General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Office of the Auditor General

Clearfield County, ss:

At a Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the county of Clearfield, Pennsylvania, held at Clearfield, in and for said county, on the 30th day of May, A. D. 1904, before the Judge of said Court, upon a petition of sundry inhabitants of the township of Pike

, in said county, setting forth that your petitioners because of the abruptness of hills and difficult condition of road during winter labor undergo great inconvenience for want of a road or highway to lead from the main road at or near a small bridge below the residence of Daniel Rowles through lands of Frederick Dunlop and his wife, to a point or near the dividing line between lands of Mrs. F. Dunlop and that of Charles Laine a distance of  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile more or less and therefore praying the Court to appoint proper persons to view view and layout the same according to law, and report to next term whereupon the Court, upon due consideration had of the premises, do order and appoint Harry Byers, Robert Boyd and Henry Kerns who, after being respectively sworn or affirmed to perform the duties of their appointment with impartiality and fidelity, are to view the grounds proposed for said road, and if they view the same and any two of the actual viewers agree that there is occasion for such road, they shall proceed view and layout the same agreeable to the desire of the petitioners, as may be, having respect to the best ground for a road and the shortest distance, and in such manner as to do the least injury to private property, and state particularly, whether they judge the same necessary for a PUBLIC or ~~PRIVATE~~ road, together with a plot or draft of the same, with the courses and distances and reference to the improvements through which it passes, and shall also procure releases of damages from persons through whose land said road may pass, or failing to procure such releases, shall assess the same, if any sustained, and shall make report thereof to the next Court of Quarter Sessions to be held for said county, in which report they shall state that they have been sworn and affirmed according to law. Notice is directed to be given to the owners or occupants of seated land through which the within road is intended to pass, of the time of the view, according to the 147th Rule of Court.

BY THE COURT.

Grant S. Thompson
Clerk.
