MARCH 3, 1982, PRAECIPE, Filed by Sughrue & Kesner by John Sughrue, Esquire ENTER my appearance as local counsel for Defendant, Susan L. Wetschler, in above case. /s/ John Sughrue FEBRUARY 22, 1982, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS-PETITION RAISING A QUESTION OF VENUE filed by Susan H. Wilkie of Feldstein Grinberg Stein & McKee APRIL 13, 1982, RESPONSE TO PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Gleason, Cherry and Cherry P.G. 2 Copies Cert. to Atty JUNE 28, 1982, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter is before the Court on Preliminary Objections to the Plaintiff's Complaint in Divorce. The Plaintiff is a physician who resides and practices in Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. The Defendant presently lives at R.D.#1, Westover, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, on a farm owned by both parties. The parties were married in 1968. They have one (1) child, who lives with the Plaintiff. Plaintiff has sued for divorce in Clearfield County, avering that his marriage is irretrievably broken. The Defendant has filed Preliminary Objections to the Plaintiff's choice of forum, contending that Plaintiff may not bring suit in Clearfield County because neither party resides in Clearfield County. In the alternative, Defendant claims that, even if venue is proper, this forum is inconvenient to the parties and the case should be transferred to Allegheny County. This Court finds that both of Defendant's contentions are without merit and dismisses the Preliminary Objections. The facts of this case make it clear that the Plaintiff has chosen a proper forum for this litigation, In September, 1980, the parties purchased the Gypsy Hill Farm in Clearfield County. Defendant undertook the task of running the farm and in ensuing months, it required increasing amounts of her time. By spring of 1981, Defendant was spending nearly all of her time at the farm and has continued to do so until the present day. An Action for Divorce "may be brought only in the ~~county in which the Plaintiff or the Defendant resides.~~" Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1920.2. Defendant claims that venue requires bona fide residence with domiciliary intent (Rosenberg v. Rosenberg, 163 Pa. Super. 138, 60 A.2d 350 (1948)). However, this Court can find no evidence that Mrs. Wetschler is not residing in Clearfield County. The parties own two (2) residences, one in Allegheny County and one in Clearfield County. It is clear to this Court that Defendant has spent the great majority of her time in Clearfield County and has indicated no particular desire to return to Allegheny County on a permanent basis. The fact that Defendant is still registered to vote in Allegheny County and still keeps some clothes in Allegheny County should not, under the circumstances, mean that she resides in Allegheny County. On the contrary, she shows every indication of an intent to remain in Clearfield County. Therefore, it was proper for Plaintiff to bring suit in Clearfield County (see Alburger v. Alburger, 138 Pa. Super. 339, 10 A.2d 288 (1940)). As to the question of whether Clearfield County is a convenient forum, this Court is perfectly satisfied with the efficacy of Plaintiff's decision to pursue his divorce in Clearfield County. The parties own a substantial amount of marital property in Clearfield County. Although they also own property in Allegheny County, this Court is of the impression that the value of the Clearfield County property will be much more difficult to establish than will the Allegheny County property. Therefore, this forum is convenient. The Plaintiff's right to choose a forum will not be disturbed except for "weighty reasons." (see Walker v. Ohio River Co. 416 Pa. 14, 152, 205 A.2d 43, 45 (1964)). The burden is upon the Defendant to prove that the forum is inconvenient. Penna. Power and Light v. Gulf Oil Corp., 411 A.2d 1203, 1217 cert. den. 446 U.S. 966 (1979). Clearly the Defendant has not met the burden in this case since, at most, the scale is balanced equally in favor of either forum and, in all probability, tips in favor of Clearfield. Defendant contends that pursuing this case in Clearfield County will inconvenience witnesses from Allegheny County and result in excessive legal fees. Both claims are without merit. The Pennsylvania Rule states: "On motion of a party and upon such terms as it may order, the court may authorize and direct the master to take testimony of witnesses within any other county of the Commonwealth or in any other state or territory subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, or in any foreign country." Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1920.61 (1980. Without here commenting on whether we would choose to grant such authority, it remains clear that the Allegheny County witnesses would not be required to testify here as a matter of law. Therefore, the Defendant could have some of the benefits of a change of venue without its actual implementation. (See Montgomery v. Montgomery, 8 D&C 3d, 221, 226 (1976)). Nothing in either the Rules or the Divorce Code indicate that the issue of attorney's fees is relevant to the question of convenience of forum. Defendant is receiving support from the Plaintiff and could also seek counsel fees if needed. Therefore, her expenses in this area do not provide ao "weighty" a reason as would justify moving this case to Allegheny County. O R D E R NOW, this 28 day of June, 1982, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant's Preliminary Objections be and are hereby dismissed. By the Court, John K. DECREE filed

AND NOW, this 24th day of February, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Lee Davidson continues to be severely mentally disabled.

Accordingly, the Court orders that this subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for in-patient care and treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

As this subject may qualify for a less restrictive setting such as the Highland Drive Veteran's Administration Medical Center in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, it is the ORDER of this Court that Warren State Hospital Social Services take appropriate steps to place the subject in said hospital on a trial basis.

In the event such placement is not suitable, the subject shall be returned to Warren State Hospital for the duration of this commitment period without further Order of Court.

In the event that the placement is appropraite, it is the further ORDER of this Court that William Young, of Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program, file a 305 petition prior to the termination of the 180 day commitment period, such that appropriate judicial review may be conducted upon recommendation of J. Richard Mattern II, Clearfield County Mental Health Review Officer.

Israel, Attorney for Defendant APRIL 21, 1982, PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by James F. Israel of Trushel, Wood & Israel MAY 20, 1982, BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by James F. Israel JULY 2, 1982, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. This matter is before the Court on Preliminary Objections in the nature of a demurrer and Motion to Strike the Complaint filed on behalf of Defendant above-named. On February 13, 1981, Defendant granted a loan to the Plaintiff in the amount of Seven Hundred ($700.00) Dollars at Eighteen (18%) percent annual interest under the terms of which Defendant agreed to monthly payments of Sixty-five ($65.00) Dollars each. The loan was in the form of a demand note under which the Defendant could require immediate payment in full at its option. Plaintiff made irregular payments during the ensuing months, resulting in the demand note being called on May 26, 1981 and again on October 26, 1981. On both occasions, Plaintiff failed to pay. As a result Defendant filed a Complaint in Assumpsit with District Magistrate Wesley J. Read on November 23, 1981, demanding the balance of the loan, together with interest thereon. According to the record, upon being contacted by the Magistrate and informed of the Complaint, Plaintiff indicated he would not contest the entry of judgment because he intended to continue payments on the note, and as a result, judgment was entered against the Plaintiff. Following expiration of the Appeal period, Defendant called the Plaintiff and asked if Plaintiff intended to pay the note without further proceedings. Defendant contends that Plaintiff agreed to pay by January 21, 1982, and when payment was not received by that date, Defendant directed the Magistrate to execute on the judgment. On January 25, 1982, Howard Hunter, a constable appeared at Plaintiff's place of business for purposes of executing on the judgment. Since the Plaintiff was not present, he levied on certain equipment in Plaintiff's store. He returned on January 26, 1982, again demanding payment of the Plaintiff and although Plaintiff questioned the amount due, he paid the constable the full amound demanded. Defendant above-named later returned to the Plaintiff a portion thereof, acknowledging an overpayment had been made. On March 26, 1982, Plaintiff filed a Complaint against the Defendant, alleging abuse of process resulting in mental suffering, shock, anxiety and humiliation and demanded compensatory and punitive damages. These Preliminary Objections followed. Although Defendant raises four issue in its Objections, this Court will address only the first. Defendant contends that Plaintiff's Complaint does not set forth a cause of action for abuse of process or any other cause of action recognizable under Pennsylvania law. This Court agrees. Abuse of process arises when a party employs legal process for some unlawful purpose and not the purpose for which the process was actually intended. Triester v. 191 Tenants Association, 272 Pa. Super. 271, 415, A.2d 698 (1979). This unlawful purpose "usually takes the form of coercion to obtain a collateral advantage, not properly involved in the proceeding itself, such as the surrender of property or the payment of money, by the use of the process as a threat or a club." Prosser, Torts, 4th ed., ch. 22, Sec. 121. Thus, although the defendant may have had intentions in issuing against the plaintiff, bad intentions absent some other ulterior purpose will not be sufficient to raise a cause of action for abuse of process. Id. In the instant case, the Defendant obviously had a reason for suing for judgment against the Plaintiff. The note involved was a demand note on which only spotty payments had been made. Therefore, since the Defendant was justified in suing for a debt legitimately owed him, any animosity that the Defendant or the Plaintiff might have had for one another was quite irrelevant. It is clear from the facts that the Plaintiff was quite embarrassed and upset by the actions of the constable in his store. However, supposedly objectionable behavior on the part of a constable in the performance of his sworn duties can hardly give rise to a suit for abuse of process against the party who made the actual Complaint. This Court can find no evidence in the pleadings or the briefs that the Defendant sued the Plaintiff for any reason other than a legitimate debt that was not paid as promised. Therefore, no abuse of process occurred. O R D E R NOW, this 2nd day of July, 1982, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant's Preliminary Objections be and are hereby sustained and Plaintiff's Complaint dismissed. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge JULY 23, 1982, NOTICE OF APPEAL, filed by Joseph Colavecchi Notice is hereby given that LaMar R. Boucher, Plaintiff above named, hereby appeals to the Superior Court of Pennsylvania from the order entered in this matter on the Second day of July, 1982. s/Joseph Colavecchi One copy mailed to Superior Court AUGUST 6, 1982, NOTICE OF APPEAL FROM SUPERIOR COURT, THEIR NUMBER 00841PGH82 filed.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

SEPTEMBER 1, 1982, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed.

MEMORANDUM

Plaintiff commenced his action in Assumpsit and Prespass by summons filed March 15, 1982. On April 5, 1982, a rule on behalf of Defendant, Kemper Insurance Company, was served on the Plaintiff directing him to file a Complaint within twenty (20) days. On April 14, 1982, Plaintiff filed a Petition for Extension of Time in which to file said Complaint, the prayer of which w was granted by this Court without opposition on April 22, 1982, giving Plaintiff an additional sixty (60) days in which to file.

Plaintiff filed Interrogatories against all Defendants and received Answers thereto from all except Hartford Accident and Indemity Company by June 10, 1982. Hartford was added as an Addi tional Defendant and Plaintiff received Answers to its Interrogatories from that Defend- and on July 20, 1982. On June 15, 1982, Plaintiff filed a second Petitionfor an Extension of Time until July 22, 1982, which was again unopposed.

A third Petition for Extension of Time was filed on June 24, 1982, and Plaintiff was once again given an additional thirty (30) days by Order dated July 2, 1982. After praecipe by Defendant Sutton Insurance Associates, a judgment of non pros for failure to file a Complaint within the time granted by the Court was entered in favor of that Defendant by the Prothonotary on August 6, 1982. After similar praecipe by Defendant Kemper Insurance Company, a judgment of non pros was also entered in its favor by the Prothonotary on August 9, 1982. Thereafter, Plaintiff filed another Petition for Extension of Time to file a Complaint requesting in the alternative that the Court allow the filing of a Complaint nunc pro tunc. Following the filing of said Petition, all other Defendants praeciped for a judgment of non pros but the Prothonotary did not grant their request. This Court will t reat Plaintiff's Petition as a request to open the judgment of non pros and permit it to proceed with the filing of the complaint.

Like all judgments by default, the Court has discretion whether to open a judgment of non pros and may do so in a proper case on equitable grounds. See Goodrich-Amram 2d § 1037 (a):1, p. 470. As the Supreme Court has said,

> "A request to open a judgment of non pros is by way of grace and not of right. Its grant or refusal is peculiarly a matter for the lower court's discretion. An appellate court may not reverse the lower court's ruling unless an abuse of discretion is clearly evident." Brigham v. Eglins of Phila., 406 Pa. 99, 176 A.2d 404 (1962). Goldstein v. Graduate Hospital of the Univ. of Pennsylvania, 441 Pa. 179, 182, 272 A.2d 472 (1971), quoting Mazer v. Sargent Electric Co., 407 Pa. 169, 171,

More specifically, the Court haa stated the criteria for opening a judgment of non pros as being that:

> "... (1) the petition should be timely filed;
> (2) the reasonfor the default reasonably explained or execused; and
> (3) that facts constitution grounds for a cuase of action be alleged."
> Thorn v. Clearfield Borough, 420 Pa. 584, 586, 218 A.2d 298 (1966).

Whether these conditions have been met, then, is within the discretion in granting an opening of judgment when it should have refused to do so. See, in particular, Goldstein v. Graduate Hospital of Universith of Pa., op. cit. (in which case the Supreme Court reversed an order of the lower court which took off a non pros entered for failure to file a complaint. The Court referred to the extraordinary procedural generosity given to plaintiff by defendant and the absence of any legitimate excuse by the Plaintiff for his failure.); and Kennedy v. Board of Supervisors of Warminster Township, 243 Pa. Super 33, 364 A.2d 442 (1976).

Here, at least the first criteria for the opening of a judgment of non pros has been met by the Plaintiff. His petition for Extension of Time (which must be considered a petition to strike the non pros) was filed less than a week after the first non pros was issued in this case. He cannot be said to have filed untimely.

The second and third requirements present more difficulty for Plaintiff to established. The second requirement is that a reasonable excuse for the default be averred. Here, Plaintiff alleges difficulties and delays in the discovery process and that at least two attorneys involved in the case experienced conflict of interests which resulted in further delay.

However, Plaintiff had received Answers to its original Interrogatories by June 10, 1982. Plaintiff has had more than two months, then, ;in which to file a Complaint. Plaintiff has nevertheless failed to do so despite two previous Extensions of Time and the Court's Order of July 2, 1982, directing him to file a Complaint within thirty (30) days thereof.

On the other had, Plaintiff did join an Additional Defendant, Hartford Accident and Indemity Company, after that time and did not receive Answers to Interrogatories from it until July 20, 1982. Moreover, Plaintiff felt it necessary to file a Petition for Sanctions against Defendants Miller-McVeigh Ford, Inc. and National Dealer Services Company to force them to turn over a copy of the insurance investigative report relevant to this matter as Plaintiff feels the information contained therein is important to his preparation of a proper Complaint. All in all, then, Plaintiff does seem to have reasonable excuses for his delay.

The third requirement is that Plaintiff alleges in his Petition to Open Judgment facts sufficient to constitute grounds for a cause of action. This, Plaintiff has simply failed to do. Counsel for Plaintiff only avers in his Petition that he has a Complaint ready to be filed either now or as soon as it is signed by Plaintiff. The Court cannot from that alone determine that a cause of actinn does in fact exist. The Court must, then, deny Plaintiff's Petition to Strike the non pros, but grants leave to file an amended Petition to aver the necessary facts for indeed if Plaintiff can aver that a cause of action does exist that the necessary requirements for the striking of a non pros will be met the Plaintiff will have established sufficient equitable ground to open the judgment.

The above analysis applies only to Defendant Kemper Insurance Company, however. No other Defendant was enttiled to non pros since no other Defendant ever filed a Rule on Plaintiff to file a Complaint which Rule also therein stated an intention to take a judgment of non pros., if the Plaintiff failed to comply.

This case is controlled by Hershey v. Segro, 252 Pa. Super. 240, 381 A.2d 478 (1977). In that case, one of two defendants filed a rule on Plaintiff to file a complaint within twenty days or suffer a judgment of non pros. Thereafter, the court granted plaintiff an extension of time. When that period passed without a complaint being filed, the defendant who filed the rule thereupon obtained a judgment of non pros.

Thereafter, the second defendant praeciped the Prothonotary to enter a judgment of non pros in its favor as well. The Prothonotary complied.

Plaintiff in that case then petitioned the court to strike off the judgment of non pros as improperly entered. The lower court did so. In affirming the action of the lower court, the Superior Court held that the rule to file a complaint served on plaintiff by first defendant did not inure to the benefit of the second defend nt who did not file; such a rule. The second defendant could not obtain judgment by non pros, then, despite the additional fact that plaintiff also violated an order of court directing him to file a complaint.

Therefore, it is clear that no Defendant other than Kemper Insurance Company was entitled to a judgment of non pros and any other judgment or praecipe for judgment must be stricken.

ORDER filed

NOW this 31st day of August, 1982, it is the ORDER of this Court that Plaintiff be and hereby is directed to file an Amended Petition to Strike the judgment of non pros entered in favor of Kemper Insurance Company in the above captioned matter in accordance with the contents of this Court's Memorandum.

IT is the further ORDER of this Court that all other judgments of non pros praecipes therefor be and are hereby stricken. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

SEPTEMBER 24, 1982, ANSWER TO PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS FILED BY SUTTON INSURANCE ASSOCIATES filed by Joseph Colavecchi

SEPTEMBER 30, 1982, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Judgment of non pros for failure to file a complaint was entered in favor of Defendants Sutton Insurance Associates and Kemper Insurance Company by the Prothonotary on August 6 and August 9, 1982, respectively. Less than one week after the first judgment of non pros was issued in this matter, Plaintiff filed a Petition with this Court requesting an Extension of Time in which to file a Complaint or in the alternative that the Court allow the filing of a Complaint nunc pro tunc, which this Court treated as a Petition to Strike the judgments of non pros. Thereafter, all other Defendants praeciped the Prothonotary for judgments of non pros, but the Prothonotary did not grant their requests.

By Memorandum and Order dated August 31, 1982, this Court did strike all judgments of non pros entered in this matter except the one entered in favor of Kemper Insurance Company. With regards to that Defendant, the Court directed Plaintiff to file an amended Petition to Strike the judgment of non pros to allege sufficient facts to constitute grounds for a cause of action. The matter is now before this Court on that Petition.

In its original Memorandum of August 31, 1982, this Court acknowledged three criteria for the opening of a judgment of non pros:

"...(1) the petition should be timely filed;
(2) the reason for the delay reasonably explained or excused; and
(3) that facts constituting grounds for a cause of action be alleged." Thorn v. Clearfield Borough, 420 Pa. 584, 586, 218 A.2d 298 (1966).

In that same Memorandum, this Court further held that Plaintiff had in fact met the first two criteria in his first Petition for an Extension of Time to file a Complaint. The only issue remaining, therefore, is whether Plaintiff has alleged sufficient facts to constitute grounds for a cause of action in his Amended Petition to Strike the judgment of non pros.

After careful review of said Petition, this Court is satisfied that indeed sufficient facts have been alleged. If Plaintiff is correct in his assertions therein, liability will in fact rest on Defendant Kemper Insurance Company. Since the Court must accept those averments as true when considering whether sufficient facts have been alleged to constitute grounds for a cause of action, a Rule and hearing is not necessary in this matter.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

NOW, this 30th day of September, 1982, it is the ORDER of this Court that the judgment of non pros entered in favor of Kemper Insurance Company be and is hereby stricken.

It is the further ORDER of this Court that the Complaint filed by Plaintiff's Attorney in this matter be entered of record, and all Defendants are hereby directed to file responsive pleadings within twenty (20) days of service thereof or within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order, whichever is later. MAY 6, 1983 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed.

On May 5, 1981, the above parties, who were then still married, entered into a Post-Nuptial Property Settlement and Separation Agreement. The document itself was drawn by an officer of the Air Force General Advocate's staff while the parties were stationed in Germany. Paragraph 12 of the Agreement reads, "The cost of any divorce action or legal separation shall be born by the moving party." Plaintiff above named commenced an action in divorce seeking in addition thereto an equitable division of property with the issue of alimony also being presented to the Master. Defendant now seeks to recover counsel fees and costs under the terms of the Post-Nuptial Agreement. Plaintiff claims that under paragraph 12 thereof, set forth above, the word cost does not include counsel fees and that therefore, he should only be responsible for those court costs incurred and appearing on the docket. This Court disagrees and does herein award Petitioner court costs and attorney's fees.

It would appear to be settled law that where the intention of the parties is not clearly expressed in an agreement and the words used give rise to ambiguity or doubt, resort may be had to the surrounding circumstances to ascertain the intent of the parties. The terms of this agreement having been prepared by a member of the armed forces in Germany were not designed to comply with the requirements of any specific jurisdiction and therefore, this Court is constrained to interpret it and its specific contents as broadly as possible. It is difficult to coneeive that the parties intended the word cost to include only those record costs incurred in filing documents and engaging a Master. The broader concept of costs including all legitimate out of pocket expenses in defending the action is more likely to have been the intent of the parties and this Court does so find.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

O R D E R

JUNE 27, 1984, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed
This matter comes before the Court upon a complaint for custody filed by Pamela J. Ross, natural mother of Edward D. Ross, II born March 26, 1977, and Autum Ross, born October 10, 1980. It appears that the parties hereto have been separated for a number of years but are not as yet divorced. The children have been living with respondent above-named or his parents and this Court must now determine the rights of each parent with regards to said children.

Testimony at the hearing convinces this Court that both parties have parental love and affection for the children and are proceeding in what they perceive to be the best interests of the children. The Court is further of the opinion that either parent has the ability to properly care for the children if they choose to exercise it. Each, however, have certain problem areas with which this Court is concerned. With regards to Pamesa J. Ross, the testimony has convinced this Court that she has over the years evidenced an attitude of neglect or disinterest in the wilfare of her children in that her contacts with them either direct or by telephone or by some other means, have not been as frequent as this Court would have expected from a natural parent living in such close proximity. Moreover, since the children have been in the custody of the respondent since 1982, their ties and relationships must be closer with their father and his parents at the present time.

The respondent also has serious difficulties to over come before the Court will feel comfortable while the children are with him. He is an admitted alcoholic and has just been released on parole from the Clearfield County Jail. He is presently living in a meretricious relationship with a woman not his wife and his past history of frequently changing residences indicates an unstable home life.

OCTOBER 18, 1993, ORDER FROM SUPERIOR COURT, filed

Upon consideration of the Petition to Reconsider, the petition is denied. This court is not a fact-finding court. If the appellant is denied. This court is not a fact-finding court. If the appellant wishes to establish that he timely filed on appeal, he must do so in the trial court. Until he does so, this court msut accept as true the docket entries kept by the trial court, and those docket entries show that this appeal is untimely. Upon consideration of the Petition to Terminate Alimony, the petition is denied. This court has no jurisdiction to grant the relief requested at the present time and in the currect form. This court cannot terminate an alimony award of the trial court except in the context of a timely appeal from a final order, and then can do so only after the appellant files a brief in conformity with the Rules of Appellate Procedure, and not on petition. The termination of an alimony award of a trial court cannot be granted merely on the basis of a petition which alleges unverified facts signed by people who have not been sworn witnesses before a trial court. /s/ Eleanor R. Valecho, Deputy Prothy

OCTOBER 18, 1993, ORDER OF COURT, filed

The appeal in this case was filed in the trial court on March 19, 1993. The Order appealed was entered on November 19, 1992. The appeal is quashed sua sponte as untimely. Pa. R.A.P. 903. As the appellant alleges that he filed a notice of appeal on November 26, 1993, but the trial court docket does not show this filing, the order quashing the appeal is without prejudice to appeallant to seek an appeal nunc pro tunc in the trial court. DECREE, filed

AND NOW, this 12th day of October, 1983, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND DECREED that CATHY LYNN KOLBE, Plaintiff, and WILLIAM L. KOLBE, Defendant, are hereby divorced from the bonds of matrimony.

The Court retains jurisdiction of the following claims which have been rainsed of record in this action for which a final order has not yet been entered:

Counsel Fees, Costs, Expenses, Equitable Distrubution, Child Support, and Custody.

BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

AUGUST28,1984, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Parties above-named are the parents of two children, Jarrett Micheal Kolbe born Nov. 27, 1978, and Jason Charles Kolbe born September 8,1980. The parties are divorced and in this action each seeks custody of the two boys. Pending final determination, the boys have been alternating between each parent on a two week basis. Now, however, Jarrett is entering kindergarten and Jason is entering pre-school and a more permanent arrangement is required.

This is a situation in which both parties are equally fit to provide primary parental care for the children. The home environments, love and parenting skills, support of grandparents and ability to raise said children of each party are more than satisfactory. Home studies performed by Clearfield County Children and Youth Services support this conclusion. There is, in fact, little to recommend one party rather than another. However, since the parties are unable to resolve the dilemma themselves, this Court must of necessity provide for the children and in doing so bases the order on what it perceives to be the best parental support for the children while they are in school. The parties live approximately 17 miles apart with Petitioner living in Frenchville and Respondent in the Borough of Clearfield. If the children live with their father during the time they are in school, the mother, who works in Clearfield, would be immediately available in the event of an emergency or other need to be with her sons during the school day. Moreover, during the periods when the children are to be with their mother, transportation would be simplified in that she travels between Clearfield and Frenchville as a result of her employment.

This court is of the opinion that both parties should share equally in decisions affecting the raising of the children and does direct each therefore to communicate fully with the other in this area. Moreover the party with whom the children are presently residing should encourage communication to the other parent through the use of telephone,etc.

WHEREFORE, the court enters the following Order:

ORDER,

NOW, this 28th day of August,1984, following hearing into the above-captioned action in custody of Jarett Michael Kolbe and Jason Charles Kolbe be and is hereby placed equally and jointly with Cathy Lynn Kolbe, their mother and Willeam Kolbe, their father, under the following conditions.

First, during each school year Jarett and Jason shall reside with their father, William Kolbe, in the Borough of Clearfield and during said period Cathy Lynn Kolbe,their mother shall have visitation rights each week commencing Friday after school at a time convenient to Cathy Lynn Kolbe, said children to be returned to the custody of their father William Kolbe, in time for the commencement of school the following Monday morning but in no event later than 9:00A.M. And further, that during said school year holidays shall be shared equally between the parties.

Second, that during those summer months when school is not in session Jarett and Jason shall be in the custody of their mother,Cathy Lynn Kolbe, with visitation in their father for the first three full weekends of each month commencing Friday at 5:00 pm. until Sunday

AT 9:00 p.m. And further, that said boys shall spend two full weeks with their father during said summer vacation at times to be agreed upon by the parties.

It is the further ORDER of this court that each parent shall cooperate with the other in deciding those questions of importance in rearing said children and shall encourage communication by the boys with the other parent at times when said boys reside with them.
