Petition to Vacate
Public Road versus in Lawrence
Township

Clearfield County, ss:

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the county of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the 10th day of Feby, A. D. 1890^o, before Judge of said Court, upon a petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Lawrence

, in said county, setting forth that

That a road has long been laid out in said Township through what is known as the Betts Farm, now owned by Thomas W. Barrett. That said road joined the Public Road leading from Clearfield to Woodland at a point near the James Read residence and led from thence to fording at the Susquehanna River at or near the point known as Shaw's Red Mill. Your petitioners further represent that that portion of the Road between the Pennsylvania Railroad to the point on the Public Road of fore mentioned leading from Clearfield to Woodland has become useless by reason of the plotting of the said land or farm of Thomas Barrett into town lots. That in said plot streets and alleys have been laid out leading from the railroad to the said public road and at a right angle therewith leading to Clearfield town. That by reason of the said street and alleys being laid out and opened the said road has become useless and burdensome and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view and lay out the same according to law, and report to next term of Court whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint Harry Byers, Ephraim Shaw and John Porter who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the grounds proposed for said road, and if they view the same and any two of the actual viewers agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed to lay out the same agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road and the shortest distance, and in such manner as to do the least injury to private property, and state particularly, whether they judge the same necessary for a PUBLIC or PRIVATE road, together with a plot or draft of the same, with the courses and distances and reference to the improvements through which it passes, and shall also procure releases of damages from persons through whose land said road may pass, or failing to procure such releases, shall assess the same, if any sustained, and shall make report thereof to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said county, in which report they shall state that they have been sworn and affirmed according to law. Notice is directed to be given to the owners or occupants of seated land through which the within road is intended to pass, of the time of the view, according to the 147th Rule of Court.

In Re Public Road in Lawrence) In the Court of Quarter Session of township,) Clearfield County, Penna, ) No Feb, Sessions, 1900

To the Honorable Cyrus Gordon, President Judge of the Court aforesaid,

The petition of the undersigned, respectfully represent, That they are inhabitants of the township of Lawrence, County of Clearfield Pennsylvania, That a road has long been laid out in said township through what is known as the Betts Farm, now owned by Thomas W. Barratt, that said road joined the Public road leading from Clearfield to Woodland, at a point near the James Read residence, and led from there to the fording at the Susquehanna river, at or near the point known as Shaw's Red Mill.

Your petitioners further represent that that portion of the road between the Pennsylvania Railroad to the point on the Public road aforesaid leading from Clearfield to Woodland has become useless by reason of the plotting of the said land or farm of Thomas W. Barratt into town lots. That in said plot streets and alleys have been laid out, leading from the railroad to the said public road and also at right angles therewith leading to Clearfield town, that by reason of the said streets and alleys being laid out and opened the said road has become useless and burdensome, Your petitioners therefore pray the Court to appoint viewers to vacate the said road in accordance with the Act of General Assembly in such case made and provided, and they will ever pray,
