4. County National Bank Checking Account #1-12233-2 at the time the social security benefits were first received was titled solely in the name of Joyce C. Tagliente and that on or about September 1980 the account was re-titled Edward J. Folmar or Joyce C. Folmar.

Folmar has neither turned said certificate over to her son, nor has she accounted for its whereabouts or use.

JANUARY 21, 1987 JURISDICTIONAL CHALLENGE COUNTER-COMPLAINT AND CLAIM FOR DAMAGES filed by Chester A. Ogden
Three copies certified Mr. Ogden

JANUARY 26, 1987, ORDER, filed
This matter has come before the Court upon an Order for Pre-trial conference. The parties left no question that there is no possibility of settlement in this case, by reason of the refusal of the last offer made by the plaintiffs to the defendant at pre-trial. An attempt was made to enter into an orderly and all complete pre-trial, but because of the inability of the defendant to state matters called for, we have been unable to do so. However, a pre-trial statement was made and filed with the Court by the plaintiffs as to each of the above stated causes.
Defendant filed with the Court an instrument termed: "Jurisdictional Challenge; Counter-complaint and Claim for Damages". An examination of the same reveals that there is nother in proper order upon which the Court might make a report for trial purposes. Yet the Defendant stood upon his declaration as they will be revealed by the transcript of the pretrial hearing. At the request of the Defendant, who requested the same to be made at his expense, the matters discussed at pre-trial will appear in the transcript.
It is estimated that trial of this cause will consume approximately two-three days.
It is to be noted that the Court again has tried to convince the defendant oo obtain legal counsel; but he has indicated his desire not to do so.
Jury selection in the above stated caees shall be had on the 5th day of February, 1987. All parties shall be prepared to proceed in accordance with the above stated dated. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

OCTOBER 17, 1986, ORDER, filed
NOW, October 16, 1986, upon consideration of the paper filed designated: "(REQUEST FOR CONSOLIDATION OF CASES AND DISPOSITION BY TRIAL BY JURY)", we find that they are procedurally and substance matters that must be refused. In addition to whether defects in procedure, most of the cases already have been disposed of and appeal dates have been exceeded; and the foregoing document is not in legal form. Therefore, the request is and must be denied. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

JANUARY 8, 1987 NOTICE filed (also filed to 86-461-CD, 86-731-CD and 86-966-CD)
In the above referenced actions, the undersigned has been grieviously wronged by the attorneys involved, by the courts, and by the banks which have embezzled his funds.
All parties are hereby put on notice that no court "ruling" in these actions is final. Said undersigned reserves all options; to appeal, to bring an action or actions in the U.S. Courts, and/or to take whatever other action appears to him likely to obtain for him the redress and damages to which he is entitled. s/Chester A. JANUARY 26, 1987, ORDER, filed
This matter has come before the Court upon an Order for pre-trial conference, The parties left no question that there is no possibility of settlement in this case, by reason of the refusal of the last offer made by the plaintiffs to the defendant at pre-trial. An attempt was made to enter into an orderly and all complete pre-trial, but because of the inability of the defendant to state matters called for, we have been unable to do so. However, a pre-trial statement was made and filed with the Court by the plaintiffs as to each of the above stated causes.
Defendant filed with the Court an instrument termed: "Jurisdictional Challenge; Counter-complaint and Claim for Damages". An examination of the same reveals that there is nothing in proper order upon which the Court might make a report for trial purposes. Yet the defendant stood upon his declarations as they will be revealed by the transcript of the pre-trial hearing. At the request of the defendant, who requested the same to be made at his expense, the matters discussed at pre-trial will appear in the transcript.
It is estimnted that trial of this cause will consume approximately too-three days.
It is to be noted that the Court again has tried to convince the defendant to obtain legal counsel; but he has indicated his desire not to do so.
Jury selection in the above stated cases shall be had on the 5th day of February, 1987, all parties shall be prepared to proceed in accordance with the above stated dates. BY THE COURT: John A. Cherry, Senior Judge.

The critical question is, whether the Defendant had an implied duty to mine? This question can only be answered by comparing the minimum advanced royalty with the potential income to be produced if the property is mined. The Superior Court of Pennsylvania in Frenchak v. Sunbeam Coal Corp., 344 Pa. Super. 37, 495 A.2d 1388 (1985) stated that "(t)he logic behind this is that a substantial minimum royalty will evince the intent of the parties to consider that royalty an alternate form of performance." MAY 20, 1987 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS filed by Cathy J. Warrick, Official Court Reporter (Hearing held March 4, 1987)

MAY 20, 1987 ORDER filed
Three copies certified Attorney

NOW, this 18th day of May, 1987, after hearing, the Court finds that to allow Jay Hockenberry, Defendant, visitation with his children, Nicole Hockenberry and Travis Hockenberry, at his residence as provided by the Consent Agreement of April 24, 1986, would not be in the best interests and welfare of the children. However, there was insufficient evidence submitted to justify the complete suspension of visitation. The testimony indicates:

(1) The Defendant has used marijuana in the presence of the children, resulting in Nicole becoming ill.
(2) The Defendant has demonstrated poor judgment by giving Nicole, who has been diagnosed as a pre-diabetic, large amounts of candy despite the doctor's advice to limit consumption, and by giving Travis, who is four, a knife.

DECEMBER 22, 1986 OPINION AND ORDER filed
One copy certified Judge Reilly, C. Ogden, N. Gilberg

AND NOW, this 17th day of December, 1986, upon consideration of Defendant John K. Reilly, Jr.'s, Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff Chester A. Ogden's Amended Complaint, said Preliminary Objections are GRANTED without hearing and Plaintiff's Amended Complaint is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.

Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, while unclear, appears to be alleging a civil conspiracy existed between Defendant, John K. Reilly, Jr., the President Judge of the Clearfield County Court of Common Pleas, and John Sughrue, Esq., an attorney who represented Plaintiff's ex-wife in her divorce from Plaintiff.

According to Thompson Coal Co. v. Pike Coal Co., 488 Pa. 198, 412 A.2d 466 (1979), "(t)o prove a civil conspiracy, it must be shown that two or more persons combined or agreed with intent to do an unlawful act or to do an otherwise lawful act by unlawful means. Proof of malice, i.e., an intent to injure, is essential in proof of a conspiracy." Id. at 211, 412 A.2d at 472, cites omitted.

Plaintiff's Amended Complaint fails to allege that Defendant and Attorney Sughrue combined or agreed to commit an unlawful act or to do a lawful act by unlawful means. Furthermore, no malice is alleged.

Plaintiff also demands damages for "mental torment, inconvenience and deprivation of lifes (sic) values since July 27, 1983" in paragraph 17 of the Amended Complaint. This Court is aware of no recognized causes of action for such claims. Defendant has not alleged the necessary elements of intentional infliction of emotional distress. See Bartanus v. Lis, 332 Pa. Super. 48, 480 A.2d 1178 (1984).

This Court concludes Plaintiff's Amended Complaint fails to state a cause of action, and Defendants Demurrer must be granted. Although the Court considers Defendant's Motion to Strike and Failure to Join Necessary Parties to also have merit, in light of the Demurrer, the Court will not consider said motions herein.

Plaintiff has previously been given the opportunity to amend his Complaint. Upon reviewing the Amended Complaint, this Court is of the opinion further amendments would not benefit Plaintiff. Therefore, the Amended Complaint is dismissed with prejudice. BY THE COURT: Charles C. Brown, Jr., P.J. 49th Judicial District, Specially Presiding

Finally, it is the ORDER of this Court that this Order shall be reviewed within three months from date hereof by a qualified child psychologist to be agreed upon by the parties, failing which to be appointed by this Court. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr, P.J.

AUGUST 25, 1989, MEMORANDUM, filed

The parties above-named were married on December 20, 1978, and divorced January 9, 1987. Both are currently residents of DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and the parents of three sons, Jeffrey, age 9, Jeremy, age 6, and Justin, age 4. Since the divorce, the boys have been living with their mother with liberal visitation by the father. From the record it appears that the mother, who has remarried, is moving to Pittsburgh to attend Duquesne Law School commencing in September 1989. The father is moving to a new home which he has constructed in the DuBois at or about the same time.

The Court is satisfied that both parties are excellent parents and each is motivated by love for the boys. As in most custody cases, the Court would be equally confortable (or uncomfortable) in placing the children with either parent as their are weighty arguments on both sides. This Court has rejected any thought of separating the three boys and the award for custody will include all three in the same parent.

As stated above there are indeed cogent arguments for and against the placement of the children in either party, but this Court in it's Order dated Agust 24, 1989, has placed legal custody of the children jointly with the parents with primary physical custody with the mother during the school year and with the father as defined in said Order.

The overriding reason and basis for the Court's Order is the finding that the mother, Nora A. peace, has been the primary caretaker of the boys since their respective births and this court is aware of the dangers involved in interfering with the day to day contact with the parent on whom the child has depended for satisfying his basic physical and psychological needs. See Commonwealth ex ret Jordan v. Jordan, 302 PA Super. 421,448 A.2D 1113.

The determing factor herein is the critical importance of the mother's standing as the primary caretaker. See Beers v. Beers, 342 Pa. Super. 465, 493 A.2d 116, and Pamela J.K. v. Roger D.J., 277 Pa. Super. 579, 419 A.2d 1301.

However, the Court is further convinced, following hearing, of the absolute need to maximize fathers's time with the boys and to that end, has attempted to grant to father essentially all time available when the boys are not engaged in the educational process as it is clear that the father is indeed a very important figure in the boys' lives. In formulating the Order of August 24, 1989, this Court does not view either parent as winning or losing and has been governed, as must the parents, by the best interests of the boys.

Review of the relationship between the parties themselves and the boys has been scheduled by this Court to insure not only compliance with the Order, but he advancement by each parent of the best interests of the boys which include building and supporting love in them for the other parent.

For the above reasons, this Court entered its Order of August 24, 1989. BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr., P.J.

JUNE 4, 1986, DEFENDANT"S COUNTER-AFFIDAVIT UNDER SECTION 201(d) OF THE PENNA. DIVORCE CODE, filed 1 cert atty.

1. Defendant denies that the parties separated in May of 1981, and have continued to live separate and apart for a period of at least three (3) years. On the contrary, the parties separated in June of 1984 with brief periods of reconcilation from June, 1984, to the present and, therefore, it is less that two (2) years since the parties have lived separate and apart for purposes of Section 201(d) of the Divorce Code.

2. It is denied that the marriage is irretrievably broken and on the contrary, the Defendant believes, and therefore avers, that the parties with appropriage counseling could be permanently reconciled.

3. It is admitted and in further answer, the Defendant has raised the appropriate issues in her counterclaim.

I verify that the statements made in this Affidavit are true and correct. I understand that false statements herein are made subject to the penalties of 18 Pa. C.S. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. /s/ Sheryl L. Guthrie, Deft.

JUNE 8, 1988, ORDER, filed

NOW, this 7th day of June, 1988, upon consideration of the Preliminary Objections in the Nature of a Motion to Strike filed by Peter J. Taylor, Esquire, on behalf of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, INc., to the Complaint to Join Burchfield Trucking, Inc. filed by David H. Patterson, Esquire, on behalf of the Defendant, Farmers Union Central Exchange, Inc., doing business as Cenex, and after reviewing the Briefs of counsel and the pleadings the Court finds that the Complaint to Join Burchfield Trucking, Inc. was filed within sixty (60) days of service of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint on the original Defendant pursuant to Rule 2253 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Motion to Strike be and is hereby denied. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge

JUNE 8, 1988, ORDER, filed

NOW, this 7th day of June, 1988, upon consideration of the Preliminary Objections in the nature of a Demurrer filed by Peter J. Taylor, Esquire, on behalf of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., and after reviewing the Brief of counsel, the Court finds the arguments set forth in the Brief submitted by Attorney Taylor dispositive of the issues raised.

In the case at bar, the Plaintiffs filed suit against Burchfield Trucking, Inc. andDonald Shannon as the result of an automobile accident between the Plaintiffs and a tractor-trailer operated by Defendant, Donald Shannon. The tractor was a 1984 Mack Superliner which Donald Shannon had permanently leased to Burchfield Trucking, Inc. and was hauling a Siebert semi-trailer which was owned by Burchfield Trucking, Inc.

The Defendant, Donald Shannon, filed a cross-claim against Burchfield Trucking, Inc. alleging that he was the statutory employee of Burchfield Trucking, Inc, and thus entitled to contribution and indemnification from Burchfield Trucking, Inc. To this Claim the Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., filed a Demurrer.

The only allegations of liability against Burchfield Trucking, Inc. are that, at the time of teh accident, Donald Shannon was acting within the course and scope of his employment for Burchfield Trucking, Inc. Contrary to the position taken by Defendant, Donald Shannon, it is the employer wno is entitled to indemnification from an employee when an employee commits a tort within the scope of his employment and the employer is vicariously liable to the injured party.

Finally, there is no provision in the lease between Donald Shannon and Burchfield Trucking, Inc. which would require Burchfield Trucking, Inc. to indemnify Donald Shannon.

Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Demurrer of Defendant, Burchfield Trucking, Inc., to the cross-claim of Defendant, Donald Shannon, be and is hereby sustained. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

It is further Ordered that the defendants and additional Defendants will be permitted to have Wanda S. Swauger submit to a second Independent Medical Examination within sixty (60) days of trial if the case is listed for trial on or after the Fall 1990 Trial List. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. OCTOBER 24, 2990, ORDER, filed

NOW, this 24th dya of October, 1990, upon consideration of Defendant Burchfield Trucking's Preliminary Objections in Nature of Demurrer and Motion to Strike to Second Amended Crossclaim of Defendant Shannon against Burchfield Trucking, Inc, as well as the briefs and arguments submitted by counsel, the Court finds that:

a) The language in Paragraph 13 of the permanent lease agreement between Shannon and Burchfield Trucking does not require that Burchfield Trucking indemnify Shannon as said paragraph is only a promise by Burchfield to purchase insurance. Alyeska Pipeline Service Company v. H.C. Price Company, 694 P.2d 782 (1985).

b) Said lease agreement does not provide for indemnification of Shannon's own tortious conduct. Dipietro v. City of Philadelphia, 344 PA. Super 191, 496 A.2d 407 (1985) (indemnity for one's own negligence allowed only when a contract provision state so explicity.) The court finds no breach of said agreemetn by Burchfield Trucking since it did not agree to indemnify Shannon at the outset.

c) The Interstate Commerce Commission regulations at issue leave the matters of indemnity and contribution to state law. Caroline Casualty Insurance Compnay v. Insurance Company of North America, 595 F.2d 128, 138 n. 4 (3rd Cir. 1979) (federal requirements are not so intrusive as to absolve lessors or their insurers of existing obligations based on state tort law or under contracts apportioning financial risk among private parties). Indeed, the Court is of the opinion that the ICC regulations were created to protect the traveling public like Wanda Swauger upon the highways. American Trucking Assoication vs. U.S., 344 US 298 (1953).

d) That the language of the trip lease agreement between CENEX and Burchfield Trucking, Inc. does not require Burchfield to indemnify Shannon. Alyeska, Dipietro, Supra.

Accordingly, it is the ORDER Of the Court that Defendnat Burchfield Trucking's Prelimiary Objections are SUSTAINED. Donald Shannon's request for indemnification and/or contribution against Burchfield is hereby DISMISSED. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.
