Provident Bank Credit Card Agreement

This Agreement explains the terms of your credit card Account. Please read this Agreement and keep it with your records.

1. Definitions In this Agreement, the words "you," "your" and "borrower" mean anyone who signs the Credit Card Application or otherwise agrees to be obligated under this Agreement. The words "Credit Card Program," "we," "our" or "us" mean The Provident Bank, the sponsor of the Credit Card Program and the creditor in this Agreement. The word "Account" means your credit card Account. The word "card(s)" means any and all credit card(s) which the Credit Card Program issues to your Account. The word "purchases" means amounts charged to your Account when you use your card or give your Account number to buy or lease goods or services. "Purchases" also means the fees and charges which, when charged to your Account, are treated as purchases and are subject to a finance charge. The phrase "cash advances" means loans charged to your Account which you obtain by use of your card, your Account number or convenience checks. The phrase "balance transfer" means loans charged to your Account which you obtain by use of balance transfer checks or balance transfer forms.

2. Your Responsibility This Agreement will be effective when you or any other person you authorize to use the card or the Account ("Authorized User") uses the card or the Account, or if you fail to cut your card(s) in half and return it to us within 30 days after it is issued to you. You are legally responsible for repaying the entire amount owed to the Credit Card Program under this Agreement.

Upon your request, the Credit Card Program may issue additional cards to person(s) you authorize to use the Account. These persons as well as you are also responsible for charges they make with their cards. If this is a joint Account, each of you, together and individually, is responsible for all amounts owed, even if the Account is only used by one of you. You agree to the terms of this Agreement, as it may be amended from time to time, when you obtain credit or authorize others to obtain credit under this Agreement. Anyone you authorize to use the Account is also subject to the terms of this Agreement. By using your credit card Account, or by signing any charge slip drawn on your credit card account or by signing any Balance Transfer authorization or Balance Transfer Check or Convenience Check, you will be confirming that you agree to the terms of this Agreement, as it may be amended from time to time.

3. Credit Limit Your total credit limit ("Total Credit Limit") is the combined amount of credit for purchases, balance transfers, convenience checks and cash advances that the Credit Card Program agrees to extend to you at any one time under this Agreement. You may also receive a separate credit limit for Cash Advances, which will be a portion of your Total Credit Limit ("Cash Advance Credit Limit"). Your Total Credit Limit is shown on each Account statement. The Credit Card Program can change the amount of your Total Credit Limit at any time without prior notice to you. You may not use your Account in any way that would cause you to go over your Total Credit Limit. We may refuse to authorize or accept any transaction on your Account which would cause you to exceed your credit limit. It is your obligation not to exceed the Total Credit Limit for your Account. If you owe more than your Total Credit Limit, you agree to pay the excess immediately upon our request and we may charge you an over-the-limit fee, as described in Section 10 of this Agreement, and/or suspend your Account privileges or cancel your Account as described in Section 16 of this Agreement.

4. How to Use Your Account

a) Purchases: You can use your cards to buy or lease goods or services wherever the card is honored. (Credit life insurance charges, copy fees, card replacement fees, annual membership fees, returned check fees, the amount of any returned check, over-the-limit fees, and late payment fees are deemed to be Purchases subject to finance charge.)

b) Balance Transfers:

i) Balance Transfer Checks: the Credit Card Program may also, at its option, give you special checks which you can use to reduce or pay off the balance on credit card Accounts you may have with other institutions (called "Balance Transfer Checks"). Balance Transfer Checks may not be used to make payment on any Credit Card Program Account. The minimum amount of any Balance Transfer Check is $500.00.

ii) Balance Transfer Form: The Credit Card Program may also, in connection with the opening of your Account or from time to time, supply you with Balance Transfer Forms for you to fill in, sign and return to the Credit Card Program. The Credit Card Program will pay the balances you have authorized to be transferred up to your Total Credit Limit, unless otherwise limited by the terms or conditions of the Balance Transfer Form, so that any such balances at other financial institutions will be transferred to the Credit Card Program.

c) Cash Advances: You can also use your Account to obtain cash loans or ATM loans, which will be referred to collectively as "Cash Advances." The two types of Cash Advances are described as follows:

i) Cash Loans: You can use your card to get cash loans from any financial institution that accepts the card. THE AMOUNT OF ANY ONE CASH ADVANCE MAY NOT EXCEED 50% OF THE CREDIT LIMIT. Authorizations for Cash Advance transactions over a certain dollar amount or number may be refused under certain circumstances even though you have credit available.

These restrictions are for security reasons and, therefore, we cannot explain the details of our authorization system.

ii) ATM Loans: You can use your card to get cash loans from any automated teller machine ("ATM") that accepts the card. The total amount of ATM loans you may get in one day is $200.00 (with the use of Visa and MasterCard) and $500.00 (with the use of Visa Gold, MasterCard Gold and Visa Platinum).

The amount of any Cash Advance will be charged to your Account and will appear on your Account statement. You will be charged a transaction fee for Cash Advances in the amount set forth in the Pricing Addendum.

d) Obtaining Credit Without a Card: If you give your Account number to make Purchases, or Balance Transfers or to obtain Cash Advances without using your card (such as for a mail order or a telephone purchase), you will be responsible for the amount of the Purchases, Balance Transfers or Cash Advances as if you had used the card.

e) Convenience Checks: If we supply you with personalized Convenience Checks, they will be subject to the following conditions: Only the person whose name is printed on a Convenience Check may sign it. All Convenience Checks must be written in U.S. dollars. We will not certify a Convenience Check. We are entitled to return it unpaid if there is not enough available credit on your Account to pay it, if you are in default under this Agreement, if your Card or Convenience Checks have been reported lost or stolen, or if the Convenience check is post dated (shows a future date). Any Convenience Check that we pay will be added to your Account as a Cash Advance. A Convenience Check cannot be used to make a payment on any of your Accounts.

5. Monthly Statements: We will send you a monthly statement at the end of each billing period (intervals of approximately one month which we call "Billing Cycles") if there is any balance on your Account of $1.00 or more.

6. Minimum Payments: You must make a minimum payment in each Billing Cycle in which you have a new balance on your Account. The minimum payment in each Billing Cycle is 3% of the new balance as shown on your monthly statement, rounded to the nearest whole dollar, plus any unpaid minimum payment from prior statements and amounts which exceed your Total Credit Limit. However, the minimum payment will not be less than $20.00 or the exact amount of your new balance. You must pay at least the minimum payment shown on each monthly statement by the due date to avoid delinquency. You may pay the entire new balance on your Account at any time.

7. Annual Percentage Rate: The Credit Card Program figures the FINANCE CHARGE separately on Purchases, Balance Transfers and Cash Advances by using monthly periodic rates which are 1/12th of the corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE. If this is a new Account and you are receiving this Agreement for the first time, all monthly periodic rates and the corresponding Annual Percentage Rate(s) are shown on the Pricing Addendum accompanying this Agreement. If your Account is an existing Account and you have previously received this Agreement, the monthly periodic rates and the corresponding Annual Percentage Rate(s) are shown on your monthly statement.

8. Introductory and Promotional Rate Offers: At the Credit Card Program's discretion, we may offer you an introductory annual percentage rate for all or a part of the purchase and/or Cash Advance and/or Balance Transfers balances. The period of time for which the introductory rate applies may be limited. Any introductory rate, the corresponding periodic rates, and the period of time during which it is in effect will appear on the Pricing Addendum included with this Agreement. We may also offer you a promotional annual percentage rate to encourage specific transactions, such as transferring balances from accounts you have with other credit card issuers. Any introductory or promotional rate offer will be subject to the terms of the offer and this Agreement.

9. How we Compute the Finance Charge: Finance Charges on your Account for Purchases and Cash Advances are calculated separately.

Purchases

Finance Charges for purchases are figured by applying a Monthly Periodic Rate (Annual Percentage Rate divided by 12) to your Average Daily Balance of Purchases.

To determine the Average Daily Balance of Purchases, we take the beginning balance of purchases on your Account each day, add any new purchases, any unpaid finance charges on purchases, or any other charges posted to your Account, and subtract any payments and credits applied to your Account that day. This gives us the daily balance of purchases. Then, we add up all the daily balances of purchases for the Billing Cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the Billing Cycle. This gives us the Average Daily Balance of Purchases.

A Finance Charge is imposed from the date of each Purchase (or, at our discretion, on the date the Purchase is posted to your Account) until the date it is fully paid. However, no Finance Charge is imposed on new Purchases in the Billing Cycle in which they are posted to your Account if in the prior Billing Cycle you had no New Balance or if you paid the entire New Balance on your Account by the Payment Due Date on that monthly statement. The Payment Due Date will be no less than 25 days after the closing date of your previous Billing Cycle. No Finance Charge will be imposed on new Purchases if the New Balance shown on your billing statement is paid in full within 25 days of the Billing Date.

Cash Advances (Loans)

Finance Charges for Cash Advances are figured by applying the Monthly Periodic Rate to your Average Daily Balance of Cash Advance Fee(s).

To determine the Average Daily Balance of Cash Advances, we take the beginning balance of Cash Advances on your Account each day, add any new Cash Advances as of the transaction date of the cash Advance (or the posting date, in the case of Convenience Checks and Balance Transfers), add any unpaid Finance Charges on Cash Advances, and subtract any payments and credits applied to Cash Advances that day. This gives us the daily balance of Cash Advances. Then, we add up all the daily balances of Cash Advances for the Billing Cycle and divide the total by the number of days in the Billing Cycle. This gives us the Average Daily Balance of Cash Advances (including Convenience Checks and Balance Transfers). A Finance Charge is imposed on a Cash Advance, or portion of it, from the date the Cash Advance is made, until the date it is fully paid.

Computation of Finance Charge

Once we have the Average Daily Balance, we compute the Finance Charge as follows: We multiply the Average Daily Balance of Purchases by the Monthly Periodic Rate applicable to them and add the results together.

The monthly Periodic Rate will be determined by dividing the Annual Percentage Rate by twelve (12). Any change in the periodic rate will go into effect on the first day of your new Billing Cycle starting after the first day of the next calendar month and may result in an increase or decrease in the Finance Charge. There will be a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of $.50 in any Billing Cycle in which a Finance Charge at a Periodic Rate is charged. We also add a fee for each Cash Advance posted to your Account.

The Monthly Periodic Rate and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate are disclosed in the enclosed Credit Card Program Pricing Addendum.

10. Account Fees

a.) MEMBERSHIP FEE. Refer to your Pricing Addendum to determine if an Annual Membership Fee applies to your account.

b.) RETURNED CHECK FEE.

i) Returned Payment Check. If your payment check is returned to the Credit Card Program unpaid for any reason, the Credit Card Program may charge your Account a Returned Check Fee of $25.00 for each returned check.

ii) Returned Balance Transfer Check. If the Credit Card Program refuses under the terms of this Agreement to pay one or more of your Balance Transfer Checks, the Credit Card Program may charge your Account a Returned Check Fee of $25.00 for each of your returned Balance Transfer Checks.

iii) Returned Convenience Checks. If the Credit Card Program refuses under the terms of this Agreement to pay one or more of your Convenience Checks, the Credit Card Program may charge your Account a Returned Check Fee of $25.00 for each of your returned Convenience Checks.

c.) OVER-THE-LIMIT FEES. If your new balance on the closing date of the billing cycle exceeds your Total Credit Limit by any amount, the Credit Card Program may charge your Account a Over-The Limit Fee (in the amount set forth in Pricing Addendum). If you exceed the Total Credit Limit on the closing date of the billing cycle, you will be charged only one Over-The Limit Fee in that month.

d.) LATE FEES. The Credit Card Plan may charge your Account a late payment fee if the Credit Card Program does not receive your minimum payment by the payment due date, (in the amount set forth in the pricing addendum).

e.) COPY FEE. The Credit Card Program may charge your Account $5.00 for each page of photocopy requested of any sales slip charged to your Account or other records of your Account, including a previous statement, plus $25.00 per hour for the time required by the Credit Card Program to make the copies. The Credit Card Program will not impose a charge, however, if a sales slip or other record reveals a billing error in your Account.

f.) CASH ADVANCE FEE. The Credit Card Program will charge your Account a Cash Advance fee equal to 2.9% of the U.S. Dollar amount of each Cash Advance, but not less than a minimum transaction fee of $3.00. The Credit Card Program charges this Cash Advance transaction fee in addition to the Finance Charge that results from using the monthly periodic rate(s) and annual percentage rate(s) described above. The Cash Advance Fee will cause the Annual Percentage Rate on your billing statement to exceed the rate stated in the Pricing Addendum for Cash Advances.

11. Lost or Stolen Cards. If your card is lost or stolen, or if you believe that it is being used without your permission, you must notify us at once. Call us at the number shown on your monthly statement. You should also inform us in writing that your card has been lost or stolen. You should not use the Account or card after you have notified us. If your card or Account is used by an unauthorized person you may be liable, but not for more than $50.00. You will not be liable for any Purchase or Cash Advance made after you have notified us of the loss or theft at the telephone number or the address shown on your monthly statement.

12. Default and Collection Costs. You will be in default if you fail to comply with any of the terms of this Agreement, fail to meet any of your other obligations when due, or upon your death or insolvency, or if you provided false information to obtain your Account. If you are in default, we may demand immediate payment of the full balance owed on your Account and we will not be required to permit any further transactions on your Account.

If you are in default and fail to pay any amounts you owe, you will be liable, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for our costs of collection and, if we refer this claim to an attorney for collection, you will be liable, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for any reasonable attorney's fees we incur, plus the costs and expenses of any legal action.

13. Delay in Enforcement. We can delay enforcing or fail to enforce any of our rights under this Agreement without losing them.

14. Credit Reports. You authorize us and our subsidiaries and affiliates to make any credit, employment, and investigative inquiries we deem appropriate related to this extension of credit or the collection of amounts owed on your Account. You also authorize us to furnish information concerning your Account or credit history with us to consumer reporting agencies and others who may properly receive that information. From time to time, we may monitor telephone calls between you and us to assure the quality of our customer service.

15. Amendment of Agreement. We can change this Agreement at any time, as permitted by applicable law, including changing the Finance Charges and the Annual Percentage Rate and any Account fees or adding new fees. Any change will apply to all amounts you owe at the time the change goes into effect. We will notify you of any changes to this Agreement at least 15 days before the effective date of such change. We may sell or otherwise transfer your Account and any amounts owed by you to another creditor at any time. If we do, this Agreement will still be in effect.

16. Cancellation. You may cancel your Account at any time by notifying us in writing at the address on your monthly statement and returning all cards issued on your Account, out in hand, and returning all unused Convenience Checks. Even after your Account is closed, you remain responsible for any amounts you owe on the Account according to the terms of this Agreement. If you are a joint Account holder, you may request that the Account be closed and we will honor the request without us having any liability to the other of you. In order to cancel permission of an Authorized User to use your Credit Card Account, you must notify Authorized User to use your Credit Card Account, you must notify us in writing and you must return to us, with your written notice, any Card in the possession of the Authorized User. You will continue to be liable for all Purchases and Cash Advances made by an Authorized User, and all other resulting Account fees and charges, until we receive your letter and the Card. The card is our property and we can suspend your Account privileges if you do not return it at any time, with or without cause or notice. We may take such action if you do not use your Card to make Purchases or Cash Advances at least one time each year. We may issue you a different Card at any time.

17. If Your Card is Retained. We are not responsible and shall have no liability if a merchant, a financial institution, an ATM, or any third party refuses to honor your card or accept a transaction on your Account. Although you may not be creditworthy, we may be unable to withdraw credit for a particular transaction due to operational difficulties or mistakes. In such cases, there is a certain dollar amount may require authorization before the transaction is approved. The number of transactions you make in one day may be limited since we may limit the number of authorizations which may be given. These restrictions are for security reasons. As a result, we cannot explain the details of how our authorization system works. Neither we nor our agents will be responsible if there is any liability if authorization for a transaction is not given. If you Account is overlimit or delinquent, authorization or credit for transactions may be declined.

18. Changes Made in Foreign Currencies

FOR VISA ACCOUNTS: If you incur a charge in a foreign currency, the charge will be converted by Visa International, Inc. into a U.S. dollar amount. Visa International will use the procedures set forth in its Operating Regulations in effect at the time that the transaction is processed. Currently, these Regulations provide that the currency conversion rate to be used is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-sanctioned rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case; prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case; Visa retains this one percent as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

FOR MASTERCARD ACCOUNTS: If you incur a charge in a foreign currency, the charge will be converted by MasterCard International, Inc. into a U.S. dollar amount. MasterCard International will use the conversion procedures published from time to time to its members at the time that the transaction is processed. Currently, the currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-sanctioned rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case; MasterCard retains this one percent as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

19. Applicable Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Ohio and federal law.

20. Severability. In the event that any provision of this Agreement is held or determined invalid or unenforceable, for any reason, the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and unaffected by such holding or determination.

21. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Pricing Addendum embodies the entire Agreement and understanding between us and supersedes all agreements, statements and understandings relating to the Credit Card Program and the terms of its use, unless otherwise expressly stated.

22. Headings. The headings used in this Agreement and Addendum are for the convenience of reference only and are not intended in any way to define or describe the scope or intent of any provision of the Agreement and Addendum.

23. Security Interest for Secured Accounts. If your Account is a secured Account, you understand that the Certificate of Deposit will be held as collateral to secure your credit card obligations to the Credit Card Plan and, in that regard, you hereby pledge and grant to the Credit Card Plan a security interest in such collateral and set over to the Credit Card Plan all rights, title and interest in the Certificate of Deposit and all reserves and additions thereto. You understand that the Credit Card Plan will take physical possession of the Certificate of Deposit during the time your credit card is valid to use as collateral. If you are not a resident of Ohio, you understand that you will not be permitted to redeem the Certificate of Deposit as long as the pledge and security agreement remain in force. In the event you are declared to be in default under the credit card agreement, the Credit Card Plan has the right to redeem the Certificate of Deposit and apply the proceeds against the balance of your credit card obligations owed by you to the Credit Card Plan. If such redemption occurs on a date other than the maturity date, it will constitute an early withdrawal of the Certificate of Deposit which will result in the imposition of early withdrawal penalties. The law of your state of residence at the date your contract was made will govern.

Upon written notice from you to close your Secured Credit Card Account, you understand that you must return all cards and convenience checks in your possession along with your written request to cancel. You understand that after we have received your written request to cancel, all outstanding credit cards and convenience checks, we will continue to hold the Certificate of Deposit for 30 bank business days to allow for any late presentation of purchases, cash advances or credits.

24. Agreement to Arbitrate. Upon the demand of either party to this Agreement, whether before the institution of any legal proceeding or not more than 60 days after service of a complaint, third party complaint, crossclaim or counterclaim or any answer thereto or any amendment to any of the above; any action, dispute, claim or controversy of any kind arising out of, pertaining to or in connection with this Agreement shall be resolved by binding arbitration conducted by and under the rules of either the National Arbitration Forum or the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award may be granted in any court having jurisdiction thereon. No provision of this paragraph shall limit the right of any party to this Agreement to exercise self-help remedies such as set-off, repossession and sale of any collateral or to obtain provisional or summary remedies such as replevin or injunctive relief before, or during the pendency of any arbitration or other proceedings. No class action arbitration may be ordered pursuant to this Agreement to arbitrate and there shall be no joinder of parties, except for joinder of the parties to this Agreement. This agreement to arbitrate shall be interpreted under the Federal Arbitration Act.

Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill. If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, write us on a separate sheet at the address provided in the Billing Rights Summary portion on the back of your billing statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.

- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice. We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to bill you for the amount you question, including Finance Charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any Finance Charges related to any questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you may have to pay Finance Charges and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you have a question about your bill and we must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us upon its resolution.

If we do not follow these rules, we cannot collect the first $50.00 of the questioned amount, even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases. If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you have purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right: you must have made the purchase within your home state, or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and the purchase price must have been more than $50.00. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
