By the Court, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

AUGUST 25, 1980, ANSWER TO PETITION FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS, filed by Joseph Rattman.

JANUARY 27, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court upon a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus wherein the Petitioner seeks custody of Justin Joseph Strickland, child of the parties, presently approximately three and one half (3½) years of age. During the hearing, it became obvious that both parties, who were never married, harbored extremely ill feeling toward the other, and in fact, each accused the other of involvement in illegal drugs.

In issuing the following Order, this Court is primarily influenced by the report of Dr. JoAnn Hunter Farr, a clinical psychologist who, at the request of this Court, performed an assessment of the parties. In her report, Dr. Farr states as follows: "Justin seems relatively ignorant of the custody storm that goes on around him He is clearly aware, however, that he wishes to rema in in his home with Mr. and Mrs. Hess, whom he views as his Mother and Father." "The best psychological research data available suggests that Justin should remain in the Hess household...Both families should attend a series of family counseling sess ions where they may be able to resolve some of their conflicts." And, in addition, Stephen A. Ragusea, a Doctor of Psychology reports: "...Psychologically, the preferred parent is, in this case, the mother." Based on these reports and the testimony at the hearing, this C ourt is convi nced that the best interests of Justin Joseph Strickland are as follows:

ORDER:

NOW, this 27th day of January, 1981, following hearing into the above-captioned Petition for Custody, it is the ORDER of this Court that primary custody be and is hereby placed with Patricia Hess, Respondent above-named, with visitation rights in Petitioner as follows:

The first and third full weekends of each month from Friday at 5:00 p.m. until Sunday at 5:00 p.m.; alternate holidays; and four (4) weeks each summer to be agreed upon by the parties.

Further, this Court strongly urges both families to attend family counseling sess ions as recommended in the report of Dr. JoAnn Hunter Farr, all of which until further Order of C ourt. Opinion to be filled in the event of Appeal. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

This matter is before the Court on Preliminary Objections filed by Defendants above-named to the Complaint in Ejectment. In the Complaint, Plaintiffs allege the construction of a sanitary sewer line by the Defendants across property owned by the Plaintiffs and without their consent or approval. Plaintiffs claim danages as a result thereof. This Court agreed with the Defendants' position, and on June 22nd, 1981, sustained the Preliminary Objections and Dismissed the Complaint. A notice of Appeal was filed on July 21st, 1981, and this Court on July 22nd, 1981, Ordered Counsel for the Plaintiffs to file a consise statement of the matters complainted of on Appeal under Rule 1925(b) of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. MAY 6, 1983 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed.
This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' Motion to Strike the Default Judgment taken in the above-captioned matter and/or to have the Court open said judgment. On August 4, 1980, Plaintiff filed a Complaint In Assumpsit against the Defendants seeking damages in the amount of Three Thousand Seven Hundred Twenty-Three and 98/100 ($3,723.98) Dollars. On December 4, 1980, Plaintiff filed a Petition for Acceptance of Service by the Secretary of the Commonwealth which alleged that on September 4 of that year the Sheriff of Clearfield County made a return of "Not Found" with regard to attempted service of the Complaint on the Defendants. By Court Order of December 1, 1980, authorization was granted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth to accept service by regular mail on behalf of the Defendants.

On March 2, 1981, Plaintiff filed a Praecipe for Default Judgment which was entered that date by the Prothonotary of Clearfield County. On February 17, 1983, Defendants filed a Petition to Strike Off and/or Open the above Judgment. In lieu of hearing, the parties stipulated that the Defendants Byron and Dorothy Schlag received no notice and had no knowledge of the pendency of the Plaintiff's action until their receipt of a notice by ordinary mail that the Default Judgment had been entered against them. Said notice was mailed to them on March 2, 1981, by their attorney. Further, at all times pertinent to the action American Construction and Development Company was a corporation formed and existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The issue before the Court is whether the Default Judgment should be stricken or opened. This Court finds and holds that the Default Judgment must be opened and Defendants permitted to enter a defense on the merits.

There can be no question that the service on the Defendants was not only defective but non-existent. Further, that it was improper as not being in compliance with Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 237.1 and 2079. Defendant argues that in spite of this the motions should be denied because of the unexplored and unexcused lapse of time from the date of acquiring knowledge of the Judgment to the date of the Petition to Open or Strike. In support of its position, Plaintiff cites this Court's opinion in Colavecchi v. Knarr et al to No. 78-3083-CD and without analyzing and comparing the two factual situations it is quite possible that had the Superior Court not acted thereon Plaintiff's position would be sustained. However, the Superior Court, in its slip opinion filed to No. 23 Pittsburgh 1981, has held that where the initial service of the Complaint on the Defendants was defective or non-existent the issue of the lapse of time is not reached and judgment resulting therefrom must be opened. This Court, of course, is found by the Superior Court's position as set forth above and therefore enters the following Order.

O R D E R

NOW, this 5th day of May, 1983, following consideration of Defendants' Petition, it is the ORDER of this Court that Judgment entered in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendants be and is hereby opened and Defendant directed to file responsive pleadings thereto within twenty (20) days from date hereof. AUGUST 18, 1980, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, VIA THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

William Marcinko has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by Walter S. Finken, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: C. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that this court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. s/Walter S. Finken MD

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1979, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED THAT J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1979 through October 14, 1980. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

AUGUST 18, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT

DECREE

NOW, this 19 day of August, 1980, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that William Marcinko continues to be severely mentally disabled.

As no less restrictive facility seems suitable for the supervision required in regard to this subject, the Court directs that the subject be incoluntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for inpatient treatment for a period of up to one hundred (180) days.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, John K. Reilly, Jr.

JUNE 11, 1982, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

The parties in the above captioned custody action are the natural parents of Heather Renee Bish, presently five years of age. The parties were married on February 14, 1975 and divorced on April 11, 1980. Respondent above-named has remarried and she and her husband, Charles Cribbs, reside in Brockway, PA. Heather has been in the custody of her father, Petitioner, since July 4, 1981 when the Respondent gave custody to him.

At the hearing the Petitioner, Gary Bish, testified that he lives near the village of Penfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and is employed as a mechanic at Johnson Motors in DuBois. He stated that in July of 1981 when he received custody of Heather, the Respondent requested that he pick up Heather in Ohio where she was then living with her husband because she was having marital problems. He stated that he spends the hours from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. each evening with Heather and that on weekends they go visiting, to the store and play around the house. He further testified that in his absence Heather is always supervised. He stated that she is an active, bright, intelligent and energetic child and that he keeps her clean and neat.

He stated that while he and the Respondent were married she was promiscuous and ran around leaving Heather with him. She eventually became pregnant to another man and underwent an abortion, following which they reconciled for a few months when, according to the Petitioner, she again left for another man. At that time, the Respondent told him to keep the child, which he did, for several months before returning Heather to her mother. He stated that when Heather was with the Respondent she would visit with him and cry when it came time to leave. He testifiied that he has a close, loving relationship with Heather and that Heather seemed to be a burden to her mother. During the course of their marriage, the Respondent left on at least four occasions which affected Heather and upset her. He has never refused to support the child and has intentions of building his own home. He further testified that his mother cares for the child while he is at work.

On cross examination, he testified that although he has remarried since the divorce, the second wife has left him; that he never beat the Respondent, although he did hit her on occasion after she first struck him. He stated that in the last four years he has had four different jobs and that he had asked his second wife to leave.

Dr. Allen Ryan next testified that he is from DuBois and a psychologist with the Mental Health/Mental Retardation Children's Services. The first contact with Heather was on January 5, 1981 and Dr. Ryen stated that in his opinion this chronic marital conflict has caught Heather in the middle. He directed the Respondent to undergo therapy, but she refused and never came back to the clinic, although she knew of the problem and that therapy was needed. During subsequent examinations, he stated that Heather showed affection toward both parties, but that only the father, Petitioner, returned it. He concluded that Heather's relationship with her father was better and that her mother, Respondent, contributed to her instablity. Heather needs, he said, a place to call home that she can rely on. On cross examination, he stated that Petitioner's parents may be over-indulging Heather and that Heather has a slightly stronger bond with her father.

ORDER:
AND NOW, this 20 day of January, 1981, the within Agreement having been presented to and read by the Court, it is ORDERED that Frank C. Venerick, Jr. shall have the right to weekend visitation rights with Brian S. Venerick, with temporary custody to remain in Debra C. Venerick, pending a final determination of custody by the Court. Visitation shall be exercised every weekend at 524 East Fourth Street, Clearfield, Pennsylvania, from 10:00 a.m. Saturday until 6:00 p.m. Sunday, and at such other times as the parties agree on. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JANUARY 23, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed: In the above captioned Action for Custody, each party seeks to obtain custody of Brian Scott Venerick, two (2) years of age. It appears that the parties, while presently still married, separated and Brian and an adopted daughter remained with their mother, Petitioner above named. Following the separation, Brian's father, Respondent above named, took his son and moved to the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Since commencement of hearing in the above captioned matter, said Respondent has returned th the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and has established a residence with another woman, not yet his wife. Based on the record this Court concludes that promary custody of Brian should be and remain with his mother, Debra C. Venerick, primarily for two reasons. First so that Brian and his sister Melissa can be raised as syblings in the same home, and second, for the reason that Respondent above named previously obtained Brian without benefit of legal proceedings and immediately left the jurisdiction of this Court.WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:
NOW, this 23rd day of January, 1981 following hearing into the above captioned Petition for Costody, it is the ORDER of this Court that primary custody of Brian Scott Venerick be and is hereby placed with his mother, Debra C. Venerick, with visitation rights in his father Respondent above named, as follows: the first and third full weekends of each month, commencing Friday at 5;00 p.m. until Sunday at 5:00 p.m.; alternate holidays; and a four (4) week period each summer to be agreed upon by the parties; all of which until forther Order of Court. MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, continued.

Mrs. Erma Bish next testified that she is the mother of the Petitioner and that he and Heather live with the witness and her husband. She stated that Heather helps around the house and that while the Petitioner is at work she, Mrs. Bish, supervises the child. She further stated that the Petitioner and Heather have a close, loving relationship. On cross examination, she stated that she is sixty-seven years old.

Karen Larson testified that she lives near DuBois; that she is married and the cousin of the Petitioner, and that she lives six or seven hundred feet from him. She testified that Petitioner is of good character; is capable and kind; Heather and her father get along very well, but that she never saw Heather's mother show any emotion toward the child. William Carson of DuBois also testified in support of the character of the Petitioner.

The Respondent first presented Charles Cribbs who stated that he lives in Brockway, is twenty-four years of age and is married to Barbara Bish, the Respondent. He stated that he supported Heather from January to May of 1981 and that on occasion Heather did not want to go to the Petitioner's home for visitation. On cross examination, he stated that he and the Respondent had had marital problems in the past.

Carol Middleton testified that she lives in Falls Creek and is the sister of Charles Cribbs. She stated that Charles and Barbara had liver with her for four months and that during that period, the Respondent took good care of the child and showed Heather affection, She further testified that during the four months, the Petitioner came only once to visit.

Barbara Bish Cribbs, Respondent, testified that she lives in Brockway with her husband, Charles. She stated that when she and the Petitioner were married and living in West Virginia he would not spend time with the family but was continually out with friends. This continued for almost a year and then they were separated. She stated that she went to a house for battered wives where she remained for several months until she got a job and moved in with a girlfriend. She denied that she left the Petitioner for another man, although she did meet another man while working and became pregnant.'

She stated that she got an abortion so that she could reconcile with the Petitioner. She testified that the Petitioner had hit her and that final separation occurred on October of 1979. She stated that the Petitioner had a spotty history of employment and that he did not support Heather while Heather lived with her from January 1980 to July of 1981. She stated that her present husband, Charles Cribbs, supported Heather and that she had never refused visitation rights to the Petitioner. She stated that her husband and Heather got along very well and that they live in their own apartment in Brockway. She further testified that she had been refused visitation from the time Heather went to live with her father until October, 1981, and that the Petitioner had advised her that she could not have visitation until she signed the custody papers.

On cross examination, she testified that she left the Petitioner in 1977 and Heather remained with him. She was gone for several weeks at that time and left again in July, 1978, taking Heather with her. Thereafter, she placed Heather with the Petitioner's mother while she, the Respondent, lived with another man. She stated that she became pregnant to this man, but later decided to reconcile with the Petitioner and obtained an abortion at the Petitioner's demand. She stated the parties reconciled in May of 1979, and the abortion was performed in June of that year. She left the Petitioner in October of 1979, met Mr. Cribbs in December and placed Heather with his mother. She lived with Mr. Cribbs for a period of time before they were married. She stated that she had never refused the Petitioner visitation rights and that the Petitioner, under Court Order, paid support for Heather and never missed a payment. She further stated that Heather went to live with the Petitioner in July of 1981 because she was having trouble with her marriage.

On rebuttal, Gary Bish testified that he was not aware that the Respondent ever went to a home for battered wives, but that she told him at the time of the separation that she wanted her freedom again and that she was having an affair with his boss.

This Court is of the opinion that the best interests of Heather require that she remain with her father, Petitioner herein. In view of the facts that both parties hereto are the natural parents of Heather, the primary concern of this Court must be to determine the best interests of the child. Further, in a contest between parents each party bears the burden of proving that an award to him would be in the best interests of the child. See Commonwealth ex. rel., Parikh vs. Parikh, 449 Pa. 105, 296 A.2d 625 (1972) and Sipe Vs. Shaffer, 396 A.2d 1359 (1979).

Further, the best interests of the child include its physical, intellectual, moral and spiritual wellbeing. See Garrity vs. Garrity, 268 Pa. Super. 217, 407 A.2d 1323. The Court must consider in determining the best interests of the child the character and fitness of the parties, the respenctive homes of the parties, the ability of the parties to absolutely care for the child and to financially provide for the child. Kessler vs. Gregory, 271 Pa. Super. 121, 412 A.2d 605 (1979).

In the instant case, the Respondents attitude toward Heather has been that of less than total commitment. The record reveals that she has in the past left the marital home and permitted Heather to remain behind in the custody of Petitioner, and, on the occasions when she left with Heather, has shortly thereafter either returned Heather to Petitioner or to her (Respondent's) mother. This history of placing her own interests ahead of those of Heather lead this Court to conclude that this unstable pattern of live must adversely affect the child.

On the other hand, Petitioner has evidenced a commitment to Heather that would provide the stable home life and environment that she requires. In contrast to Respondent's actions, Mr. Bish maintained his care and control of Heather even during his marital difficulties during his second marriage. His commitment to Heather's welfare during this stressful period is one factor which convinces this Court that the best interests of Heather are better served by him. See Commonwealth ex. rel., Montgomery v. Montgomery, 442 A.2d 791 (1982).

This Court is also prersuaded that the extra-marital affairs of the Respondent must be considered. The fact that she has engaged in relations with other men, not her husband, and had became pregnant to one must be given close scrutiny. In Commonwealth ex. rel, Grimes v. Grimes, Pa. Super. 422 A.2d 572, the Court stated:

> "The guiding polestar in deciding such matters is the best interests of the children and the non-marital relationship is merely one of the factors which the Court must consider in rendering its decision."

The Court went on to say:

> "Appellant's non-marital relationships were having a detrimental effect on the children because the children were being provided a bad example by the mother in that her relationships were with different men and were not stable."

Finally, the Court is influenced in its decision by testimony of Dr. Allen Ryen, a psychologist with Mental Health Children's Services, who testified that the Respondent refused to undergo the necessary therapy and that in his opinion Heather's relationship with her father was better than that with the Respondent.

Wherefore, the Court enters the following Order:

same description as the previous 1952 deed, but reciting that the tract contained only eighty (80) acres. Likewise, John Livergood used the same description conveying an eighty (80) acre tract to himself and his wife, Bessie, in 1969. These transactions show that the Defendants themselves were under the understanding that only eighty (80) acres were transferred to Ada Livergood in the 1952 deed.

Also, in 1974, Thurston's widow, Edith, transferred the twenty (20) acre tract to the Plaintiffs in this case. She, too, must have been under the impression that Thurston Livergood still owned the twenty (20) acres when he died.

Therefore, this Court finds that there is sufficient evidence to place title in the twenty (20) acre tract in the Plaintiffs and the following Order is entered:

O R D E R

NOW, this 26th day of May, 1981, following hearing into the above-captioned Action for Declaratory Judgment, it is the ORDER of the Court that the right title and ownership in and to the twenty (20) acre tract of land plead in Plaintiffs' Complaint be and is hereby confirmed in the Plaintiffs and that said Plaintiffs have the right to cross the eighty (80) acre tract of land of the Defendants in order to gain access to said Plaintiffs' twenty (20) acre property, and to that end, an easement is granted to the Plaintiffs over the property of the Defendants. Lee, Attorney for Defendants FEBRUARY 18, 1981, ANSWERS TO INTERROGATORIES TO PLAINTIFF, filed by Richard Bell, Attorney at Law, from Bell, Silberblatt, & Swoope, Attorneys at Law. MAY 26, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter comes before the Court upon Plaintiff's claim of title to twenty (20) acres of real estate located in Goshen Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. Charles Livergood obtained title to a one hundred (100) acre tract of land in 1903 and in 1912 conveyed twenty (20) acres of this tract to his brother, Peter Livergood. Peter in turn conveyed the twenty (20) acres to Thurston Livergood, son of the original owner, Charles Livergood. Charles then died intestate in 1932 leaving to survive him, his widow, Ada Livergood, and numerous children, among whom are Defendant John Livergood, and Thurston Livergood, owner of the twenty (20) acre tract. In 1952, Thurston Livergood joined with his brothers and sisters in a deed conveying to their mother, Ada Livergood, "all their undivided interest in that certain tract or parcel of land." This deed recited the property as containing one hundred (100) acres. Plaintiffs are contending that the description was intended to include only eighty (80) acres, and not the twenty (20) acre tract already in Thurston Livergood's name alone. In 1954, Ada Livergood conveyed the property to Defendant John Livergood by deed using the same description as the original deed to Charles Livergood in 1903 and the children's deed to Ada Livergood in 1952; however, the deed in 1954 stated that the tract contained only eighty (80) acres. Defendant John Livergood then conveyed the premises received from his mother to himself and his wife, Bessie, as tenants by the entireties, in 1969. This deed also used the same description as prior deeds but recited that the tract contained only eighty (80) acres. Thurston Livergood died testate in 1974 and devised and bequeathed his entire estate to his widow, Edith M. Livergood, who in 1974 conveyed the twenty (20) acre tract to her children, the Plaintiffs in this case. The issue here is: When Thurston Livergood joined with his brothers and sisters in the execution of the deed conveying "all their undivided interest in all that certain tract or parcel of land" to their mother, Ada Livergood, using the description from the original deed to Charles Livergood, did the interest Thurston held in the twenty (20) acre tract pass to his mother? The 1952 deed from the children of Charles Livergood to their mother, Ada Livergood, stated that the children conveyed "all their undivided interest" to the one hundred (100) acres recited in the description. Plaintiffs' brief points out that Black's Law Dictionary defines "undivided right" as: "An undivided right or title, or a title to an undivided portion of an estate, is that owned by one of two or more tenants in common or joint tenants before partition. Held by the same title by two or more persons, whether their rights are equal as to value or quantity, or unequal." All of the children of Charles Livergood who signed the deed to their mother in 1952 had an undivided right in eighty (80) of the one hundred (100) acres described. Thurston Livergood had sole ownership of the twenty (20) acre tract taken from the one hundred (100) acre tract in 1912. The other children of Charles Livergood had no rights whatsoever to that twenty (20) acre tract. Therefore, there was no "undivided right" to be transferred by any of Charles Livergood's children for that twenty (20) acre tract. Despite Plaintiffs' claim to the contrary, this Court is of the opinion that this set of circumstances does create a doubt or ambiguity in the 1952 deed. When any doubt or ambiguity exist as to the terms of the conveyance, it should receive a construction that will accord with the parties' intentions. 12 P.L.E. 32 The law of the Commonwealth also requires that when an ambiguity exists, the deed should be sonstrued strongly against the drafter. Baltic Development Co. v. Jiffy Enterprises, 435 Pa. 411, 257 A.2d 245 (1969). The facts of this case clearly show that Thurston Livergood intended to transfer only his undivided interest in the eighty (80) acre tract by the 1952 deed to his mother, Ada Livergood, even though the deed recited the description for the one hundred (100) acre tract as Charles Livergood received it in 1903. This is also supported by later actions of the parties. In Lupyan v. Lupyan, 236 Pa. Super. 303, 397 A.2d 1220 (1979), the court held that the conduct of parties subsequent to execution of an ambiguous deed was relevant in determining intended purpose of deed, In 1954 Ada Livergood transferred a tract of land to Defendant John Livergood using the CONTINUED TO PAGE 545

JULY 23, 1981, EXCEPTIONS, filed by David P. King, Attorney at Law.
One copy certified to Attorney.

MARCH 23, 1982 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed
This matter comes before the Court on Defendant's Exceptions to the Master's equitable division of property in the above-captioned Divorce proceeding. The Exceptions filed by the Defendant are general in nature and no Brief was filed in support thereof. Therefore, in determining the matter, this Court will be guided primarily by the Master's Report and Plaintiff's Brief.

By REport filed July 13, 1981, the Master awarded the marital residence to the Plaintiff, along with certain household appliances and other articles. The Defendant received two (2) automobiles, tow (2) trucks, and one (1) motorcycle, as well as large appliances, furniture and tools. Cash and bonds held in both names were to be divided equally between the parties. No permanent alimony was ordered. Defendant in his Exceptions claims that the award to the wife was an abuse of discretion by the Master.

Section 401(d) of the Divorce Code gives the Court the authority to equitably divide, distribute or assign the marital property between the parties in such proportions as the Court deems just after considering all relevant factors and goes on to list ten (10) such relevant factors to be considered. In the instant case, it appears that the parties had been married for seven (7) years and had been the parents of a three and a half (3½) year old child, who is living with the mother, Plaintiff above-named. The Plaintiff is employed, earning One Hundred Nienty-three and 60/100 ($194.60) Dollars per week, while the Defendant earns over Fouteen Hundred ($1,400.00) Dollars per month.

It is clear that the Act does not contemplate an equal distribution of property but an equitable distribution which may or may not result in a 50/50 division. In this case, the Court is satisfied that the Master did not err in his decision, and therefore, the Court enters the Following Order:

ORDER filed

NOW, this 22nd day of March, 1982, it is the ORDER of this Court that Exceptions to the above-captioned Master's Report, and more specifically, his equitable division of property, be and are hereby dismissed. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

Notice is hereby given that GEORGE MACZACZYJ, Defendant above-named, hereby appeals to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania from the Order entered in this matter on the 22nd day of March, 1982. s/David P. King

APRIL 22, 1982, ORDER, filed.
AND NOW, this 22 day of April, 1982, it having come to this Court's attention upon motion of TONI M. CHERRY, Attorney for Plaintiff in the above captioned matter that Section 1 of the Realty Transfer Tax Act As amended 1978, Oct. 5 P.L. 1083, s 1, imd. effective; 1980, Oct. 16, P.L. 1071, No. 176, 72 P.S. Section 8284 provides that a transfer between persons who were previously husband and wife but who have since been divorced is not taxable provided that such transfer is made within three (3) months of the date of the granting of the final decree in Divorce; and this Court having executed two Decrees in the above captioned matter.
IT IS THE ORDER OF THIS COURT that the Order issued on March 18, 1981, was the preliminary order in the above captioned matter and that the Order of March 22, 1982, resolving the remaining issues in the above captioned litigation constituted the final Decree in divorce for purposes of the Pennsylvania Realty Transfer Tax Act. OCTOBER 21, 1980, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

Karen Kiehlmeier has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that she is severely mentally disabled.

She has been examined by J. Edwards, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. s/J. Edwards, M.D.

ORDER

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1979, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1980 through October 14, 1981. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

OCTOBER 28, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT, filed.

DECREE

NOW, this 28 day of October, 1980, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Karen Kiehlmeier continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

Accordingly, the Court recommends that Karen Kiehlmeier be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days from October 11, 1980.

Based on the findings and recommendations of the Mental Health Review Officer, the Court finds that Karen Kiehlmeier may qualify for a less restrictive setting that being placement in the custody of her mother, and therefore the Court directs that Warren State Hospital be permitted to place Karen with her mother on a trial basis.

Pending such trial placement Warren State Hospital is authorized to continue to retain Karen Kiehlmeier for in-patient care and treatment.

In the event that the trial placement of Karen with her mother is found to be inappropriate, it is the ORDER of this Court that the subject be returned to Warren State Hospital for the balance of the one hundred eighty (180) day period without further order of this Court.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr.

AUGUST 5, 1981, AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE, filed.

NOW, July 31, 1981 at 3:55 PM o'clock DST served the within Petition & Order on Ellen Kester, defendant at Market St., Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania by handing to Ellen Kester a true and attested copy of the original Petition & Order and made known to her the contents thereof. So answers, Chester A. Hawkins Sheriff, by Marilyn Wood.

AUGUST 21, 1981, MEMORANDUM and ORDER, filed.

The parties have appeared before the Court on three occasions all concerning custody of their infant child, David Jeremy Duckett, born August 13, 1978. The Honorable John K. Reilly, Jr., entered the following Orders:

> This matter comes before the Court upon a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus filed by David A. Duckett, above-named, asking that custody of the son of the parties, David Jeremy Duckett, be awarded to him. David Jeremy Duckett was born August 13, 1978, and the parties thereafter were divorced. Since birth, the child has been residing with his mother, Respondent above-named, who remarried. Following her remarriage and while the child was living with the Respondent and her new husband, on four separate occasions, injuries occured to the child and medical attention was required.
> While this Court finds as a fact that Ellen Kester was not directly responsible for the injuries, and further, that no physical abuse on her part caused the said injuries, nevertheless this Court is concerned that Respondent did permit the occurrences to continue without taking positive action. This lax attitude is the basis for the following Order:
> NOW, this 23rd day of January, 1981, following hearing into the above-captioned Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, it is the ORDER of this Court that primary custody of David Jeremy Duckett be and is hereby placed with Petitioner, his father David A. Duckett, with visitation rights in Respondent above-named as follows: The first and third full weeks of each month, commencing Saturday at 12:00 noon until the following Saturday at 12:00 noon; alternate holidays; and four (4) weeks each summer to be agreed upon by the parties; all of which until further Order of Court. Opinion to be filed in the event of Appeal.
> NOW, this 3rd day of February, 1981, the Order of this Court dated January 23, 1981, is hereby amended as follows: In the event that either party shall have custody of Jeremy Duckett for a period or more than one (1) week, then during said period the party out of custody shall have the right of visitation with Jeremy on the intervening weekend(s) commencing at 12:00 noon on Saturday until 5:00 p.m. on Sunday.
> IT is the further ORDER of this Court that the parent in custody shall advance Jeremy's religious training by taking him to Sunday School at the West Side United Methodist Church or a church of similar denomination each Sunday morning.

Presently before us is the Petition of the Plaintiff who seeks a modification of the Orders-particularly seeking to rescind the "split custody" ordered by Judge Reilly. We have received considerable testimony from the parties and their respective witnesses. Each presented testimony of a psychologist of his and her choice; and briefly stated that testimony of each of the psychologists was to the definite effect that "split custody" was not at all feasible nor desirable in any respect in this case. With that, we are in total agreement; the testimony establishing that it was definitely to the detriment of the child to engage in such an arrangement. This is not to indicate that at the time the Orders were entered by Judge Reilly that his Orders were wrong in any respect; but the actions of the parties thereafter established that they themselves could not accept a situation of that nature. Thus, we conclude from all of the testimony that when party must have primary custody and the other party granted liberal visitation rights, all of which shall remain until material changes, such as increased age of the child and other circumstances, shall require change. Succinctly, this is necessary because the child's character, health and personalty were extremely affected by the open bitterness shown by each of the parents, all of which resulted in detriment to the child. Therefore, we enter the following

NOW, August 21, 1981, it is hereby ORDERED that primary custody be and it is hereby granted to the Plaintiff, David A. Duckett, until further Order of Court. It is the futher ORDER of this Court, however, that the said Ellen Kester, mother of said child, shall have the following rights of visitation:

1. She shall have the right to have said child visit with her on alternate weekends, commencing August 28, 1981, from Friday at 5:00 p.m. and terminating on the following Sunday at 6:00 p.m.

2. The said mother shall have the right to have said child visit with her on the following holidays and birthday as hereinafter set forth, to wit: New Year's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Birthday. On alternate years as to each of those days, she shall have the right to have said child visit with her from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., commencing with Labor Day, 1981. In the alternative years, she shall have the right to have said child visit with her on the eve of said days from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

3. In each summer, by arrangement made between the parties at least two months in advance of the same, the said mother shall have the right to have said child visit with her for a period of two months, said period of visitation to commence either of June 1, or July 1, or August 1 of each of said summers. If the parties shall fail such agreement, upon application of either party, the Court shall thereupon fix the vacation period in thos regards.

4. It is the further ORDER of this Court that there shall be permitted reasonable telephonic and letter contacts, together with presence at any church or school functions, between the child and his mother. It is to be recognized that the mother's requests or demands in these respects, however, are to be reasonable and with full consideration of the father of said child.

5. It shall be the duty of the father, David A. Duckett, to transport said child to and from the home of the mother, Ellen Kester, for the accomplishment of each and every of the visitations hereinabove set forth.

In all other respects, the Orders heretofore entered by this Court shall remain in full force and effect.

Both parties are hereby admonished to completely abstain and refrain from any show of animosity or other action or words which can in any way affect the child. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.
