WETTERICH, filed.

SEPTEMBER 25, 1981, OPINION AND ORDER, filed.

Plaintiff Owens, trading and doing business as Owens Coal Mining Company, (hereinafter "Owens" received a purchase order from defendant, Mountain Energy Resources, Inc., for the purchase of 30,000 tons of coal at a stated price of $23.00 per ton. Owens delivered 33,055.20 tons under the order, but was not paid the full amount due. He now sues for the stated price less amounts paid to the defendant and plus penalties assessed by the third party purchaser, National Gypsum, Inc. The defendant counterclaims for an additional penalty it has assessed against Owens. The defendant also counterclaims for the value of future contracts it anticipated having with Owens and National Gypsum.

Plaintiff has moved for summary judgment on the basis that defendant's claims are barred by the Statute of Frauds and the Parol Evidence Rule. Defendant requests that the motion for summary judgment be denied on the basis that the role of industry custom in the alleged agreement of the parties is a jury question. The court agrees with the contentions of the plaintiff and will grant his motion for summary judgment.

Plaintiff claims that the defendant, as a matter of law, is not entitled to recover his loss of earnings on the alleged future contract with the plaintiff since that contract violates the Statute of Frauds. Based on a close reading of the facts in the record and the application of thos facts to the law, the court finds that the plaintiff must be sustained.

According to the deposition of John Wetterich, chairman of the board and president of the defendant corporation, there was no writing to indicate that a relationship existed between his company and Owens beyond August, 1980. (Deposition of John Wetterich, p. 20) Wetterich also stated that the plaintiff had completed his obligation to deliver 30,000 tons of coal under the original contract. (Deposition supra, at 25-26.) The Statute of Frauds section of the Uniform Commercial Code 12 A-Section 2-201, provides:

> ".....a contract for the sale of goods for the price of $500 or more is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless there is some writing sufficient to indicate that a contract for sale has been made by the parties and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought....."

Since a sale of coal for the purchase price of 14 million dollars is certainly the type of contract envisioned by the Code, it is clear from the testimony of Wetterich that the contract alleged by the defendant is legally unenforceable.

Defendant contends that, despite the Statute of Frauds, the court must also take into account the custom of the coal industry and the course of dealings between the parties to determine whether a valid contract exists: Lancaster Transportation Co. vs. New York and New Brunswick Auto Express Co., Inc., 187 Pa. Super. 621, 146 A.2d 150 (1958). However, the court may not use evidence of custom or course of dealings to create a contract where none has been made by the parties or implied by law: L.M. Hagedorn and Co. vs. Godwin and Strauss, Inc., 142 Pa. Super. 547, 16 A. 2d 640 (1941). Since no contract exists, it would be fruitless for the court or a jury to take either the custom of the industry or the course of dealing by the parties into consideration.

Plaintiff also moves for summary judgment on the issue of the additional $27,000 penalty imposed by the defendant. It is clear to the court that this penalty is not an enforceable part of the contract, nor is it an enforceable contract by itself.

"When the instrument does not contain the entire contract, parol evidence may be introduced to explaint the meaning the parties intended the instrument to convey": Fenner vs. Smyth, 62 Pa. Super. 538 (1916); Keller and Voelker, Inc. vs. Kellett Aircraft Corp., 192 P. Super. 25, 159 A.2d 561 (1960). The best means of determineing whether a subject is embodied in the writing is to ascertain whether or not "the alleged extrinsic negotiations is dealt with at all in the writing then presumably the writing was meant to represent all of the transaction on the element": Grubb vs. Rockey, 366 Pa. 592, 79 A.2d 255 (1951); Gianni vs. Russell and Co., Inc., 281 Pa. 320, 126 A. 791 (1924). In the instant case, the contract between the parties is embodied in the purchase order, which includes quantity, price and penalty provisions. Therefore, an additional penalty term could not be introduced to explaint the meaning of the parties since such an explanation is already adequately given in the contract itself.

Finally, even if an agreement as to the penalty did exist, it would fail for lack of considera tion. The defendant had a previously existing obligation to pay for the coal it received from the plaintiff. Therefore, any additional agreement would have to be supported by further consideration Since no such consideration exists in the instant case, any agreement to assess an additional penalty must fail (See DiSante v. Financial Co.,251 Pa. Super. 184, 380 A.2d 439 (1977)).

In view of the foregoing, we enter the following

NOVEMBER 12, 1980, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

James Flanders has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by William M. Mann, M.D. ans was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore request that:B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for inpatient treatment. /s/ William M. Mann, M.D.

ORDER:

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1979, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1979 through October 14, 1980. By the Court, John K. NOVEMBER 25, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 25 day of November, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that James Flanders is no longer severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, to the extent that he requires in-patient hospitalization.

Accordingly, the Court directs that James Flanders be discharged to an intermediate facility where he will receive supervision and follow-up care and be able to participate in supervised programs.

Based on the finding of fact by the Mental Health Review Officer that the subject desires to be placed in the Warren Area, the Court further orders that Warren Social Services make every effort to place James Flanders in an intermediate facility in the Warren, Pennsylvania, Area.

Until such time that the appropriate placement can be made, the Court authorizes Warren State Hospital to retain James Flanders as a patient for his own health, safety, protection and welfare.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

		Pro by Atty 30.00 Atty 3.00 Postage 1.53 Pro by Atty 20.00 Postage 3.25	OCTOBER 27, 1981 OPINION AND ORDER filed ON July 21, 1980, the DuBois Stocking Bridge Company (hereinafter referred to as DSB) applied to the Respondent, Sandy Township Zoning Board (hereinafter referred to as Board), for a special variance to erect a coal sizing and loading facility on a 36-acre tract in the township. The Board convened on September 2, 1980 to consider the application. William and Florence Reed, Petitioners, appeared without counsel and declared their opposition to such construction. However, the Board granted the variance on September 12, 1980, on which date they sent notice of such decision to Petitioners. On October 1, 1980, Petitioners requested rehearing, which was denied. Thereafter, and on October 13, 1980, the parties stipulated that Petitioners were to be considered as parties aggrieved for purposes of this appeal to the Court of Common Pleas. ppeal was thereafter filed by Petitioners on November 12, 1980. DSB, as Intervenor, filed a motion to quash, claiming that Petitioners' appeal is barred under the provisions of 42 P.A.C.S., §5571-5572. Under Section provisions, appeals are required to be made within thirty days of a zoning board decision. The Intervenor also maintains that Petitioners' request for rehearing had no effect on the running of the statute, and thus their appeal is barred. We must agree with Intervenor's contentions and grant their motion to quash. The time limitation for an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas from the decision of a zoning board is codified in Title 42 fo the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes. Under this Title, and appeal must be taken within thirty days of the entry of an order from which the appeal is taken; 42 PA. C.S. § 5571(b). An order is entered when it is mailed to the parties, the date of mailing being the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the order: Taylor v. Zoning Board of Borough of Lincoln, 46 PA Com. 644, 407 A.2d 910 (1979). Since the decision of the Board was mailed on or about September 12, 1980, Petitioners' appeal filed on November 12, 1980 must be barred by statute. Statutory appeals periods are strictly enforced in zoning cases. Therefore, an appeal taken after the thirty-day period must be quahsed. Barring the granting oa a stay of proceedings, a motion for a rehearing will not act to extend the thirty-day limit. Kravitz v. Zoning Board of Adjustment, 415 Pa. 97, 202 A.2d 64 (1964). Therefore, although the Patitioners did request a rehearing from the Board on October 1, 1980, that request and its subsequent denial were not sufficient to extend the thirty-day period. The Petitioners contend that since they did not become "parties aggrieved" until that fact was so stipulated on October 13, 1980, the thirty-day limit did not begin running until that date. Based on a reading of the statute at issue, the Court finds the Petitioners' claim to be without merit. 42 Pa. C.S.A. §5571(b) states: "... an appeal from a tribunal or other government unit to a court or from a court to an appellate court shall be commenced within thirty days after the antry of an order from which the appeal is taken." It is clear from the language of this sta tute that distinctions between "parties aggrived" and "persons aggrieved" are irrelevant in this area. The statute merely sets a time limitation based on the date of the entry of the Order. It does not state that an individual who becomes a part aggrieved may use the date of this change in status as a starting point for the tolling of the statute. See 42 Pa. C.S.A. §5571(b). Clearly, the distinction between "person aggrieved" and"party aggrieved" is validly drawn when determining the correct prcedure for appealing the decision of a zoning board. A person apprieved must first file objections to a decision of the zoning board with that board. A party aggrieved may appeal directly to the Court of Common Pleas. 53 P.S. 11006 and 11007 (1978). However, it is also clear that while this difference in status would effect an individual's standing on appeal, ti does not have any bearing on the Court's jurisdiction to hear an appeal when the time limitations have passed. by Atty Shff. Hawkins	19.21	JUNE 18, 1981, OPINION AND ORDER, filed. Plaintiff has sued the incorporated defendant and the individually owned defendant in this action of Replevin seeking to recover a terminal, being a part of a computer system. Testimony was taken this date; and we find that plaintiff has not sustained the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that ownership belongs in it, rather than in the individually owned defendant, Clyde, Ferraro & Company. We find that although Plaintiff is owned the sum of two thousand thirty-eight dollars and ninety cents for the terminal which it sold to the incorporated defendant, Clyde, Ferraro & Company, Inc., the individually owned defendant, Preferred Date Processing, Inc. It is acknowledged that security transaction was not filed until some time after the terminal was sold to Clyde, Ferraro & Company, nor was there any proof that they knew of the claim of plaintiff. To find for the plaintiff in this case would be to enter into some conjecture. It is true that the money which was paid to Preferred Date Processing, Inc., by Clyde, Ferraro & Company, was for a sum greater than the amount which it promised to pay for the terminal, but the proof of defendant was such that the Court could not determine the credibility issue in anyone's favor except Clyde, Ferraro & Company. The testimony established on behalf of Clyde, Ferraro & Company by its owner, Leo Ferraro, and the former president of Preferred Date Processing, Inc., was such as to weigh heavily in defendant's favor. Thus, we would find in favor of Date-Tron, Inc., versus Preferred Date Processing, Inc., because of its failure to enter an appearance or to appear at Trial, when and if application for judgment is applied for; and also as to plaintiff's action against Clyde, Ferraro & Company, we enter the following: Order: NOW, June 16, 1981, we find for Clyde, Ferraro & Company, individual defendant, in the claim of Date-Tron, Inc., against it. Therefore, we dismiss the writ of Replevin. BY THE COURT, /s/ John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

Richard Mattern, II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1979 through October 14, 1980. By the Court, John K. ORDER:

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

NOVEMBER 26, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER's REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 26 day of November, 1980, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Ann Noble continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court, as previously, is of the opinion, based on the Mental Health Review Officer's findings and recommendation and the testimony of Dr. Julia B. Edwards, that Ann Noble may qualify for a less restrictive setting such as Christ the King Manor Nursing Home in DuBois, Pennsylvania.

Therefore, the Court orders Social Services of Warren State Hospital to continue to take steps to have Ann Noble placed in Christ the King Manor in DuBois, Pennsylvania, on a trial basis for a period of four (4) weeks to determine the appropriateness of such placement.

The total period of commitment shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days at Warren State Hospital.

In the event the subject cannot adjust or is unmanageable in said nursing home or the skill and care that the subject needs is not available, then the subject shall be returned to Warren State Hospital without further order of this Court for the balance of the one hundred eighty (180) day period.

Pending placement in said nursing home, Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject for in-patient supportive care and treatment for her own protection and welfare.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

DECEMBER 23, 1980, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT, filed.

DECREE

NOW, this 23 day of December, 1980, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Joseph Cable continues to be severely mentally disabled.

As no less restrictive facility seems suitable for the supervision required in regard to the subject, the Court directs that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

On June 10, 1980, the Curwensville Area School Board approved the suspension of three (3) teachers who were notified by letter dated June 12, 1980. In said letter, the School Board indicated that the suspension was due to a substantial decrease in pupil enrollment. The collective bargaining agreement between Curwensville Area School District and the Curwensville Area Education Association states:

> "Article II, Rights if Employees
> Section C: Job Security and Job Progression
>
> "The parties agree that the following sections of the Public School Code of 1949, as amended, represent the complete agreement between the parties concerning job security or job progression for members of the bargaining unit: Sections 508, 510, 522, 1101 through 1181, 1201 through 1212. (Arbitration Award, p. 2)."

A grievance was filed under the terms of the agreement contending that the suspensions were not in accordance with Section 1124 of the School Code, 24 P.S. 11-1124, which states:

> "Any board of school directors may suspend the necessary number of professional employees, for any of the causes hereinafter enumerated; (1) substantial decrease in pupil enrollment in the school district; (2) curtailment or alteration of the educational program on recommendation of the Superintendent....approved by the Department of Public Instruction....; (3) consolidation of schools,....when such consolidation makes it unnecessary to retain the full staff of professional employees; (4) when new school districts are established as the result of reorganization of school districts...., and when such reorganization makes it unnecessary to retain the full staff of professional employees."

The Board denied the grievance and the dispute was submitted to an arbitrator. At the hearing, the Board took the position that the suspensions were due to a decline in enrollment, a permissible reason for suspension under the above Section. The Association argued that the suspensions were for budgetary reasons which is not included among the reasons set forth in said Section. The arbitrator found in favor of the Association and the School District now appeals to this Court.

The District argues that the arbitrator ignored the issue of substantial decrease in enrollment and ruled in favor of the Association solely on the bases of his finding that the School Board was motivated solely by budgetary reasons. In his award, the arbitrator states at page 6:

> "The arbitrator would find it difficult to substitute his decision for that of the district's. The Association has presented a strong case bearing on decline in enrollment in the district. However, it is the evidence on the other issue that decides this case."

It seems to this Court that while the arbitrator found a decline in enrollment, he, nevertheless, determined that the reasons for the suspension was budgetary. Whether or not this Court would have reached the same conclusion based on the record is immaterial since this Court concludes that in view of the narrow scope of view afforded that issue cannot be raised.

The Appellate Courts have highly circumscribed this Court's scope of review. In a long line of cases, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has held if the arbitrator's interpretation can in any rational way be derived from the agreement, then the court cannot overturn the award. In Leechburg Area School District v. Dale, et al, 424 A.2d 1309 (1981), the Court stated:

> "'It is the arbitrator's construction which was bargained for, and so far as the arbitrator's decision concerns the construction of the contract, the courts have no business overruling him because their interpretation of the contract is difference from his.' United Steelworkers v. Enterprise Wheel and Car Corp. 363 U.S. 593, 599, 80 S.Ct. 1358, 1362, 4 LEd.2d 1424 (1960).
> "(1) The essence test requires a determination as to whether the terms of the agreement encompass the subject matter of the dispute. Where it is determined that the subject matter of the dispute is encompassed within the terms of the agreement, the validity of the arbitrator's interpretatin is not a matter of concern to the court."

The fundamental question presented to the arbitrator was whether the suspensions were due to a decline in student enrollment or were budgetary reasons. While the arbitrator concluded that there was a decline in student enrollment, he nevertheless found that the reasons for the suspensions were budgetary and not one of the permissible bases for suspension set forth in the Act above. The Supreme Court in Leechburg went on to state:

> "The fact that this arbitrator in analyzing this dispute may have failed to properly perceive the question presented or erroneously resolved it, does not provide justification for judicial interference. Out inquiry ends once it is determined that the issue properly defined is within the terms of the agreement."

This Court then is of the opinion that is has no authority to disturb the arbitrator's award in view of the fact that his interpretation can be derived from the agreement in that the terms of the agreement encompass the subject matter of the dispute.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

Order:

NOW, this 4th day of September, 1981, following argument into the above-captioned Appeal from an Award of Arbitrator, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Appeal be and is hereby dismissed and the award of the Arbitrator confirmed. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JUNE 11, 1982, CONSENT ORDER, filed.
Two copies certified to Attorney
AND NOW, this 11 day of June, 1982, it is hereby stipulated by and between William C. Kriner, Esq., counsel for the Plaintiffs in the above-captioned matter, and John R. Miller, Jr., Esq., counsel for the Defendant, R. S. Carlin, Inc., the following Order be entered by the Court:

1. That Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc. shall pay to the Plaintiff royalty for coal mined and removed from sixty acres located in Covington Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and identified on the Clearfield County Tax Assessment Map as No. 111-S5-1, the sum of five percent of the sale price for each and every net ton mined and removed from the property. It is understood by and between the parties that tonnage removed was approximately 20,000 tons, and Carlin agrees to pay to the Plaintiffs for the coal already removed from said premises the sum of $25,000.00. The $25,000.00 shall be paid within ten days of the entry of this Order unless other arrangements are made by the parties.

2. That Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc., shall pay to the Plaintiff the sum of five percent of the selling price of the coal for each and every net ton of coal mined and removed from the sixty acres in Covington Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, or 75 cents per net ton, whichever is greater, from the date of this Order to the completion of operations on the subject premises or the termination of operations on the subject premises by Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc. The selling price of the coal is understood to be the price received by R. S. Carlin, Inc. f.o.b. Carlin's loading point, which is the pit.

3. That R. S. Carlin, Inc. shall cause to have within five days of the date of this Order a dated and fully executed quit-claim deed conveying the surface rights and any and all other rights R. S. Carlin, Inc. claims in the sixty acres located in Covington Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, as shown on the Clearfield County Tax Assessment Map as No. 111-S5-1, and as shown on the survey of Brian Sekula, Registered Professional Land Surveyor, dated May 13, 1982, to the Plaintiff. Said deed shall be held in escrow by John R. Miller, Jr., attorney for R. S. Carlin, Inc., and shall be delivered to William C. Kriner, Esq., attorney for the plaintiff, or his nominee, whenever Carlin completes mining operations in the area, or if R. S. Carlin, Inc. terminates mining operations in the area, or if R. S. Carlin, Inc. is the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding, or if R. S. Carlin transfers more than 10% of its ownership to another entity. If, however, Carlin fails to mine coal for any period of sixty consecutive days, unless prevented by strikes, work stoppages, or acts of God, then R. S. Carlin, Inc. agrees to pay by the 25th of the following month a minimum royalty payment of $50.00 per month, each month thereafter, until mining operations are again resumed, which minimum royalty payment shall be credited to the account of Carlin and may be applied for the payment of royalty and coal mined and shipped in subsequent months.

4. That within five days of the entry of this Order the Plaintiff and Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc. shall exchange mutual releases and the above-captioned matter shall be settled, discontinued and ended as to Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc.

5. That it is understood by and between the parties that in the event that Plaintiffs are unable to settle the issues in this case with Defendants Brown, then the Plaintiffs shall voluntarily discontinue this action with respect to the Defendants Brown and commence an appropriate action within sixty days of the date of this Order against the Browns concerning the ownership, possession and control of the coal rights lying in, under and upon the sixty acres in Covington Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and damages for coal appropriated by Browns.

6. That R. S. Carlin, Inc. shall not be responsible for any remedies or damages recovered by the Plaintiffs in any other lawsuit against the Browns. In the event the Plaintiffs are successful in their litigation against the Browns, then Carlin shall pay to the Plaintiffs the sum of four percent of the selling price of the coal for each ton of coal mined and removed from the sixty acres, or 60 cents per net ton, whichever is greater. Selling price shall be defined as the price received by R. S. Carlin, Inc. f.o.b. Carlin's loading point, which is the pit.

7. That during the operations of R. S. Carlin, Inc. on the subject premises, after the entry of this Order, the Plaintiffs shall have all of the same rights and privileges that were granted to the Browns by Defendant R. S. Carlin Inc. in the lease dated January 28, 1977, all said rights and privileges being incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof; except that no monetary payments therein required of Carlin shall be applicable to the Plaintiff herein, and R. S. Carlin, Inc. shall have the rights and privileges granted to him as lessee under said lease agreement on the subject premises, the same as if there were a lease agreement between the Plaintiffs and the Defendant R. S. Carlin, Inc., except as to monetary payments which shall be governed by this Stipulation. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, P.J.
We consent to the entry of the foregoing Order. s/John R. Miller, Jr. s/William C. Kriner

JANUARY 21, 1981 PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976. Continued from 80-2515-CD

Jean Shilala has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by William Mann, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment.

ORDER

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1979, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1980 through October 14, 1981. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JANUARY 27, 1981, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 27 day of January, 1981, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Jean Shilala continues to be severely mentally disabled.

Accordingly, the Court directs that Jean Shilala be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for inpatient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

APRIL 13, 1981, PETITION FOR CUSTODY, filed by David P. King
ORDER
AND NOW, this 10 day of April, 1981, in consideration of the foregoing Petition, it is hereby ORDERED AND DECREED that a full hearing on the merits of the same shall be heard by the Court on the 18 day of June, 1981, at 9:00 o'clock A.M., in the Main Courtroom of the Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, Pennsylvania. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

JUNE 22, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.
The Instant Parties were married on August 18, 1973; a son, Nicholas A. Donati, was born December 7, 1978; and after two or three years immediately preceding separation in which the Parties had marital difficulties, the wife left the home on January 27, 1981. She instituted action in divorce on February 26, 1981, asking not only absolute divorce, but also distribution of property and determination of custody of their only child. The matter is before us on Petition for Custody filed by each of the Parties. However, preceding the Hearing which was held on June 18, 1981, by agreement of the Parties an Interim Order of Custody was entered by this Court on February 9, 1981. That Order provided that they would "exercise joint custody" of the child, "with each parent having custody of said child on alternating weeks from Monday through Sunday, and during such week that one Party does not have custody, they shall have the right of temporary custody for three (3) evenings during that week as well as any further times as can be arranged and are mutually agreeable." It was further decreed "that until subsequent agreement of the Parties, or Order of Court, neither of the Parties shall remove the child from the jurisdiction of the Court."

Final Hearing upon the Petiions for Custody was held on June 18, 1981, with extensive testimony given by each of the Parties. A very singular circumstance arose from the Hearing, and that is that the Court must find that both Parties are most fit. In fact, each of the Parties, despite minor matters of dispute concerning their fitness, affirmatively declared the fitness of the other as a parent. Whatever may have been the difficulties which led to the irretrievable disillusion of their marriage, there is nothing in the record which would weigh heavily upon the side of either of them for sole custody. The character and personality of each was displayed to be most commendable, and, thus, we are left solely with a determination of what arrangement would be best in the interests of the welfare of the child. With consideration being given to the fact that the child is just over two years of age; that each of the parents can answer to all of the child's needs, financially and otherwise; and considering the fact that the Parties live in close proximity to each other (in fact, each of them work in the same community, DuBois); and further, considering the fact that each of them is able to provide transportation, we are stisfied that the Interim Order should be continued as is; this with the finding that constant supervision of the child by both of the Parties with their dispoaying to him more than adequate considerations of love and attention, the child will fare well under the circumstance.

We do not intend to foreclose any further application for change in Order, since with the child's attainment of school age, the foregoing arrangements would be to some extent difficult of management and would not be in the best interests of the child. Nor do we provide in this Order for amounts of support to be provided by each, with the understanding that the Parties will answer in that respect; but if they do not, the same will be answered for in the divorce proceeding or a separate action for support.
