Filed 17 June 1862.

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Clearfield,

The Petition of John Ebenspacker, a native of Wirtemburg, respectfully showeth: That he declared on oath, before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Clearfield, on the 19th day of March A.D. 1860 that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the King of Wirtemburg, of whom he was at that time a subject; that your petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania, upwards of one year, both periods immediately preceding this his application to become a citizen of the United States; and that he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility, in his own or any other country. He therefore prays that, on his making the proof and taking the oath prescribed by law, he may be admitted a citizen of the United States of America. And he will ever pray &c.

John Ebenspacker.

George Hostleiner a citizen of the United States of America, being duly sworn according to law, saith, that he knows and is well acquainted with John Ebenspacker, the petitioner; that to his knowledge he has resided in the United States five years, and in the State of Pennsylvania one year, both periods immediately preceding his application to be a citizen; that during the said period of five years he has behaved as a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same

Sworn in open Court 17 June 1862 George M. Hostleiner

John L. Cutler Prothy

I, John Ebensparker, do swear, that the contents of my petition are true; that I will support the Constitution of the United States; and I now renounce and relinquish any title or order of nobility to which I am now or hereafter may be entitled; and I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state or sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the King of Wirtemburg of whom I was before a subject.

Be it Remembered, That at a Court of Common Pleas held at Clearfield, for the County of Clearfield in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, on the 28th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty five Personally appeared James G. Hill a native of England exhibited a petition praying to be admitted to become a citizen of the United States, and it appearing to the said Court that he had declared on oath before the Prothonotary of the county of Clearfield on the 28th day of September A. D. 1860 that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever and particularly the Queen of England of whom he was at that time a subject and the said James G. Hill having on his solemn oath declared and also made proof thereof by competent testimony of Samuel B. Taylor and M. A. Rank citizens of the United States, that he had resided one year and upwards within the State of Pennsylvania, and within the United States of America, upwards of five years immediately preceding his application, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that during that time he had behaved as a man of good moral character; attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; and having on his solemn oath before the said Court that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to every foreign Prince, Potentate, State and Sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Queen of England of whom he was before a subject.

Thereupon the Court admitted the said James G. Hill to become a citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings aforesaid to be recorded by the Prothonotary of the said Court, and which was done accordingly.

In Testimony Whereof, I, D. L. The Petition of John G. Shuber

A Native of Germany

Respectfully Sheweth,

That he declared on oath before the Clerk of Quarter Sessions on the First day of December A. D., 1851 that it was and still is bona fide his intention to become a Citizen of the United States, and of renouncing forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever, and particularly to the Ruler of Germany of whom he was at that time a Subject.—That your Petitioner has resided within the United States upwards of five years, and one year in the State of Pennsylvania last past, immediately preceding this his application to become a Citizen of the United States.

That he has never borne any hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in his own or any other Country.

He therefore prays, that on his making the proof, and taking the oath prescribed by law, he may be admitted a Citizen of the United States of America.

and he will ever pray, &c.

John G Schubert

Samuel Dennis a Citizen of the United States of America, being duly sworn according to law, saith, that he knows and is well acquainted with John G. Shuber the Petitioner; that to his knowledge he has resided in the United States five years, and one year last past in the State of Pennsylvania, immediately preceding his application to be a Citizen; that during the said period he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of our Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

Samuel Dennis

Sworn in open Court,
CLERK.

I, John G. Shuber do swear, that the contents of my Petition are true; that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and I now renounce and relinquish any title or order of nobility to which I am now, or hereafter may be entitled, and I do absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatever, and particularly to Ruler of Germany of whom I was a Subject.
