MOTION FOR WAIVER OF CHILDREN
FIRST PROGRAM

NOW COMES, the Plaintiff, Lisa A. Gallaher, by and through her attorney, F. Cortez Bell, III, Esquire, who for the Motion for Waiver of Children First Program respectfully sets forth and avers as follows:

1. That a Complaint under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code was filed on behalf of the Plaintiff, Lisa A. Gallaher, to Clearfield County term and docket number 00-1286-CD on October 17, 2000.
2. That service of the Divorce Complaint was made upon the Defendant, James W. Gallaher, by certified mail, restricted delivery on October 24, 2000.
3. That the Plaintiff and the Defendant are the parents of three (3) minor children born of this marriage, those children being James Wilson Gallaher, DOB 12-12-85; Joseph Michael Gallaher, DOB 12-15-87, and Amber Renea Gallaher, DOB 04-26-89.
4. That Defendant, James W. Gallaher, moved from the marital residence in August of 1993 and has resided in the Lancaster, Pennsylvania area ever since.

5. That this case falls within the purview of the Clearfield County Local Rule, Rule 1920.3 as a result of the three (3) children of this marriage being under the age of eighteen (18) years.

6. That both of the parties fully understand the impact of the divorce proceedings upon their children.

7. That it is believed that the mandated attendance at the Children First Program would serve no purpose with regard to this particular case due to the fact that the Defendant, James W. Gallaher, has not lived with the minor children or in the Clearfield County area since 1993.

WHEREFORE, it is respectfully requested that your Honorable Court grant the Motion of the Plaintiff whereby the parties seek a waiver of the mandated attendance at the Children First Program at Concerns, Inc., in DuBois pursuant to Local Rule 1920.3.

Re: Gallaher v. Gallaher
No. 00-1286-CD

Mr. James Gallaher
1455 Fruitville Pike
Lancaster, PA 17601

Dear Mr. Gallaher:

Enclosed with this letter you will find several documents which are sent to you under the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure in regard to a divorce action which I have filed on behalf of Lisa A. Gallaher in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. Initially along with this letter is a document entitled Complaint Under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code and an Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code. Upon your receipt of this letter, I would ask that you execute the enclosed Acceptance of Service document indicating that you have received copies of the Complaint and Affidavit as set forth above.

Additionally, with those documents is a prepared form for your execution indicating your desires which you might wish to make or your options which you can make in regard to the divorce proceeding. That document is entitled Counter Affidavit Under Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code. The paragraph numbered 1 asks for you to indicate whether you do not oppose the entry of a divorce decree or whether you oppose an entry of a divorce decree. It goes on further should you oppose the entry of a divorce decree to indicate or check the box stating why you disagree with a divorce. Assuming from what I know that you are in agreement with a divorce, I would ask you to check box 1(a) of the counter affidavit. Under paragraph 2, you have two options which you may express dealing with whether you want to make any other claims as a result of the divorce proceeding. In Pennsylvania, those claims can be alimony, division of property, lawyers fees or expenses. If you do not wish to make any claims for economic relief, you need to check box 2(a). If you wish to make a claim for economic relief, you should check box 2(b) and be forewarned that it is up to you to present an appropriate document setting forth your economic claims such that the Court can deal with those in turn. I would ask once again that based upon my understanding as to this divorce matter, that you check box 2(a) indicating that you do not wish to make any economic claims and that all issues have been adequately dealt with and resolved by yourself and Lisa. I would once again need the counter affidavit returned in the self addressed stamped envelope along with the Acceptance of Service.

October 18, 2000

Additionally, you will find a document entitled Notice of Intention to Request Entry of Divorce Decree which is just sent to notify you that upon receipt of your responses, I will be, on or after November 27, 2000, asking the Court in Clearfield County, to formally issue a divorce decree thereby divorcing Lisa and yourself pursuant to Pennsylvania law. Enclosed with regard to the Notice of Intent to Request a Divorce Decree is a Waiver of Notice of Intention to Request Entry of a Divorce Decree which I would ask you to execute, date, and return with all the other documentation above. This document quite simply indicates that you are aware that a final decree of divorce will be asked for and that I do not have to formally give you notice of our asking for it as notice has already been given.

I realize that this letter contains a lot of documentation which requires your signature and return to me, however, under Pennsylvania law, I must send these documents to you and ask for your cooperation in signing and returning the same to me.

You certainly are entitled to representation by counsel with regard to this divorce proceeding and should you have any questions, I would be more than happy to attempt to answer them for you, however, I want you to be aware that you certainly can retain your own attorney should you feel that need.

I would ask that you as quickly as possible return the documentation to me in the stamped envelope such that I might have it in an appropriate time period in order to proceed with the divorce proceedings.

Very Truly Yours,

BELL, SILBERBLATT & WOOD.
