DECREE, filed

AND NOW, this 18th day of December, 1987, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that RAYMOND KOUGHER continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court, therefore, ORDERS AND DECREES that RAYMOND KOUGHER be and is hereby committed to an out-patient treatment program under the auspices of the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center, and is directed to comply completely with the out-patient treatment program, including the taking of medication.

The term of this commitment shall be for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The costs of this proceeding and the fee of J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, Clearfield County mental Health Review Officer, shall be paid by Clearfield County.

The Court finds that THOMAS BUCK continues to be severely mentally disabled.

The Court does find, however, based on the Mental Health Review Officer's Report, that this patient qualifies for a less restrictive placement in the form of a CRR group home. Accordingly, the Court directs that Warren State Hospital Social Services, in conjunction with Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Progeam Social Services, take steps to secure placement of the patient in a CRR group home and in a partial hospitalization program.

Pending his placement in such a group home, it is the ORDER of this Court that the patient be involuntarily committed to Warren State Hospital for in-patient care and treatment of a period of up to ninety (90) dyas.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedrues ACt of 1976, as amended.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that Clearfield County pay the fees of J. Richard Mattern II. Esquire, Clearfield County Mental Health Review Officer, and that Warren State Hospital reimburse Clearfield County for said fees, together with filing costs, pursuant to the directive to said state hospital dated January 27, 1977 from Robert M. Daly, M.D., Deputy Secretary for Mental Health. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

FEBRUARY 6, 1989, AFFIDAVIT FOR PLAINTIFF OPPOSING SUMMARY JUDGMENT, filed by Girard Kasubick, Esq.

APRIL 6, 1989, ORDER, filed 5 cert/Judge "A"
NOW, this 6th day of April, 1989, upon consideration of the Notions of Summary Judgment filed on behalf of defendants, Conrail Corporation; Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation; and the Supervisors of Boggs Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, the Court finds triable issues of material fact. First, with regard to the release executed by the Administrator of the Estate of Robert Templeton there is a question of whether there was fraud or mutual mistake. Furthermore, the Court will note that even if there was no fraud or mutual mistake, the release does not affect the individual claims of Carl R. Templeton. Second, with regard to the affirmative defense of sovereign or governmental immunity, the Court cannot determine at this stage of the proceedings whether the Commonwealth or Boggs Township is responsible for maintaining T-674 and the railroad corssing. This is a question of fact that must be resolved at trial. Third, with regard to the Plaintiff's failure to notify the Commonwealth and the Supervisors of Boggs Township within six (6) monts of the accident as required by 42 PA. C.S.A. SEction 5522, the Court cannot determine at this stage whether the plaintiff has a reasonable excuse, whether the Commonwealth will suffer undo hardship or whether the Supervisors of Boggs Township had actual or constructive notice of the accident.
Therefore, it is the ORDER of the Court that the Motions be and are hereby denied.
Furthermore, upon consideration of the Motion for Summary Judgment filed on behalf of the additional defendants, Laura Jasper, Administratrix of the Estate of Jack H. Jasper, and Gerald W. Lockettt, administrator of the Estate of Clair Gilbert Lockett, the Court is of the opinion that insofar as the additional defendants, Jasper and Lockett paid $40,000.00 in exchange for a full release of liability from the plaintiff, Andrew Coleman, Administrator of the Estate of Robert Templeton, the additional defendants are release by the $40,000.00 payment from their proportionate share of the total liability. Under the language of the Comparative Negligence Statute, 42 PA C.S.A. SEction 7102, the other defendants in the case would only be liable for their proportionate share of the total liability. Jasper and Lockett do not have a right of contribution against the other defendants if that $40,000.00 is greater than their percentage share that the jury fixes as damages. Moreover, if that amount is less than the proportionate share as fixed by the jury the other defendants are not responsible for that shortfall. Therefore, it is the further ORDER Of the Court that ruling on additional defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment is deferred and Jasper and Lockett will remain in this case for the purpose of apportioning liability. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

SEPTEMBER 5, 1990, ORDER, filed 7 cert/Atty
NOW, this 5th day of September, 1990, upon consideration of briefs and arguments submitted by counsel, it is the opinion of the Court that material issues of fact remain concerning mutual mistake or fraud arising during the negotiation and execution of the release of December 30, 1987. Accordingly, Defendant Conrail Corporation's Second Motion for Summary Judgment is DENIED. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

MARCH 10, 1988, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed.

STEPHEN MANGES has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that he is severely mentally disabled.

He has been examined by Dr. William Chen and was found to be in need of treatment.

The Court finds that STEPHEN MANGES continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedrues Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court FURTHER FINDS that the least restrictive setting suitable for this patient at this time is that of participation in a partial hospitalization program. The Court, therefore, ORDERS AND DECREES that STEPHEN MANGES be and is hereby committed to a partial hospitalizaiton program under the auspices of the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the said STEPHEN MANGES be and is hereby directed to completely comply with the partial hospitalization program developed by the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center.

The term of this commitment shall be for a period of one hundred eighty (180) days.

This commitment is pursuant to Section 305 of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The costs of this proceeding and the fee of J. Richard Mattern II, Esquire, Clearfield County Mental Health Review Officer, shall be paid by Clearfield County.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Program shall reimburse Clearfield County to the extent permissible by their regulations. BY THE COURT: /s/ John K. Reilly, Jr., President Judge.

This Court is mindful of the fact that counsel for the Defendant called the Clearfield County Court Administrator on November 18, 1988, requesting a continuance, reciting scheduling conflicts. In view of the fact that no continuance was awarded and in view of the fact that counsel for Plaintiff, Dwight L. Koerber, Jr., has not consented to a continuance, it is the finding of this Court that sanctions need to be taken against the Defendant (1) for refusal to engage in discovery as provided by the PA Rules of Civil Procedure and (2) its total disregard of the Provisions of the Order entered in this matter on September 26, 1988, directing that action be taken within twenty (20) days thereof. It is the further finding of this Court that the sanctions imposed against Defendant herein are reasonable, appropriate and in accordance with the guidelines set forth at PA. R.C.P. 4019(c). 	IN RE: PATRICIA WHITAKER, An alleged Mentally Disabled Person,		APRIL 7, 1988, PETITION FOR INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT, MENTAL HEALTH PROCEDURES ACT OF 1976, filed. Patricia Whitaker has acted in such a manner as to cause me to believe that she is severely mentally disabled. She has been examined by Dr. Chen and was found to be in need of treatment. As the patient is currently in Clfd-Jeff. CMHC receiving involuntary treatment under Section 304, I ask that the court issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for another period of partial hospitalization. /s/ Jacqueline L. Amor, Raymond Navarro. I hereby affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to the Patient these procedures and her rights as described in Form MH 785-A. I believe that he understands her rights. /s/ Jacqueline L. Amor, I hereby affirm that I have reexamined Patricia Whitaker on 3/10/88 to determine if she continues to be severely mentally disabled and in need of treatment. IN MY OPINION: The patient is severely mentally disabled and in need of continued treatment. /s/ William Y. Chen, M.D. ORDER, filed. DECREE, filed AND NOW, this 12th day of April, 1988, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation. The Court, therefore, ORDERS AND DECREES that PAIRICIA WHITAKER be and is hereby committed to a partial hospitalization program under the auspices of the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center It is theFURTHER ORDER of this Court that the said PAIRICIA WHITAKER be and is hereby directed to comply completely with the partial hospitalization program developed by the Celarfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center. SEPTEMBER 30, 1988, ORDER, filed 3 cert Judge A.

NOW, this 30th day of September, 1988, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings and after reviewing the Briefs submitted by counsel, and counsel for Defendant, Internation Fidelity Insurance Company, having indicated at oral argument that the Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment of $89,500.00, it is the ORDER of the Court that partial judgment be and is hereby entered against Defendant, International Fidelity Insurance Company, and in favor of Plaintiff for $89,500.00.

However, after reviewing the pleadings, the Court cannot make a factual determination that the project was completed on October 12, 1987, and allow interest from that date.

It is the further ORDER of the Court that Defendant, International Fedelity Insurance Company, file an amended responsive pleading within twenty (20) days fromt he date hereof setting forth in more specific terms the claim for liquidated damages in the amount of $7,000.00 which would reduce the Plaintiff's claim of $96,500.00 to $89,500.00.

If the Defendnat, International Fidelity Insurance Company, fails to file an amended responsive pleading within twenty (20) days from the date hereof, upon Motion of Plaintiff the Court will enter judgment in favor of Plaintiff for the remaining $7,000.00 and schedule a hearing to determine the date from which interest should accrue on the judgment. The intent of the Court is to allow interest from the actual date the project was completed. See Commonwealth v. Continental Cas. Co., 429 Pa. 366, 240 A.2d 493 (1968).

This Order shall have no effect upon International Fidelity Insurance Company's cross-claim in this action.

BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.
