COMPLAINT

Now come Plaintiffs Donald L. Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb, by and through their undersigned counsel, Smigel, Anderson & Sacks, LLP, and file the within Complaint, averring as follows:

1. Plaintiffs, Donald L. Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb, husband and wife, are adult individuals residing at 125 Clay Road, Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.
2. Defendant, Dolores Shook, is an adult individual residing at 673 Nicktown Hill Road, Northern Cambria, Cambria County, Pennsylvania.
3. At the time of the accident in question, Plaintiffs were covered under an automobile insurance policy which provided them with the full tort option.
4. The facts and circumstances giving rise to this action occurred at approximately 11:50 a.m., Sunday, November 7, 1999, on State Route 53 in Decatur Township, Clearfield County, Pennsylvania, south of Osceola Mills.

5. At the aforementioned time and place, Plaintiffs were passengers in a 1990 Volvo 240 station wagon owned and driven by Ms. Demchak-Herb's father, Maxim Demchak. Mr. Demchak was driving in a southerly direction on State Route 53 at the time.

6. At the aforementioned time and place, Defendant Dolores Shook was driving her vehicle, a 1966 Buick LeSabre, north on State Route 53.

7. Rounding a curve to the right, Mrs. Shook permitted her car to drift left over the double centerline, completely into the southbound lane, whereupon her car struck Mr. Demchak's car head-on, causing Plaintiffs to suffer serious and permanent bodily injuries.

8. The aforementioned collision, and the injuries and damages sustained by the Plaintiffs, as set forth hereafter, were the direct result of the negligence, carelessness and recklessness of the Defendant in that she:

- (a) Failed to keep alert and maintain a proper watch for the presence of other motor vehicles on the roadway;

- (b) Failed to drive her vehicle with due regard for the highway and traffic conditions that were existing and of which she was or should have been aware;

- (c) Failed to keep her vehicle under control;

- (d) Continued to operate her vehicle in a direction towards the vehicle Plaintiffs were in when she saw, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have seen that further operation in that direction would result in a collision;

- (e) Failed to take evasive action to avoid striking the vehicle in front of her;

- (f) Failed to avoid hitting the vehicle the Plaintiffs were in when she saw or should have seen that that vehicle was on the road in full view; and

(g) Failed to drive on the right side of the road in violation of §3301(a) of the Motor Vehicle Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

(h) Failed to pass the oncoming car driven by Mr. Demchak, which was proceeding in the opposite direction, to the right in violation of §3302 of the Motor Vehicle Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

(i) Failed to keep her vehicle in her lane of traffic as clearly marked on the road in violation of §3309 of the Motor Vehicle Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;
and

(j) Drove her vehicle in a careless and reckless fashion, in violation of §3714 of the Motor Vehicle Code of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania;

MOTION TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
AND/OR MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND/OR MOTION IN LIMINE

Now Comes Defendant Dolores Shook by her attorneys, Lee, Green & Reiter, Inc., pursuant to Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 4019.21 and 4019 and Pennsylvania Rule of Evidence 104 and respectfully represents:

1. In this civil action Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb seeks recovery for personal injuries arising out of a motor vehicle accident. Among other things, she seeks recovery for emotional and psychological impairment. (Complaint, paragraph 14(g)).

2. In particular, Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb contends that such impairment caused her to seek treatment and care with Franco Psychological Associates. Further, she contends that such impairment caused her to abuse alcohol and to seek treatment and care with the Caron Foundation. She seeks recovery of her out of pocket expenses for such treatment and care in the total amount of $8,450.06.

3. Discovery proceedings in this civil action have disclosed that prior to this accident Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb had been diagnosed with depression and had treated for this condition among others with Franco Psychological Associates. They have also revealed that prior to this accident Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb had abused alcohol and had treated for this condition.

4. As part of discovery proceedings, on July 7, 2004, Defendant Dolores Shook served Notices of Intent to Serve Subpoenas on Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation to produce their records relating to their treatment and care of Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb. Copies of the notices are attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

5. No timely objections having been received, on July 27, 2004, Defendant Dolores Shook served the subpoenas on Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation.

6. On August 17, 2004, Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb objected to the service of said subpoenas. Copies of the Objections are attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

7. Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb objects to the disclosure of the requested records by Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation for the following reasons:

- a) The records are privileged under the doctor-patient privilege;
- b) The records are irrelevant and/or have no probative value in determining Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb's damages;
- c) Disclosure of the records would expose Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression and ridicule, which outweigh any probative value the records might have;
- d) As to the records of Franco Psychological Associates, Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb has produced a summary prepared by her treating psychologist of her treatment and care from November, 1999 to May, 2003. Further disclosures from these records would expose Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression and ridicule; and,

e) As to the records of the Caron Foundation, Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb has produced the Caron Foundation's billing statements. Further disclosures from these records would expose Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression and ridicule.

8. In this civil action, the complete records of Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb's treatment and care with Franco Psychological Associates, pre and post accident, and with the Caron Foundation are relevant and admissible on the issues of causation and the nature and extent of her claimed emotional and psychological impairment.

9. By filing a civil action and claiming damages for emotional and psychological impairment, Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb has impliedly waived any statutory or common law privileges pertaining to the confidentiality of records of psychological or alcohol abuse treatment and confidentiality of communications to licensed physicians and/or psychologists.

10. Good cause exists to compel Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb, Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation to release and provide their records of Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb's treatment and care.

11. If such records are not released and provided to Defendant Dolores Snook, she will be prejudiced in her ability to defend against Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb's claims for emotional and psychological impairment.

12. Defendant Dolores Shook has no means to obtain the information contained in said records from other sources.

WHEREFORE, Defendant Dolores Shook respectfully requests that Your Honorable Court issue an Order:

- 1 Directing Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb to execute an appropriate authorization for the release of such records to Defendant Dolores Shook.
- 2 Directing Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation to release the records of Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb to Defendant Dolores Shook.
- 3 Precluding Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb from proving and recovering any damages for emotional and psychological impairment, to include her out of pocket expenses paid to Franco Psychological Associates and the Caron Foundation.
- 4 Such other relief as the Court deems appropriate.

PLAINTIFF SUSAN DEMCHAK-HERB'S OBJECTIONS
TO DEFENDANT'S SUBPOENA TO FRANCO PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATES
PURSUANT TO RULE 4009.21

Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb hereby objects to the proposed subpoena that is attached to these objections for the following reasons:

1. Plaintiff Demchak-Herb has been a patient of Dr. Kathryn Ellis, Psychologist, Franco Psychological Associates, Carlisle, PA, since the 1980's. With regard to the medical records compiled on her as a result of her care with Dr. Ellis prior to the accident giving rise to Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's complaint, which accident occurred on November 7, 1999, those records should not be disclosed on the following grounds:

a. These records are privileged under the doctor-patient privilege. Under this privilege, Plaintiff Demchak-Herb is protected from the disclosure of these records. Dr. Ellis and the Franco Psychological Associates cannot unilaterally waive this privilege and release these records. Further, there is no statutory authority in the Commonwealth requiring these records disclosure.

b. Because these records contain information about Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's mental health, the disclosure of the information contained in them would expose and subject Plaintiff Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression, and ridicule.

c. Plaintiff Demchak-Herb was a passenger who was injured in a car accident on November 7, 1999. No information contained in these records would have any probative value in determining the Defendant's negligence in this case or the damages Plaintiff Demchak-Herb sustained in the accident. Non-disclosure of these records outweighs any probative value that release of this information would have.

2. With regard to records compiled on Plaintiff Demchak-Herb after the accident on November 7, 1999, those records also should not be released based upon the following grounds:

a. These records are privileged under the doctor-patient privilege. Under this privilege, Plaintiff Demchak-Herb is protected from the disclosure of these records by her doctor under this privilege.

b. In April 2003, Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's doctor, Dr. Kathryn Ellis, prepared a summary of Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's medical records for the period from November 1999 to 2003. These were provided to Defendant's counsel in Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's discovery responses on or about May 5, 2003. Further disclosures from these records would expose and subject Plaintiff Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression, and ridicule.

Plaintiff Susan Demchak-Herb hereby objects to the proposed subpoena that is attached to these objections for the following reasons:

1. On October 15, 2000, Plaintiff Demchak-Herb was admitted to the Caron Foundation on an in-patient basis. She was discharged from the Caron Foundation on November 10, 2000. With regard to the records compiled on her as a result of her in-patient stay at the Foundation, these records should not be disclosed on the following grounds:

a. These records are privileged under the doctor-patient privilege. Under this privilege, Plaintiff Demchak-Herb is protected from the disclosure of these records. The Caron Foundation cannot unilaterally decide to waive this privilege and release her records. Further, there is no statutory authority in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania requiring that these records be disclosed.

b. Because these records contain information about Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's mental health, the disclosure of the information contained in them would expose and subject Plaintiff Demchak-Herb to unreasonable embarrassment, oppression, and ridicule.

c. In April and May 2003, the Caron Foundation provided the billing records related to the treatment Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's received while an in-patient at the foundation. These have been provided to Defendant's counsel in Plaintiff Demchak-Herb's discovery responses on or about May 5, 2003. In addition to the questions allowed by Pa. R. C. P. No. 220.1, Plaintiffs propose the following questions on Voir Dire:

1. Whether any of the jurors or members of their immediate families have been or are represented by either party's counsel or any of counsels' law partners or associates.
2. Whether any of the jurors or members of their immediate families are personal acquaintances of any of the parties herein, witnesses, their counsel or counsels' law partners or associates.
3. Whether any of the jurors or members of their immediate families are personally familiar with any of the facts of the case leading to the lawsuit by the Plaintiff.
4. Whether any members of the jury panel are legally trained in any way.
5. Whether or not any of the jurors or members of their immediate families or relatives either owns stock or are in the business of investigating claims. If so, the name, address and identity of such persons and the relationship to the juror. See, Aetna v. Lawrence, 428 Pa. 424, 239 A.2d 346 (1968).
6. Whether any of the jurors or members of their families or relatives either owns stock or are employed by an insurance carrier. 7. Whether any of the jurors have recently read anything in the newspapers or magazines or heard anything on the radio or television concerning the "liability insurance crisis." If yes, what that information has been, what judgments they have drawn therefrom, and whether their conduct as jurors in the present action would be affected thereby.

8. Whether any of the jurors believe there are too many lawsuits. On what do you base your opinion? How would this affect your view of this case should you be chosen as a juror?

9. Whether any of the jurors have read anything in a newspaper or other publication, seen anything on television or heard anything on the radio about tort laws or proposed changes in tort laws, such that you question your ability to be fair and impartial in this case.

10. Whether the jury understands that in the event it should determine under the evidence and the law to find a verdict in favor of the Plaintiff, that it should not consider how it will be paid or who will pay it.

11. Whether any of the jurors or members of their immediate families have been involved as litigants in any civil action for damages, and to inquire, in the event of an affirmative reply, as to their status as plaintiff or defendant, the nature of the action and its ultimate outcome.

12. Whether any of the jurors have served on a prior civil jury and if they have, whether they have heard of a case in which they regard to be similar, and further, whether they understand that each case is different and it is to be decided on its own merits.

13. Whether the jurors understand--and especially those who have served on criminal juries--the important differences between a civil and a criminal case.

14. Whether any member of the jury supposes that in order for the Plaintiff to prevail the Defendant must be found "guilty" of something or whether the proof against the Defendant must be established beyond a "reasonable doubt."

15. Whether the jury will respect that portion of the charge by the Court that will indicate the Defendant's responsibility need only be established by the basis of a fair preponderance of the evidence.

16. Whether any members of the jury of the belief or mindset that what happens to an individual is the will of God and unavoidable.

17. Whether any member of the jury or a member of their immediate family has ever suffered a serious personal injury.

18. Whether any member of the jury has any feelings against people who bring a suit for injuries for pain and suffering, loss of life's pleasures, and future disability.

19. Whether, for any reason whatsoever, any member of the jury would prefer not to sit on this jury in this case.

20. Whether, if appropriately satisfied under the evidence and law, any member of the jury would, for any reason, hesitate to award a substantial verdict.

Respectfully submitted,

IN RE: DONALD HERB + SUSAN DEMCHAK-HERB VS.
DOLORES SHOOK

Re: Lindsey Demchak, guardian of Drika Feaster vs. Dolores Shook

Dear Lee:

This will confirm our discussions regarding submitting Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb's personal injury claims, as set forth in the above-captioned civil action, to binding arbitration.

The parties are willing to submit said claims to binding arbitration before a panel of three arbitrators. Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb will, collectively, select one arbitrator; Dolores Shook will select one arbitrator, and the two arbitrators selected will select a third arbitrator. Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb will pay the cost of their arbitrator, Dolores Shook will pay the cost of her arbitrator and they each will pay one-half of the cost of the third arbitrator.

The arbitration will be conducted pursuant to the provisions of the Uniform Arbitration Act, Subchapter A, pertaining to Statutory Arbitration.

Dolores Shook will stipulate to the admission into evidence of those medical records pertaining to Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb, which were provided to her counsel under their counsel's letter dated January 21, 2005.

Should counsel for Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb wish to present additional testimony from James Rodgers, M.D., or Robert Wolfe, he will depose them or call them as witnesses at the arbitration hearing.

The arbitration will be subject to a high-low award agreement. Any individual award entered for Donald Herb shall not be less than $30,000.00 nor more than $89,453.12, and any individual award entered for Susan Demchak-Herb shall not be less than $25,000.00 nor more than $98,659.00, provided, however, that the total of both individual awards shall not be more than $155,153.87. The parties further agree that any amounts previously paid to Donald Herb and Susan Demchak-Herb by or on behalf of Dolores Shook shall not reduce the low amounts under this high-low agreement.

If the above correctly states your understanding of the parties' binding arbitration agreement, please sign and date this letter where indicated.

If you have any questions, please give me a call.

Very truly yours,
