NOW, this 8th day of February, 1988, Motion having been filed by the parties hereto along with their respective counsel requesting modification of the Decree in Divorce entered by this Court to the above term and number on September 8, 1986, it is the Order of this Court that Paragraph 6 of said Decree be amended as follows:

1. That the proper mailing address of Patricia A. Poad be established as follows: R.D. 1, Brockport, Pennsylvania 15823.

2. That a retirement plan is provided for Husband by his employer, Brockway, Inc., in which Husband is fully vested. At the present time, the parties stipulate and agree that age sixty-five (65) is the normal retirement age specified under the plan provided by Husband's employer and that at age sixty-five (65) based on the benefits accrued during the marriage of the parties, Husband has the right to receive a monthly benefit of $640.00.

The intention of this Order is for Wife to receive her share (as an alternate payee under a qualified Domestic Relations Order as provided by the Retirement Equity Act of 1984) of Husband's retirement benefits as a participant in the Brockway, Inc., Employee's Retirement Plan. The Parties stipulate and agree that August 18, 1985 is deemed to be the effective date for the following division of the Husband's account into a share belonging to Wife and a share belonging to Husband. As of that date, Husband had a right to receive a monthly benefit of $640.00.

The parties stipulate and agree that Husband will immediately execute whatever documents are necessary to elect a joint and survivor option in his benefit plan and to name Patricia A. Upon Husband's retirement, the Plan Administrator will cause the plan to distribute to Patricia A. Poad the sum of $320.00 per month for each and every month thereafter. At the death of the said William J. Poad, the Plan Administrator shall cause the plan to pay to Patricia A. Poad her survivor benefits in the monthly amount of $320.00 for so long as a monthly allotment is payable to her under the terms of the Plan.

In the event that the said William J. Poad should die prior to retirement, then the Plan Administrator shall cause the plan to distribute to wife the benefits due her as a survivor in accordance with the provisions of the plan provided for employees of Brockway, Inc. based on her share in Husband's account as of August 18, 1985, plus any earnings thereon to September 8, 1986.

FEBRUARY 15, 1991, CONSENT AGREEMENT FOR ALIMONY, /s/ Barbara A. (Hullihen) Julie- Timothy E. Durant, Esq & /s/ Daniel E. Hullihen-John R. Carfley, Esq filed by Timothy E. Durant, Esq. 4 cert/Atty

FEBRUARY 25, 1991, CONSENT ORDER, filed. FOUR (4) Copies Cert to Atty
AND NOW, this 21st day of February, 1991, upon consideration of the Consent Agreement for Alimony signed by the parties and their counsel it is hereby;
ORDERED AND DECREED that Defendant, Daniel E. Hullihen, shall pay Alimony to and for the benefit of his former wife Barbara A. Julie (formerly Barbara A. Hullihen) in the amount of $200.00 per month beginning on January 31, 1991, and continuing in like fashion on the last day of each month thereafter for forty-one more months with the forty-third and final payment of $66.93 due on July 31, 1994. Based upon the relatively unequal financial circumstances of the parties and the fact that the former husband, Danield A. Hullihen continues to reside in the marital home, subject as it is to liens which are in excess of the value of the said home, this court finds that it is in the best interests of Plaintiff that Daniel's remaining obligation to Barbara be and hereby is considered to be a further support obligation in the nature of Alimony,
All Defendant's Alimony payments as set forth above shall be made to the domestic relations section of this court and shall be enforced as set forth in §503 of the Divorce Code of this Commonwealth.
Upon failure of Defendant to pay any payment in full by the due date and if such failure should continue for a period of 15 days thereafter the domestic relations section of this court is hereby directed to forthwith enter a wage attachment automatically against him directed to any and all appropriate employers.
This consent order also resolves any and all matters presently outstanding between the parties and any items set forth in the order of April 17, 1990, are either in the possession of the party who was to obtain it, no longer exist(s), or is forever relinquished by the party not in possession at this time. MARCH 24, 1987 ORDER filed
NOW, March 18, 1987, the Court having heard considerable evidence on the question of custody and related matters including both the Petitioner and Respondent and it being desirous of further information, the Court DIRECTS that David Kosko of Lutheran Social Services investigate the home conditions of both these families and the surrounding conditions as to the two parents and the child and report as soon as possible, with costs to be paid by the Petitioner.

Pending Mr. Cosco's investigation and reports, temporary custody of the child, Cory James McKinley, is awarded to the Petitioner, David G. Saudarg, forthwith in view of the fact that the child has had a considerable relationship with the Petitioner in the past and the mother at one point volunteered to let the child with the Petitioner for two months, last month, and the child has not been with the Petitioner for six weeks. This order is entirely temporary insofar as the custody is concerned. Further, the support payments being made by David G. Saudarg are suspended while the investigation is being conducted, which is to be paid for by the Petitioner.

Visitation of the child by the mother will be as agreed to by the father, the Petitioner, and the mother, the Respondent. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge Saudarg, subject to the mother having visitation as agreed to by the parties.

Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that primary physical and legal custody of Cory James McKinley be and is hereby awarded to David G. Saudarg, subject to the mother having visitation as agreed to by the parties.

Either party may file Exceptions and demand an evidentiary hearing within ten (10) days from the date hereof. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge

			APRIL 16, 1986, MEMORANDUM AND ORDER, filed. The Plaintiffs' complaint alleges that they suffered damage on September 17, 1982, when an automobile driven by Joseph M. Johnson careened off the highway at approximately 1:00 to 1:30 a.m. and crashed through the side of their home. Joseph M. Johnson was insured by the State Mutual Insurance Company. Approximately one (1) year later, Plainitiffs received reimbursement for property damage from State Mutual Insurance Company in the amount of eight thousand two hundred forty-five and 98/100 ($8,245.98) dollars. Plaintiffs then signed a general release with State Mutual Insurance Company releasing them as well as Joseph M. Johnson from any and all claims arising from the September 17, 1982, accident. In addition, Plaintiffs maintained a homer's policy for property damage with State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, the defendant. Plaintiffs now seek reimbursementunder their homeowner's policy for the alleged property damamge arising out of the September 17, 1982, accident. Defendant's only issue, whether or not it is entitled to the granting of it's motion for judgment on the pleadings and/or summary judgment based upon the proposition that the general release signed by the Plaintiffs not only release the Johnsons but also released the Defendant, thus barring the Plaintiffs from proceeding against the Defendant since such release prejudicied the Defendant's right of subrogation, is accepted by this Court. In arriving at this conclusion this Court is emphasizing that it is seeking to avoid any recovery by the Plaintiffs in excess of their actual loss. If the rule of law is to be changed, it must be done by the Supreme Court. This Court is not at liberty to disregard well established legal principles and permit a double recovery in favor of flight into unprecedented and novel solutions to existing disputes. Moreover, there is no compelling reason to fashion a new rule in order to decide the instant case. Insurance is to compensate an insured for a loss. It is not to permit a gain by the insured. Obviously an insured cannot recover insurance in an amount greater than the loss the insured has sustained. The release in question is a general release and it recites that it releases and discharges Glenn C. Johnson, Ethel M. Johnson and Joseph M. Johnson: from any and all actions, causes of action, claims and demands, for, upon or by reason of any damabe, loss or injury, known or unknown, which heretofore has been or which hereafter may be sustianed by inconsequence of an accident which occurred on September 17, 1982 at 1160 West Hannah Street, Houtzdale, Pennsylvania; wherein our property was damaged and for any and all personal injuries and injury to persons; this payment represents the full insurance policy limits and no amount is designated to be for personal injuries or for property damamge If such a release can be nullified or circumvented, then every written released and every written contract or agreement of anykind, no matter how clear and pertinent and all-inclusive can be set aside whenever one of the parties has a change of mind or whenever there subsequently occurs a change of circumstances which were unforeseen, or there were after-discovered injuries, or the magnitude of a releasor's injuries was unexpectedly increased, or pliantff made an inadequate settlement. It would make a mockery of the English language and of the law to permit this released to be circumvented or held to be nugataory. Emery v Mackiewicz,

Reilly Jr., President Judge.

ORDER, filed.

AND NOW, the 18th day of October 1981, pursuant to Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said Act. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jrl, President Judge.

OCTOBER 28, 1985, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed.

One (1) copy Certified to Attorney R. Mattern.

DECREE, filed.

AND NOW, this 28th day of October, 1985, the Mental Health REview Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that BRET BAILEY is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended. The patient is not mentally disabled to the extent that inpatient hospitalization is required.

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that Bret Bailey be involuntarily committed to the Clearfield/Jefferson Community Mental Health Center, partial Hospitalization Program, for a period of up to One Hundred Eighty (180) days. This program is the least restrictive program suitable for this patient as this time.

This Decree is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The costs of this proceeding and the fee of J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, Mental Health Review Officer, shall be paid by Clearfield County.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the Clearfield-Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program reimbruse Clearfield County to the extent permissible by their regulations. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

429 Pa. 322, 326, 240, A.2d 68, 70 (1968). Where the language of a contract is clear and unambiguous, the Court is required to give effect to that language. This Court sees nothing in this matter to justify the modification or invalidation of the release.

Furthermore, the Plaintiffs violated their homeowner's policy when they signed the general release. The homeowner's policy, in pertinent part, reads as follows:

> 8. Subrogation. Any insured may waive in writing before a loss all rights of recovery against any person. If not waived, we may require an assignment of rights of recovery for a loss to the extent that payment is made by us.
> If an assignment is sought, any insured shall sign and deliver all related papers and cooperate with us in any reasonable manner.
> Subrogation does not apply under Seciton II to Medical Payments to Others or Damage to Property of Others.

Thus, any right of subrogation that the Defendant may have had against State Mutual Insurance Company was lost when the Plaintiffs signed the general released.

In Bradford v. American Mutual Liability Insurance Co., 213 Pa. Super, 8, 245 A.2d 478 480 (1968), the court stated:

> Although the appellee [insurer] would not be entitled to subrogation against the tortfeasor before paying the insured, it is clear from the policy that the appellee conditioned its policy liability on the insured's taking no action to defeat or diminish the insured's right of recovery upon which the insurer's right of subrogation depends.....Appellant's [insured's] settlement and release preclude any further suit against this tortfeasor arising from the same cause of action, Philadelphia v.Philadelphia Rapid Transit, 337 Pa. 1, 10 A.2d 434 (1940), and relieved the appellee [insurer] from its contractual obligation to pay.

See also Lesko v. State Farm Mut. Auto, Ins., 54 West 25 (1972); Demmery v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 85 Dauph. 316, affirmed 210 Pa. Super. 193, 232, A.2d 21 (1966).

In the present case, the Plaintiffs have already been properly reimbursed by State Mutual Insurance Company. To permit the Plaintiffs to recover from State Farm Fire and Casualty Company after the Plaintiffs have already signed a general release, thereby precluding the Defendant from exercising their subrogation rights, is a clear violation of a meterial condition in the insurance contract between the Plaintiffs and the Defendant. As such, the Defendant is relieved of liability under that contract and the Defendant's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and/or Motion for Summary Juagment is granted.

WHEREFORE, the Court enteres the following:

ORDER, filed.

NOW, this 14th day of April, 1986, upon consideration of Defendant's Motion for Judgment on teh Pleadings and/or Summary Judgment, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Motion be and is hereby sustianed. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

JUNE 8, 1988, ORDER, filed
NOW, this 7th day of June, 1988, upon consideration of the Preliminary Objections in the nature of a Demurrer filed by Peter J. Taylor, Esquire, on behalf of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., and after reviewing the Briefs of counsel, the Court finds the arguments set forth in the Brief submitted by Attorney Taylor dispositive of the issues raised.
In the case at bar, the Plaintiffs filed suit against Burchfield Trucking, Inc. and Donald Shannon as the result of an automobile accedent between the Plaintiffs and a tractor-trailer operated by Defendant, Donald Shannon. The tractor was a 1984 Mack Superliner which Donald Shannon had permanently leased to Burchfield Trucking, Inc. and was hauling a Siebert semi-trailer which was owned by Burchfield Trucking, Inc.
The Defendant, Donald Shannon, filed a cross-claim against Burchfield Trucking, Inc. alleging that he was the statutory employee of Burchfield Trucking, Inc. and thus entitled to contribution and indemnification from Burchfield Trucking, Ic. To this claim the Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., filed a Demurrer.
The only allegations of liability against Burchfield Trucking, Inc are that, at the time of teh accident, Donald Shannon was acting within the course and scope of his employment for Burchfield Trucking, Inc. Contrary to the position taken by Defendant, Donald Shannon, it is the employer who is entitled to indemnification from an employee when an employee connits a tort within the scope of his employment and the employer is vicariously liable tot eh injured party.
Finally, there is no provision in the lease between Donald Shannon andBurchfield Trucking, Inc. which would require Burchfield Trucking, Inc. to indemnify Doanld Shannon.
Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Demurrer of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking Inc., to the cross-claim of Defendant, Donald Shannon, be and is hereby sustained. B Y THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

JUNE 8, 1988, ORDER, filed
NOW, this 7th day of June, 1988, upon consideration of teh Preliminary Objections in the Nature of a Motion to Strike filed by Peter J. Taylor, Esquire, on behalf of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., to the complaint to Join Burchfield Trucking, Inc. filed by David H. Patterson, Esquire, on behalf of the Defendant, Farmers Union Central Exhcnage, Inc., doing business as Cenex, and after reviewing the Briefs of counsel and the pleadings, the Court finds that the Complaint to Join Burchfield Trucking, Inc. was filed within sixty (60) days of service of teh Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint on the original Defendant pursuant to Rule 2253 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Motion to Strike be and is hereby denied. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

2 cert Judge A.
NOW, this 4th day of January, 1988, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment and after reviewing the pleadings, depositions and affidavits filed, the Court finds that there are triable issues of material fact regarding whether a contractual agreement was ever entered into, what payments were made, as well as the reason for ending the payments, and why Plaintiff failed to seek enforcement of the payments for a period in excess of thirteen (13) years.
Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Motion for Summary Judgment be and is hereby denied. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

2 copies cert Judge A.
NOW, this 2nd day of August, 1988, after considering the evidence and testimony presented at the non-jury trial held on May 20, 1988, the Court finds that the Plaintiff has failed to establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a separate contractual agreement was entered into between John E. Jury and Mary I. Jury obligating John E. Jury to pay to May I. Jury permanent alimony in the amount of $30.00 per week.
Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that judgment be and is hereby entered in favor of the Defendant John E. Jury.

DECEMBER 12, 1988, ORDER, filed 3 cert to Judge A.
NOW, this 12th day of December, 1988, upon consideration of Defendants' joint Petition to Amend New Matter, it is the ORDER of the Court that the prayer of the Petition be and is hereby denied.
The Plaintiff's initial Complaint filed on July 30, 1986, indicated that the incident occurred on October 19, 1983. This fact leads the Court to conclude that, even considering the delay resulting from the filing and disposition of Preliminary Objections, there can be on justification for the failure to previously raise the defense of the statute of limitations. Insofar as the Second Amended Complaint was filed on March 30, 1987, the Defendants had the opportunity to raise the defense in April of 1987..

MAY 8, 1989, DEFENDANT'S EXCEPTIONS TO MASTER'S REPORT & SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT, filed by Chris A. Pentz, Esq.

CERTIFICATE OF MAILING:

I hereby certify that a true and correct copy of the foregoing Defendant's Exceptions to Master's Report & Supplemental Report was mailed by first class mail this 8th day of May, 1989, to the following: Winifred H. Jones-Wenger & Richard Lhota, Esq. /s/ Chris Pentz, Esq.

JUNE 8, 1989, ORDER, filed 2 cert/Judge "A"

NOW, this 7th day of June, 1989, upon consideration of the Exceptions filed on behalf of the defendant to the Master's report and Supplemental Master's report, the Court is of the opinion that the Exceptions are without merit and the Master's Report and Supplemental Master's Report resolves this long-standing controversy in a fair and equitable manner. Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that said Exceptions be and are hereby dismissed.

Furthermore, the Supplemental master's Report is approved and the recommendations contained therein are hereby incorporated by reference and shall be carried out by the parties. Insofoar as oral argument was held on the plaintiff's and defendant's Exceptions to the Master's Report the Court is of the opinion that oral argument on the Defendant's Exceptions to the Master's Report and Supplemental Master's Report is unnecessary. Furthermore, the Court will note that the record indicates that plaintiff did not file Exceptions to the Supplemental Master's Report. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge

SEPTEMBER 5, 1990, SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS OF DEFENDANT BURCHFIELD TRUCKING, INC, filed by David L. Haber

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE, filed

The undersigned hereby certifies that true and correct copies of the within SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS OF DEFENDANT BURCHFIELD TRUCKING, INC. been served upon all known counsel of record by hand-delivery or First Class US Mail this 4th day of September, 1990. /s/ David L. Haber, Esq.

OCTOBER 24, 1990, ORDER, filed 3 cert/Atty

NOW, this 24th day of October, 1990, upon consideration of Defendant Burchfield Trucking's Preliminary Objections in Nature of Demurrer and Motion to Strike to Second Amended Crossclaim of Defendant Shannon against Burchfield Trucking, Inc, as well as the briefs and arguments submitted by counsel, the Court finds that:

a) The language in Paragraph 13 of the permanent lease agreement between Shannon and Burchfield Trucking does not require that Burchfield Trucking indemnify Shannon as said paragraph is only a promise by Burchfield to purchase insurance. Alyeska Pipeline Service Company v. H.C. Price Company, 694 P.2nd 782 (1985).

b) Said lease agreement does not provide for indemnification of Shannon's own tortious conduct. Dipietro vs. City of PHiladelphia, 344 PA. Super. 191, 496 A.2d 407 (1985) (indemnity for one's own negligence allowed only when a contract provision state so explicitly). The Court finds on breach of said atreement by Burchfield Trucking since it did not agree to indemnify Shannon at the outset.

c) The Interstate Commerce Commission regulations at issue leave the matters of indemnity and contribution to state law. Caroline Casualty Insurance Company vs. Insurance Company of North America, 595 F.2d 128, 138 n. 4 (3rd Cir. 1979) Jfederal requirements are not so intrusive as to absolve lessors or their insurers of existing obligations based on state tort law or under contracts apportioning financial risk among private parties). Indeed, the Court is of the opinion that the ICC regulations were created to protect the traveling public like Wanda Swauger upon the highways. American Trucking Association vs. US., 344 U.S. 298 (1953).

d) That the language of the trip lease agreemetn between CENEX and Burchfield Trucking Inc does not require Burchield to indemnify Shannon. Alyeska, Dipietro, Supra.

Accordingly, it is the ORDER of the Court that Defendant Burchfield Trucking's Preliminary Objections are SUSTAINED. Donald Shannon's request for indemnification and/or contribution against Burchfield is hereby DISMISSED. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

CIVIL ACTION DECEMBER 1985 DOCKET 242

IN RE: COMMITMENT OF PEARLE CHASE, An Alleged Mentally Disabled Person,

85-1903-CD

DECEMBER 19, 1985, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF L976, filed.

PEARLE CHASE has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

She has been examined by Dr. J.K. Fugate and was found to be in need of treatment.

As the patient is currently in DRMC-West receiving involuntary treatment under Section 303, I ask that the Court issue an order that the patient be involuntary committted for inpatient treatment.

I affirm that I have informed the patient of the acitons I am taking and have explained to the patient these procedures and his rights as described in Form MH 785-A. I believe that she udnerstands her rights. /s/ Chris King, RN.

I hereby affirm that I have examined Pearle Chase on 12/17/85 to determine if she is in need of treatment.

IN MY OPINION: The patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment. /s/ James K. Fugate, MD,

ORDER, filed.

AND NOW, this 5th day of October, 1984, pursuant to Section 109 of the Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that j Richard Mattern II, Esquire, be and is hereby appointed Mental Health Review Officer for a epriod of two (2) years from October 15, 1984, through October 1986. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

ORDER, filed.

AND NOW, the 18th day of October, 1981, pursuant to Mental Health Procedures Act 143, effective September 7, 1976, it is hereby ORDERED that John Sughrue, Esquire or his duly authorized delegate be and is hereby appointed as the attorney to represent alleged severely mentally disabled persons in all hearings conducted by the Mental Health Review Officer pursuant to said act. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

DECEMBER 20, 1985, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICER'S REPORT AND DECREE, filed.

One (1) copy Certified to Attorney.

DECREE, filed.

AND NOW, this 20th day of December, 1985, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

Ck* 54831	Pro	by Co.	40.00
54832	R. Mattern	by Co.	158.80

The Court finds that PEARLE CHASE is severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The least restrictive placement suitable for this patient at this time is placement either in a nurisng home or with relatives who can render supervision. It is the understanding of the Court that at this time relatives of the patient, Mr. and Mrs. Orr of Parsons, Kansas, are intending to transport the patient to their home and care for her there.

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that Pearle Chase be involuntarily committed to the DuBois Regional Medical Center, West Psychiatric Ward for in-patient care and treatmetn as severely mentally disabled person until such time that Mr. and Mrs. Orr can transport her to their home in Parsons, Kansas.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 304 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The costs of this proceeding and the fee of J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, Clearfield County Mental Health REview Officer, shall be paid by Clearfield County.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the Clearfield/Jefferson Mental Health/Mental Retardation Program shall reimbruse Clearfield County to the extent permissible by their regulations. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

NOVEMBER 7, 1986 MEMORANDUM AND ORDER filed

On September 10, 1984, Plaintiff purchased three lots located in Treasure Lake, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, at a tax sale held by the Clearfield County Tax Claim Bureau. The sale was confirmed absolutely on December 9, 1984, and deeds were delivered to the Plaintiff in January, 1985. Defendant Treasure Lake Property Owners Association thereafter sought to recover assessment charges from the Plaintiff in the amount of $51.00 for each lot together with interest. Plaintiff has refused to pay this assessment for the year 1984 on the basis that title did not vest in him until the deeds were delivered in January, 1985. The Defendant Association has argued that the assessment is for the period of May 1984 through April of 1985 and was in the total amount of $102 per lot. In billing Plaintiff for only $51.00 per lot they have, in effect, billed him for the months of November and December 1984 and January through April 1985.

This Court is of the opinion that ownership of the lots vested in the Plaintiff on December 9, 1984 when the sale was finally confirmed, even though the deeds were not delivered until approximately a month later. Plaintiff, therefore, cannot complain that he is responsible for the assessment for the month of December, 1984, and for such time thereafter as he shall continue to hold ownership of the subject lots. The controversy then seems to be for the month of November of 1984 which, according to the Court's figures, amounts to the sum of $8.50. This hardly merits a discussion of Defendant's suggested claim to recover the assessment for the entire year and the Court will merely enter an Order directing Plaintiff to pay the $51.00 per lot as billed, together with interest at the legal rate of 6% from the date of first notice.

WHEREFORE, The Court enters the following:

O R D E R

NOW, this 6th day of November, 1986, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Complaint for Declaration of Judgment, it is the ORDER of this Court that Plaintiff shall pay to Treasure Lake Property Owners Association the sum of $51.00 for each of the three lots purchased at tax sale as set forth in the Memorandum attached hereto together with interest at the rate of 6% from the date of first notice. By the Court, John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge
