Priscilla M. Walrath	HARMONY EDUCATION ASSOCIATION by JAMES E. RICHARDS, Trustee Ad Litem.	82-1111-CD	MAY 5, 1982, COMPLAINT IN ACTIN IN MANDAMUS filed by Priscilla M. Walrath, Esquire Three (3) copies Certified to Attorney. MOTION FOR PEREMPTORY JUDGMENT filed by Priscilla M. Walrath, Esquire Three (3) copies Certified to Attorney RULE TO SHOW CAUSE filed Upon presentation of the within Motion, a time and place is set for hearing in the above matter at 9:00 A.M., on the 19th day of May, 1982, in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, Pennsylvania, to hear testimony why Peremptory Judgment should not be entered in this matter. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. MAY 18, 1982, AFFIDAVIT OF SERVICE, filed by Walrath & Coolidge I, THOMAS A. WALRATH, JR., being duly sworn according to law, depose and say that I served the Action in Mandamus Co Complaint filed at the above term and number and the Motion for Peremptory Judgment on the Harmony School District and the Board of Directors of the Harmony School District by handing a true and attested copy of the Complaint and Motion to John Smrek, Superintendent of the Harmony School District, the person in charge at the office of the Harmony School District and the Board of Directors of the Harmony School District, and making known to him the contents thereof. /s/ Thoams A. Walrath MAY 21, 1982, PRELIMINARY OBJECTION, filed by Eugene N. McHugh, Attorney for Harmony School District JUNE 30, 1982, OPINION AND ORDER, filed. Factual Background On May 5, 1982, Plaintiff Harmony Education Association instituted this action in mandamus seeking to require Defendant Harmony School District to adhere to an "Agreement" entered into by the parties on October 14, 1981. Plaintiff is the certified collective bargaining agent for the teachers of the Harmony School District. A Motion for Preemptory Judgment was filed on May 12, 1982, by Plaintiff. On May 21, 1982, Defendant filed Preliminary Objections challenging the jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County to hear this matter. A hearing was held on May 26, 1982, at which time the following facts were developed:
Eugene N. McHugh	HARMONY SCHOOL DISTRICT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE HARMONY SCHOOL DISTRICT	Pro by Atty 30.00	On October 14, 1981, following a tentative agreement. This tentative agreement addressed issues concerning medical insurance coverage and salary increases. The tentative agreement, drafted by President Judge John K. Reilly, Jr., of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, is attached hereto and incorporated herein. Plaintiff ratified this tentative agreement and the teachers of the District began working on October 16, 1981, under the new salary provisions of said agreement. On November 2, 1981, Defendant ratified said agreement indicating its intention to require the teachers to sign certain forms to facilitate the reduction of medical insurance coverage. Defendant proposed that all teachers sign a form which indicated the teacher's willingness to drop the insurance coverage by equal or better coverage elsewhere. Defendant also proposed that the five teachers who had been identified by Plaintiff as being willing to drop coverage immediately sign a release form permitting Defendant to withdraw their names from the school district's insurance plan. This would result in a $5,300.00 savings to the school district. (This latter proposal was not required under the terms of the tentative agreement.) A problem subsequently arose concerning the identity of the five teachers. On January 28, 1982, Defendant's school board held a meeting. At that time an attorney for the Pennsylvania State Education Association (PSEA), representing Plaintiff Harmony Education Association, identified five employees who would release the school district from its obligation to provide insurance coverage. The PSEA attorney also represented that these five employees would execute the requested releases and deliver them to Defendant by February 1, 1982. The releases were not delivered by February 1st. On February 2, 1982, Defendant informed Plaintiff that it would not participate in any further meetings absent the delivery of the executed releases. Prior to March 5, 1982, Harmony Education Association informed Defendant that one of the five individuals identified on January 28, 1982, did not, in fact, have an alternative equal or better insurance plan. On March 5, 1982, Defendant revised its position regarding the release of coverage and advised Plaintiff that the salary increase may be rescinded. On March 22, 1982, Plaintiff filed suit with the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board (PLRB). The PLRB issued a Complaint against Defendant on March 30, 1982. On May 3, 1982, Defendant's school board voted to withdraw the salary increase. No executed contract had been entered into by the parties. The release forms to be executed by the five employees were not delivered to Defendant. Plaintiff brought this suit in mandamus based upon an alleged breach of the tentative agreement. Defendant asserts that no contract ever existed between the parties and defends on the ground that five members of Plaintiff association have refused to execute the releases required by Defendant. Defendant also challenges the jurisdiction of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County to hear this controversy. This Court feels it necessary to point out that the teachers, prior to May 3, 1982, have been receiving a salary in accordance with the tentative agreement. However, Plaintiff has refused to supply documents which would release Defendant from providing insurance coverage with respect to five members of Plaintiff association. Although, the terms of the tentative agreement provide for the release only upon execution of the contract, an attorney for Plaintiff represented on January 28, 1982, that said executed releases would be forthcoming. This Court has difficulty understanding Plaintiff's reluctance in having five teachers sign the releases at the present time.

IN RE: COMMITMENT OF NOWL CRAWFORD, An Alleged Mentally
Disabled Person

MAY 7, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976.

Noel Crawford has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled. He has been examined by Daniel Gorgon, D.O.
and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in a facility receiving voluntary treatment, I ask the court to issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for inpatient treatment. /s/ Pamela Gillum

ORDER filed

NOW, this 28th day of October, 1981, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143
effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that
J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of One (1) year from October 14, 1981, through October 14,
1982. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

ORDER filed

NOW, this 18th day of October, 1981, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

MAY 12, 1982, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S

REPORT AND DECREE, filed.

AND NOW, this 12 day of May, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that Noel Crawford is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

Accordingly, the Court directs that Noel Crawford be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, for in-patient care and treatment as a severely mentally disabled person, until such time that he can be transferred through the Interstate Compact Act to the state of his residence.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 304 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976,
as amended.

Warren State Hospital is directed to determine the residence of the subject, which is either New York or Michigan, and make arrangements to have the subject transferred to an appropriate facility in the state of his residence pursuant to the Interstate Compact Act.

Under no circumstances is the commitment period to exceed ninety (90) days.

The costs of this proceeding, the Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the fee of Attorney Richard H. Milgrub shall be paid by Clearfield County. The Mental Health Review Officer's fee shall be reimbursed by the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program.

As Noel Crawford has no criminal charges pending against him, has not been sentenced in regard to any criminal charges, has not been convicted of any criminal charges and is not on parole or probation, the costs of his treatment at Warren State Hospital shall not be incurred by Clearfield County. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

		IN RE: COMMITMENT OF CHRIS POULOS, An Alleged Mentally Disabled Person	MAY 13, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976. filed. Chris Frederick Poulos has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled. DECREE filed AND NOW, this 18th day of May, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We Approve his recommendation. The Court finds that Chris F. Poulos is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended. Accordingly, the Court directs that Chris F. Poulos be involuntarily committed to Dan- ville State Hospital, a state mental institution, for in-patient care and treatment as a severely mentally disabled person until such time that he can be transferred through the Interstate Compact Act to an appropriate facility in the state of his residence. This commitment is pursuant to Section 304 of the Pennsylvania Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended. Danville State Hospital is directed to determine the residency of the subject, which is thought to be 418 East Colonial Street, Elizabeth City, North Carolina, and make arrangements to have the subject transferred to an appropriate facility in the state of his residence pursuant to the Interstate Compact Act. Under no circumstances is the commitment period to exceed ninety (90) days. The costs of this proceeding, the Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the fee of Att- orney Benjamin S. Blakley III, delegated by Richard H. Milgrub, Esquire, to act in his behalf at this hearing, shall be paid by Clearfield County. 			DECEMBER 10, 1982, NOTICE OF APPEAL filed by Cynthia Soult Notice is hereby given that defendants, George Kardoley and Mary Kardoley, hereby appeal to the Court of Common Pleas from the Order entered in this matter by the Arbitrators on November 17, 1982. 1) A jury trial is demanded. 2) I hereby certify that the compensation of the arbitrators has been paid. s/Cynthia Soult One copy mailed to Attorney John Carfley DECEMBER 21, 1982, PRAECIPE, filed by John R. Carfley, Esquire. Please place the above captioned matter on the next civil trial list. JANUARY 16, 1984, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed. The above-captioned action in assumpsit was heard by this Court sitting without a jury, with testimony being completed on November 17, 1983. Following submission of briefs this Court enters the following Memorandum. From the testimony it appears that Defendants are the owners of certain premises located in Gearhartville, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. On or about July 1, 1981, Defendants entered into an oral contract with the Plaintiff under the terms of which certain renovations and remodeling were to be done on Defendants' building, in return for which Defendants were to pay to the Plaintiff the sum of $24,624.00. Plaintiff, under the terms of the agreement, entered upon Defendants' premises and according to Plaintiff, proceeded to perform the work called for in the agreement. Defendants paid $17,823 to the Plaintiff under the terms of the agreement leaving a balance due of $6,801.00 on the agreed upon contract price which has not been paid and which Plaintiff now seeks to recover through this proceeding. At the hearing Plaintiff testified as to the terms of the contract, the work that he was called upon to perform, and the amount of the final agreed upon contract price. He testified that prior to completion of the job Defendants furnished him a list of corrections to be made and that he performed the necessary work to correct them. Defendants testified that an agreement was reached with the Plaintiff but that the work done thereunder was unsatisfactory and that in some cases work called for in the agreement was not performed at all. Defendants further stated that the sum of $500.00 had been paid to Plaintiff for which no credit had been given. Said sum being in addition to the $17,823.00 admittedly received by the Plaintiff. They further testified that they have been living in the home since Plaintiff ceased working therein and that they knew that they owed him money but that they refused to pay because he would not correct the matters of which they complained. Each party presented an expert witness for the Court's consideration. The Defendants' expert, Mr. Ronald Carns, testified that to correct the deficiencies would cost $7,902.05 while Dennis Guenot, Plaintiff's expert, testified that $3,156 would cover the cost of corrections.

JANUARY 6, 1982, MOTION TO AMEND ANSWER TO COMPLAINT AND NEW MATTER AND ORDER, filed by Carl A. Belin, Esquire. ORDER, filed. AND NOW, this 6th day of January, 1983, upon reading and considering the foregoing Motion the Defendants, Gary L. Gallaher and Jane H. Gallaher, are hereby granted leave to amend their Answer to Complaint and New Matter originally filed in the above-captioned action. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. JANUARY 24, 1983, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed Plaintiff and Defendants above named entered into a written agreement under the terms of which Plaintiff was to provide certain merchandise and services to the Defendants for which Defendants were to pay a sum certain. Plaintiff was to provide certain merchandise and services to the Defendants for which Defendants were to pay a sum certain. Plaintiff commenced the above-captioned action in assumpsit alleging the failure of the Defendants to pay for the merchandise and services provided under the contract. Defendants filed an Answer including New Matter and Counterclaim and the matter is presently before the Court on Plaintiff's Preliminary Objections to the New Matter. Plaintiff Objects on the basis that the New Matter alleges that the Plaintiff failed to provide the Defendants with an adequate bookkeeping system and other services which resulted in Defendants incurring a net operating loss in excess of Three Hundred Thousand ($300,000.00) Dollars and forced Defendants into bankruptcy. Plaintiff's position is that such matters must necessarily be plead as a set-off on Counterclaim and not as New Matter. Plaintiff next contends that if proper, the pleading must state whether the claim arises from an oral or wirtten contract and, if possible, to provide a copy thereof. This Court disagrees and does herein dismiss said Preliminary Objections. Defendants have, in fact, alleged for all intents and purposes the same set of facts both as New Matter and as Counterclaim and argue that the facts alleged as New Matter do not raise a Counterclaim or a set-off but state the defense of failure of consideration. As such the facts are properly plead as New Matter and will not be stricken ty this Court. Defendants further state that their claim for failure of consideration and indeed their Counterclaim and set-off as plead are based on the written agreement upon which Plaintiff bases its cause of action and which are attached to Plaintiff's Complaint as Exhibits A and B. This being the case, Plaintiff's objection in the nature of a Motion for More Specific Pleading is without foundation and must also be dismissed. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

Defendant has incurred the expense of paying the increased salaries through most of the 1982-1982 school year, but Plaintiff has failed to provide the mechanism under which the school board may realize a savings through reduction of its medical insurance coverage. Thus, Defendant has not only been required to pay the increased salaries but has assumed additional expenses which it explicitly bargained not to undertake for the 1981-1982 school year.

Discussion

By way of Preliminary Objections Defendant has challenged this Court's jurisdiction to hear the controversy involved herein. Defendant argues that jurisdiction rests exclusively with the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board.

The PLRB has original and exclusive jurisdiction over all matters which are "arguably" unfair labor practices as listed in Article XII of the Public Employee Relations Act (PERA), Act of July 23, 1970, P.L. 563, 43 P.S. §1101.101 et. seq. Hollinger v. Department of Public Welfare, 469 Pa. 358, 365 A.2d 1245 (1976).

Defendant relies upon the following provisions of Article XII of PERA which Defendant asserts are the unfair labor practices for which Plaintiff seeks redress:

"§1101.1201 Unfair practices by public employers; acts prohibited

(a) Public employers, their agents or representatives are prohibited from:

(5) Refusing to bargain collectively in good faith with an employee representative which is the exclusive representative of employees in an appropriate unit, including but not limited to the discussing of grievances with the exclusive representative.

(6) Refusing to reduce a collective bargaining agreement to writing and sign such agreement.

In Philadelphia Federation of Teachers Local No. 3, AFT, AFL-CIO v. Board of Education of the School District of Philadelphia, 458 Pa. 342, 327 A.2d 47 (1974), the teachers' union brought suit in equity in the Court of Common Pleas to enforce the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement. The jurisdictional issue was never addressed by the lower court and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania determined the merits of the controversy.

The case relied upon by Defendant, Hollinger, supra, does address the jurisdictional issue. The Pennsylvania Supreme Court in Hollinger confirmed original and exclusive jurisdiction in the PLRB. The court also distinguished the Philadelphia Federation, supra, case, as it relates to jurisdiction on the basis of the conduct sought to be remedied and the nature of the relief sought. The complaint in Philadelphia Federation sought enforcement of the terms of a contract. The complaint in Hollinger sought a determination of whether or not the plaintiffs, who allegedly resigned from the union, were subject to a "memorandum of understanding" reached by the union and employer concerning dues deductions. The complaint prayed for injunctive relief. The issue in Hollinger was not whether an agreement was reached between the union and employer but whether the plaintiffs were union members and consequently, subject to the terms of the union/employer "memorandum". The Supreme Court found that the act of deducting dues payments from the plaintiffs arguably constituted an interference with the employee's right to refrain from joining a union, a specifically delineated unfair labor practice. Therefore, the Hollinger court concluded that the plaintiffs' cause of action was within the original, exclusive jurisdiction of the PLRB.

In the case sub judice, the relief sought by Plaintiff is clear. Plaintiff seeks injunctive as well as monetary relief for the breach of an "Agreement". The conduct sought to be remedied is the breach of the agreement.

The Hollinger case expressly noted that the vesting of exclusive, original jurisdiction in the PLRB, when the remedy sought is redress of an unfair labor practice, "does not, of course, divest a court of jurisdiction to entertain suits for breach of contract merely because the alleged breach may arguably be an unfair labor practice (citations omitted)." Hollinger, footnote 10, Pa. at 365, A.2d at 1249.

The United States Supreme Court in Vaca v. Sipes, 386 U.S. 171, 87 S.Ct. 903, 17 L.Ed.2d 842 (1967), which addressed a jurisdictional issue between the National Labor Relations Board and the courts, analyzed the purpose to be served in placing exclusive jurisdiction in an administrative agency in light of the nature of the suit. The Supreme Court found the primary justification for exclusive jurisdiction to be "the need to avoid conflicting rules of substantive law in the labor relations area and the desirability of leaving the development of such rules to the administrative agency created...for that purpose." Id., L.Ed.2d at 852.

In the case sub judice, given the nature of a breach of contract cause of action, such a purpose would not be served. The existence of an enforceable contract and a breach thereof, have traditionally been left to the courts. The rules to be applied in such an action are not rules peculiarly applicable to labor concerns.

Defendant's attempt to distinguish the breach of contract cases which fall outside the original, exclusive jurisdiction of the PLRB on the basis that in such cases an executed contract or agreement had been entered into fails. In any suit upon a contract, the plaintiff is required to prove the existence of the contract and a breach thereof. The fact that in some cases the existence of a contract or agreement is not a disputed issue is of no moment for jurisdictional purposes. In the instant case, Plaintiff bears the burden of proving both the existence of an enforceable contract or agreement and the breach thereof.

Accordingly, Defendant's Preliminary Objections must be denied.

Plaintiff asks this Court to award preemptory judgment pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1098. Rule 1098 provides in pertinent part:

"At any time after the filing of the complaint, the judge may enter judgment if the right of the plaintiff thereto is clear, but the judgment may be opened upon cause shown."

In the instant case, the right of Plaintiff to judgment is not clear. Plaintiff carries the burden of proving the existence of a judicially enforceable contract and a breach thereof. Questions which must be resolved center around (1) the effect of the agreement which has been denoted itself to be "tentative"; (2) the provision that five teachers drop the medical insurance coverage provided by Defendant, and (3) the refusal of Plaintiff to provide certain documents to permit Defendant to terminate such insurance coverage.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 16th day of June, 1982, after hearing and oral argument, it is hereby ORDERED that

1. The Preliminary Objections filed by Defendant are DENIED.

2. The Motion for Preemptory Judgment filed by Plaintiff is DENIED.

Defendant is directed to file a responsive pleading to Plaintiff's Complaint within twenty (20) days of the receipt of this order. BY THE COURT: Charles C. Brown, Jr., President Judge, 49th Judicial District, Specially Presiding

JANUARY 11, 1984, ORDER OF COURT AMENDING CAPTION AND SUBSTITUTING PLAINTIFF filed.

AND NOW, ti wit this 19 day of January, 1984, it appearing to the Court that Wausau Insurance Companies, the insurer under a contract of insurance with Superior Pet Products, Inc., the original plaintiff in the within action, is the real party in interest in the case and, therefore, it is hereby ordered that Wausau Insurance Companies be substituted as a plaintiff in the case and that the caption of the Complaint and all other pleadings be amended to show as the plaintiff, Wausau Insurance Companies. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr. J.

JANUARY 26, 1984, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed.

Suit was commenced in the above-captioned matter by Complaint of Superior Pet Products Inc. against the City of DuBois, Rockwell International Corporation and The DuBois Board of Trade with the Complaint being filed on August 5, 1982. On August 15, 1982, the City of DuBois filed Preliminary Objections to the Complaint and on the same date Praeciped for a Writ to Join Goodwill Industries as an Additional Defendant, said Writ being served on Goodwill on October 21, 1982. On January 31, 1983, Rockwell filed an Answer to the Complaint denying liability but containing no New Matter or any claim of liability either solely or jointly as to Goodwill. On February 1, 1983, by Order of this Court DuBois City's Preliminary Objections were sustained and the claim against the City of DuBois dismissed. On February 22, 1983, Rockwell filed a pleading captioned "Cross Claim Against Goodwill Industries". On February 24, 1983, Goodwill filed a Motion for Rule under Pa. R.C.P. 1037 upon the City requiring that a Complaint be filed within twenty (20) days. The City failed to file a Complaint in accordance with said Rule and judgment of non pros as to the claim of the City against Goodwill was taken on March 18, 1983. Rockwell has not joined Goodwill as additional defendant under Pa. R.C.P. 2252(a) nor has Rockwell asserted by answer New Matter regarding Goodwill's alleged liability under Pa. R.C.P. 2252(d).

Goodwill has moved to dismiss the pleading, Cross Claim of Rockwell International Corporation against Goodwill, and this Court does herein grant said Motion.

It must be stressed that the Answer filed by Rockwell to the Complaint contained no New Matter nor any pleading asserting liability either solely, jointly or by way of indemnity as to Goodwill nor has Rockwell joined Goodwill as an additional defendant. Pa. R.C.P. 2252(2) & (d) read as follows:

"(a) In any action the defendant or any additional defendant may, as the joining party, join as an additional defendant any person whether or not a party to the action who may be alone liable or liable over to him on the cause of action declared upon by the plaintiff or jointly or severally liable thereon with him, or who may be liable to the joining party on any cause of action which he may have against the joined party arising out of the transaction or occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences upon which the plaintiff's cause of action is based.

"(d) If the person sought to be joined is a party, the joining party shall, without moving for severance or the filing of a praecipe for a writ or a complaint, assert in his answer as new matter that such party is alone liable to the plaintiff or liable over to the joining party or jointly or severally liable to the plaintiff or liable to the joining party directly setting forth the ground therefor. The case shall proceed thereafter as if such party had been joined by a writ or a complaint."

While it may be true that Rockwell could have joined Goodwill as an additional defendant under Pa. R.C.P. 2253 or under the applicable sections of Pa. R.C.P. 2252 set forth above there is absolutely no provision in the Rules of Civil Procedure for any pleading entitled Cross Claim and Rockwell did not make any effort to join Goodwill within sixty (60) days following service of the Complaint on Rockwell nor thereafter by leave of Court.

Rockwell apparently relies on 2252(d) set forth above on the basis that at the time it filed the Cross Claim Goodwill was a party. However, as noted above, Rockwell had previously filed an Answer to the Complaint, said Answer containing no New Matter as indicated by the above rule. Therefore, Goodwill is not an original Defendant in the action nor is it an Additional Defendant since the City of DuBois who joined Goodwill has been dismissed from the suit and judgment of non pros entered in favor of Goodwill for the failure of DuBois to file a Complaint.

Moreover, Pa. R.C.P. 2255(b) expressly prohibits the filing of any pleadings between Rockwell and Goodwill such as the one which is the subject of this controversy.

This Court is not persuaded that the error is merely one of technicality and can be remedied by this Court by treating the Cross Claim as an amendment to Rockwell's Answer. Certainly the Rules of Civil Procedure are to be construed liberally but not to the extent that they are to be ignored altogether. The Rules are quite clear with regards to the methods and procedures to be followed in joining an additional defendant. Here they were not followed and this Court does enter the following Order:

ORDER

NOW, this 25th day January, 1984, following argument into the above-captioned Motion to Dismiss, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Motion be and is hereby granted and the Cross Claim of Rockwell International Corporation filed against Goodwill Industries of North Central

CHARLES MATTHEWS, An Alleged Mentally
Disabled Person

JUNE 2, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976.

Charles Matthews has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by William M. Mann, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. /s/ William M. Mann, M.D., Petitioner

AND DECREE, filed

One copy Certified ot Mental Health.

Two copies Certified to Attorney.

DECREE filed

AND NOW, this 23rd day of July, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that CHARLES MATTHEWS continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court, however, is of the opinion that Charles Matthews is not so severely mentally disabled requiring inpatient care and treatment at Warren State Hospital.

The Court is of the opinion that Charles Matthews absolutely qualifies for a less restrictive setting. Therefore, the Court ORDERS that Charles Matthews be discharged from Warren State Hospital immediagely and placed in the care of Mrs. Florence Backstrom and her husband, Kenneth Backstrom of 10 Winding Way, Morrisdale, Pennsylvania.

In the event that placement with Mr. and Mrs. Backstrom in not possibel, then the Court ORDERS that he be discharged immediately to a Veterans' Administration Hospital.

It is the further ORDER of this Court that a copy of this entire proceeding and Decree be forwarded to Ervin S. Fennell, Esquire, counsel for Marian Monahan, guardian of the person of Charles Matthews.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976,
as amended.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health.

This Order of Court discharging Charles Matthews shall not take effect until 10 days from this date during which time exceptions may be filed by the guardian of the person of Charles Matthews. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

			VERDICT: CASE SETTLED LETTER WRITTEN

IN RE: COMMITMENT OF SIDNEY AIKENS, An Alleged Mentally
Disabled Person

JUNE 15, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976.

Sidney Aikens has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by John Stolar, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of in-patient treatment. /s/ John Stolar, M.D., Petitioner.

ORDER filed

NOW, this 28th day of October, 1981, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143
effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that
J. Richard Mattern, II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of One (1) year from October 14, 1981, through October 14, 1982. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

ORDER filed

NOW, this 18th day of October 1981, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue Esquire or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged
severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings
conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

SEPTEMBER 8, 1982, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S
REPORT AND DECREE, filed

One (1) copy Certified to Mental Health.

DECREE, filed

AND NOW, this 8th day of SEptember, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that SIDNEY AIKENS is not a resident of Clearfield County and, therefore, dismisses this petition for not being filed in the county of the residence of the subject.

The Court further Orders that Warren State Hospital is authorized to retain the subject on an involuntary basis for his own safety and welfare until such time that the county of the subject's residence can direct its Mental Health Review Officer to conduct a hearing and make recommendations to the appropriate Court.

The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be reimbursed to Clearfield County by Warren State Hospital pursuant to the director of said state hospital dated January 27, 1977, from Robert M. Daly, Deputy Secretary for Mental Health.

		AND NOW, this 28th day of June, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation. The Court finds that Michelle Phillips is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.
The Court also find that Michelle Phillips is not so severely mentally disabled as to require her commitment to a mental institution, and that the subject qualifies to be placed in a lesser restrictive appropriate setting.
Accordingly, the Court orders that Michelle Phillips be placed in the jurisdiction and authority of Centre County Children's Services who in turn is to review the facts of the case and consider the child's best interest and welfare and use their discretion as to whether the child be placed in a foster home temporarily or with her mother, Donna Cox. In the event that this child can not be placed in a foster home temporarily or with her mother, then it is directed and ordered that the subject be placed firstly with her grandmother in Ohio or secondly with her father in Ohio.
The Court further orders that the subject of this hearing, Michelle Phillips, submit to out-patient treatment for a period of ninety (90) days, whether the child is placed in a foster home or with a relative.
In the event that the subject is placed with a relative, such placement shall only be on the condition that said relative agrees to participate with the child in the out-patient therapy.
The cost of this proceeding, with the fee of J. Richard Mattern, II, Clearfield County Mental Health Review Officer, and the fee of Attorney Richard H. Milgrub, counsel for Michelle Phillips, shall be paid by Clearfield County.
It is the further order of this Court that Clearfield County shall be reimbursed for the cost of this proceeding with the Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the fee of Attorney Richard H. Milgrub, pursuant to the order of Judge Charles C. Brown, Jr., President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, dated December 16, 1981, which order is attached hereto and marked "Exhibit B"/ BY THE COURT : /s/ John K. Albert Nelson	LAURIE K, MACK	JULY 26, 1982, FOREIGN JUDGMENT IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR MADISON COUNTY, ALABAMA, filed by Albert Nelson, Esquire AFFIDAVIT., filed I have represented Laurie K. Mack in each of the above referenced cases as her attorney of record and the Civil Action No. DR 78-1517- resulted in a judgment on February 10, 1981, in favor of the plaintiff, Laurie K. Mack and against the Defendant, James Sephus Mack in the sum of FIFTY-ONE HUNDRED NINETY-THREE AND 30/100 ($5,193.30) DOLLARS as attorney's fees. Said Judgment of February 10, 1981, in the sum of FIFTY-ONE HUNDRED NINETY-THREE AND 30/100 ($5,193.30) DOLLARS is a valid judgment rendered by the Circuit Court of Madison County, Alabama, is enforceable and is unsatisfied. I DOVIE MCCOLLUM, Register of the Circuit Court of Twenty-third Judicial Circuit of Alabama, do hereby certify that the foregoing numbered one (1) to nine (9) both inclusive, contain a full true and correct copy of the following documents: Decree Dated February 10, 1981; Case Action Summary Sheets; Judgment Dated July 22, 1982 and Case Action Summary Sheet. /s/ Dovie McCollum, Register. I, Daniel B. Banks, Jr., Judge of the Circuit Court Twenty-third Judicial Circuit of Alabama, do hereby certify that DOVIE MCCOLLUM, whose name is signed to the preceding certificate of exemplification, is the Register of the Circuit Court, Twenty-third Judicial Circuit of Alabama, duly appointed and sworn, and that full faith and credit are due to her official acts. I further certify that the seal affixed to the said exemplification is the seal of the said Circuit Court, Twenty-third Judicial Circuit of Alabama, and that the attestation hereof is in due form of law. /s/ Daniel B. and subsisting judgment against the defendant dated February 10, 1981 in the sum of FIFTH-ONE HUNDRED NINETY-THREE AND 30/100 ($5,193.30) DOLLARS for attorney's fees in this case and that the plaintiff is entitled to a judgment for alimony which accrued between December 3, 1979, and October 10, 1981, in the sum of FORTY-FOUR HUNDRED AND NO/100 ($4,400.00) DOLLARS; that the counter-claim of the defendant, James Sephus Mack, seeking credit against the said judgments is hereby denied except that the defendant is entitled to receive from the plaintiff the following items of personal property, namely the three beer steins, the Indian bank and the music box if the plaintiff in fact has a music box described as a Hummel with a wooden boy and girl on top thereof; that the two plates which the plaintiff has in her possession and the demitasse set shall remain in the possession of the plaintiff and the plaintiff shall siip possession thereof for the children of the parties (the plaintiff has already delivered to the older child, Melissa, her part of said property and she shall keep the remaining part for the two younger children). The Court is fruther of the opinion that there is a conflict in the testimony presented by the plaintiff and the testimony of the minor child, Melissa, regarding the two Chinese plates, bar glasses, flass bottles and vases, books, table napkins with a coin design therein, pictures and nick-nacks, Christmas decorations, Roman plates, Hummel music bax with boy and girl on top and the brass bull; that the parties may send the child to the plaintiff's home in Ohio for the purpose of pointing out and identifying and for discussing and determining the origin of the said items. Furthermore, the plaintiff shall photograph each of the said items so identified by the monor child, Melissa, and forward the photographs through her attorney to the defendant's attorney and the issues regarding said items or property shall remain open by this Court for farther proceeding. Furthermore, the parties shall not be required to send the child to Ohio and the matter can be taken care of when the child next visits her mother. In any event, the Court reserves jurisdiction of said items testified to by the daughter and listed herein above. Furthermore, the Court is of the opinion the Pegasus statue is the property of the plaintiff; that the sum of FIFTY-THREE HUNDRED FIFTY-SIX AND 96/100 ($5,356.95) DOLLARS APPROPRIATED BY Savings and Trust Company of Indiana of the stock owned separately by the defendant shall be repaid to the defendant from the proceeds realized from the sale of the Treasure Lake properties (teo lots owned jointly by the parties in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania) before any division is made of the proceeds of said sale and the Court is further of the opinion that the defendant shall be entitled to recover any sums paid by him for taxes on the Treasure alke property and other reasonable expenses incurred by him in reard to selling the properties; that any proceeds spent by either party that is reasonable and necessary in regard to selling the property shall be reimbursed to such party when the property is sold. It is, accordingly, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff, Laurie Mack, have and recover of the defendant, James Sephus Mack, judgment in the sum of LFORTY-FOUR HUNDRED AND NO/100 ($4,400.00) DOLLARS for back alimony, judgment for which let execution issue. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the defendant's claim for credit against the judgment for attorney's fees rendered by this Court on Febauary 10, 1981, is hereby denied. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the plaintiff shall return to the defendant the three beer steins, the Indian bank, and the Hummel music box with the wooden boy and girl on top if she has the said music box in her possession. It is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the demitasse set in the possession of the plaintiff and the two plates in the possession of the plaintiff belong to the two children of the parties which are presently in the custody of the plaintiff and it is ORDERED that the

IN RE: NOEL CRAWFORD, An Alleged Mentally Disturbed Person.		Admission No. 49868 AUGUST 19, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed Noel Crawford, has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled. He has been examined by William M. Mann, Jr., M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment. As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involun- tarily committed for another period of inpatient treat- ment. /s/ William M. Mann, M.D. ORDER filed NOW, this 28th day of October, 1981, pursuant to section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143 effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern, II, Esquire be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of One (1) year from October 14, 1981, through October 14, 1982. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. ORDER, filed NOW, this 18th day of October, 1981, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective Sept- ember 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. SEPTEMBER 13, 1982, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed One (1) copy Certified to Mental Health DECREE, filed AND NOW, this 14th day of September, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is Acknowledged. We approve his recommendation. The Court finds that NOEL CRAWFORD, continues to be severely mentally disabled. Accordingly, the Court Orders that the subject be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended, for inpatient treatment for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days. As this subject may qualify for a less restrictive setting and as one Elijah Klein of 1361, 33rd. Street, Brooklyn, New York, has indicated a willingness in writing to care for the subject if he is released, the Court authorizes Warren State Hospital psychiatric staff, in their discretion, to release the subject into the custody of Elijah Klein. The Mental Health Review Officer's fee and the costs of recording are to be paid by Warren State Hospital, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M. D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

Dwight L. Koerber, Jr	CHARLES CURTIS ZOOK	AUGUST 31, 1982. PETITION TO APPEAL FROM ORDER OF DIRECTOR OF BUREAU OF TRAFFIC SAFETY OPERATIONS, DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SUSPENDING OPERATOR'S PRIVILEGES, filed by Dwight L. Koerber, Jr., Esquire. Three (3) copies Certified to Attorney One (1) copy Certified & mailed to Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. WHEREFORE, the above and foregoing premises considered, your Petitioner respectfully requests this Honorable Court to grant his Appeal and to order a hearing de novo to determine whether the Department of Transportation has erroneously issued a notice purporting to suspend the operating privileges of Petitioner, and to order that the allowance of this appeal will act as a supersedeas pending hearing and the outcome thereof. ORDER, filed NOW, this 2nd day of SEptember, 1982, upon consideration of the foregoing Petition of Charles Curtis Zook, it is hereby ORDERED AND DECREED that an Appeal, from a suspension of the operating privileges of Charles Curtis Z ook be allowed, and that a hearing de novo be held to determine whether the action of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in suspending the operating privileges of Charles Curtis Zook is lawful. It is further ORDERED AND DECREED that this Order granting an Appeal and Hearing shall act as a supersedeas of the suspension Official Notice of the Department of Transportation, dated August 3, 1982, until final disposition of the Appeal and hearing in this matter. It is also further ORDERED AND DECREED that Petitioner shall serve a copy of this Order upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by certified mail, return redeipt requested. Hearing is fixed for the 13th day of October, 1982, at 1:00 o'clock P.M. in the Courtroom of Clearfield County Courthouse. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr. President Judge. NOVEMBER 24, 1982 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed. This matter comes before the Court on an Appeal from the action of the Department of Transportation, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, suspending above Defendant's operating privileges for fifteen (15) days. Defendant claims that the hearing officer advised the Defendant that a recommendation of no loss of license would be made and thereafter in his report, in fact, recommended a fifteen (15) day suspension. Defendant claims this was improper and therefore the action of the Department should be reversed. This Court disagrees. The scope of this Court's review is limited to determining whether the Defendant has, in fact, been convicted of a traffic violation and whether the Department has observed the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Code in suspending his driving privileges. The documents offered by the Department demonstrate statutory compliance with the Code and there is no statutory authority for examining the hearing officer's conduct other than to note his recommendation. WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order: ORDER NOW, this 23rd day of November, 1982, following hearing, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant's Appeal be and is hereby dismissed and the action of the Department in suspending his driving privileges affirmed, said suspension to take affect as of December 21, 1982. APRIL 18, 1984, PETITION TO PRESERVE THE STATUS QUO, filed by Joseph Lee, Esquire.

Two (2) copies certified to Attorney.

ORDER OF COURT filed.

AND NOW, to wit, this 18th day of April, 1984, the foregoing Petition to Preserve the Status Quo having been read and considered, a Rule is hereby issued upon the Estate of Betty T. Thompson and James Robert McTavish, Sr., Executor of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson, deceased, to show cause why:

(A. This Court ought not to intervene in this matter for the purpose of preserving the status quo between Thomas Merle Curry on the one part and the Estate of Betty T. Thompson and James Robert McTavish, Sr., Executor of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson, on the other part by requiring the said James Robert McTavish, Sr. to disclose fully to the Court and to Thomas Merle Curry by proper documentation and accounting a full and complete statement of all of the activities of James Robert McTavish, Sr. acting as Executor of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson, deceased, from the date of his appointment as executor to wit: July 30, 1982, and forward, including his activities as president of John A. Thompson Coal Company, Inc.;

(B. This Court ought not to place the Estate of Betty T. Thompson and James Robert McTavish, Sr. under its direct supervision and control by requiring the said James Robert McTavish, Sr. and his attorneys at all reasonable times to permit access to and review of all actions and activities of the said James Robert McTavish, Sr. pertaining to the administration of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson permitting such person or persons to make necessary abstracts from the records of the said James Robert McTavish, Sr., in any way touching upon the administration of said estate and authorizing such representative to petition this Court for such relief as may be required in the premises;

(C. The said James Robert McTavish, Sr., ought not be required to report fully to this Court concerning all of his activities as president of John A. Thompson Coal Company and particularly to show cause why he should not be required to sign any and all applications pertaining to the continuation of the business of John A. Thompson Coal Company so that mining operations on estate properties can continue in an unimpeded manner and to further show cause why he should not be required to sign the appropriate form required by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Environmental Resources, for a renewal application for a surface mining operator's license on form designated DER-MR-1A: REV 9/82 or forthwith be removed from his position as president of John A. Thompson Coal Company;

(D. This Court ought not to require the said James Robert McTavish, Sr. to make full and complete reports on a monthly basis to the Court concerning his general conduct and activities pertaining to the administration of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson as Executor and the administration of John A. Thompson Coal Company as president;

(E. This Court ought not to require the said James Robert McTavish, Sr. to provide a bond with approved corporate surety in the amount of one hundred twenty (120%) percent of the gross estate of the decedent, Betty T. Thompson, after proper deduction for taxes paid, and debts and reasonable funeral expenses as determined by the Court after such hearing on the matter as may be required by this Court; and

(F. Why this Court ought not to issue such other orders of relief in the premises as may from time to time be necessary in order to preserve the status quo between the parties pending the outcome of the aforesaid appeal.

Said Rule returnable for immediate action on the matter of the completion of the surface mining operator's license on the 24th day of April, 1984, at 9:00 A.M.

Said Rule returnable on all other matters on the 2nd day of May, 1984, at 3:00 P.M. BY THE COURT, s/John K. Reilly, Jr. Pres. Judge.

APRIL 24, 1984, ORDER filed.

NOW, this 24th day of April 1984, being return day on the Order on the Petition to Preserve the Status Quo in the above-captioned matter and after office conference between the attorney for Thomas Merle Curry and the attorneys for the Estate of Betty T. Thompson and James Robert McTavish, Sr., Executor of the Estate of Betty T. Thompson, and after review of the matter, the Court is of the opinion that it should issue an order to preserve the status quo under the authority granted to the Court under Pa. R.A.P. 1701 and it appearing that there is an urgent and present need for issuing an order requiring James Robert McTavish, Sr. to act either as President of John A. Thompson Coal Company or to be substituted therefor, it is the ORDER of this Court that James Robert McTavish, Sr. is directed to execute any and all applications required by John A. Thompson Coal Company as President of John A. Thompson Coal Company by the Commonwealth of Penna., Dept. of Environmental Resources being specifically a renewal application for a surface mining operators license on form designated DER-MR-1A: REV 9/82 which said application is required to be completed in order for mining operations to lawfully continue on premises leased by the Estate of Betty T. Thompson to Benjamin Coal Co. BY THE COURT, s/John K. Reilly, Jr., Pres. Judge.

Rule 2229 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure governs the procedure for bringing a suit against more than one defendant. Rule 2229(b) reads:

"(b) A plaintiff may join as defendants persons against whom he asserts any right to relief jointly, severally, separately or in the alternative, in respect of or arising out of the same transactions or occurrences if any common question of law or fact affecting the liabilities of all such persons will arise in the action."

We note that such permissive joinder of defendants "does not unite the causes of action and they remain independent to the same extent as if separate suits had been brought but consolidated for trial." General Electric Credit Corporation v. Aetna Casualty and Surety Company et al., 437 Pa. 463, 468, 263 A.2d 448, 452 (1970); Del Boring Tire Service, Inc. v. Barr Machine Inc., 285 Pa. Super. 66, 426 A.2d 1143 (1981); Pa. R.C.P. 2231 (a)-(d). Thus, the complaint must assert the nature of the liability of each defendant separately. Goodrich-Amram 2d §2220(b): 7.1; Stredny v. Wyeth Laboratories, 58 D & C 2d 665 (1972).

Applying these principles of law to the case at bar, we note that Plaintiff's Complaint is devoid of allegations concerning Long's Motor Bus, Inc., Fullington Auto Bus, Inc., or West Branch Area School District, though all are named in the caption as Defendants. All allegations refer solely and specifically to Defendant Mansun North, Inc. The other Defendants having not been mentioned, Plaintiff has failed to set forth any claim against them and their demurrer will be sustained.

Plaintiff argues that she should be permitted to amend her Complaint to show a cause of action against West Branch Area School District on the ground that the school district admitted at deposition that the school buses being operated by Mansun North, Inc. at the time and place in question were serving the West Branch Area School District.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 1033 provides:

"A party, either by filed consent of the adverse party or by leave of court, may at any time change the form of action, correct the name of a party or amend his pleading. The amended pleading may aver transactions or occurrences which have happened before or after the filing of the original pleading, even though they give rise to a new cause of action or defense. An amendment may be made to conform the pleading to the evidence offered or admitted."

Construing this Rule, our Courts have held:

"It is clear that while amendments to pleadings are freely allowed under the Rules of Civil Procedure, they are subject to the qualification that an amendment may not introduce a new cause of action after the statute of limitations has run. Laursen v. General Hospital of Monroe County, 494 Pa. 238, 431 A.2d 237 (1981)...." Connor v. Allegheny General Hospital, 300 Pa. Super. 321, 325, 446 A.2d 635, 637 (1982).

To permit Plaintiff to amend her Complaint to include allegations of liability on the part of the West Branch Area School District would allow her to introduce a new cause of action. The record indicates, however, that the applicable statute of limitation has run in this case. Act 1976, July 9, P.L. 586, No. 142 §2, 42 Pa. C.S.A. §5524, provides that an action to recover damages for personal injuries caused by the negligence of another or for injuries to personal property must be commenced within two years from the time the cause of action arises. 42 Pa. C.S.A. §5524(2), (3). The incident giving rise to Plaintiff's cause of action is alleged to have occurred on August 29, 1980. The lawsuit was commenced by the filing of a praecipe for a writ of summons on August 25, 1982, and the Complaint was filed on February 1, 1983. The applicable statute of limitations ran on August 29, 1982. Amendment of the Complaint for the purpose of asserting a different cause of action is, therefore, impermissible. See: 2 Goodrich-Amram 2d §1033:4.1, at p. 375; Laursen v. General Hospital of Monroe County, 494 Pa. 238, 431 A.2d 237 (1981).

We now turn to Defendant Mansun North, Inc.'s demurrer and, specifically, to its contention that the Complaint fails to set forth a cause of action against it because the car and bus did not actually collide and because Plaintiff admitted at deposition that she observed no identifying features on the bus in question by which she could link it to Mansun North, Inc. This objection is without merit.

We are aware of no statute or case law that requires the actual collision of two vehicles before the driver of one is permitted to bring a tort action against the driver of the other on the ground that the latter's negligence was the cause of the former's injuries.

Next, in her Complaint, Plaintiff specifically avers, among other things, that her car was forced off the road by a school bus owned by Mansun North, Inc., that at the time and place in question, the bus was being negligently operated by an agent or employee of Mansun North, and that her injuries and property damage were the direct result of such negligence. These allegations are sufficient to overcome Mansun North's objection. Certainly, Plaintiff is not required to prove in her Complaint the facts alleged therein. Rather, the purpose of the Complaint is to place the Defendant on notice of what the Plaintiff intends to prove at trial. Laursen v. General Hospital of Monroe County, 259 Pa. Super. 150, 393 A.2d 761 (1978), reversed on other grounds, 494 Pa. 238, 431 A.2d 237 (1981).

Finally, we hold without further discussion, that Plaintiff's Complaint as a whole is quite sufficient to withstand Mansun North's demurrer under the applicable standards discussed above.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following Order:

ORDER

NOW, this 26th day of January, 1984, following argument in the above-captioned matter, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Preliminary Objections of Defendants Long's Motor Bus, Inc., Fullington Auto Bus, Inc., and West Branch Area School District to Plaintiff's Complaint be and are hereby sustained and that the Preliminary Objections of Defendant Mansun North, Inc., be and are hereby dismissed. It is further ORDERED that pursuant to Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 2232(b), Defendants Long's Motor Bus, Inc., Fullington Auto Bus, Inc., and West Branch Area School District are hereby dismissed from this action, and that all pleadings and records shall be amended accordingly. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge
