Be it Remembered that at a Court of Common Pleas, held at Allegheny, in and for said County and State of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, the Eighth day of Sept, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty four, John Cowell, a native of Scotland, exhibited a petition praying to be admitted a citizen of the United States, and he having on his solemn oath declared that he has resided within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States of America five years, and within the State of Pennsylvania one year, and that he has continued to reside within the same; and that the same petitioner on the Eighth day of Sept, A. D. 18 82, made his declaration in writing before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, declaring his intention to become a citizen of the United States; and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to Queen of Great Britain, whereof he was heretofore subject; and that he will support the constitution of the United States. And the facts stated as aforesaid appearing in full proof, and it moreover appearing to the satisfaction of the said Court that during the said term of five years the said petitioner had behaved himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; whereupon the said Court admitted the said John Cowell, to become a Citizen of the United States; and order all the proceedings to be recorded by the Prothonotary of said Court, which was accordingly done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this Eighth day of Sept, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty four, and of the sovereignty and independence of the United Sates of America the one hundred and Eighth.
