And now, to wit, this 9th day of January 1941, comes Wm. C. McDougall, U. S. Naturalization Examiner, and on behalf of the United States of America respectfully moves the Court that the above petition for citizenship be denied for the following reasons, to wit: Petition has been continued twice, to wit, Jan. 4, 1940 and again on July 3, 1940 to give petitioner opportunity to pay or make settlement of costs of record and fine at No.80 Dec. Sessions 1931, Q.S.Court, Clearfield Co.,Pa. but at this hearing, Jan. 9, 1941, he has made no effort to pay, settle or compromise the said costs and fine.

Petitioner has failed to comply with Order of this Court, as aforesaid.

Respectfully submitted:

Wm. C. McDougall

U. S. Naturalization Examiner

ORDER OF COURT

And now, to wit, this 9th day of January 1941, upon consideration of the above petition for citizenship, and the motion of the representative of the United States of America, in open court this 9th day of Jan. 1941, motion for denial is hereby granted and the above petition denied. Exception allowed to the Court's ruling.

BY THE COURT:

Judge.

Mr. J. Harold McFadden
Prothonotary, Common Pleas Court
Clearfield, Penna.

Dear Mr. McFadden:

In reply to your inquiry of September 3, 1941, relative to the petition for naturalization and certificate of CATHERINE FEROLETO, petition number 2792-P-3109, it appears that the age as shown on the certificate of naturalization is in error.

You are therefore instructed to make a certified correction on the original certificate to show the age as 48 instead of 38 years.

Please advise this office after the correction has been made, in order that we may inform the Central Office of the change and thus correct the duplicate certificate.

Respectfully,

C. GARFINKEL,
Divisional Director.
