ANSWER AND NEW MATTER

Defendants, TONI M. CHERRY, individually, and GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, L.L.P., a partnership (“collectively “attorney-defendants”), by their attorneys, GROGAN GRAFFAM, P.C., set forth the following Answer and New Matter:

1. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that plaintiff is an adult individual. The remaining averments are denied. To the contrary, it is believed that plaintiff is a resident of Sandy Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, and not a resident of DuBois.
2. Admitted.
3. Admitted in part and denied in part. Paragraph 3 is denied insofar as it alleges that defendant Toni M. Cherry, Esquire (“Attorney Cherry”) “held herself out” to plaintiff in the fashion described as that phrase is vague and ambiguous. The balance of Paragraph 3 is admitted.
4. Admitted.

5. Admitted in part and denied in part. Paragraph 5 is denied insofar as it alleges that Gleason, Cherry and Cherry, L.L.P. ("the Cherry Firm") provided legal services on "related matters" as that phrase is vague and ambiguous. The balance of Paragraph 5 is admitted.

6. Admitted.

7. Admitted.

8. Denied as stated. To the contrary, Attorney Cherry and the Cherry Firm entered into a contractual relationship with plaintiff on or about September 20, 1995, which retention was the subject of a written engagement letter memorializing the scope, terms and conditions of the engagement. Attorney Cherry and the Cherry Firm incorporate by reference such engagement letter, which speaks for itself, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "1".

9. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that plaintiff met with Attorney Cherry on September 20, 1995 and that plaintiff retained Attorney Cherry, and Attorney Cherry and the Cherry Firm agreed to represent plaintiff's interests, based upon the scope, terms and conditions set forth in a written engagement letter dated September 20, 1995. A copy of such engagement letter is attached as Exhibit "1" and incorporated by reference. It is denied that plaintiff ever advised attorney-defendants that the "majority of the marital assets were under the control of [plaintiff's] husband, Robert E. Hoffman".

10. Denied. By way of further response, attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraph 9 of this Answer.

11. Admitted.

12. Admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that, based upon information supplied by plaintiff on or about September 20, 1995, Attorney Cherry knew that plaintiff's husband, Robert E. Hoffman, was a former Pennsylvania State Police Officer and that he had been employed in that capacity during their marriage. All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 12 are denied.

13. Denied as stated. To the contrary, when plaintiff met with and retained attorney-defendants on September 20, 1995, plaintiff advised Attorney Cherry that her husband, Robert E. Hoffman, had a "pension". Attorney Cherry also learned that plaintiff's husband was receiving a monthly retirement benefit from the Pennsylvania State Employees' Retirement System ("SERS") as a result of his former employment as a Pennsylvania State Police Officer. All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 13 are denied.

14. Denied as stated. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraph 13 of this Answer.

15. Denied as stated. It is denied that plaintiff, during the course of attorney-defendants' legal representation of her interests, told or advised attorney-defendants that her husband had sole control over an IRA account with Equitable Insurance Company ("Equitable IRA") which had "been funded with monies received from the aforementioned SERS retirement benefit earned during the marriage". To the contrary, during the initial consultation with plaintiff, Attorney Cherry learned that there existed an IRA. Thereafter, plaintiff referred to this asset as the one that had been rolled over as "our stocks". Attorney Cherry was also informed that such stocks were in a joint account held by plaintiff and Robert E. Hoffman.

16. Denied as stated. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraph 15 of this Answer. By way of further response, it was not until after the death of Robert E. Hoffman that Attorney Cherry learned that there existed the Equitable IRA in the sole name of Robert E. Hoffman.

17. Denied as stated. To the contrary, on September 20, 1995, when plaintiff met with Attorney Cherry and retained attorney-defendants, plaintiff advised Attorney Cherry that she had been married to Robert E. Hoffman since September 2, 1983. All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 17 are denied.

18. Denied as stated. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraph 17 of this Answer.

19. Denied.

20. Denied.

21. Denied as stated. To the contrary, on September 20, 1995, when plaintiff met Attorney Cherry and retained attorney-defendants, or sometime shortly thereafter, plaintiff advised Attorney Cherry that she was the beneficiary designated to receive death benefits of her husband's SERS retirement account.

22. Denied as stated. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraph 21 of this Answer.

23. Denied. By way of further response, attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Answer.

24. Denied as stated. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraphs 15, 16 and 23 of this Answer.

25. The averments set forth in Paragraph 25 are conclusions of law to which no responsive pleading is required. To the extent a response is necessary, such averments are admitted in part and denied in part. It is admitted that Attorney Cherry knew, during the course of her representation of plaintiff's interests, that plaintiff's husband did not contribute to the federal Social Security system and was not entitled to any Social Security benefits upon his retirement. All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 25 are denied. By way of further response, Attorney Cherry knew that plaintiff was employed and did contribute to the Social Security system, in addition to having her own pension.

26. Denied as stated. It is believed that only a portion of Robert E. Hoffman's SERS retirement benefits were accumulated during the period he was married to and living with plaintiff. It is admitted that the SERS retirement benefits were in lieu of Social Security retirement benefits. All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 26 are denied.

All remaining and/or contrary averments of Paragraph 29 are denied.

30. Admitted. By way of further response, plaintiff informed Attorney Cherry that her husband had listed her as beneficiary of the SERS retirement account and that he would never seek to change her as named beneficiary on the account. Furthermore, to attorney-defendants' knowledge, plaintiff's husband did not "dissipate" the SERS retirement account, nor would have been entitled to "dissipate" such account. Finally, it is denied that, had a petition been filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County "to maintain the status quo with regard to the [SERS] retirement account", an Order would have been issued by the Court to such effect, and proof to the contrary is demanded.

31. Admitted. By way of further response, attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraphs 15 and 16 of this Answer. In addition, plaintiff's husband did not "dissipate" the Equitable IRA, nor would have been entitled to "dissipate" such IRA. It is also denied that, had a petition been filed with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County "to maintain the status quo with regard to the IRA account," an Order would have been issued by the Court to such effect, and proof to the contrary is demanded. Finally, during the course of Attorney Cherry's representation, plaintiff was adamant that her husband would never remove plaintiff's name from any asset held by her husband.

32. Admitted. By way of further response, attorney-defendants had no knowledge of the change in beneficiary on the SERS retirement account until after the death of Robert E. Hoffman.

33. Admitted. By way of further response, attorney-defendants had no knowledge of the change in beneficiary on the Equitable IRA until after the death of Robert E. Hoffman.

34. Admitted.

35. After reasonable investigation, attorney-defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments set forth in Paragraph 35 and those averments are therefore denied.

36. After reasonable investigation, attorney-defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments set forth in Paragraph 36 and those averments are therefore denied.

37. Denied. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraphs 9, 15, 16, 30 and 31 of this Answer.

38. Denied. Attorney-defendants incorporate by reference Paragraphs 9, 15, 16, 30 and 31 of this Answer.

39. Admitted.

40. Admitted.

41. Admitted. By way of further response, it is denied that had any "action" been taken by attorney-defendants prior to the death of Robert E. Hoffman, such action would have prevented Robert E. Hoffman from changing the beneficiary on his SERS retirement account, and proof to the contrary is demanded.

42. Admitted. By way of further response, it is denied that had attorney-defendants taken any "action" prior to the death of Robert E. Hoffman, such action would have prevented Robert E. Hoffman from changing the beneficiary on the Equitable IRA.

43. Admitted. By way of further response, it is denied that had attorney-defendants sought any of the Orders identified in Paragraph 43 prior to the death of Robert E. Hoffman, such Orders would have been entered by the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, and proof to the contrary is demanded.

53. The Complaint fails to state any claims upon which relief may be granted under Pennsylvania law.

54. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

55. This Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction to decide the issues of alleged liability and/or damages.

56. Plaintiff's claims are barred due to the absence of any duty owed by attorney-defendants, or the breach of any duty allegedly owed by attorney-defendants, as to the matters upon which plaintiff's Complaint is premised.

57. Plaintiff's claims are barred due to the absence of any actual loss or harm suffered by plaintiff attributable to the conduct of attorney-defendants.

58. Plaintiff's claims are barred due to the lack of any causal relationship between any alleged acts or omissions by attorney-defendants and any losses or damages allegedly sustained by plaintiff.

59. Plaintiff's claims are barred or diminished, in whole or in part, by plaintiff's contributory and/or comparative negligence.

60. Plaintiff's alleged losses and damages are a result of her own acts, omissions and other conduct.

61. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the exercise of informed judgment by attorney-defendants.

62. Plaintiff's claims are barred due to their speculative and conjectural nature as to both her substantive claims and any damages or losses allegedly flowing therefrom.

63. Plaintiff has waived and/or is estopped from asserting any claims against attorney-defendants.

64. Plaintiff's alleged loss and damages, if proven, should be set-off or credited by the value of any and all assets plaintiff received as a result of not being divorced from her former husband, Robert E. Hoffman.

65. Plaintiff's former husband, Robert E. Hoffman, was born on September 13, 1948 and was 48 years old when he died.

66. The death of Robert E. Hoffman was sudden and unexpected.

70. The issue of whether of plaintiff was entitled to the entry of any Order, including an injunction Order, freeze Order, domestic relations Order, Order maintaining the status quo, or consent Order, preventing her husband from removing plaintiff as a beneficiary under his SERS retirement account, was one of first impression that had not been either addressed or decided by any Pennsylvania published case decision, prior to Robert E. 71. The issue of whether of plaintiff was entitled to the entry of any Order, including an injunction Order, freeze Order, domestic relations Order, an Order maintaining the status quo or consent Order, preventing plaintiff's husband, Robert E. Hoffman, from removing plaintiff as a beneficiary under the IRA, was one of first impression that had not been either addressed or decided by any Pennsylvania published case decision, prior to Robert E. Hoffman's death.

72. Prior to Robert E. Hoffman's death, plaintiff never communicated to attorney-defendants that her husband had changed her as named beneficiary of the Equitable IRA.

75. Prior to Robert E. Hoffman's death, plaintiff never advised attorney-defendants of any concern of her husband removing her as named beneficiary on the SERS retirement account or the Equitable IRA.

76. The losses and damages allegedly suffered by the plaintiff were due to intervening and superseding causes over which attorney-defendants had no control and for which attorney-defendants cannot be held legally responsible.

In re: Fee Agreement

Dear Linda:

This letter is to serve as confirmation of our law firm's representation of you and clarification of the general basis upon which fees will be charged by our firm. You have paid a retainer this date of $500.00 for our representation of you in your domestic matter. The retainer will be credited toward the overall fee in your case. Additional fees, if any, will depend primarily on the time, effort and costs incurred by our representation of you.

During the course of the particular matter for which representation has been accepted, if time and cost charges exceed the amount of the retainer, you will receive additional bills in accordance with our firm's policy, normally on a monthly basis. Each bill you receive will be fully itemized with respect to the time spent, work performed, and charges and costs incurred. It is understood that during the course of this representation our time will be kept at the then-prevailing hourly rate for the person performing the service, with minimum charges in six-minute intervals for all work performed. A minimum of .2 of an hour time charge for telephone conversations; there will be a minimum of .3 of an hour charge in connection with correspondence pertaining to your matter. You will be billed for travel time to and from court at the same rate as the other out-of-court charges. As I told you during our visit on this date, my hourly rate is presently $100.00.

All bills submitted are to be paid promptly, but no later than thirty (30) days after submission. In the event we are required to institute any legal action for collection of fees or costs due us for services, we have a right also to receive reasonable attorney's fees and costs involved in bringing such action. We reserve the right to terminate our attorney/client relationship for non-payment of fees or costs.

We will keep you informed about the progress of your case. We will send you copies of all papers coming into and going out of this office, including correspondence, pleadings and other court documents. Your file will always be open for your inspection at any reasonable time. We always attempt to return all telephone calls promptly. If no one is available when you call, we will return your call as quickly as possible, but, under certain circumstances, we might have some delay in returning calls, particularly when preparing for or in trial in another case.

Every effort will be made to expedite your case promptly and efficiently according to the highest legal and ethical standards. However, it is impossible to predict the course that a domestic dispute and action for economic relief will take. Sometimes it expands into property questions and various forms of litigation, all of which you are retaining us to handle on your behalf. It is also impossible to determine in advance the amount of time that will be needed to complete your case. We will use our best judgment to determine the amount of time, who is to perform the work, and the nature of the services to be performed in your best interest. We will keep you as fully informed as possible of all the time devoted to your case by us.

You understand that we have made no guarantees about the disposition of any phase of this matter or matters for which we have been retained, as all statements made by us are only our opinions.

We previously discussed these matters with you in your initial consultation with us this date, but we wanted you to have the terms of our representation in this writing for your reference. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, P.C.

68. The allegations contained in Paragraph 68 of the Defendants' New Matter are specifically denied and strict proof thereof is demanded at the time of trial. To the contrary, Robert E. Hoffman had suffered from an irregular heartbeat and had received medical treatment for heart problems for many years and the Plaintiff had specifically advised the Defendants of her husband's illness. By way of further answer, the death of Robert E. Hoffman was certainly a foreseeable risk, particularly given the condition of his health. Nonetheless, whether his death was or was not expected would not have altered the duties and obligations that the Defendants owed the Plaintiff as are more fully set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint.

69. The allegations contained in Paragraph 69 of the Defendants' New Matter are specifically denied and strict proof thereof is demanded at the time of trial. To the contrary, Robert E. Hoffman had been ill for many years and the Plaintiff had specifically advised the Defendants of her husband's illness. By way of further answer, the death of Robert E. Hoffman was certainly a foreseeable risk, particularly given the condition of his health. Nonetheless, whether his death was or was not expected would not have altered the duties and obligations that the Defendants owed to the Plaintiff as are more fully set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint.

70. The allegations contained in Paragraph 70 of the Defendants' New Matter are conclusions of law to which no reply is required in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. To the extent that a reply may be necessary, the allegations contained therein are specifically denied and strict proof thereof is demanded at the time of trial. By way of further answer, it is specifically denied that the concept of an injunction, freeze Order, domestic relations Order or an Order maintaining the status quo was an issue of first impression in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Indeed, various legal authorities, including, without limitation, the Pennsylvania Divorce Code, decisional case law, and the Rules of Civil Procedure provide numerous references to the availability of such remedies. Moreover, the standard of practice dictates that when all or a substantial portion of property or interests that are subject to the claims of a spouse are under the control of the other spouse, reasonable efforts must be taken to protect those claims and a failure to do so subjects the protectible claims of a party to a foreseeable and preventable risk of loss.

71. The allegations contained in Paragraph 71 of the Defendants' New Matter are conclusions of law to which no reply is required in accordance with the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. To the extent that a reply may be necessary, the allegations contained therein are specifically denied and strict proof thereof is demanded at the time of trial. Indeed, various legal authorities, including, without limitation, the Pennsylvania Divorce Code, decisional case law, and the Rules of Civil Procedure provide numerous references to the availability of such remedies. Moreover, the standard of practice dictates that when all or a substantial portion of property or interests that are subject to the claims of a spouse are under the control of the other spouse, reasonable efforts must be taken to protect those claims and a failure to do so subjects the protectible claims of a party to a foreseeable and preventable risk of loss.

72. Admitted. Indeed, prior to Robert E. Hoffman's death, the Plaintiff was unaware that he had, in fact, removed her as the named beneficiary of the Equitable IRA. By way of further answer and as more fully set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint, it was the obligation of the Defendants to advise the Plaintiff that in the absence of an injunction, freeze Order or an Order maintaining the status quo, Robert E. Hoffman was capable of removing the Plaintiff as the named beneficiary on the SERS retirement account and the Equitable IRA and that such was a foreseeable risk that subjected the Plaintiff and her protectible interests to a preventible risk of loss.

MOTION TO STRIKE CASE FROM TRIAL LIST

Defendants, TONI M. CHERRY and GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, L.L.P., by their attorneys, GROGAN GRAFFAM, P.C., and pursuant to Local Rule 212.2(b), file the within Motion to Strike Case From Trial List:

1. Defendants were served with plaintiff's expert report on March 8, 2004, months after formal discovery requests were made by defendants. Plaintiff's expert report was served contemporaneously with plaintiff's Certificate of Readiness.
2. Defendants must be allowed sufficient time (at least 60 days) to procure their own expert to review plaintiff's expert report and the issues raised therein.
3. Contrary to plaintiff's representation in her Certificate of Readiness, there have been no settlement discussions with respect to this matter; in fact, plaintiff has never made any settlement demand.

4. Plaintiff has failed to submit the curriculum vitae of her expert, Mary Cushing Doherty, and background information as requested in both of defendants' First and Second Set of Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents and, as such, this discovery remains outstanding.

WHEREFORE, defendants, Toni M. Cherry and Gleason, Cherry and Cherry, L.L.P., respectfully request that this Honorable Court grant their Motion to Strike Case From Trial List by signing the accompanying proposed Order of Court.

PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO STRIKE CASE FROM TRIAL LIST

AND NOW, comes the Plaintiff, by her attorneys, James E. Mahood, Esquire and the law firm of Wilder and Mahood and Jay N. Silberblatt, Esquire, and the law firm of Silberblatt Mermelstein, P.C., and presents the within Response to Defendants' Motion to Strike Case From Trial List, and in pursuance thereof, respectfully represents as follows:

1. Admitted. By way of further answer, formal discovery in this matter concluded some time ago. Indeed, the parties exchanged all relevant documents many months ago. The Plaintiff's deposition was taken on December 9, 2002 and Defendant's deposition was taken on April 29, 2003.

2. The assertion set forth in Paragraph 2 of the Defendants' Motion are specifically denied. The allegations of negligence made by the Plaintiff against the Defendants are clearly and distinctly delineated in Plaintiff's Complaint. The Defendants have had more than three years in which to engage an expert to review

Plaintiff's allegations of negligence. Documents have been exchanged pursuant to Requests for Production of Documents a long time ago and depositions were concluded in April of 2003. It is nonsense to assert that Defendants are unable to obtain an expert opinion concerning the Defendants' negligence until they first receive the Plaintiff's expert report.

3. The Plaintiff's damages in this matter are liquidated and amount to $512,403.35. The Defendants' insurance coverage is insufficient to compensate the Plaintiff for the damages she has incurred. These facts have been known to all parties for quite some time. At no time have the Defendants tendered their policy limits to the Plaintiff.

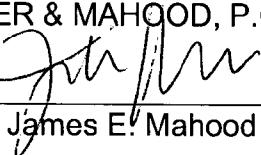

4. The curriculum vitae of Plaintiff's expert will be provided to Defendants' counsel within the next few days. This minor detail should not prevent the normal progression of this case toward trial.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court to dismiss the Defendants' Motion to Strike Case From Trial List.

Respectfully submitted,

In re: Fee Agreement

Dear Linda:

This letter is to serve as confirmation of our law firm's representation of you and clarification of the general basis upon which fees will be charged by our firm. You have paid a retainer this date of $500.00 for our representation of you in your domestic matter. The retainer will be credited toward the overall fee in your case. Additional fees, if any, will depend primarily on the time, effort and costs incurred by our representation of you.

During the course of the particular matter for which representation has been accepted, if time and cost charges exceed the amount of the retainer, you will receive additional bills in accordance with our firm's policy, normally on a monthly basis. Each bill you receive will be fully itemized with respect to the time spent, work performed, and charges and costs incurred. It is understood that during the course of this representation our time will be kept at the then-prevailing hourly rate for the person performing the service, with minimum charges in six-minute intervals for all work performed. A minimum of .2 of an hour time charge for telephone conversations; there will be a minimum of :3 of an hour charge in connection with correspondence pertaining to your matter. You will be billed for travel time to and from court at the same rate as the other out-of-court charges. As I told you during our visit on this date, my hourly rate is presently $100.00.

All bills submitted are to be paid promptly, but no later than thirty (30) days after submission. In the event we are required to institute any legal action for collection of fees or costs due us for services, we have a right also to receive reasonable attorney's fees and costs involved in bringing such action. We reserve the right to terminate our attorney/client relationship for non-payment of fees or costs.

We will keep you informed about the progress of your case. We will send you copies of all papers coming into and going out of this office, including correspondence, pleadings and other court documents. Your file will always be open for your inspection at any reasonable time. We always attempt to return all telephone calls promptly. If no one is available when you call, we will return your call as quickly as possible, but, under certain circumstances, we might have some delay in returning calls, particularly when preparing for or in trial in another case.

Every effort will be made to expedite your case promptly and efficiently according to the highest legal and ethical standards. However, it is impossible to predict the course that a domestic dispute and action for economic relief will take. Sometimes it expands into property questions and various forms of litigation, all of which you are retaining us to handle on your behalf. It is also impossible to determine in advance the amount of time that will be needed to complete your case. We will use our best judgment to determine the amount of time, who is to perform the work, and the nature of the services to be performed in your best interest. We will keep you as fully informed as possible of all the time devoted to your case by us.

You understand that we have made no guarantees about the disposition of any phase of this matter or matters for which we have been retained, as all statements made by us are only our opinions.

We previously discussed these matters with you in your initial consultation with us this date, but we wanted you to have the terms of our representation in this writing for your reference. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you.

Very truly yours,

GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, P.C.

RE: ROBERT E. HOFFMAN vs.
LINDA E. HOFFMAN
No. 95 - 1256 C.D.

Dear Blaise:

We are enclosing herewith a certified copy of the Answer to Complaint in Divorce, New Matter and Counterclaim endorsed with Notice to Plead, original of which was filed on behalf of Linda E. Hoffman.

We have had an opportunity to review the marital assets with Mrs. Hoffman and she has authorized us to make the following demand for settlement in an effort to resolve this matter as quickly as possible.

1. Mr. Hoffman will pay to Mrs. Hoffman the sum of $25,000.00 in cash.
2. Mrs. Hoffman will receive one-half of the furniture and one-half of the stocks.
3. Mrs. Hoffman will receive sole possession and title to the 1985 Cadillac.
4. Mrs. Hoffman will receive the sum of $750.00 a month as her share of Mr. Hoffman's pension and Mr. Hoffman will name her as the beneficiary on his plan so that she will receive any of the unused benefits in the event of his untimely death.
5. Mrs. Hoffman will consent to a divorce on grounds of irretrievable breakdown.

Blaise J. Ferraraccio, Esq.
Page Two
November 21, 1995

We have made the above demand after considering that Mr. Hoffman has been retired since February of 1993 and has received nearly three full years of his pension with no payment to Mrs. Hoffman of her equitable share of the marital portion of those retirement benefits. We calculate that he has received the sum of $108,759.95. We calculate that at least half of that is marital property and come up with a figure of $54,379.98. Mrs. Hoffman's demand for $25,000.00 is less than half of the marital portion to which she is entitled.

The demand for a monthly payment out of the pension benefit does not include a periodic cost of living increase. Mrs. Hoffman is willing to allow that to accrue only to Mr. Hoffman even though I have advised her she is entitled to a portion of that. You know that the parties have already divided the net proceeds from the sale of the marital residence on a 50/50 basis.

Blaise, I consider Mrs. Hoffman's demand to be most fair. She has a much lower earning capacity and I believe she is entitled to a larger portion of the marital estate. She is willing to accept a division based on the demand contained herein and to withdraw her claim for spousal support if this matter can be resolved quickly. Consequently, we would respectfully request that you discuss this matter with Mr. Hoffman and advise.

Very truly yours,

GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, P.C.

No. 95 - 1256 C.D.

Dear Blaise.

You will recall that we forwarded a demand for settlement in the above-captioned case by letter dated November 21, 1995. To date, we have not yet heard from you directly but our client advises us that the Cadillac and truck have already been transferred and that she has received one-half of the stocks.

Will you please review our offer of November 21, 1995, with Mr. Hoffman and confirm that we do, in deed, have a settlement and that Mrs. Hoffman will receive the pension benefit we have requested in our letter.

Trusting that we may hear from you in the very near future, we remain

1. SEPARATION: It shall be lawful for each party at all times hereafter to live separate and apart from the other party at such place as he or she may from time to time choose or deem fit. INTERFERENCE: Each party shall be free from interference, authority, and contact by the other as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried, except as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this agreement. 7. DIVISION OF REAL PROPERTY: The parties agree that the marital residence located at 959 Treasure Lake, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania 15801 has been sold. The parties have determined that such equal division conforms to a right and just standard with regards to the rights of each party. The division of existing marital property is not, except as may be otherwise expressly provided herein, intended by the parties to constitute in any way a sale or exchange of assets and the division is being effected without the introduction of outside funds or other property not constituting a part of the marital estate. However, it is hereby further agreed and understood that the husband shall name the wife as the beneficiary on his pension immediately upon the granting of a divorce in this case.

13. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: The parties confirm that each has relied upon the substantial accuracy of the financial disclosure of the other as an inducement to the execution of this agreement.

14. ADVICE OF COUNSEL: The provisions of this agreement and their legal effect have been explained to the parties by their respective counsel if such counsel was not waived. RE: ROBERT E. HOFFMAN vs.
LINDA E. HOFFMAN
No. 95 - 1256 C.D.

Dear Blaise:

Thank you for your most recent correspondence. Unfortunately, the Property and Separation Agreement did not reflect Mrs. Hoffman's understanding of the deal. In fact, she advises that Mr. Hoffman had made her an offer for a monthly amount and she had told him that it was a start but that he needed to go farther. In any event, she is willing to settle this matter without the additional expense of a Master's Hearing and, in an effort to bring this matter to a speedy resolution, has authorized me to make the following counter-offer:

1. Mr. Hoffman will pay to Mrs. Hoffman the sum of $15,000.00.
2. Mrs. Hoffman will receive the sum of $750.00 per month from Mr. Hoffman's pension. Mr. Hoffman will name her as the beneficiary on his plan so that she will receive any of the unused benefits in the event of his untimely death.
3. Mr. Hoffman will be entitled to keep all of the household goods and furnishings in his possession and Mrs. Hoffman will not make a claim for an equitable division of the same.
4. The parties will sign Affidavits of Consent so that a divorce on grounds of irretrievable breakdown can be secured immediately.

Would you please discuss this matter with Mr. Hoffman at your earliest convenience and advise if we can bring this matter to a conclusion.

vs. : No. 96 - _____ C.D.
CHARLES R. HENRY, Defendant : IN DIVORCE

PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF UNDER 23 Pa. C.S.A.
SECTIONS 3502 and 3505

TO THE HONORABLE FREDRIC J. AMMERMAN, JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

AND NOW, comes the Petitioner, DIANE L. HENRY, by and through her Attorneys, GLEASON, CHERRY AND CHERRY, L.L.P., and petitions your Honorable Court as follows:

1. Your Petitioner, DIANE L. HENRY, is an adult individual who resides at 601 Charles Street, Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania 16651.
2. Respondent, CHARLES R. HENRY, is an adult individual who currently resides at 610 Brisbin Street, Houtzdale, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania 16651.
3. That your Petitioner and Respondent are currently husband and wife, having been married on September 10, 1960, but a divorce has been filed by your Petitioner to the above-captioned term and number requesting a divorce from Respondent since the marriage cannot be saved and Respondent continues to reside with another woman.

4. That Respondent is employed as a school teacher by the Moshannon Valley School District and, as a result of his employment, is entitled to a retirement pension through the Public School Employes' Retirement System of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

5. That all of such pension is marital property subject to equitable division by your Honorable Court.

6. That Respondent has advised that he has changed his beneficiary to remove your Petitioner as a beneficiary and thus deprive her of benefits to which she is entitled as a result of the marriage in the event of his death prior to the time of the divorce.

7. That Section 3502(d) of the Divorce Code empowers your Honorable Court to direct the continued maintenance and beneficiary designations of existing policies insuring the life or health of either party when the same is necessary to protect the interests of either party in marital property.

8. That Section 3505 of the Divorce Code empowers your Honorable Court to issue an injunction if it appears to your Honorable Court that a party is about to remove property from the jurisdiction of the Court or is about to dispose of, alienate or encumber property in order to defeat equitable distribution.

9. That if, in fact, Respondent has already changed the designated beneficiary of his retirement benefits, he has, in fact, defeated your Petitioner's right to equitable distribution of those proceeds if, in fact, he should die prior to the time of the granting of a divorce.

10. That if your Honorable Court allows the Respondent to either change the beneficiary or does not force Respondent to change it back to Petitioner, he will, in effect, defeat your Petitioner's right to equitable distribution of the most significant asset in the marital estate.

11. That your Petitioner requires the issuance of an injunction prohibiting Defendant from removing Petitioner's name as the sole beneficiary of his retirement benefits until such time as an equitable distribution of marital property has been made or Petitioner will suffer irreparable harm.

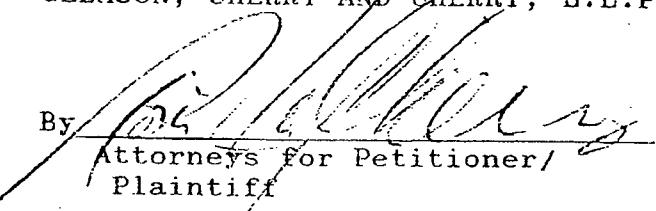

WHEREFORE, the undersigned respectfully requests your Honorable Court to issue an injunction in accordance with the equitable powers granted to your Honorable Court under the provisions of the Divorce Code prohibiting the Respondent from disposing of, alienating, selling or otherwise encumbering any of the marital property of the parties and to issue an Order directing Respondent to immediately reinstate the name of Petitioner as the sole beneficiary of his retirement plan until such time as equitable distribution of the marital property has been made and a Qualified Domestic Relations Order distributing Respondent's retirement benefits has been issued by your Honorable Court.

MOTION IN LIMINE TO EXCLUDE ALL EVIDENCE OF A PURPORTED AGREEMENT BY OR INTENTION OF DECEDENT, ROBERT E. HOFFMAN, TO MAINTAIN PLAINTIFF AS NAMED SERS AND IRA BENEFICIARY

Defendants, TONI M. CHERRY, Esquire, individually, and GLEASON, CHERRY and CHERRY, L.L.P., by their attorneys, GROGAN GRAFFAM, P.C., set forth the following Motion in Limine to Exclude All Evidence of a Purported Agreement By Or Intention Of Decedent, Robert E. Hoffman, To Maintain Plaintiff As Named SERS And IRA Beneficiary:

I. Background

1. This is a legal malpractice action, styled in negligence, filed by plaintiff, Linda E. Hoffman, against defendants Toni M. Cherry, Esquire and her law firm, Gleason, Cherry and Cherry, L.L.P. (collectively “attorney-defendants”).

2. Plaintiff’s negligence theory of recovery arises out of attorney-defendants’ former legal representation of plaintiff’s interests in an underlying divorce action filed by plaintiff’s husband, Robert E. Hoffman, in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania at No. 95-1256-CD (“underlying proceedings” or “Divorce Action”).

3. The Hoffmans were married on September 2, 1983. The parties had several periods of separation (plaintiff had previously filed for a divorce in 1987 but the parties later reconciled), before the Hoffmans finally separated on June 16, 1993.

4. On September 5, 1995, the Divorce Action was filed by Mr. Hoffman against plaintiff. At the time, Mr. Hoffman was 46 years old (DOB: September 13, 1948).

5. The essence of the legal malpractice claims is that attorney-defendants were professionally negligent because they “did not seek or otherwise obtain an injunction, a freeze order, a domestic relations order, an order maintaining the status quo, a consent order, or any other appropriate judicial intervention” to prevent Mr. Hoffman from removing plaintiff as the named beneficiary of his retirement account with the Pennsylvania State Employee’s Retirement System (“SERS”) and an IRA account with Equitable Insurance Company (“IRA”). (Complaint, ¶44).

6. Mr. Hoffman began accumulating SERS retirement benefits on April 22, 1971, his date of entry with the Pennsylvania State Police. On February 27, 1993, Mr. Hoffman retired from the Pennsylvania State Police.

7. Mr. Hoffman acquired the IRA on or about February 4, 1993 through a lump sum payment from his SERS account.

8. On January 30, 1998, during the pendency of the Divorce Action, Mr. Hoffman, 49 years old at the time, suddenly and unexpectedly died of a heart attack.

9. By operation of law, the Divorce Action thus abated before the entry of any decree. Haviland v. Haviland, 481 A. 2d 1355 (Pa. Super. 1984).

10. Unbeknownst to attorney-defendants, Mr. Hoffman had, on December 11 and 17, 1997 (roughly 5 – 6 weeks before his death), changed the named beneficiary from plaintiff to his son by a prior marriage, Kevin Shane Hoffman, on both the IRA and the SERS retirement account.

11. Subsequent attempts by attorney-defendants on plaintiff's behalf to have plaintiff declared the beneficiary of the SERS account and the IRA following Mr. Hoffman's death, including court appeals, were ultimately unsuccessful.

12. On January 27, 2000, plaintiff instituted the instant legal malpractice lawsuit by the filing of a Praeclipe for Writ of Summons.

13. On June 15, 2000, plaintiff married for a third time to Pennsylvania State Trooper, Frank M. Thomas.

II. Evidence of a Purported Agreement by or Intention of Decedent, Robert E. Hoffman, to Maintain Plaintiff as Named Beneficiary of Decedent's SERS Retirement Account or IRA Should be Excluded as: (A) Inadmissible Hearsay Subject to no Exception; (B) Irrelevant; (C) Rank Speculation; (D) Unfairly Prejudicial and Misleading and Confusing to the Jury; and (E) an Inadmissible Offer of Compromise.

14. In support of her negligence claim, it is anticipated that plaintiff will seek to offer at trial certain evidence seeking to prove that the decedent, Mr. Hoffman, agreed to or would have agreed to maintain or name plaintiff as the beneficiary of both his SERS retirement account and IRA.

15. It is expected that such evidence will take the form of: (a) testimony from Blaise Ferraraccio, Esquire, former counsel to decedent in the underlying Divorce Action, as to statements or expressions of intent of Mr. Hoffman prior to his death, or as to Attorney Ferraraccio's own intentions or statements, or as to actual or anticipated future advice by him to Mr. Hoffman; (b) testimony of plaintiff as to her conversations with decedent or Attorney Ferraraccio as to decedent's statements or expressions of intent; (c) documentary evidence of communications between Attorney Cherry and Attorney Ferraraccio relating to proposals and counter-proposals for a global, integrated settlement of the Divorce Action that was never consummated.

16. By way of example, plaintiff is expected to seek to admit documents, specifically a letter of Attorney Ferraraccio, plus three enclosures, which are respectively attached hereto as Exhibits "A", "B", "C" and "D." These may be described as follows:

- Exhibit "A" – letter dated October 1, 1997 from Attorney Ferraraccio to Attorney Cherry referencing three enclosures including proposed Property and Separation Agreement.
- Exhibit "B" – enclosed proposed and unsigned Property and Separation Agreement prepared by Attorney Ferraraccio referenced in such October 1, 1997 letter.
- Exhibit "C" – enclosed proposed and unsigned Affidavit of Consent prepared by Attorney Ferraraccio referenced in such October 1, 1997 letter.
- Exhibit "D" – enclosed proposed Waiver of Notice of Intention to Request Entry of a Divorce Decree under Section 3301(c) of the Divorce Code.

17. The proposed integrated Property and Separation Agreement enclosed with Attorney Ferraraccio's letter of October 1, 1997 was never agreed to by the parties as neither party signed it. There was no "meeting of the minds" and thus no settlement was ever struck. In this regard, a copy of Attorney Cherry's counter-proposal letter of October 10, 1997 to Attorney Ferraraccio, responding to his offer, is attached hereto as Exhibit "E".

18. Plaintiff received a copy of Attorney Cherry's letter of October 10, 1997 as she wrote her own notes on it containing terms different from the proposal extended by Attorney Ferraraccio in his October 1st letter. (See, Exhibit "E"). Plaintiff admits that the handwriting on Attorney Cherry's letter is hers. (See, Deposition of Linda Hoffman, excepted pages attached hereto as Exhibit "F"). In such notes, plaintiff demands $750/month to be characterized as “equitable distribution” and not the lesser sum of $650/month characterized as “alimony” as specified in Attorney Ferraraccio’s October 1st letter.

19. Moreover, the unexecuted Property and Separation Agreement proposed by Attorney Ferraraccio clearly states that “the husband shall name the wife as beneficiary on his [SERS] pension immediately upon the granting of a divorce in this case.” (Exhibit “B”, p. 8). This language shows that the granting of a divorce decree was a condition precedent to the naming of plaintiff as beneficiary of Mr. Hoffman’s SERS retirement account.

20. Such documentary evidence, as well as anticipated testimony on the above topics, should be excluded for the reasons that it is: (a) inadmissible hearsay subject to no exception; (b) irrelevant; (c) rank speculation; (d) unfairly prejudicial and misleading and confusing to the jury; and (e) an inadmissible offer of compromise.

21. First, the anticipated evidence identified above is unquestionably hearsay, subject to no exceptions. Pa.R.E. 801 and Pa.R.E. 803.

22. Hearsay is defined as “a statement other than one made by the declarant while testifying at trial or hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted.” Pa.R.E. 801.

23. Any out-of-court statements made by decedent, Mr. Hoffman, to either Attorney Ferraraccio or plaintiff, are classic hearsay, subject to no exception. See generally, Phillips v. Gerhart, 801 A.2d 568, 574 (Pa. Super. 2002); Lira v. Albert Einstein Medical Center, 559 A.2d 550 (Pa. Super. 1989); Hatbob v. Brown, 575 A.2d 607, 613 (Pa. Super. 1990) (characterizing statements of decedent in a legal malpractice action as hearsay).

24. Secondly, the anticipated evidence identified above is irrelevant. Pa.R.E. 401.

25. Relevant evidence is defined as “evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.” Pa.R.E. 401.

26. Evidence as to Attorney Ferraraccio’s intentions, or Attorney Ferraraccio’s actual or expected future advice to the decedent, or statements as to what Attorney Ferraraccio would have done under a given set of facts is irrelevant because such evidence is not probative of any issues to be decided in the case.¹ It is the client’s decision which is paramount and controls, not the attorney’s advice to the client as to what the client should do or even what the attorney might recommend to the client under a given set of circumstances that ultimately did not present themselves.

27. Simply stated, it is irrelevant that Attorney Ferraraccio would have consented to an order protecting the status quo since it has no probative value as to the client’s actual decision, which we now know was to ultimately change his beneficiary designations. Such evidence also has no probative value as to what the decedent, as the client, would have done had Attorney Ferraraccio advised him to agree to a consent order without a divorce decree. In fact, if the Court looks at the language of the Property and Separation Agreement, p. 8, ¶ 12, it should reach exactly the opposite conclusion, that is, that maintaining plaintiff as the beneficiary was expressly conditioned upon the entry of a divorce decree and nothing short of the entry of a decree.

¹ For example, it is believed that Attorney Ferraraccio will attempt to testify that ‘had he been approached by the Defendants, he would have consented to the entry of an Order of Court by which plaintiff’s status as beneficiary would have been protected.’ (See, Plaintiff’s Pre-Trial Statement, pp. 21 and 25, emphasis added). While this statement is ludicrous in light of Attorney Ferraraccio’s duties to decedent (See, Expert Report of James A. Naddeo, Esquire attached to Defendants’ Pre-Trial Memorandum), once again, what Attorney Ferraraccio would have done is not probative of any element of plaintiff’s claims.

28. Because such evidence has no probative value, it is irrelevant and it must be excluded. See, Pa.R.E. 401; Commonwealth v. Vallejo, 616 A.2d 974 (Pa. 1992).

29. Third, the anticipated evidence identified above is highly speculative in nature.

30. Evidence is speculative when it presupposes facts that are not in evidence because they have not yet occurred or their occurrence is contingent upon some future happening. See, Commonwealth v. Williams, 720 A.2d 679 (Pa. 1998).

31. Any testimony by Attorney Ferraraccio or plaintiff as to what actions decedent intended to take, or what path Attorney Ferraraccio would have advised the decedent to pursue or not pursue, or what the decedent might have decided based upon such advice, insofar as plaintiff seeks to prove that decedent would have agreed to a status quo or other similar order, presupposes facts for which there is no admissible evidence. In fact, the non-speculative evidence of what was actually done is directly the opposite of speculation as to what the decedent might have done since, just a few weeks later in December 1997, Mr. Hoffman did, in fact, change the named beneficiaries of the SERS retirement account and the IRA to his son.

32. Additionally, plaintiff cannot now pick and choose which elements of an unsigned Property and Separation Agreement she may have speculatively wanted to enforce, with the benefit of 20/20 hindsight. In this regard, the Court will note that both Attorney Ferraraccio's proposal and Attorney's Cherry's counter-proposal are global, integrated proposals to resolve litigation. The elements of such proposals are not capable of being speculatively parsed out, after the fact by those living who were not the ultimate decision-maker, in order to predict what decedent might have done. It is nothing more than rank speculation that the decedent, as some fall-back position to a global settlement conditioned upon agreement to all terms and the entry of a divorce decree (Property and Separation Agreement, at p. 8, ¶ 12), would have consented to an order naming or maintaining plaintiff as beneficiary, particularly where 57% of the SERS and IRA assets were non-marital in nature and thus decedent's to freely dispose of as he saw fit.

33. The jury cannot be allowed to base its deliberations on such rank speculation and such evidence should be excluded. Commonwealth v. Williams, 720 A.2d 679 (Pa. 1998).

34. Fourth, the anticipated evidence is and will be unfairly prejudicial and will be misleading and confusing to the jury. Pa.R.E. 403.

35. Unfair prejudice "means [having] a tendency to suggest decision on an improper basis to divert the jury's attention away from its duty of weighing the evidence impartially." Pa. R.E. 403, Comment – 1998.

36. It would be highly prejudicial to attorney-defendants to permit the jury to hear and base its determination of attorney-defendant's alleged negligence on "evidence" that decedent, Mr. Hoffman, intended to maintain plaintiff as his named beneficiary, or on what Attorney Ferraraccio would have advised decedent to do under a given set of facts that never occurred, especially considering the indisputable fact that decedent ultimately did name his son the beneficiary of his SERS retirement account and IRA.

37. Permitting the jury to hear evidence of some purported actual or future agreement not to take the very action that decedent actually did take, would cause unfair prejudice to attorney-defendants and would serve to confuse and mislead the jury. Such anticipated evidence could only serve to divert the jury's attention from correctly weighing relevant facts and should therefore be excluded. See, Bennett v. Graham, 714 A.2d 393 (Pa. 1998); Johnson v. People's Cab Co., 126 A.2d 720 (Pa. 1956).

38. Fifth, the anticipated evidence is an inadmissible offer of compromise. Pa.R.E. 408.

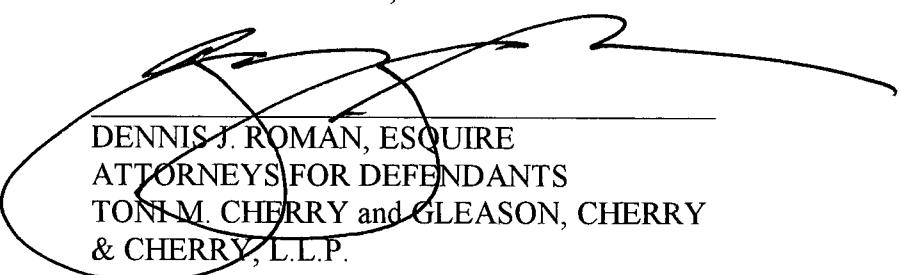

39. According to the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence, “[e]vidence of (1) furnishing or offering to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise are likewise not admissible.” Pa.R.E. 408.

40. Plaintiff's efforts to establish a purported agreement or future agreement between herself and decedent, by way of plaintiff's or Attorney Ferraraccio's testimony or through Attorney Ferraraccio's October 1, 1997 letter or accompanying enclosures including the unexecuted Property and Separation Agreement drawn up by Attorney Ferraraccio, should be precluded as inadmissible evidence of offers to compromise. Pa.R.E. 408; See also, Danks v. Government Employee Insurance Company, 453 A.2d 655, 657 (Pa. Super. 1982) (“[w]e will not place the courts in the position of second-guessing counsel in hindsight as to whether he should have accepted an offer to compromise”).

41. For each and every one of the multiple grounds set forth above, the anticipated evidence specifically identified above should be excluded.

WHEREFORE, attorney-defendants, Toni M. Cherry and Gleason, Cherry & Cherry, L.L.P., request that this Court grant this Motion in Limine and sign the attached Order.

A N D

LINDA E. HOFFMAN, an individual, hereinafter referred to as Wife

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the parties are presently husband and wife; and
WHEREAS, there were no children born of this marriage; and
WHEREAS, the parties desire to settle their property right permanently and for all time; and

WHEREAS, both parties agree to relinquish any and all claims purchase, gift, devise, bequest, inheritance and otherwise, except as to the obligations, covenants and agreements contained herein; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto have had the opportunity to see the benefit of competent and independent legal advise by separate counsel if such counsel was not waived; and

WHEREAS, a complaint in divorce, captioned 95-1256-C.D. has been filed to terminate the marriage of the parties.

NOW THEREFORE, the parties intending to be legally bound hereby do covenant and agree as follows:

1. SEPARATION: It shall be lawful for each party at all times hereafter to live separate and apart from the other party at such place as he or she may from time to time choose or deem fit. The foregoing provision shall not be taken as an admission on the part of either party of the lawfulness or unlawfulness of the causes leading to their living apart.

2. INTERFERENCE: Each party shall be free from interference, authority, and contact by the other as fully as if he or she were single and unmarried, except as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this agreement. Neither party shall molest the other or attempt to endeavor to molest the other, nor compel the other to cohabit with the other, nor in any way harass the other, nor in any way interfere with the peaceful existence, separate and apart from the other.

3. DESIRE OF THE PARTIES: It is the desire of the parties after long and careful consideration, to amicably adjust, compromise and settle all property rights, and all rights, in, to, or against each other's property or estate, including property heretofore or subsequently acquired by either party and to settle all disputes existing between them including all claims for wife and/or husband's maintenance and/or for support, and property distribution.

4. DEBTS: The husband and wife, represent and warrant to each other that neither one has contracted any debt or debts, charges, or liabilities whatsoever, except as herein expressly set forth for which the other party or their property or their estates shall or may be or become liable or answerable, and the covenant that they will at all times keep each other free, harmless and indemnified against and from any and all debts and liabilities heretofore or hereafter contracted or incurred by either of them, except as expressly provided in this agreement.

5. MUTUAL RELEASE: Subject to the provisions of this agreement, each party has released and discharged, and by this agreement does for himself or herself and his or her heirs, leg representatives, executors, administrators, and assigns, release and discharge the other of and from all causes of action, claim rights, or demands, whatsoever in law or in equity, which either of the parties ever had or now has against the other, except a cause or causes of action for divorce and except any or all causes of action for breach of any provisions of this agreement.

6. DIVISION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY: The parties hereby have divided their personal property including but not limited to all household goods and furnishings, personal affects and all other items of personal property used by them in common as follows:

(a) Each party shall receive and be the sole owner of his or her personal effects and clothing.

(b) Husband agrees and by these presents does convey wife, all right, title and interest he may have in a 1985 Cadillac Seville. Husband agrees to execute any and all documents or titles necessary to effectuate any transfer. Wife agrees and by these presents does convey to husband, all right, title and interest she may have in a 1986 S-10 Chevrolet Pickup Truck. Wife agrees to execute any and all documents or titles necessary to effectuate any transfer. Wife agrees to make all 1985 Cadillac Seville car payments, and all insurance payments upon said car as they may become due and does hereby hold husband harmless from the same. Husband agrees to make all 1986 S-10 Chevrolet Pickup Truck payments and all insurance payments upon said truck as they may become due and does hereby hold wife harmless from the same.

(c) With regard to the other household furnishings, furniture and appliances, as well as all other personal property that the couple owns, it is understood and agreed that wife shall have sole ownership and possession of all items of personality that are presently in possession of wife, and husband shall have sole ownership and possession of all items of personality that are presently in possession of husband.

(d) Husband and wife both agree that the aforesaid provisions are in lieu of any and all claims of equitable distribution of the marital estate, and the parties agree that this division is equitable in the circumstances.

7. DIVISION OF REAL PROPERTY: The parties agree that the marital residence located at 959 Treasure Lake, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania 15801 has been sold. The husband and the wife both further acknowledge that the proceeds and the contents of the marital residence have been divided equally under the circumstances..

8. CHECKING ACCOUNTS, SAVINGS ACCOUNTS, SAVINGS BONDS, STOCKS AND CREDIT UNION ACCOUNTS: The parties agree that there are no checking accounts or savings accounts or savings bonds or stocks or credit union accounts in the name of husband and wife as all have been mutually divided and each now has their own separate such accounts with respect to which the other will make no claim.

9. MUTUAL DEBTS: The parties recognize that the mutual debts of the parties not previously assigned could include a number of credit cards, loans, debts, bills and/or other expenses which may or may not have outstanding balances incurred by the husband and the wife during the marriage and in his or her possession. Wife does agree to pay all debts, bills, or other expenses incurred to the extent outstanding and in her possession and will have husband's name removed from the debts, bills and other expenses within one (1) week from the date of the execution of this agreement. any other joint credit cards and loans in her possession and will have husband's name removed from all credit card accounts and loans within one (1) month from the date of the execution of this agreement and will otherwise hold husband harmless from said liabilities until the time that the husband's name is removed from the accounts and loans. 10. INTENDED TAX RESULT AND INDEMNIFICATION: By this agreement the parties have intended to effectuate, the parties have equally divided their marital property. The parties have determined that such equal division conforms to a right and just standard with regards to the rights of each party. The division of existing marital property is not, except as may be otherwise expressly provided herein, intended by the parties to constitute in any way a sale or exchange of assets and the division is being effected without the introduction of outside funds or other property not constituting a part of the marital estate. As a part of the equal division of the marital properties and the marital settlement contained therein, the parties agree to save and hold each other harmless from all income taxes assessed against the other resulting from the division of the property as herein provided.

11. SPOUSAL SUPPORT, ALIMONY PENDENTE LITE, ALIMONY, ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS: Husband is currently paying the sum of $775.00 per month in spousal support, when the wife returns to work, the husband will be paying the sum of $365.00 per month in spousal support. As per the agreement of the husband and the wife, husband agrees to pay to the wife Six Hundred Fifty and 00/100 ($650.00) Dollars a month in alimony until the wife reaches the age of 62. At the time of the granting of a divorce in this case, the husband's present support obligation will cease. Upon receipt of the first $650.00 payment, the wife's right to receive spousal support and alimony pendente lite will cease and the wife waives and releases any claims she might otherwise have against her husband for spousal support, alimony pendente lite, attorney's fees, and costs or charges against her husband pertaining to their separation or divorce in consideration of the provisions of the within agreement between the parties. The husband waives and releases any claims he might otherwise have against his wife for spousal support, alimony pendente lite, alimony, attorney's fees, and costs or charges against his wife pertaining to their separation or divorce in consideration of the provisions of the within agreement between the parties.

12. PENSION PLAN: In reference to husband's and wife's pension plans or pension rights as accrued through their employment, it is hereby further agreed and understood that both the husband and the wife waive and release any and all past, present or future claims they might have against each other's pension plans. Any pension rights accrued after the date of separation will be the sole and exclusive property and entitlement of the husband's own pension plan to himself and the wife's own pension plan to herself. However, it is hereby further agreed and understood that the husband shall name the wife as the beneficiary on his pension immediately upon the granting of a divorce in this case.

13. FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: The parties confirm that each has relied upon the substantial accuracy of the financial disclosure of the other as an inducement to the execution of this agreement.

14. ADVICE OF COUNSEL: The provisions of this agreement and their legal effect have been explained to the parties by their respective counsel if such counsel was not waived. The parties acknowledged that they have received independent legal advice from counsel of their selection, or have waived legal advise from independent counsel, and that they fully understand the facts and that they have been fully informed as their legal rights and obligations and acknowledge and accept this agreement. They agree that this agreement is, in the circumstances, fair and equitable and that it is being entered into freely and voluntarily after having received or waived such advice and with such knowledge and that execution of this agreement is not the result of any duress or undue influence and that it is not the result of any collusion or any improper or illegal agreement or agreements.

15. WAIVER OF CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE: Except as herein otherwise provided, each party may dispose of his or her property, in any way, and each party hereby waives and relinquishes any and all rights he or she may now have or hereafter acquire, under the present or future laws of any jurisdiction, to share in the property or the Estate of the other as the result of the marital relationship, including without limitation, dower, curtesy, statutory allowance, widow's allowance, right to take property under equitable distribution, right to take an intestacy, right to take against the will of the other and right to act as administrator or executor of the other's estate, and he or she will, at the request of the other, execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all instruments which accomplishes this.

16. APPLICABLE LAW: This agreement shall be construed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and Jurisdiction of this case will remain with the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania and shall be effective when all parties have executed this Agreement.

17. VOID CLAUSE: If any term, condition, clause or provision of this agreement shall be determined or declared to be void or invalid in law or otherwise, then only that term, condition, clause, or provision, shall be stricken from this agreement and in all other respects this agreement shall be valid and continue in full force, effect and operation.

18. ENTRY AS PART OF DECREE: It is the intention of the parties that this instrument shall survive any actions for divorce which may be instituted or prosecuted by the other party and no order, judgment or decree of divorce, temporary, interlocutory, final or permanent, shall effect or modify the financial terms of this agreement. It is also the intention of the parties that this agreement shall survive any periods of reconciliation of the parties and no attempt at reconciliation by the parties or cohabitation by the parties hereinafter shall be assumed to cause the property as so divided in this agreement to become marital property for the purposes of equitable distribution under the divorce code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The parties agree that all property divided by this agreement shall remain the property of that party as specified within this agreement, unless this agreement is rescinded by the parties by writing in similar form to this agreement..

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

ALIMONY.

Dear Blaise:

Thank you for your most recent correspondence. Unfortunately, the Property and Separation Agreement did not reflect Mrs. Hoffman's understanding of the deal. In fact, she advises that Mr. Hoffman had made her an offer for a monthly amount and she had told him that it was a start but that he needed to go farther. In any event, she is willing to settle this matter without the additional expense of a Master's Hearing and, in an effort to bring this matter to a speedy resolution, has authorized me to make the following counter-offer:

1. Mr. Hoffman will pay to Mrs. Hoffman the sum of $15,000.00.
2. Mrs. Hoffman will receive the sum of $750.00 per month from Mr. Hoffman's pension. Mr. Hoffman will name her as the beneficiary on his plan so that she will receive any of the unused benefits in the event of his untimely death.
3. Mr. Hoffman will be entitled to keep all of the household goods and furnishings in his possession and Mrs. Hoffman will not make a claim for an equitable division of the same.

The parties will sign Affidavits of Consent so that a divorce on grounds of irretrievable breakdown can be secured immediately.

Would you please discuss this matter with Mr. Hoffman at your earliest convenience and advise if we can bring this matter to a conclusion.

1 phone or in an office consultation?

2 A. To my recollection, it would have been 3 here.

4 Q. And you can't say at all when that
5 conversation would have occurred?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. Let me show you what I'll mark as
8 Exhibit 12.

9 - - -
10 (Whereupon, Thomas Deposition Exhibit
11 Number 12 was marked for identification.)

12 - - -
13 BY MR. ROMAN:

14 Q. And ask you to take a look at that.

15 This is a letter dated October 10, 1997,
16 from Toni Cherry to Mr. Ferraraccio noting a copy
17 being sent to you. Correct?

18 A. (No audible response.)

19 Q. Do you understand my question, Ms. Thomas?
20 I'm just asking you to identify for the record that 21 this is a letter as I have described it.

22 A. As to what?

23 Q. It's a letter addressed to Mr. Ferraraccio
24 from Toni Cherry with a copy noted having been sent

1 to you, correct?

2 A. I don't ever recall getting this, to be
3 honest with you.

4 Q. I'm sorry?

5 A. I don't recall getting a copy of this to 6 me.

7 Q. Is that your handwriting on the face of 8 page 1?

9 A. Yes, it is. Yes, it is.

10 Q. All right. So obviously, unless I'm 11 incorrect, I mean you correct me, you got it and you
12 wrote on it?

13 A. I don't know why I would have wrote on it
14 and returned this back to Toni.

15 Q. I'm not asking you why you may have done
16 that, but I mean is it not clear to you that you got 17 this letter?

18 A. I do not recall getting this letter. I'm 19 sorry.

20 Q. But this is your writing on the first page?

21 A. Yes, that is my writing.

22 Q. Do you know why it was that you made the 23 writing on the first page?

24 MR. SILBERBLATT: Dennis, could we have

1 just a moment? Although we have a copy of this
2 letter Bates stamped 581, we don't have a Bates
3 stamped 734 with handwriting on it.

4 MR. MAHOOD: And I don't have that in my 5 index either.

6 MR. ROMAN: Okay. I can't explain to you
7 the reason for it.

8 MR. SILBERBLATT: It doesn't seem like we 9 have any Bates stamped numbers that are in excess of 10 732.

11 MR. ROMAN: Is that the highest one you
12 have?

13 MR. MAHOOD: I'm not sure I can answer it
14 in that fashion. Let me see if I can get 732 here.
15 I'd have to know the beginning page of the document
16 that precedes 732.

17 MR. ROMAN: You mean 733?

18 MR. MAHOOD: No, I'm doing a word search --
19 I'm doing a search.

20 MR. ROMAN: Let's go off the record.

21 - - -

22 (Discussion off the record.)

23 - - -

24 MR. ROMAN: We're back on the record.

1 We're going to check when we get a chance
2 as to the Bates stamped number in the lower
3 right-hand corner on this particular document and 4 whether -- ensuring that counsel for the plaintiff
5 has copies of everything beyond a certain point. I
6 think they indicated perhaps 732.

7 MR. SILBERBLATT: In looking at it again,
8 even the Bates stamp numbers, themselves, seem to be 9 different.

10 MR. ROMAN: Yeah, the face of them is. I
11 see that. Don't have an explanation.

12 MR. MAHOOD: Because as I recall, the last
13 document you gave us was this -- was this billing
14 stuff.

15 MR. ROMAN: Does that end with 731?

16 MR. MAHOOD: 729.

17 MR. ROMAN: Well, I'm not sure --

18 MR. SILBERBLATT: And those Bates stamps
19 seem to be bolder type. And then everything
20 after -- We have a grand mystery here.

21 MR. ROMAN: Well, we'll check it and --

22 MR. MAHOOD: Would that have been done in 23 your office?

24 MR. ROMAN: Why don't we talk off the

1 record about that instead of on the record. I don't
2 think we have to burden the record with that.

3 It would not have been Bates stamped in our
4 office. Unless GCC -- That doesn't look like
5 anything we would have done. I think they're 6 independently Bates stamped.

7 MR. SILBERBLATT: Okay.

8 MR. ROMAN: Okay. Let's stay on the 9 record.

10 MR. SILBERBLATT: Okay, go ahead.

11 MR. ROMAN: But certainly, I think if there
12 are any questions about that, we'll make sure you
13 get the documents. I don't know the reason why you 14 may have one that doesn't have handwriting on.

15 BY MR. RCMAN:

16 Q. All right. With regard to Exhibit 12, you
17 got this document -- Or you don't recall getting 18 this document?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. But that is your handwriting?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. All right. Do you know when it was you
23 made this handwriting on the first page?

24 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Do you know whether you made that
2 handwriting prior to going to see Toni Cherry?

3 A. No, sir.

4 Q. Do you know what that handwriting relates
5 to? In the sense does it refresh your recollection
6 what was being discussed?

7 A. Well, obviously it's the alimony.

8 Q. Is this something that you were seeking to 9 make part of a counter demand, that you would get 10 $750 a month until the age of 65?

11 A. I don't recall the amount, to be honest
12 with you.

13 Q. All right. Setting aside the amount, was 14 it one of the things that you were desirous of 15 obtaining, would be equitable distribution until the 16 age of 65?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Or a periodic payment per month until the 19 age of 65?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And then it says in the form of equitable
22 distribution, or E-Q-U-I distribution, which I
23 assume refers to equitable distribution, correct?

24 A. Correct.

1 Q. Not in the form, and then alimony.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. What does that relate to?

4 A. Probably taxes.

5 Q. My earlier question to you began with did
6 you have a conversation with or meeting with Toni
7 Cherry after receiving Exhibit 11, which is dated
8 October 1, '97. Had you had a conversation or 9 consultation in the office with Toni Cherry as of 10 the sending of what's marked as Exhibit 12 on that 11 response letter?

12 A. I don't recall if it was a telephone or an 13 in person. But obviously, because this was 14 October 1st and this is October 10th.

15 Q. You would agree that it occurred in that 16 time frame, correct?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. Do you have any --

19 A. That's pretty fast, is what I'm sitting
20 here thinking. I'm sorry.

21 Q. Exhibit 12 refers to a counteroffer,
22 correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And that's made on your behalf?

1 A. It appears to be.

2 Q. Do you deny that the terms of this
3 counteroffer were discussed with you by my client
4 prior to it being sent?

5 A. No, sir, I'm not denying that.

6 Q. Okay. And so even though you said it was 7 fairly quick, is it at least your recollection that 8 this would have been discussed, and then it would 9 have been memorialized in correspondence sent to the 10 other side?

11 A. The only part that is not coming back,
12 because I do not recall her and I talking, that I'm 13 willing to settle the matter without additional 14 expense. If we could have gotten that one settled, 15 I would have to say yes. I don't know how else to 16 answer that.

17 Q. I'm sorry, I'm not understanding what your 18 testimony was. What additional expense?

19 A. The additional expense of a Master's 20 hearing. In the first paragraph.

21 Q. Okay. And are you saying that you don't 22 recall that or that you would have demanded that -- 23 you would have been still demanding a Master's 24 hearing?

1 A. No, I would have resolved that without a
2 Master's hearing had he have accepted this offer.
3 Yes, if this was -- I recall a money amount. I
4 recall us saying about how much I wanted a month. I
5 don't recall this letter, is all I'm saying.

6 Q. This recounts in the third sentence a
7 conversation that apparently had occurred between 8 you and Mr. Hoffman whereby he had made an offer for 9 a monthly amount and you had indicated to him that 10 it was a start, but needed to go -- but he needed to 11 go farther. Do you see that?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Does that accurately summarize what you had 14 told Mr. Hoffman in response to his offer of a 15 monthly amount?

16 A. I think that's in response to the 650 that 17 he initially made me so I could get the ball rolling
18 again to get some kind of movement on this divorce.

19 Q. Okay. So this accurately does summarize
20 what you said in that regard, that you needed more
21 money, he needed to go farther, correct?

22 A. I believe Toni probably advised me of this,
23 yes.

24 Q. Did you have any input in terms of what was

1 demanded in the counteroffer?

2 A. Yes, I did. I said I wanted money for my
3 furniture, because I took nothing.

4 Q. How about the other aspects of what's in 5 there? You had input into those, didn't you?

6 A. As far as the 15,000?

7 Q. Yeah.

8 A. I said I wanted a dollar amount. I don't
9 recall exactly what it was. I want to say that it
10 was maybe even higher at one point.

11 Q. You're not denying that at this point in 12 time that was your demand, right?

13 A. No, I'm not denying that.

14 Q. What about with regard to the other
15 elements of this counteroffer? Were those the terms
16 of -- on which you were willing to settle it at that 17 point in time?

18 A. That he could keep all the household
19 furnishings? Yes. Mrs. Hoffman won't make a claim
20 for an equitable distribution of the same. Does 21 that mean property or the household goods he can 22 keep? Is that what that means?

23 Q. As you understood it.

24 A. Okay. And yes, I would go on irretrievable

1 breakdown. Yes.

2 Q. What about with regard to the naming of you
3 as beneficiary in paragraph 2?

4 A. That has never been an issue. I always
5 wanted to be the beneficiary.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. I don't believe I -- because to my
8 understanding, I was named.

9 Q. Let me show you what I'll mark as
10 Exhibit 13.

11 - - -

12 (Whereupon, Thomas Deposition Exhibit
13 Number 13 was marked for identification.)

14 - - -

15 BY MR. ROMAN:

16 Q. This is the best copy I have from this.
17 And I'm sure Mr. Silberblatt will tell you that his 18 copy reflects the same.

19 But take a look at this, if you would.

20 A. (No audible response.)

21 Q. This is a Nomination of Beneficiary form.
22 This did not come from your file or my client's
23 file. This indicates that the principal beneficiary
24 of the plan was going to be Kevin Shane Hoffman.

MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE EVIDENCE RELATING TO HENRY ACTION

Defendants, TONI M. CHERRY, Esquire, individually, and GLEASON, CHERRY and CHERRY, L.L.P., by their attorneys, GROGAN GRAFFAM, P.C., set forth the following Motion in Limine to Preclude Evidence Relating to Henry Action:

I. Background

1. This is a legal malpractice action, styled in negligence, filed by plaintiff, Linda E. Hoffman, against defendants Toni M. Cherry, Esquire and her law firm, Gleason, Cherry and Cherry, L.L.P. (collectively “attorney-defendants”).

2. Plaintiff’s negligence theory of recovery arises out of attorney-defendants’ former legal representation of plaintiff’s interests in an underlying divorce action filed by plaintiff’s husband, Robert E. Hoffman, in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania at No. 95-1256-CD (“underlying proceedings” or “Divorce Action”).

3. The Hoffmans were married on September 2, 1983. The parties had several periods of separation (plaintiff had previously filed for a divorce in 1987 but the parties later reconciled), before the Hoffmans finally separated on June 16, 1993.

4. On September 5, 1995, the Divorce Action was filed by Mr. Hoffman against plaintiff. At the time, Mr. Hoffman was 46 years old (DOB: September 13, 1948).

5. The essence of the legal malpractice claims is that attorney-defendants were professionally negligent because they “did not seek or otherwise obtain an injunction, a freeze order, a domestic relations order, an order maintaining the status quo, a consent order, or any other appropriate judicial intervention” to prevent Mr. Hoffman from removing plaintiff as the named beneficiary of his retirement account with the Pennsylvania State Employe’s Retirement System (“SERS”) and an IRA account with Equitable Insurance Company (“IRA”). (Complaint, ¶44).

6. Mr. Hoffman began accumulating SERS retirement benefits on April 22, 1971, his date of entry with the Pennsylvania State Police. On February 27, 1993, Mr. Hoffman retired from the Pennsylvania State Police.

7. Mr. Hoffman acquired the IRA on or about February 4, 1993 through a lump sum payment from his SERS account.

8. On January 30, 1998, during the pendency of the Divorce Action, Mr. Hoffman, 49 years old at the time, suddenly and unexpectedly died of a heart attack.

9. By operation of law, the Divorce Action thus abated before the entry of any decree. Haviland v. Haviland, 481 A. 2d 1355 (Pa. Super. 1984).

10. Unbeknownst to attorney-defendants, Mr. Hoffman had, on December 11 and 17, 1997 (roughly 5 – 6 weeks before his death), changed the named beneficiary from plaintiff to his son by a prior marriage, Kevin Shane Hoffman, on both the IRA and the SERS retirement account.

11. Subsequent attempts by attorney-defendants on plaintiff's behalf to have plaintiff declared the beneficiary of the SERS account and the IRA following Mr. Hoffman's death, including court appeals, were ultimately unsuccessful.

12. On January 27, 2000, plaintiff instituted the instant legal malpractice lawsuit by the filing of a Praecept for Writ of Summons.

13. On June 15, 2000, plaintiff married for a third time to Pennsylvania State Trooper, Frank M. Thomas.

II. Evidence Of The Unrelated Henry Action Should Be Excluded

14. During the course of the present trial, it is anticipated that plaintiff will seek to introduce evidence related to another divorce matter handled by Attorney Cherry, Diane L. Henry v. Charles R. Henry, No. 96-998 C.D., filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania ("Henry Action"). Plaintiff's expert, Mary Cushing Doherty, Esquire, refers to the Henry Action in her report and Plaintiff's Pre-Trial Statement list various trial exhibits and witnesses associated with the Henry Action, including Mrs. Henry herself and the attorney for her ex-husband, Attorney Gearhart.

15. Any references to or evidence of the unrelated Henry Action should be excluded for the reasons that: (a) such evidence bears no relevancy to the facts and issues of the underlying Divorce Action (the "case-within-a-case") and thus bears no relevancy to the legal malpractice claims; (b) the admission of such evidence would be unfairly prejudicial to attorney-defendants; and (c) such evidence would only serve to mislead and confuse the jury on unrelated or collateral issues.

16. In the Henry Action, the request for relief was the preservation of Mrs. Henry as the survivor annuitant (not a "death beneficiary" as here) under the joint and survivor annuity option that had been in effect throughout the life of this 36-year marriage. Mrs. Henry came into the offices of Gleason, Cherry & Cherry, L.L.P. in 1996 with the specific demand that counsel immediately take whatever action was necessary to protect her rights to her survivor annuity because she had just been told by her adult children that her husband had admitted to them that he had removed her as his survivor annuitant. This information was given by her husband to his adult children from his hospital bed where he was recovering from a massive heart attack. Mr. Henry was an alcoholic with documented significant liver damage and his prognosis for recovery was poor. Consequently, Mrs. Henry directed counsel to immediately file for divorce and to file a petition for an injunction to cause her to be reinstated as the survivor annuitant named on the joint and survivor annuity option that Mr. Henry had elected and had kept in force throughout the marriage. Mr. Henry had left Mrs. Henry and was residing with another woman. There was no hope for reconciliation and Mrs. Henry wanted to be divorced immediately.

17. The Superior Court in its decision in Palladino v. Palladino, 713 A.2d 676 (Pa. Super. 1998) recognized that a wife's survivor annuity deriving from a husband's retirement pension was acquired by wife during and pursuant to the parties' marriage and was a vested property interest of the wife separate and distinct from the husband's pension. Consequently, a survivor annuity is valued separately from the retirement benefit payable to husband during his life. This is very different from the death benefit payable in the underlying Divorce Action. In the Henry Action, all that client was asking the Court to preserve was the benefit payable to her alone and not the benefit payable to Mr. Henry during his lifetime.

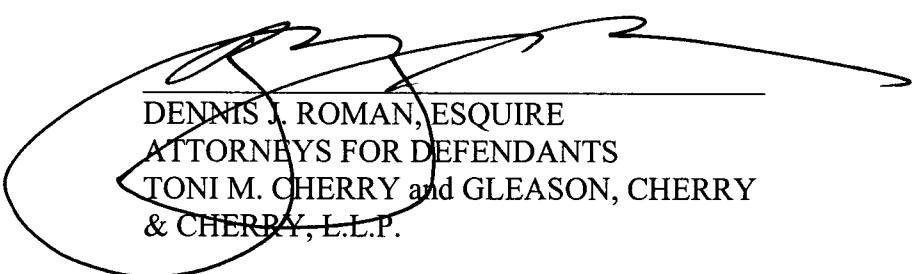

18. Attorney Cherry's representation of Mrs. Henry was tailored to the peculiar facts and circumstances of the Henry Action and the issues confronting the client, none of which are even remotely analogous to those presented in the present action . The plaintiff here seeks to use the fact that Attorney Cherry petitioned for and was granted injunctive relief in the Henry Action as probative evidence that Attorney Cherry breached the standard of care by failing to do so in underlying Divorce Action. Attorney Cherry's actions in the Henry Action cannot be considered in a vacuum, but must be examined in the context of the specific facts of Mrs. Henry's case. To allow a wholesale comparison of the facts and circumstances of the Henry and Hoffman actions would be improper.

19. The Henry Action and the instant case are not analogous, the issues addressed bear no relevancy to the present claims and the only result that would occur through admission of such evidence would be to confuse and mislead the jury on irrelevant and wholly collateral matters that are not before this jury for consideration, thereby unfairly prejudicing attorney-defendants. See, Pa.R.E. 401, 402 and 403; Commonwealth v. Scott, 389 A.2d 79, 82 (Pa. 1978).

WHEREFORE, attorney-defendants, Toni M. Cherry and Gleason, Cherry & Cherry, L.L.P., request that this Court grant this Motion in Limine and sign the attached Order.

ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this _____ day of _____, 2004, upon consideration of the foregoing Motion in Limine to Preclude Evidence Relative to Henry Action, filed on behalf of defendants, it is hereby ORDERED that such Motion is granted and plaintiff is precluded, during any phase of trial, from introducing any evidence, or making any reference to, the Henry Action filed at No. 96-998 C.D. of the Court of Common Pleas of Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. It is further ORDERED that plaintiff, her counsel and all witnesses are otherwise precluded from making any comment upon such issues during opening and closing arguments, during the presentation of evidence and during any other phase of trial.
