first billing statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Your name and account number.
- The dollar amount and date of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.
- Please sign your letter.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice.
We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe your billing statement was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report your account as delinquent. We can continue to charge you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your balance that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your billing statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn't make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 25 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must report that you are disputing your balance. And, we must tell you the name and address of anyone to whom we reported your account information. We must tell anyone to whom we report that the matter has been settled between us when it is finally settled.

If we don't follow these rules, we can't collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your billing statement was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases.

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two limitations on this right:

You must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current address; and
The purchase price must have been more than $50.

These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant, or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services. A claim under this special rule may not exceed the amount actually billed to your account and does not apply to purchases made outside the United States.

CITIBANK CARD AGREEMENT

This Agreement and the folder containing the card are your Citibank Card Agreement. The folder contains important account information, including the annual percentage rate for purchases and an indication of whether or not there is a membership fee. Please read and keep both the folder and the Agreement for your records.

To simplify the rest of this Agreement for you, the following definitions will apply throughout. The words, you, your, and yours mean the person responsible for this Agreement, to whom we direct the billing statement. The word card means one or more cards which we have issued with your account number. The words, we, us, and our mean Citibank (South Dakota), N.A. The words Citibank checks mean one or more checks that we may provide to access your Citibank card account. This Agreement is binding on you unless you cancel your account within 30 days after receiving the card and you have not used or authorized use of your account.

Credit Line:

Your initial credit line appears on the folder containing the card. A portion of your credit line, called the cash advance limit, is available for cash advances. At our discretion and at any time we may change your credit line or cash advance limit. We will notify you if we do, either by mail or through the billing statement. You may request a change to your credit line or cash advance limit by contacting Customer Service by telephone or mail.

Using Your Account:

The card must be signed to be used. The full amount of your credit line is available to buy or lease goods or services wherever the card is honored. Your cash advance limit is available for cash at any bank or automated teller machine that accepts the card or by using Citibank checks. The total amount charged on your account, including purchases, cash advances, finance charges, fees, or other charges, must always remain below your credit line.

Additional Cards:

You may request additional cards on your account for yourself or others and you may permit another person to have access to the card or account number. However, if you do, you are liable for all charges made by those persons. You must notify us to revoke permission for any person you previously authorized to use your account. If you tell us to revoke another person's use of your account, we may close the account and issue a new card or cards with a different account number. You are responsible for the use of each card issued on your account according to the terms of this Agreement.

Membership Fee:

The folder containing the card indicates whether or not your account is subject to a membership fee. If it is, the fee is added to the purchase balance and is non-refundable unless you notify us to cancel your account within 30 days from the billing statement date on which the fee is billed.

Billing:

Each month we will send you a billing statement if there is activity on your account. It shows the balance, any finance charges, fees, the minimum payment, and the payment due date. It also shows your current credit line and cash advance limit, an itemized list of current charges, Citibank checks, payments and credits, a summary showing separately the purchase balance, the cash advance balance, finance charges on each, and other important information. You must notify us of a change in your address by contacting Customer Service by telephone or mail. We will mail or deliver the billing statement to only one mailing address.

How We Determine the Balance:

The total outstanding balance (the amount you owe us) appears as the "New Balance" on the billing statement. To determine the New Balance, we begin with the outstanding balance on your account at the beginning of each billing period, called the "Previous Balance" on the billing statement. We add any purchases and cash advances and subtract any payments and credits that we receive. We then add the appropriate finance charges, fees, and other applicable adjustments.

Annual Percentage Rate for Purchases:

Your ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE and the corresponding monthly periodic rate for a purchase balance appear on the folder containing the card. The monthly periodic rate is the applicable annual percentage rate divided by twelve (12). The rate may be variable. Whether or not the rate varies is indicated on the folder containing the card.

Variable Annual Percentage Rate:

If your account has a variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE for purchases, we calculate the rate by adding the fixed percentage amount that appears on the folder containing the card to the U.S. Prime Rate reported in The Wall Street Journal on the third Tuesday of March, June, September, and December of each year. If the third Tuesday is a holiday, we will use the Prime Rate reported the next day. If more than one Prime Rate is reported, we may choose the highest rate. If The Wall Street Journal ceases publication or to report the Prime Rate, we may use the Prime Rate published in any other newspaper of general circulation, or we may substitute a similar reference rate at our sole discretion.

As long as you keep all of your Citibank credit card accounts in good standing, the variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will not be higher than 19.8% or lower than 12.9%. Any increase or decrease in the variable annual percentage rate takes effect on the first day of the billing period directly following the month in which we calculate the rate. Each time the variable annual percentage rate changes, we will apply it to the entire purchase balance. The annual percentage rate in effect and any subsequent changes to it will appear on the billing statement. An increase in the variable annual percentage rate means you will pay a higher finance charge and perhaps a higher minimum payment.

If you fail to meet the requirements of this or any other Citibank Card Agreement, we may immediately increase the variable ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE (including any introductory rate or promotional rate) on the entire purchase balance to 19.8%, which corresponds to a monthly periodic rate of 1.65%. Your account may be eligible for the lower applicable variable annual percentage rate on new purchases after you have met the terms of this and any other Citibank Card Agreement for six (6) consecutive months.

Introductory and Promotional Rate Offers:

At our discretion, we may offer you an introductory annual percentage rate for all or a part of the purchase balance. The period of time for which the introductory rate applies may be limited. Any introductory rate, the corresponding monthly periodic rate, and the period of time during which it is in effect will appear on the folder containing the card. We may also offer you a promotional annual percentage rate to encourage you to transfer balances from accounts you have with other credit card issuers. Any balance you transfer will be subject to the terms of the promotion and this Agreement.

Finance Charges on Purchases:

We will charge a finance charge for purchases if you did not pay the total New Balance listed on the last billing statement in full by the payment due date. When you do not pay the New Balance in full, we assess finance charges on purchases as follows:

- We start with the Previous Balance at the beginning of the billing period and add any unpaid finance charges and fees. The billing period begins on the Statement/Closing date listed on the previous billing statement and varies with the number of days in the billing period.

- On each day of the billing period we subtract payments, add new purchases, and make adjustments (e.g., for credited returns or billing errors). This determines a daily balance. Unless we elect to use a later date, we add a new purchase to the balance as of the date of the purchase.

- We total the daily balances (except for the balance on the Statement/Closing date), and then divide that amount by the number of days in the billing period. This determines the average daily balance, which is called the "balance subject to finance charge" on the billing statement.

- We multiply the balance subject to finance charge by the applicable monthly periodic rate. The resulting amount is your FINANCE CHARGE on purchases.

- If the purchase balance is subject to more than one rate (for example, because of purchases made during a promotional rate offer), we will separately calculate the balance subject to finance charge and the resulting finance charge in the same manner as described above.

Annual Percentage Rate for Cash Advances:

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE for a cash advance balance is 19.8%, which corresponds to a daily periodic rate of 0.05424%. A daily periodic rate is determined by dividing the annual percentage rate by 365.

Finance Charges on Cash Advances:

We will charge a finance charge on cash advances from the day you take them until the day we receive payment in full as follows:

- We start with the Previous Balance at the beginning of the billing period and add any unpaid cash advance finance charges and fees.

- On each day of the billing period we subtract payments, credit adjustments, and add new cash advances, other charges, and unpaid finance charges. This determines a daily balance. Unless we elect to use a later date, we add cash advances to the balance as of the day they are taken.

- We total the daily balances (except for the balance on the Statement/Closing Date) and then divide that amount by the number of days in the billing period. This determines the average daily balance, which is called the "balance subject to finance charge" on the billing statement.

- We multiply the balance subject to finance charge by the daily periodic rate and then multiply the resulting amount by the number of days in the billing period. This final amount is your FINANCE CHARGE on cash advances.

Cash Advance Transaction Fee:

We will add an additional FINANCE CHARGE of $1.75 for each cash advance obtained at an automated teller machine (atm). However, if the cash advance is obtained through a Citibank check, or at a financial institution (without using an atm), the additional FINANCE CHARGE is 2.0% of the advance, subject to a minimum of $2 and a maximum of $10. The cash advance transaction fee may cause the annual percentage rate on the billing statement on which the cash advance first appears to exceed the nominal annual percentage rate.

Minimum Finance Charge:

We assess a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of $.50 if your FINANCE CHARGE for purchases or cash advances is less than $.50. We add the amount to either the purchase or cash advance balance at our discretion.

Credit Balance:

You may not maintain a credit balance on your account in excess of your assigned credit limit. We will return to you any credit amount over $1.00 if the amount has been on your account longer than three months. You may request a refund of a credit balance at any time. We may reduce the amount of any credit balance by the amount of new charges billed to your account.

Security Interest for Secured Accounts:

The folder containing the card indicates if your account is a secured account. If it is, you have given us a security interest in a certificate of deposit or a savings account to secure repayment of your account. If you withdraw your funds from the certificate of deposit or savings account, we will close your card account.

Charges Made in Foreign Currencies:

For Visa Accounts: If a charge is incurred in a foreign currency, Visa International will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount using its most recently published procedures set forth in its Operating Regulations in effect at the time the transaction is processed. Currently, those Regulations provide that the currency conversion rate to be used is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by an international reimbursement rate in each case. Visa retains this international reimbursement rate as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

For Mastercard Accounts: If a charge is incurred in a foreign currency, MasterCard International, Inc. will convert the charge into a U.S. dollar amount using its most recently published conversion procedures in effect at the time the transaction is processed. Currently, the currency conversion rate used to determine the transaction amount in U.S. dollars is either (1) a wholesale market rate or (2) a government-mandated rate in effect one day prior to the processing date, increased by one percent in each case. MasterCard retains this one percent as compensation for performing the currency conversion service. The currency conversion rate in effect on the processing date may differ from the rate in effect on the transaction date or the posting date.

Minimum Amount Due:

Each month you must pay a minimum amount that is the total of two figures. The first is any previous amount that is past due plus any amount in excess of your credit line. The second is one of the following:

- The New Balance on the billing statement if it is less than $20; or
- If the New Balance is between $20 and $960, the greater of $20 or the amount of your billed finance charges; or
- If the New Balance exceeds $960, 1/48 of the New Balance (rounded down to the nearest dollar).

You must pay at least the minimum amount due each month, but you may pay more at any time without a penalty. If you pay more than the minimum, we will allocate the excess amount to the purchase or cash advance balance at our discretion. The sooner you pay the New Balance, the less you will pay in finance charges. We may also allow you to skip a payment. If we do, we will notify you on the billing statement. If you choose to skip a payment when offered, we will continue to assess finance charges.

Payments:

Do not send cash payments. We can accept late or partial payments, as well as payments that reflect "paid in full" or other restrictive endorsements, without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. There may be a delay of up to five days in crediting a payment if it is received at an address other than the address provided on the billing statement. You must pay us in U.S. dollars drawn on funds on deposit in the United States. However, we reserve the right to accept payments made in Canadian currency. If we do, we will charge a currency conversion fee based upon the conversion rates existing at the time of conversion.

Over-the-Credit Line Fee:

We will add a $10 fee to the purchase balance for each billing period that the New Balance exceeds your credit line.

Late Fee:

We will add a $15 fee to the purchase balance for each billing period you fail to make the minimum payment within 15 days after its due date.

Returned Payment Fee:

We will add a $15 fee to the purchase balance when a payment check or similar instrument is not honored or if we must return it because it cannot be processed.

Citibank Checks:

Citibank checks may be used to purchase goods and services or to obtain cash up to the amount of your available cash advance limit unless that amount will cause the balance to exceed your credit line. We will treat Citibank checks as a cash advance and charge them against your cash advance limit. Each Citibank check must be in the form we have issued and must be used according to any instructions we give you. Citibank checks may be used only by the person whose name is printed on them. Citibank checks may not be used to pay any amount owed to us under this or any other Citibank Card Agreement. We will not certify any Citibank checks, nor will we return paid Citibank checks.

Returned Citibank Check Fee:

We will add a $15 fee to the cash advance balance if we decline to honor a Citibank check. Among the reasons for our decline are that the check would cause the balance to exceed your cash advance limit or credit line, that you are in default, that you did not comply with our instructions regarding the check, that your account has been closed, or that the card has expired.

Stop Payment Fee:

We will add a $15 fee to the cash advance balance when payment of a Citibank check is stopped at your request. You may stop payment on a Citibank check by notifying us in writing at P.O. Box 6500, Sioux Falls, South Dakota 57117 or by calling us at the telephone number listed on the billing statement. If you call, you must confirm the call in writing within fourteen (14) days. A written stop payment order will remain in effect for six (6) months unless renewed in writing.

Once a charge is made through the use of the card or account number we cannot "stop payment" on the charge. If there is a dispute involving a charge on your account, please refer to the section entitled "What To Do If There's An Error In Your Bill."

Lost or Stolen Cards, Account Numbers or Citibank Checks:

If any card, account number or Citibank check is lost or stolen or if you think someone used or may use them without your permission, notify us at once by calling the telephone number shown on the billing statement or the number obtained by calling toll-free or local Directory Assistance. We may require you to provide certain information in writing to help us find out what happened. Don't use the card or the Citibank checks after we've been notified, even if they are found or returned. You may be liable for unauthorized use of the card, but not for more than $50. You won't be liable for any unauthorized purchases or cash advances made after we've been notified of the loss or the theft; however, you must identify for us the charges on the billing statement that were not made by you or someone authorized by you and from which you received no benefit.

Default:

You are in default if you fail to pay the minimum payment listed on each billing statement on time, file for bankruptcy, exceed your credit line without our permission, or default on this or any other Citibank Card Agreement you have with us. If you are in default, we may close your account and demand immediate payment of the full balance. If you have given us a security interest in a savings account or certificate of deposit, we may use the deposit amount to pay any amount you owe us. But of course, you don't want this to happen. Call us first and let us try to help you.

Collection Costs:

If we have to refer collection of your account to a lawyer (who is not our salaried employee), to the extent permitted by law you will have to pay our attorney's fee plus court costs or any other fees. If we sue to collect and you win, we will pay your reasonable legal fees and court costs.

Customer Privacy:

We will not sell information about you or your account to non-Citibank companies. On occasion, however, we will allow certain companies to offer specially selected products and services to you through the mail or by telephone. These companies will not be allowed to retain any information about you or your account unless you agree to purchase their product or service. If you do not want to receive these offers, write or call us at the address or telephone number listed on the billing statement. Be sure to include your name, address, and account number. We will remind you at least once each year of your right to be excluded from these offers.

Telephone Monitoring:

From time to time we may monitor telephone calls regarding your account with us to assure the quality of our service.

Information Reporting:

We may report your performance under this Agreement to credit reporting agencies; including your failure to make minimum payments on time. A negative credit report may significantly harm your ability to obtain credit from other sources. We may also obtain follow-up credit reports on you (for example, when we review your account for a credit line increase). We may exchange information about you or your account with our Citicorp affiliates. Otherwise, no one else will be given information about your account without your permission or proper legal authority. We will try to notify you by telephone or by mail of any legal process served on us in order to give you an opportunity to object to it, unless the law prohibits the notice.

Correcting Your Credit Report:

If you think we reported erroneous information to a credit reporting agency or wish to learn the names of the agencies we contacted, write us at the address listed on the billing statement. We will promptly investigate the matter, and if our investigation shows you are right, we will contact each credit reporting agency to whom we reported and will request they correct the report. If we disagree with you after our investigation, we will tell you in writing or by telephone and instruct you how to submit a statement of your position to those agencies; your statement will become a part of your credit record with them.

Closing Your Account:

You may close your account at any time by notifying us in writing. However, you remain responsible to pay the balance according to the terms of this Agreement. We may close your account or suspend your account privileges or Citibank checks at any time without prior notice. We may also reissue a different card, account number, or different checks at any time. You must return the card or the Citibank checks to us upon request.

Refusal of the Card:

We are not responsible if we do not approve a purchase or cash advance on your account, or if a third party refuses to accept or honor the card, even if you have sufficient credit available. We may limit the number of purchases or cash advances which may be approved in one day. If we detect unusual or suspicious activity on your account, we may temporarily suspend your credit privileges until we can verify the activity. We may approve purchases or cash advances which cause the balance to exceed your credit line without waiving any of our rights under this Agreement.

Changing this Agreement:

We can change this Agreement, including all fees and the annual percentage rate, at any time. However, if the change will cause a fee, rate or minimum payment to increase, we will mail you written notice at least 15 days before the beginning of the billing period in which the change becomes effective. If you do not agree to the change, you must notify us in writing within 25 days after the effective date of the change and pay us the balance, either at once or under the terms of the unchanged Agreement. Otherwise, the change in the notice is binding on you. Use of the card after the effective date of the change shall be deemed acceptance of the new terms, even if the 25 days have not expired.

Delay in Enforcement:

We may need time to look into certain matters and can delay enforcing our rights under this Agreement without losing them.

Applicable Law:

The terms and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by federal law and the law of South Dakota, where we are located.

For Further Information:

Call us at the telephone number shown on the front of the billing statement. You can also call toll-free or local Directory Assistance to get our telephone number.
