NOW, December 2, 1994, after hearing this date on the within application for supersedeas, the applicaiton is denied for the following reasons:
1. This Court lacks jurisdiction under Rule of Appellate Procedure 1732, the application for supersedeas having already been denied by the Commonwealth Court.

AUGUST 24, 1994, TRANSFER OF COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE FROM ELK COUNTY BY COURT ORDER, filed by Toni M. Cherry, Esquire.

ORDER OF COURT, filed.

NOW, August 12, 1994, the Court being in receipt of filed Preliminary Objections in the nature of a motion to dismiss for lack of venue, filed by defendant, this Court deems venue in Elk County to be inappropriate and hereby orders this case transferred to the county of residence of these parties, Clearfield County.

The Court initially assumed jurisdiction under the understanding by the parties that both were in agreement that the matter be handled in Elk County and it is so alleged in plaintiff's complaint.

Defendant did participate through counsel in telephone conference on plaintiff's petition for special relief, and, defendant has filed no Answer, but nonetheless, the Court being informed there are also matters filed in Clearfield County in nature of Protection From Abuse proceedings and support proceedings, this matter is ordered scheduling hearing on plaintiff's petition for special relief is cancelled without prejudice to plaintiff to proceed in Celarfield County on said petition for special relief. MAY 31, 1995, ORDER, filed. ONE(1) CERT TO ATTY KESNER, ATTY HOLMES, ENGLESBURG, & PLFF
AND NOW, May 30, 1995, upon consideration of Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that said Motion be dismissed and the requested relief bedenied for the following reasons:
(1) Plaintiff's Motion has been filed under FRCP 11(b) (1) and Third Circuit Local Appellate Rule (LAR) 28.1(b). This is a state court to which the aforesaid federal rules do not apply. Plaintiff's interpretation of Pa R.C.P. No. 131 for the proposition that said federal rules must be applied in a state court proceeding is in error. The "in pari materia" language in Pa R.C.P. No. 131 has reference only to the state rules being read together.
(2) The Court makes no further judgmetn as to the propriety of Mr. Holmes' arguments that invoked Plaintiff's past history of litigation and his past history of allegations in that litigation. The Court notes that the decision rendered in this matter regarding Preliminary Objections did not consider Mr. Holmes' arguments.

SEPTEMBER 26,1994 , ORDER, filed 1 cert/Atty Kesner, DA, Judge Brown, Judge Reilly, Deft, Corp Catalone, Trp Ward

Plaintiff's Motion & Affidavit to proceed in Forma Pauperis

AND NOW, September 23, 1994, upon consideration of the above-referenced Motion & Affidavit under PA R.C.P. No 240 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the requested relief by granted and that Plaintiff be allowed to proceed in Forma Pauperis. This is Order is being entered for the following reasons:

(1) The allegations in the Affidavit concerning Plaintiff's financial circumstances disclose that he qualifies for IFP status.

(2) In reviewing Plaintiff's request under Pa. RCP 240(j), the Court has considered whether his action should be labeled as frivolous and thus dismissed. It appears from Plaintiff's pleading that he has been charged and arrested for the criminal offense of unauthorized practive of law under 42 PA CSA §2524. His action under 42 USC §1983 et seq is in response to and perhaps retaliation for that arrest. In particular he alleges a conspiracy between the district attorney and the named policemen to entrap him into violating the statute in question as well as a similar conspiracy between the disctrict attorney and the court in the illegal issuance of a wiretap order. It would seem that in the first instance these issues should be resolved in the criminal proceedings, and the desirability of having an ancillary civil action such as the present case is at best questionable. In addition, questions regarding immunity from the present action exist. However, out of a recognition that the federal statutes underlying Plaintiff's action are of incordinate complexities pertaining to such issues, the action will not be dismissed under PA RCP 240(j) with these and other issues no doubt to be raised preliminarily at a late time. AND NOW, this 10th day of FEbruary, 1995, upon review of the foregoing Prelimianry Objections, the Court hereby issues a Rule upon the Plaintiff, William E. McCartney, to appear and show cause why the Preliminary Objections should not be granted.
Returnable the 2nd day of March, 1995, at 9:00 AM at the Clearfield County Courthouse, Clearfield, Pennsylvania before the Honoable Stewart L. Kurtz, Specially Presiding.
BY THE COURT: John K. Reilly, Jr, P.J.

MAY 04, 1995, MEMORANDUM ORDER, filed. ONE(1) CERT TO CA
Defendant Beckwith Machinery Company has filed preliminary objections to the complaint filed by its former employee, William E. McCartney. Inter alia we are asked to strike counts 3, 4 and 5 for failure to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted. Rule 1028(a)(4), Pa.R.C.P. We have not tarried long in considering the demurrer to Counts 3 and 4 as we believe sufficient facts are pleaded to withstand the challange proffered by Defendant. Count 5, however, is a different kettle of fish.

In this count of the complaint, Mr. McCartney seeks to recover damages for what he believes was his wrongfull discharge from employment. Defendant argues that the factual allegations fail to overcome the presumption of "at-will" employment that Pennsylvania as well as most other jurisdicitons have erected as a barrier to wrongful discharge suits. Defendant is probably correct but we read the exhaustive opinion of Judge James R. Cavanaugh of our Superior Court in Darlington v. General Electrc, 350 Pa. Super. 183, 504 A.2d 306(1986), to indicate that the once closed door has been opened a tad, and that therefore, it might be premature for this Court to dismiss this count of the complaint. The short of it is that we are not certain that the Plaintiff is foreclosed from recovery, and hence, we believe it appropriate at this juncture to refrain from a hasty judgment. Doubts at this stage are to be resolved by overruling the objection, a course we elect to follow.

Finally, having studied the factual allegations, our view is that there are enough facts pleaded to permit defendant to frame a proper answer and prepare a defense. Discovery is the proper method to obtain further specificity.

Accordingly, It is Ordered that the Preliminary Objections of Beckwith Machinery Company are in all respects overruled.
BY THE COURT, s/STEWART L. KURTZ, J.

ORDER

AND NOW, this 3rd day of May, A.D., 1995, It is the Order of this Court that:

1. All discovery in this case shall be completed on or before August 31, 1995, unless for good cause shown this deadline is extended.

2. The Court Administrator of Huntingdon County shall schedule a pre-trial conference with counsel in September, 1995.
