IN RE: VACATION OF A PORTION OF STATE :
HIGHWAY ROUTE 338-2 IN SANDY :
TOWNSHIP :

PETITION

(1). The name of Your Petitioner is the Township of Sandy, a Second Class Township in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, duly acting through and by its Board of Supervisors.

(2). The Township has been requested to vacate or abandon certain portion of State Highway Route 338-2 which lies between Stations 99 plus 53 and 105 plus 00, a description of which appears in the Ordinance which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A.

(3). Said vacation is proposed by Ordinance which has been duly advertised and proof of publication is attached hereto.

(4). Pursuant to said advertisement, said Ordinance was duly enacted on the 21st day of October, 1961.

(5). At the time of said enactment and subsequent thereto, no objections to said vacation had been filed or lodged with the Township.

(6). Said abandonment and vacation are in the best interest of the Township.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner prays your Honorable Court to confirm said abandonment or vacation.

Respectfully submitted,
