Be it remembered, that at the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, held at Clearfield in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America on the Twenty Ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-, E. P. Gardner, a native of Canada, exhibited a petition, praying to be admitted to become a Citizen of the United States, and it appearing to the said Court that at the time of his arrival in this country he was under eighteen years of age; that he declared on oath before the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, on the 29 day of Sept A. D. 1880, that it was bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegience and fidelity to any foreign PRINCE, POTENTATE, STATE or SOVEREIGNTY whatsoever, and particularly the Queen of Great Britain, of whom he was at that time a subject; and the said E. P. Gardner having on his solemn oath declared and also made proof thereof agreeably to law, to the satisfaction of the Court, that he had resided one year and upwards in the State of Pennsylvania, and within the United States of America upwards of five years immediately preceding his application; and that during that time he had behaved himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same, and having declared on his solemn oath before the said Court that he would support the Constitution of the United States, and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegience and fidelity to every foreign PRINCE, POTENTATE, STATE and SOVEREIGNTY whatsoever, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain of whom he was before a subject. And having in all respects complied with the laws in regard to Naturalization, thereupon the Court admitted the said E. P. Gardner to become a Citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings aforesaid to be recorded by the Clerk of the said Court, which was done accordingly.
