			AUG 13, 1996, ORDER, filed. NO CERT COPIES Eugene P. Hawkins, a former correction officer at the Clearfield County Prison, seeks judicial review of the Opinion and Award of Arbitrator Donald S. McPherson dated May 9, 1996, issued pursuant to the provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement between Clearfield County (Prison) and Teamsters Local No. 205, effective Dec. 1, 1993, through Dec. 31, 1996. For numerous reasons, some of which are discussed more fully hereafter, the Court will dismiss the Petition generally and, in the alternative, affirm the Arbitrator's Award on the merits. Initially, Respondent argues that the Board's discharge of Petitioner is not arbitrable. Respondent raised the issue of arbitrability before the Arbitrator, who made a specific finding that the grievance was within his jurisdiction and arbitrable. While Respondent has not itself sought judicial review of that decision, Respondent raised the issue of arbitrability in its New Matter and has specifically cited this Court to a July 19, 1996, decision of the Commonwealth Court (Fayette County Board of Commissioners v. AFSCME (No. 3426 C.D. 1995) In Fayette County, President Judge Collins, joined by Judge Friedman, and Senior Judge Silvestri, held that a county prison board's discharge of an employee is not an arbitrable issue under the just cause and grievance provisions of a collective bargaining agreement negotiated by the county commissioners where the agreement contains a general legality clause excluding from arbitrability issues which are contrary to statute, government regulations or judicial decision. Fayette, involving the discharge of a correctional officer, is clearly indistinguishable from the facts of this case and is binding on this Court. Respondent further contends, even if the discharge were arbitrable, Petitioner has no standing to seek judicial review of the Arbitrator's Award. Petitioner was clearly not a party to the collective bargaining agreement nor was he a party to the arbitration proceedings. Absent a specific provision in the collective bargaining agreement, individual employees lack standing, independent of the bargaining representative, to challenge arbitration awards. McGarth v. Municipality of Penn Hills, 64 Pa. Cmwlth. Ct. 477, 440 A.2d 1279(1982); Lee v. Municipality of Bethel Park, 626 A.2d 1260(Pa. Cmwlth. 1993) Respondent next raises numerous procedural objections to the manner in which the Petition for Review was filed. In considering such objections, the Court must first determine whether the Petition was filed pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Arbitration Act (42 Pa. C.S.A. §7307, et seq) or, as suggested by Petitioner, under the Judicial Code (42 Pa. C.S.A. §933(b)). In light of the Court's resolution of the other issues and the fact that a record might be required to resolve all the procedural objections, the Court declines to consider those objections. Putting aside the legal and procedural issues, Petitioner cannot prevail on the facts whether the Court employs the "manifestly unreasonable" test suggested by Petitioner or the "essence test" suggested by Respondent. The Arbitrator, in an extremely well-reasoned discussion of the merits, considered every issue raised by Petitioner in those proceedings. The award of the Arbitrator was not manifestly unreasonable; rather, it was manifestly reasonable in finding that honesty and integrity are so central to the function of a correctional officer that Petitioner's discharge was clearly for "just cause". NOW, this 9th day of August, 1996, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows: 1. Based upon the legal arguments raised by Respondent regarding arbitrability and standing, the Petition for Review is DISMISSED. 2. In the alternative, with respect to the factual issue of Petitioner's discharge for just cause, the award of the Arbitrator is AFFIRMED. BY THE COURT: s. J. MICHAEL WILLIAMSON, JUDGE, S.P.
