(UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS.)

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, at a Court holding in and for said county, the 10 day of Sept, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight:

The Petition of Forman Dailly, a native of France, and now residing in the county of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, respectfully sheweth: That your petitioner arrived in the United States of America, to wit, at the port of New York, in the State of N.Y., on the 2 day of March, A. D. 1877, and that at the time of his arrival he was under eighteen years of age, and that he has continued to reside in the United States since his arrival, and that for three years previous to his arrival at full age, it was, and is still, his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States, and of renouncing forever all allegience and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate or Sovereignty, and particularly to the French of Republic, and that in pursuance of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the Acts heretofore passed on that subject," made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States conformably to the said Act, before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, in the State of Penna, on the 10 day of Sept, A. D. 188f, and that he has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for five years last past, and for one year last past within the State of Pennsylvania; that he has never borne hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom from which he came, or elsewhere. He therefore prays that he may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and he will ever pray, &c.

Be it Remembered, That at a Court of Common Pleas, held at Clearfield, in and for said County and State of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, the Third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight. Elijah Blankley, a native of England, exhibited a petition praying to be admitted a citizen of the United States, and he having on his solemn oath declared that he has resided within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States of America five years, and within the State of Pennsylvania one year, and that he has continued to reside within the same; and that the same petitioner on the Twenty fifth day of September, A. D. 1885, made his declaration in writing before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, declaring his intention to become a citizen of the United States; and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to The Queen of Great Britian whereof he was heretofore subject; and that he will support the Constitution of the United States. And the facts stated as aforesaid appearing in full proof, and it moreover appearing to the satisfaction of the said Court that during the said term of five years the said petitioner had behaved himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same: whereupon the said Court admitted the said Elijah Blankley to become a Citizen of the United States, and order all the proceedings to be recorded by the Prothonotary of said Court, which was accordingly done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Clearfield, the Third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight, and of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and Twelfth

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, at a Court holding in and for said county, the 4 day of Sept, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight:

The Petition of Thomas Cusick, a native of Ireland, and now residing in the county of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, respectfully sheweth: That your petitioner arrived in the United States of America, to wit, at the port of Boston, in the State of Mass., on the 3-3 day of May, A. D. 188[illegible], and that at the time of his arrival he was under eighteen years of age, and that he has continued to reside in the United States since his arrival, and that for three years previous to his arrival at full age, it was, and is still, his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States, and of renouncing forever all allegience and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate or Sovereignty, and particularly to the Queen of Great Britain, and that in pursuance of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the Acts heretofore passed on that subject," made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States conformably to the said Act, before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, in the State of Penna., on the 19 day of August, A. D. 188[illegible], and that he has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for five years last past, and for one year last past within the State of Pennsylvania; that he has never borne hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom from which he came, or elsewhere. He therefore prays that he may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and he will ever pray, &c.

In the matter of the application of John Donaldson for an alias or duplicate certificate of naturalization. of his father James Donaldson

State of Pennsylvania } SS:
County of Clearfield }

John Donaldson being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he is the son of the identical James Donaldson who made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield Co on the 14th day of January A. D. 1886 and was duly admitted to become a citizen of the United States by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County aforesaid, on the 6th day of February A. D. 1886

That he was born in Scotland on the ——— day of ——— 18— and arrived in the United States, at the Port of New York State of N. Y. on the 7 day of Sept 1874 that he was at that time ——— years ——— months of age.

That the original certificate of naturalization issued to his father has been lost or destroyed, and to the best of his knowledge and belief it is not in possession of any person for the purpose of committing a fraud under the election laws of this Commonwealth.

That he does not make application for a new certificate for the purpose of committing any fraud under the laws governing elections in this Commonwealth, but solely to preserve his right of suffrage, which right would be jeopardized and lost without the issuing of such new certificate.

(UNDER EIGHTEEN YEARS.)

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, at a Court holding in and for said county, the 10th day of Sept, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-Eight:

The Petition of Edward Evans, a native of South Wales and now residing in the county of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania respectfully sheweth: That your petitioner arrived in the United States of America, to wit, at the port of Phila, in the State of Pa, on the 10th day of Sept, A. D. 1888, and that at the time of his arrival he was under eighteen years of age, and that he has continued to reside in the United States since his arrival, and that for three years previous to his arrival at full age, it was, and is still, his bona fide intention to become a citizen of the United States, and of renouncing forever all allegience and fidelity to any foreign Prince, Potentate or Sovereignty, and particularly to the Queen of Great Brittain, and that in pursuance of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the Acts heretofore passed on that subject," made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States conformably to the said Act, before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, in the State of Penna, on the 10th day of Sept, A. D. 1888, and that he has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for five years last past, and for one year last past within the State of Pennsylvania; that he has never borne hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom from which he came, or elsewhere. He therefore prays that he may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and he will ever pray, &c.

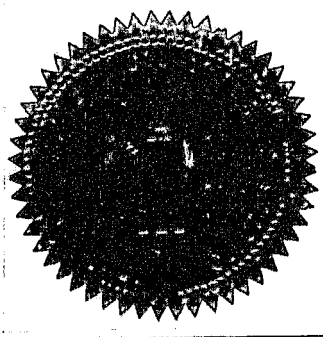
Be it Remembered, That at a Court of Common Pleas, held at Clearfield, in and for said County and State of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, the Third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight, Philip Henry, a native of Prussia, exhibited a petition praying to be admitted a citizen of the United States, and he having on his solemn oath declared that he has resided within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States of America five years, and within the State of Pennsylvania one year, and that he has continued to reside within the same; and that the same petitioner on the 30th day of August, A. D. 1886, made his declaration in writing before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, declaring his intention to become a citizen of the United States; and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to The King of Prussia whereof he was heretofore subject; and that he will support the Constitution of the United States. And the facts stated as aforesaid appearing in full proof, and it moreover appearing to the satisfaction of the said Court that during the said term of five years the said petitioner had behaved himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; whereupon the said Court admitted the said Philip Henry to become a Citizen of the United States, and order all the proceedings to be recorded by the Prothonotary of said Court, which was accordingly done.



IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Clearfield, the Third day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight, and of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and Twelfth

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
Of the County of Clearfield, Pa.

In the matter of the application of John William Hill a son of John Hill for an alias or duplicate certificate of naturalization.

State of Pennsylvania } SS:
County of Somerset }

John Wm Hill being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he is the identical son of John Hills who made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States before Common Pleas Court of Clearfield County Penn, on the 25 day of May A. D. 1885 and was duly admitted to become a citizen of the United States by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County aforesaid, on the 5 day of Oct A. D. 1888.

That he was born in England on the 4th day of April 1879 and arrived in the United States, at the Port of New York State of N.Y. on the 28 day of July 1883. that he was at that time 4 years 3 months of age.

That the original certificate of naturalization issued to him has been lost or destroyed, and to the best of his knowledge and belief it is not in possession of any person for the purpose of committing a fraud under the election laws of this Commonwealth.

That he does not make application for a new certificate for the purpose of committing any fraud under the laws governing elections in this Commonwealth, but solely to preserve his right of suffrage, which right would be jeopardized and lost without the issuing of such new certificate.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 17th day of May A. D. 1948.

The Petition of John Hoffman, a native of Germany, and now residing in the county of Clearfield and State of Pennsylvania, respectfully sheweth: That your petitioner arrived in the United States of America, to wit, at the port of New York, in the State of New York, on the 8th day of November A. D. 1865, and that in pursuance of an Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to establish an uniform rule of Naturalization, and to repeal the Acts heretofore passed on that subject," made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States conformably to the said Act, before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield county, in the State of Penna, on the 10th day of March, A. D. 1884, and that he has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the United States for five years last past, and for one year last past within the State of Pennsylvania; that he has never borne hereditary title, or been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom from which he came, or elsewhere. He therefore prays that he may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States; and he will ever pray, &c.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Clearfield County, ss:

Be it Remembered, That at a Court of Common Pleas, held at Clearfield, in and for said County and State of Pennsylvania, in the United States of America, the 3rd day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight, John Hoffman, a native of Germany, exhibited a petition praying to be admitted a citizen of the United States, and he having on his solemn oath declared that he has resided within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States of America five years, and within the State of Pennsylvania one year, and that he has continued to reside within the same; and that the same petitioner on the Tenth day of March, A. D. 1884, made his declaration in writing before the Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, declaring his intention to become a citizen of the United States; and that he did absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any Foreign Prince, Potentate, State or Sovereignty whatsoever, and particularly to The Emperor of Germany whereof he was heretofore subject; and that he will support the Constitution of the United States. And the facts stated as aforesaid appearing in full proof, and it moreover appearing to the satisfaction of the said Court that during the said term of five years the said petitioner had behaved himself as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same; whereupon the said Court admitted the said John Hoffman to become a Citizen of the United States, and ordered all the proceedings to be recorded by the Prothonotary of said Court, which was accordingly done.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Clearfield, the 3rd day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eighty Eight, and of the sovereignty and independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and Twelfth

In the matter of the application of Arthur Hugill for an alias or duplicate certificate of naturalization.
of Robert Hugill

State of Penna. } SS:
County of Cayuga }

Arthur Hugill being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he is the ~~identical~~ son of Robt Hugill who made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States before Clerk of Courts of Columbia Co Ohio on the sixth day of Oct A. D. 1883. and was duly admitted to become a citizen of the United States by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County aforesaid, on the First day of Sept A. D. 1888.

That he was born in England on the 28 day of February 1873. and arrived in the United States, at the Port of Buckenton New Jersey State of New Jersey on the ..... day of June 1881. that he was at that time 8 years 3 months of age.

That the original certificate of naturalization issued to him has been lost or destroyed, and to the best of his knowledge and belief it is not in possession of any person for the purpose of committing a fraud under the election laws of this Commonwealth.

That he does not make application for a new certificate for the purpose of committing any fraud under the laws governing elections in this Commonwealth, but solely to preserve his right of suffrage, which right would be jeopardized and lost without the issuing of such new certificate.

William Jennery being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he is the identical Son John Jennery who made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States before Common Pleas Court of Clearfield County Pa on the 6 day of Sept A. D. 1886 and was duly admitted to become a citizen of the United States by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County aforesaid, on the 6 day of Sept A. D. 1886.

That he was born in England on the 30 day of Oct. 1874 and arrived in the United States, at the Port of Philadelphia State of Penna. on the ? day of March 1882 that he was at that time 8 years months of age.

That the original certificate of naturalization issued to him has been lost or destroyed, and to the best of his knowledge and belief it is not in possession of any person for the purpose of committing a fraud under the election laws of this Commonwealth.

That he does not make application for a new certificate for the purpose of committing any fraud under the laws governing elections in this Commonwealth, but solely to preserve his right of suffrage, which right would be jeopardized and lost without the issuing of such ~~new~~ Duplicate certificate.

John C. Jones being duly sworn according to law, did depose and say that he is the identical John C. Jones who made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States before Common Pleas Court of Clearfield County at Clearfield Pa on the 17 day of June A. D. 1886 and was duly admitted to become a citizen of the United States by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County aforesaid, on the Third day of Sept. A. D. 1888.

That he was born in Wales on the first day of July 1838 and arrived in the United States, at the Port of New York State of N.Y. on the 22 day of May 1880. that he was at that time 21 years 10 months of age.

That the original certificate of naturalization issued to him has been lost or destroyed, and to the best of his knowledge and belief it is not in possession of any person for the purpose of committing a fraud under the election laws of this Commonwealth.

That he does not make application for a new certificate for the purpose of committing any fraud under the laws governing elections in this Commonwealth, but solely to preserve his right of suffrage, which right would be jeopardized and lost without the issuing of such new certificate.
