CIVIL ACTION - LAW

NO. _____ - 2001

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy & Cheryl L. Roy, individually and as the parents and natural guardians of Shawn Roy, by and through her attorneys, MacDonald, Illig, Jones & Britton LLP, file the following Complaint against defendants, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., stating as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy (hereinafter "Roy"), are married adult individuals who live at R.D. #3, Box 196, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania. They are also the parents and natural guardians of plaintiff, Shawn Roy, a minor, who resides with them at the same address.
2. Defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc., is believed to be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, and is qualified to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. MTD's principle place of business is located in Valley City, Medina County, Ohio.

3. MTD Consumer Products, Inc., is believed to be either a subsidiary of MTD Consumer Group, Inc., or is a fictitious name under which MTD Consumer Group, Inc. operates, and is believed to be a Ohio Corporation.
4. At all times relevant hereto, defendants MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MTD") were engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying lawn and garden power equipment including riding mowers and tractors under the trade name "White". White lawn tractors were sold and marketed to the general public.
5. Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc. (hereinafter "Dunlap"), is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principle place of business located at R.R. #2, Box 478, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
6. At all times relevant hereto, defendant Dunlap was engaged in the business of distributing, selling and/or supplying White lawn tractors manufactured by defendant MTD.
7. On or about April 26, 2000, plaintiffs purchased a White Outdoor LT 17 lawn tractor, (hereinafter "tractor") manufactured by defendant MTD, and sold by defendant Dunlap.
8. On or about June 8, 2000, Cheryl Roy accompanied her son Shawn to the detached garage at the Roy's home so that Shawn could use the tractor to cut the family's lawn. Mrs. Roy was to move the family's mini-van so that Shawn could drive the tractor from the garage and onto the lawn.

9. Mrs. Roy watched Shawn lift the hood of the tractor and observe that the gas tank of the tractor was one-half full. Shawn then closed the hood and mounted the tractor. As soon as Shawn started the engine, flames leapt from the vents of the hood of the tractor badly burning Shawn's upper body, arms and face. The fire in the tractor then spread across the garage, completely engulfing the structure of the garage and the family's mini-van.
10. Because of her position in the garage, Cheryl Roy was a witness to the incident.

COUNT I

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Strict Liability

11. Paragraphs 1 through 10 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.
12. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant MTD.
13. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.

14. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant MTD, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.
15. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:
  - a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;
  - b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;
  - c) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor with inadequate, impractical and/or defective safety devices or features;
  - d) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate testing and/or inspection prior to its sale for use by consumers; and

e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.

16. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage and personal injuries, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant MTD of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 15 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

17. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design of the tractor.

18. As a direct and proximate result of defendant MTD designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered both personal injuries and property damages as follows:

- a) Shawn Roy suffered severe burns to his head, neck, hands and arms;
- b) Shawn Roy endured pain, suffering, emotional distress and other personal and emotional injuries as a result of being burned;
- c) Cheryl Roy suffered emotional distress, depression, anxiety, fear and mental suffering as a result of witnessing the incident involving her son;

- d) Both Cheryl Roy and Michael Roy lost wages and time from work; and
- e) Both Cheryl Roy and Michael Roy suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van and home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT II

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty for a Particular Purpose

- 19. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 18, as if set forth in full.
- 20. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant MTD to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

21. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant MTD knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.
22. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 15 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
23. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 18 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT III
Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

24. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 23 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
25. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant MTD impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.
26. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 15 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
27. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 18 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT IV
Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Negligence

28. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 27 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
29. Defendant MTD, as a manufacturer of lawn tractors, was required to exercise reasonable care in designing, manufacturing and distributing its product.
30. The June 8, 2000, fire and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant MTD, as more fully set forth in ¶ 15 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
31. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 18 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT V
Cheryl Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

32. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 31 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
33. At the time of the June 8, 2000, incident in which Shawn Roy was burned, Cheryl Roy was standing in the garage. As a result, she witnessed the incident involving the tractor and her son. She subsequently came to her son's aid and called for emergency assistance.
34. As a direct and proximate result of defendant MTD's negligence and plaintiff Cheryl Roy's sensory and contemporaneous observation of the incident involving her son, Cheryl Roy experienced severe emotional distress and extreme mental pain and suffering.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Cheryl Roy demands judgment in her favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VI
Michael Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Loss of Consortium

35. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 34 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
36. At the time of the June 8, 2000, incident, Michael and Cheryl Roy were married adult individuals.
37. As a result of the personal and emotional injuries sustained by Cheryl Roy, Michael Roy sustained a loss of the society, companionship and consortium of his wife.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, Michael Roy, demands judgment in his favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VII
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Strict Liability

38. Paragraphs 1 through 37 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.
39. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant Dunlap.

40. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.
41. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant Dunlap, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.
42. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:
  - a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;
  - b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;

- c) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor with inadequate, impractical and/or defective safety devices or features.
- d) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate testing and/or inspection prior to its sale for use by consumers; and
- e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.

43. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage and personal injuries, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant Dunlap of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 42 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
44. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design and/or assembly of the tractor.
45. As a direct and proximate result of defendant Dunlap designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered both personal injuries and property damages as follows:

- a) Shawn Roy suffered severe burns to his head, neck, hands and upper torso;
- b) Shawn Roy endured pain, suffering, emotional distress and other personal and emotional injuries as a result of being burned;
- c) Cheryl Roy suffered emotional distress, depression, anxiety, fear and mental suffering as a result of witnessing the incident;
- d) Both Cheryl Roy and Michael Roy lost wages and time from work; and
- e) Both Cheryl Roy and Michael Roy suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van and home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VIII
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty for a Particular Purpose

46. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 45, as if set forth in full.

47. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant Dunlap to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.
48. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant Dunlap knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.
49. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 42 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
50. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 45 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT IX
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

51. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 50 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
52. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant Dunlap impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.
53. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 42 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
54. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 45 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT X
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Negligence

55. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 54 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
56. Defendant Dunlap knew, or reasonably should have known, that the subject tractor was unreasonably dangerous due to its defective design and that the subject tractor would reach and be used by consumers in the condition in which it was manufactured, and that it would be used without inspection for defects.
57. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant Dunlap, as more fully set forth in ¶ 42 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
58. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 45 of this Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT XI
Cheryl Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

59. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 58 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
60. At the time of the June 8, 2000, incident in which Shawn Roy was burned, Cheryl Roy was standing in the garage. As a result, she witnessed the incident involving the tractor and her son. She subsequently came to her son's aid and called for emergency assistance.
61. As a direct and proximate result of defendant Dunlap's negligence and plaintiff Cheryl Roy's sensory and contemporaneous observation of the incident involving her son, Cheryl Roy experienced severe emotional distress and extreme mental pain and suffering.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Cheryl Roy demands judgment in her favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Michael Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Loss of Consortium

62. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 61 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.

63. At the time of the June 8, 2000, incident, Michael and Cheryl Roy were married adult individuals.
64. As a result of the personal and emotional injuries sustained by Cheryl Roy, Michael Roy sustained a loss of the society, companionship and consortium of his wife.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, Michael Roy, demands judgment in his favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

PLAINTIFFS' MOTION TO AMEND COMPLAINT AND CAPTION

Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy, individually, and as the parents and natural guardians of Shawn Roy, file the following Motion To Amend Complaint and Caption, stating as follows:

1. This action was filed on October 30, 2001, by Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy as individuals and on behalf of their minor son, Shawn Roy. The action stems from a fire which occurred at the home of the plaintiffs on June 8, 2000, involving a tractor manufactured and/or sold by the defendants. As a result of the fire, the plaintiffs sustained property damage and Shawn Roy suffered personal injuries.
2. After the filing of the initial Complaint, plaintiffs Michael and Cheryl Roy decided that they no longer wished to pursue claims for personal injuries sustained by Cheryl Roy or Shawn Roy at this time. Rather, plaintiffs' only wish to pursue claims for property damage sustained in June 8, 2000, fire.
3. After counsel for both defendants had entered an appearance, counsel for the plaintiffs advised counsel for the defendants of this change in position, and obtained the consent of counsel for the defendants to file an Amended Complaint, changing the caption and substance of the Complaint. (A verified copy of the Amended Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit "1").

4. In their Amended Complaint, plaintiffs have withdrawn the claim of their minor son, Shawn Roy, and have also withdrawn the claim for personal injuries by Cheryl L. Roy. Since Shawn Roy is a minor, pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 2039(a), plaintiffs seek this Court's approval to withdraw his claim, without prejudice at the present time.
5. Plaintiffs' requested amendment will merely amend the caption of the Complaint and eliminate two claims for personal injury. Since the applicable statute of limitations in this matter will not expire until at least June 8, 2002, the defendants are not prejudiced by this motion.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy, respectfully request that this Honorable Court grant this Motion, permitting them to file the Amended Complaint attached as Exhibit "1".

AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy & Cheryl L. Roy, by and through their attorneys, MacDonald, Illig, Jones & Britton LLP, file the following Amended Complaint against defendants, MTD Consumer Group, Inc., MTD Consumer Products, Inc. and Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., stating as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy (hereinafter "Roy"), are married adult individuals who live at R.D. #3, Box 196, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
2. Defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc., is believed to be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, and is qualified to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. MTD's principle place of business is located in Valley City, Medina County, Ohio.

3. MTD Consumer Products, Inc., is believed to be either a subsidiary of MTD Consumer Group, Inc., or is a fictitious name under which MTD Consumer Group, Inc. operates, and is believed to be a Ohio Corporation.
4. At all times relevant hereto, defendants MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MTD") were engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying lawn and garden power equipment including riding mowers and tractors under the trade name "White". White lawn tractors were sold and marketed to the general public.
5. Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc. (hereinafter "Dunlap"), is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principle place of business located at R.R. #2, Box 478, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.
6. At all times relevant hereto, defendant Dunlap was engaged in the business of distributing, selling and/or supplying White lawn tractors manufactured by defendant MTD.
7. On or about April 26, 2000, plaintiffs purchased a White Outdoor LT 17 lawn tractor, (hereinafter "tractor") manufactured by defendant MTD, and sold by defendant Dunlap.
8. On or about June 8, 2000, Cheryl Roy accompanied her son Shawn to the detached garage at the Roy's home so that Shawn could use the tractor to cut the family's lawn. Mrs. Roy was to move the family's mini-van so that Shawn could drive the tractor from the garage and onto the lawn. --
9. Mrs. Roy watched Shawn lift the hood of the tractor and observe that the gas tank of the tractor was one-half full. Shawn then closed the hood and mounted the tractor. As soon as

Shawn started the engine, flames leapt from the vents of the hood of the tractor. The fire in the tractor then spread across the garage, completely engulfing the structure of the garage and the family's mini-van.

COUNT I

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.

Strict Liability

10. Paragraphs 1 through 9 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.
11. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant MTD.
12. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.
13. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant MTD, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.

14. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:

- a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;
- b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;
- c) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor with inadequate, impractical and/or defective safety devices or features to prevent the tractor from catching fire;
- d) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate testing and/or inspection prior to its sale for use by consumers; and
- e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.

15. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant MTD of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

16. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design of the tractor.

17. As a direct and proximate result of defendant MTD designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van, the tractor and their home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT II

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty for a Particular Purpose

18. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 17, as if set forth in full.

19. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant MTD to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.
20. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant MTD knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.
21. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
22. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT III

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

23. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 22 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
24. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant MTD impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.
25. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
26. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT IV

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Negligence

27. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 26 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
28. Defendant MTD, as a manufacturer of lawn tractors, was required to exercise reasonable care in designing, manufacturing and distributing its product.
29. The June 8, 2000, fire and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant MTD, as more fully set forth in ¶ 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
30. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VII
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Strict Liability

31. Paragraphs 1 through 30 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.
32. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant Dunlap.
33. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.
34. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant Dunlap, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.
35. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:
- a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;

- b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;
  - c) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor with inadequate, impractical and/or defective safety devices or features to prevent the tractor from catching fire.
  - d) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate testing and/or inspection prior to its sale for use by consumers; and
  - e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.
36. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant Dunlap of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
37. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design and/or assembly of the tractor.

38. As a direct and proximate result of defendant Dunlap designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van, the tractor and their home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VIII

Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.

39. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 38, as if set forth in full.

40. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant Dunlap to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

41. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant Dunlap knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

42. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

43. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT IX

Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 43 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.

45. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant Dunlap impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.
46. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in ¶ 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.
47. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT X
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Negligence

48. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in ¶ 1 through 47 above as if the same were more fully set forth herein.
49. Defendant Dunlap knew, or reasonably should have known, that the subject tractor was unreasonably dangerous due to its defective design and that the subject tractor would reach and be used by consumers in the condition in which it was manufactured, and that it would be used without inspection for defects.

50. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant Dunlap, as more fully set forth in ¶ 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

51. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy & Cheryl L. Roy, by and through their attorneys, DiBella & Geer, P.C. and Tara L. Maczuzak, Esquire, file the following Amended Complaint against defendants, MTD Consumer Group, Inc., MTD Consumer Products, Inc. and Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., stating as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, Michael B. Roy and Cheryl L. Roy (hereinafter "Roy"), are married adult individuals who live at R.D. #3, Box 196, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

2. Defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc., is believed to be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio, and is qualified to do business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. MTD's principle place of business is located in Valley City, Medina County, Ohio.

3. MTD Consumer Products, Inc., is believed to be either a subsidiary of MTD Consumer Group, Inc., or is a fictitious name under which MTD Consumer Group, Inc. operates, and is believed to be an Ohio Corporation.

4. At all times relevant hereto, defendants MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as "MTD") were engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying lawn and garden power equipment including riding mowers and tractors under the trade name "White". White lawn tractors were sold and marketed to the general public.

5. Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc. (hereinafter "Dunlap"), is a Pennsylvania corporation with its principle place of business located at R.R. #2, Box 478, DuBois, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania.

6. At all times relevant hereto, defendant Dunlap was engaged in the business of distributing, selling and/or supplying White lawn tractors manufactured by defendant MTD.

7. On or about April 26, 2000, plaintiffs purchased a White Outdoor LT 17 lawn tractor, (hereinafter "tractor") manufactured by defendant MTD, and sold by defendant Dunlap.

8. On or about June 8, 2000, Cheryl Roy accompanied her son Shawn to the detached garage at the Roy's home so that Shawn could use the tractor to cut the family's lawn. Mrs. Roy was to move the family's mini-van so that Shawn could drive the tractor from the garage and onto the lawn.

9. Mrs. Roy watched Shawn lift the hood of the tractor and observed that the gas tank of the tractor was one-half full. Shawn then closed the hood and mounted the tractor. As soon as Shawn started the engine, flames leapt from the vents of the hood of the tractor. The fire in the tractor then spread across the garage, completely engulfing the structure of the garage and the family's mini-van.

COUNT I
Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Strict Liability

10. Paragraphs 1 through 9 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

11. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant MTD.

12. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.

13. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant MTD, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.

14. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant MTD is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:

- a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;
- b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;
- c) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor with inadequate, impractical and/or defective safety devices or features to prevent the tractor from catching fire;
- d) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling, and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate testing and/or inspection prior to its sale for use by consumers; and
- e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.

15. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant MTD of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

16. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design of the tractor.

17. As a direct and proximate result of defendant MTD designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van, the tractor and their home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT II
Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty for a Particular Purpose

18. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 17, as if set forth at length herein.

19. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant MTD to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

20. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant MTD knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

21. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in paragraph 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

22. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT III

Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

23. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in paragraph 1 through 22 above as if set forth at length herein.

24. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant MTD impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.

25. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in paragraph 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

26. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT IV
Roy v. MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc.
Negligence

27. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in paragraph 1 through 26 above as if the same were set forth at length herein.

28. Defendant MTD, as a manufacturer of lawn tractors, was required to exercise reasonable care in designing, manufacturing and distributing its product.

29. The June 8, 2000, fire and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant MTD, as more fully set forth in paragraph 14 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

30. As a proximate result of defendant MTD's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 17 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, MTD Consumer Group, Inc. and/or MTD Consumer Products, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT V

Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc. Strict Liability

31. Paragraphs 1 through 30 above are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth at length herein.

32. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap expected that the subject tractor would reach its consumers without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied, and that the subject tractor did reach the plaintiffs without substantial change in the condition in which it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied. In the alternative, any change or alteration made to the subject tractor after it was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold or supplied was reasonably expected and/or foreseen by defendant Dunlap.

33. During the time in which the plaintiffs had possession of the tractor, it was never subjected to any abnormal or unanticipated use.

34. It is believed and therefore averred, that the subject tractor was designed, manufactured, assembled, distributed, sold and/or supplied by defendant Dunlap, in a defective condition, unreasonably dangerous to users and consumers.

35. It is believed and therefore averred, that defendant Dunlap is strictly liable to plaintiffs under Section 402(a) of the Restatement (Second) of Torts for any or all of the following reasons:

- a) in designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor without adequate safety devices, particularly ones which would prevent a fire from starting in the engine compartment;
- b) in failing to adequately warn and/or instruct plaintiffs, or others similarly situated, of the fact that fuel and fuel vapors could leak into the engine compartment causing a fire under normal use when it knew, or should have known, of such dangers and hazards;

- e) in failing to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell and/or supply the subject tractor in an adequate and safe condition for its intended use and for reasonably foreseeable users, such as the plaintiffs.

36. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting property damage, were the direct and proximate result of the design, manufacture, assembly, distribution, sale and/or supply by the defendant Dunlap of the subject tractor in a defective and unreasonably dangerous condition, for the reasons set forth more fully in paragraph 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

37. There were no reasonable secondary causes responsible for the fire, other than the defective design and/or assembly of the tractor.

38. As a direct and proximate result of defendant Dunlap designing, manufacturing, assembling, distributing, selling and/or supplying the subject tractor in a defective and/or unreasonably dangerous condition, plaintiffs have suffered property damage to their garage, mini-van, the tractor and their home and real property in an amount in excess of $43,000.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

39. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference, the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 38 as if set forth at length herein.

40. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, the plaintiffs were relying upon the skill, expertise and judgment of defendant Dunlap to design, manufacture, assemble, distribute, sell, and supply lawn tractors with safe and adequate features and components, fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

41. At the time the subject tractor was purchased by plaintiffs, defendant Dunlap knew, or had reason to know, the particular purpose for which the tractor would be used, and that the plaintiffs were relying upon the defendant's skill, expertise and judgment to design, manufacture, assemble, sell, and supply a lawn tractor with safe and adequate features and components fit for the purpose of normal consumer use.

42. The subject tractor was not fit for the particular purpose for which it was sold for the reasons more fully set forth in paragraph 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

43. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, the plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VII

Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc. Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability

44. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the averments contained in paragraph 1 through 43 above as if the same were set forth at length herein.

45. At the time the subject tractor was purchased, defendant Dunlap impliedly warranted that the tractor was of fair, average quality and fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used.

46. The subject tractor was not of a fair, average quality and was not fit for the ordinary purpose for which it was used for the reasons more fully set forth in paragraph 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

47. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's breach of implied warranty of merchantability, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COUNT VIII
Roy v. Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc.
Negligence

48. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 47 above as if the same were set forth at length herein.

49. Defendant Dunlap knew, or reasonably should have known, that the subject tractor was unreasonably dangerous due to its defective design and that the subject tractor would reach and be used by consumers in the condition in which it was manufactured, and that it would be used without inspection for defects.

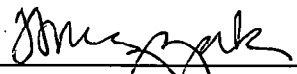

50. The June 8, 2000, fire, and resulting damages sustained by the plaintiffs were the proximate and direct result of the negligence of defendant Dunlap, as more fully set forth in paragraph 35 above, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference.

51. As a proximate result of defendant Dunlap's negligence, plaintiffs suffered damages as outlined in paragraph 38 of this Amended Complaint, the averments of which are incorporated herein by reference as if set forth in full.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in their favor and against defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., in an amount in excess of the arbitration limits of this Court, together with interest, costs of suit and any other damages awarded by this Court as appropriate under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Respectfully submitted,

ANSWER, NEW MATTER AND NEW MATTER
PURSUANT TO PA.R.C.P. 2252(D)

AND NOW, comes the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., Defendant, by and through its attorneys, Dennison, Dennison & Harper who file the following Answer, New Matter and New Matter Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 2252(d) in response to the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint:

1. Admitted.

2. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 2 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and said averments are therefore denied.

3. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 3 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and said averments are therefore denied.

4. The averments of Paragraph 4 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint are directed to a party other than the answering Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., and no response is required. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 4 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and said averments are therefore denied.

5. Admitted.

6. The averments of Paragraph 6 of the Plaintiffs' Complaint are admitted only insofar as the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., was engaged in the business of retail selling of White lawn tractors. By way of additional response, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., has no specific knowledge as to the exact name of the manufacturer of the White lawn tractor, but it is believed that the manufacturer may have been known as White Outdoor Products Company, which may be a division, related company or trade name of MTD.

7. The averments of Paragraph 7 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint that on or about April 26, 2000, the Plaintiffs purchased a White Outdoor LT 17 lawn tractor sold by the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., are admitted. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining averments, and said averments are therefore denied. In addition, the averments of Paragraph 6 of this Answer are incorporated herein by reference thereto.

8. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment,

Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 8 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and said averments are therefore denied.

9. After reasonable investigation, the Defendant, Dunlap Lawn & Garden Equipment, Inc., is without sufficient knowledge and information to form a belief as to the truth of the averments of Paragraph 9 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint, and said averments are therefore denied.

NEW MATTER OF DEFENDANTS MTD CONSUMER GROUP, INC.
AND MTD CONSUMER PRODUCTS, INC.

52. Plaintiffs' Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

53. The claims set forth in Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the comparative and/or contributory negligence of the Plaintiffs.

54. The claims set forth in Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the informed voluntary assumption of the risk of the Plaintiffs.

55. The claims set forth for breach of warranty are barred for failure to give timely notice as required by statute.

56. The injuries to the Plaintiff were caused by the Plaintiffs' own negligence, carelessness, recklessness and not the acts or omissions of these Defendants.

57. In the event Plaintiff sustained any injuries or damages, that may have been caused by the negligence of others, and their negligence may constitute a superseding intervening cause of the alleged injuries and damages.

58. In the event Plaintiff sustained any injuries or damages, they were caused by and were the proximate result of the negligence of the Plaintiffs, and, if so, said negligence constitutes a superseding, intervening cause of the alleged injuries and damages.

59. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, they resulted solely from an unforeseeable act of omission of persons or parties other than these Defendants for which acts or omissions these Defendants are not responsible.

60. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, they were solely the result of the product having been changed, altered, or modified in a condition substantially different than when it left the control of these Defendants.

61. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, they were solely the result of Plaintiffs' voluntary disregard of an open and obvious danger which could be readily determined through common knowledge and experience of the Plaintiffs.

62. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, these Defendants aver that the product was safe for normal operation and was not in any sense defective, nor was it unreasonably dangerous.

63. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, they were solely the result of Plaintiffs' misuse or abuse of the product.

64. In the event that Plaintiffs prove that the subject lawn tractor was defective, any such alleged defect was neither substantial nor a proximate cause of the Plaintiffs' injuries and, therefore, these Defendants are not liable for the same.

65. In the event Plaintiffs sustained any injuries and/or damages, they were caused by Plaintiffs' failure to use the product in accordance with the warnings and instructions as provided by these Defendants.

66. Plaintiffs' cause of actions are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

WHEREFORE, these Defendants request that judgment be entered in their favor and against the Plaintiffs.
