RELEASE OF DAMAGES.

Know all Men by these Presents, that we, the undersigned, owners of lands through which the road located by the viewers, under the annexed order, passes for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar to us respectively paid by at and before the ensealing and delivery hereof, have remised, released and forever quit-claimed, and do hereby remise, release and forever quit-claim to the said

all damages that may arise to us respectively by reason of the location and opening of the said road, so that neither we nor any of us, nor any person claiming under us, can or may hereafter ask, sue for, demand, have or receive any damages for injuries arising or growing out of the location and opening of the road aforesaid.

The viewers further report, that said road is laid out on streets of a town plot known as the Wilson plot, which said streets are fifty feet in width, and dedicated to the use of the lot owners along said streets and the public in general as and for a public highway; so that no one will in any way be injured or damaged by the laying out and opening of said public road; as the benefits derived by the opening of a public road along the front of their premises will exceed any damages that any of the property owners along said streets may sustain, and are therefore of opinion that no one is entitled to any damages for which reasons no damages are assessed.

and that a plan or draft of said road showing courses and distances and the properties affected is hereto attached and made a part hereof, said road being at an elevation not exceeding five degrees, ~~excepting~~

~~when it was not practicable to report it within that limit.~~
