JULY 26, 1995, ORDER, filed. TWO(2) CERT TO ATTY NADDEO, GATES
 NOW this 25th day of July, 1995, this being the date set for hearing on the Plaintiff's Petition for Special Relief, it is the ORDER of this Court as follows:

1. As to the items of personal property listed in Paragraph 13 of the Petition, the Court being satisfied that said items are not in the process of being dissipated, it is the ORDER of this Court that the Defendant shall have the ability to store said items at the home of his father, Leon F. Zelensky, said home being located in Morris Township, Clearfield County, with both parties to have reasonable access to said items for use from time to time as the parties deem to be appropriate. In the event that there are any items which cannot be conveniently and properly stored at the Defendant's father's residence, the Defendant shall so advise, through counsel, the Plaintiff of same and the Plaintiff shall then be given first opportunity to store any said items. In the event that Plaintiff cannot store said items, it shall be the responsibility of the Defendant to make adequate and appropriate arrangements for storage subject to the same conditions for use as aforesaid:

2. Defendant shall provide to Plaintiff the children's furniture, toys and other personal properties of the children with the parties having agreed that the furniture, toys and other personal items of the children shall not be considered to be part of the equitable estate and subject to distribution by master's proceedings;

3. The parties have agreed that the marital residence is in the process of being sold and the closing is expected to take place on August 18, 1995. The real estate agent is directed to pay the 1994 and any prorated share of 1995 real estate taxes which remain unpaid from the proceeds of the sale of the home. The net proceeds attributable to the parties shall then be placed in escrow in such bank as may be mutually agreed upon by counsel for both parties, with the same not to be removed except upon agreement of the parties or upon further order of Court. Furthermore, the master to be appointed in the above-captioned case shall make a determination as to the percentage share, if any, of responsibility of the parties for payment of the '94 and prorated share of '95 real estate taxes. Nothing in this Order is to be construed by the master that the Court is indicating or suggesting a percentage equitable distribution of the net proceeds of sale to be held in escrow;

4. Beginning with the month of September 1995, Defendant is ordered to pay the amount, through counsel, of $400.00 in the form of counsel fees to Plaintiff, with said obligation for payment to be for the months of September, October and November 1995 only. Payment is due to counsel for Plaintiff no later than the 30th day of each of the said three months. The master to be appointed is directed to make a determination at his discretion, considering the testimony, as to whether the payment as contained within this paragraph shall be considered as an advance distribution by Defendant pursuant to equitable distribution or a full or partial payment towards attorney's fees, as the master shall deem to be fit and appropriate.
