		FEBRUARY 15, 1985, PLAINTIFF'S ANSWER TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT AND MOTION IN LIMINE, filed by Joseph Colavecchi, Esq.
		MARCH 25, 1985, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. It appears that in October of 1983 Plaintiff owned a mobile home which she had insured through the Defendant under a Mobile Home Policy, number MO 3019. Pursuant to a trade/sale agreement with her brother, Franklin D. Hartzell, Plaintiff exchanged her interest in this mobile home for ownership of a lot with building located at 47 Cooper Avenue in the village of Grassflat. On the first floor of this building, Plaintiff operated a video arcade parlor and, in early October of 1983, she established her residence on the second floor. At this time, Plaintiff began efforts to secure insurance coverage on the building. Unfortunately, however, the building was destroyed by fire a few days later, prior to the acquisition of insurance coverage. Plaintiff claims that certain language found in the above-mentioned Mobile Home Policy obligates the Defendant to compensate her for damages resulting from the building fire. Defendant contends that there is no coverage under the policy and here moves for summary judgment. The requirements for entering summary judgment were succinctly set forth in the opinion of then President Judge Cercone in Community Medical Services of Clearfield, Inc. v. Local 2365, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, 292 Pa. Super. 238, 242, 437 A.2d 23, 25 (1981). Ordinarily, summary judgment should only be entered if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there exists no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. See Pa. R.C.P. 1035. And see Davis v. Pennzcoil Co., 438 Pa. 194, 264 A.2d 597 (1970); Bollinger v. Palmerton Area Com. Endeavor, Inc. 241 Pa. Superior Ct., 341, 361 A.2d 676 (1967). Furthermore, summary judgment is only proper in cases which are clear and free from doubt as to the existence of a dis-

Rick Mattern Mar.16	COMMONWEALTH OF PENNA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION, 84-423-CD JOHN C. DAVIS, Pro by Atty. 40.00 Atty. 3.00	MARCH 16, 1984, PETITION FOR APPEAL FROM ORDER OF DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION SUSPENDING DRIVER'S LICENSE, filed by Rick mattern, Esquire. One (1) copy Certified to Attorney. One (1) copy Certified and Mailed to Department of Transportation. ORDER, filed. AND NOW, this 16th day of March, 1984, upon consid- eration of the petition of John C. Davis, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that a hearing de novo, be held to determine and resolve the matters raised by petitioner and, specifically, whether petitioner is subject to suspension of his motor vehicle driving privileges for thirth (30) days. It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the appeal Act as a supersedeas and, accordingly, the Direc- tor of the Bureau of Traffic Safety Operations, depart- ment of Transportation, is hereby ORDERED to reinstste petitioner's license pending a final decision by the Court. Hearing in regard to the appeal of petitioner is to be held at the convenience of the Court. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. REilly, Jr., President Judge. JULY 3, 1984, BRIEF ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER, JOHN C. DAVIS. filed by Richard J Mattern II Esquire JULY 26, 1984, OPINION AND ORDER, filed Appellany, JOHN C. DAVIS, has appealed from a suspension of his operating provileges for a period of thirty (30) days. The suspension became effective on February 21, 1984. The appeal give as a supporting basis that certain points allotted against him had not been assigned in a timely manner, as required by Section 1535 (c) of the Motor Vehicle Code, 75 Pa. C.S.A., Section 1535 (c) There is no question that his privileges required suspension three (3) different times because of the accumulation of points. In the instant appeal, we find that because of a stop sign violation of June 12, 1981 he was found guilty on June 23, 1981 and three (3) points were assigned to him under date of November 10, 1981, Because of this violation, he accumulated seven (7) points and was gine a Departmental hearing. The notice for Hearing was dated January 28, 1982, and when hearing was held, he was suspended for thirty (30) days; his license thereafter resorted on July 4, 1982. Then on February, 9, 1983 and on July 22, 1983, he violated speeding vio- lations and was found guilty on March 21, and August 22, 1983 respectively, Since four (4) points were alloted to his record because of these convictions, his total points became six (6) in number. After hearing by the Department, he was agian suspended for thirty (30) days. The latter is the basis for the appeal. We found that in the records and in the evidence within this, that the assignment of points wasiin accordance with the Motor Vehicle Code. In addition, and most importantly, we must reject the Appellant's appeal which is based upon an allegation that the points were not assigned within the period required. However, we also find that no appeal had been taken from the earlier a assignment of points and , thus, the cases of Commonwealth vs. Grela, 19 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 585, 338 A. 2d. 782 (1975) and Commonwealth vs. Morrison, 21 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 400, 346 A. 2d. (1975), control and require the dismissal of the appeal. Having been able to contest the assignment of points on the earlier suspension and not having carried forward with any such contest, he cannot now complain of an improper assignment. In the Grela case, the Court specifically rule "One who serves the full tem of a suspension cannot question its legality in an appeal from a subsequent suspension". Likewise in the Morrison case, the Court specifically held that the "Appellee in failing to challange be appeal the assissment which caused the original sus- pension cannot be heard to question its validity on appeal from a subsequent suspension. The record resulting in an earlier suspension stands firm and connot be disturbed at a later date."
		By virtue of the foregoing, we do not proceed to concern ourselved with the question raised in the assignment of points in any event. However, we are satisfied that even that matter appeal must be rejected. NOW, July 24, 1984, sustained by the foregoing, we Order that the appeal be and it is hereby dismissed and the Order of Suspension is affirmed with directions to the Appellant to transmit forthwith to the Department of Transportation his license to operate. Supplemental Opinãon will be filed only in the event of an appeal. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry, Senior Judge. Specially Presiding CONTINUED ON PAGE 308

Irvona, PA	MARCH 19, 1984, COMPLAINT FOR CUSTODY, filed by Earle D. Lees, Jr., Esquire. (Complaint and Order and three copies to Judge for signing of Order, then returning three copies back to Mr. Lees, office for service. per instruction of Mr. Lees Letter.) FEBRUARY 25, 1985, ANSWER, filed by Timothy Durant, Esq. Two copies certified to atty. FEBRUARY 28, 1985, ORDER, filed. NOW, February 26, 1985, upon hearing had, it is the Finding of the Court that both parents are fit custodians of their children, and, therefor, that the court ORDERS that there be joint custody in said parents of the children. Custody shall remain, however, with the father during the period of the school year and until the children are placed with the mother within five (5) days after the end of the school year, as it applies to the children, and the children shall be returned to the father Two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of the fall session of school so that they may be fully prepared for entry into the first days' classes and activities. It is further ORDERED that the Children and Youth Services of Clearfield County exercise limited supervision, to wit: That it check upon the circumstances of living and other matters which will be of use to the Court and to the parents and the determination of any future action that may be taken in regard to the custody of said children. It is further ORDERED that in the event that any arrangement can possibly be made without interfering with the children's activities in church, school or otherwise, and the parents shall agree to the same, further visitations of the children with the mother may be had. So that there be no misunderstanding, However, this is not an Order that further visitations be had at this time because the Court feels that distance and other factors are such that any other visitation cannot be had upon the basis of what has appeared to this Court. In the supervision which the Court has asked the Clearfield County Children and Youth Services to maintain, they shall also contact the authorities in the County of Marshall, Minnesota, the County in which the mother resides, to-wit: The Borough of Oslo and request reports upon their investigation of all matters, including physical surroundings, church, school as well as matters pertaining to the mother in order that we may be kept informed every three or four months concerning the situation relative to the needs of the children. If is the further ORDER of this Court that until the mother, through her earnings, is capable of providing for a portion of the same, the father shall pay expenses for the travel of the said children back and forth. Any bond heretofore required is now cancelled. BY THE COURT:/s/ John A. Cherry, Senior Judge, Specially Presiding. JANUARY 13, 1986, ORDER, filed. NOW, January 9, 1986, the Order heretofore entered under date of February 26, 1985, is hereby amended to delete therefrom any further supervision and home visits of Clearfield County Children & Youth Services the latter having concluded that there is no further need for same. puted factual question. See Malleskey v. Stevens, 427 Pa. 352, 234 A.2d 154 Malleskey v. Stevens, 427 Pa. 352 A.2d 154 (1967); loth v. Philadelphia, 213 Pa. Superior Ct. 282, 247 A.2d 629 (1968). In ruling on a motion for summary judgment the court must accept as true all well-pleaded facts in the non-moving party's pleadings, as well as admissions on file, giving to them the benefit of all reasonable inferences to be drawn therefrom. See Hankin v. Mintz, 276 Pa. Superior Ct. 538, 419 A.2d 588 (1980); Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc. 219 Pa. Superior Ct., 198, 280 A.2d 580 (1971). The record as a whole should be examined in the light most favorable to the party opposing the motion and all doubts as to the existence of a genuine issue about a material fact must be resolved in that party's favor, that is, against the entry of summary judgment. See Bowman v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 245 Pa. Superior Ct. 530, 369 A.2d 754 (1976); Husak v. Berkel, Inc., 234 Pa. Superior Ct. 452, 341 A.2d 174 (1975); Schachter v. Albert 212 Pa. Superior Ct. 58, 239 A.2d 841 (1968). And see Hankin v. Mintz, supra; Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc., supra. In disposing of such a motion the court's function is not to decide issues of fact, but solely to determine whether there are material issues of fact to be decided. See Hankin v. Mintz, supra; Ritmanich v. Jonnel Enterprises, Inc., supra.

The obligation or liability of an insurer under a policy of insurance is defined by the terms of the policy. Generally, the insured cannot recover if he has sustained no loss within the policy. The interpretation and construction of a policy of insurance, like that of any other written contract, is for the Court. See Adelman v. State Farm Mut. Auto Ins. Co., 255 Pa. Super 116, 123, 386 A.2d 535, 538 (1978); Baldwin V. Magen, 279 Pa. 302, 306, 123 A. 815, 816, (1924); Blue Ridge Textile v. Travelers Indemnity Co., 27 D & C 2d 55, 62 (1961) aff'd per curiam, 407 Pa. 463, 181 A.2d 295 (1962). An insurance policy must be read in its entirety and its words are to be given their plain and popular meanings. Ranieli v. Mutual Life Ins. Co. of America, 271 Pa. Super. 261, 270, 413 A.2d 396, 400 (1979); Pennsylvania Mfrs.' Ass'n Ins. Co. v. Aetna C. & S. Ins. Co., 426 Pa. 453, 457, 233 A.2d 548, 551 (1967). When a word is specifically defined in the definitions section of a policy, the court will apply that definition in interpreting sections where that word is used. Adelman, 255 Pa. Super. at 123, 386 A.2d at 538; Great American Ins. Co. v. State Farm Mut. Ins. Co., 412 Pa. 538, 194 A.2d 903 (1963). While an ambiguous term must be given a construction most favorable to the insured, Patton v. Patton, 413 Pa. 566, 573, 198 A.2d 578, 582 (1964), a provision of an insurance policy is ambiguous only if reasonably intelligent men, on considering it in the context of the entire policy, would honestly differ as to its meaning. Celley v. Mutual Benefit Health & Assident Ass'n., 229 Pa. Super. 475, 481-2, 324 A.2d 430, 434 (1974).

It is clear from the pleadings and other matters of record that the only issue in this case involves the interpretation of the insurance policy. As such, it is a matter for the court and a proper subject for summary judgment consideration. There are no material issues of fact to be decided.

Plaintiff's complaint alleges total damages of one hundred fifty-two thousand three hundred sixty-four ($152,364) dollars, which represents her expert's estimate of the cost of replacing the structure. She seeks to recover the policy limits. Plaintiff contends that the definition of the term "Insured premises", as it appears in the definitions section of the policy here in question, serves to extend coverage to the building she acquired and moved into. This claim is clearly without merit. The definition cited by Plaintiff reads as follows:

Insured Premises.....means:
 (a) the residence premises;
 (b) any other premises acquired by you during the term of this policy which you intend to use as a residence premises;
 (c) the part of any other premises where you reside and which is shown in the declarations;
 (c) part of a premises not owned by an insured person where the insured person may be temporarily residing or which an insured person may occasionally rent for non-business purposes;
 (e) vacant land, other than farmland, owned by or rented to an insured person;
 (f) cemetery plots or burial vaults owned by an insured person;
 (g) land on which a single or two family residence is being built for an insured person, if the land is owned by or rented to the insured person;
 (h) structures or grounds used by you in connection with your residence premises.

Even if this definition were held to include the building here in question, that fact would be of no aid to Plaintiff's claim under this policy, as the term "Insured premises" is never used in the Property Protection section of the policy or on the Declaration page. The definitions section simply provides definitions to be applied when the defined term is used in the policy. The property coverage existing under this policy is set forth in Section I of the policy, entitled Property Protection. The term "Insured premises" does not appear in Section I of the policy.

Moreover, this policy is specifically titled "Mobile Home Policy" and coverage is extended to an "mobile home at the residence premises...." "Residence Premises" is defined as: "the grounds and the mobile home where you reside, as described in the Declarations, including the adjacent structures on the grounds." Plaintiff's building was not a mobile home, nor was it adjacent structure as set forth in the policy, nor was it located on the grounds where the mobile home was located, nor was it described in the declarations of this policy. Any claim that this building was covered under this policy is clearly erroneous. This policy, as it pertains to Plaintiff's claim of coverage of her building, is totally unambiguous. Furthermore, the policy does state on page 3: "We do not cover loss to structures used to any extent for business purposes." It is undisputed that a portion of the building was used to house a video arcade parlor and a portion was rented for the storage of construction materials.

It also seems clear that, at no time prior to the fire, did Plaintiff possess any reasonable expectation that her building was protected by her mobile home policy. This is made clear by the fact that she was attempting to secure insurance coverage on this building at the time of the fire. In sum, this Court is persuaded that summary judgment should be entered in favor of the defendant. Plaintiff's claims in opposition to summary judgment are without merit and

NOTICE AND ORDER TO APPEAR, filed

Legal proceedings have been brought against you alleging you have willfully disobeyed an order of court for visitation.

If you wish to defend against the claim set forth in the following pages, you may but are not required to file in writing with the court your defenses or objections.

Whether or not you file in writing with the court your defenses or objections, you must appear in person in court on July 5, 1994 at 2:30 pm in Courtroom $2 of the Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, PA 16830.

If the court finds that you have willfully failed to comply with its order for visitation you may be found to be in contempt of court and committed to jail, fined or both. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr, P.J.

SEPTEMBER 13, 1994, ORDER, filed 1 cert/Atty Morgan, Shepherd

AND NOW, September 13, 1994, upon consideration of the above-referenced Exceptions, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said exceptions be summarily dismissed and the requested relief be denied for the following reasons:

(1) Initially, the Court would note that the Exceptions were filed on July 21, 1994. They were not brought to the Court's attention until September 12, 1994. Thus, the delay in addressing them.

(2) The first Exceptions pursued by Defendant relates to the parties' intent as being paramount to the express provisions of the July 27, 1992 Order. This point was decided in paragraph (4) of the July 8th Order. The Court can only restate its position that Defendant initiated a contempt proceeding, and that Plaintiff can only be found in contempt for violating the provisions of the July 27, 1992 Order. It is not the parties' intent that controls when the Order uses a clearly defined term such as "visitation."

(3) Defendant's second Exception relates to the alleged denial of visitation in the summer of 1994. This was addressed and rejected in paragraph (5) of the July 8th Order. The Court elects to stand by its original determination. BY THE COURT: Carson V. Brown, Sr Judge, SP.

AUGUST 13, 1984, OPINION AND ORDER, filed.

This matter is before us upon appeal from license suspension by petitioner averring that certain points appearing on his driving record were not timely assigned as statutorily mandated by Section 1535(c) of the Motor Vehicle Code, 75 Pa. C.S.A. 1535(c).

In this case and on June 12, 1981, the petitioner committed a violation of Section 3323 of the Motor Vehicle Code, 75 Pa. C.S.A. 3323, which is a stop sign and/or yield sign violation for which he was convicted on June 23, 1981. The conviction resulted in three(3) points being assigned to his driving record on November 10, 1981, raising his point total to seven(7) and thus required him to attend a departmental hearing on the matter. As a result of the hearing, the petitioner's operating privileges were suspended for thirty(30) days. The petitioner did not appeal the order of suspension, served the suspension and, subsequently, had his license restored on July 4, 1982.

Petitioner remained violation free for a one year period. However, he subsequently committed two(2) separate speeding violations for which he was convicted on both violations. As a result of these convictions, petitioner's point total was raised back up to six(6). Petitioner's presence was necessitated at a departmental hearing which again resulted in a thirty (30) day suspension. The following issues were raised:

(1) Whether a point accumulation resulting in a previous suspension of operating privileges can be challenged in a hearing regarding the merits of the imposition of a subsequent suspension based upon an additional accumulation of points?

(2) Whether the record evidence indicates an assignment of points in accordance with the relevant portions of the Motor Vehicle Code?

These will be considered herein ad seriatim.

Petitioner first contends that the Commonwealth failed to prove that the points were timely assigned for the traffic violation which occurred on June 12, 1981 and thus these points should be declared null and void. With this we cannot agree. Petitioner's failure to challenge the timeliness of the assignment of the points for the June 12, 1981 traffic violation when the timeliness of assignment of the points was at issue in the resulting thirty(30) days suspension precludes him from asserting this argument at present time. "The appellee in failing to challenge by appeal the assessment which caused the original suspension cannot be heard to question its validity on appeal from a subsequent suspension. That record resulting in the earlier suspension stands firm and cannot be disturbed at a later date." Commonwealth v. Morrison, 21 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 400, 403, 362 A.2d 920 (1975). Furthermore, an appellant who had the opportunity to question the assessment of points leading to an earlier suspension at the time of that first suspension and thus failed to do so, cannot now be given a second chance to litigate those same issues. "One who serves the full term of a suspension cannot question its legality in an appeal from a subsequent suspension." Commonwealth v. Grela, 19 Pa. Commonwealth Ct. 585, 588, 338 A.2d 782 (1975).

In view of the foregoing, we do not discuss the other matters in issue..which, in and of themselves, are not sustained for the appellant in the evidence produced.

We thus enter the following
