Rosaria Francemore has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that she is severely mentally disabled.

She has been examined by Wm. M. Mann Jr., M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily commited for another period of inpatient treatment. s/William M. Mann, Jr., M.D.

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. by the Court John K. NOW, this 26 day of Februar, 1981, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Rosaria Francemore continues to be severely mentally disabled.

As no less restrictive facility appears suitable for the supervision required in regard to this subject, the Court directs that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOW, this 27 day of February, 1981, the report of the Mental Health Review Officer is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Tamara Bennett continues to be severely mentally disabled. The Court, however, finds that the subject is not so severely mentally disabled requiring commitment to Warren State Hospital and that more appropriate placement would be either in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Washington, DC, or Dixmont State Hospital in Pennsylvania.

The Court, therefore, ORDERS that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital for her own protection and welfare until such time that the subject can be transferred to Dixmont State Hospital Psychiatric Unit for the deaf in Pennsylvania, or St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Washington, DC. The period of commitment is for one hundred eighty (180) days.

Warren State Hospital is authorized to transfer the subject, Tamara Bennett, to the Psychiatric Unit for the deaf of the Dixmont State Hospital or St. Elizabeth's Hospital without further Order of Court.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

OCTOBER 23, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Plaintiffs George R. Brocail and Jean Brocail are the Administrators of the Estate of George M. Brocail who died as a result of an authomobile accident on February 23, 1980. This suit seeks to recover from Decedent's no-fault motor vehicle insurance carrier work loss benefits which they claim are due the Estate. Defendant has filed Preliminary Objections asking that the Complaint be dismissed on the basis that Plaintiffs are not entitled to work loss benefits because such benefits are due only to survivors of the Decedent, a fact not alleged by the Plaintiffs. This Court does herein sustain the Preliminary Objections of the Defendant and dismiss the Complaint.

> The No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Act states: "...if the accident resulting in injury occurs in this Commonwealth, any victim or any survifor of a deceased victim is entitled to receive basic loss benefits." 40 P.S. 1009.201 (1974)

Among these basis loss benefits are benefits from work loss which are defined as:

> "(a)" loss of gross income of a victim ...and
> "(b) reasnnable expenses of the victim for hiring a substitute to perform self-employment services, thereby mitigating loss of income, or for hiring special help, thereby enabling a victim to work and mitigate loss of income." 40 P.S. 1009.103 (1974)

The Plaintiffs in the case at bar contend that the estates of the decedent are entitled to collect such work loss benefits citing cases of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, Allstate Insurance Co. v. Heffner, 491 Pa. 447, 421 A.2d 629 (1980), as authority. This Court has determined, however, that Heffner is not relevant to the case at large. In Heffner, plaintiffs had been given survivor's loss benefits by the insurance company but had been denied work loss benefits and the appeal followed. The Supreme Court in Heffner was asked to determine whether the term "victim" may be distinguished from the term "deceased victim" in determineing a survivor's rights to benefits under the No-Fault Act. The Court decided that no distinction could be had on that basis and that work loss benefits could be paid to survivors. The Heffner case did not reach the issue of whether work loss benefits are due the non-dependent relatives of a decedent, but only determined the issue of whether a survivor had a right to such benefits.

A survivor is defined in the No-Fault Act as"
(a) Spouse; or
(b) Child, parent, brother, sister or relative dependent upon the deceased for support. See 40 P.S. 1009.201.

Since only a victim or a survivor of a deceased victim is entitled to receive work loss benefits absent a showing that they are survivors of the decedent within the terms of the Act, Plaintiffs' claim must fail. See 40 P.S. 1009.201. In the instant case, the Plaintiffs have not alleged that they are survivors of the decedent but filed their claim as Administrators of the Estate of the deceased. No allegations are contained in the Complaint that they were dependent on the decedent for support, and therefore the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER

NOW, this 22nd day of October, 1981, upon consideration of Defendant's Preliminary Objections, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Objections be and are hereby sustained and the Complaint dismissed. By theCourt, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr, President Judge

MARCH 13, 1981, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

Jean Ann Kennelly has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that she is severely mentally disabled.

She has been examined by Roger B. Haglund and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: A. As the patient is currently in DuBois Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 303, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for partial hospitalization. s/Pamela Gillung, RN

ORDER

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1980, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1980 through October 14, 1981. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuaat to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

MARCH 20, 1981, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER's REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

AND NOW, this 20 day of March, 1981, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Jean Ann Kennelly is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court does find, however, that the subject is not so severely mentally disabled to warrant in-patient treatment in a state mental institution, and, further, that the subject qualifies for a less restrictive placement.

Therefore, the Court ORDERS that the subject be released to the custody of her parents, Dorothy and Stephen Kennelly, until such time that the subject can be placed in a Community Living Arrangement or similar program.

Accordingly, the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program is directed to take immediate steps to secure placement of the subject in a Community Living Arrangement and to secure such placement prior to June 1, 1981.

Pending such placement, it is the further ORDER of this Court that Jean Ann Kennelly participate in the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Clinic Partial Hospitalization Program and that the subject, Jean Ann Kennelly, is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED to attend the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Clinic Partial Hospitalization Program, Monday through Friday from 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M.

The costs of this proceeding, Attorney John Sughrue's fee and the Mental Health Review Officer's fee shall be reimbursed to Clearfield County by the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program. BY THE COURT, /s/John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

	COMMONWEALTH OF PENNA.	MARCH 18, 1981, PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM SUSPENSION OF MOTOR VEHICLE OPERATING PRIVILEGES filed by James A. Naddeo of Belin, Belin & Naddeo One copy mailed to Commonwealth Dept. Trans. WHEREFORE, your Petitioner respectfully requests your Honorable Court to grant a hearing to determine the propriety of the suspension of petitioner's operating privileges and to stay all proceedings pending hearing thereon. s/James A. Naddeo
	81-704-CD	ORDER AND NOW, this 18 day of March, 1981, upon consideration of the petition of James E. Conrad by his attorneys, Belin, Belin & Naddeo, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that a hearing be held to determine the propriety of the suspension of Petitioner's operating privileges as set forth in the Commonwealth's Notice of Withdrawal of Motor Vehicle Privileges dated February 17, 1981. Suspension to be stayed pending result of said hearing to be held on the 23rd day of April, 1981, at 3:00 p.m. at the Clearfield County Court House. BY THE COURT, John K. Reilly, Jr., P.J.

	Pro by Atty 30.00
	Atty 3.00	SEPTEMBER 4, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. One copy certified to Commonwealth of PA, Department of Transportation. This Court held hearing upon defendant's Petition alleging that the points assigned to him for violations in his driving record were not properly computed. As a result of his conviction of violating Section 3362 of the Motor Vehicle Code on August 7, 1980, he was assigned four (4) points. As a result, his record showed a total accumulation of twelve (12) points; and, therfore, his license was suspended for a period of sixty (60) days. This was in compliance with Section 1539 of the Vehicle Code. He did contend that the notice, assignment and calculation of points were defective. Section 1551 requires that the Department "promptly notify" each person whose license or permit is suspended as a result of the accumulation of points. Such notice must be given within six (6) months following conviction resulting in adding points to cause this suspension. If such prompt notice is not given, the Department is prevented from suspending such person's license. The record shows that the Department's notice of suspension was made in proper time; and we find that the accumulation of points was entirely within the allowance of the Code. The record of the defendant sustains the Deparment in every respect. All exhibits having been examined, we are satisfied that the action of the Department was entirely proper. Therefore, in view of the foregoing, we enter the following: ORDER: NOW, SEPTEMBER 1, 1981, appeal and Petition are dismissed and the suspension imposed by the Department of Transportation is hereby affirmed. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JULY 6, 1981, AFFIDAVIT OF CONSENT, filed by Joseph Colavecchi for Timothy L. Wallace.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1981, AFFIDAVIT OF CONSENT, by Timothy L. Wallace; AFFIDAVIT OF CONSENT, by Janet C. Wallace; DIVORCE DECREE: filed by Joseph Colavecchi, Esquire.
Decree:

AND NOW, this 9th day of September, 1981, the Plaintiff having filed a Complaint under the Divorce Code, Section 201(c), which Complaint was filed on March 27, 1981. The Plaintiff and Defendant have both filed Affidavits of Consent, which Affidavits were filed more than ninety (90) days after the filing of the Complaint, averring that the marriage is irretrievably broken and consenting to the entry of a final Decree of Divorce.

Both the parties, by their attorneys, have stated that neither of the parites believe that marriage counseling would be anything but a waste of time and money. The Court, therefore, does not require that either of the parties submit to marriage counseling.

After review of all of the pertinent papers as set forth above, the Court hereby decrees that Timothy L. Wallace be divorced and forever separated from the nuptial ties and bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between himself and Janet C. Wallace, and all the rights, duties ro claims accruing to either of the said parties in pursuance of said marriage shall cease and determine and each of them shall be at liberty to marry again as though they had never been heretofore married.

This Decree specifically includes the following obligations on the parties, heretofore agreed to by them:

(a) That custody of the parties' child, Scott Wallace, age years, shall be with his mother, the Defendant herein;

(b) That the Plaintiff husband will pay the sum of One Hundred Fifty ($150.00) Dollars per month for the support of said child, with said support to be paid directly to the Defendant wife on or before the 15th day of each month;

(c) That Plaintiff husband will provide health insurance coverage for the parties' minor child and will pay one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the medical expenses for said child which exceed this coverage.

(d) That by separate agreement, the parties hereto have equitably divided all marital property and shall be bound thereby.

The Prothonotary is directed to remit to the party paying the same the balance of all deposits made to him on this action. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

APRIL 16, 1981, PETITION FOR CUSTODY, filed by Cynthia Soult of Belin, Belin & Naddeo

One copy certified to Sheriff

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully prays that your Honorable Court order that permanent custody of the children, Robert Lee Powell; Tina Marie Powell; and William Jack Powell be placed in Petitioner. s/Cynthia Soult

ORDER

AND NOW, this 16th day of April, 1981, upon consideratio of the foregoing Petition, for Custody, and upon motion of CYNTHIA SOULT, ESQUIRE, Counsel for Petitioner, it is directed that a hearing be held thereon the 17th day of June, 1981 at 9:00 o'clock A.M. of the Clearfield County Courthouse. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr., P.J.

APRIL 27, 1981, AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE, filed.

NOW, April 22, 1981 at 9:40 AM o'clock EST served within Petition on Samuel Powell, deft. at his place of residence. So answers, Chester A. Hawkins, By /s/ Marilyn Wood

SEPTEMBER 8, 1981, STATEMENT OF FACTS, filed by Belin, Belin & Naddeo, by: James A. Naddeo, Attorney for Petitioner.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1981, BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF RESPONDENT'S RETENTION OF CUSTODY, filed by Cormeal, Mason & Lucas, by: H. Denning Mason, Esquire, Attorney for Respondent.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

At the time this matter was heard there was testimony offered to the effect that the Respondent had been arrested and was awaiting trial upon charges of Recklessly Endangering Another Person; Propulsion of Missiles into Occupied Vehicle; and Criminal Mischief. All of these charges arose out of an alleged incident where it was charged that the Respondent attempted to fire a pellet gun at the Petitioner-Wife while she was driving a vacant school bus between Hyde Brige and a railroad crossing in Lawrence Township, Clearfield County. We determined that we would not resolve the custody proceeding brought by the Petitioner-Mother against the Respondent-Father because we were of the opinion that such an incident could affect the Court's decision as to custody. The defendant was to have appeared for trial on other proceedings at the preceding term of Court. However, he had offered to the District Attorney the request that he be permitted to participate in the Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition Program. This was accepted by the District Attorney. This Court was advised of the Assistant District Attorney's statement to the Respondent that it would be accepted; and in a letter to the Court, the Assistant District Attorney declared that the evidence would be difficult to produce to sustain the charges. In response this Court advised that it would still create a problem although in the ARD program it may not be considered as "an admission of guilt".

We are still of the opinion that the proceedings could affect the Court in its determination as to whether such actions of the Respondent could be taken to be detrimental to the interests of the three children involved in these proceedings. In any event the Respondent has withdrawn his request for consideration in the ARD program and has declared his desire to stand trial with regard to the charges.

Because of the foregoing, we will await further consideration of those matters and whether or not they shall be considered by the Court in the custody proceeding. Therefore, we enter the following:

ORDER

NOW, September 3, 1981, decision is deferred pending the further developments with regard to the criminal charges instituted against the Respondent. BY THE COURT, /s/ John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

APRIL 10, 1984, ORDER filed.

AND NOW, April 10, 1984, upon full hearing had in the instant matter, the Court finding factually that the Plaintiff mother of the three children involved is entitled to custody of them, and that visitation rights of a liberal nature must also be granted to the Respondent father, it is Ordered as follows:

1. Custody is hereby granted to Sandra Smith, the mother, forthwith, with visitation granted to the father in the following respects:

(a) The father shall have the right to have said children visit with him on every other weekend, commencing on Fridays at 6:00 p.m., with the father returning the children to the home of the mother on each Sunday at 5:00 p.m. of said weekends on which he is hereby granted visitation. The father shall obtain said children and return them as herein directed.

(b) The said father shall further have the right to have said children visit with him for two two-week periods during the summer vacation months of June and August. The first of said visitation periods shall be from the first to the fifteenth of June, and the second said visitation periods shall be from the first to the fifteenth of August. Said father to obtain and return the children as herein provided. The commencement of each summer visitation period, however, to commence at 9:00 a.m. on the first day of said vacation periods and conclude by return to the home of the mother by 5:00 p.m. on the last day thereof.

Pro by Atty 30.00 Atty 3.00 Shff by Atty 15.17		JULY 20, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. Plaintiff above-named has sued in assumpsit to recover the balance due on an open account in the name of Larry Cowder now deceased. In Count 2 of its Complaint, Plaintiff seeks to recover from Arvilla Cowder, surviving spouse of Larry Cowder, individually, on the basis of unjust enrichment. Arvilla Cowder has filed Preliminary Objections to said Count on the basis that her property, held as tenants by the entireties, should not be available to the Plaintiff for satisfaction of the debt. This Court agrees on the basis that any time that a spouse dies owing outstanding debts, only those assets in his estate can be looked for satisfaction. The Doctrine of Unjust Enrichment will not require the surviving spouse to dispose of property held as tenants by the entireties to satisfy such claims. The Plaintiff here certainly has the right to recover from any assets that fall into the estate of the deceased but cannot require Defendant Arvilla Cowder to dispose of her property for payment thereof. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order: NOW, this 20th day of July, 1981, it is the Order of this Court that Preliminary Objections filed on behalf of Arvilla Cowder, Defendant above-named, be and are hereby sustained and Count 2 of Plaintiff's Complaint be and is hereby dismissed. Gates & Seaman		MAY 19, 1981, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Gates and Seaman, Attorneys at Law, by: Laurence B. Seaman, Esquire

JUNE 29, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

This matter comes before the Court on Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer filed by Defendant above-named alleging the operation of the Statute of Limitations. Plaintiff is engaged in the retail sale of farm supplies and sold such supplies to Defendant over a period of two (2) years commencing February 25, 1976. During that period, on four (4) separate occasions Defendant delivered corn and oats to the Plaintiff, the value of which was applied to Defendant's account. Plaintiff instituted this Action for the balance due on Defendant's account. Defendant claims that amount of debts incurred prior to April 29, 1977 are barred by the four (4) years Statute of Limitations under Pa. C.S.A. §5525.

Case law in Pennsylvania has established that the Statute of Limitations does not apply when mutual accounts exist between the parties, i.e., when there are mutual demands giving to each party a right of action against the other. See Radenbach's Estate, 52 Pa. Super. 461, 465, (1913); McFarland v. O'Neil, 155 Pa. 260, 265 (1893).

The issue in this matter then is whether the delivery of corn and oats to the Plaintiff created a right in the Plaintiff to enforce said deliveries so as to remove the transaction from the operation of the Statute of Limitations. The pleadings here do not establish mutual accounts. Plaintiff has not plead facts on which to base a conslusion that the Defendant sold the corn and oats to Plaintiff in the ordinary course of business as from merchant to merchant. Defendant never billed the Plaintiff for the corn and oats delivered nor did he ever set up an account with Plaintiff for such produce. Defendant merely delivered the goods and took credit on his account. It has not been alleged that Defendant was even in the business of selling corn and oats.

The Court in Radenbach cited the case of Lowber v. Smith, 7 Pa. 381 (1847), stating:

> "The rule does not apply when the demand is altogether on one side, though payments on account be made, whether in case or in kind; the manner of payment makes no difference; there must be reciprocal demands, giving a right of action to each other."

In the case at bar, the pleadings establish that Defendant Pusey had no right to demand payment from the Plaintiff for the corn and oats; he merely delivered the goods and took credit on his account, but never established a separate account with the Plaintiff to provide himself with a right of action against the Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

NOW, this 29th day of June, 1981, following argument into the above-captioned Preliminary Objections, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Objections be and are hereby granted and that portion of Plaintiff's claim based upon contracts entered into prior to April 29, 1977 be and is hereby dismissed. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

AUGUST 26, 1981, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Defendant above-named has filed Preliminary Objections to the above Complaint in Assumpsit claiming as a defense that the Action is barred by the Statute of Limintations. This Court in a Memorandum and Order dated June 29, 1981 granted said Objections and dismissed the Complaint. Thereafter, Plaintiff petitioned for re-argument and a supersedeas, and at the same time, raised an issue not previously considered, that being that a payment on an account under certain circumstances can toll the Statute of Limitactions. Both parties agree that raising the Statute of Limitations as a bar to recovery is an affirmative defense properly raised by pleading it as New Matter and not through Preliminary Objections. However, this Court will nevertheless rule thereon.

Under the facts of the present case as set forth in the Memorandum of this Court referred to above, there can be no doubt that credits were made to Defendant's account during the critical period, but it is clear under the law that such payments must be made by the Defendant with the intent that they be credited to said account. Such cannot be determined from the record and will depend upon the development of testimony of the Plaintiff's case in chief at trial, and in view of this, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER:

NOW, this 25th day of August, 1981, following argument into the above-captioned Petition to Re-argue Preliminary Objections, it is the ORDER of this Court that the previous Order dated June 29, 1981, be and is hereby rescinded and, on the basis of the record as it now stands, said Preliminary Objections be and are hereby dismissed. By the Court, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge between Plaintiffs and United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada who, according to the Complaint was the primary party engaged in the purchase of Plaintiffs' share of the business.

Again, according to the Complaint, in order to effectuate the sale, United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada established a wholly owned subsidiary corporation in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that being the United Tire and Rubber Company of Pennsylvania, the party to the written contract. Defendant United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada has filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer claiming that the oral agreement between the Plaintiffs and United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada was either abandoned by the Plaintiffs or merged into the written agreement between Plaintiffs and United Tire and Rubber Company of Pennsylvania. This Court agrees and does herein grant the demurrer in favor of United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada.

First, with respect to the issue of whether the oral agreement merged into the written contract, it is an accepted general rule of law that a written contract between parties is presumed to be a complete expression of the intent of the parties and only under very limited circumstances can a written contract be varied by previous oral agreements. As the Superior Court stated in National Cash Register v. Modern Transportation Company, 224, Pa. Super. 138, 302 A.2d 486, 488-89 (1973):

> "In the absence of ambiguity, a written contract is held to express all negotiations and agreements made prior to and leading up to its execution; that is, the negotiations are presumed to be merged in the writing, and oral testimony is not admissible to explain or vary the writing. Walden v. Shoemaker, 367 Pa. 587, 80 A.2d 776 (1951). This exclusionary rule has been referred to as the 'parol evidence rule'."

And it further states:

> "In cases of this kind, where the cause of action rests entirely on an alleged oral understanding concerning a subject which is dealt with in a written contract, it is presumed that the writing was intended to set forth the entire agreement as to that particular subject. 'In deciding upon this intent (as to whether a certain subject was intended to be embodied by the writing), the chief and most satisfactory index.....is found in the circumstances whether or not the particular element of the alleged extrinsic negotiation is dealt with at all in the writing. If it is mentioned, covered, or dealt with in the writing, then presumably the writing was meant to represent all of the transaction on that element; if it is not, then probably the writing was not intended to embody that element of the negotiation': Wigmore on Evidence (2d ed.) vol. 5, page 309. Gianni v. Russell & Co., Inc., 281 Pa. 320, 324 (1924)."

This Court is particularly impressed with the following quote from Sheetz v. Spagnol, 224, Pa. Super. 85, 302 A.2d 379, 381 (1973):

> "The Court below nevertheless found defendant and personally liable as a matter of law through the device of piercing the corporate veil. The Court reasoned 'that the defendant individual, Arthur J. Spagnol, is attempting to use the Corporation in this case as a shield against his personal liability for the purchase of the stock. To permit this would result in a grave injustice' ".
> "We cannot agree. The claimed injustice or inequity to the plaintiffs arose from the very clear and explicit terms of the agreement inwhich plaintiffs chose to enter. Had plaintiffs wished the defendant and not the corporation to pay the $20,000, they should have so provided in the agreement. Instead, paragraph 2 refers only to the corporation's payment of its debts to the plaintiffs."

In the case at hand the, if an injustice or inequity to the Plaintiff was caused in this manner, it arose from the very clear and explicit terms of the contract which the Plaintiff chose to enter. Had Plaintiff wished United Tire and Rubber Company of Canada to pay the purchase price such should be so provided in the agreement. Therefore, this Court is of the opinion that even if it could be argued that the oral agreement did not merge into the written contract, by accepting the written contract, Plaintiffs abandoned their agreement.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

MAY 5, 1981, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976

Ann Noble has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that she is severely mentally disabled.

She has been examined by J. Edwards, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

I, therefore, request that: B. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. s/J. Edwards MD

ORDER

NOW, this 29th day of September, 1980, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of one (1) year from October 14, 1980 through October 14, 1981. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

ORDER

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1977, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire, or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

MAY 21, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed by J. Richard Mattern.

NOW, this 21st day of May, 1981, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Ann Noble continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court, as previously, is of the opinion, based on the Mental Health Review Officer's findings and recommendation and the testimony of Dr. William M. Mann, Jr., that Ann Noble may qualify for a less restrictive setting such as the Christ the King Nursing Home in DuBois, Pennsylvania.

Therefore, the Court orders Social Services of Warren State Hospital to continue to take steps to have Ann Noble placed in Christ the King Manor Nursing Home, DuBois, Pennsylvania, on a trial basis for a period of four (4) weeks to determine the appropriateness of such placement.

The total period of commitment shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days at Warren State Hospital.

In the event the subject cannot adjust or is unmanageable is said nursing home or the skill and care that the subject needs is not available, then the subject shall be returned to Warren State Hospital without further order of this Court for the balance of the one hundred eighty (180) day period.

Pending placement in said nursing home, Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject for in-patient supportive care and treatment for her own protection and welfare.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT, /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.
