He was active in teh affairs of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, served two terms as a member of the House of Delegates and in 1974 he was elected President of the Pennsylvania Conference of County Bar Officers. He also served on the Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania Bar Association from 1977 to 1980.

Those who knew John B. Gates well knew him as a compassionate man of great integrity. In his court appearances, he was gentle but firm and dignified in his approach to the Court, the juries, the parties and the witnesses.

He was a hard worker and could have said with Robert Louis Stevenson, "I know what pleasure is for I have done good work."
He will be sorely missed by the members of this Bar, his family and friends.

Mr. Vice-President, I move that Adoption of the Memorial REsolution by the Clearfield County Bar Association with the request that the President Judge, John K. Reilly, direct that this Memorial REsolution be filed in and instructed on the Docket of this proceedings be transcribed and filed with certified copies to be furnished to the family of John B. Gates, Esquire.

MR. NEVLING: I have the honor to second that Motion.

MR. ARNOLD: Mr. Jones, in lieu of the vote, I would like to move the Adoption of the Resolution.

MR. JONES: The Resolution as properly moved and seconded, I move that the Resolution be unanimously Adopted.

THE COURT: Seeing no objection, I do direct that the same be accomplished.

MR. JONES: We ask that the Court make a few remarks and thereafter the members of the Bar or public to make remarks.

THE COURT: Thank you. I would very much like to speak at this time. John. to me, epitomized all that a lawyer can be and should be. It's my privilege and my pleasure to practice before the same Bar before the same Bench with John for a number of years. And my earliest recollections are his willingness and ability, his desire to help a young, struggling attorney in all of the many pitfalls that can arise. And I couldn't begin to enumerate the times that he has been of assistance to me.

I do want to mention one specificly which occurred over 20 years ago. I had jsut been elected District Attorney and was faced with the prosecution of a criminal homicide for which I felt completely inadequate and probably not without some jsutification. I had no Assistant District Atttorney, and looking over the list of memebers of the Bar and with some assistance I approached John to ask if he would help me in the prosecution of that case. He hesitated not at all.

He said in view of the circumstances of the case, the fact that I had jsut taken office he would be most happy to help me, and he did. And his compensation from that--the gain that he received from his helping me, I know, was not monetary. I know it was just his knowledge of a job well done and of having helped a needy member of his Bar Association.

I have never forgotten John for that. And he continually lived up to what I had expected he would do. In this era of attacks on members of memebers of the Bar and the legal profession we don't have enough John Gates' that we can afford to lsoe one. WE are going to miss him sorely. I consider it a privilege and pleasure to have known him and worked with him, and we are going to miss him. Mr. Jones.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Your Honor. Is there any other person, whether or not a member of the Bar Association, that would like to make some remarks for the record.

MR. EDWARD CHERRY: May I offer my few words. I've known John Gates prior to the time he became an attorney. I knew him when he was riding back and forth from Dickinson College--I wasn't going to Dickinson College at the time, but my brother, George, was. And through George I came to know John Gates, and we always joked at one thing. One time he was bringing my brother back home and I guess they had to stop about 15 times, by brother got deathly sick and that was certainly an episode there.

You know, John is what I call an attorney's attorney. He never was out to getyou or make a hard settlement. Every case I had with John gates I settled, and when he sat down with you he would show you the pros and cons of the case and say, Now, I think this is a fair settlement, what do you think? He was really a gentleman's gentleman. I'm going to miss him very much. I'd like to think I pattern my way of practicing the same way that John Gates practiced his way of practicing law. We miss him very, very much.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Mr. Cherry.

MR. F. CORTEZ BELL, JR.: Judge Reilly, Jr. Jones, members of the family. I retruned to Dlearfield, was admitted to the courts of Clearfield County in 1950, at that time my father was not available when I had a question. There were two people in the Bar that I was fortunate enough throughout the years to be able to sit donw and discuss anything that puzzled me or bothered me. One, of course, was my associate, Walter M. Swoope, and the other was John B. Gates, he was always available to me.

I knwo Judgve Reilly said he was always happy to help a struggling, young attorney and I do not think that I can qualify in the young part. at least, but John and I continued to discuss matters through the years. I think the last matter we discussed was possibly a week before he left his office for the final time. The Association will miss someone like John, and I feel that I've lsot a personal friend.

MR. JONES: Thank you, Mr. bell, Is there anybody else that would like to make some comments for the record?

NO RESPONSE.

MR. JONES: Your Honor, there being no further request to make some remarks, I too, direct that the Memorial Service be Adjourned.

THE COURT: It is Adjourned. Thank you, thank you all for coming.

END OF PROCEEDINGS h

(WHEREUPON, the follwing remarks were submitted and accepted by the Court.)

MR. C. FREDERICK RALSTON: To the Honorable Judge John K. Reilly, Jr.Mr. Jones of the Clearfield Bar Association, and to the John B. Gates family.

To day we speak fo the memory fo Mr. gates, a man of quiet dignity, a hardy handshake, and a reassurring smile. Of the many attributes, Mr. gates possessed two that stand firmly in my mind.

First, friendship. Hisfriendship transcended all stations of life, this making special memories for many people. SEcondly, example. By his example we find structure to our own lives. Therefore, it is nto only the mrmory of Mr. gates thats serves us, but his example that guides us. These all serve as his legacy to his family, friends, and community.

GUARANTY AGREEMENT

In order to induce JERSEY SHORE STATE BANK, a state banking corporation (hereinafter called "Bank"), from time to time, in its discretion, to extend or continue credit or other financial accommodation to WOOD CHIPS, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation, (hereinafter called "Borrower"), and intending to be legally bound, the Undersigned hereby guarantees to Bank the prompt payment to Bank at maturity whether by acceleration or otherwise, of every note, check, bill of exchange, draft, trade acceptance, loan, advance, discount and order for the payment of money, and all other obligations, in connection with which, either as maker, drawer, guarantor, endorser or otherwise, whether directly or contingently, Borrower is or shall hereafter become liable to Bank whether created directly or acquired by Bank by assignment or otherwise, whether matured or unmatured and whether absolute or contingent, with interest thereon, together with all attorney fees, costs and expenses of collection incurred by Bank in connection with any matter covered by this Agreement, all of which are hereafter referred to as "Liabilities of the Borrower."

1. The liability of the Undersigned shall continue until payment is made of every Liability of Borrower now due or hereafter to become due, and until payment is made of any loss or damage incurred by Bank with respect to any matter covered by this Agreement. Until Bank shall receive written notice, by Registered or Certified Mail signed by the Undersigned, cancelling this Agreement, the liability of the Undersigned shall remain in full force and effect, but in any event, such cancellation shall not affect the liability of the Undersigned on any Liability of Borrower incurred or contracted by Borrower or acquired by Bank prior to the time of the actual receipt by Bank of such notice of cancellation.

2. The Undersigned consent without affecting the Undersigned's liability to Bank hereunder that Bank may, without notice to or consent of the Undersigned, upon such terms as Bank may deem advisable: (a) extend, in whole or in part, by renewal or otherwise, the time of payment of any indebtedness owing by Borrower to Bank or held by Bank as security for such obligation; (b) release, surrender, exchange, modify, waive, impair or extend the period of duration, or the time or method for performance or payment or any collateral securing any Liability of Borrower to Bank; and (c) settle or compromise any claim of Bank against Borrower, or against any other person, firm or corporation whose obligation is held by Bank as collateral security for any Liability of Borrower to Bank, and generally deal with Borrower or any security or other person as Bank may see fit.

The Undersigned hereby ratify and confirm any such extension, renewal, release, surrender, exchange, modification, impairment, settlement, compromise or dealing and all such actions shall be binding upon the Undersigned to the same extent as if specifically authorized by the Undersigned. The Undersigned hereby waives all defenses, counterclaims or offsets which the Undersigned might have by reason thereof.

3. The Undersigned waive: (a) notice of incurring by Borrower of additional Liabilities to Bank; (b) notice of acceptance of this Agreement by Bank; and (c) notice of presentment, demand for payment or protest of any of Borrower's obligations, or liabilities, or the obligation of any person, firm or corporation held by Bank as collateral security for any Liabilities of Borrower; and (d) notice of the failure of any person, firm or corporation to pay Bank any indebtedness held by Bank as collateral security for any Liability of Borrower; and (e) all defenses, offsets and counterclaims which the Undersigned or Borrower may at any time have to any claim of Bank against Borrower.

4. Bank may at its option proceed in the first instance against the Undersigned to collect any obligation covered by this Agreement without first proceeding against the Borrower, or any other person, firm or corporation, and without first resorting to any property at any time held by Bank as collateral security including without limitation any balance of any deposit account or credit on the books of the Bank in favor of the Undersigned or any other person. The rights hereunder include a right of immediate setoff against any accounts or deposits the Undersigned may have with Bank.

5. The term "Undersigned" as used herein, if this instrument is signed by more than one party, shall mean "all of the Undersigned and each of them" and in such case they are jointly and severally bound. If any party hereto shall be a partnership, the agreements and obligations on any part of the Undersigned herein contained shall remain in force and applicable notwithstanding any changes in the individuals composing the partnership and the term "Undersigned" shall include any altered or successive partnerships but the predecessor partnerships and partners shall not thereby be released from any obligation or liability. If similar Agreements have been executed by other persons or parties, the obligations and liabilities of the Undersigned and all such other persons or parties shall be joint and several.

6. No delay on the part of Bank in exercising any rights hereunder or failure to exercise the same shall operate as a waiver of such rights; nor in any event shall any modification or waiver of the provisions of this Agreement be effective unless in writing nor shall any such waiver be applicable except in the specific instance for which given.

7. The terms "guaranty" and "guarantor" as used herein shall include the terms "suretyship" and "surety".

8. The Undersigned and each of them hereby empower the Prothonotary or any attorney of any court of record within the United States or elsewhere to appear for the Undersigned and with or without one or more declarations filed, confess a judgment or judgments at any time against the Undersigned or any of them in favor of Bank, as of any term, for the unpaid balance of the Liabilities of the Borrower with costs of suit and an attorney's commission of fifteen (15%) percent for collection, with release of all errors and without stay of execution, and inquisition and extension upon levy on real estate is hereby waived and condemnation agreed to, and the exemption of all property from levy and sale on any execution thereon, and exemption of wages from attachment, are also hereby expressly waived, and no benefit of exemption shall be claimed under or by virtue of any exemption law now in force of which may hereafter be enacted.

9. This Guaranty is delivered and made in and shall be construed pursuant to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and is binding this 14th day of September, 1984, upon the Undersigned, their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals to enter into this Guaranty Agreement, all intending to be legally bound thereby.

	IN RE: COMMITMENT OF RICHARD K. MCGARY, An Alleged Mentally Disabled Person.	SEPTEMBER 20, 1984, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed. RICHARD MCGARY has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled. He has been examined by Dr. James K. Fugate and was found to be in need of treatment. I believe that he understands his rights. /s/ Robert D. Silno. I hereby affirm that I have examined Richard McGary on 9/19/84 to determine if he is in need of treatment. 	Sep.24 1:50 pm	IN RE: CLEARFIELD COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION MEMORIAL MEETING FOR JOHN B. GATES, ESQUIRE, 84-1495-CD	SEPTEMBER 24, 1984, MEMORIAL TO JOHN B. GATES, filed. We are meeting here today in conformity with a custom of this Bar Association which originated over a century ago. This custom is to assemble the members of the Bar Association in honor or a deceased member, and today we meet in honor of John B. Gates who died on July 25, 1984. JOHN B. GATES was a man of many accomplishments. He was not only a successful lawyer with an extensive law practice but he had also served in many civic capacities. He was, for many years,a member of the Curwensville Rotary Club and president in 1950; a charter member and director of the Clearfield County Historical Society; a member of the Board of Directors of the Clearfield YMCA for over 25 years; and he also served as Director of the Clearfield County Civil Defense from 1954 to 1961. In World War II, he was on active duty in the Pacific Theatre serving as a Senior Lieutenant with the United states Coast Guard. JOHN B. GATES, a person of high intelligence with a fine sense of humor, graduated from Curwensville High School, Dickinson College and the Dickinson School of Law. He was an active member of the United Presbyterian Church of Clearfield and had held office as trustee, deacon and elder. He was a devoted family man and he and his wife, the former Mary Helen Person, were the parents of three children--a son, James K. Gates, II, a daughter, Susan Gates Seaman, married to his law partner, Laurance B. Seaman, and a son, Andrew P. Gates, also a practicing attorney, presently associated with Laruance B. Seaman. But primarily it is as a lawyer that we wish to speak of him today. He was admitted to practice before the several courts of Clearfield County on July 26, 1943, and was subsequently admitted to practice before the Supreme and superior Courts of Pennsylvania and the Federal District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania. Early in his career he had served as an Assistant District Attorney for one year and he was President of the Clearfield County Bar Association from 1970 to 1972. He was active in the affairs of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, served two terms as a member of the House of Delegates and, in 1974, he was elected President of the Pennsylvania Conference of County Bar Officers. He also served on teh Board of Governors of the Pennsylvania Bar Association from 1977 to 1980. Those who knew John B. Gates well knew him as a compassionate man of great integrity. In his court appearance, he was gentle but firm and dignified in his approach to the Court, the juries, the parties and the witnesses. He was a hard worker and could have said with Robert Louis Stevenson, "I know what pleasure is for I have done good work." He will be sorely missed by the members of this Bar, his family and friends. Respectfully submitted, James K. Nevling, Glenn E. Thomson, Dan P. Arnold. SEPTEMBER 24, 1984, TRANSCRIPT, filed. THE COURT: This is the date that the Clearfield Bar Association has designated for it's Memorial Service for it's late member, JOHN B. GATES. And for this purpose the Court recognizes Mr. Scott Jones, the Vice-President of the Clearfield County Bar Association, representint that association in the absence of its President, Mr. Carl Belin, Jr. MR. JONES: The purpose of opening the Court record and this meeting of the Bar Association is to conduct a Memorial Service, he was a member of the Bar Association for 40 years. I would like to thank the following members for being here this morning; Mrs. John B. Gates; James Gates II, son; Susan Gates Seaman, daughter; and Andrew P. Gates, son; James K. Gates, brother; and Laurance Seaman, son-in-law. The committee for this Memorial Service consists of James K. Nevling, Dan P. Arnold, and at this time I would like to turn the service over to Mr. Thomson. MR. JULY 10, 1985, ORDER, filed
NOW, July, 10th, 1985, a Petitinn of Charles D. Gallager, one of the Defendants above-named, it granted and he is hereby permitted to proceed in forma pauperis.
BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr President Judge.

JULY 10, 1985, MEMORANDUM, filed
NOW, July 10, 1985, for the record, the Court declares that it has heard in the foregoing case and although it has attempted to explain fully to the Defendant, Charles D. Gallagher, that the Court has no power to appoint an attorney for him and that his attempt to have this matter transferred or certified over the Orphans' Court is with out foundation. He has appeared without benefit of Counsel, and the Court permitted him to do so. If fact permitted him to proceed in forma Pauperis. After several attempts to define the matter for him, the Court is required to terminate the argument and to proceed to enter appropriate Order in the matter.

In order to attempt to assure the fullest return upon foreclosure sale, the Court will Order that any and all of the heris may bid at the sale thereon. The fact that the said Charles D. Gallagher had declared himself to be indigent does not make such order improper; it sole purpose being that the heirs may be able to acquire a greater sum that other public bidders may offer. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

CIVIL ACTION NOVEMBER 1984 DOCKET 239

IN RE: COMMITMENT OF LAWRENCE SISCO, An Alleged Mentally Disabled Person,

84-1712-CD

NOVEMBER 9, 1984, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed.

LAWRENCE SISCO, has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by Dr. J. K. Fugate and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in DuBois Hospital receiving involuntary treatment under Section 303, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntary committed for inpatient treatment.

I affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to the patient these procedures and his rights as described in From MH-785-A. I believe that he understands his rights.

I hereby affirm that I have reexamined Larry Sisco on 11/8/84 to determine if he continues to be severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment.

IN MY OPINION: The patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment. /s/ James K. Fugate, MD.
