ANSWER & NEW MATTER

1. Admitted.

2. Denied as stated. The Collins Rainbow Car Wash is located at 19th & Dorey Streets. Answering Defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the remaining averments in this paragraph.

3-4. Denied. The averments contained in these paragraphs state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in these paragraphs and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial. On the contrary, responding defendant specifically denies that at any time material hereto it acted through authorized agents and employees in the manner as averred by the plaintiff. Strict proof of this averment is demanded at trial. To the contrary, responding party at all times material hereto acted independently and in our own interest and not through or by an agent.

5. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

6. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial. To the contrary at all times pertinent hereto the plaintiff was a licensee or trespasser.

7. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial. By way of further response, the Collins Rainbow Car Wash is located at 19th and Dorey Streets.

8-15. Denied. The averments contained in these paragraphs state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in these paragraphs and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment in their favor and against Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs' Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

COUNT I

16. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial. It is specifically denied that Answering Defendant allowed "elevated hills and ridges and otherwise bumpy and rough and unsafe condition" to accumulate or exist on the property. To the contrary at all times pertinent hereto Answering Defendant acted in a safe, careful and non-negligent manner. Moreover, the Collins Rainbow Car Wash has heated floors and walkways.

17. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment in their favor and against Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs' Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

COUNT II

18. Denied. The averments contained in this paragraph state conclusions of law to which no answer is required in accordance with the applicable Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure. By way of further answer, however, after reasonable investigation, answering defendant lacks sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in this paragraph and, therefore, denies same and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment in their favor and against Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs' Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

NEW MATTER

19. If Plaintiff sustained injuries as alleged, then the same were solely as a result of the failure of the Plaintiff to exercise due care for his own safety. The negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the Plaintiff is more fully set forth as follows:

- (a) Failing to keep a proper lookout;
- (b) Failing to utilize and choose a safe alternate route;
- (c) Failing to properly maintain his shoes of footwear in a reasonable and safe manner under the circumstances;
- (d) Failing to adequately inspect the area where he intended to walk;
- (e) Disregarding open and obvious impediments, the existence of which have been alleged but are specifically denied by answering defendant, to his travel; and
- (f) Exiting his vehicle when and where it was not safe to do so.
- (g) Constantly disregarding open and obvious impediments, the existence of which have been alleged but are specifically denied by Answering Defendants, to his travel.

20. The Plaintiff assumed the risk of injury.

21. Plaintiff suffers from a pre-existing injury if any.

22. Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a cause of action upon which relief can be granted.

23. Plaintiffs' causes of action are barred by the applicable and non-waivable statute of limitations.

24. Plaintiffs' claims and/or causes of action are limited, governed, barred and/or restricted by the terms of the Pennsylvania Comparative Negligence Act, the relevant terms of which are incorporated by reference herein, since Plaintiff's negligence exceeds the negligence of Defendant, if any.

25. Plaintiffs' cause of action and/or claim set forth in the Complaint are limited, governed, barred and/or restricted as the Plaintiffs have failed to mitigate their damages.

26. In the event that it is established that Plaintiff sustained any injuries or damages as alleged, which are strictly denied, said injuries and/or damages were caused by the acts or omissions of other persons or parties over whom answering defendant had no control or duty to control and answering defendant asserts that there is no liability on its part.

27. Plaintiff's claims of negligence may be the result of actual omission of other individuals or entities which acts or omissions have constituted intervening or superseding causes of the damages or injuries allegedly sustained by the Plaintiff.

28. Plaintiffs' causes of action and/or claim are barred by the Doctrine of Contributory Negligence as the direct and approximate cause of the injuries suffered by the Plaintiff was the contributory negligence of the Plaintiff in failing to exercise the degree of care which a reasonable, prudent person would have exercised under the same or similar circumstances for his own safety and well being.

29. The injuries alleged to have been sustained by the Plaintiff were not proximately or directly caused by the answering defendant.

30. If the Plaintiffs request damages for delay pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 238, answering defendants challenge the applicability and constitutionality of that rule and places it at issue.

31. If there is a judicial determination that Pa.R.C.P. 238, in the within action, is constitutional, then any liability for any interest imposed by said rule should be superseded during the period of time that Plaintiffs failed to convey a reasonable settlement figure, delays in responding to Interrogatories, delays in responding to Request for Production of Documents and Things, delays in producing witnesses for deposition or delays in other discovery requests by the answering Defendant and, as a result of such delay, Plaintiffs should be estopped from claiming any interest under such rule.

32. Plaintiff's injuries, if any, were not caused by Plaintiff's alleged fall described in the Complaint.

33. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the choice of paths and/or ways doctrines.

34. Plaintiffs' claims and this lawsuit are barred because of Plaintiff's failure to join necessary and indispensable parties.

35. Defendants incorporate all affirmative defenses included in Pa.R.C.P. 1030 upon advice of counsel that failure to raise said defenses constitutes a waiver of the defenses.

36. This Honorable Court lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of this litigation.

37. Plaintiff did not fall on the property controlled by Defendants but rather on public property if Plaintiff fell at all.

38. Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of "Hills and Ridges."

39. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate his damages, if any.

40. Plaintiff's causes of action and/or claims are barred by the Doctrine of Contributory Negligence as the direct and approximate cause of the injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs was the contributory negligence of the Plaintiff in failing to exercise the degree of care which a reasonable, prudent person would have exercised under the same or similar circumstances for his own safety and well being.

WHEREFORE, Defendants demand judgment in their favor and against Plaintiffs, and that Plaintiffs' Complaint be dismissed with prejudice.

JAMES COLLINS, Individually and t/a

Defendants,

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF
DEFENDANTS,
MOTION TO COMPEL ANSWERS TO DISCOVERY

Defendants, James Collins, Individually and t/a The Collins Car Wash, The Collins Rainbow Car Wash and The Rainbow Car Wash, by and through their attorneys, Donnelly & Associates, P.C., forwarded Slip and Fall Interrogatories, Ice and Snow Interrogatories, Supplemental Bodily Injury Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents to Plaintiffs' attorney on January 22, 2002. The Slip and Fall Interrogatories, Ice and Snow Interrogatories, Supplemental Bodily Injury Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents seek information which is relevant and discoverable in this matter. To date, the Plaintiffs have not served answers to these discovery requests.

The Plaintiffs, despite repeated requests by Defendants' counsel, has failed to either answer or object to Defendants' discovery requests. More than the thirty days have lapsed since Plaintiff was served with the Slip and Fall Interrogatories, Ice and Snow Interrogatories, Supplemental Bodily Injury Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 4006(a)(2) provides in part:

The answering party shall serve a copy of the answers, and objections if any, within thirty (30) days after the service of the Interrogatories.

Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 4009(a)(1) provides in part:

The party upon whom the request is served shall within thirty (30) days after service of the request...serve an answer...to each number paragraph in the request

Plaintiffs' failure to respond to Defendants' discovery requests is in blatant disregard of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure on discovery. Accordingly, Defendant requests that this Honorable Court enter its Order compelling Plaintiff to answer, fully and completely, Defendants' Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents.

WHEREFORE, Defendants, James Collins, Individually and t/a The Collins Car Wash, The Collins Rainbow Car Wash and The Rainbow Car Wash, requests an Order for Sanctions under Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure No. 4019 be entered requesting the Plaintiffs to file and serve answers to Slip and Fall Interrogatories, Ice and Snow Interrogatories, Supplemental Bodily Injury Interrogatories and Request for Production of Documents within twenty (20) days of service of this Court's Order.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Plaintiff, through his undersigned counsel hereby moves this Honorable Court to vacate the Order of August 5, 2002, and in support thereof avers the following:

1. On Wednesday, August 21, 2002, Plaintiff sent to defense counsel, via overnight delivery, Responses to all outstanding discovery requests which were the subject of prior Court Orders.
2. The instant action arises out of an automobile accident which occurred on January 1, 2000.
3. Plaintiff's counsel, Alvin F. de Levie, and defense counsel Richard Landry, Esquire, have worked amiably and collegially in the litigation of this matter.

4. In December, 2001, Plaintiff's counsel moved his law office and advised defense counsel of the move and of his new office address.

5. Seemingly, defense counsel filed a Motion for Sanctions seeking dismissal of Plaintiff's claim; Defense counsel inadvertently mailed the Motion to Plaintiff's counsel's old address which letter was not forwarded to Plaintiff's counsel's new office.

6. Had Plaintiff received a copy of the Motion, a Response would have been filed and compliance with a prior Order would have been fulfilled and discovery provided to Defendants.

7. Plaintiff's counsel first learned of the entry of the August 5, 2002, Order when it was faxed to his new office, although again the old office address was used for mailing purposes.

8. A surprised Plaintiff's counsel immediately called defense counsel to inquire as to why the Order had been entered; during conversations between counsel, it was learned that a Motion for Sanctions was, indeed, filed but mailed to Plaintiff's counsel's old address. The letter and Motion were not forwarded to Plaintiff's Counsel.

9. Plaintiff's counsel requested and defense counsel graciously and professionally agreed to sign a Stipulation agreeing that This Honorable Court's Order of August 5, 2002 be vacated. Attached hereto, made a part hereof and marked as Exhibit "A" is the original Stipulation signed by Counsel agreeing that the August 5, 2002, Order may be vacated.

10. Certainly, had Plaintiff received Defendants' Motion for Sanctions, Plaintiff would have responded in a timely fashion and would have complied with The Court's prior Order.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order vacating its August 5, 2002, Order.

Respectfully submitted,
