		IN RE: RANDY WOLVERTON, An Alleged Severely Mentally Disabled Person,	APRIL 21, 1992, PETITION FOR CIVIL COURT COMMITMENT UNDER SECTION 406 OF THE MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION ACT OF 1966, filed. ORDER, filed. ORDER, filed. APRIL 23, 1992, MENTAL HEALTH REVIEW OFFICERS REPORT AND DECREE, filed. One (1) copy Certified to Attorney. DECREE, filed. AND NOW this 2nd day of April, 1992, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation. The Court finds that RANDY WOLVERTON is mentally, retarded and, therefore in need of residential placement for inpatient care and treatment at POLK CENTER. This is the least restrictive placement availabel and appropriate for this patient. The patient is, therefore commtited to the custody of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and, the Corut ORDERS AND DECREES that RANDY WOLVERTON be and is hereby committed to POLK CENTER for residential care and treatment as a Mentally Retarded Person for a period of One (1) Year after which, if further commitment is desired, a subsequent Petition shall be filed and hearing held by J. Richard Mattern II, MHRO. There proceedings are pursuant to Seciton 406 of the Mental Health and Mental Retardatin Act of 1966, the use of which was re-authorized by Order of the United States District Corut for the Middle District of the State of Pennsylvania, said Order being dated October 28th, 1976, in the matter of Goldy -vs- Beal, 429 Fed. Supp. 460: PA Bulletin 2883, November 13, 1976. It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Corut that Clearfield County pay the fee of J. NOW, this 27th day of January, 1993, Defendants' Preliminary Objections having come before the Court for disposition, counsel having briefed the issues raised therein, the Court enters the following ORDER:
As to Defendant Yoo's Preliminary Objection in the form of a Motion to Strike and/or Compel a More Specific Pleading, the Court SUSTAINS the same insofar as Plaintiffs concede that Paragraph 24 of their Complaint should be amended by adding the words "herein described". IN all other respects, said motion is DENIED.
With respect to Defendant Yoo's Preliminary Objection in the nature of a Motion to Strike, the Court finds no merit to same and DENIES it.
With regard to Defendant DuBois Regional Medical Center's Preliminary Objections in the nature of a Demurrer, Motion to Strike and Motion for a More Specific Pleading, the Court finds them to be without merit and DENIES them.
The Plaintiffs are directed to file an Amended Compalint within twenty (20) days of the date of this Order and the Defendants are directed to file responsive pleadings twenty (20) days thereafter. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

OCTOBER 12, ANSWER TO PETITION FOR ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, COUNSEL FEES AND EXPENSES, filed by John Ryan, Esquire. (11)
THREE CERTIFIED TO ATTORNEY.

JANUARY 14, 1993 ORDER, filed. (12)
On October 28, 1992, counsel for the above parties appeared before the Court, no formal orders yet being made.
The husbnad/father is paying $150.00 per month through the Domestic Relations Office for the support of the daughter who is in college and $250.00 per month directly to the son for his support for college.
The Court is in receipt since said hearing of a copy of a notice from United Federal dated November 4, 1993 to the effect that the mortgage payments on the property was in default frp, May of 1992 through October, 1992 on which the husband, William Ryen, has now paid $1,500.00.
The wife is employed and receiving approximately $750.00 per month. The husband is now employed in New Jersey as an iron worker and earning $3,800.00 per month.
The parties are divorced as a result of a bifurcation, but the division of marital property still awaits the appointment of a Master.
Therefore, in light of the above, the Court awards Alimony Pendente Lite to the wife as of October 28, 1992 in the amount of $100.00 per week for a period of six (6) months. BY THE COURT: s/ Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.

One (1) copy Certified to Attorney.
DECREE, filed.
AND NOW, this 24th day of June, 1992, the Mental Health Review Officer's Report is acknowledged. We approve his recommendation.

The Court finds that DONALD L. BEARD continues to be severely mentally disabled within the meaning of the Mental Health Procedures Act of 1976, as amended.

The Court finds that the least restrictive setting suitable for this patient at this time is that of participation in a Partial Hospitalization program.. The Court, therefore, ORDERS AND DECREES that DONALD L. BEARD be and is hereby committed to a Partial Hospitalization Program under the auspices of the Clearfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center.

It is the FURTHER ORDER of this Court that the said DONALD L. BEARD be and is hereby directed to comply completely with the Partial Hospitalization program developed by Celarfield-Jefferson Community Mental Health Center, including the Mandatory attendance at a Medically licensed and Approved Treatment Facility specializing in the treatment of Pedophilia, which facility is to verify to the Corut the attendance of the Patient for Androgen Therapy and to submit a periodic Patient response to treatment report to the Court, all of which was unequivocally recommeded by Dr. Rosencrantz.

The term of this commitment shall be for a period of One Hundred Eighty (180) days.

AND NOW, this 16th day of July, 1992, upon agreement of the parties pursuant to a custody conference held on July 13,1992, it is the ORDER AND DECREE of this Court that the parties shall have joint legal custody of the minor child born to the marriage, to wit: TIMOTHY W. McGONIGAL, with plaintiff having primary physical custody of the said child, subject to the following terms and conditions relative to visitation and partial custody: 1. Defendant shall have partieal custody of the said child on those days when eh is not working at his place of employment in Graterford Prison, with such dates of the well-established and repeititve work schedule which the defendant follows. 2. On those days where defendant is able to obtain additional vacation days for credited work that he has performed, he shall also have partial custody of the said said child as long as he gives plaintiff notice that he is making a request for a credited day five (5) days prior to the date that he requests be granted, and further provided that plaintiff does not have pre-established plans with the said child that would be impaired if the additiona; visitation is allowed. Itshall be incumbent upon plaintiff to immediately inform defendant, as a minimum within forty eight (48) hours of the date that she is advised of the request for additional visitation, if she has pre-existing scheduling porblems, and absent such notice from plaintiff. the additional visitation shall be allowed. 3. For holidays, the parties will take reasonable steps to allocate time with the said child, provided that defendant is not working on the particular holiday in question. 4. For his normal vacation days, defendant shall be given parital custody/visitation of the said child during the period of time covering Fifty (50%) Percent of his vacation days. Defendant shall give plaintiff as much advance notice as is reasonably possible, which shall entail at least a two (2) weeks' notice prior to the time that any visitation riths for vacation days are asserted. 5. In exercising the additional visitation days allowed through defendant's vacation allotment, it is with the said child for any more than six (6) consecutive days without first obtaining the consent of plaintiff or without first arranging for the siad child to spend time with the Plaintiff after a period of seven (7) consecutive days of time with defendant. 6. Neither of the parties shall take the said child out of the Commonweath of Pennsylvania that require him to be absent any more that two (2) days without first receiving the prior written consent form the other party. 7. During the period of custody or partial custody that each parent exercises, it shall be their responsiblility to engage in a prudent course of action so as to reduce the risk of harm to the said child, meaning that at all times reasonalbe and appropriate steps will be taken so as to insure that there if meaninful oversight in supervision of the child. It shall be the further obligation of the parties to insure htat appropriate sleeping arrangements are made for the said child during the time that he is with each respective parent. 8. The custody and visitation procedures outlined hereinabove have been devised under the assumption that defendant is working at Graterford Prison and that he will be continuing to work there. In the event that there is a change in such employment arrangement, or in the event that there is any other substantial change of circumstances, the parties agree that they will attempt to make appropriate and meaningful changes in the visitaion and custody shceme so as to accommodate such changes, with the recognition that hte parties will follow the spirit and intnet of hte present visitation schene. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an alternative visitation arrangement that is acceptable to them and in the best interests of the said child, then either of the parties shall have the right to request under this docket number that child custody mediation be shceduled. JUNE 25, 1993, ORDER, filed 4 cert/Judge "A"
NOW, this 24th day of June, 1993, Plaintiffs having filed Preliminary Objections to Defendant William Pryde's New Matter and Counterclaim,t he parties having briefed the issues raised therein, the Court directs as follows:
As to Count I of Plaintiffs' objection to Defendant Pryde's insertion into New Matter of a request for Dismissal of Plaintiffs' Complaint for Failure to State a Cause of Action the Court agrees the same is unnecessary insofar as Pa. R.C.P. Rule 1032 will allow Defendant Pryde to raise said request at later stages in the suit. Accordingly, Defendant Pryde's First Affirmative Defense is STRICKEN.
With regard to Count II, the Court disagrees with Plaintiff inasmuch as Defendant Pryde has plead sufficient facts to enable Plaintiffs to respond to his affirmative defenses.
In Count III of their objections, Plaintiffs assert that Defendant Pryde erred in not attaching a copy of a lease agreement pursuant ot Pa. R.C.P. Rule 1019(h). While Plaintiffs are technically correct, the Court finds no prejudice to Plaintiffs in that the terms of said lease agreement are not in issue in Defendnat Pryde's counterclaim for tortious interference with a contract.
With respect to Count IV of Plaintiffs' objections, the Court SUSTAINS the same to the extent that it finds that Paragraphs 44-48 and 60 are impertinent to Defendant Pryder's counter-claim and thereby STRIKES them.
The Court DENIES Count V of Plaintiffs' objections as it finds that Defendant Pryde has alleged sufficient facts in its counterclaim of tortious interference with contractual relations to allege that Plaintiffs' actions were improper. Similarly, the Court DENIES Count VI of Plaintiffs' objections as it finds that William Pryde has alleged sufficient facts to give rise to a cause of action for nuisance.
It is the further ORDER of the Court that Defendant Pryde is directed to file an amended pleading within twenty (20) days of this date and Plaintiffs to file their responsive pleading twenty (20) days thereafter. BY THE COURT: Joseph S. Ammerman, Judge.
