary ingredients of abinding contract to be enforeced under the proof submitted here. Likewise, credible testimony was lacking in the circumstances presented. Cf. Prager v. McAdam, 399 Pa. 405, where, in an action by the alleged purchaser for specific performance of a claimed oral contract the court held insufficient and unenforceable a memorandum which was a dated receipt for $20.00 signed by the owner as "deposit on 61 acres more or less toal $8,000.00 price on farm." (Emphasis supplied.) Even more so here were the terms insufficient. The contract was not proved "with clarity and conviction." To find otherwise would require more than just determining credibility in favor of defendants rather than for the plaintiffs; but would also require unwarranted conjecture in the extreme.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

(1) Title in the decedent, succeeded by the Plaintiffs as adminsitrators of the estate, was fully established.

(2) Possession and right of possession must be declared to belong to plaintiffs.

(3) Defenants have failed to prove title or right to title, and have no right to continue in possession; they having failed to sustain the burden of proving an enforceable contract of sale.

(4) The only right to possession the defendants ever had was by virtue of an oral lease at will for monthly payments of $150.00.

(5) Said defendants have lost and forgeited all rights under said oral lease.

APRIL 28, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT and DECREE, filed.

NOW this 28 day of April, 1980, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that although Kevin Mark Salada is not so severely mentally that he requires institutionalization at this time, in the interest of the subject's welfare and safety and to prevent a reoccurrence of the neurosis, the Court directs that Kevin Mark Salada remain at Warren State Hospital, Adolescent Unit, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for a period of up to ninety (90) days or until the termination of the schoolyear.

This order is based on the recommendation of Dr. Roger Mesmer and Dr. Edwards, both of whom concur that the release of the subject now would be premature and that the subject should remain at Warren State Hospital until the termination of the schoolyear and plans are made by the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health Unit for follow-up out-patient care and treatment.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT:

Said Rule is returnable on the 16 day of June, 1980 at 11:00 o'clock at the Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. JUNE 2, 1980, RULE ISSUED TO JOHN SUGHRUE, ATTORNEY FOR PLAINTIFF TO APPEAR AND SHOW CAUSE WHY JUDGMENT SHOULD NOT BE ENTERED FOR DEFENDANT. NOVEMBER 20, 1980, PETITION TO AMEND ORIGINAL COMPLAINT OR REPLY, filed by John Sughrue. DECEMBER 31, 1980, CERTIFICATION OF READINESS AND PRAECIPE FOR TRIAL, filed by John Sughrue. Plaintiff, by his attorney, hereby certified that the above-captioned matter is at issue and ready for trial. Kindly place the above-captioned matter on the following trial list: Arbitration. The amount in controversy is less than the statutory amount. Estimated time: 1 hour. /s/John Sughrue, Attorney for Plaintiff. JANUARY 22, 1981, OPINION AND ORDER, filed. Chronologically stated, the following are the facts in the instant matter: January 27, 1978 - Property damage arising out of an automobile accident occurred April 8, 1980 - Action in Trespass filed. April 25, 1980 - Answer and New Matter filed with endorsement of notice to plead May 30, 1980 - Defendant filed Motion for Judgment on pleadings on the basis that no reply to the New Matter was filed The importance of the foregoing dates is the fact that the Defendant's New Matter raised the affirmative Defense that the Action was barred by the Statute of Limitations (Judicial Code, 42 PA CSA5524). Of course, there is a two-year Statute of Limitations for injury to real property under that section of the Judicial Code. Despite the fact that at argument on Motion for Judgment on Pleadings, the Plaintiff asserted that he could not be barred since December was fraudulently absent from the jurisdiction to avoid legal proceedings (42 PA CSA5532). We must grant Judgment on the Pleadings, and this because there was no reply filed to the New Matter. We find that nothing has been presented to the Court which would even allow for the Court to exercise any discretion in the matter, and permit it to allow amendment as requested by the Plaintiff. See Goodrich-Amram Vol. 2, 1030:4 1045(b). Also directly applicable and ruling in the instant situation is the case of Ruhe v. Kroger Company, 425 Pa 213; 228 A2d 750. In view of the foregoing, we enter the following O R D E R NOW, January 22, 1981, Motion for Counsel for Defendant is granted and Judgment directed to be entered in favor of Defendant. BY THE COURT, /s/John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially Presiding.

Insurance Company of North America first objects to the entry of default judgment without notice to it. However, this Court is satisfied that under Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 237.1(a), such notice is not required in this case in view of the agreement to extend the time for filing. However, this Court firmly believes that the interestes of justice require that the judgment be opened. As stated by the Superior Court in Ashton v. Ashton, 257 Pa. Super. 134, 390 A.2d 282 (1978): "The purpose of the rules in authorizing the entry of Default Judgments is to prevent a dilatory Defendant from impeding the Plaintiff in establishing his claim. The rules are not primarily intended to provide the Plaintiff with a means of gaining a judgment without the difficulties which arise from Litigation." Citing Kraynick v. Hertz, 443 Pa. 105, 277 A.2d 144 (1971) and Slott V. Triad Distributors, Inc., 230 Pa. Super, 545, 327 A.2d 151 (1974).
In the instant case, it can hardly be claimed that Defendant was impeded in establishing her claim. Moreover, no prejudice has resulted to the Plaintiff as a result of the additional delay in filing an Answer, and further, Defendant Insurance Company of North America promptly petitioned to open upon learning thereof. Moreover, Defendant Insurance Company of North America, in its Petition to Open, has alleged a defense to the Action which if sustained would relieve it from any financial responsibility.
WHEREFORE, this Court is of the opinion that in the interests of justice the following Order must be entered:
ORDER: NOW, this 27th day of January, 1981, it is the ORDERof this Court that Default Judgment entered by Plaintiff above-named against Defendant Insurance Company of North America be and is hereby opened and the Defendant Permitted to defend the Claim.
IT is the further ORDER of this Court that said Defendant shall file Responsive Pleadings within twenty (20) days from date hereof. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOW, this 27th day of May, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Ann Noble continues to be severely mentally disabled.

JANUARY 27, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
This matter comes before the Court upon Petition by Defendant Insurance Company of North America to open a Default Judgment entered against it by the Plaintiff commenced the above suit in the form of a suit in assumpsit and on or about June 17, 1980, counsel entered appearances for Defendant Insurance Company of North America was served with Plaintiff's Complaint and the next day counsel for said Defendant requested thirty (30) days Extension of Time in which to file his Responsive Pleadings, which was granted be Plaintiff. According to Defendant, due to difficulty in locating its dile and secure necessary signatures, it was necessary to seek additional time following the thirty (30) day extension and for that purpose telephoned Plaintiff's counsel, stating that the Responsive Pleadings might not be filed until a few days beyond the extension. Further, Plaintiff's counsel at no time raised any objections to filing beyond the 30-days extension period, nor was counsel for Defendant advised that the 30-day extension would be strictly enforced. However, before such pleadings could be filed, counsel for Plaintiff took default judgment approximately six (6) days after the expiration of the 30-day extension. Hence, this Petition to Open. This Court is of the opinion that Defendant Insurance Company of North America's positon must be sustained.

Both the parties, by their attorneys, have stated that neither of the parties believes that marriage counseling would be anything but a waste of time and money. The Court, therefore, does not require that either of the parties submit to marriage counseling.

JANUARY 27, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

The above-captioned Action in Assumpsit was commenced by Complaint filed May 28, 1980. In said Complaint, premises, the terms of which are contained in a lease agreement between the parties dated in June of 1972. Plaintiff further alleges that under the terms of the agreement, Defendants were to pay all utilities, including heating for the building, and that as a result of Defendants' failure to heat the building, he, the Plaintiff, was required to spend Five Thousand Fifty-two and 06/100 (5052.06$) Dollars for fuel oil. This matter is now before the Court on Defendants' demurrer to said Complaint. In their brief filed with this Court, Defendants allege that in 1979 they decided not to heat the building because it was only being used for storage, and that upon learning that the building was unheated, the Plaintiff made the purchase of fuel oil without the Defendants' permission or without consulting with them. Defendants now claim their demurrer should be granted because, under the terms of thelease, they were only required to pay for the heat if they needed it, and moreover, that since the Plaintiff did not allege that the building would be damaged if heat were not provided, he, the Plaintiff, acted as a volunteer in purchasing the fueloil and as such cannot recover. This Court agrees with the Defendants that if the facts are as stated in Defendants' brief, they must prevail in their defense. However, in passing on a demurred, the Court can only consider those facts that are well plead and to accept Defendants' allegations of fact contained in their brief would be to extend the acceptance of facts to matters not of record. If Defendants can at hearing offer sufficient proof to substantiate these allegations, it would appear to this Court that they must prevail, but at this stage of the proceedings to so rule would be premature.
WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:
ORDER: NOW, this 27th day of January, 1981, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendants' Demurrer be and is hereby denied. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

1) Erred in his finding that indignities existed in the marriage and that plaintiff was the innocent and injured spouse.
2) Erred in not making specific findings as to the credibility of the witnesses.
3) Erred in excluding the testimony of Lloyd Nelson, which had been offered for the purpose of impeaching witness Helen Vaughn's testimony concerning her relationship with the defendant.

It is the opinion of the court that these contentions are without merit. Therefore, a divorce will be granted to plaintiff on the grounds of indignities.

The report of a Master in divorce is merely advisory in character and is not binding on the court: Verbalis vs. Verbalis, 206 Pa. Super. 87,211 A.2d 130 (1965). However, although the court is bound to review "all pertinent facts" of the divorce when reviewing a Master's report, it must always be kept in mind that, while the court can see the facts on paper, only the Master has seen and heard the facts as recounted by the parties and witnesses: Buckwalter vs. Buckwalter, 225 Pa. Super, 117, 310 A.2d 287 (1973). Therefore, particularly as in the instant case, "where credibility is an important factor, the determinations of the trier of fact and his appraisal of the credibility of the parties' and their witnesses' testimony ... will not lightly be disturbed"! Gerenbeck vs. Gerenbeck, 199 Pa. Super. 414, 186 A.2d 49, (1956).

The Master has correctly stated that no specific rule exists in Pennsylvania as to what constitutes indignities as grounds for divorce. Each specific situation must be considered on a case-by-case basis. The Master has cited two situations in which a divorce will be granted on the grounds of indignities: first, where it can be shown that one party's conduct has rendered the other party's life burdensome and intolerable (Bonowitz vs. Bonowitz, 246 Pa. Super. 257, 369 A.2d 131 (1976)); and second, when it can be shown that the love and affection upon which a marital relationship rests has been permanently replaced by hatred and estrangement by either party(Kramer vs. Kramer, 194 Pa. Super. 538, 168 A.2d 624 (1961),. Both of these alternatives apply in the instant case.

The record amply indicates the ways in which the life was rendered "burdensome and intolerable" by the defendant. The defendant whould demand that plaintiff leave his own home when she had visitors. She would carry on secretive telephone conversations. On several occasions, defendant gave away items belonging to plaintiff's deceased first wife. Defendant also informed the plaintiff that she would not care for him in his old age, but would put him into Clear Haven. She also threatened to "Shack up" with another man. Although these incidents may not individually have resulted in a legitimate charge of indignities, taken as a whole they did constitute such a "course of conduct" as to sustain charges: Leucci v. Leucci, 261 Pa. Super. 102, 395 A.2d 143 (1978).

In addition, it is clear from a reading of the transcript that a great deal of animosity and hatred had replaced any love and affection that once might have existed in the Brunettis' marital relationship. Evidence of this fact can be seen both in the tenor of the testimony itself and in what the testimony described. Such animosity and hatred was noted by the Master in his report.

It is also clear from the record that the parties participated equally in many heated arguments during their marriage. However, defendant is incorrect in her contention that plaintiff's participation in these arguments deprived him of any right to claim that he is "innocent and injured." The courts have held that, while the plaintiff who claims indignities must be "innicent and injured," he need not be "wholly free of all fault." In the instant case, plaintiff acknowledged that he participated in arguments with defendant. Yet, mere response or participation in verbal arguments does not necessarily deprive a party of "innocent and injured" status: Gray vs. Gray, 220 Pa. Super. 143, 286 A.2d 684 (1971).

Many conflicts exist in the testimony of the parties, particularly as to defendant's decisions to leave the marital abode in December, 1979, and April, 1980. Plaintiff claims that defendant left of her own accord. Defendant states that she was told to leave by the plaintiff. In a situation such as this, "when the case amounts to a swearing contest and there is no other corroborative evidence, the Master's report is entitled to special weight": Barton vs. Barton, 248 Pa. Super. 278, 375 A.2d 96 (1977).

In weighing credibility of the testimony in this case, the Master was the only individual in a position to observe the "appearance and demeanor" of the parties and to draw appropriate conclusions from those observations. Thus, it is correct for the court to apply the guideline that "unless the transcript reveals a grounds upon which the Master's findings of credibility can be impeached, the findings of the Master must be given the fullest consideration": Smith vs. Smith, 157 Pa. Super. 582, 43 A.2d 371 (1945

Defendant contends also that the Master erred in not making specific findings in his report as to the credibility of the witnesses. However, although the Master must weigh the credibility of each perso who testifies, "he is not required to state specifically why he credited one party's testimony over another": Dougherty vs. Dougherty, 235 Pa. Super. 122, 339 A.2d 81 (1975); Weaver vs. Weaver, 266 Pa. Super.115, 403 A.2d 120 (1979).

Finally, defendant maintains that the Master erred in excluding the testimony of Lloyd Nelson in reference to one Helen Vaughn's plans to move in with the plaintiff. Defendant claims that this testimony was admissible for purposes of impeaching Mrs. Vaughn's prior testimony on cross-examiniation. Commonwealth vs. Zervas, 302 Pa. 510, 153 A. 767 (1931). This is inapplicable to the facts of this case. A close reading of the testimony shows that Mrs. Vaughn never denied that she made certain statements to Nelson of her intentions regarding the plaintiff. However, she was never actually asked to admit her intention to move in with the plaintiff, this because the question as to her actual intentions was never asked. Since defendant's questions to Nelson could not possibly serve the purpose of impeaching Mrs. Vaugh, they were hearsay, and therefore objectionable. Exceptions are dismissed. AUGUST 2, 1984, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff's exceptions to the Master's report determining the issue of equitable division of marital property in the above-captioned matter. Plaintiff raises five issues to be considered by this Court which will be done in the order in which they were addressed by the Plaintiff. The first two exceptions concern the inclusion of certain real estate in the list of marital assets for distribution. Plaintiff alleges that the Master erred in including the net value of Plaintiff's real estate as marital property because it was exempt under 23 P.S. 401(e)(3) and further, that the Master erred in including the net value of Plaintiff's real estate as marital property under a theory of estoppel. The Court has examined the Master's Report and particularly his discussion of the testimony, his conclusions with regards thereto and his examination of the law in the light of Plaintiff's brief and this Court finds that the Master's conclusions are supported by the testimony. Findings of a master with regards to credibility of witnesses and the weight to be placed on the testimony of each witness shall be left to the master and unless the master is obviously in error, this Court will not disturb his findings. In view of this and that the Master correctly applied the law to the facts as he determined them to be, this Court will dismiss Plaintiff's first two exceptions. Plaintiff next alleges that the Master erred in finding that the parties owned $7,000 in join saving,$2,500 of which was retained by the Plaintiff. Based on the record, this Court must agree with the Plaintiff and therfore sustains his third exception to the Master's Report and the alleged $7,000 bank account referred to by the Master is stricken as marital property. Plaintiff next alleges that the Master erred in requiring Plaintiff to maintain two life insurance policies and a trust account for the daughter of the parties. The basis for this exception, according to the Plaintiff, is that there is no evidence in the record concerning these items. However, an examination of the interrogatories filed by the Defendant and the answers therto establish their existence. This Court is of the opinion that the Master is entitled to consider all documents filed in the proceeding in determining his conclusions and therfore, will dismiss Plaintiff's fourth exception. Finally Plaintiff argues that the Master erred in awarding Defendant 60% of the marital property alleging that the Master relied on matters not contained in the record and on findings of fact contradictory to the record. In examining the Master's Report in the light of these allegations and the specific instances raised at argument and by plaintiff, this Court must conclude that the Master was justified in his determination that the Defendant was entitled to 60% of the marital property based on evidence and testimony adduced at hearing and the docket entries filed prior therto. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following order:

ORDER

Now, this 2nd day of August,1984, following argument into exceptions filed on behalf of the Plaintiff in the above- captioned divorce action, it is the ORDER of this Court that said exceptions be and are gereby sustained to the extent that the finding by the Master that a $7,000. joint savings account should be included as marital property and that $2,500. therof was retained by the Plaintiff is stricken, and in all other respects exceptions foed by the Plaintiff are dismissed. JUNE 10, 1980, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

Emery Rowles has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by William M. Mann, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. s/Wm. M. Mann, Jr.

ORDER

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1979, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1979 through October 14, 1980. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

AUGUST 4, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 4th day of August, 1980, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Emery Rowles continues to be severely mentally disabled.

As no less restrictive facility seems to be suitable for the supervision required in regard to the above subject, The Court directs that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of ninety (90) days from June 28, 1980.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOW, this 6th day of January, 1981, following Hearing in the above-captioned Proceedings for Custody, it is the ORDER of this Court that Clearfield County Children and Youth Services shall conduct home investigations of each of the Parties forthwith, pending which time, determination shall be made. The Order of this Court of October 17th, 1980, placing Custody of Scott with his father and Kelly with her mother, shall remain in effect pending final disposition. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. OCTOBER 27, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter comes before the Court on a Petition for Custody of Minor Children filed by Petitioner above-named, seeking custody of his two minor children, Kelly Ann Lukens, d.o.b. March 25, 1971, and Scott William Lukens, d.o.b. July 22, 1974. Initial hearing was had, and on October 17, 1980, this Court granted a Temporary Custody Order placing Scott William Lukens with his father, Petitioner above-named, and Kelly Ann Lukens with her mother, Respondent above-named, and setting visitation rights. Since then, home studies have been completed and further testimony was taken. Based on the record, this Court finds as a fact that both parties are fit parents and maintain a home suitable for the raising of the children. Since the Order for split custody approximately a year ago, the Court interviewed the children at the last hearing, specifically October 22, 1981. Each child indicated a desire to remain with the parent with whom he or she is presently residing. They both expressed satisfaction with the present arrangement and stated that they enjoyed the weekend visitation, but expressed a strong wish to remain with the present custodial parent. In view of the fact that this Court has determined both parents to be fit and both homes to be acceptable, noting also the close proximity of the homes of the parties to each other, and being reluctant to disturb at this time an obviously successful custodial arrangement for the children, this Court does enter the following Order: ORDER NOW, this 27th day of October, 1981, it is the ORDER of this Court that custody of Kelly Ann Lukens shall be and remain with her mother, Leslie Elaine Lukens, Respondent above-named, and custody of Scott William Lukens shall be and remain with his father, William Lukas, Petitioner above-named. IT is the further ORDER of this Court that visitation rights as set forth in the Order of that visitation rights as set forth in the Order of this Court dated October 17, 1980, shall remain in full force and effect. Opinion to be filed in the event of Appeal. By the Court, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., Presiden Judge

One copy certified Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety Your petitioner respectfully prays that this petition be allowed under Section 4724(b) of the Vehicle Code, Act of June 17, 1976, No. 81 as amended; that a hearing be granted to determine whether your petitioner is subject to suspension of his Certification as an Official Inspection Mechanic; that this appeal act as a supersedeas pending said hearing, and he will ever pray. s/Joseph De Salve PRELIMINARY ORDER AND NOW, this 24th day of June, A.D. 1980, upon consideration of the foregoing petition for appeal from order of Director of the Bureau of Traffic Safety, Department of Transportation, suspending Certification as an Official Inspection Mechanic of Joseph DeSalve, and upon motion of John F. Pontzer, Attorney for Petitioner, a hearing is granted to determine whether the petitioner, Joseph DeSalve, is subject to the suspension of his Certification as an Official Inspection Mechanic. This Appeal shall act as a supersedeas of the Suspension Order. Hearing is fixed for the 16th day of July, A.D., 1980 at 9:00 o'clock A.M. BY THE COURT, John K. Reilly, Jr. P.J. JULY 30, 1980, ORDER, filed. NOW, this 28th day of July, 1980, Hearing is fixed for Friday, August 15, 1980, at 10:30 a.m. BY THE COURT, John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, 46th Judicial District, Specially Presiding SEPTEMBER 18, 1980, BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF APPELLANT, filed by R. Denning Gearhart. OCTOBER 14, 1980, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. NOW, this 14th day of October, 1980, this matter coming before the Court on an Appeal from the decision of the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation to suspend for one (1) year the Certificate of Joseph DeSalve as an Official Inspection Mechanic and of DeSalve's Service as an Official Inspection Station. The testimony revealed that Joseph DeSalve, owner of DeSalve's Service, acting individually, performed a faulty inspection. The questions before the Court now are two. First, assuming that the suspension of the Certificate of Joseph DeSalve was proper, should the Certificate of DeSalve's Service also be suspended, and second, does the Court have the discretion to vacate or limit the suspension of DeSalve's Service and Joseph DeSalve, Individually. This Court is of the opinion that the suspension of both Certificates was proper and that the Court has no jurisdiction, having found a faulty inspection to limit or restrict the action of the Department. While this Court is of the opinion that the Department was unduly harsh in suspending the Certificate of DeSalve's Service as well as that of Joseph DeSalve, individually, it acted within the confines of the rules and regulations of the Department and the Acts of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Moreover, having done so, this Court does not have the authority to limit or restrict the decision and enters the following Order: O R D E R NOW, this 14th day of October, 1980, following hearing into the above-captioned Appeal from Suspension of Certificates of Inspection of Official Inspection Mechanic and the Appointment as Official Inspection Station, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Appeal be and is hereby dismissed and the action of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, Bureau of Traffic Safety, be and is hereby affirmed.
