

DOCKET NO. 172

Number	Term	Year
420	September	1960

Sears Roebuck & Co.

Versus

Harold A. Knepp

Dora Mae Knepp

$ 535

OCT 22 1960

and by _____ appropriate, we remitted to pay to the order of Sears, Roebuck and Co.
Five hundred thirty six and 50/100 Dollars
Five hundred thirty six and 50/100 Dollars
Five hundred thirty six and 50/100 Dollars

Without receipt, value received, with interest
And further, do hereby empower any attorney at law of any court of record within the United States or elsewhere to appear for _____ and offer one or more declarations filed, confess judgment against _____ as of any term for the above sum with costs, or suit and attorney's commission of _____ percent for collection and release of all errors, and without stay of execution and injunction upon any law or real estate is hereby waived, and condemnation agreed to and the exemption of personal property from levy and sale on any execution hereon, is also hereby expressly waived, and no benefit of exemption be claimed under and by virtue of any exemption law now in force or which may be hereafter passed.

Witness _____ hand and seal

No. _____ Date OCT 19 1963

☒ David C. Jackson (SEAL)
☒ David C. Jackson (SEAL)
David C. Jackson (SEAL)

WALLINGTON, PA

420 Sept 1960

