ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

Your DISCOVER account has been transferred to First Select Corporation. Your DISCOVER account was closed at the time of this transfer, and will therefore continue to be closed. This Account Agreement contains the terms that govern your First Select account (the "Account"). In this Agreement, "you" and "your" mean each person who is liable for payment on the Account. "We," "our," "ours," and "us" mean First Select Corporation or its assignees. Because your Account has been transferred to us, you are now obligated to repay the Account to us instead of DISCOVER. If the Account was opened as a joint account, we may act on the instructions of any joint accountholder.

Payments / Finance Charges. As long as you have a balance outstanding on your Account, finance charges are calculated as follows:

To figure the finance charges for each billing cycle, we multiply the average daily balance on your Account by a daily periodic rate. The daily periodic rate we apply is your Account's Annual Percentage Rate divided by 365. The Annual Percentage Rate will be calculated as disclosed in your most recent DISCOVER account terms (the "Original Terms"). If your Original Terms provided for different Annual Percentage Rates to be applied to different components of your outstanding balance, we will apply the lowest such Annual Percentage Rate to your entire outstanding balance.

We may accept late or partial payments, or payments marked "paid in full" or marked with other restrictions, without losing our right to collect all amounts owing under this Agreement. You may ask First Select Corporation to pay this account by debiting your checking or savings account. First Select Corporation will first verify your identity and eligibility for this service. You may revoke your authorization by writing to First Select Corporation Customer Service.

Fees. We will charge your Account a fee for each billing cycle within which your Account is delinquent (late charge). The amount of the late charge will be as disclosed in your Original Terms or the maximum late charge permitted by the law of your state of residence, whichever is lower.

We will charge your Account a fee for each returned payment check (returned check charge). The amount of the returned check charge will be as disclosed in your Original Terms, or the maximum returned check charge permitted by the law of your state of residence, whichever is lower.

To the extent provided in your Original Terms, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, in addition to your obligation to pay the outstanding balance on your Account, plus interest and fees as disclosed herein, we may also charge you for any collection costs we incur, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs. If your Original Terms provided for an award of attorneys' fees and court costs, such provision as incorporated herein shall apply reciprocally to the prevailing party in any lawsuit arising out of this Agreement.

Non-Waiver of Certain Rights. We may delay or waive enforcement of any provision of this Agreement without losing our right to enforce it or any other provision later.

Applicable Law; Severability; Assignment. No matter where you live, this Agreement and your Account are governed by federal law and by the law of the state designated as the applicable law in your Original Terms. If your Original terms did not contain an applicable law provision, then this Agreement and your Account are governed by federal law and the law of your state of residence. This Agreement is a final expression of the agreement between you and us and may not be contradicted by evidence of any alleged oral agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, you and we will consider that provision modified to conform to applicable law, and the rest of the provisions in the Agreement will still be enforceable. We may transfer or assign our right to all or some of your payments. If state law requires that you receive notice of such an event to protect the purchaser or assignee, we may give you such notice by filing a financing statement with the state's Secretary of State.

Credit Reporting; Personal Information. If you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligation, a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency. In order to dispute any information we are reporting about your Account, you must write to us at the following address: First Select Corporation, P.O. Box 9104, Pleasanton, California, 94566. We may share information with our affiliates including, without limitation, Providian National Bank and Providian Bank. However, you may write to us at any time instructing us not to share credit information with our affiliates.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS - KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

Notify Us in Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about an entry on your bill, write us, on a separate sheet, at the following address: First Select Corporation, P.O. Box 9104, Pleasanton, CA 94566. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first bill on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, give us the following:

- Your name and Account number.
- The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

Your Rights and Our Responsibilities After We Receive Your Written Notice

We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days, we must either correct the error or explain why we believe the bill was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect or report you as delinquent as to any amount you question, including finance charges. We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit line. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of the bill that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your bill, you will not have to pay any finance charge related to any questioned amount. If we did not make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up the missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due. If you fail to pay the amount we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However, if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone we report you to that you question your bill. And we must tell you the name of anyone we reported you to. We must tell anyone we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we do not follow these rules, we cannot collect the first $50 of the questioned amount even if your bill was correct.

Special Rule for Credit Card Purchases

If you have a problem with the quality of goods and services that you purchased with your DISCOVER credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may not have to pay the remaining amount due on the goods or services. There are two limitations to this right: (a) you must have made the purchase in your home state or, if not within your home state, within 100 miles of your current mailing address; and (b) the purchase price must have been more than $50. These limitations do not apply if either we or DISCOVER own or operate the merchant, or if we or DISCOVER mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.
