or capriciously and fail or neglect to provide a sufficient number of court employees or for the payment of adequate salaries to them, whereby the efficient administration of justice is impaired or destroyed, the court possesses the inherent power to supply the deficiency. Should such officials neglect or refuse to comply with the reasonable requirements of the court they may be required to do so by mandamus." (Emphasis added.)

See also Commonwealth ex rel. Carroll v. Tate, supra, at 274 A.2d 198 and Beckert v. Warren, 59 Pa.Cmwlth. 240, 429 A.2d 776, 779 (1981).

We are compelled to conclude from the allegations in the Complaint that President Judge Reilly has complied with the "reasonable fiscal regulations of the legislature" in requesting approval from the County Salary Board of an appropriate salary and the continuation of the position on July 1, 1982, and specific approval and authorization at the later meeting on August 5, 1982, being the normal method prescribed by the County Code.

We therefore hold that the Clearfield County Court has jurisdiction; the issues are justiciable; the plaintiff has standing; mandamus is the proper remedy and the Complaint does state a cause of action.

We therefore make the following

ORDER OF COURT

NOW, October 28, 1982, Defendants' Preliminary Objections To Complaint In Mandamus are dismissed and Defendants shall file an Answer to Plaintiff's Complaint within twenty (20) days. BY THE COURT: Paul B. Greiner, President Judge, 59th Judicial District, Specially Presiding

NOW, December 21, 1982, in consideration of plaintiff's Preliminary Objections to the New Matter filed by the defendants, arguments of counsel at hearing thereon December 20, 1982, and the Court concurring with counsel that the issues involved are the reasonable necessity for the subject employee and the reasonable wages or salary to be paid for such services, IT IS ORDERED AND DECREED that the plaintiff's Preliminary Objections to defendants' New Matter are sustained and Paragraphs 17 through 25 of the New Matter are stricken from the New Matter. MARCH 21, 1983, MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF COURT filed.

NOW, March 18, 1983, in consideration of Exceptions On Behalf Of Clearfield County Commissioners, written briefs of counsel and authorities cited, the Court being of the opinion it has not misconstrued the decision in Beckert V. Warren, 329 A.2d 638, 497 Pa. 137 (1981), this is a constitutional separation of powers case, the necessity of the judicial employee is not an issue, neither party has raised the issue the salary board had abused its discretion or acted arbitrarily or capriciously, and therefore the salary board's action cannot be the subject of judicial inquiry and is binding on the judiciary as well as the Commissioners, IT IS ORDERED AND DECREED that defendants' Exceptions are dismissed and judgment is entered for the plaintiff. The Plaintiffs shall be included as insureds under the policy as their interests may appear, to be determined by future decree of this Court. If the house on the premises in question should sustain any damage before such time as this Court shall make a determination of the said house, no payment under the above described insurance policy shall be made to the Defendants until such time as this Court shall make a determination of the interests of the Plaintiffs herein. The Defendants will furnish the Plaintiffs, within fifteen (15) days, evidence of insurance with a reputable company, with limits for damage to the property in any one accident or occurrence in the amount of at least Ten thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars. The Plaintiffs, their agents or representatives, shall also have the right, during the winter months, to personally examine the interior and exterior of the house in question to insure that no damage has been caused to the said house by reason of severe weather conditions. During any said inspection, the Plaintiffs, their agents or representatives, will be accompanied by a constable. Upon reasonable notice provided to the Defendants by the Plaintiffs, their agents or representatives, the Defendants shall provide necessary access to the interior and exterior of said house. APRIL 26, 1984, PRE-TRIAL MEMORANDUM filed. NOW, April 13, 1984, the two attorneys involved in the instant matter appeared before the Court at the scheduled time, however, only one Pre-Trial Memorandum was delivered to the Court, that on behalf of Plaintiffs. An Order was made upon the Defendant's Counsel to file a Pre-Trial Memorandum with the Honorable John K. Reilly, Jr., on or before April 20, 1984. Of course, I do not make any attempt to indicate what might be contained therein, since there was very little upon which we operated, however, Counsel for Defendants did declare that his witnesses, known at this time, would be Paul Montgomery, Attorney Nicholas Lorenzo, an attorney who searched title for his clients, and others to be named later. An Order was issued upon him to file a list of witnesses no later than April 20. Likewise, he will list all exhibits or photographs which he may intend to use in the case. It did appear that there would be agreement with regard to the chain of title under which claim is made, and there would be agreement with respect to any surface. Beyond this, there is nothing further which we may state for the benefit of the Court. Question was raised as to possible settlement, and, although this may result, we make no statement in that regard. Thus, we have listed it as being for trial on the date fixed. NOVEMBER 24, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed.

ROBERT TOOMEY, has acted in such a manner as to make me believe that he is severely mentally disabled.
He has been examined by Walter S. Finken, M. D., and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that this court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily comitted for another period of in-patient treatment.

I Affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to him these procedures and his rights as described in Form MH 786-A.
I believe that he: Understands these rights.

I hereby affirm that I have reexamined Robert Toomey on November 4, 1982, to determine if he is continues to be severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment.

In my opinion: The patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of continued treatment. /s/ Walter S. Finken, M. D., Physician.

One (1) copy Certified to Mental Health.

DECREE, filed.

AND NOW, this 13th day of December, 1982, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that ROBERT TOOMEY continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court further finds that ROBERT TOOMEY escaped from Warren State Hospital and is now living in the area of Jersey City, Hew Jersey, and that New Jersey is the subject's state of residence.

Accordingly, the Court discharges Warren State Hospital from any further responsibility in regard to care and treatment of the subject, with the exception of forwarding a copy of this report to the Base Service Unit in Jersey City, New Jersey.

There proceedings are pursuant to Section 304 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of the

A.2d 629 (1968). In ruling on a motion for summary judgment the court must accept as true all well-pleaded facts in the non-moving party's pleadings, as well as admissions on file, giving to them the benefit of all reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. See Hankin v. Mintz, 276 Pa. Superior Ct. 538, 419

A.2d 588 (1980); Ritmanich V. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc., 219 Pa. Superior Ct. 198 280 A.2d 570 (1971). The record as a whole should be examined in the light most favorable to the party opposing the motion and all doubts as to the existence of a genuine issue about a material fact must be resolved in that party's favor, that is against the entry of summary judgment. See Bowman v. SEars, Roebuck & Co., 245 Pa. Superior Ct., 530, 369 A.2d 754 (1976); Husak V. Berkel, Inc. 234 Pa. Superior Ct. 58, 239 A.2d 841 (1968). And see Hankin v. Mintz.

supra; Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc. supra. In disposing of such a motion of such a motion the court's function is not to decide issues of fact, but solely to determine whether there are material issues of fact to be decided. See Hankin v. Mintz, supra; Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc., supra.

The pleadings, depositions and affidavits present in this case provide a clear picture of the situation at hand. The Defendants have presented a copy of a lease for the premises in question. This lease is complete in all details of the lease-hold thereby created. A very specific description of the premises leased is provided. A twenty-five year term is set, beginning on June 1, 1967, and running through June 1, 1972. The rental rate is established and it is specifically covenanted that the premises are to be used and occupied as a "hunting camp and summer home." The only problem with the lease presented is that it has not been signed by the lessor. It is alleged that two copies of the lease were prepared by a notary public in the presence of Willard T. Jury (lessor) and the Defendants (lessees.) Both parties signed their original copy of the lease, however, each retained the copy signed by themselves only. The deposition of Willard T. Jury, brother of the Plaintiff Emerson K. Jury, fully corroborates that this occurred just as alleged. Willard Jury stated with certainty that he intended to grant the lease as described in the writing and that he signed his copy of the lease and retained that copy of the lease, which he believes may have been destroyed in a fire at his home in 1981. The Plaintiffs are unable to contradict any of this information, but rely on the statute of frauds to support their cause of action.

The Plaintiffs point to the case of Nanty-Glo Boro v. American Surety Co. 309 Pa. 236, 163 A. 523 (1932), and its progeny as preventing the entry of summary judgment in this case. See Bremmer V. Protected Home Mut. Life Ins. Co., 436 Pa. 494, 260 A.2d 785 (1970); Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc. 219 Pa. Super. 198, 280 A.2d 570 (1971), 2 Goodrich Amram 2d S1035(b); 4. The rule presented there is that, however clear and undisputed may be the proof relied on, when proof of an issue depends on oral testimony, it is nevertheless the province for the trier of fact to decide. The fact that Willard T. Jury signed the written lease offered here is established by oral testimony in the form of affidavits and depositions. But for the Nanty-Glo Rule, this Court would grant summary judgment based on the pleadings, depositions and affidavits presented in this case. We are, however, constrained to follow this rule even though this Court has serious doubts as to its practicality in this particular case.

It is the opinion of this Court, however, that summary judgment may be granted in Defendants' favor without reliance on oral testimony. The various writings offered here are sufficient to adequately memorialize the contract in writing as required by 68 P.S. §250.202 which was derived from the Statute of Frauds, Act of March 21, 1772, 1 Sm.L. 389, §1, 33 P.S. §1.

The Statute of Frauds is a declaration of public policy requiring that contracts for the conveyance of an interest in real estate be supported by written evidence signed by the party to be charged. Burns v. Baumgardner, 303 Pa. Super. 85, 449 A.2d 590 (1982). It is not a mere rule of evidence. It is a declaration of public policy. Holland Furnace Co. v. Keystone Dehydrating Co. 151 Pa. Super. 495, 499, 30 A.2d 872, 874 (1943). Its purpose is to prevent fraudulent claims of interests in land resting on alleged oral agreements and to decrease opportunities for fraud or perjury. Manley V. Manley, 238 Pa. Super 296, 307, 357 A.2d 641, 646 (1976); 16 P.L.E., Statute of Frauds, §21 (1959). The rule governing the sufficiency of of separate writings to constitute a memorandum is set forth in the Restatement of Contracts, §208:

- "The Memorandum may consist of several writings,
- (a) if each writing is signed by the party to be charged and the writings indicate that they relate to the same transaction, or
 - (b) though one writing only is signed if
 - (i) the signed writing is physically unnnexed to the other writing by the party to be charged, or
 - (ii) the signed writing refers to the unsigned writings, or
 - (iii) it appears from examination of all the writings that the signed writing was signed with reference to the unsigned writings."

Defendants copy of the lease clearly states all of the essential terms and conditions of the contract. The Defendants have also submitted receipts and cancelled checks for the yearly rental payments, as well as their tax receipts. The rent receipts variously state that the rent was received from the Defendants "For Camp", "For Lease on Camp", "Rent or Lease for Camp" and "Camp Rent". The receipts are signed by Willard Jury or his father, Norman Jury, who often received the payments for his son. It is the opinion of this Court that the circumstances clearly indicate that the rent receipts signed by the lessor, Willard T. Jury, relate to the lease submitted in this case and evidence an intention on his part to be bound by the terms of that lease. Together, these several written memoranda constitute an adequate written memorandum of the contract and satisfy the writing requirement.

When Willard T. Jury granted the lease to the Defendants, he of course still possessed a reversionary interest in this small parcel of land, which was transferred along with ownership of the tract. The subsequent owners of the tract, including the Plaintiffs, took subject to the lease. Moreover, the rights and liabilities which existed between Willard Jury and the Defendants are the same as now exist between the Plaintiffs and the Defendants. See 49 Am. Jur. 2d, Landlord and Tenant, §95; P.L.E., Landlord and Tenant, §41. Such is specifically provided for in 68 P.S. §250.104 which states:

- ANY person who acquires title to real property by descent or purchase shall be liable of the same duties and shall have the same rights, powers and remedies in relation to the property as the person from whom title was acquire. 1951, April 6, P.L. 69, art. I, §104.

It is also noted that this Court finds 68 P.S. §250.203 to be clearly inapplicable to the case at hand, as the reversionary interest and lease obligations were simply conveyed by operation of law along with the successive sales of ownership of the tract and thus, did not constitute an assignment, grant or surrender of the lease within the meaning of that section.

		APRIL 7, 1983, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed.
		This matter comes before the Court on Defendant's Preliminary Objections to Venue under Rule 1006(a) of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. In support of his Objections Defendant cites Lucas Enterprises, Incorporated vs. Paul C. Harman Company, Incorporated , Pa. Super. 417 A.2d 720 (1980). Defendant proceeds on the theory that no transaction occurred in Clearfield County sufficient to permit this Court to invoke Venue. From the pleadings it can be seen that Plaintiff's place of business is in Clearfield County and the contract in dispute was signed in Clearfield County. Performance under the contract was to take place in Jefferson County. Defendant argues there is no allegation as to where the acceptance of the contract occurred and that therefore it must be assumed that it was accepted in Jefferson County at the place where the work was to be performed. This Court disagrees and does herein dismiss the Preliminary Objections.
		The Lucas Court held that in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, payment is due' at the Plaintiff's place of business and venue is proper there in a breach of contract action alleging failure to make payment. Such appears to be the case here and based on the pleadings, this Court has no option but to enter the following Order:
		O R D E R
		NOW, this 7th day of April, 1983, it is the ORDER of this Court that Defendant's Preliminary Objections to Venue be and are hereby dismissed. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge

Plaintiffs are the owners of a certain 103.94 acre tract in Girard Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, which they acquired in 1980. They have alleged that the Defendants are occupying, without right or claim of title, a portion of the above mentioned tract. The Defendants answer that they are occupying the premises in question, which consists of less than one quarter of an acre on which they have constructed improvements which serve as a hunting camp and summer home, as a leasehold under a written lease between Willard T. Jury, former owner of the tract, and themselves, said lease having been made June 1, 1967, for a period of twenty-five years. This matter is currently before the Court on defendants' motion for summary judgment. A concise statement of the requirements for entering summary judgment is found in Community Medical Services of Clearfield, Inc. v. Local 2665, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, 292, Pa. Super. 238, 242, 437, A.2d 23, 25 (1981): Ordinarily, summary judgment should only be entered if the pleadings, depositions answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there exists no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. See Pa. R.C.P. 1035. And see Davis v. Pennzoil Co., 438 Pa. 194, 264, A.2d 597 (1970); Bollinger v. Palmerton Area Com. Endeavor, Inc., 241 Pa. Superior Ct. 341, 361, A.2d 676 (1976). Furthermore, summary judgment is only proper in cases which are clear and free from doubt as to the existence of a disputed factual question. See Mallesky v. Stevens, 427

DECEMBER 13, 1982, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed

RICHARD KEITH MCGARY, has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by Conrado F. Agra, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the Matient in not currently in a facility receiving treatment, I ask this Court to issue an order taht the patient be involuntarily committed for: inpatient treamentt. (A patient can only be committed involuntarily if the patient is severely mentally disabled. A person ;is severely mentally disabled if:

The patient inflicted or attempted to inflict serious bodily harm on another and there is reasonable probabilyty that such conduct will be repeated unless treatment is afforded: or

The patient has acted in such manner as to evidence that he would be unable, without care, supervision and t the continued assistance of others to satisfy his or her need for nourishment, personal or medical care, shelter or self-protection ans safety, I believe that there is a reasonable probabilyty that death, serious bodily injury or serious physical debilitation would ensue within 30 days unless treatment is afforded: or

The patient has attempted suicide and there is reasonable porbability of another attempt at suicide unless treatment is afforded: or

The patient has severely mutilated himself or her- self or attempted to mutilate himself and there is rea- sonable probability of self-mutilation unless treatment is afforded. (Describe the behavior of the patient within the last 30 days which causes you to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

I affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to him these procedures and his rights as described in Form MH-785-A. I believe that he does not understand his rights. /s/ Robert Dombrosky. 12/7/82

I hereby affirm that I have reexamined Richard Keith McGary on 12/2/82.

In my opinion the patient is severely mentally dis- abled and in need of (continued) treatment. /s/ Conrado F. Agra, M.D..

Elliott JULY 5, 1983, DEFENDANTS' BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF THEIR PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS, filed by Stephen C. Braverman 1 Copy Cert. to Atty AUGUST 17, 1983, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' Preliminary Objections to a four count Complaint in Trespass filed by Plaintiff above-named. The basic controversy arises out of a letter purportedly written by Benson H. Lingle and directed to one Mr. Glenn Bowers of the Pennsylvania Game Commission allegedly impugning the coal mining practices of K & J Coal Company and its fitness to mine on State Game Lands. In addition thereto, said Complaint also alleges that two other letters were also sent by Mr. Lingle to K & J Coal Company itself, which letters purportedly contained various false allegations, implied threats, and further impugned the integrity of local counsel for Plaintiff, all with the intent and purpose of "terrifying" Plaintiff into dropping a previous legal action then under way against Defendants. With regards to the letter directed to the Game Commission, Defendants argue that Plaintiff has failed to state a cause of action in libel based thereon in that said letter was absolutely privileged. This Court agrees with Defendants and therefore dismisses Counts I and IV of Plaintiff's Complaint insofar as they allege libel based on said letter. The Court notes that the letter to Mr. Bowers in this case was a communication directed to the governmental agency charged with overseeing the State Game Lands, viz., the Pennsylvania Game Commission, and did concern the fitness of K & J Coal Company to mine on said Lands. Defendants' First Amendment right to petition the government is, therefore, most evidently involved in this matter from the face of Plaintiff's Complaint. As such, Plaintiff's right to seek a state tort recovery in libel must be weighed against that right. It must also be remembered that Plaintiff's right to recover in this case is even further limited, and Defendants' right to petition is even further bolstered by those laws and regulations mandating public comment and participation in all aspects of coal mining. See, e.g.: 25 Pa. Code S86.32 (inviting public comments on permit applications) and 25 Pa. Code S86.215 (inviting information from citizens concerning violations of mining regulations and citizen requests for investigation of the same).

With those circumstances and principles in mind, the Court further notes that the Court of Common Pleas in Cambria County was presented with an analogous situation to the instant matter in Central Transportation, Inc., v. Stephens, 10 D & C 3d 755 (1979). The Defendants in that case sent a petition to the Cambria School District complaining of the "deplorable and unsafe condition of the school buses" being used by the School District. Id., at 759. The operator of the buses then sued for libel. The Court, however, dismissed the Complaint on Defendants' Preliminary Objections holding that the First Amendment right to petition the government clothed Defendants' actions with an absolute privilege even if Defendants' actions were the result of malice on their part.

In reaching that conclusion, the Cambria County Court was guided by the leading United States Supreme Court case in the area, viz., Eastern Railroad Presidents Conference v. Noerr Motor Freight, Inc., 365 U.S. 127, 81 S. Ct. 523, 5 L.Ed. 2d 464 (1961). The Noerr case stands for the proposition that a petitioner to the government is shielded from civil liability by the First Amendment regardless of his motive, malicious or not, so long as his petitioning was not a "sham" and was, at least in part, designed to influence governmental behavior. With that principle in mind, the Court in Stephens, op. cit., held that:

"A party may will exhibit malice in its attempt to influence government and yet remain protected against civil liability if its petitioning was directed at inducing governmental action or restraint."

'The rationale for the "sham" test is readily apparent; representative government is vitally interested in the views of the citizenry. The people shape and influence governmental policies through their representatives. Communication directed at the government must, therefore, receive the highest deference.'

'The threat of common law tort liability must not be allowed to deter any speech intended to influence the government, and in order to assure this end, the law overlooks both the obvious and hidden motives of petitioner.'

'The import of the court decisions in this area of the law is that the mantle of privilege is removed when the only purpose of (the) petition is to transmit petitioner's complete sham.'

(emphasis in original) Stephens, id., 10 D & C 3d, at 758.

This Court agrees with the Cambria County Court's reading of Noerr. Moreover, this Court is also influenced by the United States District Court for the Northern District of California's further explanation of the "sham" test in its decision in Sierra Club v. Butz, 349 F. Supp. 934 (1972), and therefore also adopts that explanation as its own, said explanation being as follows:

"...liability can be imposed for activities ostensibly consisting of petitioning the government for redress of grievances only if the petitioning is a 'sham,' and the real purpose is not to obtain governmental action, but to otherwise injure the plaintiff.

'...(Moreover), it is a corollary of (said) conclusion that liability can never be imposed upon a party for damage caused by governmental action he induced; only if he causes other damage while acting under the guise of attempting to persuade the government will liability be imposed.' Sierra Club v. Butz, id., 349 F. Supp., at 939.

In applying the above-noted principles to the instant case, this Court is satisfied that the petition in this case was not a complete "sham" in that Plaintiff alleges nowhere in its Complaint that said letter was ever communicated to anyone other than the government. The only results of said letter would, therefore, necessarily have been to induce either governmental action (by withdrawing any permits previously granted K & J Coal to mine on State Game Lands) or governmental restraint (by denying K & J Coal any future permits to mine on State Game Lands). Said letter could not have been sent to otherwise injure Plaintiff since no other person is alleged to have received communication of the same. As such, Defendants were absolutely privileged in said communication regardless of their motives.

In Counts II and III of its Complaint, Plaintiff further avers that two additional letters were authored by Mr. Lingle and sent to Plaintiff itself, which letters contained various false allegations, implied threats, and assorted other statements impugning the integrity of local counsel for Plaintiff, all with the intent of "terrifying" Plaintiff into withdrawing a previous legal action then under way against Defendants. This Court agrees with Defendants, however, that Plaintiff has also failed to state a cause of action in libel in those Counts since nowhere therein does Plaintiff allege publication of the purported libelous statements to any party other than Plaintiff itself. The same cannot, therefore, give rise to a cause of action in libel. 42 Pa. C.S.A. S8343 (a).

Moreover, this Court further agrees with Defendants that said Counts do not otherwise give rise to any other actionable cause founded in tort. The nearest recognized tort theory contained therein cognizable to the Court would possibly be something akin to intentional infliction of emotional distress in that K & J avers that Defendants purpose was to "terrify" it into dropping a previous legal action. The Court notes, however, that such an action is obviously unavailable to Plaintiff here in that it is a sophisticated corporate litigant. Moreover, and more importantly, the Court notes further that even if said Counts would otherwise state a cause recoverable in tort, Plaintiff has nevertheless failed to allege any damage therein since it admits that it did not drop the previous action and, in fact, prosecuted the same to a successful conclusion. Counts II and III must, therefore, also be dismissed for failure to state a cause of action under any recognized theory of tort.

WHEREFORE, the Court enters the following ORDER:

NOW, this 15th day of August, 1983, upon consideration of Defendants' Preliminary Objections filed in the above-captioned matter, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Complaint In Trespass filed by Plaintiff to the above term and number be and is hereby dismissed in accordance with the Court's Memorandum filed herewith. MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed

MARIAN WOODSIDE, has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by John Stolar, M.D. and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in Warren State Hospital involuntary treatment under Section 303, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of inpatient treatment. /s/
John Stolar, M.D.

I affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to him those procedures and his rights as described in Form MH-786-A.
I believe that he understands his rights.

I hereby affirm that I have reexamined Marian Woodside on 12/27/82 to determine if he continues to be severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment.

In my opinion the patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of (continued) treatment. /s/ John

IN RE: COMMITMENT OF ROBERT JAMES WILSON, An Alleged Mentally Disabled Person		JANUARY 14, 1983, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY, TREATMENT MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed. ROBERT JAMES WILSON, has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled. He has been examined by Dr. James K. Fugate and was found to be in need of treatment. As the patient is currently in DuBois Hospital re- ceiving involuntary treatment under Section 303, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be invol- untarily committed for inpatient treatment. I affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to him these pro- cedures and his rights as described in Form MH-785-A. I believe that he understands his rights. I hereby affirm that I have examined Roger J. Wilson on 1/16/83 to determine if he is in need of treatment. In my opinion the patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of (continued) treatment. /s/ James K. Fugate, M.D. ORDER, filed NOW, this 5th day of October, 1982, pursuant to section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143 effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that J. Richard Mattern, II, Esquire be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a period of Two (2) years from October, 1982 through October 1984. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge. ORDER, filed. NOW, this 18th day of October, 1981, pursuant to the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate he and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. The Court finds that ROBERT JAMES WILSON is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended. Accordingly, the Court directs that ROBERT JAMES WILSON be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital, a state mental institution, for in-patient care and treatment as a severely mentally disabled person, for a period of ninety (90) days. This commitment is pursuant to Section 304 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended. The costs of this proceeding, the fee of J. Richard Mattern II, Mental Health Review Officer, and the fee of Richard H. Milgrub, Esquire, attorney for the subject, shall be paid by Clearfield County. It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the Clearfield- Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program shall reimburse Clearfield County in full for the Mental Health Review Officer's fee and $40.00 for the Prothonotary's cost in the filing of the petition.
