			OCTOBER 22, 1990, ORDER, filed. COPIES TO KASUBICK & HAUSMAN. NOW, this 22nd day of October, 1990, the Court having reviewed Defendant's Preliminary Objections and the briefs submitted by counsel, and the Court finding that a) Paragraphs 26 - 31, 33, 34, 36 - 39 of defendant's New Matter contain factual pleadings to which Pa. R.C.P. 1026 (a) requires a response; b) that no agreement to extend time was reached by counsel for Plaintiff to reply to Defendant's New Matter as required by PA. R.C.P. 1003; and c) Plaintiff's delay in filing its Reply prejudiced the expeditious administration of the case given that it has been four years since some of the factual issues have occured, Paulish v. Bakaitis, 442 Pa. 334, 275 A.2d 318 (1971), it is the ORDER of the Court that Defendant's Motion to Strike is GRANTED. Accordingly, Paragraphs 26 - 31, 33, 34, 36 - 39 of Defendant's New Matter are deemed ADMITTED as to factual averments of affirmative defenses. Landis v. City of Philadelphia, 245 Pa. JUL 12, 1996, ORDER, filed. ONE (1) CERT TO DEFT

NOW, this 11th day of July, 1996, Defendant Mary L. Nickol having filed an affidavit requesting permission to proceed In Forma Pauperis, it is the ORDER of this Court that said Petition be and is hereby DISMISSED for the following reasons:

1. The information form completed by Petitioner does not clearly indicate what relief is being sought pursuant to the request to proceed In Forma Pauperis;

2. Petitioner has no need to be released from payment of filing costs as the case has been ongoing since 1988;

3. The Clearfield County Bar Association President has advised the Court that the County Bar Pro Bono Program will no longer accept referrals in family law matters. Furthermore, there is no statutory authority which exists for the Court to involuntarily appoint counsel to represent the Petitioner with counsel fees being paid by Clearfield County;

4. Petitioner's main concern as described within her informational form appears to be that the Plaintiff not be released from payment of arrearages on alimony. However, the Petition filed on behalf of the Plaintiff which precipitated Mary L. Nichol's request for In Forma Pauperis status did not request relief including forgiveness of arrearages. (D) As the patient is currently in a facility receiving voluntary treatment, I ask the court to issue an order that the patient be involuntarily committed for outpatient partial hospitalization. /s/ Mary Jo Fish.

I affirm that I have informed the patient of the actions I am taking and have explained to him these procedures and his rights as described in From MH-785-A. I believe that she understands her rights. /s/ Michelle Spafford, ctrs.

I hereby affirm that I have examined Jeanette Foster on November 3, 1988 to determine if she is in need of treatment.
